The Insane Act of a Drunken and Jealous Husband.

Batesville, O., November 8.—A horrible tragedy became known here yesterday morning.

F. M. Ffedenbaugh, a wealthy young German, who three years ago married the daughter of a neighboring farmer, came home late saturday night intoxicated, and entering the room where his wife and child were sleeping, assaulted them with an axe. His wife's skull was crushed by a single blow, and then he cut his son's threat with the edge of the axe. He then went to the room where Mrs. Stevens, a visitor, and her child and servant were sleeping, and killed Mrs. Stepheno's and her child. The servant girl was a wakened and sprang towards the door, but was knocked seneices and left for dead. Upon recevering consciousness, she gave the alarm, and neighbors came to the house. It was not until morning that the marderer was found in a tobacco house with his throat cut. He is not faisily injured. Jealousy, drunkeries and healty fayired.
