THE SPRING MOHAIR CLIP FINISHED AND IS STORED TO BE SOLD

The spring clip of the Pinon-Avis Angora Goat association has been finished, according to word received here and the clip stored to be offered for sale. Shearing operations have been in progress for four or five weeks and were recently finished. The crop this year is lighter than usual, but of better quality. It has been estimated at approximately 100,000 pounds.

The clip has been stored at Roswell and a sale for both the clip and a previous clip stored will likely be arranged at an early date, it was understood. Both the wool and mohair markets have shown a tendency to sag recently, due to labor troubles in some of the industrial centers. Some hair from the Guadalupe section has been sent to San Angelo, Texas, and will be offered for sale there if bids are favorable.

OFFICERS LOOK FOR CLYDE BARROW AND HIS PALS IN EDDY

A widespread watch has been kept by New Mexico officers for Clyde Barrow, notorious Texas outlaw, and his companions, Raymond Hamilton and Bonnie Parker, following a report Saturday that he was headed for southeastern New Mexico after killing two Texas patrolmen. Barrow is alleged to have kidnaped Joe Johns of Carlsbad two years ago. Johns was then serving as deputy sheriff. Following the report that Barrow and his companions were headed for this section, four Eddy county officers kept a close guard on the strategic points leading into Carlsbad all day Saturday. Later Barrow was reported seen in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, but this evidently only proved to be a rumor.

STATISTICS ON THE PRIMARY REVEALS A LARGE VOTE POLLED

"Two years ago the registration board for the state registered 6,700 voters in Eddy county for the general election held November 8, 1932. In previous general elections the republican party has received from 1,000 to 1,200 votes in the county, leaving normally 5,500 to 5,700 votes which may be claimed as democratic votes. Within the past two years the voting population has increased more than decreased according to official check made in the different precincts of the county. Charges have been made that irregular or repeating voting occurred in the recent primary held March 24, 1934. Estimates prior to the date of the primary were that a heavy vote would be cast in numbers varying from 5,500 to 6,000, and the actual total vote cast in the county was 5,545 by precincts as follows:

| | |
|--------------|------|
| Carlsbad | 2453 |
| Malaga | 247 |
| Hope | 307 |
| Lakewood | 89 |
| Loving | 445 |
| Artesia | 1230 |
| Dayton | 154 |
| Queen | 16 |
| Otis | 287 |
| Cottonwood | 204 |
| Oilfield | 45 |
| White's City | 68 |
| Total | 5545 |

The sheriff's race drew the largest number of votes, totaling for the four candidates, 5,447, indicating that 98 persons did not vote for sheriff. The office of superintendent of schools was next high with a total vote for the four candidates of 5,012. For county clerk, 4,987; state representative, 4,965; for county treasurer, 4,860; for assessor, 4,721; for probate judge, 4,500; for commissioner district No. 2, 4,464; for commissioner district No. 1, 4,407; for commissioner district No. 3, 4,264; surveyor, 3,229; for district judge, 2,975.

Investigations by the chairman of the democratic county central committee of all rumors of irregularities practiced in the primary are founded without proof and based on suspicion without knowledge of facts, and that the election officials participating in the primary in the various precincts and the voters of same are due much praise for their efficient services in conducting the election and to the voters for their interest in trying to select their choice of officials for county and district offices, for all of which, he assured you have the highest regards of the members of this committee."

JESS L. TRUETT, County Democratic Chairman.

GENERAL NEWS BRIEFS

Wickman Sentenced

Carl Wickman, Denver druggist, was convicted of first degree murder by a jury at Albuquerque Monday and was immediately sentenced to die in the electric chair at Santa Fe on June 8, 1934, for the death of his fourth wife, Mrs. Donald Chicone Wickman, former Denver nurse, at Albuquerque the night of November 1, 1933.

Business Better

WASHINGTON — Business is better and credit is easier, Chairman Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, said Monday, with the result that demand for government loans is running well below expectations.

In fact, he added, the bankers now are looking for good lending opportunities in contrast with the long period of stagnation in which primary emphasis was placed on caution.

Highway Debentures to Be Sold

SANTA FE—State highway debentures to the extent of $125,000 were issued to permit payment of March salaries and bills of the state in the absence of tax revenue, while another $500,000 will be sold later at public sale, under authority Tuesday of the state board of finance.

The board explained this move was merely replacing to tax revenue that money which had been taken from taxes by putting the 1922 road bond issue back on the rolls, instead of collecting from gasoline taxes as had been the practice. If and when the tax money comes in, the highway department will be reimbursed.

The finance board also authorized transfer from the state tax commissioner's funds of $10,000 to defray costs of the special session of the legislature, estimated to last 15 days. This figure was arrived at by taking the mileage of the last session, $3,318.72 and one-fourth of the session pay which was $22,695, for a total estimated cost for 15 days of $8,968. Printing and other costs would come from the additional. If the session is more than 15 days, other revenue will have to be found to pay the solons.

Trio Convicted

CARRIZOZO—After four hours of deliberation, a jury yesterday convicted Fred Daugherty, J. E. Jackson and Tonie Humphries of the torture-robbery of R. A. Hunnicutt and his son William at the ranch 40 miles south of here the night of January 19, 1933.

MANN APPOINTED RECEIVER

FARMERS PROTEST AVERAGE ALLOTMENT IN BANKHEAD BILL

Want Five Year Average to Arrive at Allowable Production—Bill Now in Hands of Conferees At Washington.

