ONE SENTENCED IN DIST. COURT TUES.

Richard V. Kimbel was sentenced to from five to six years in the state penitentiary by Judge James B. McGhee in district court Tuesday when Kimbel pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing a car belonging to Martin Hughes of Carlsbad.

His partner, Jack Dyer, pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing the car and was given from 18 to 30 months.

Kimbel also pleaded guilty to a former conviction. His former conviction was on a charge of robbery with a dangerous weapon. He was sentenced to the penitentiary from Roswell, April 17, 1929.

The two men took a car belonging to Hughes from in front of Hughes' home at Carlsbad shortly after midnight last Thursday morning.

Lea county officers attempted to stop the thieves by parking their car in a cattle guard near the junction of the Hobbs and Lovington roads a few miles west of Hobbs. Kimbel, who was driving, did not heed the demands of the officers and catapulted the car through the narrow space available in the cattle guard, damaging the officers' car.

Officers then opened fire, hitting a tire. The two men abandoned the car and fled across county. They were arrested by Howell Gage, Bill Anderson, Eddy county deputies, and Buster Lee, the latter a deputy sheriff from Lea county, about six hours later, having walked twenty miles.

Judge McGhee attended to a number of civil matters Tuesday. He also sentenced two boys to the reform school.

Misses Lucretia Jackson and Opal Neatherlin left Tuesday for Long Beach, California, to spend the summer.

Company officials including stockholders and directors attending the meeting here included: Carl L. Modesitt, Denver, Colorado, president; W. A. Snyder, Denver, Colorado, first vice-president; Guy H. Pratt, Columbus, Ohio, director; Russell Harris, Omaha, Nebraska, director; T. J. Page, stockholder; E. X. Erickson, Denver, Colorado, secretary and attorney; Ben Sallows, Alliance, Nebraska, stockholder.

W. A. Snyder, vice-president announced at Carlsbad recently, according to press dispatches, that the Texas Company would sink a mine shaft on company properties east of Carlsbad, beginning about August 1st. In the meantime, two more core tests are planned to further test this area.

A meeting between members of the commissioner's court, council members of Artesia and Carlsbad and possibly Hope has been arranged at Carlsbad Friday to endeavor to agree on a uniform liquor license fee. G. R. Brainard, member of the commissioner's court said here Tuesday. The date was set at the regular meeting of the commissioner's court at Carlsbad Monday. Only routine business was transacted by the court at the regular session Monday.

HEAR TALK ON CITIZENSHIP

Members of the Artesia Rotary club heard a splendid talk on the subject of "Citizenship" delivered by Judge S. E. Ferree at the regular luncheon Tuesday. Earl Patterson of Roswell was the only visitor present.

TINGLEY RECALL MOVE IS DEFEATED BY A 6 TO 1 VOTE

ALBUQUERQUE—Clyde Tingley, chairman of the Albuquerque city commission, was victor Tuesday night when he defeated a move to recall him by a majority of slightly less than six to one in a special city election held at Albuquerque Tuesday.

Tingley carried every voting place and the vote late Tuesday night stood 5,627 against recall and 946 for recall. The vote cast was slightly more than cast in the regular city election last April when Tingley was re-elected by a three to one majority.

His recall was demanded recently by a group of citizens who obtained over 1,000 signatures to the recall petition. No charges were ever preferred in the petition which made the election mandatory as long as it contained the proper number of signatures. The recall election aroused little interest although several meetings were held by organizations for both sides in the issue.

STAMP TAX

ALBUQUERQUE—Operation of the liquor stamp tax during the first three days of June brought $14,000 into the state's treasury, J. C. Pillow, executive secretary of the state liquor control board said yesterday. The tax became effective June 1.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Paton and their niece Miss Hazel English, who has visited here for several months, left Saturday for their former home in Ohio in response to a message stating that the mother of Mrs. Paton was critically ill. Miss English will not return with them.

HIGHER GINNING FEES FORESEEN BY ASSN. PRESIDENT THIS FALL

West Texas-New Mexico Ginners to Meet in El Paso to Discuss Rules; Government Asks for Samples From All Gins.

Increased costs of ginning cotton which are made necessary by regulations adopted by the agricultural adjustment association will cause increased rates, C. W. Beeman, Loving, president of the New Mexico Ginners' association, said last week on his return to Carlsbad from Washington.

A hearing will be held in El Paso in about two weeks at which all ginners of New Mexico and west Texas as well as cotton farmers of the area will be welcome, to discuss the regulations which are to be enforced on the ginners making necessary increased ginning costs.

The problem of the increased ginning charge was discussed in Washington but no conclusion was reached and the state meetings were ordered to decide on rates in each individual state.

The agricultural department has demanded that all gins secure equipment necessary to do a first-class job of ginning. A four-ounce sample must be taken by the ginner from each bale of cotton and sent to the agricultural department. When these samples show that a first-class job of ginning is not being done, the gin will be closed down by the agricultural department.

It is held by the department Beeman said, that the farmers have lost millions of dollars annually because of poor ginning and that the farmers will be saved money even if having to pay a little more for the ginning process, if their cotton is ginned properly.

Each gin is to be bonded from $5,000 to $10,000 as a guarantee to the keeping of regulations and for the collection of taxes under the Bankhead bill, Beeman said.

The internal revenue department will make the ginners their agent for the collection of taxes from individuals and keep records on the amount ginned by each individual.

Beeman attended the three weeks of conferences in Washington as a member of the national ginners committee, composed of one delegate from each cotton producing state. Several attended as advisory members from various states.

WUNSCH APPOINTED

W. A. Wunsch, county agent, has been appointed director of drought relief for Eddy county, it was announced at Carlsbad Tuesday. This was the time it was definitely learned that Eddy county would be included in the relief program. A total of $100,000 has been previously appropriated for drought relief in the state.

