B FEEDING HAS PROFITABLE ON WOOD RANCH

Crawford passed through Ar- tis morning on his way to Cottonwood where he and W. are feeding about 4500 feeding lambs for several and is this year feeding 000 head, about half at the place on the Cottonwood and at his place in the Otis dis- the Carlsbad project. He is perimenting with cattle feed- year on a small scale and proves as successful as lamb he will go into it more exten- next season.

Crawford is an old timer in and has extensive cattle, sheep, and mercantile interests in Lea counties.

An Attractive Window Display Helps to Sell

One of the successful ways of advertising is by attractive window displays. Contrary to the general opinion, a good window display is attractive in a small town as well as in a large one. Lots of people, including the ladies, like to window shop and it is through this means that many goods are sold.

No doubt you have noticed that something new may always be found in the windows of the Palace Drug Store. Part of the credit we believe goes to Aubrey Watson, who has gained reputation as an artistic window decorator and who is always on the job when something new is received by the store.

BURSUM AND HUNTER ADDRESS VOTERS FOR GOP AND THIRD PARTY

Bursum Speaks Thursday and Upholds the Party Principles. Hunter Tells Audience About La Follette and Party.

Senator H. O. Bursum, who arrived in Artesia Thursday of the Festival in company with Prager Miller and Robert Halley, spoke to a fair sized audience at the Airdome Thursday afternoon, in the interest of his candidacy as the republican nominee for reelection to the United States Senate.

Senator Bursum discussed chiefly two issues of the campaign, the tariff and the Howell-Barkley railroad bill. The present republican tariff measure was warmly defended by the Senator, who stated the United States today is deriving the greatest revenue in its history from the tariff law now operating. He stated the reason he opposed the Howell-Barkley railroad bill was because the people would have no voice in the settlement of disputes between the organized labor and the railroads, although 106,000,000 people would be deprived of the rights, which intimately effects them in their daily life.

In his concluding remarks Senator Bursum also defended the constitution and touched upon the attack of the Supreme court.

The second political address of the Festival was made Friday at 11:30 by J. Hunter, of Albuquerque, who addressed the largest political audience assembled here in the interests of the La Follette-Wheeler ticket.

Referring to the progressive ticket, Mr. Hunter outlined the principals for which the progressive party stood and touched upon the accomplishment of La Follette, dwelling at length upon his record as Senator from Wisconsin and what the people of Wisconsin thought of him.

Mr. Hunter, who is a fluent speaker, delighted his hearers. At the conclusion of his address about 200 La Follette-Wheeler buttons were passed out.

PLANS UNDER WAY TO FORM A RIFLE CLUB—WANTS 20 MEMBERS

Many in and around Artesia it is learned are interested in the formation of a civilian rifle company. In order to meet the plans and specifications of the government it is necessary to form a company of twenty men or boys. Supplies and ammunition can be secured from the government upon application by the parties interested. A small initiation fee will also be charged to meet the preliminary expenses incidental to an organization of this kind. The fee charged will be put in a treasury to meet other expenses as they may arise.

Other small towns have found an organization of this kind very profitable. A company in one small town not as large as Artesia won the national championship last year. Further details about the company will probably be announced later.

T. Hannett, Senatorial nominee, Sam Bratton, Corporation Commissioner, Ed. C. Tafaya and Geo. Beal.

The committee has arranged the speaking date on Saturday so that it will be convenient for all farmers to attend who can. An effort will be made to have a barbecue and also to secure the Carlsbad municipal band to furnish music for the occasion. All candidates will probably be slated for short talks. The principal addresses will be given by Bratton and Hannett. The speaking will start promptly at 1:30.

Further announcement with reference to the arrangements will be made later by the committee.

FRIDAY TO BE BIG DAY AT THE ROSWELL C. C.—MANY LOCALS WILL GO

Many Artesia people are planning to attend the Roswell cotton carnival Friday, which is understood will be Artesia's day there. Banners will be provided for those who can go and it is expected the folks here will make a nice showing.

Additional features of the Artesia attractions will be the oil float in operation and in the Artesia booth there will be many products, including the small bottles of oil bearing the label "Artesia Oil City."

The Juvenile band will also be on hand and it is expected they will give a good account of themselves.

MISS FULLEN IS QUEEN

At 11 o'clock Saturday night, Rosemary Fullen was crowned Queen of the Chaves County Cotton Carnival and presented with the beautiful diamond ring. Voting in the contest continued fast during the hours of the ball and several hundred coupons were crowded into the box at the last moment. A large rodeo vote gave Mrs. Bob Fletcher a big vote for winner of the second prize. Carlsbad voluntarily surrendered leaving the first place to be decided between Miss Fullen and Mrs. Fletcher. In the third and fourth places Miss Alberts and Miss Davis held an interesting race with Miss Davis winning the third prize. The contest throughout has been characterized by good fellowship with the candidates and managers working hard in a fair race.

In the final scores Miss Fullen polled 102,675, Mrs. Bob Fletcher 77,190, Laila Davis 6800 and Norma Alberts 5835.

CRIMINAL CASES CARRIED OVER UNTIL MARCH TERM

All of the criminal cases scheduled to come up before the District court at the October term have been carried over until March it was learned here. Several civil suits will possibly be tried, but both the grand jury and the petit jury summoned for the opening of the court at Carlsbad have been discharged.

Cotton Makes Another Slump Tues. Morning

King cotton seems to have been due for a tumble for yesterday the price went off 158 points. The rapid decline according to the general opinion is due to the recent government report. The market closed last night at 23.85 and opened this morning at 23.86, with a downward tendency.