The Artesia Alfalfa Growers association and local farmers have filed protests with the New Mexico United States senators against the present Bankhead cotton bill now in the hands of the committee, which would take a ten year average yield to arrive at allowable for each individual farmer. Telegrams addressed to Senators B. M. Cutting and Carl Hatch say that to take a ten year average as a basis of production would be absolutely ruinous to the western farmers, while it might not hurt cotton growers of the old south. A telegram from Senator Hatch received here on April 2nd says this provision was taken care of in a senate amendment. Western cotton growers have asked for a five year average on which to base their production.

A brief review of the Bankhead bill might be of interest to our readers. Senator Bankhead and Representative Bankhead, both of Alabama, each introduced a bill in the senate and house of representatives providing for the control of cotton production. The senate Bankhead bill provided for a tax of seventy-five percent to be collected when the cotton was ginned on all cotton produced in the United States over 10,000,000 bales. The house passed a bill providing for a tax of fifty percent, payable when the cotton was ginned. The house bill further provided for a five cents per pound tax on all cotton ginned over the stated allotment and the original senate bill a tax of eight cents per pound. The senate bill was amended by the house to provide a tax of fifty percent. The senate bill was further amended, as we understand it, to reduce the penalty for failure to pay the tax from $1,000.00 to $100.00. The bill now in the hands of a committee contains several amendments, among which are the reduction of the ten year average allowable to a period of five years.

Shirley Wilson of El Paso was here the first of the week in the interest of the Southwestern Irrigated Cotton Growers Association.

CROWDS SEE FORD DEMONSTRATION 3RD

Several hundred people witnessed the Ford demonstration at the Artesia Auto Co. building Tuesday. Here a $10,000 Ford chassis was on display, showing the workings of every moving part. The chassis demonstration was presided over by E. C. Callahan, authority on automotive engineering, who explained the unusual features offered in the new Ford and answered many questions relative to obtaining the best service from the new Ford V-8 Tuesday evening the chassis demonstration was repeated to a large audience.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the entire show or demonstration was the demonstration given by Dick Stubbs, using a local demonstration Ford. Mr. Stubbs selected for his demonstration a plot of ground about a mile north of town. Here Ford owners and prospective Ford owners obtained an idea of what the Ford V-8 would stand up to and how easily it could be handled on the roughest roads. Whipping, turning and speeding over the rough ground, Mr. Stubbs did some things which appeared very difficult, but these things any good driver might do, he said. Driving fifty to fifty-five miles per hour, he hit a ditch eighteen inches deep without any apparent ill effect to its occupants. Without changing his speed, the driver made some quick turns. The purpose of this demonstration was to show the well balanced equilibrium of the new Ford and its spring action. It also showed what a Ford owner could expect of his car under adverse conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Womack and small son of Houston, Missouri, spent several days here last week transacting business and visiting his cousin, Dr. C. L. Womack and family.

The car, parked on Roselawn on the east side of the Palace Drug store, was taken between 9:00 and 10:00 p. m. while Mr. Story was on duty in the drug store. No trace has been found of the car this morning, officers reported.

JACKSON IS ELECTED MAYOR IN THE LAKE ARTHUR ELECTION

E. C. Jackson was reelected mayor of Lake Arthur for the fourth consecutive time Tuesday in a town election that developed some spirit. The name of Mr. Jackson was written over two opponents who had previously announced. Mrs. Grace Havens and J. R. Spence. Trustees elected included A. V. Flowers, G. U. Meador, Mrs. B. C. Moots and J. B. Crook. Several names were written in for trustees, but there was little or no opposition to the candidates whose names were on the ballot. Sixty-five votes were polled. Mrs. Fern Russell was elected town clerk.

OFFICIAL CANVASS RESULTS OF DEMO PRIMARY SATURDAY

The canvass of the returns of the democratic primary of March 24th, held by the Eddy county democratic central committee at Carlsbad Saturday, cut down the margin of votes for some of the candidates, but did not materially affect the position of the leaders. A hundred votes were lost by P. J. McCall, nominee for the office of probate judge, leaving only a margin of twenty-six votes between Mr. McCall and his opponent, Paul A. Otts of Artesia. The canvass of the vote in the county superintendent's race made no change in the totals, leaving G. R. Spencer a thirteen vote margin of victory.

Stewart Contest Motion Overruled

M. C. Stewart, unsuccessful candidate for sheriff, filed a motion for a contest in this office, alleging irregularities. The motion filed several days previous to the committee meeting was overruled by J. L. Truett, presiding chairman, on the ground that the evidence presented was not sufficient to act. Stewart asked for a contest, charging irregularities, but named no specific instances in his request, it was understood. The house sustained the ruling of Chairman Truett when a motion was made by C. W. Beeman that the committee sustain Mr. Truett's ruling and the motion carried.

The canvassing board was composed of six members of the committee including Leslie Martin, Charley Martin, Tex Polk and Pat Reilly, all of Artesia; Jess Funk of the Cottonwood, and Mrs. F. E. Little of Carlsbad, in addition to W. B. Robinson of Carlsbad, acting secretary, and J. L. Truett of Artesia, chairman.

SUPERINTENDENT MURPHY RECOVERING FROM INJURY

Superintendent Irvin P. Murphy of Hope returned to his office on crutches Monday morning after having spent the previous week in St. Mary's hospital at Roswell.