At the call of J. L. Truett, democratic county chairman, a democratic precinct convention was held here Thursday afternoon and elected thirteen delegates to the county convention convening at Carlsbad on the afternoon of June 18th. GENERAL NEWS BRIEFS

WASHINGTON—A plunge in the United States' birth rate—certain to carry the 1933 figure low, and still dropping—was disclosed Saturday by the bureau of vital statistics.

"We did not expect a decrease as rapid as it is," said Dr. Timothy F. Murphy, chief of the bureau, reporting on the plummetlike movement. "A situation thought to have extended over a long period of years has been hastened."

Margaret Sanger, veteran birth control exponent, was quick to call the declining birth rate a general boon as well as a triumph for her cause.

Must Cut Budgets

SANTA FE—Work over time instead of employing any others, cut salaries, eliminate advertising and raise tuition fees, Gov. A. W. Hoekenhull advised state departments, institutions, boards, commissions and agencies in a message Saturday regarding their budgets for the next fiscal year.

Urging the strictest economy, the governor advised them to base their budget estimates on a basis of 90 per cent of the appropriations.

THE ADVANTAGES OF PAYING TAXES BEFORE 15TH ARE EXPLAINED

Tax payments in Eddy county totaled $12,568.56 last month, according to Harry Christian, deputy treasurer.

Heavier payments are expected during the next week, since, under state law, 1933 taxes may be paid until June 15 without interest. Further, if all 1933 taxes are paid by June 15, any taxes owed prior to that time can be paid by October 1 without interest, or if paid in installments, at reduced interest rates.

The regulations passed by the recent special session of the legislature also provide that when 1933 taxes are paid in full by June 15, one-fourth of the 1932 and prior taxes may be paid without interest by October 1; and the remainder in three equal installments payable (Continued on last page column 4)

SHOWERS GENERAL OVER AREA WITH A LIGHT HAIL STORM

Three or Four Sections South and East of Town Hit by Light Hail; Rain Here Measures Third of an Inch.

High winds which raged over this section for the past three days of the week brought relief in the form of moisture Sunday afternoon, covering a strip of country about ten or twelve miles wide. The precipitation here amounted to one-third of an inch and extended across the river east for about thirty miles. A light hail storm which hit south-east of town did some damage to growing crops, stripping some leaves from cotton. Farmers said the hail would not necessitate replanting.

Further inquiry into the damage and extent of the hail storm Sunday indicates the storm centered on about three or four sections southeast of town. Monday some farmers in that hail area said it would be impossible to estimate the extent of damages for at least a few days. Rumors that hail drifted a foot or more in the area south and west of Hope could not be confirmed.

The rainfall over the valley appears to have been fairly general, varying from light to heavy showers, extending west from Roswell for several miles and east to Cap Rock and Tatum.

CUTS ARTERY IN HAND

Buster Wake, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wake of Mayhill, had the misfortune to cut an artery in his left hand Saturday while climbing over a wire fence. Emergency treatment was applied at the time of the accident and the young man brought here yesterday for medical attention.

Mr. Wake, a former resident of Carlsbad and a well known brick mason of this section, informs us that he has just finished a new ranger station building at Mayhill. The building, a seven-room residence, is made of stone in a spider web finish and is one of the most attractive pieces of masonry to be found in the mountains.

First Sealed Bid Wool Sale To Be Held Here Friday

Wool coming in rapidly Now; 200,000 Pounds Stored Here; Showing of Wool to be Held at Roswell Today.

Wool continues to come in rapidly and is being stored at the Bullock warehouse at the rate of about 15,000 pounds daily. Approximately 200,000 pounds have been stored to date. Eight clips have been sent in since last report. These include D. A. Calhoun, Mike Iribarne, Mrs. Mary McDonald, Dave and Ernest Bunting, Hilary White, M. C. Munson, Dick Carson, Henry Coffin, Sy and Bill Bunting.

First Sale

The first sealed bid sale is scheduled to be held here Friday. It is not known at this time the amount of wool that will be offered for sale, but the amount in storage will approximate 250,000 pounds. The grade of the present clip continues to hold up well, although it is somewhat lighter than usual.

Reports from Roswell say that about a million pounds have been stored there. The first wool showing will be held there today.

While rains have been fairly general over this section they have not been heavy enough to insure grass and weeds for an extended period. The range is described as spotty with probably the driest spot in the area of the Runyan pasture north of Hope. Stock water is sufficient to meet the demands of the next few months and the condition of the pasture is expected to stop the movement of sheep and livestock to other parts for water and grass.

The livestock is in fair flesh. Movement to market has practically stopped. Little stuff is being shipped out at present.

Four new wells will start up soon, one is announced as a 5,000 foot test in a wildcat territory. Locations staked include the Ike Ogg No. 1 of the Texas Company in the center of the NW SE sec. 35-24-36, Phillips Petroleum Co., Woolworth No. 1 in the SW sec. 23-24-36, in Eddy county, Etz Hammond and Keyes have made a location for their state No. 1 in the SE SE sec. 16-17-28. OBSOLETE HIGHWAYS

In recent years when millions of dollars have been spent on highway construction, it appears to the average layman that much money has been wasted in the abandonment of old roads. In some cases this is a fact, but highway experts tell us that new roads are built and old roads changed to keep pace with improvements made in the manufacture of motor cars.

Old highways made with their right angle turns, may have served the traveling public well in their day, but today they are as much out of date as the 1914 motor car. The modern motorist today demands a road that he can safely travel at fifty to sixty miles per hour. In the days when thirty-five miles was considered a good average speed, right angle turns and rough spots did not mean much. Neither were grade crossings considered especially dangerous. Motorists had a little more time to look to the right and left and a little more time to slow down at the curves then. But today we expect to start out at fifty to sixty miles per hour and keep the speed constant. High speed has served to help eliminate much of the distance, but at the same time we have paid for the fast mode of transportation in both the purchase of more powerful motor cars and by the building of newer and faster roads.