As to what effect the recent rain will have on the staple is speculative to some extent. It is believed that sample will bleach out again after a few days of New Mexico sunshine.

Cotton pickers are still in demand here and more can probably be used now as the staple is opening up rapidly during the past few days.

Baron Auriemma Gives Closing Program Last Night; Assisted by Local Talent; Pleases a Large Audience.

Baron Auriemma, who is with the southwestern division of the Salvation army at El Paso made his annual visit to Artesia this week. The Baron, who is better known as "Happy Jim," because he radiates sunshine where he goes, enjoys a large acquaintance here, although his visits have been occasional.

"Happy" reports that he has raised to date more than $250.00 and expects to reach the quota of $300.00 before he leaves for Roswell this afternoon. Tuesday night a total of $181.00 had been raised among the business men here. $27.00 was secured for the Army when he made a visit to Hope Saturday. The program last night at the Majestic theatre netted a total of $38.36, which included the free will donation and a per cent of the proceeds from the admission charges to the show.

An additional amount has been raised this morning, but it is not known whether the quota has been reached.

A splendid program was rendered by "Happy" last night, who was assisted by local talents. The program given by the Baron last year won him an enviable reputation as a singer. Numbers were turned away from the building last night because standing room was at a premium.

Mrs. Ella Kaiser, county superintendent of schools, was here last week during the Festival. Before her return to Carlsbad she arranged to place another teacher in the Atoka school. This school, which Miss Mildred Frisch is teaching was so overcrowded that the teacher could not do justice to the children. Miss Opal Martin was elected to handle the surplus.

RECENT RAINS

Illinois No. 4 Makes Good Showing In a Pump Test

The first official long pumping test was made of the Illinois No. 4, Saturday when it was pumped for twenty hours. 230 barrels of oil was put into the tank during this time. The pumping was done through a two inch tubing and in addition the well flowed a number of barrels while being pumped. As the oil was not lowered considerable it is evident that a much larger amount of oil could have been pumped had a larger casing been used.

Another improvement for the oil field is the large central power plant which is being built by the Illinois Company, near their three wells. The plant when completed will be able to pump 20 wells at one time. The construction work is in charge of Frank Marshall, of Kansas.

The Illinois No. 5, 500 feet south of well No. 3, in sec. 32-18-28 is reported to be on top of the sand, awaiting the arrival of Van Welch, who is expected to return today. While it is not definitely known what the plans of the company are, it is understood that the well will be completed and shot.

The Walker-Mitchell interests, who recently drilled a very promising well in the SW 1/4 of Sec. 28-18-28 are awaiting the orders from the officials. Present indications point to the fact that this well will be the best in the field. The well will probably nearest approach the gusher type since the large volume of gas was found above the oil sand, enough to shove the oil out as fast as it comes near the gas stratum. Arrangements it is learned will likely be made to have the well shot along with the Illinois No. 5. Walker-Mitchell No. 1 extends the field three quarters of a mile eastward from the Illinois wells.

If both wells are shot, the event will create quite a bit of interest. Shooting wells has become a rather common place event now, but if doubled up will make things more lively.

Etz No. 1, Oscar Howard et al., in Sec. 22, Twp. 18-27, drilling below 1850 feet. Are reported in a promising formation.

Brainard No. 1, in Sec. 29, Twp. 17-27 set about 1000 feet of 8 1/4 inch casing in the hole this week. Drilling has been resumed.

McClay No. 1, in SW 1/4 of Sec. 28, Twp. 17-27 is drilling below 150 feet. Daugherty No. 1, William Dooley, in Sec. 3, Twp. 17-27 which has been delayed for several weeks by fishing job, expects to resume drilling soon. Drilling rig for Ferson No. 1 in SW 1/4 of NE 1/4 Sec. 29, Twp. 18-28 has been shipped from the Kansas field.

Roswell No. 1, New State Oil Co., in Sec. 4, Twp. 18-28 is drilling below 1500 feet and expects to reach the sand within the next two weeks. Fine oil and gas showings have been encountered in this well.

The Picher Oil and Gas Co. spudded in their No. 2 well this week, 250 feet from the SE corner of Sec. 12, Twp. 18-27, being a few hundred feet SE of their No. 1. Their No. 1 is making nice daily flows, but will not be pumped until they have additional storage facilities.

Rotary No. 1, to go in NE 1/4 of Sec. 30, Twp. 18-28, is expected to arrive this week. Rig was shipped out of Wichita Falls, a few days ago. California No. 1, McCrary permit. (Continued on last page, column 1)

ROSWELL HIGH WINS FAST FOOTBALL GAME AT ARTESIA FRIDAY

Artesia High School Boys Are Defeated But Put Up a Good Fight in the First Game of Season. Locals Hold 2nd Half Scoreless.

The Artesia and Roswell high school football teams met on the gridiron for the first football game of the season on last Friday afternoon before one of the largest crowds to ever attend a football game at Artesia. The Roswell high gridsters won the contest by a twelve to nothing score, winning their two touchdowns in the first part of the game.

