Three Day Festival Set For Mule Day Celebration

Friday, Roping; Saturday All-Day Events; Sunday, Mule Show

Summer Band Gets Underway Next Monday

Mark Heidel, band director at Muleshoe High School, said Summer Band will be getting underway next Monday, August 10, and will continue through August 28.

Freshmen and all new band members are asked to report to the MHS band hall at 10 a.m. on that day, and will be there until 11:30 a.m. Then, at 6 p.m. until 11:30 a.m. Then, at 6 p.m., till 9 p.m., all band members, including freshmen and new band members will be in session.

The band director said the music will be harder than last year, and the drill design will also be harder. "I feel comfortable with what we will be working with this year, and am really looking for a successful year," said Heidel. "I am really looking forward to this school year."

Some of the songs for this year are "Going The Distance," from "Rocky;" "Don't Cry For Me, Argentina," from "Evita;" "Benny Goodman's jazz standard 'Sing, Sing, Sing;' and Quincy Jones' ballad, 'Just Once.'

It's looking like another very good year for the Muleshoe High School Mighty 'M' Band.

At one time, it was the Mule Day Festival--but, now, as the festival which is growing and growing. Also, this will be the first year for all proceeds to go to the West Texas Boys Ranch at San Angelo.

Coordinator Jeff Smith explained that some of the Saturday events have been dropped, or suspended for the time and other events added for the Friday evening before the all-day event, and on Sunday.

Everything except the 5-K Run and the parade will be held at Jeff Smith's barn and arena located two miles east of Muleshoe on Highway 70 and one-half mile south.

Rex Black will be in charge of the Jackpot Team Roping that starts off the busy weekend on Friday, August 7 at 6 p.m. The roping will be open to either horses or mules, or both.

Entry fee for the roping is $50 per team. Contact Rex Black at 272-3431 for entry information.

On Saturday, events get underway at 8 a.m. with the 5-K run, which will start out at KMUL Radio Station at 600 West Eighth Street. Lonnie Adrian is coordinator for the 5-K run.

Then, at 8:30 a.m., the ever-popular turtle races start at Jeff Smith's barn, under direction of Jim Crawford. This will be followed by the Arts and Crafts Show in the barn at 9 a.m. Cheryl Engelking is handling the Arts and Crafts Show.

At 10 a.m., the parade will be held in downtown Muleshoe. Dianne Nieman is in charge of the parade.

The Odessa Chuck Wagon Gang will be returning to Muleshoe again this year to serve their famous barbecue meal at noon. This year, gang boss for the Chuck Wagon Gang, internationally known, is Rod Rodriguez.

Beginning at 1 p.m., the Mule Rodeo will get underway, followed by the sky divers at 5 p.m. and the Mule Races at 6 p.m.

At 7:30, Mike Ellis will be head cook for the supper, which will be followed by a dance with the Wooden Nickel Band of Lubbock providing the music for the 9-1 a.m. dance.

Clovis Racer, Marathon Runner Guest Speaker For Rotarians

Special guest speaker introduced by Rotarian C. K. 'Kid' Castleberry Tuesday at noon was Keith Ingram of Clovis.

Ingram is a 'racer' -- he is a runner, he is a businessman and he is a former TV personality.

From unicycles, Ingram proceeded to motorcycle racing -- and when the thrill was gone from that, after performing on the pro circuit -- without injury for five years -- he started looking around.

In 1976, Ingram purchased a Porsche and started fine tuning it and turning it into a race car, then two years later entered his first race in Oklahoma.

It has been fast-paced since that time for Ingram.

He was in the National Finals at Riverside, CA in 1978, and raced in second place in Colorado in 1979.

One of the highlights of his racing career was the Daytona 500 in Daytona, FLA. Ingram said the letters seen flashing by, spelling out D-A-Y-T-O-N-A U-S-A, are each taller than a car. He says the bottom of the track is on the ground and the top of the track is five stories high. The track is immense and awesome, said the guest speaker. His top speed in the race was 147mph, and the track was 15 cars wide, he added.