With his right leg, the knee of which was broken in a car accident last week, in a cast, he is managing to perform his work without extrem difficulty. Mr. Murphy appeared completely recovered from a chest bruise, muscle injuries, and minor cuts, all of which were sustained when his car was struck by a poorly controlled car on the Vaughn-Roswell highway.

Insurance carried by the other driver was adequate to care for major expenses. The Murphy car, which was beyond repair, was sold in exchange for a new one.

STORY CAR STOLEN

A 1933 Chevrolet sedan belonging to Lewis Story was stolen here last night. The car, parked on Roselawn on the east side of the Palace Drug store, was taken between 9:00 and 10:00 p. m. while Mr. Story was on duty in the drug store. No trace has been found of the car this morning, officers reported.

Death Toll Is Sixteen In An Oklahoma River Flood

One Body Recovered and 15 Missing—Damage is Estimated Over $500,000—Dozens of Farm Houses Swept Away.

ELK CITY, Okla.—A death toll of sixteen was charged to the roaring flood waters of the Washita river by rescue workers yesterday.

One body, that of ten year old Stella Mae Fenter, was recovered. Fifteen others were missing and were believed to have no chance for survival in the swirling torrent that struck before dawn.

The missing: Mrs. A. M. Adams and five daughters.

Mrs. Lawrence Taylor and one child.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bush and one child.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fenter, parents of Stella Mae, and two other children.

Twenty-two others were rescued from roofs and trees during the long day of anxiety and harried rescue and relief efforts.

Chief White Shield of the Red Moon reservation, said all the Indians on the reservation had been accounted for.

Several rescue workers met mishaps. A youth named Taylor of Lone Wolf, whose motor boat capsized, found refuge in a tree-top, just above the eddying waters.

Two other rescue workers, "Rusty" Toller and Harry Kemp of Custer City, were missing after leaving on a rescue expedition in a motor boat.

The damage was estimated at more than $500,000 by C. P. Smith, Clinton district engineer, assigned to relief headquarters by Carl Giles, state chief of the federal emergency relief administration. Smith was given $3,500 in federal funds for relief purposes.

Dozens of farm houses were swept away, few of the occupants being aware of the deluge until they found themselves being carried along in the murky torrent.

Airplanes, motor boats, ambulances and doctors rushed to the flood area. The Red Cross, the federal relief administration and the national guard also lent aid.

The national guard furnished tents, blankets and cots for emergency housing.

Melting snow raised streams of western Wisconsin still further and the town of Hudson was partly isolated when two dams, a railway and a highway bridge gave away. Watchers said the collapse of the dams released a 50-foot wall of water.

Dr. C. L. Womack has purchased the two-story concrete residence west of the Jim Berry residence and located on West Grand. The dwelling was formerly known as the Horner property.

TEXAS WOMAN IS KILLED IN A FREAK ACCIDENT SATURDAY

Mrs. John A. Lott was instantly killed in a peculiar accident near the ranch home of the Lotts in Culberson county, Texas, Saturday, according to word received from Carlsbad. Mrs. Lott was riding with her husband to round up cattle when an accident occurred and Lott's horse pitched him against the horse his wife was riding and hung his foot in her saddle stirrup and he was pulled beneath the horse.

Mrs. Lott's horse became frightened and pitched her over its head down an incline into a pile of rocks. The fall broke her neck and she died instantly. The body of Mrs. Lott was brought to Carlsbad and shipped Monday to Camp Wood, Texas, for burial.

T. H. Flint drove over to El Paso last Thursday, transacted business in the city and returned Saturday.

A CAMPAIGN PLEDGE

The Eddy county democratic primary, which is now passed history has served to remind us of the need of a uniform system for conducting such elections over the state. The recent primary was no exception with reference to charges of irregularities. These have always existed and always will, even with a rigid state law, but some of the most objectionable features may be eliminated by a good law.

The responsibility of the illegitimate or the illegal vote rests entirely with the candidates and by that we do not mean to make a sweeping charge and blame all for something one may have done or started, but it is a well known fact that there are occasions when the candidates or the candidate's friends are willing to overlook questionable votes if these questionable votes are in their favor, if not the votes of course are crooked. When one starts out to hire workers, his opponents naturally feel that they too must follow suit, however objectionable the procedure may be to them. In the mad scramble to get as many votes as possible, the question of the legality of the vote ceases to be a factor, but it's how have you voted or how many times have you voted that is important.

Thus it is, one candidate if he chooses can determine how clean the election shall be. If the vote is brought out, the others are going to get their share if possible.

The county chairman has said that if March 24th primary was to do over again he would call all candidates together at the time the names went on the ballot and seek an agreement among each and every one to conduct as clean a campaign as possible and not encourage illegal voting. "This would be impossible," you say. Well, perhaps we might have said the same thing about the cotton reduction campaign three years ago for the success of the campaign is dependant on the individual farmer, who has come to realize that if his neighbor cheats the government, the cause of the cotton grower suffers and for this reason the cotton grower is willing to watch his neighbor.

It all comes back to the need of a uniform primary law in the state, not that a primary law would cure all the evils, but the major ones. We believe there is sufficient pressure now on the state government to either pass a primary law at the special session or at the next general session. Why not? It's a party pledge.

THE GOVERNMENT IS THE BIGGEST "CHISLERS"

The federal government is the biggest chissler on the printing code.

Under the fair practice provision of the code, the post office department is supplying printed envelopes at less than the cost of production to the majority of printers over the nation. Not only do they print them below cost of production, but they deliver them without charge to the local post office.

