Four Oil Tests Completed In Lea County The Past Week

Four New Locations Are Staked; Eunice Area to Get 15 Drilling Wells; Baish No. 4 to Drill to Old Pay.

Steady progress has been made in the southeastern oil area the past week with four new locations staked and four wells completed. The locations made in Eddy county include the Neal Willis et al., Montgomery No. 1, in the NE sec. 10-23-30, and the Pecos Valley Gas Co., Vandagriff No. 10 in sec. 8-17-28. In Lea county the Tidewater Oil Co., Harrison No. 1, SE sec. 26-24-36, and the Skelly Oil Co., State 1-B, NW sec. 16-21-36.

A third acid treatment in the A. E. Myers A-17 No. 4, sec. 17-21-36, failed to develop a flowing well. The test, drilled to 3997 feet, did not respond to the third treatment and preparations are being made to pump the well, which is estimated at 200 barrels of oil plus 25 barrels of water.

A well in the Hobbs district, the Gypsy Oil Co., East Grimes No. 4, sec. 33-18-38, was also given an acid treatment of 2,000 gallons and responded with flowing 2,375 barrels of oil with 2,750,000 feet of gas, on a company test.

The A. E. Thomas No. 1 of the Humble Oil and Refining Co., sec. 23-24-36, has been plugged back to 3470 feet and completed as a gasser.

A good well in the Hobbs pool has been completed by the Oil Well Drilling Co., and the Southern Petroleum Exploration in the Grimes No. 1, sec. 20-18-38. Drilled to 4244 feet, the Grimes made 240 barrels per hour, flowing open, on a company gas test.

In southeastern Lea county, the Repollo Oil Co., Gloyd No. 1, in sec. 12-25-36, has been drilled in at 3332 feet and flowed 395 barrels the first fifteen hours on a company test through tubing with 1,000,000 feet of gas.

Results of tests in the Baish No. 4 of the Maljamar Oil and Gas Corp., western Lea county, NE sec. 21-17-32, have been somewhat disappointing and officials have decided to drill the test deeper. Drilling was started last night from the total depth of 2330 feet.

An active drilling campaign is getting underway in the Eunice district of Lea county, where fifteen wells will soon be drilling. This is said to be one of the most attractive areas in that section.

PRISONER IS SHOT IN LEFT SIDE WHEN ATTEMPTING ESCAPE

Archie F. Valentine of Leakey, Texas, was shot in the left hand and side Sunday night at Carlsbad by Deputy Sheriff Howell Gage when he allegedly tried to escape from the officer as he was being transferred from the Eddy county jail to the Carlsbad city jail.

Valentine and his father, Joe were being moved to the city jail because there were not enough beds in the county jail. The two were arrested Sunday afternoon on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated.

As Gage took his prisoners into the city jail, Valentine is said to have declared: "Goodbye, I can't take it. I guess I won't be seeing you any more," and started to run. Gage ordered him to stop. When he refused, Gage fired at his feet and then fired two more shots. The latter two took effect, one striking Valentine in the left hand and the other causing a flesh wound in his left side. Valentine was taken to a hospital where his condition was described as not serious.

ARTESIA CARLSBAD GRIDSTERS TO CLASH HERE ARMISTICE DAY

Local Squad is in Good Shape for Contest with Cavemen; Stores to be Closed on Monday; No Program Planned.

The local stores will be closed throughout the day Monday, November 12th, in observance of Armistice day, which falls on Sunday this year. Shoppers should hold this fact in mind and do their shopping Saturday. No program has been planned, owing to the fact that so many people are out of town during the deer hunting season.

Artesia vs. Carlsbad Monday afternoon, at the Brainard park, beginning at 3:00 p. m., the Artesia high school grid squad will meet the Carlsbad Cavemen in next to the last home game of the season. The Armistice day affair is expected to be a real battle between the two teams about evenly matched. While Carlsbad did not fare so well in the early season, the squad has shown consistent improvement and is reputed to have a slight edge on the local boys in a few departments, particularly in punting. The Artesia eleven have had no engagements for the past two weeks and will go into the game in good physical condition, with the exception of Champion, who is suffering from a torn muscle.

Friday the Artesia squad will meet the Portales Rams at Portales.

POTASH CO. AMERICA TO SINK A SECOND SHAFT ON PROPERTY

Construction of a second shaft at the Potash Company of America mine, thirty-two miles southeast of here, has just been started, company officials announced Tuesday.

The shaft, slightly smaller in size than the first shaft, will be used as an air shaft and to carry materials to the underground workings. It will be 1,110 feet deep.