In 1983, he competed in the Lake of the Ozarks, Mo. Porsche races and placed third.

SPS Checking Lines; It's All 'For The Birds'

It's apparently really 'For The Birds.'

At least, that appears to be the culprits in almost daily 'electrical surges' that have plagued Southwestern Public Service Co. during the past two to three weeks, according to local SPS manager, Ron Montgomery.

He said SPS detectives -- who are in disguise as linemen, have been in Muleshoe, and all along this area attempting to find the cause of the surges.

It appears from the finding of several dead birds beneath electrical lines, that the culprits causing the surges are -- birds.

Montgomery said the workmen are checking out the lines, foot by foot, to try to find the cause of the surges, and this week are working between Muleshoe and Sudan.

It all appears to be -- the birds. They are settling on the lines, tripping breakers and themselves are dying from the electrical charges.

The SPS detectives said they may solve the surge problem and never know exactly what was causing it in the first place -- in the meantime -- It's for the birds!

Mary Alice Ramm said the Muleshoe Squares will not be dancing on Thursday, August 13.

On Monday, August 10, the Muleshoe Activities Committee will host their next round of tournaments at the Mule Putt Miniature Golf Course.

Muleshoe Motor Company became another new business in the flourishing town of Muleshoe in 1927 when they opened their doors to sell the popular Ford automobile.

Robert and Maurine Hooten purchased Muleshoe Motor Company in 1964. They built new facilities and moved into them at their present location in January, 1973, where they continued to offer sales and services on all Ford and Mercury automobiles, pickups, and trucks. In 1983, Robert and Maurine purchased the Plymouth - Dodge - Chrysler franchise, adding it to the present Ford and Mercury series. This made it possible to offer their customers a wider selection of makes and models.

For many years Muleshoe Motor Company has offered sales and service of irrigation engines. Today, Muleshoe Motor Company continues to serve the Muleshoe area with complete sales, parts, and service facilities.

Creative Living

by Sheryl Borden

Three topics will be presented on "Creative Living" on Tuesday, August 11 at 12 noon and repeated on Saturday, August 15 at 2:00 pm on KENW-TV. (All times are Mountain.)

If you've been shopping for new appliances lately, you know the selection is tremendous. Connie Moyers, Marketing Home Economist with Southwestern Public Servie Co. in Clovis will show some new appliances, talk about various features and discuss costs of each one. One of the most exciting appliances she'll show is the new induction cooktop.

Another guest will be Mari Lou Callahan, home economist with the Hershey Foods Corp. in Hershey, PA. Pasta's come a long way since the beginnings of traditional sauce and spaghetti. Besides the classical recipes that are time-consuming to prepare, there are some satisfying alternatives. Mari Lou will share some of the quick and easy pasta dishes that are available.

The show will begin with an interview with Gregory Stock, author of a book called the "Book of Questions". Greg's from Cambridge, MA, and the book is very unusual and very interesting.

On Tuesday, August 11 at 9:30 pm, "Creative Living" will feature Dian Thomas, a well known television personality from The Today Show who will present some of her exciting ideas for children's cooking. Dian resides in Salt Lake City, UT.

Hat's are back in style, according to Sandy Allison, former Texas Extension Home Economist, and she'll discuss and illustrate the point with a variety of exciting hat fashions. Sandy lives in Littlefield, TX.

Also, Cecile Lamalle, Progreso Quality Foods, will demonstrate a 15-minute meal using some prepared food products as ingredients with special touches to make it her own creation.

Information on fun to paint activities and a health update on osteoporosis will be presented on the show on Tuesday, August 13 at 12 noon.

