Section 5 was read, and Alderman Lockwood tiled attention to the fact that the section slid the original contract binding in all other spects than those referred to in the proposed impromise. One of these respects was that se city was bound to pay 800 for the first, and 50 for the second hundred hydrants that might hereafter creeted. There was a lengthy ariment of this point, the discussion being upon the possibility of the waterworks company holdgithe city to such contract. Mr. Lockwood