It was said that it will take approximately one year to complete the shaft.

Mr. Harris, an official of the company, said that he did not know when work would be started on a refinery but that he expected it would be in a short time. Plans are being completed at the present time.

MAY GET CHARTER

ALBUQUERQUE — Possibility that the charter of the New Mexico department of the American Legion may be reinstated next fall was foreseen Monday in a statement issued by Ollie Davis, Legion coordinator, stating that the national executive committee had approved a recommendation by the coordinators committee calling for a department convention by next fall if by May 1, 1935, there is an increased interest and loyalty to the legion as reflected in the number of posts and membership. The executive committee will act on the recommendation officially next May.

SCHICK TEST ADMINISTERED

Dr. O. E. Puckett, county health officer, was up Tuesday administering Schick tests for diphtheria in the local schools. He will return next Tuesday to give toxoid to those where the reaction is not favorable.

BULLETIN

Efforts to obtain additional information this morning at 10:00 o'clock failed. A call to Albuquerque revealed that no further progress had been made in tabulations announced last night. There are still 153 precincts missing, but these are mostly small boxes. It is now believed that Cutting's lead will be increased with additional tabulations since most of the missing boxes are in the normal republican counties.

With 153 of the 785 precincts still missing, it appeared shortly after midnight that the entire democratic ticket has been elected with the exception of Dennis Chavez, candidate for long term of the United States senate against B. M. Cutting. Trailing by 3,000 votes at the start of the returns, Cutting has gradually overcome this lead until he is actually 450 in the lead, according to this count. He polled 65,818 compared with 65,368 for Chavez.

Carl Hatch, for short term senate, has the biggest majority of any of the "big four," with a lead of 16,257 votes over his opponent former Governor R. C. Dillon, for the short term of the U. S. Senate. Hatch's vote was 70,616 to 54,359 for Dillon. Dempsey had a margin of 7,686 votes over his opponent M. Miera for congress for a total of 65,805 to 58,119 for Miera. Miller has conceded his defeat as governor to Tingley who is leading by 8,932 with a total vote of 67,051 to 58,113 to that for Miller.

MISS JARRETT HERE TO CONDUCT FERA SCHOOL IN ARTESIA

Miss Elizabeth McCall Jarrett of Las Vegas arrived Sunday to organize classes for people of the Artesia community under the direction of the FERA. Miss Jarrett will work under the direction of the New Mexico Normal University and in cooperation with the local public schools. Miss Jarrett is prepared to conduct college freshman classes in Spanish and English. All adults of the surrounding community may take advantage of the work offered. College credit may be had in these courses by high school graduates who are not able to go to college this year. All those interested will meet at the Central school Friday night of this week at 7:00 p. m. Miss Jarrett is located temporarily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kerr.

LOCAL BOY MAKING GOOD

E. Champion, a former Artesia high school graduate and a star gridiron performer, is making good at Texas Tech as a member of the freshman team. The freshman team, known as the Picadors, ran rough-shod over the Decatur Baptist College squad last week at Lubbock, winning by a 41-0 score. Champion scored two touchdowns, the first after he ran forty-five yards with the pigskin on an intercepted pass and ran around left end for the second marker to his credit.

CASE OF DIPHTHERIA

A case of diphtheria has been reported by Dr. H. A. Stroup in the Cottonwood community near the county line. The patient is a child of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Skelt Williams and family left this morning for their new home at Lovington.

H. S. STUDENTS POLL 200 BALLOTS TUES. IN GENERAL ELECTION

Students Make Record in Test Vote; Only Three Ballots Thrown Out; Forty Percent Cast a Straight Ballot.

Practically every student enrolled in the Artesia high school voted in the election held at the school on Tuesday. Sample ballots were obtained and the election was conducted by students under the supervision of J. Clark Bruce. The procedure duplicated that of a real election so far as was possible, and the students in charge executed their duties in a very efficient manner.

Although much interest was shown in the voting, the primary aim was to give experience in the methods of voting and conducting an election. Only three ballots were disqualified out of a total of nearly 200. An interesting fact revealed was that only 40 per cent of the students voted "straight" tickets.

In order to give more students an opportunity to participate, several committees alternated throughout the day in charge of the election. The following students were officials: Bert Muncy, Olan Woodridge, Harold Hannah, Irene Gillispie, Jessie Lee Cunningham, Berthold Alcorn, Charlie Floore, William Dunn, Cooper Malone, Edmond Kunyan, Edward Kissinger, Avis Clowe, Marion Coll, Nina McLean, Ida Savoie, Arlee Reno, Robert French, Zanna Filbert, Lorene Angell, Clementine Cobble, Ernest Malone and Vir-

Eddy County Gives Two To One Majority To Democrats

Light Vote Over County Is Disappointing; Carl Hatch Leads Ticket; Only One Precinct Is Missing.