Mike Kelly, president and founder of Kelly's Crafts in Cincinnati, OH will share some fun-to-paint activities-- projects ranging from magnets, sun-catchers, wall plaques, photo holders and many more. Mr. Kelly will tell how he developed this business and explain why a former physicist for a major steel company would get involved in a mail-order craft business.

Calcium is now finding it's way into the adult diet as well as the child's diet. The dramatic rise in calcium consumption was propelled by a report a few years ago from the National Institute of Health. This report cited calcium as the mainstay from preventing and managing osteoporosis, the dreaded degenerative bone disease. Dr. Sydney Bonnick is the founder and medical director of the Dallas, TX Osteoporosis Centre, and she will discuss calcium -- the "miracle mineral".

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl

Borden. The show airs on more than 95 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, CO. Viewers can request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KENW-TV's toll-free telephone lines between 8 am and 5 pm, Monday through Friday. In New Mexico, the number is 1-800-432-2361. out-of-state: 1-800-545-2359 and Portales and Roosevelt County: 562-2112.

CONTEMPORARY PASTA-BILITIES

The recipes featured in Hershey's "Hurry Up, I'm Hungry" Pasta Cookbook offer convenient main-dish recipes using six or less, readily available ingredients. convenience doesn't mean "so-so" flavor. Most of the specialties are ready almost as fast as they will be consumed.

The recipes are inspired by classic and not-so-classic recipes. They combine prepared soups, meats and vegetables with a wide variety of pasta shapes that catch and hold the goodness of cheese, butter and herbs.

MICROWAVE COOKING

By Linda Attaway

To test your glass, ceramic, earthenware, plastic or china cookware for safe use in the Microwave oven, try the following.

Put a cup or two of water in a glass container you know is safe for microwave use. Then place the item in question beside this in the oven. Microwave on High for about two minutes.

CAREFULLY remove the item from the oven. If it is cool then it is safe to use.

If it is hot, then it contains metal particles and may not be safe to use.

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Some Americans, it seems, are taking their well water with a grain of sand.

Sand in a water well pump can be expensive. It makes the pump less efficient, so energy bills are higher. If you need a new pump, it costs money to pull and replace.

You may already know some of the other problems: plugged screens on faucets, washing machines, ice makers, etc. And if your lawn sprinklers aren't plugged up yet, they may be slowly wearing out, too. Worse yet, sand accumulation in a hot water heater or water conditioning system is sure to mean early repairs or replacement. There may be ways to smooth out such a situation.

There are pump protection sand separators available that use centrifugal action to keep most abrasive sand from getting in the pump. With a Lakos Submersible Pump Protection Sand Separator, a pump can last typically four times longer and help make your water cleaner.

For more information, call Lakos Separators toll-free, 1-800-344-7205. In California, 1-800-742-1850.

September 13th Designated Grandparents Day

Just as grandchildren are our gift for growing older, grandparents are our gift for being young.

September 13th is Grandparents Day, and to celebrate this event the Texas Department on Aging is offering free Grandparents Certificates of Recognition for grandchildren to present to their grandparents. "We began this event in Texas three years ago," says O.P. (Bob) Bobbitt, executive director of TDOA. "On a very modest budget, we have been able to expand the distribution of certificates from 15,000 the first year to over 60,000 last year.

This program accomplishes two very important goals for us. First, it helps maintain contact between the grandparent and grandchild and therefore enhances the mental well-being of both. Also, by providing these certificates we are able to make more people, young and old alike, aware of the Texas Department on Aging and the services we provide throughout the state."

The Grandparents Day certificates are printed in color on parchment paper, suitable for framing and signed by Gov. Bill Clements. Information on the Department on Aging will also be sent with each certificate. To order your certificates, write: Texas Department on Aging, P.O. Box 12786 Capitol Station, Austin, TX 78711. Civic and service organizations should order as far in advance as possible. Please include your name, legible address and number of certificates requested.

