AUSTIN. A NEW TRIAL IN THE BOYCE CASE—REBO BOYCE HAS CALLED AN EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Special Telegrams. AUSTIN, March 2.—Judge Turner today granted the motion for a new trial in the Rebo Boyce case. He delivered an opinion orally.

The reporter was informed that the charter for the Eagle Pass & Colorado railroad was sent back to the legislature to remedy a technical flaw, before it could be filed.

The gas company took down all the street lamps in the city. This will leave Austin in total darkness, except for occasional moonlight, unless some extraordinary change is made in the solar system.

It is reported that some anti-protection farmers have stopped building on the narrow gauge road, where it will join the International.

The funeral of Mrs. J. W. K. was very largely attended this morning from the Southern Presbyterian church.

The governor today issued the following proclamation, convening a special session of the legislature.

EXECUTIVE ORDER, Austin, Tex., March 1st, 1882. Whereas, an extraordinary occasion has arisen for action of the legislature, now therefore, I, O. M. Roberts, governor of Texas, do hereby convene the legislature on the 5th of April, 1882, for the purpose of discussing the following subjects:

First, to appropriate the state into congressional and senatorial and representative districts.

Second, to make provision for supplying the public schools, and to provide for the maintenance of the same.

To make provision for everything that may be necessary for the support of the public schools, and to provide for the maintenance of the same.

To make further provision for the support of the public schools, and to provide for the maintenance of the same.

THE TERRIBLE FLOODS. EXTENT OF THE SUFFERING—PEOPLE AND ANIMALS STARVING FOR FOOD—ADDITIONAL EXTENSIVE BREAKS OF LEVEES—THE RIVER FALLING.

NEW YORK, March 2.—A special to the Herald from Memphis, Helena and other points on the Mississippi gives particulars of disasters now being caused by the floods.

A Memphis dispatch says that from Memphis to Madison, Arkansas, forty miles to the west, there is nothing but one wide expanse of water.

The Memphis & Little Rock railway between Memphis and Madison has been discontinued for nearly four weeks.

Communication between Memphis and Little Rock is kept up by steamers down the Mississippi to the mouth of the Arkansas river, which empties into the Mississippi ten miles above Helena; thence up the St. Francis to Madison; where daily trains connect with others for this city.

It is estimated that in the Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and the Dominion of Wales, there are not less than 15,000,000 acres that are in a destitute condition.

Highly sensational stories were circulated in the city yesterday, claiming that a serious altercation with the foundation of a new church, was being conducted in the city.

A SEASON OF GREAT EXCITEMENT IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Occasioned by a Cowardly Attempt to take the Life of the Queen.

WAS, WHILE ENSTRAINING HER COACH, WAS FIRED UPON BY A FILTHY MISERABLE, WHO NARROWLY ESCAPED WITH HIS LIFE.

The Queen Drove Off, apparently Not Knowing What Had Happened, and Safely Reached the Castle, While the Friend Went to Prison.

ENGLAND. ANOTHER DENISH ATTEMPT ON THE LIFE OF QUEEN VICTORIA—THE DETAILS.

LONDON, March 2.—The queen was entering her carriage this evening, a man in the station yard deliberately fired a pistol at her. The man was a middle-aged, stout, and well-dressed man, and was taken to the station. No one was hurt. The man gave his name as Robert MacLean. The queen drove off to her castle immediately after the attempt, and was standing near by when a man standing at the entrance to the station yard among a number of people, fired a pistol at her.

There was a large crowd of spectators gathered about the queen's carriage when she was fired upon. The man who fired the shot was immediately driven to the castle, but before he reached the castle he had been seized by Captain of Borough, who was on duty at the station. He was violently used by the crowd, and was only rescued from them when three men rushed to his assistance.

The pistol was captured by one of the crowd. MacLean, who is miserably clad, was taken into High street, and thence conveyed to the police station in a cab. He is now being held in the custody of the police.

The general opinion is that it was the work of a fanatic, and that the man was a member of the Fenian Brotherhood. The queen's carriage was not hurt, and she was not injured.