Roswell kicked off to Burns, who returned the ball to the twenty yard line. Artesia made first down but lost the ball on the next play. The line-plunging Roswell backs rapidly advanced the ball to the three yard line when Flood rushed the center of the Artesia line for the initial score. The attempt for extra point by means of a drop kick failed as Flood punted instead of drop kicking the ball. Roswell again kicked off and advanced the ball near the goal line by a series of line plunges. The first quarter ended with the ball in Roswell's possession on the ten yard line. Soon after the beginning of the second quarter, Cannon rushed across the line by a tackle smash. Roswell attempted to make the extra point by means of a forward pass, which was intercepted by Burns. From this point of the game, until the final whistle, both teams fought like demons, neither eleven being able to score or advance the ball with any degree of success. The Artesia lads advanced the ball within scoring distance during the third quarter but were handicapped by the lack of a kicker to make a field goal. Roswell won the ball on downs. The final whistle found the ball in Roswell's possession near the middle of the gridiron.

NEAL ROBINS PASSES AWAY TUESDAY NIGHT TO BE BURIED IN OKLA.

Noel Robins, age about 38, a farmer living one and one-half miles south-east of Artesia died at his home Tuesday evening at 9 p. m. Death resulted instantly from hemorrhage of the lungs. Mr. Robins came here about eight months ago for his health and it was hoped that the climate here might be beneficial to his condition. He had been in ill health for one year.

The body was placed in McClay's undertaking parlors and prepared for shipment Wednesday morning and was sent to Peggs, Oklahoma Wednesday evening on the 8:42 train. Burial will be made at Peggs, the former home of Mr. Robins.

He is survived by a wife and two small children and also a father and mother, living in Oklahoma, both of whom were at the bedside at the time of his death.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Jack Ward celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary Monday evening with the able assistance of eight of her little girl friends. Games were played on the lawn and afterwards the wee maidens gathered around the fireplace and told ghost stories in the firelight, until they were almost afraid to go home. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following guests—Lilla Jackson, Nellie May Hoffman, Margaret Frisch, Violet Ohnemus, Nelda Wilson, Carrie Elizabeth Cowan, Wilma Robinson, and Catherine Filbert.

SURVEY OF THE PIPE LINE STARTED—WILL BE COMPLETED SOON

A survey of the pipe line running from Artesia to the oilfield and terminating at the Illinois No. 3 well is now under way. The work is under the direction of Will Benson, of Artesia. Several miles of the line has been surveyed according to information. The preliminary survey work which started near the city limits has been carried east to the bridge and will proceed from the bridge in the direction of the Picher No. 1.

All of the pipe line has now arrived and has been unloaded. The next step in the procedure of the pipe line will be securing the proper right of way. The survey will soon be made at the present rate and actual construction work will start.

WHO USES NEW MEXICO ROADS?

Some interesting statistics are being compiled by the State Highway Department as a result of the traffic census which the department, in cooperation with the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, has conducted during the past six weeks at approximately 200 points throughout the state.

Final reports are not yet completed, but the figures already submitted give some enlightening information as to the number of out-of-state cars which traverse New Mexico's highways.

For instance: on the Roswell-Clovis road, during the four days, August 14 to August 19th inclusive, there were recorded a total of 427 passenger autos, of which 305, or 71 per cent carried foreign licenses. On the same highway, of the 103 pneumatic tire trucks which passed, 73, or 71 per cent were foreign; and of the solid tire trucks which give the hardest wear and tear to the roads, all bore foreign licenses.

On the Alamogordo-El Paso road, from August 16 to 20th, a total of 515 passenger cars passed, of which 416, or 81 per cent were foreign. Of the pneumatic tire trucks, 32 per cent were foreign; and the solid tire trucks were all out-of-state cars.

In De Baca County, on the Ft. Sumner-Tular highway, out of a total of 704 passenger cars, 56 per cent were foreign; and 44 per cent of the pneumatic tire trucks bore foreign licenses.

And within the city limits of Roswell, of the 1293 passenger cars noted, 448, or 35 per cent were foreign.

When the figures from this census are finally analyzed, there will be no further question as to who uses New Mexico's roads.

WHAT THE FEDERAL GOVT. GETS FOR ROYALTY

It is interesting to note that the reported receipts of the federal government from bonuses, royalties and rentals under the law providing for leasing mineral rights on the public domain aggregated $13,627,588 for the year ending June 30, 1924, from oil lands in eleven states.

Thirty-seven and five-tenths per cent of this sum goes to the states from which the oil was taken, 52.5 per cent to the reclamation fund and 10 per cent is placed in the federal treasury.

What a contrast these actual cash receipts are from oil wells financed and developed by private enterprise compared with public expenditures which would have to be made to produce the same net profit. Under the leasing system the government stands no loss for dry wells and is assured of an absolute profit on every barrel of oil.

A FINE SCHOOL

The New Mexico Normal University at Las Cruces is a different school since the Democratic Board of Regents, headed by former Governor M. A. Otero, took charge. They found an indebtedness of over $108,000 left from previous Republican administrations, and salaries owing teachers for four months. The Democratic board saved $5,000 on the appropriation in the first three months. The back debts are being gradually paid and the morale of the institution is remarkably changed for the better.

NO REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET

There will be no republican county ticket according to a decision of the Central committee which met in Carlsbad last Friday. It has been understood that the republicans would have a full county and district ticket and it was not learned why the committee made a negative decision.

CHOOSING CAREERS

By Charles Henry Macintosh in the Rotarian

Should parents choose careers for their children?

All parents appear to be divided, like ancient Gaul, into three parts upon this problem.

There are parents whose fondest hope it is that their children shall follow in their own footsteps.

There are other parents who pray that their children may enter almost any other field than the one which they have found to be filled with hard work and disappointed ambitions. Parents of this type usually have a pet profession in which they have longed to shine, but were debarred for any one of a dozen reasons. Into this pet profession they project their children if it is humanly possible to do so.