At the same time we often witness a new highway paralleling an old one, an apparent waste of money, but this is not the only form that money is seemingly wasted. What we need is a highway engineer with a greater vision than the auto engineer.

SOUND ADVICE PERHAPS

A college professor, in addressing a group of women college graduates recently, advised them to learn all possible about modern science and government theory in preparation for a government job at Washington. After once securing a job they could then begin to look for a husband who might also figure on getting a government job and when both once secured a government job, they could live happy ever after as the government rarely ever discharges one of its employees.

When one looks at the growing list of government employees, one is impressed with the fact that the professor's advice smacked with good common horse sense. The outlook for private initiative, where one can be his own boss, appears less and less attractive, in view of the fact that every year the government infringes more and more on the control of modern industry. And, too, in getting a government job, one can lay aside worries incidental to having the ability of holding his position and devote more of his time to playing politics because after all this is a major factor in holding a major position. The only worry we can see that the government employee may have is when he looks at the dwindling number of taxpayers and must wonder where future sources of revenue may come from. In numbers the federal and state employees are growing stronger and at the present rate of increase, it won't be long before they will have the balance of power, it's only a question of who'll be left in private life to pay the bills.

THE PROBLEM OF REHABILITATION

Getting the needy located where they may become self-supporting is not the only major problem connected with the rehabilitation program, but a few people who have been sustained solely by efforts of the federal government in providing a sustenance, must be brought back to the idea they must live by their own initiative. To the vast majority of those in need, relief offered by the government has been accepted only under dire circumstances and has been rejected as soon as gainful employment could be secured. Others hard pressed even in normal times have accepted relief with little thought of placing their services in the private labor channels. They are apparently satisfied to accept what the emergency relief program offers without any effort to seek gainful employment. They are satisfied to accept charity from the government if it may be called that and will discourage any effort to discontinue direct relief.

The problem is one to be solved by the self-supporting citizen, otherwise we will only be emulating the English dole system. We say it is a problem of self-supporting citizens and it is because he must supply taxes to provide a relief revenue. The great danger lies in the fact that taxes may continue to increase at such a rate until they will remove the initiative to be self-supporting.

HOW ABOUT WORK ON 83?

Lea county is certainly in the position to heap coals of fire upon the head of the state administration of New Mexico, from the chief executive down to the lowest rank of the state's official staff.

Paying approximately one-sixth of the cost of state maintenance, by way of production tax, Lea county receives less consideration than any other county in the commonwealth, particularly in the matter of highways.—Hobbs News.

Notice where the residents of Gallup have chartered a special train to attend the next session of the state highway commission. The commission is sorter catching it in the neck on these demands recently.

SWOPE'S SUCCESSOR TO BE SELECTED SOON

The Democratic State Central Committee will be called together soon to name a successor to Ed Swope, state chairman, who resigned May 22.

Acting Chairman John Bingham, state bank examiner and secretary-treasurer of the committee, said he had not sent out notices of the meeting as the date had not been definitely fixed. It was expected to be about June 23.

Swope resigned May 22, although he did not mail his resignation until four days later. He was named to the wardenship of McNeil Island, a federal prison. To qualify for that place he had to resign as state chairman. It could not be learned if his resignation was handed in as warden of the New Mexico penitentiary, but was assumed he had resigned. John B. McManus of Albuquerque was regarded as the probable successor at the prison. George Cook, for whom support was gathered, has definitely announced he is not a candidate, it was understood at Santa Fe.

CARBON PAPER—The Advocate

NEWS BRIEFS OF THE CHAMBER COMMERCE

"As Your Chamber of Commerce Is So Is Your City"

The activities of the Chamber of Commerce this past week have been identified with three major activities, namely: Road 83, the proposed creamery mentioned in last week's column, and the more recent plan for financing a hospital.

It is not yet certain that any of these interests will be immediately realized but we believe that all will be actual accomplishments within the next few years. The status of the creamery depends upon some meager financing that ought not to be a prohibitive obstacle and would perhaps mean more to the valley farmers than any other enterprise suggested for some time.

It is too early to announce hospital plans for they are not fully determined as yet but we do want the citizens to know that the institution has not been forgotten.

The office has received much criticism relative to the handling of relief workers during the past two weeks and part of this was merited. Many men have been slow to stop working on relief projects at $2.40 per day and work in the field for two hours longer per day for one dollar.

SIMMONS UNIVERSITY RECEIVES LARGE GIFT

A gift of $250,000.00 was recently received by Simmons University at Abilene, Texas, from Mr. and Mrs. Hardin of Texas. This brings their total gifts to the university to $400,000.00. The trustees of the school recently voted to change the name to Hardin and Simmons University.

And their side of the issue can easily be seen. Farm wages are not what they ought to be and this is no criticism on the farmer. He never has had an even break and has not yet any one who works for him, of necessity, must share his unfavorable position. Some of the farmers have been unable to get hold of the cash necessary to pay their help and this has further complicated the situation.

All relief work but the garden was suspended last week that the farmers might secure additional workers in the field and then the work started on the street surfacing and the good intentions of the relief committee were nullified for the released workers went to work on the street.

Before the paper comes out we expect to get definite word regarding the government farm plan and if possible a short statement will be inserted in the paper at the last minute.

P. L. Loving is now in charge of the issuance of relief orders and commodities and is stationed in the Bullock building. Office hours for this special service are from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 m. and from 1:30 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

The commodities which now consist of flour, smoked pork, wheato cereal, cheese and canned beef, are available to all on direct relief and also to others who are not on relief but are finding it difficult to secure sufficient nourishing food for the family.

