Although he climbed a 50-foot tower and "skinned the cat" on his 95th birthday, Dr. Edwin Osbaldeston of New Jersey is mindful of the uncertainty of life and is shopping around for a cheap funeral. He has a bid of $150 from one mortician, but thinks he will yet be able to get himself put away for an even $100.

Feed Seed Loans Available To Aid the Needy Farmers

Emergency crop and feed loans from the $60,000,000 fund appropriated by congress is available to local farmers, according to word received here from the regional manager of the emergency crop and feed loan office at Wichita, Kansas.

The local feed and seed loan office has been established in the old First National Bank building, with Miss Mary Corbin in charge of making the applications.

The loans will be made only to farmers who are unable to obtain elsewhere supplies, feed or the necessary credit to purchase such supplies, and not to applicants who can secure them from any other source, including the production credit associations, McElveen said.

A maximum limit of $500 is placed on crop loans this year. No loan will be made for less than $10. In applications for the loans of $300 or more, the application must have been turned down by the production credit association.

Loans will be made only to applicants who are cooperating directly with the production control program of the AAA or who are not proposing to increase their 1935 production in a way detrimental to the success of the program. A statement to this effect is contained in each loan application.

While a $500 limit is placed on all loans, no amount may be borrowed in any case which is larger than the amount actually needed to purchase seed and fertilizer necessary for production. The fund is appropriated for emergency cases and must be used to assist the maximum number of such needs, McElveen said.

A considerable part of the fund must be used to aid farmers whose resources were depleted by last summer's drought and who for that reason, are in immediate need of aid.

Loans will be made for feed for livestock but not for purchase of livestock or machinery, or for the payment of taxes, debts or interest on debts.

Wheat Plantings May Be Increased

By modifying the restrictions on the planting of wheat for 1935, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has made possible an increased planting acreage of wheat for New Mexico farmers who have allotment contracts and who agree to make corresponding reductions in their 1935 wheat crops, according to R. R. Will of New Mexico State College.

The plan does not automatically remove planting restrictions, but depends upon a farmer's signing an agreement to enter into a 1936 wheat adjustment contract, if one is offered, and to reduce his 1936 plantings below the general reduction required in any 1936 contract, by as much as he increases in 1935 plantings.

The modifying of restrictions will not affect the 1935 adjustment payments to farmers. Each farmer under contract will receive his adjustment payment on his allotment whether he increases his plantings or not. However, if the farm on which 1935 plantings are increased changes hands between 1935 and 1936, the second 1935 adjustment payment will go to the 1936 producer.

Lifting of restrictions on plantings was decided upon by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration as a precaution against drought this year in important wheat regions, especially the Great Plains area, where rainfall and subsoil moisture have been below normal. Increasing production offers consumers protection against lowered wheat carryovers, and benefit payments will provide some crop-income insurance for producers.

Though the plan applies principally to spring wheat plantings, wheat farmers who planted excess winter wheat for pasture last fall may allow these plantings to mature if they sign agreements for

Ask $150,000,000 For Soil Erosion

WASHINGTON—The conference of twenty-five senators and representatives from five western states decided Monday to ask President Roosevelt for $150,000,000 for soil erosion work to be allocated from the $4,880,000,000 work relief bill.

Chairman Jones (D-Texas) of the house agriculture committee who presided at the meeting, was empowered to name one senator and one representative from each state interested on a special committee to convey the desires of the various delegations to the president or whomever he might designate to be in charge of this work.

The resolution asked that the meeting urge the president "to make adequate funds immediately available for such emergencies and a permanent program, and that there be made immediately available for such purposes a sum of not less than $150,000,000 for use wherever needed."

Senator Sheppard (D-Texas) and Jones were named for their state; Senator Hatch and Representative Dempsey were named for New Mexico; Senator Capper and Representative Hope were selected to represent Kansas, and Representative Martin was named for Colorado. The senator from Colorado and senator and representative from Oklahoma will be named later to complete the committee of ten.

Meanwhile it was predicted that a comprehensive program for soil and wind erosion control would be before the senate for action before the week is out.

CHAMPION SNAKE CATCHER AT WORK

Merwin Campbell of Carlsbad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Campbell of the Oasis farm, who has earned the title of the champion rattlesnake catcher of this section, did not fare so well on his recent expedition. Mr. Campbell caught ten rattlers on a trip Friday to the section east of the river. He says most of the rattlers had emerged from their winter hibernation. He has caught and killed a great many more on previous hunting trips.