Postage on 1000 envelopes by parcel post from the plant which supply these envelopes would cost the local printer from 50 cents to 75 cents per 1000. Yet, there is an annual deficit in the post office department.

Fair practice by the government would do much to strengthen the NRA. The press of the nation has backed the government in every way, and it is to this backing that the government owes the success of this movement.

Let Uncle Sam come under the NRA the same as a private individual and the sooner will prosperity return.—Portales News.

SANTA NOT HERE

Somehow or somehow else the state politicians and some other people living in other parts of the state can't get over the allusion that Santa Claus lives down in southeastern New Mexico where two new industries have opened up in the past ten years. In one proposed business tax there is a tax of four percent on extractive minerals, which as we understand it, applies to both oil and minerals.

As had as we need revenue for schools there is a limit to taxes on any industry just as there is a limit to taxes on other businesses. A one-time suggested tax on potash would take exactly every cent of profit because contrary to the general opinion potash is today being sold on a very close margin in addition to the fact that it is having to meet stiff foreign competition. Even so potash is the baby industry in the United States and a baby that is being threatened with undernourishment both from factors within the state and because of unwarranted competition.

THE MODERN AUTO

Did you ever stop to figure out the number of commodities used in the manufacture of the modern automobile, steel, nickel, aluminum, glass, rubber, cotton, mohair, and many other base commodities the average person knows nothing of and how the use of these articles affects our national welfare. On top of this the auto consumes about eighty percent of petroleum products manufactured; gas, lube oil, greases and compounds in addition to a lot of chemicals.

We could no more go back to the horse drawn vehicle without disrupting our entire industrial system than we could make ourselves younger by turning the clock back. Today's need is the matter of adjusting ourselves to the new commercial era. The evils that have followed the advent of modern transportation have been those of too rapid expansion and unwise credit.

In speaking of the act of congress in overriding the veto of President Roosevelt in the matter of vets legislation and increasing federal employees pay, the Las Vegas Optic says:

"If congress was right in enacting the economy act of March, 1933, it is wrong in wrecking that act with the additional treasury raids of March, 1934. If there can be such complete reversal of opinion among members of congress on this question, it must follow that they have been certain about nothing done or attempted through legislation since March, 1933."

Experience is a bitter medicine administered by life itself, and must be taken with a bit of conscience. Wisdom is a phantom often chased but seldom overtaken. Success or failure are a matter of opinion. Reputation is the golden scale. Contentment the final objective.

"You played rather poorly at the bridge party last night, old man."

"Yeh, I'd seen the prizes."

McNUTT WINS $60,653 IN HIS POTASH SUIT

The U. S. circuit court of appeals Denver, Colorado, Friday awarded V. H. McNutt a judgment of $60,653 against the U. S. Potash Co., for fees which McNutt claimed due him for locating potash fields in southern New Mexico.

McNutt sued the company for $400,000 and was awarded a judgment for $238,666 by a federal district court in New Mexico. In the opinion which U. S. Circuit Judge George T. McDermott wrote Friday, the court held that the district court's judgment allowed McNutt was exorbitant.

The opinion gave McNutt 30 days to accept the smaller amount, after which, under the ruling Friday, the lower court's decision is reversed.

NEWS BRIEFS OF THE CHAMBER COMMERCE

"As Your Chamber of Commerce Is So Is Your City"

Now is a good time to start the spring clean-up by seeing that all fences are put in good repair, especially those in the back yard. Ash piles or rubbish accumulated thru the winter, whether it is papers, brush or shrub protections, should be out of the way for the lawns or flower beds. A front yard may be a spot of beauty while the back yard may be a disgrace. Someone has said that you can get a very good estimate of kind of homes people live in by passing thru the alleys and observing the back yards.

Speaking of cleanliness suggests the city dump. When an effort was made to move it there was very decided objection to locating it in any location outside the city. The golf enthusiast would have his supersensitive aesthetic sense outraged by having it located within sight of the course. The rancher feared that such an accumulation of debris would corrupt the bovine instinct of his herd. The fishermen were sure that the rich aroma from a dump would detract the interest of the fish of the river from the most alluring baits if it were situated east of town. So it seemed best to leave it right in the midst of 2500 people where no objection has been voiced. We venture to say that there is not another city in the United States of our size and culture that has within its residential district a city garbage dump, a large dairy and a slaughter house. It is only fair to say, however, that the dairy has already made plans to move to the country and that the dump will be moved as soon as the city fathers can secure a new location.

The new program to replace the CWA has not yet been worked out for Artesia, due to the fact that we are trying to get classification as an industrial center, due to the oil, sulphur and potash deposits in this section. Such a classification would be quite an advantage and lose to us none of the privileges of the "rural" designation.

All who now are or who are likely to be dependant on the local welfare committee for a part of their support should make arrangements for a garden at once. The same amount per week will not be granted families during the months they could be helping themselves from a garden of their own planting.

A. G. Morgan of Long Island called at the office on Monday. He admired our section a lot—thought Artesia a nice little city but we didn't talk of the weather.

Handy Poison

A very poor family seeking shelter in San Miguel county came not long ago upon a deserted house. The means of livelihood being so hard to get they searched diligently for anything of value that the previous occupants might have left behind. They did not find much but there was a tin of baking powder. At least it was a good tin with white powder inside and the label said "Baking Powder." They used it as baking powder. But as a matter of fact it was a white powder containing arsenic. They all became very ill. One of them died.