Miss Mary B. Perry of Santa Fe is expected in town this week for the purpose of making a complete survey of our relief load and helping us formulate plans for more adequately caring for the needs of distressed people.

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 10th. The golden text is: "Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things." (Psalms 72:18).
Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Phil. 4:8).
The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from the great and only cause."

Young folks class 6:30 p. m.
Evangelistic service 7:30 p. m.
Ladies Bible Class Thursday 2:30 p. m.
Mid-week service Thursday, 7:30 p. m.
Subject under discussion at the 11:00 o'clock service is: "Building of God." And at the evangelistic service will speak on the "Holy Spirit".
The answer to last week's problem for the Ladies Bible Class was 74.
The problem for this week is: If you will multiply the number of years that the man was sick whom Christ healed at Bethsaida by the number of principal men that were raised against the Assyrians; to the result add the number of Ornan's sons that hid themselves; divide this sum by the number of years Solomon was in building the temple; from this subtract the number of times the trees that Jude wrote of were dead; divide the remainder by the number of Pharaoh's dreams; to this add the number of months that Moses was hid by his mother; multiply this sum by the number of chapters that were written by Paul; divide the result by the number of days between the time that Paul went up to Jerusalem and his trial before Felix; multiply this by the number of cubits the disciples were from land when Christ met them at the Sea of Tiberias; and you will have the number of Solomon's chariot horses.

An invitation is extended to all.

SCOUT NEWS

Respect due the flag: It has been said that as a people the American people know very little about our flag and are yet more careless in observance of the respects due to it. In street parades thousands fail to stand at attention and salute the flag. It is very important therefore, that Scouts be trained in the proper observance of rules in regard to respecting the flag and to know about their flag and when and how to salute it. The pledge of allegiance to the flag is not required by law in the United States as it is in some countries but is encouraged among Scouts. When a Scout is taking the oath allegiance in ranks he salutes and holds the salute through the entire ceremony at the command of the leader. When taking the pledge individually he salutes and holds the salute through the ceremony. When and how to salute the flag: Always face the flag. Scouts not in ranks, if in uniform come to attention and salute. If not in uniform, hold hat in right hand over head and stand at attention. In ranks, uniform or not, salute but for uniformity command should be given by leader or officer. In either case the salute should be held from the first to the last note of the bugle or band when the national anthem is being played. If the flag is on display when the national anthem is being played, face the flag. If no flag is being displayed face the music.
The salute to the national anthem is the same as to the flag. Civilians should salute, the men by removing the hat and holding it over the heart, and women should hold the right hand over the heart.
When passing the flag, salute six paces before reaching the flag and hold salute six paces past the flag.
When the flag is passing, salute at the moment the flag passes. When a flag is displayed in a room in which officers or enlisted men are present they should salute the first time they have occasion to pass it but not thereafter. Scouts and Scout officials are governed by the same rules.

THE MODERN LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE COMES TO ARTESIA

A modern adaption of the "little red schoolhouse"—this time in the form of a traveling school for motor car mechanics—rolled into Artesia Thursday. It was housed in a trim Ford V-8 sedan delivery truck, equipped for mechanical demonstrations of the proper methods of servicing Ford cars of all types. Headquarters during its stay here was at the Artesia Auto Co., local Ford dealer.
The "school on wheels," which is under the direction of the Denver branch of the Ford Motor Company, is similar in theory to many new traveling schools which "carry the school to the student." The school truck is equipped with tools of every description to illustrate the most modern methods of motor car servicing employed by Ford dealers.
Thirty-two such traveling schools one in each Ford branch territory in the United States, have been inaugurated by the Ford Motor Company for the benefit of Ford owners. Classes which are being conducted daily in all parts of the country are under the direction of a factory representative charged with the task of visiting Ford dealers for the purpose of instructing their mechanics in latest approved methods of servicing and maintenance.
Through the classes mechanics are given the benefit of thorough training in every phase of Ford service—not only the more important major repair operations but also in methods of facilitating properly maintenance and adjustment operations and minor repairs.
In the course of classes, lessons were given in Ford engine construction. A thorough discussion was held of the theory and practice of motor tune-up. Special emphasis was given to the new Ford cylinder assembly exchange policy, under which the old practice of engine overhaul is replaced by purchase and installation of engines reconditioned at the factory.
Instruction was given in the servicing and repair of the Ford carburetor, distributor and fuel pump, as well as other units of the electrical system, and the cooling system.
The school was conducted again June 1st at the service department of Artesia Auto Co., local Ford dealer.

HOUSE PASSES CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON—Legislation to bring grain and cotton exchanges under government control was passed by the house Monday and sent to the senate without a single objection.
The measure was taken up unexpectedly under suspension of the rules and passed without a record vote in less than an hour. Its disposition in the senate was uncertain, however, not only because of the press of major legislation that must be acted on before adjournment, but because of stiff opposition in some quarters, particularly to regulating cotton exchanges.
Designed primarily to curb speculation, the bill would set up a commission composed of the secretaries of agriculture and commerce and the attorney general with broad authority to check speculative holdings and other practices. It also would ban "wash sales," bucket shops, and indemnity trading.
Applying in present form to wheat, cotton, rice, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, grain sorghums and mill feeds, the legislation is so drawn that poultry, lard or other commodities could be added later.
The commission would give full leeway in setting the limits of futures that one individual might hold at one time and also restrict price fluctuations.

HUGE DEFICIENCY BILL IS REPORTED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON—A deficiency supply bill authorizing a potential six billion dollar relief expenditure by President Roosevelt was reported Saturday to the house by its appropriations committee.
In submitting the measure, however, the committee disregarded the chief executive's request for unlimited discretionary power as to allocations of some funds and tied up certain items by mandatory provisions.
In actual cash outlay from the treasury, the bill calls for $1,178,269,000, but it contains provisions that all the unused borrowing power of the reconstruction corporation, the unspent PWA funds, savings brought about by the economy act of 1933 and unexpended farm administration relief monies may be transferred to feed and clothe the hungry.