The general election vote polled in Eddy county Tuesday was much lighter than anticipated. The vote, amounting to about 3,750, with one precinct missing, was slightly above fifty percent of the registration total of 7,300. Likewise there was more straight balloting than expected. In Artesia where a decided lack of interest was evident, the total vote amounting to 850, was 400 less than that polled two years ago. Senator Carl Hatch led the ticket with a vote of 2,878 and with a majority of 2,024 over his opponent, Former Governor R. C. Dillon, who four years ago led the republican ticket in Eddy county. In the race for United States senate, long term, where most of the fight was centered and where most of the ballot scratching was done, Congressman Dennis Chavez pulled out with a 1,417 lead over his republican opponent, Senator B. M. Cutting. J. J. Dempsey, running for congress polled a total of 2,797 for a majority of 1,768 over his republican opponent, Maurice Miera. Tingley came out with a majority of 1,596 over Jaffa Miller for governor. Rodgers' home county gave him a 1,953 majority over Mrs. Rousseau for state superintendent of schools.

The margin of victory for the democrats was about two to one over the county. In the Artesia box, Wash Blake, colored republican precinct committeeman from Loving, received five complimentary votes by the write-in route for probate judge against P. J. McCall of Carlsbad.

GENERAL NEWS BRIEFS

Oscar H. Robson was arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner at Phoenix, Arizona, yesterday, charged with extortion in connection with the kidnaping of six year old June Robles, on last April 25th. Robson's bond was set at $50,000 and he was remanded to jail. He appeared freighted when brought before the commissioner.

A threatening breach of President Roosevelt's labor truce was averted Saturday when the national labor board engineered a settlement of the labor dispute in Cleveland, Ohio, between the A. P. store owners and employees.

Virgil Stalcup, 27-year-old west Texas desperado, and Clarence Brown, aged 34, admitted Saturday in Houston, Texas, they had murdered W. B. Arthur, Dickens county sheriff and then made their escape.

Matt Kimes, Oklahoma outlaw, was denied clemency by Governor Bill Murray of Oklahoma Saturday because Murray said he did not believe peace officers and bankers in that state would permit Kimes to make good.

Henry Ford announced last week at Detroit, Michigan, the Ford Motor Co., would turn out 1,000,000 cars in 1935 to fulfill his belief the depression was over. This step will involve an outlay of $145,000,000, company officials estimate.

President Roosevelt launched a gigantic home building campaign Friday that is expected to result in a $15,000,000,000 construction boom. He set the maximum interest rate at five percent and said the government would guarantee the loans to be made by banks and others up to eighty percent of the appraised value.

OFFIC'S INVESTIGATE DEATH OF CALDERON AT ROSWELL TUES.

Roswell officers are investigating the mysterious death of Pablo Calderon, aged 38, who died after receiving bullet wounds in both legs, at an early hour Tuesday morning. An autopsy performed at Roswell revealed that a .25 caliber automatic bullet had passed through the right leg, above the knee. A bullet of the same caliber was removed from the outside of the knee of the left leg. The third wound was a small one through the calf of the left leg. Calderon is alleged to have fired at least one of the bullets, which later proved fatal. The gun from which the bullets were fired was found in the pocket of Calderon.

Calderon was out under a bond, on appeal to the state supreme court, following a conviction at Roswell November 26, 1933, of voluntary manslaughter in the death of Roger Salazar, who was killed in Roswell on May 5, 1933.

Mr. and Mrs. Arba Green left Tuesday for their former home at Miami, Oklahoma, to visit friends and attend to business matters.

BANISH THE RECKLESS DRIVER

Reports from police departments, state traffic authorities and safety organizations in all parts of the country show a startling increase in automobile accidents. Every driving crime is on the rise...

OUR PUBLIC SERVANTS

Political interest ran unusually high in Tuesday's election and it was probably the oddest contest ever staged in the state. It is a peculiar thing but nevertheless true, the average voter has stronger reasons for voting against certain candidates than in supporting the opponents of these candidates...

A lot of these traffic accidents are due to misplaced alcohol. The alcohol should be put in the radiator and not in the belly. "When the government goes into business it can always shift its losses to the taxpayers."