Then there is the third type—parents who say the children's lives belong to themselves and must be lived by themselves—let them pick their own fields for future activity!

The third type is probably more nearly right than any of the others, because it permits its progeny to follow in father's footsteps, if it wants to; or to do what father always wanted to do but couldn't, if it can; or to choose some entirely different career, perhaps one based upon new needs which have come up since father was career-choosing, such as the new needs for the radio and synthetic gin.

Even those open-minded and tolerant parents, however, are apt to err in leaving their children entirely unguided in the choice of a career.

How does a young person of eighteen know in what field of human activity his or her efforts will garner the greatest crops? What does an eighteen-year-old know about human activities anyhow? Nothing; except about the very few activities with which he (oh, for a sexless pronoun—but "he" will have to do double duty henceforth!) may have seen in action—such as those of the fireman the policeman, the school-teacher, the grocer and the store-keeper generally.

If father is a doctor or a banker, or a bricklayer, he knows something about that, too, but not much. Father usually doesn't bring his business home with him.

To choose wisely, one must first know the things among which the choice is to be made. Offer a baby its choice between a thousand-dollar banknote and a bright new shiny silver dollar—and you will save nine hundred and ninety-nine dollars!

Show a native of Senegambia a tiny lead-covered tube of radium in your left hand and a brass cartridge in your right—and your right will be empty before you can wink!

Both baby and the Senegambian have chosen wisely according to their lights. Baby chooses the bright dollar rather than the dirty paper because bright dollars are fine for cutting teeth. The Senegambian sees no use for the dull tube, but for the bright one he will bore a hole in his ear.

Truly wise choice, then, depends entirely upon complete knowledge.

There isn't anything in life more important than deciding what shall be done with it, yet most young people choose mates more thoughtfully than they choose careers—and the annals of divorce courts say that they are none too careful in choosing mates!

As a matter of fact, few people choose their own careers. They are chosen for them by parents, or decided by the classified columns of the daily paper, or governed entirely by chance.

The thousand and eleven doors are open—CHOOSE! says society; and the youngins don't know enough to choose wisely.

What is to be done about it? The answer is inevitable: add a course in career-choosing to the educational curriculum.

"Ha-ha!" says the teacher, surfeited with new courses, "There isn't time now for all a child ought to learn!"

But the true purpose of education is to prepare for life, isn't it? and what good is it, with all its courses, if it doesn't settle the first problem: What'll we do?

Cut out some of the less essential subjects, if necessary, but let's at least give the coming generation a chance to choose wisely what it will do with and in its lives! Besides, it doesn't have to be done in a special study period. Better not. Let it be a course of simple talks given by men and women in different lines of work, telling as clearly and as interestingly as possible, about their work.

One such talk a week would enable a child to amass an immense amount of knowledge of real life before he was ready to get out and into it.

The order to pay the dividend came in answer to a petition filed by attorneys for the receiver stating that the bank was ready to pay it. The dividend is the first to be paid since the bank closed its doors on January 17, 1924. It will release nearly $200,000 in deposits.

CARRIZO-CORONA ROAD

Work began this week on the Carrizo-Corona road, when Bill Ferguson, who is employed by the State Highway Commission, took tents, tools, graders, tractors and men out on the line. The county joined the state in making an appropriation for this work, and the state will direct the expenditure. The amount to be expended will be between $3,500 and $5,000 the latter figure probably being the closer one. The work quite likely will extend into mid-winter.

With an accusation against him scheduled for hearing at the term of the district court which opened at Santa Rosa, Monday, Simon Serrano resigned as county treasurer of Gaudalope county, according to word to the state comptroller's office.

The accusation charges a number of offenses in connection with Serrano's administration of the county office.

At the time the accusation was filed, Judge D. J. Leahy suspended Serrano pending the hearing and appointed J. J. Moise of Santa Rosa as acting county treasurer. His resignation at this time, however, creates a vacancy that the county commissioner may fill.

The accusation was prepared by Assistant State Comptroller A. N. Cornell and filed by District Attorney Luis E. Armijo.

CHEMALI CAR OVERTURNS—GETS BROKEN SHOULDER

Mucio Chemali, of the Popular dry goods company, met with quite a serious accident Wednesday of this week when his car overturned on the highway south of town while going at a high rate of speed. Considering seriousness of similar accidents, Chemali feels thankful that he sustained only a broken collar bone and minor bruises.

The accident occurred near Loving when he and two other young men were on their way to Carlsbad. A rear wheel broke down while the car was going at high speed and the machine turned completely over. The two other occupants were uninjured.—Current.

RATON TURNS OUT TO HEAR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

RATON.—Raton turned out a record breaking crowd for the Democratic speaking party of Bratton-Hannett-Tafoya here last night. Hannett, candidate for Governor, asserted that Jaramillo was slated for return to his old position in case of Republican victory in the state. He also discussed the Valencia County audit in which Jaramillo is charged with owing the county $6,119.99 for deputy sheriffs that were never hired.

A-A-A. H. S. the battle cry of the Artesia high school, echoed from one end of Main Street to the other, Thursday night and Friday afternoon preceding the football game. A Snake dance, composed of the students of A. H. S., was lead down Main street by the cheer leaders and members of the Pep Club. The jolly bunch assembled in the busiest part of town and advertised the football game the right way.