Trammel, Mesilla Park, commissioner of public lands; Cecil Johnson, Dexter, and Harry Mavrojenis, Raton, state corporation commissioners; A. Ray, Gallup, U. S. Senator (long term); C. G. Plaster, Clovis, U. S. Senator (short term); and G. A. Turnbaugh, Hagerman, congressman.

A Lighting Test

Can you see to read or sew comfortably in every chair in your living room without annoyance from the glare of unshaded wall brackets or ceiling lights?
Are the lights in your living room so placed that every member of the household can read comfortably at the same time?
Is it possible to sit at your desk and not have your hand shadow the lines you are writing?
Can the children do their homework without straining their eyes?
When you sit at the dining table, is the light on the table or in your eyes?
Can you work at any working surface in your kitchen without being in your own light?
Can you see both sides of your face at the same time in the mirror of your dresser?
Are closets adequately lighted?
If your home cannot pass this test, it is not properly lighted.
Good lighting may cost no more than poor lighting—and good lighting saves eye strain.

MISS BERTHA RICHARDS MARRIES JACK JOHNS

A marriage of much interest was that of Miss Bertha Richards to Jack Johns Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage in Carlsbad. The beautiful ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Sam E. Allison in the presence of Joe Richards, the father; Joe, Jr., brother; Miss Juanita, sister; Mrs. J. A. Richards, aunt of the bride, and Miss Ella Brown. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spivey, sister and husband of Mrs. Johns.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Joe Richards. She was born and reared in the Artesia vicinity, graduated from the local high school and attended the Texas Woman's College at Ft. Worth, Texas, and the University of Southern California at Los Angeles. For several years she has taught in the public schools of the state, and for the past two years she has been one of the favorite teachers at the Central building in the local schools.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johns. He lived in Artesia with his parents for about three years when a very small boy. He received his high school diploma in San Antonio, Texas, and attended the Georgia School of Technology at Atlanta.

RURAL SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

A. L. Fales, state representative of the American Sunday School Union, while aiding Sunday school work generally in Eddy county, visited and addressed the Sunday school at Cottonwood last Sunday morning where N. C. Doering, superintendent of the school and taught the bible class, while Mrs. Bradley and daughter and Mrs. Earnest Malone taught in the other classes; and preached in the afternoon at Dayton following the study of the Sunday school lesson. Here the venerable Rev. J. D. Terry, having spent 64 years in the ministry, is the faithful superintendent and the Misses Lizzie and Frankie Waites teachers of the children's classes.

In 34 years with the American Sunday School Union, Mr. Fales has been able to organize and reorganize 373 Sunday schools in outlying needy communities.

EVENING CLUB HAS TRAMP PARTY

The Second Evening Bridge club members were very cleverly entertained last Friday evening at the W. E. Flint home when she and Mrs. Richard Attebery, W. C. Martin and J. Harvey Wilson were hostesses at a tramp party.

It would have been hard to have distinguished some of the guests from the "paddies" of the road. In fact, much concern was felt lest Mrs. J. Harvey Wilson and Howard Williams be ushered before the welfare board before an explanation could be made.

All tramps were well fed with a back yard hand-out. Partners for the evening were chosen by weights. Very little food was left on the tin plates, but each tramp very grudgingly fed what was left to the chickens.

Contests of races and games were held on the lawn with prizes given for all events. A parade to town to one of the local drug stores for a final hand-out closed this unusual evening of fun.

LAND OFFICE SHOWS BIG GAIN IN FUNDS

SANTA FE—An increase of $54,049.22 in state land office receipts in May 1934 over May 1933 was announced Saturday by Land Commissioner Frank Vesley. The total for May 1933 was $114,779.91. This money includes all revenue of the department, from grazing, oil and gas, contract and mineral departments.

Almost twice as much money was available for institutions May this year over May last year, Vesley said. This year the amount available was $97,613.43, as compared with $45,893.20 last year. This May the money for expending was $50,000 with the balance to the permanent funds. Last year $32,000 could be spent and $12,000 for permanent funds.

There was $37,965.33 for the common school funds this May, as compared with $23,000 in May last year.

Vesley said the land office would show more than a quarter of a million dollars increase this fiscal year over last. He said the oil royalty suspense fund, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars accumulated since 1931 and available this year, was not included in his estimates.

HEALTH COLUMN

Conducted by Dr. J. R. Earp, Director, New Mexico Bureau of Public Health.

The Cat As Carrier

Cats have their detractors. In addition to their indubitable vices are certain insanitary sins of which they have been suspected with justice more or less.

They are known to suffer from whooping cough and will bear watching when whooping cough is around, though they are much less likely than the children to catch it.

Cats will get rabies if bitten by a rabid dog or coyote and they may infect humans with this dread disease.

They have been accused of spreading diphtheria. This charge has recently been very thoroughly investigated by E. B. Brooks.

Cats can be killed by diphtheria toxin. (It takes about five times as much of this toxin to kill a kitten as to kill a guinea pig.) But when the Schick test was given to seventy cats, all proved negative, showing that they are not susceptible to diphtheria infection. This conclusion was confirmed when virulent diphtheria bacilli were planted in the cats' throats—the bacilli would not grow there. After twenty-four hours they were still in the throat but after forty-eight hours they had disappeared.

Diphtheria bacilli spread on a cat's fur lived for as long as three days but no longer.

The experiments show that cats may carry diphtheria infection for two or three days after exposure to a case of the disease, even though they will not catch the disease themselves.

It is probable that other domestic animals will carry living germs about in the same way. All pets should be kept away from cases of infectious disease.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH INSTALLS NEW SEATS

The Calvary Baptist church has recently purchased fifty seats from the Majestic Theater which has greatly added to the comfort of the church.