When we use old bottles, old tins, we should be very careful to remove the labels before we put something else inside. Do not save bottles of medicine after you have recovered from sickness. Empty the bottle and wash off the label. What is one man's medicine may be another man's mistake.

If you keep simple remedies, like aspirin, in the home, keep them where the children cannot possibly get at them. One day a mail carrier left a sample package of a patent cathartic compound on the table just inside my front door. My small son found it before I did and had eaten five adult doses before I could interfere. I suffered a good deal of anxiety but fortunately the little boy did not suffer at all—not even a looseness of the bowels. Not all patent remedies are as harmless as that!

Remember too that strong caustics, like lye, and strong antiseptics, like lysol, are very useful to the person who knows about them but very dangerous in the adventurous hands of children. Keep poisons in their proper place.

Why should the heathen go to hell who has never heard of Jesus? When we all go before Jesus will the sinners be on one side and the Christians on the other or will they be lined up? REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAY RESIDENTS

It is difficult for any resident who has lived in any one locality for a number of years to visualize the changes that have taken place but these are readily apparent to anyone who has been away for several years. L. P. Buck, a former early day resident of this vicinity who is here on a visit, expressed surprise at the changes that have occurred in the past seventeen years.

Quite naturally discussing the changes brought up the old reminiscences of the early days. L. P. Buck, with his brother L. R. Buck, and the late C. J. Buck, are former residents of the mountain section. They came here in the eighties. L. R. Buck worked as a section hand on the Santa Fe when it was first built thru here and before Artesia was known. The trading place of the Bucks was El Paso, Texas, then a small frontier town but offering about everything the pioneers needed in the way of supplies. These supplies were freighted by mule and horse teams. Trips to the pass city were infrequent. A trip once about every six months was all that was needed to keep the family in grub and what clothes they wanted.

There was not so much underbrush in the mountain section then. Lots of deer ranged all over the mountains and it was a comparatively easy matter to keep the table supplied with venison. Roswell was just a small trading post and most any of the Pecos valley land could be had for the asking. But who wanted it? Nobody knew anything about the artesian water basin underneath and if they had it would have made little difference. This was a cow country, not a farming section. The land next to the river where the strongest wells are usually located was regarded as worthless—it had too much alkali. The brothers begged L. P. Buck to stay and settle on a piece of ground later filed on by the late C. J. Buck in the Cottonwood section, but Mr. Buck could not see the point.

He could have made a fortune in the valley lands he admits, if he had known then what he knows now, but then there was the period when artesian water was

ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

CONOCO INTRODUCES A Remarkable new MOTOR OIL

Its lower consumption and greater protection to motors proved by the most convincing test ever made!

THIS new oil has a tremendously increased "film strength"—and a penetrative oiliness to always protect your motor. The "Hidden Quart" never leaves a dry spot or a bearing without lubrication—it resists dilution—and eliminates much trouble caused by carbon and sludge.

The process which gives these exclusive new features is protected by recent U. S. patents. Conoco refines a high quality paraffin base oil and then adds the extra oiliness that is absolutely necessary to obtain the protection and low consumption every motorist should demand.

New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil excels in the most convincing test ever made, under the supervision of the AAA Contest Board.

In presenting New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil you are furnished facts of performance. You will at once be convinced of the direct value of this new oil. A test so dramatic, so honest, that it will go down in history!

This test was held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association supervised all details, thus assuring an unbiased opinion. Six new regular stock cars were delivered direct to them. They tested and measured each to obtain an equal condition in all.

Six brands of motor oil, of the same S. A. E. grade, were used. Five of them, all purchased by the AAA on the open market, were nationally known, widely recognized leaders. The other one was New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. All cars were then carefully broken in for 2500 miles. Five quarts, a new and complete fill, were put in each car and the cranks sealed. Then the real battle for supremacy began. The cars were driven for as long as the motors continued to operate.

Here are the results: Oil No. 4 quit at 1713.2 miles; Oil No. 6 quit at 1764.4 miles; Oil No. 5 wrecked the motor at 1815.9; Oil No. 1 ceased its lubricative protection at 2266.8 miles; and Oil No. 3 at 3318.8 miles.

New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil carried on to a total 4729 miles! Over three thousand miles farther than the first oil to go out, and over four hundred miles farther than the final oil of the five!

It is the Germ Processing principle, only used by Conoco, that won the test. This "Hidden Quart" that lubricates all parts at all times—that stays up in your motor and never drains away. Drive into a Conoco Station or Dealer for a fill. You are getting the most in lubrication value that money can buy.

AAA Sanction No. 3001

- 1 The Representatives of the Contest Board of the AAA who supervised every detail of the test.
2 Five quarts of each brand of oil were carefully put in the cars by AAA officials.
3 The official sealing of crankcases after final fill of five quarts was put in.
4 These were new motors before the test. They were wrecked to prove to you how to protect yours.

Warning TO NEW CAR OWNERS... Some car manufacturers are using new types of bearings which will stand greater pressures and temperatures, resulting from increased power and speed. New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has been exhaustively tested on these new bearings. The results show that it gives them greater protection against damage than many straight mineral oils now on the market. Protect your new car by using the motor oil you can see on.

MRS. MARTIN YATES HEADS WOMEN'S CLUB NEXT YEAR

Wednesday was Institute day at the Women's Club. Mrs. G. R. Brainard, program chairman, was responsible for the interesting program. A trio, Meses. Mark Corbin, Jack Spratt and V. L. Gates, with Mrs. J. C. Ferrell at the piano and the violin accompaniment by Mrs. Howard Whitson, rendered a beautiful number, opening the program.