The Dramatic club held its first party, Tuesday, September 30, at the city park. The party did not assemble until late as the greater part of the attention of the crowd was attracted by the Ferris Wheel and Merry-go-round. Numerous games were played that caused merriment throughout the evening. After a lot of "hot" work the merry makers were cooled down by eating ice cream cones.

About thirty members of the club were present and were chaperoned by Miss Cook, Miss Russell, and Miss Miss Givens.

The students and faculty wish to take this opportunity to thank the business men who gave of their time and energy in support of the school activities held during the festival. We also wish to thank the band boys who played for the football game.

Mr. J. M. Gable, representing L. G. Balfour Co., Attleboro, Mass., was here with class rings and invitations. The Senior class placed their order with Mr. Gable.

The Senior class is rather worried about one of its outstanding members. It is reported that a certain young man was seen with a certain unknown young lady Friday night. There is nothing definite—however, Chauncy might be able to furnish some information.

The Baron Auriemma, better known as "Happy Jim" was a visitor at High School Monday morning. After a very interesting talk by "Happy Jim" the assembly was favored with two beautiful selections, "Call me Back, Pall of Mine" and Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses." He was accompanied by Mrs. Ferriman at the piano. The next number was a duet, "Let the Rest of the World Go By" sung by Helen Bullock and the Baron. The assembly was dismissed by standing and singing "America."

Harold Kersey, a former student of A. H. S. came to see us Tuesday morning. He is considering taking post graduate work.

Friday, October 3rd, we went to school and we did not. The board decided to dismiss us and we were allowed to go home or take in the Festival. It is rumored that two business men used their persuasive powers to secure our holiday.

The student body was complimented last Thursday because they had kept up attendance and their lessons during the two days of the Festival.

WATTEAU GIRLS

The Watteau Girls, coming on our Lyceum course, are as dainty as the name implies, and two very clever artists that have been captivating their audiences for the past several seasons. In their quaint Shepherdess costumes, they revive the memories of the exquisite ladies of the old French court, and the rare charm depicted by the great French painter, Watteau, lives again in the clever entertainment given by these two talented misses.

The Beginners Department and the Primary Departments of the Methodist Sunday school were entertained Saturday by their teacher, Mrs. Latta and Mrs. Spence, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Pate, with an afternoon picnic. Several mothers were present. The time was spent in games, after which the lunch was served.

Beasley, Mrs. Grace Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Latta, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Franks, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vermillion, Mr. and Mrs. Solon Spence, Mrs. B. C. Many amusing games and stunts were enjoyed by the young people, after which home made candy and doughnuts were served. Mrs. Selby is proving a very efficient leader in the Epworth League work, in her able assistance to the president, Edwin Selby. The League programs are very interesting each Sunday evening. Another social is planned to be given in about a month. The young folks look forward with pleasure to these good times.

Merchants Interested in Legion Indoor Fair

How far the generosity of local merchants went toward the American Legion in Geneva, N. Y., may be seen by the fact that donations for the annual indoor fair were insured for $20,000. Every one of these donations was given to the Legion for distribution during the eight days of the event, and to be on the safe side, post officials insured them against loss by fire for the big amount. The fair was held in interest of a building fund of the Legion, the original goal of which was $15,000, but which was raised because of the excellent receipts of the event.

Favors New Gymnasium

Gov. C. C. Moore of Idaho has endorsed the project of the American Legion to construct a new gymnasium building at the University of Idaho. In a recent letter to Paul Davis, state commander of the Legion, the executive said that a memorial of that nature would be a constant reminder of the unselfish sacrifices of the men who served in the World war. Governor Moore pledged his hearty support to the movement.

is one in which the merchant himself has implicit faith—else he would not advertise it. You are safe in patronizing the merchants whose ads appear in this paper because their goods are up-to-date and never shopworn.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

THAT trade leadership is won on quality plus advertising.

THAT it is not what a business man thinks of his business that counts, its what the public thinks about it.

THAT truthful advertising brings customers to a store, and when that store sells goods or service built to a standard instead of to a price, they come back time and time again.

THAT advertising through the printed page makes a universal appeal, it creates desire which in turn creates sales.

THAT advertising has a way of forming new habits and changing old ones.

THAT persistent advertising is the key to great volume.

THAT people are not satisfied with "any old thing." They want the best. They know the best is always advertised, that is why they read the ads before they buy.

THAT business concerns that are persistent advertisers gain a reputation for giving values in both merchandise and service, for it is a well known fact that first-class concerns devote all of their time, energy and thought to quality and service to the people.

Preventing Stinking Smut of Wheat Crop

Series of Experiments Carried on in Northwest.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Bunt, or stinking smut of wheat, can be entirely prevented by sowing treated seed before the smut shower, and can be largely controlled by delaying the sowing somewhat, according to the results of experimental studies made by the United States Department of Agriculture. Infection from smut spores present in the soil may be partially prevented by treating the seed with copper sulphate or with commercial lime-sulphate applied full strength and allowed to dry. This protection is not afforded by formaldehyde. Much of the seed wheat sown in the semi-arid regions of the United States is killed by seed treatment, however, because of the threshing injury to the seed coat.

A series of experiments in the prevention and control of bunt was carried on in the Pacific Northwest and the results of these form the basis for a new bulletin just issued as Department Bulletin 1239, by the United States Department of Agriculture. According to the findings in these studies wind dissemination is the most important factor in the continued occurrence and spread of bunt in that region, where the biennial crop system is practiced.