CHEAPER METHOD OF KEEPING EGGS

The keeping of spring eggs until fall, when egg prices are higher, has always been an interesting farm problem, says W. M. Ginn of the New Mexico State College.

A cheaper method, than any other tried before, has been reported as satisfactory. This method is the paraffin-lard method. Of course, eggs have been successfully stored in water glass during the past several years but that method is more expensive than the paraffin treatment. Probably more eggs are successfully stored in large cold storage plants than any other place, but such plants are not available to the small poultry farmer.

The cheapest method of storing a few farm eggs is as follows:
1 pound of lard
½ pound of paraffin
4 ounces of dry boric acid (this may be secured from a drug store).

Mix all ingredients well while heating slightly. Allow it to cool. Take a small lump, about the size of a pea, in the palm of the hand and work well over the egg. Wrap each egg in paper and store in a cool place. A basement or cellar makes a good storage place. It is reported by most persons who have tried this method that the eggs kept well for several months. It was also reported that the whites stood up well and no bad odors developed.

Use clean infertile eggs for storing. Eggs keep better if no males are left with the hens. Fertile eggs should not be stored because the germ may begin to develop and spoil the egg.

This may be a good year to preserve a few eggs for home use next fall and winter, since there will be fewer layers next fall than in many years past. Also, there may be a scarcity of cheap feed for some of the flocks, causing lowered production. Home preservation of some eggs, for home use, should receive the attention of many flock owners.

Pre-Mature Old Age

It should not take a health specialist to tell you that unnecessary worrying is not conducive to good health or a long life. What you serve and how to serve is one of the worries of entertaining. Why not leave the worrying up to us, or if you want to get out of the hot kitchen for a change, persuade your better half to try one of our Sunday dinners.

Goodrich Tires Stand Up Under Hot Continental Trek

All coast-to-coast records for automobile speed were smashed May 25th when Bob McKenzie, driving a 1934 Ford V-8 roadster equipped with Goodrich Safety Silvertown tires, roared into Los Angeles 54 hours and 40 minutes after leaving Perth Amboy, New Jersey, according to an announcement released by J. E. Wacksmuth, Los Angeles district manager of The B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company and received here yesterday by the State Oil Service, local Goodrich dealer.

McKenzie, whose time was officially checked by Western Union, left the Atlantic Coast at 12:45 a. m. Wednesday, Eastern Standard Time, and brought his car to a stop at the Ascot Speedway in Los Angeles at 4:25 a. m. Friday, Pacific Standard Time, Wacksmuth stated. He covered 3,246 miles at an average speed of 59.38 miles per hour. Although rain storms were encountered in Pennsylvania, Arizona, and New Mexico, most of the dash was made through blistering heat. McKenzie was accompanied by O. N. Brown who functioned as mechanic. Pennzoil regular lubrication oil was used on the run.

In commenting to Wacksmuth on the stamina of equipment which helped him to shatter the transcontinental record, McKenzie stated, "My hat's off to the Goodrich Safety Silvertown Tire. Road conditions were murderous and the heat was appalling, but not once did the car falter nor did we have tire failure. When we finished, the tread on my tires seemed hardly worn."

McKenzie, who is a professional speed driver, owns the car jointly with Brown. The trip was a private enterprise of his own and was unsponsored.

BRITAIN TO DEFAULT JUNE 15 PAYMENT

WASHINGTON — The twelve billion dollar war debt that Europe owes the United States became a badly frozen asset Tuesday.

Now that Great Britain—for the first time in the proud history of that empire—has decided to default, other countries are believed likely to follow suit.

Only little Finland has announced it will lay its full installment of $166,538 on the line June 15. Except for talk of a possibility that one other debtor might pay something, the prospects for much cash on $474,000,000 due or overdue in mid-June was considered extremely remote.

The British refusal to pay—announced in a note delivered to the state department Monday night—heralded a virtually complete collapse in a situation that has filled the international scene with bitter recriminations for years.

Great Britain said she would defer all payments on her four billion dollar debt until inter-governmental talks revise the debt funding agreement on a payable basis.

Britain, on the last two due dates, has made token payments. Her note said a partial payment would have been made on the $262,000,000 due June 14 except for the new Johnson act, which brands as a defaulter any nation which fails to pay in full.

Under the circumstances, the note said in effect, it is to the advantage of all to have a showdown on the whole question immediately.

THE POLITICAL GOSSIP SAYS NEUMANN BE CANDIDATE THIS FALL

SANTA FE—Three certainties have appeared on New Mexico's political stage as seekers of nominations on the ticket this fall.

Frank Patton, now assistant attorney general, is out for the attorney generalship and so far is without opposition; Mrs. Margaret Abreu seeks the state superintendent of public instruction and the third although not as sure as a sunrise, is likely and this is E. K. Neumann for congress.

Senator Carl Hatch has made it known he will seek the short term nomination. Congressman Dennis Chavez has not made known his desires, but it was assumed generally he would seek the long term nomination. There was some talk State Senator Lee Brown Atwood would seek a Washington place—as dopesters pointed to his legislative record in the special session.

Atwood introduced eight memorials to congress regarding national and international affairs. Some saw in this an attempt by Atwood to display knowledge and understanding of national problems.

For the governorship, State Land Commissioner Frank Vesley has been frequently mentioned and will have a good deal of support if he but says the word. There was a boom for Will Keleher but it appeared to lack support from Keleher himself; J. D. Lamb, state corporation commissioner, recently was reported touring the state in behalf of his own candidacy, but this has failed to develop sufficiently yet to be of note. Clinton P. Anderson, state treasurer, was reported considering the gubernatorial nomination but this apparently, has died out also.