The New Mexico Military Institute which is located at Roswell is one of the outstanding institutions in the United States and is considered as second to the Carlsbad Caverns for bringing people from all states of the union to our sunshine state. Mrs. Brainard felt that club members should familiarize themselves with this institution and secured Colonel Pearson, superintendent of the institute, to speak on this occasion. It was thought that the young men of the graduating class of the local high school would be interested in hearing Colonel Pearson, therefore an invitation was extended to Supt. W. E. Kerr, J. Clarke Bruce, senior sponsor, and these young men. Sixteen members of the class accepted the invitation and were present to hear this program.

Colonel Pearson stated that Artesia has won a distinction which no other city or town in the state or United States has won during the life of the N. M. M. I., that of two of the highest ranking officers coming from the same place. Guy Reed Brainard, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Brainard, and James Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Welch, Sr., won this distinction for Artesia. Much of the early history of the Institute was related beginning with the days of the co-eds up to the present date. Colonel Pearson was given splendid attention and was heartily applauded by his hearers. Mrs. Pearson accompanied her husband on this trip and was a club guest. G. R. Brainard, a member of the board of regents of the N. M. M. I., was also a guest on this occasion.

The annual election of officers was held following the program. Mrs. Martin Yates was unanimously reelected president. Mrs. Jeff Hightower, first vice-president; Mrs. Jack Spratt, second vice-president; Mrs. T. S. Cox, recording secretary; Mrs. C. R. Blocker, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Howard Gissler, treasurer; Mrs. H. A. Stroup, custodian, and Mrs. Mark Corbin, parliamentarian. A general routine of business was taken care of. The following names have been added to the honor roll as having paid their $10.00: Meses. S. S. Ward, Albert Blake, Martin Yates, W. E. Flint and Jack Spratt.

A little more than $15.00 was reported from the food sale last Saturday by Meses. Ward and Gissler. The entire club has been asked to talk and help advertise the roof garden dance to be given by the club Saturday, April 14th.

Attention was called to Harriet Donahue student loan fund, of which Mrs. G. R. Brainard is state chairman. This fund is available for girls of each community who needs funds to continue her education. Donations for this worthy fund are always gladly accepted. Those of means could not have a greater opportunity to help some deserving young lady.

The next program will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rockwell and each member may invite a guest.

PECOS VALLEY PRESBYTERIAL IN ROSWELL

The annual session of the Presbytery of the churches of the Pecos valley was held in Roswell Monday and Tuesday.

At the close of the session the Rev. LeRoy Thompson of Roswell was elected ministerial commissioner, and L. Martin of Dexter elder commissioner, to attend the general assembly at Cleveland in May.

The Presbyterial was also in session at the same time, which is the women's section of the work. Dr. Alice Burke of the San Juan hospital in Porto Rico, was an interesting speaker. She told much of the work with the natives of that country.

Six of the seven churches in this district were represented, including Roswell, Carlsbad, Artesia, Hagerman, Dexter and Clovis. About one hundred visitors were served at the joint luncheon of these two groups Tuesday at the Westminster hall.

Those attending from Artesia were the Rev. W. B. McCrory and S. W. Gilbert, Meses. R. L. Cotton has backed and filled well for ten days resisting unrelenting selling during this time. While the crop prospects are excellent, yet any prolonged wet spell now would change all this. Spinners are still unwilling buyers and come into the market only on recessions and exports have declined radically for the past two months, now registering lower than for any similar period during the entire depression period. All this is very depressing, but the ability of the market to stand firm under such conditions argues well for it.

So many and so varied are the "rabbits in the administration hat" which can still be drawn out unexpectedly that it does not at this time seem advisable to be short of this market. On the other hand past seasons cotton sold at present levels will show very satisfactory prices and sales are advised on any upturns.

The Bankhead bill received amendments as follows in the senate:

- Tax raised 50 to 75%.
- Making all cotton growers eligible to raise six bales of cotton free of tax.
- Using ten year average production instead of five year as basis of arriving at amount of tax-free cotton.
- Reinstated original provision to collect tax when ginned.
- Limiting its life to one year instead of three but giving congress power to extend it.

Senatorial comments: Bailey (N C) "This is the end of liberty." Gore (Okla) "I fear the farmers are wrapping a boaconstrictor about their necks." Stevens (Miss) "I vote for it with misgivings." Barkley (Ky) "I vote for it with my fingers crossed." Many said: "It is the beginning of regimentation." Our personal attitude is that as an emergency measure it may be the best way out as a permanent thing we are strongly opposed. The bill is now in joint conference.

$100,000.00 IN EMERGENCY LOANS

Approximately $100,000.00 has been granted farmers of the upper valley under the emergency federal farm loan act. Of this amount about $50,000 has been placed in the Artesia district. Farmer owners can only borrow money sufficient to clear up their indebtedness.

CULTIVATORS . . . CULTIVATORS

If you want to reduce your cotton production far below your allowable tax-free quota don't use our cultivators.

THE REASON:

A Rock Island round or flat steel beam single or two row cultivator equipped with bull-tongue shovels will make your quota of cotton.