BROWNIE WORKSHOP HELD—Saturday morning Muleshoe Brownie Scouts, along with their leaders and two Boy Scouts gathered at the Girl Scout Hut for a workshop. Those present included: (L-R) Kallam Puckett, with friend snail-Mother Goose-Nelda Merriott, and Billy Tosh with his friend snail, the Ecology Hunt part of a badge, girls and guests looked on.

Muleshoe Brownies Attend Workshop Here Saturday

It's not only the Muleshoe Junior Girl Scout troops that get to enjoy a day outdoors or away from parents, the Brownie troops had their workshop Saturday, August 1. They earned the Outdoor Fun Badge. Like the Junior's the workshop started at 8:30 a.m. with registration. The workshop began at 9:30 a.m.

Rosa Guillen was the first station, she helped the girls make a walking salad, which consisted of apple, cucumber, bananas, celery and peanut butter, if desired, all cut into sticks then placed into a sandwich bag.

Next the group went to learning how to make knots. Kallam Puckett, a Boy Scout, was ready to teach the girls how to make an overhand knot and a square knot. After his lesson the girls were ready to try it. They all did the overhand knot pretty easy, but had a little trouble with the square knot. "Eventually all the girls did tie the knot," said Renee Rudd.

"We then did some rubbings, which we had another Boy Scout help us, this one Billy Tosh, taught the girls how to do. Believe it or not we had some interesting rubbings."

"We then went to what the leaders call our "Mother Goose", Nelda Merriott was doing our Ecology Hunt. The Boy Scouts helped Nelda on this part, really they were the only ones brave enough to put snails on the back of their hands.

"Nelda showed how snails move, how they live, she showed us locust, she even had one that had just come out of its shell, we went to ants. We even went around looking at just ecology.

"Mr. Talley explained his catcuses and other plants in his back yard. We are now ready to go hiking thanks to Cheryl Puckett. Her station was Trail Signs, we learned to read signs.

"We then came to the last stations which was our loyal Boy Scout was Kallam Puckett. He picked up several things for the girls to touch, smell and listen to. You couldn't fool these Brownies on anything even with their eyes closed.

"We then went indoors to have lunch, everyone was dying of thirst. We were outside all this time, and nobody complained about being thirsty till we went in.

"We wish to thank several people, the Boy Scouts, Kallam Puckett and Billy Tosh, for all their help on the badge: the Sonic Drive-In, for furnishing us with pencils; and Linda Tosh, for getting some of our veggies for outdoor snacks. I personally want to thank the leaders and all above for everything. If it wasn't for people who believe in the Girl Scouts we wouldn't be where we are now," she continued.

Brownies attending were: Tracy Orozco, Leslie Radford, Kayna Puckett, Misty Dixon, and Anna Zera.

Guests were Kallam Puckett and Billy Tosh, Boy Scout Troop NO. 620, Micheal Williams, Jeffery Guillen, Tori Tosh and Anna Zera's cousin from Roswell, N.M.

Leaders attending were: Cheryl Puckett, Nelda Merriott, Rosa Guillen and Renee' Rudd.