Efforts, and from many and strong sources, continue to be directed at J. J. Dempsey, state director of the national emergency relief council, to take the chairmanship of the state central committee. Dempsey is backing off, pleading he is a busy man, and letting it generally be known he would take the place only as a last resort to save the party.

The chairmanship, according to some politicians, holds the key to the fall lineup with the progressives or against them. Every effort is being extended to get one of the so-called "four-H" club in as chairman. These efforts are generally credited to Governor A. W. Hockenull who appointed Senator Hatch. If the "four-H" club gets the chairmanship, the progressives will go to the republican side, lock, stock and barrel, it was said. If a liberal gets the state chairmanship, then there is a possibility the progressives might dicker with the democrats, others said.

DRUG STORES TO PAY SAME TAX AS OTHER DISPENSERS OF LIQUOR

Drug stores, according to the state liquor control office at Santa Fe in a reply to Roswell city commissioners, cannot be taxed more than any other dispenser—or less.

The same license for selling must be paid by each dispenser, it was held.

The board also held that wine could not be bottled for resale by the buyer of kegs. An Albuquerque restaurant bought wine in barrels and sold it in bulk by the bottle. The tax was paid on the barrel, but it was an offense to have an unstamped bottle. What, then? They asked.

The liquor office holds that a dispenser or seller must sell in the unbroken package, therefore, no bottles can be filled from a tax-paid barrel and sold. The bulk wine may be sold for consumption on the premises.

Mrs. C. Russell returned last Thursday evening from San Bernardino, California, where she had been with her sister Miss Ladue for the past month. Her sister, who has been very ill, is only slightly improved.

Old man Weather finally came to the bat and is having his inning. Congress trying to legislate about everything has driven stocks downward continually and has discouraged operators who have left the stock market and gone to commodities where congress is laying off and where the weather is at work. The two together may surprise all of us. Wheat crop very badly damaged, corn damage still to come and cotton is threatened. The market is out of its rut on the up side and we feel that it should now continue to do better with intermittent reactions.

Crop is about ten days late over the belt, some sections too wet and grass getting troublesome, extreme western section too dry. June should be the best month of the season and if good weather is not had then it can hardly be expected in July. Weather is still the controlling factor but adjournment of congress is going to be some help to business generally and cotton will participate. As the market approaches the 12.50 mark we think it not inadvisable to contract some of the crop even though it may continue to advance from that level which, of course, no one can be certain about.

They enjoyed a brief visit with Mrs. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. Myrtle Hall, of Sheridan, Montana, and returned by way of Yellowstone National Park, Salt Lake City and the Rocky Mountains in Colorado.

HIGHWAY 83 ASSN. MEETS WITH MAULDIN

A special called meeting of the Texas-New Mexico Highway 83 association was held here Friday afternoon with W. A. Mauldin of Clovis, highway commission member. Despite the fact that the meeting was hurriedly arranged, a good representation was here from practically every community from Cloudercroft to Lovington. Luke Roberts of Lovington, president of the association, presided. The session was more on the order of a round table discussion, with speakers from the various communities stating what they thought was needed to improve highway 83 in their particular vicinity. Mr. Mauldin answered a number of questions and definitely committed himself to the improvement of this highway as rapidly as funds and conditions would permit. He also suggested that the best plan of procedure would be to select the stretches of the highway needing improvement and work these stretches as fast as possible. Speakers who told of the highway in their vicinity included: David L. C. Hover, Cloudercroft; F. G. Ivin, Elk; Hugh Burch, Artesia; Seth Alston, Lovington.

The local Chamber of Commerce prepared a map showing the route of highway through eastern Eddy county and the western edge of Lea county, showing the amount of federal land through which the highway passes, also some interesting data with reference to the freight tonnage which is hauled annually over highway 83 to market and which included livestock, wool, mohair, lumber, apples and fruit, cabbage and vegetables. Improvements will likely be requested on the following stretches of highway 83: black top surfacing from Lovington to state line, a black topped road from Artesia to Hope, improvement from the Reeves hill to the Otero county line and improvement of the highway from highway 70 in the vicinity of La Luz northward toward Cloudercroft, refooring of Pecos river bridge east of Artesia.

The Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Rowland and family have just returned from an extended trip attending the Baptist convention at Fort Worth and visiting friends and relatives in Texas and Oklahoma. A delightful trip is reported.

Eddy County Farm News

The U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry reports good success with a killing spray made by soaking 5 lbs. of unground, partly opened pyrethrum flowers in 10 gallons of kerosene and 5 quarts of fuel oil. The pyrethrum flowers are placed in a bag consisting of double cheesecloth and should be kept in the oil for 24 to 48 hours before the solution is used. This spray is particularly recommended for spraying and killing flies as they gather on the ceiling and walls in large numbers. Pyrethrum can be secured from local dealers.

The Cottonwood Woman's club held their regular meeting on May 31, at the home of Mrs. Glenn O'Bannon, at which time cake making was discussed and a demonstration given.

There will be a meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Terry in the Atoka community today at 2:00 p. m. at which time a Woman's club and a girl's 4-H club will be organized.

Nico dust is one of the best preparations for the control of aphids in the flower or vegetable. This is made by using one pound lime and one ounce black leaf forty. Place these two ingredients in an air-tight container and mix well. This mixture when heated forms a gas which kills the aphids and cut worms. Spray on the plants either in the early morning or late evening when bugs and air are quiet. Heat each time before using and keep in air-tight container.

To control the harlequin bug, squash bug and blister beetle, spray with a solution made of 1 ounce pyrethrum extract, 1 ounce of laundry soap and 1 gallon soft water. Apply with pressure.

Mrs. Van Welch, Sr., her daughter, Mrs. Sig Iverson and children, arrived Saturday from Fort Worth. They came to be present for the graduation of her son Jimmie Welch who graduated from the N. M. M. However, this right is lost, in future years, so far as the payment of any of the installments are concerned if the taxes for 1935, 1936 and 1937 are allowed to become delinquent.