In moist soil, bunt spores were found to lose their viability in 30 to 60 days, but in the dry air of the laboratory they retain their germinating power for 12 years or longer. Bunt spores in unbroken smut balls retain their stability throughout the winter months, and are capable of producing infection even after being subjected to alternate thawing and freezing. Spores have germinated and produced infection after lying one and one-half years in the soil.

A copy of this bulletin may be secured, as long as the supply lasts, from the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington.

"My wife wants to have an interview with you at your convenience," said the man.

"With me?" replied his employer. "What's the trouble?"

"Nothing. But she's convinced that I'm worth more money than I'm getting, and I've told her to come down and give the same line of talk to you."

Within His Rights

"What! today is no more of a legal holiday than it is day before yesterday!" snarled a disappointed motorist who stopped at the crossroads store and post office.

"Tis too!" responded the combined merchant and postmaster. "I made it one, and 'tis. If I can't make my own holidays, what in thunder am I post master for?"

THE AMERICAN LEGION

(Copy for this department supplied by the American Legion News Service.)

PRIZE-WINNER AS YOUNGEST MEMBER

The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Delaware, offered a birthday cake to the youngest member of the organization. The cake was won hands down by the young lady whose photograph is reproduced. She is Elizabeth Louise Neely, and arrived only six months ago for a permanent visit to her parents. She is a member of Delaware Post No. 1. While Elizabeth did not eat any of the huge cake that was ornamented with only one-half of a candle, she was the guest of honor at the card party also given in her honor by the auxiliary unit to the unit of the Laurence Roberts post of the American Legion, and did not trump anybody's ace which made her as popular as the prince of Wales.

The auxiliary has many claimants for "youngest members." While it is certain that in Delaware little Miss Neely is the "champion," her record is surpassed in several instances.

In Granville, N. M., as soon as a name was given to the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milk, she became a member of the Granville unit of the auxiliary. Incidentally this arrival was made strictly an all-Legion affair. Mr. Milk was commander of the local post of the Legion, and his wife, an overseas nurse, was a member both of the Legion and the auxiliary at the time. Doctors and nurses who attended little Miss, Holloway Anne, for that is her name, were Legionnaires.

But, according to all records, Miss Cynthia Ann Beyer of Duluth, Minn., is unbeaten in her record. The father, W. H. Beyer, is a member of David Wisted post of the Legion, and the mother of the post's auxiliary unit. Two weeks before Miss Cynthia's arrival, she was made a member of the David Wisted unit of the auxiliary.

Favor Schooling for Americans in China

Interest in schooling for Americans in China has grown to such an extent that Legionnaires in Kings county, New York, recently went on record favoring establishment of such institutions and offered their services in this direction.

Under County Commander Edward A. Simons, a resolution was passed by the posts represented in the Kings County Council of the American Legion, urging that the national legislative committee of the organization be instructed to seek passage of legislation establishing such institutions in the Orient.

His Cue for an Exit

George III, two years and nine months old, son of George H. Cornelius, was being punished by his mother for disobedience. Not believing in spanking, mother had taken him on her knee and was telling him why he must obey, and trying to impress on his young mind that to be a good boy he must listen and remember what she was telling him.

After a while, thinking she had said enough for the time being, mother asked: "George, do you understand me?"

George, slipped to the floor and sighed, "Yes, and now I guess I'd better check out."—Trollampolis News.

Squatting Said to Have Stunted Japanese Race

Washington.—A new theory to account for the small stature of the Japanese race has been advanced.

A member of the government health bureau says that the Japanese custom of sitting on the floor with legs cramped has retarded the development of the lower limbs of the race as a whole.

He quotes statistics which show the average stature of Japanese male students has increased half an inch since 1907 in consequence of spending less time sitting on the floor at home and more time in physical exercise at school.

As a further argument he cites the inhabitants of a fishing community in Okinawa. The men, who have been accustomed to spend most of their time squatting in the bottoms of their fishing boats, are below the average in stature and have unusually short legs.

English Excavators Find Camp Kitchen of Romans

London.—A camp house where probably in olden times Roman legions once feasted, has been found among a group of newly discovered Roman remains at Folkstone, on the English channel, where the first Romans are said to have landed. The remains consist of two buildings, in each of which are about seven hearths, which leads to the belief that they were used as the cook houses and dining halls of early Roman camps.

The base of a watch tower also has been found, built in a wall which evidently surrounded the camp. Several burial urns and Roman glass have been dug up, all in perfect condition.

The excavations are being made under the supervision of experts from the British museum, to which institution the relics will be given.

WAYNE WALTON DIES

Wayne Howard Walton, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Walton, 213 East Tenth street, died at the family home at 8:35 o'clock last night.

Pulmonary tuberculosis, of which the young man had been a sufferer for years, was the cause of death.

Seventeen months spent in sanitariums at El Paso, Texas, and Norton, Kansas, had failed to renew his waning strength or benefit his health and the young man was brought back to his home here early last June.

From that time on it was feared by the members of the family that the end of his life was not far distant. The young man grew worse the latter part of last week and succumbed to the attack of the dread disease last night.

The deceased was the only child of his parents. He was born and reared in Coffeyville. He passed through the grade schools and had completed three and a half years of the high school course when he was halted by the growing attack of the disease that later claimed his life.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Skinner funeral home tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. Gordon B. Thompson, pastor of the First Methodist church. The body will be laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

The above item, which was taken from the Coffeyville daily Journal, of Coffeyville, Kan., the home of the late Wayne Walton, who is the nephew of Mrs. L. W. Feemster, of Artesia. He spent the summer here last year and will be remembered by many Artesia people.