FOREST NOTES

Three CCC Camps to Move Of the four CCC camps that have been in the Lincoln National Forest for the past winter, only one, High Rolls camp, will remain during the summer. Camp Baca, F17N, located at Raton near Capitan, will go to the Medicine Bow National Forest, Wyoming, for the summer work. The removal date is May 15. Penasco camp, F32N, located at Mayhill, will be assigned to the Cochetopa Forest in Colorado, for the summer season. The removal date is also May 15. La Luz camp, F28N, located in La Luz canyon during the past winter goes to the Big Horn Forest in Wyoming. Removal date is May 20.

Varied Program for High Rolls Camp The High Rolls CCC camp, the only camp of that administration in the Lincoln National Forest for the coming summer season, will have a varied program of work, the major feature of which will be the completion of the High Rolls-Shelton ranch road. There are a number of miles of this protective forest road to be constructed yet.

Water Canyon Improvement A force of CCC men are in the Water Canyon area. Considerable fish-stream improvement will be undertaken there, and by means of many little dams small pools will be formed and the little stream will be planted with native trout. It is not recorded that this stream has ever contained fish in historical times. There will be fencing and erosion control work undertaken. The Forest Service Supervisor's office is preparing a program of summer work for the High Rolls camp.

La Luz Canyon Road Two major projects have been undertaken by the La Luz canyon CCC contingent the past winter. The first was the erosion control work in the upper part of the La Luz watershed. Twenty-two hundred dams, large and small, have been constructed in the canyon and its tributaries. The main arroyo of the canyon has some fifty good sized dams. There is considerable curiosity to learn what control these dams will exercise on the run-off after a heavy rainfall.

The other major item of the winter program of work was the building of the La Luz road from a point where the forest road from High Rolls touches the canyon, on down to where the main highway is reached near the La Luz Clay Products plant. Also a good secondary road is built from the junction with the High Rolls road at the old Springer place on up the canyon for about eight miles to the top of the divide over into Silver Springs canyon. A road north from Torgoggan up Bailey canyon has been worked so that it will be passable for transportation of fire fighters in case of an emergency. Away back in '98 a tramroad ran up Bailey canyon over into the head of the La Luz canyon and it was in here that the old Alamogordo Lumber Company did its first lumbering.

Several Camps to Return Next Winter Next winter when the weather gets too cold for outdoor work in the northern national forests, it is expected that a number of CCC camps will be brought back on the Lincoln forest, where men can work outdoors practically every day of the year. The Lincoln forest personnel will start on a suggestive program for winter work at once.—Alamogordo News.

HEROISM RECOGNIZED

He was cited for caring for wounded soldiers while under fire, when he was an assistant surgeon of the thirty-fourth Infantry, United States Volunteers.

CWA ENDS WORK

WASHINGTON — The letters CWA, once the symbol of a great peace time employment machine, went back into the alphabet Saturday.

The Civil Works Administration, folding the tent that once housed its 4,000,000-man army, passed along word nevertheless that the million and a half who dropped their tools yesterday may report back to work on Monday.

The men, however, will not be CWA employees but workers on relief rolls. The actual needs of each will be investigated. His work hours and earnings will be limited to his budgetary requirements.

"Nobody is going hungry if we can help it," said Harry L. Hopkins, who directed the big emergency job from start to finish.

The passing of the CWA was a quiet affair compared to the rumblings of discontent that greeted the first news of this decision. Letters of objection poured in by the thousands at first, but this stream thinned to a trickle as the job was completed.

Hopkins was exultant over both the thousands of individual projects completed, costing for both labor and material about $1,000,000,000, and the carrying out of the whole plan.

"We were told we couldn't put 4,000,000 men to work," said the young - appearing administrator. "Later we were told we couldn't demobilize them. "We put them to work and we demobilized them."

MOUNTAIN GOATS CARRY UNDULANT FEVER GERM--REPORT

Extensive research on undulant fever is expected as the result of tests made by Dr. K. F. Meyers, professor of bacteriology at the University of California at San Francisco, on blood from Eddy county goats.

Dr. O. E. Puckett, county health officer, two weeks ago obtained blood samples from 52 goats on the ranch of Fred Cox at El Paso Gap and sent them to Meyers, according to the Carlsbad Current-Argus.

Twenty-three of the samples showed positive reactions to tests for the brucella basillus which causes undulant fever in human beings and contagious abortion in goats and cattle, Meyers told Puckett in a letter received Saturday.

The blood was taken from one herd of about 1,000 goats. Cox has about 3,500 goats on the ranch.

Five employees on the Cox ranch were seriously ill last year from a malady which Puckett believed to be undulant fever. The tests by Meyers practically prove his contention.

Two persons in Carlsbad have died within the last four years as a result of the disease.

Meyers said he will either come to Carlsbad soon to kill the diseased goats or have several of them sent to him at San Francisco for experimentation in hope of producing a serum to combat the disease.

It is possible, however, that Puckett will take a load of the goats to San Francisco in a trailer, leaving probably in May, and help Meyers in laboratory research on the disease.

COURT DECISION UPHOLDS RIGHT OF PRICE FIXING

NEW YORK—The right of the federal government, under the national industrial recovery act, to set a minimum price was upheld by Federal Judge John C. Knox.

The decision, awaited by the NRA before remodeling its code set-up, was made in enjoining the Spotless Dry Cleaners, Inc., from cutting prices under the minimum rate established by the cleaners and dyers code authority.

The decision was regarded as charting a course for code enforcement. Other cases are under preparation in Washington for court presentation.