If the taxpayer desires, therefore, he may provide for the payment of all delinquent taxes as follows:

1. Pay all 1933 taxes without interest before June 15, 1934.
2. Pay one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes unpaid without interest before October 1, 1934.
3. Pay one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes unpaid on October 1, 1935, with interest at 6 per cent from date of delinquency.
4. Pay one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes on October 1, 1936, with interest at 6 per cent from date of delinquency.
5. Pay remaining one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes on October 1, 1937, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent from date of delinquency.
6. Pay each year's taxes as they become due.

June 15 Deadline

Whether or not the taxpayer will want to set up a schedule of payments in accordance with the above suggestions, he cannot take advantage of the elimination of interest and penalties on delinquent taxes unless he pays his 1933 taxes in full before June 15, 1934, officials warned.

Payment of taxes during May were as follows: 1926, $12.42; 1927, $22.82; 1928, $30.04; 1929, $55.78; 1930, $246.47; 1931, $620.23; 1932, $661.16; 1933, $10,919.64.

MARKETS

June 1	11.63	11.87
June 2	11.99	12.00

June 5	11.86	12.16

Old man Weather finally came to the bat and is having his inning. Congress trying to legislate about everything has driven stocks downward continually and has discouraged operators who have left the stock market and gone to commodities where congress is laying off and where the weather is at work. The two together may surprise all of us. Wheat crop very badly damaged, corn damage still to come and cotton is threatened. The market is out of its rut on the up side and we feel that it should now continue to do better with intermittent reactions.

Crop is about ten days late over the belt, some sections too wet and grass getting troublesome, extreme western section too dry. June should be the best month of the season and if good weather is not had then it can hardly be expected in July. Weather is still the controlling factor but adjustment of congress is going to be some help to business generally and cotton will participate. As the market approaches the 12.50 mark we think it not inadvisable to contract some of the crop even though it may continue to advance from that level which, of course, no one can be certain about.

Little Billie Wilson, son of Mrs. Sadie Wilson, is spending the week in Clovis with his aunt Mrs. T. E. May. Billie drove up last Friday with his aunt Miss Linna McCaw.

They enjoyed a brief visit with Mrs. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. Myrtle Hall, of Sheridan, Montana, and returned by way of Yellowstone National Park, Salt Lake City and the Rocky Mountains in Colorado.

HIGHWAY 83 ASSN. MEETS WITH MAULDIN

A special called meeting of the Texas-New Mexico Highway 83 association was held here Friday afternoon with W. A. Mauldin of Clovis, highway commission member. Despite the fact that the meeting was hurriedly arranged, a good representation was here from practically every community from Cloudercroft to Lovington. Luke Roberts of Lovington, president of the association, presided. The session was more on the order of a round table discussion, with speakers from the various communities stating what they thought was needed to improve highway 83 in their particular vicinity. Mr. Mauldin answered a number of questions and definitely committed himself to the improvement of this highway as rapidly as funds and conditions would permit. He also suggested that the best plan of procedure would be to select the stretches of the highway needing improvement and work these stretches as fast as possible. Speakers who told of the highway in their vicinity included: David L. C. Hoyer, Cloudercroft; F. G. Ivin, Elk; Hugh Burch, Artesia; Seth Alston, Lovington.

The local Chamber of Commerce prepared a map showing the route of highway through eastern Eddy county and the western edge of Lea county, showing the amount of federal land through which the highway passes, also some interesting data with reference to the freight tonnage which is hauled annually over highway 83 to market and which included livestock, wool, mohair, lumber, apples and fruit, cabbage and vegetables. Improvements will likely be requested on the following stretches of highway 83: black top surfacing from Lovington to state line, a black topped road from Artesia to Hope, improvement from the Reeves hill to the Otero county line and improvement of the highway from highway 70 in the vicinity of La Luz northward toward Cloudercroft, reflagging of Pecos river bridge east of Artesia.

The Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Rowland and family have just returned from an extended trip attending the Baptist convention at Fort Worth and visiting friends and relatives in Texas and Oklahoma. A delightful trip is reported.

Eddy County Farm News

The U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry reports good success with a killing spray made by soaking 5 lbs. of unground, partly opened pyrethrum flowers in 10 gallons of kerosene and 5 quarts of fuel oil. The pyrethrum flowers are placed in a bag consisting of double cheesecloth and should be kept in the oil for 24 to 48 hours before the solution is used. This spray is particularly recommended for spraying and killing flies as they gather on the ceiling and walls in large numbers. Pyrethrum can be secured from local dealers.

The Cottonwood Woman's club held their regular meeting on May 31, at the home of Mrs. Glenn O'Bannon, at which time cake making was discussed and a demonstration given.

There will be a meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Terry in the Atoka community today at 2:00 p. m. at which time a Woman's club and a girl's 4-H club will be organized.

Nico dust is one of the best preparations for the control of aphids in the flower or vegetable. This is made by using one pound lime and one ounce black leaf forty. Place these two ingredients in an air-tight container and mix well. This mixture when heated forms a gas which kills the aphids and cut worms. Spray on the plants either in the early morning or late evening when bugs and air are quiet. Heat each time before using and keep in air-tight container.

To control the harlequin bug, squash bug and blister beetle, spray with a solution made of 1 ounce pyrethrum extract, 1 ounce of laundry soap and 1 gallon soft water. Apply with pressure.

Mrs. Van Welch, Sr., her daughter, Mrs. Sig Iverson and children, arrived Saturday from Fort Worth. They came to be present for the graduation of her son Jimmie Welch who graduated from the N. M. M. I. this week. After a few days visit here they will return to Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Welch and Mr. and Mrs. Van Welch, Jr., also attended the finals of the N. M. M. I.