NEW MEX. FARMERS FACE SEED SHORTAGE

New Mexico today is facing one of its most serious shortages. This shortage is particularly large in the non-irrigated sections according to J. R. Ogden, president of the New Mexico Crop Improvement Association...

Chislings

Three Artesia boys: Lord Sharp, Billy Bullock and Harry Gilmore, students at the Texas Tech, sent us a clipping about the work of Champion, another Artesia boy, on the freshman football squad and appended the following message to the clipping: "Here's some hot stuff for your headache, another local boy makes good."

I've probably run the narrowest escape of my newspaper career the past month in some rough things about my political opposition, but so far I have not had my nose pinched, nor has any subscriber ordered his paper stopped, which goes to show people of this district are still sensible.

Many of those who have not taken their politics too seriously have had lots of fun. It's been one of the queerest elections even the old timers have seen in the history of New Mexico. Ballot scratching has been popular and about two-thirds of the people made no public expression about how they were voting.

One or two good jokes appeared as the result of the campaign. A lady speaker told a good one Thursday night when she said now the women could wear their dresses shorter since the democrats had established sound banks. Another good party man who heard that his party had gotten some recruits that he was not especially proud of and suggested that the party close the doors to further membership.

A local farmer: "In the Artesia hotel I complained that my feet were cold. The clerk said he would fix me up. So he gave me a rubber bottle. When I got up to my room I opened up the bottle and it didn't have anything in it but hot water. The practical jokes of the city fellers make me tired."

A lazy man said to his boss, "Rome wasn't built in a day." But the boss said, "Rome was fired in a day, and so are you."

Monday I thought up something really worth while to say in this column and along come a fellow talking politics and made me forget what it was. Dern these politicians!

What's wrong with the logic in this Townsend old age pension act? Is it the major or minor premises? There is no question but that some sort of old age pension bill will be passed in the next few years, but the idea of paying an old couple say, $400 per month, is the most ridiculous thing we have ever heard of.

A headline says Huey Long may be presidential candidate in 1936. Now you tell one. AMERICAN LEGION TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP Plans were made at the regular meeting of the Clarence Kepple Post, American Legion, Monday evening to launch a membership drive to be finished by November 20th.

NEWS BRIEFS OF THE CHAMBER COMMERCE

"As Your Chamber of Commerce Is So Is Your City"

For several years the local post office receipts have been sufficiently large to rate free city mail delivery for Artesia. Some time ago the sentiment of the city was ascertained and at that time it seemed inadvisable to attempt to secure the free delivery for our town.

It is understood that the business houses will not desire such a change so far as they are concerned but it is proposed only to canvass the residential district to determine the wishes of the large majority. If it is found that as many as 75 per cent of such residents desire to have their mail delivered to their door, it is quite likely that such delivery will be established within a reasonable length of time.

The proposal would be that there would be two deliveries daily—one starting about 9 a. m. and the other about 3 p. m. This would bring employment to one more resident and a splendid service to many of the families to whom a trip to the office daily is considerable of a task.

The purpose of this information is merely to get the matter before the minds of the people affected by such a procedure and then at some future date, if developments seem to warrant the action, a petition will be circulated to see exactly how popular this move is.

The free delivery does not mean that a man who is in business would have to give up his box at the postoffice if he wants part of his mail delivered to his home. All mail that has a street address on it would be delivered to that address. Other mail could be placed in the post office box as at present. This does not mean either that all who are in the district would be required to get their mail by the mail carrier.

The reaction of the Artesia residents on this matter will be awaited with interest. Express yourselves freely to members of the chamber and upon the sentiment developed the chamber will act. If they don't, we don't.

SCOUT NEWS

Donald William MacKay, president of the Eastern New Mexico Normal at Portales, will be the principal speaker at the annual Boy Scout meeting at Roswell. The meeting which is to be held on the 23rd of November is the 10th annual meeting of the Eastern New Mexico Area Council.

From the response in the area thus far, Scout Executive P. V. Thorson states the attendance will be twice that of last year. At the present time indications are that every troop and town in the area will be represented.

MONDAY NIGHT COLDEST

Monday night was the coldest one of the season thus far with a low temperature of thirty degrees, registered at the government station. Monday night's cold spell killed almost all of the vegetation remaining.

HEALTH COLUMN

Work To Be Done

During the health survey 1,796 individuals were asked the question: How do people get tuberculosis? No attempt whatever was made to influence their answers. Of these 1,796 individuals 900 answered quite frankly that they did not know; 466 gave the best possible of answers, viz: "by contact with another case," or words to that effect.