HIDDEN TAX LURKS IN INSURANCE PLAN

WASHINGTON—A brand new "hidden tax" will be levied upon American consumers if the proposed unemployment insurance bill is passed by congress, according to views expressed by opponents of the measure who appeared before the house ways and means committee. In addition to reaching into consumers' pockets for another subtle tax toll, the bill would drive industry faster and faster toward mechanization, declared John C. Gall, associate counsel of the National Association of Manufacturers, in a formal statement before the ways and means committee. Pointing out that "employers pay men, not machines," Mr. Gall stressed that under operation of the unemployment insurance bill "the one who has better machinery pays less tax because his payroll is less." Then he asked: "Can there be any question that the normal tendency of the bill will be to depress wages, since the higher the payroll, the greater the taxes?" Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins admitted that funds raised by the bill would be levied upon consumers. She told the committee that the "passing along" process would be done "painlessly by a very minute rise in prices." How "painless" that would be is undetermined, but the millions of persons who have been without jobs for four years, along with other millions who have jobs, are not likely to consider as "painless" any measure that would encourage more machines instead of more workers.

COMPLETES STUDY IN ADVANCED HOME ECONOMICS

ST. CHARLES, Missouri—Miss Jacqueline Ward of Artesia has just completed an intensive study in her advanced work in home economics at Lindenwood College, of the pineapple in various forms, as to its keeping qualities, its use in cookery, and the best modes of canning it. This is part of her term project, the balance of which will be the giving of a dinner of her own preparation, to two or three guests in the home economics suite, after Easter. The investigation of canned foods has been carried on by a class of nine, each of whom has seen a demonstration of the other's findings. In the study of pineapple, for example, Miss Ward purchased about a dozen brands of this fruit, canned or preserved in some form. First she carefully removed the labels, substituting anonymous numbers for identification. The product was subjected to tests of quality, flavor, weight, size, fidelity to claims for it made by the manufacturer, price and general merit. She tabulated her own findings, then prepared the pineapple for tasting and inspection by the other eight, to whom it was the subject of a class study. After all verdicts were in, the commercial labels were substituted, and the whole class then had a good idea of which of the pineapple producers do the best by the consumer. Other members studied peaches, pears, peas, cheese, tuna fish, shrimp, olives, asparagus.

PRO. CREDIT LOANS ARE AVAILABLE NOW

Applications for production loans to farmers in Eddy, Chaves, Lea and Lincoln counties are now being received by G. H. Sellmeyer, secretary-treasurer of the Roswell Production Credit Association at Roswell, New Mexico. According to Mr. Sellmeyer all loans will be made on a business basis in line with the security furnished by the applicant.

"The loans that will be made in this county and the other three counties served by the Roswell association must be good loans and loans that are collectible if the association is to continue as a permanent service to farmers in this and other communities, as intended," Mr. Sellmeyer states.

Each applicant has to state in his application what property he is offering to secure the loan. Mr. Sellmeyer says. Security for these loans will consist of first liens on crops, livestock or other personal property on which a lien, or chattel mortgage may be taken to secure the loan adequately. The lien may be taken on property already in the possession of the borrower, or to be purchased with the money borrowed. It is not intended that production loans shall be secured principally by mortgages on real estate. Where this type of security is taken it will be regarded only as additional collateral.

Mr. Sellmeyer states that the charges on production loans would be as low as possible in keeping with business credit. A small fee is charged to inspect the property offered as security by the applicant, but usually no charge will be made for inspection if the loan is not granted.

The minimum amount of a production loan is $50. The interest rate at present is 5 1/2 per cent, charged only for the actual number of months the loan is outstanding. The interest is not collected until the loan is due.

WALNUT CANYON ROAD IS AWARDED

Word was received from Washington at Carlsbad Monday by Thomas Boles, superintendent of Carlsbad Caverns National Park, that bond of Armstrong and Armstrong, contractors, has been approved for the construction of the Walnut canyon road.

Work on the road probably will begin next week, Boles said. About 100 men will be employed at first, he estimated, but emphasized that all workers for the contract job will be furnished through the national reemployment office.

The road will be about eight and one-half miles long and extend from White's camp to the entrance of Carlsbad Cavern. Contract price is $200,000.

MORE INFORMATION ON HATCHERY CODE

A recent set of new rules and interpretations of old rules concerning the Hatchery Code have recently been sent out by Secretary Wallace, says W. M. Ginn of the New Mexico State College. The highlights of these may be summarized as follows:

1. Poultrymen selling or hatching less than 500 chicks, and custom hatching less than 1,000 eggs, are exempt from the Hatchery Code.

2. Every person selling 500 or more chicks, whether they hatch them or act as an agent for a hatchery, must comply with the code. This means that chick dealers must comply.

3. This provision of the code applies to baby chicks, turkey poults, and ducklings. Game birds and other kinds of poultry do not come under its provisions.

4. Brokers and dealers (like the hatcherymen) cannot sell accredited, certified, or pullorum tested chicks unless they comply in every way with the requirements of the state agency supervising this work in the particular state, which in this state is the New Mexico State Poultry Association.

5. The terms "accredited," "certified," etc., may be used only to describe grades of chicks produced under the supervision of some official state agency. If this work is supervised by a poultry association, it must have some connection with an official state agency.

6. When chicks are advertised and sold as of the strain of a certain breeder, such chicks must be of this particular strain without any mixture of breeding whatever.

7. Eggs from games, game bantams and ornamental bantams are exempt from the egg weight clause.

8. Radio advertising must comply with the code.