Local Officer Gets Treatment For Arrest Injury

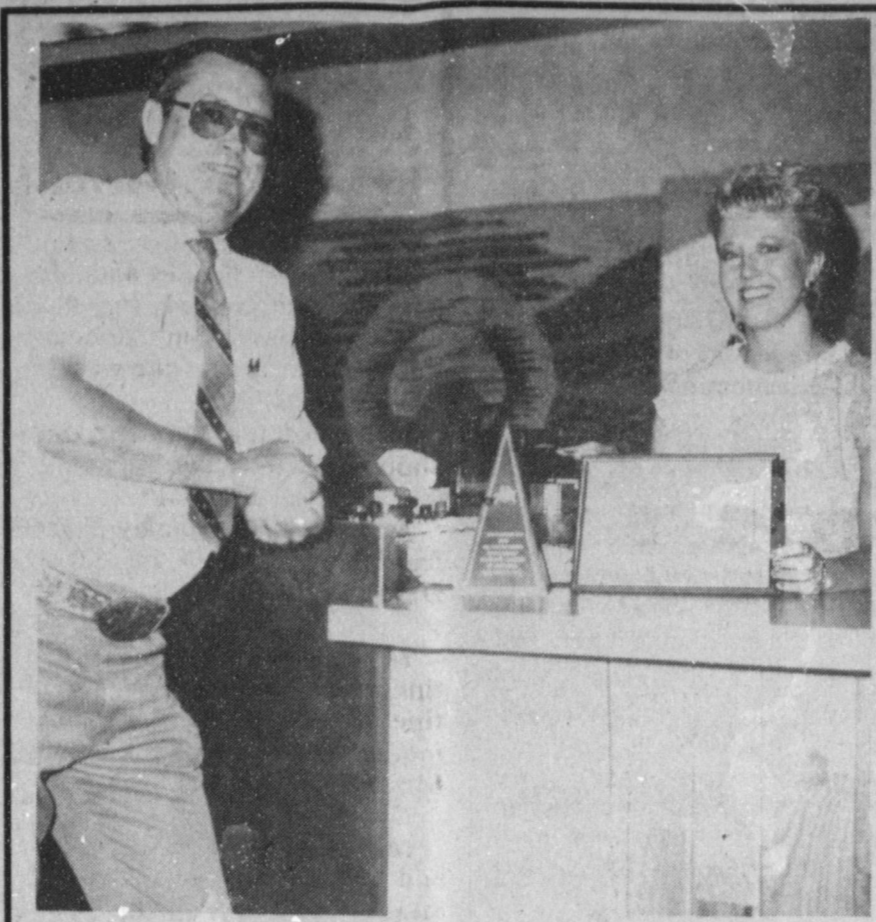

Late Sunday night, what had started out as a 'routine' traffic stop for Muleshoe City Police Patrolman Gary Maddox, became anything but that.

Patrolman Maddox was in a car in the 2000 block of West American Blvd. and very shortly called for 'back-ups.' When an officer gives out a trouble call, all officers in hearing distance, plus off-duty officers respond.

Following a foot race, with Officer Maddox pouncing upon a man fleeing arrest, near the Heritage Inn, four persons were taken into custody.

Charged with possession of marijuana were Gabriel Maes, Debbie Sandoval, Peggy Gutierrez and Patrick Maes. Maes also faces charges of evading arrest, with investigation continuing.

Maddox was taken to South Plains Hospital in Amherst where he was treated for bruises and lacerations and an arm was x-rayed to determine whether or not it had been broken. Technicians found the arm was only twisted and bruised. He was released following treatment.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH--It took two tries, but this week, when Ron Montgomery, left, president of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, returned to First Bank Tuesday morning, Sharla Saylor, right, was at her teller's window. When he was at the bank last week, the two year employee of the First Bank, was on vacation. She received her Employee of the Month plaque and certificate Tuesday.

Then, in 1984, he competed at Elkhart Lake, Michigan, and won that race. In 1985, Ingram competed again at Riverside, CA and lost the race by .100 of a second.

Another highlight was in 1987 at Dallas, when he was first in the show and first in the race itself, and will compete in Colorado in 1988.

He said his personal fastest time on the race track has been 182mph, and also said "no, I am not afraid, and have no sensation of speeding, especially on a big track with all the other cars going approximately the same speed."

According to Ingram, racing is a very, very expensive sport, and the only return is through sponsors, who provide tires and other merchandise, such as car parts, etc. There is no money involved for amateurs.

Ingram, who has also run in the New York Marathon, talked briefly about the marathon, which is 26 miles. The first half is 20 miles, and the second half is the final six miles, added Ingram. And, it's a long, long six miles, too. Top runners make 4.45 a mile for the 26 miles, but Ingram smiled as he told of the struggle to make the last -- not six -- but eight miles of the race. He said he had only run for 13 miles previously at one time.