FEDERAL AGRICULTURAL CENSUS TO BE TAKEN FOR THE YEAR 1924

During December and January next a census of the crops, livestock, and livestock products of each county in New Mexico will be undertaken through the Census Bureau of the United States Government. All good citizens should interest themselves in helping to make this census complete and accurate. Farmers organizations, banks, local chambers of commerce, and other progressive organizations in each county should cooperate in an effort to show the resources and possibilities of their respective districts. The Extension Service of the Agricultural College, the State Department of Vocational Agriculture, U. S. Reclamation Service, and the Indian Service have agreed to do all in their power to see that a dependable census is taken. Lack of time will, in some cases, make it impossible for county agents, agricultural teachers, and other Government employees to act as county enumerators, but they are willing to assist the citizens in their respective counties in selecting and advising competent enumerators, and in editing schedules as they are collected by the enumerators before they are sent to the State Supervisor.

A successful census will depend largely upon the efficiency of the enumerators, who are to be appointed by the Republican National Committeeman and passed on by the State Supervisor. Enumerators will be paid at the rate of about 75 cents for each farm enumerated. County farm bureaus, banks, and other organizations interested in agriculture should consult with their county agents, vocational agricultural teachers, forest supervisors, etc., and recommend suitable enumerators. No application should be considered for these positions without these endorsements. The crop and livestock reporters, who have voluntarily given valuable information to the United States Department of Agriculture on the acreage, production, condition and value of farm products in their respective counties would, in many cases, be well qualified to act as enumerators, or to make suggestions relative to efficient enumerators in their localities.

The State Supervisor will greatly appreciate being notified of the failure to enumerate any farm in the state. Answers to all questions are compulsory, but will be treated as strictly confidential, and in no case will they be communicated to any assessor, or used as a basis of taxation.

R. F. HARE,
State Supervisor for New Mexico.

PAPER ROLL PROVES USEFUL IN KITCHEN
Convenient Place to Note Down Needed Supplies.

A roll of narrow wrapping paper such as stores use, when suspended on the kitchen wall, makes a convenient place to note down needed supplies. When the end of it is drawn through two strips of board or wire on a convenient firm backing, either the wall itself or a flat piece of wood, as in the illustration, it is easy to draw down the end of the roll and tear it off as one is going to market. A pencil on a string should hang nearby. The roll shown in the picture was a detail among many other kitchen improvements in a Virginia home. It was photographed by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Quick Potato Soup
A good soup that can be quickly made and served hot at school for lunch is recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture and made as follows:

1 quart milk 2 teaspoonfuls butter or other fat
1 cupful grated potato 1/2 cupful onion juice
1 1/2 teaspoonful salt A few drops of onion juice
Add the potatoes to the milk. Bring to the boiling point, then add the fat, salt, and onion juice. Serve with or without straining. This serves about six children with medium-sized portions, about a cupful each. Allow 1 1/2 cupfuls for large portions.

HOW TO CLEAN UP AN INFECTION OF BLUE-BUGS

The thick, commonly called blue-bug, which attacks poultry kept in the lower altitudes and warmer sections of New Mexico, is one of the most costly insect pests that the poultryman has to deal with. Yet the blue-bug can be successfully exterminated without exorbitant cost if properly attacked, and precautions taken against a fresh outbreak.

Although the blue-bug is the natural enemy of chickens, it also attacks turkeys, guineas, geese, ducks and pigeons, and can be carried by any of these classes of poultry. As a result of a blue-bug infection fowls appear unthrifty and weak; and if not properly cared for easily fall subject to various diseases, are thrown out of production, and often die from loss of blood.

Blue-bug eggs are laid in the litter, and in the cracks and crevices of the henhouse. The young ticks, immediately after hatching, attach themselves to the less feathered parts of the fowl and feed on the bird's blood. They remain in this stage for ten or twelve days, then return to the litter or cracks where they shed their skin, and become greatly enlarged. This process is repeated three times after which the adult male and female appear. The female is then ready to lay eggs, varying in number from 500 to 900, and the life cycle is repeated.

In order to clean out these pests, remove all litter from the henhouse and take out all interior equipment burning that which cannot be taken apart. Mix one part kerosene and two parts carbolineum, and paint or spray the interior surface thoroughly with this mixture, making sure all cracks and crevices are filled. Treat the roosts and nests the same way. When replacing roosts and nests, arrange them so they can be supported from the floor and not attached to the side walls. All chickens should be compelled to make the henhouse their roosting quarters, otherwise the blue-bug will attack them in other buildings or from the trees. To gain control, the henhouse should be treated as outlined three or four months after the first application. Carbolineum is the most effective treatment known, and once the pests are in control will be effective two or three years.

GOVERNOR BRYAN WILL MAKE RAPID SPEAKING TOUR IN NEW MEXICO

SANTA FE.—Governor Charles W. Bryan, Democratic candidate for vice-president, will enter New Mexico at Clovis, Friday, October 10, just a week after the departure of his illustrious brother, William Jennings Bryan.

Governor Bryan will speak from the station platform at Clovis at 9:30 a. m. and from the train platform at Vaughn at 1:10 p. m. There will be a second train speech at Belen at 5 o'clock, and the big meeting of the Bryan tour in New Mexico will be held at the High School Auditorium at Albuquerque at 7 o'clock.