Among the answers one finds the remains of all kinds of hoary superstition: "Lack of air," "improper breathing," "wrong eating," etc. Other answers are just not to be explained—at least by me. Why should anyone think that malaria causes tuberculosis or that you get tuberculosis "through the skin?"

Can we hope that the coming generation will be better informed than the oldsters? Not unless we get to work. There were, among those questioned, 478 under eighteen years old and 255 of them classify under the "do you know" column.

Ignorance of how we get tuberculosis implies ignorance of how to recognize its early stages, ignorance of how to prevent its spread. To replace ignorance by enlightenment we have the New Mexico Tuberculosis Association with its fifteen affiliated local organizations throughout the state.

BALE COTTON BURNS

During the high wind Friday, T. H. Burrows, farmer living south of town, had the misfortune of losing a bale of cotton by fire. The fire is presumed to have originated from a cigarette stub. A cotton wagon containing two bales of cotton was towed to the dwelling when fire broke out and Mr. Burrows with the help of a neighbor, Carl Martin, succeeded in extinguishing the blaze and saving the wagon with 1,980 pounds of cotton.

FIFTEEN BIRTHS FOR OCTOBER

Chief Function of a Bank . . .

One of the most important duties within a bank is planning the use of the bank's funds available for loans. If money is not loaned the bank cannot stay in business.

Borrowers should remember that a bank wants proof of ability to repay the money borrowed. Sufficient collateral alone does not always prompt a banker to say "yes" regarding a loan, because the basis of loans is not how much collateral one can pledge but whether one can show a definite, reliable source of repayment with which to liquidate the debt.

We would rather be able to say "Yes," than "No."

Cows Show Amazing Good Sense If They Don't Move From Cars

(Lawrence Cordwell in The Los Angeles Times)

"As dumb as a cow!" When you find yourself on the receiving end of such a simile, murmur "Thank you"—and go on about your business, smiling. I have known thousands of cow-critters superficially, and hundreds of them intimately. They are exasperating, and misunderstood for the most part, but not dumb. I have in mind the old-time range cows rather than the more modern critter that is fed and sheltered.

In the days of the open range grazing was scattered and water was sometimes miles from the nearest grass. The country was infested with coyotes, wolves and panthers, all of them continually on the prowl for a feast of fresh meat. It was easier for a cow to die than to live. Yet the old range cows not only lived, but they increased under these conditions.

Mother cows had a deep sensibility regarding their maternal obligations. They never left their calves alone when they grazed or watered. It was not an uncommon sight to ride over a hill and find six or seven young calves lying in the shade of mesquite bushes and only one cow in sight, either grazing close by or just chewing her cud. The next day at about the same place you would find the same calves, but another cow standing by. Clinging together in this way, the mothers were able to graze and trek several miles after water without leaving their calves, young and weak, to an untimely fate. On occasion the guarding mother had other things to do besides chew her cud.

Early one morning several miles from headquarters I heard the yipping of coyotes and rode to the top of a little rise to see what all the excitement was about. Four little calves were huddled together out in an open space, and five coyotes were loping around them, yapping at the cow, circling with her back to the calves, and shaking lowered horns at the coyotes.

I slipped my Winchester out of the scabbard but waited to see what was happening. One coyote made a run at the cow, snapping and dogging just in front of her slashing horns. She charged only a few feet from the calves and then backed up to them again. Another coyote darted in from the other side, and the cow rushed him back over the "dead line." While she was busy with one coyote the others would sneak in behind her and try to hamstring one of the terrified calves.

More than likely the coyotes would have gotten a calf in the end because the old cow was tiring. No telling how long this had been going on. The coyotes and the cow alike were so intent on the business at hand that I hadn't been noticed until I cut loose and let a lot of daylight through one of the coyotes and unhooked several more 30-30s after the others as they dashed away through the brush.

During branding season sometimes 2,000 cows and calves are rounded up and milled around for a day or two while the branding is being done. Naturally cows and their calves become separated and lost from each other. But as soon as they are set at liberty, both the cows and the calves high-tail it back to the spot where they saw each other last. Maybe this is instinct, but it looks like sense to me.

They also know how to protect their pasturage. Sheep or goats will graze a pasture clean, but not so with cows. They will eat the leaves of certain bushes and eat weeds and grass, but they never eat anything down to where it is killed. They protect their grazing further by eating only certain kinds of vegetation at certain seasons of the year, and I have noticed that this is the season when that particular vegetation furnishes the most nourishment and grazing does the least harm to the plant.

In grazing steep, hilly country, cows lay it out in trails that would do credit to an engineer. Grazing trails very seldom have more than a 6 per cent grade, and are laid out so there isn't a sprig of grass on the whole hillside that can't be reached from a trail.