He said he had his race videoed, and realized that at times he thought he was really breezing along, he was really moving at a snail's pace, and at times too tired to move, and it was a struggle to even shuffle his feet along, and could not even lift them.

Baptist Church To Be Presenting Continental Singers

The Continental Singers and Orchestra, an internationally recognized Christian musical group, will present a new program on Monday, August 17, at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Muleshoe, announced Bary Moynihan, minister of music.

Centered on a theme of 'Let There Be Praise!' their program celebrates the 20th anniversary of the group while integrating a portion of "ELIJAH" - a new musical that explores the life of one of the Old Testament's most well-known prophets.

Featuring 25 vocalists and a 10-piece orchestra, the Continental Singers program according to Ken Waggoner, "combines the best of our past with the promises of our future. It's a musical celebration that highlights two decades of praise and joy from our most popular musicals, hymn medleys, and a few contemporary classics."

Well-known for utilizing a variety of musical styles in their program, the Continent 1 Singers will include songs and arrangements by some of today's top contemporary Christian artists.

Soil Testing Important To Find Fertilizer Need

With planting time for fall wheat and other small grains rapidly approaching farmers need to collect soil samples for a reading on nutrient requirements, says Spencer Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System. Those nutrients can then be incorporated into the soil during final seedbed preparations.

Soil incorporation or knifing of fertilizer nutrients into a moist seedbed is important to reduce nitrogen volatilization losses associated with surface applied urea or urea-containing fertilizers, says Tanksley. It also allows placement of non-mobile nutrients such as phosphorus into the higher moisture and more active root zone of plants.

A soil test is still the best way to determine fertilizer needs, Tanksley emphasizes. The amount of a given nutrient to apply depends on the level of that nutrient in the soil, crop residue levels, cropping history, available moisture, grazing practices and management schemes. A soil test will determine the amount of residual nitrate-nitrogen in the soil and will reduce nitrogen recommendations by that amount, resulting in a direct savings to the farmer.

Producers who have not yet made a final decision to plant wheat on a particular field this fall, but who wish to leave the door open to plant cotton, sorghum or corn later in the spring, should submit a soil sample now and request fertilizer recommendations for these crops as well. Fertilizer recommendations for each of the crops can then be used to make cropping decisions, Tanksley points out.

The Extension Service Soil Testing Laboratories at College Station and Lubbock will analyze soil samples and make fertilizer recommendations. New automated laboratory equipment and computerized integration and reporting of soil test results have improved speed and precision.

However, soil test recommendations are no better than the quality of the soil sample analyzed. Therefore, soil samples should be collected which are truly representative of the field being tested.

Information on properly collecting and submitting a soil sample, along with fees involved can be obtained from the local County Extension office, concluded Tanksley.

Gladys M. Davis

Funeral Service

Held At Morton

Funeral services for Gladys Mildred Davis, 84, of Morton, were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the First United Methodist Church of Morton, with the pastor, Rev. Al Jennings, pastor officiating. Interment was in Morton Memorial Cemetery under direction of Ellis Funeral Home of Morton.

Mrs. Davis died at 1:02 a.m. Tuesday, in Cochran Memorial Hospital following an illness.

Gladys Mildred Davis was born April 19, 1903 in Haskell County, Texas, and had lived in Cochran County since 1941, moving there from Haskell. She was married February 18, 1921 to William Lester Davis, who preceded her in death on March 25, 1960. She was a homemaker and a member of the First United Methodist Church of Morton.