Governor Bryan comes from a rapid speaking tour in Oklahoma and will leave Albuquerque in time to make a speaking date in Trinidad on Saturday morning, the 11th. Reports from Democratic National headquarters are to the effect that Governor Bryan will spend the better part of the month of October on such political battlegrounds as Indiana, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

The personal popularity of "Charley" Bryan in Nebraska is one of the reasons for his selection as the running mate of John W. Davis. The other is the remarkable record he has made as Governor. He is known best for his relief measures for the farmers and stockmen. It is said that "Charley" Bryan was the active and silent organizing genius behind the campaigns of his better known brother. He is bending every effort for the election of the Davis-Bryan ticket and announces that things look highly favorable for a national Democratic victory.

ILLINOIS NO. 4 MAKES GOOD SHOWING IN A PUMP TEST

Burgess and Goodale spudded in this week on their well located in the SW 1/4 of Sec. 30-18-29. This well is five miles east of the Illinois No. 4, the location was made by Dr. Lowery, a noted California geologist.

A further reduction of crude oil to the amount of 25,584 barrels daily was made recently and operators are hopeful that the field here will receive a greater stimulated drilling campaign. To say the least the big reduction is the most hopeful sign for more activity that the oil men have seen in some time.

One of the most important developments is the reduction in the Oklahoma field nearest to us. The reduction so far as known has not affected the price of crude, but likely will in the near future.

The rig for the Rotary Oil Co. arrived this morning and will be unloaded and moved to their location in Sec. 30-18-28.

It is also learned that the Roswell No. 1, in Sec. 30-18-28, has encountered a pocket of gas. The quantity is estimated to be approximately one million feet.

of which were incomplete, one being intercepted by Roswell. Roswell attempted only one forward pass during the game. Both teams resorted to straight football tactics by hard hitting at the line. End runs were unsuccessful for either team.

Johnson and Flood were the outstanding stars for the visitors, although Captain Rose played a great game in the line. Pollard and Burrows stood the line-smashing attack of the opponent for the locals with much credit as did House and Burns, who played the defensive end positions. Lattion and Conner being inexperienced players, played an excellent game for the opening game of the season. The Roswell high school, N. M. M. I. seconds and the Artesia Town team are to be met during the season.

DRIVER OF AUTO THAT KILLED GIRL OF 16 FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

10,000 CATTLE TO BE SACRIFICED IN WAR ON EPIDEMIC

HOUSTON, TEXAS.—Orders for the slaughter of all cattle within a radius of approximately twenty miles of the ranches where the outbreak of foot and mouth disease in Harris county was discovered, were issued today by Dr. Marion Imes, federal inspector in charge, and J. E. Boog-Scott, chairman of the Texas Livestock Sanitary commission. It is believed by the time this work is completed more than 10,000 cattle will have been killed.

All of the cattle ordered slaughtered are believed to have come in contact with infected herds on the open range, therefore becoming carriers of the disease. To date 4,500 diseased and contact cattle have been killed. Government inspectors say the contact cattle have been roaming the open range in the vicinity of the pastures where the infected cattle were kept and have been watered at the same drinking places.

Cowboys are rounding up the animals and driving them to the slaughtering grounds. The territory being worked first extends below Webster as far as Clear creek. Ultimately the territory completely around the infected area of 6,500 acres for a radius of several miles will be cleared of open range and stray cows.

This is the safest method to pursue, officials state, as the discovery of additional herds infected with the disease probably would bring even tighter embargoes against Texas than those in force now, which already are causing commercial hardships.

"It is most important to keep ahead of the disease," said J. E. Boog-Scott, "and in destroying the open-range cattle the government inspectors are acting wisely. One animal carrying the disease might get away and spread it a hundred miles or more."

Plans of government and state officials to obtain modifications of embargoes against Texas products were being developed today. Mr. Boog-Scott was awaiting an answer to a telegram to John R. Mohler, head of the bureau of animal industry, asking that a meeting of state representatives be called in St. Louis immediately for a discussion of embargoes with a view toward modifications.

BETTER WORK IN WELL EQUIPPED KITCHEN

Conveniently Arranged Kitchen Helps Housekeeper.

The kitchen is the workshop in most farm homes. In it the housekeeper and her helpers prepare the food for the family, and from it as a center carry on most of the other housework. More and better work can be done in a well-lighted shop arranged for the comfort and convenience of the workers and equipped with good tools than in a dark shop where much time must be spent in unnecessary steps and energy wasted with scattered equipment. Business men have found this a sound principle, and it should be applied to the farm kitchen so that the housekeeper can do her work more quickly and with the least fatigue.

Pear Honey—First, Mrs. John Vogel.

JELLY:

Perhaps the most interesting exhibit in this department was the pint jar of figs, exhibited by Mrs. Tex Polk.

These figs were grown in the Polk orchard in Artesia, a surprising fact to most people, who considered our climate a little too severe for this subtropical fruit. Another interesting thing was a huge cucumber in a jar, whose mouth was smaller than the cucumber.

GALLUP PEOPLE HAVE A NARROW ESCAPE WHEN TWO AUTOS COLLIDE

GALLUP.—Several residents of this city had a narrow escape when the auto driven by Tod Johnson collided with another machine at the corner of Mesa avenue and the Ramah road. The two cars were coming head-on and as the street was very narrow at this point, they crashed together and the Ford was hurled into the curb with a broken wheel and the rear end caved in. The other car was but little damaged and fortunately none of the occupants were injured and all escaped with a good shaking up. It is believed that the accident was unavoidable and both owners agreed to pay for their own repairs.