In the days of the open range the cows grazed their territory in cycles. In the spring they would be back away from permanent water, drinking out of pools and puddles of surface water, saving the grass near the year-around water till later in the season when the surface water was used up. In addition to being adroit in practical things, cows are psychic. Yes, sir! Without the aid of crystal balls or other paraphernalia cows can foretell future events. You will see one cow absolutely foolish about her calf and another one take no particular interest in hers. Nine times out of ten, the calf that receives all the attention is sold as a veal or dies! I have watched the same cow with several different calves. If the calf was going to make the grade all right, she'd feed him and that would be about all the attention he'd get. Then the next year I'd see the same cow licking and making over her calf all the time, never wanting it out of her sight. Before the summer was over the coyotes would get him or he'd turn up missing from one cause or another.

In the southwest a man was considered a newcomer or a certain kind of fool if he prophesied on the weather, but if he knew cows and would pay attention, he could foretell a storm and never miss. At a certain time every day or every other day, depending on how far she has to go, a cow will start for water, but if it's going to rain within twenty-four hours, she won't go to the creek if she has far to go. And when it's going to be a hard winter, a range cow doesn't spend much time in the shade during the summer; she's busy putting on some extra fat for the time when the ground will be covered with snow.

Likewise cow-critters can tell when they are coming to the end of their span. You can work the same herd all summer, branding calves and cutting out poor stuff, but in the fall when you gather the beef herd for shipment, then is when we shipped our beeves down to a better range. We rounded them up and loaded them on the cars without a bobble; almost willingly, they walked up the chute and into the cars. Sixty days later with the same herd ready for the market, they stampeded three times in two nights, and it took nearly a half day to get them in the loading pens. They had to be shoved into the cars by main strength.

As old age overtakes some cows they get tired of living and just lie down to die—no doubt reasoning that life isn't worth the effort it takes. These fits of despondency invariably occur in winter when range life is at its toughest. When a cow decides to die, nothing can stop her. After you have worried and strained "tailing" her up, she'll turn around and make a run at you, then fall down again as much as to say, "Go on away and let me die in peace." I have even had them, when down, refuse hay that I'd packed to them on horseback.

I have found other younger cows, in worse shape physically, that seemed to appreciate it when you got down and helped them pick on their feet so they could get a little something to eat and carry on. A cow heavy with calf is usually willing to do almost anything to survive, but an old cow that is barren seems to lose heart and want to die.

If you still think cows are dumb, just go out and live with them for a few years, as I have, and see how many things they know that you hadn't thought of yourself.

One summer the grass was poor and stampedes and trouble start. They realize, through some occult intuition, that they are headed for the slaughter house—the end.

NERA STARTS WORK ON LEA HIGHWAYS

Acting under orders from State Department, Lea county highway officials resumed on Saturday full operation on highway No. 18, north and south of Hobbs.

This action explains the recent shutdown, which was necessary only because of the transfer of the activities from the FERA to the National Emergency Relief Administration.

Included in the order for resuming of work at once is a two-mile linking highway from Eunice toward the state line, one of the most important links in the entire Lea county setup. Andrews, Texas, highway authorities have been clamoring for this for months, as they are conditioning the Texas highway from Andrews toward Eunice, and the connecting link from Eunice eastward is all-important.—Hobbs News.

N. CAROLINA GOV. URGES DRAFT OF A NEW COTTON PLAN

COLUMBIA, S. C.—Governor I. C. Blackwood urged governors of twelve other southern states to call state-wide meetings of their farmers to draft "a thoughtfully prepared cotton control program for a period of years" upon expiration of the Bankhead act. Pointing out that the national government had initiated "three separate programs of cotton production control" since June, 1933, the South Carolina executive urged that "the farmers of the belt themselves have a voice in planning" a permanent control measure to take effect in 1935.

Governor Blackwood quoted a resolution adopted at a state-wide meeting of cotton farmers here October 2 in which the farmers said suspension of control in 1935 would mean over-production "that will again drive prices to a four to six-cent level."

Cotton growers of each South Carolina county are to meet November 15, the governor continued, to decide details of a permanent program and elect one delegate for each thousand farmers to attend a statewide meeting November 20 to work out a substitute for the Bankhead act.