Her survivors include two sons, Lenard Davis, Morton and Terry Davis, Plains; five daughters, Mrs. Billie Lasseter and Mrs. Alliene Hamilton, both of Morton; Mrs. Patsy Coffman, Bledsoe; Mrs. Margaret Chapman, Lubbock and Mrs. Mildred Gunter, Mobile, Ala.; and was preceded in death by three sons, Roy, Wayne and William and one daughter, Ruby.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Lois Nichelson, Clovis and Mrs. Opal Andress, Haskell; four brothers, Cecil Lackey, Haskell; Lewis Lackey and Jay Lackey, both of Irving; and Robert Lackey, Granbury; 20 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

fire department for a couple of years. When Wayne was a student at Plains High School, he would be at all the fires he could, even at that time he was just a teenager with dreams of becoming a fireman.

He has attended nearly every Lubbock Area Fireman's conference and Canyon Fire Training School since becoming a fireman. He has also been a student as well as an instructor. He is very active with the Jaws of Life training, as student and instructor. He is a certified fireman under the State Fireman Association.

Wayne is currently an Emergency Medical Technician, registered by the Texas Department of Health, and is very active with the Bailey County Ambulance Service.

Wayne's hobbies include fishing, boating, water skiing, golfing, and last but not least, rattlesnake hunting.

I have personally worked with Wayne in life and death situations, and I could not think of any other person that I would rather work with than Wayne.

Wayne is the type of person it takes to make a good community, and a fire department.

Thank you, Wayne and Mary, for being a part of the Muleshoe Fire Department family.

Computers can be educational tools. Kids can use a home computer to do their homework and print out professional looking reports—reports that may get better grades than sloppy ones would. Texas Traveler Notes Many Regional Differences

West Texas is dry when it comes to rainfall but wet when it comes to liquor. East Texas is wet with rain but dry of alcohol. And while West Texans eat their barbecue dry, East Texans smother it in sauce."

Such are the observations of TEXAS MONTHLY senior editor Dick J. Reavis concerning some of the differences between east and west in Texas. Reavis has driven more than 50,000 miles of state highways that have taken him from Brownsville to El Paso to Texarkana. His wanderings are all a part of the National Tour of Texas, a journey that began at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on New Year's Day 1987 and will eventually cover every inch of highway in the state before returning to the Cotton Bowl on January 1, 1988.

Reavis is driving a Chevrolet Suburban, which was dubbed the National Car of Texas by TEXAS MONTHLY last year, and he is writing monthly columns for the magazine describing the people and places he sees along the way. Now halfway through his trek, Reavis stopped for a while in a northeast Texas La Quinta Inn to share his firsthand observations of Texans on either side of the state.

"The economy is a topic of discussion everywhere," says Reavis, "but for varying reasons. In the west it's the decline of the oil industry and the devaluation of the Mexican peso. But in the forests of East Texas, where the lumber business is so important, the decline in the home-building industry is what's hurt in the region."

The most amusing differences Reavis has recorded have to do with the people. Having talked with hundreds of Texans over the last six months, this TEXAS MONTHLY writer has developed some well-researched opinions about the people of the Lone Star State.

"Concerning religion, West Texans are either Baptist or Catholic. But East Texans are either Baptist or Baptist or Baptist. Overall, West Texans are more matter-of-fact and very blunt. They don't waste words. But East Texans will talk your ear off on just about any subject. They're more conscious of social mores too."

Reavis sees these differences as quite natural considering the disparities in population between East and West Texas. You can drive a hundred miles through West Texas and count the number of human beings you see on one hand. But you can't go a hundred yards in most East Texas towns without seeing at least as many people, and even the region's rural areas are heavily settled.

Reavis has also been observing lawmakers both east and west during this trip. "Becoming a judge in West Texas is a minor honor," says Reavis. "But in East Texas, if a man serves one term on the county bench, he's called Judge for the rest of his life. Most counties in West Texas don't have constables at all. And in the counties that do have them, the constables are just assistants to the sheriff and the courts. Their principal job is delivering civil papers. In East Texas, constables make arrests, patrol traffic, and generally enforce the law, but nobody trusts them. Lawmen are watched very closely in East Texas because everyone figures they're the ones who are stealing!"