"Realizing that one state of the belt acting alone in a matter that vitally concerns the entire belt will perhaps not have a great effect," the governor wrote 12 colleagues, "I am suggesting that your state adopt a similar plan." A south-wide meeting would be held as the culmination of the 13 state sessions, he said, to map a new program with the co-operation of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

District Attorney George L. Reese, Jr., said Monday four large diamonds lost by Mrs. J. D. Martin of Carlsbad and valued at $5,000 had been recovered after two years. The jewels, he said, were recovered in California from a woman who already had disposed of $700 worth of jewelry belonging to Mrs. Martin.

COUNTY TO ENTER HEALTH CONTEST

Eddy county has entered the nation-wide health contest which is being sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the United States Public Health Service. Previously the contest has been opened only to cities and Carlsbad has entered the contest twice. This year, however, the contest has been extended to rural areas as well as cities and the entire county has entered. The contest for the north part of the county will be aided by the Chamber of Commerce and in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce the Artesia Rotary club has appointed a committee to work with the county health department and a similar committee from Carlsbad. The local committee includes H. S. Williams, C. J. Dexter and Supt. W. E. Kerr.

Much good has already been accomplished in safeguarding the health of the school children. The campaign to immunize the school children from small pox and diphtheria will be carried further this year and in addition the children have been or will be given dental examinations with the suggestion that the defects be corrected. Most of the local school children have been through the dental clinic and dental clinics have been held for different rural groups. Yesterday the Lakewood children were given a dental examination.

The methods of awards are based on the report made by the county health department at the end of the year.

BANK PAYS LAST OF DEPOSITORS' FUND

The First National Bank served notice Saturday it was prepared to liquidate the depositors trust fund in full. The depositors trust fund amounting to $27,000 was subscribed shortly after the national bank moratorium on March 4, 1933, in an effort to reopen the First National. The fund was accepted in the reopening plans and last December the First National made a forty percent payment to the members of the fund, later a ten percent dividend was paid, leaving a balance of fifty percent. ALLOTMENT OF TAX EXEMPTION CERTIFICATES RECEIVED MONDAY

No checks on the second portion of the cotton rental have been received as yet. The information is that they should be out at most any time. No checks on the 1933 option loan pool have been received yet. An additional allotment of tax exemption certificates were received Monday. All tax exemption certificates for Eddy county were issued at this time. This includes all 1933 farms, 1934 plantings only, and for hail and other adjustments. Tickets were distributed at Artesia Tuesday, the 6th, so that all producers could secure their tickets and know just how many they were going to receive, and therefore be able to decide how many they would need to purchase. One hundred and twenty farmers called at the office at Artesia for tickets on Tuesday.

The total allotment made on the average base contracts for Eddy county averaged above 98 per cent. This shows that the figures given on the contracts and applications were very accurately and justly computed last spring.

No further information in regard to the 1935 contract sign-up has been received. As soon as this information is received it will be published and sent out to all producers.

LOCAL GINNINGS

Until today's (Wednesday's) close, the cotton market has remained steady between twelve cents and twelve ten for the week, advancing fifteen points in the last hour of trading. This sharp advance just previous to the report seems to indicate a considerable short interest that preferred to cover, before the government report is published today.

As previously stated, we believe the size of the crop is no longer a controlling factor in price, but for some time we have been convinced that the market would decline to twelve cents, hence our urgent advice to sell cotton while it was in the thirteen cent column. We are not now advising sales unless they can be made at twelve seventy-five or better. The twelve cent loan plan promulgated by the government for the remainder of this crop, which of necessity will be somewhat shorter in staple and poorer in grade, is by far the wiser plan to follow now, as most of the cotton coming in might not sell for more than twelve cents in any case.

Regardless of the report which is to be published today, we are inclined to believe that the market will do better after the report is out of the way.

THE WORLD'S WOOL OUTLOOK

Trading in raw wool in the domestic market showed a decided improvement in October after months of inactivity, and some improvement also occurred in foreign selling centers, according to reports received in the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The improvement in the domestic market was attributed to substantial government contracts for wool products, some increase in sales to consumers and the proposal by dealers of a plan for the financing and marketing of stocks of the 1934 clip still held by growers. The resumption of trading in Ohio and similar fleece wools at Boston was at prices slightly lower than the recent nominal quotations in that market, but no change was reported in quotations for western wools. Increased continental demand in the latter part of the London sales which closed October 3 and at the following sales in Southern Hemisphere selling centers resulted in slightly higher foreign wool prices in October. Because of the wide spread between domestic and foreign wool prices, any general advance in domestic prices probably will await improvement in the wool manufacturing industry in this country.

After an adjustment for variation in the number of working days, the consumption of combing and clothing wool by identical mills in the United States for the four weeks ended August 25 showed a reduction of 2.4 per cent compared with the preceding 4-week period, and a further decline in activity occurred in September as a result of the textile strike and the closing of mills

FREE MAIL DELIVERY MAY BE STARTED IN RESIDENCE DISTRICT

Free mail delivery into the residential section of Artesia is a probability if the citizens approve the plan, W. B. McCrory, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, announced Tuesday. A survey will likely be started to determine if the people want the free delivery service and if the plan receives public approval, then steps will be taken to secure this service. A petition will likely be circulated among those living in districts where gravel or concrete sidewalks are used.

because of a lack of orders. Consumption of combing and clothing wool by United States mills in the first 9 months of 1934 is estimated to have been about 35 per cent smaller than in 1933 and was probably smaller than in the same months of any year in the 15 years for which statistics are available.

Activity in the wool textile industry of the United Kingdom showed some improvement in September, but activity remains considerably below that of the corresponding period of last year.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 11th.

The golden text is: "He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth." (John 3:31).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible:
"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit." (Rom. 8:1).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook:
"The Master said, 'No man cometh unto the Father (the divine principle of being) but by me, Christ, life, truth, love; for Christ says, 'I am the way,' physical causation was put aside from first to last by this original man, Jesus.'"

CALVARY BAPTIST HAS SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL

According to the pastor, the Rev. F. C. Rowland, the Calvary Baptist church has shown a recent gain of fourteen members as a result of the Dunsforth revival which closed October 7th.

The pastor believes that the continued growth and success of this new missionary Baptist church is proving two things; first, that the aim of this church namely: worship without useless formalism and spirituality without fanaticism, is gaining favor. Second, that this new church is meeting the demand of a large group today who feel that what we need today more than railway extension, western irrigation, a low tariff, a bigger cotton crop, and a larger wheat crop is a revival of religion. The kind that father and mother used to have. A religion that counted it good business to take time for family worship each morning right in the middle of wheat harvest. A religion that prompted them to quit work a half hour earlier on Wednesday so that the whole family could get ready to go to prayer meeting. And the pastor insists that the only motive of this new church is to fulfill the scriptural injunction, "Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your minds."

NO SERVICES AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Rev. W. B. McCrory, who left for Phoenix, Arizona, Tuesday, announced there would be no preaching service.

A Good Engineer

Always has his engine "fit." He examines it at regular intervals. Your eyes are the hardest working engine of that wonderful group—the human system. They should be examined carefully at regular intervals by a competent optometrist—once a year, at least—and be kept fit. Neglect of this precaution may cause pain, loss of time and real money.

TALK ADVISABILITY

OF METERING FLOW OF ARTESIAN WELLS
The Pecos valley conservancy board meeting in Roswell Saturday discussed the advisability of installing water meters on the flowing artesian wells to ascertain the water users do not use more than their allotment. The matter of placing meters will be investigated under the direction of the state engineer and if feasible will likely be undertaken. It was felt that this measure would supplement the plugging efforts to provide sufficient water for every land owner.
More than three wells have been plugged in Roswell under an FERA project. The crew of E. B. Guess stopped well plugging west of Lake Arthur to plug a government well near Carlsbad. Board members from this section attending the meeting Saturday included George Frisch and Jess Funk.

Science Reveals Why Eyesight Fades As Birthdays Increase

Of all men and women past 60 years of age, 82% have defective eyesight. Such is the penalty that man pays for his compromise with nature. Neglected teeth may be replaced, but damaged eyesight at best can be only partially restored. Good light and properly fitted eyeglasses are a great boon to old people. Since the pupils of their eyes are only one-third as large as those of young people, they need at least three times as much light in order to have an even break in seeing.

The average child is born with normal sight. All too soon, however, he begins to use his eyes for close seeing tasks, such as looking at pictures or playing with toys, often under poor lighting. Eyestrain and ocular defects are quick to result. No child should be permitted to use his eyes for close work under any but the best of visual conditions. Abundant, glareless light should always be provided, and the child's eyes examined frequently by a competent specialist.

Thousands of young men and women in schools and colleges throughout the country are needlessly wearing out their eyes long before their time by reading and studying for long hours under poor visual conditions. Surveys show that 40% of college students' eyes are defective. What a sad commentary that in fitting himself for the battle of life, the student is unnecessarily imposing a serious handicap on himself.

Nature never intended children's eyes to be used for reading, writing and study. She intended that eyes be used for looking at distant objects, under large amounts of natural daylight. When a child does close visual work indoors under inadequate and glaring light in defiance of Nature's laws, he pays the penalty in eye defects. Statistics show that one out of every five children in grammar school has defective vision.