More stories about the people and places Reavis has seen during the National Tour of Texas are recorded in his columns for TEXAS MONTHLY. Now in its fifteenth year of publication, TEXAS MONTHLY has a paid circulation of 280,000, and is read by more than one million people each month.

U.S. Yellow Sorghum

High In Nutrition

Yield sorghum exported by the United States is superior in nutritional value to the brown, high-tannin, bird-resistant sorghum that is exported by other sorghum-producing countries.

Studies done by Dr. Lloyd W. Rooney, Professor of Food Science and Agronomy at Texas A&M University, have shown that U. S. yellow sorghum has 95 percent of the feeding value of corn, while the feed efficiency of brown sorghum can be 10 to 30 percent lower than that of yellow sorghum.

Dr. Rooney reported that brown, bird-resistant sorghum contains condensed tannins which reduce the nutritional value of the grain. In general, animals fed brown sorghum consume more feed but gain no more weight than those fed corn or yellow sorghum.

The United States produces and exports very little brown sorghum. USDA Federal Grain Inspection Service (FGIS) inspectors at U. S. ports have stated that U. S. sorghum for export rarely contains more than one-half percent brown sorghum.

Sorghum exported from Argentina, South Africa, and Thailand, however, usually contain high levels of brown, high-tannin grain. Brown sorghum from Argentina is often erroneously considered equal in feeding value to U. S. yellow sorghum. When the brown sorghum is used, its poor performance can convince buyers that all sorghums have inferior feeding value.

High-tannin sorghum kernels contain condensed tannins in a pigmented testa, while nontannin sorghum kernels do not have a pigmented testa. All sorghums with a pigmented testa are classified as brown sorghum according to FGIS guidelines.

pigmented testa do not have condensed tannins and their nutritional value is 95 percent of that of corn," said Dr. Rooney.

In order for buyers to determine the percentage of brown sorghum in a market sample, Dr. Rooney suggests using the bleach test, which used common household bleach (NaOCl, 5.25%) and potassium hydroxide. The bleach test is relatively easy to use and is the best method for determining the percentage of brown kernels in a sample. Kernels with a pigmented testa, when exposed to the chemical solution, turn black; kernels without a pigmented testa are bleached pearly white.

KNOW THE WEATHER

Why does high humidity in the summer make us uncomfortable?
The relative humidity (percentage of moisture in the air) has a noticeable effect on us because the body perspires constantly, the amount varying on activity and other factors.
On days when a high pressure system is above us, with its usual dry, cool air, we feel good. The drier air causes rapid evaporation of perspiration, and clothes do not become wet or sticky.
In addition, low pressure (which often accompanies high humidity) acts on our blood vessels with what is sometimes a depressing effect. Thus physically and physiologically high humidity directly affects our comfort.

EATING OUT

by Rose Hughes

ONE of the writer's favorites, especially in cooler months, is beef stew. And it's surprising how few restaurants now offer this traditional American favorite.
SOME well-known restaurants and chains have dropped beef stew from their menu. It's hard to understand why, unless it's the labor factor, because good beef stew must cook for some time, and constantly be nursed along.
WHATEVER the reason for the disappearance of this hearty American staple, one regrets it. For many years one of the favorites of many diners who visit Florida was beef stew imperial.
IT was served at the famous "Columbia" restaurants, among other places. With yellow rice, this stew, with vegetables and potatoes, made a meal that would carry one through the day.
There are, of course, many varieties of beef stew, Irish stew and other stews. The best often have a tomato base (not too much), onions, potatoes, peas, carrots, corn, etc. (some garlic in Spanish restaurants).
IF local restaurants don't feature this favorite, it can often be found at supermarket delis. It makes a wholesome lunch with an apple, banana, pear, or other fruit, for workmen on the job, those who catch lunch in a car, etc.
But it can also be an elegant restaurant favorite—if well seasoned, made with good beef and freshly made, not from a can or freezer.