A hollow rod with a loop on an inside rod does the job in dragging the snakes in.

Snake venom antidote is made by extracting the poison from the snake's glands, injecting it in increasing quantities into a healthy horse, and then extracting part of the horse's blood, which is the serum used as the antidote.

corresponding future reductions. It is estimated that this plan will allow the planting of between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 acres more of wheat for 1935 than would otherwise be the case and that production of wheat will be increased by between 10 million and 30 million bushels.

Plans Made For Grade Crossing Projects In State

SANTA FE—Grover Conroy, state highway engineer, said Saturday night his department was well along with plans for 20 grade crossing separation projects in New Mexico and would be in position to take full advantage of the tentative $2,742,000 allocation to this state under the federal work relief bill now awaiting the president's signature. The tentative allocation to New Mexico for highways was announced in Washington Saturday as $7,356,000, or a total for roads and crossings of $10,107,000.

Conroy said the grade crossing projects were in all parts of the state and that definite information could not be released on specific projects until final approval had been received from the Federal Bureau of Public Roads.

Conroy also said New Mexico had projects outlined to take full advantage of the tentative allocation of $7,356,000 for roads and highways but said definite information on just how the money was to be divided would be necessary before the program was announced.

He said two years ago the highway funds were divided between federal aid roads, municipal work and state roads and that definite knowledge of how the money was to be divided under provisions of the bill agreed upon Friday was necessary before he could announce plans for the state department.

MINIATURE CIRCUS AT LAKE ARTHUR APRIL 17

Administration officials, however, do not expect the number of 1935 signers to reach the 1934 total of 1,155,000. Several separately owned tracts operated by a tenant may be covered by one contract this year while last year one contract could not cover more than two such separately owned tracts.

Approximately 1200 persons attended the annual barbecue of the New Mexico Military Institute Saturday at Roswell, following maneuvers of the Cadet Corps, preparatory to the annual war department inspection.

A miniature circus will be presented by the primary grades Wednesday, April 17th, at 7:30 p. m. at the Lake Arthur high school auditorium. Your presence will be appreciated.

850,000 FARMERS SEEK NEW CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON—Field reports from the major corn and hog producing states indicate that nearly 850,000 farmers have signed applications for 1935 corn-hog contracts, according to W. O. Fraser, acting chief of the corn-hog section. Mr. Fraser also stated that of benefit payments under the 1934 distribution of the final installment program has now reached a total of $8,797,663.14.

Nebraska leads in the number of new signers as more than 7,500 of the 1935 applications did not participate in the corn-hog program last year.

Administration officials, however, do not expect the number of 1935 signers to reach the 1934 total of 1,155,000. Several separately owned tracts operated by a tenant may be covered by one contract this year while last year one contract could not cover more than two such separately owned tracts.

INITIATION OF MEMBERS BY THE LEGION AUXILIARY (Contributed)

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Monday afternoon at the Legion hut with a good attendance. Five new members: Mmes. C. R. Baldwin, B. D. Clarke, Frank Smith, Dave Bunting and Tom James, were initiated into the organization, using the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Albert Richards announced that the essay contest sponsored by the Fidac program on the subject, "How Can the American Youth of Today Help Fidac and the American Legion Take Profit Motive Out of War?" had ended and that Miss Avis Clowe was awarded first prize, and Arlee Reno second prize.

Mrs. Grover Kinder told of the work being done in the Artesia schools to help children that need physical corrections. The Auxiliary contributed to this through the child welfare program. Little Miss Hattie Ruth Cole charmingly sang "On the Good Ship Lollypop" and "La Cucaracha," accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Fred Cole. Miss Sybil Prior gave a beautiful piano selection.

Mrs. Alex McGonagill was the winner of the Easter prize, by drawing the lucky number.

The hostesses, Mmes. Raymond Bartlett, John McCann and Miss Olive Buell, served a dainty refreshment plate to about thirty-five members and guests. The hut was made very attractive with a profusion of spring flowers.

NEW MEXICO WOMAN'S MISSIONARY CONFERENCE RECEIVES "CARP FLAG"

At the convention of the New Mexico Woman's Missionary Conference, held in Albuquerque last week, which was attended by several of the local Methodist women, a "Carp Flag" was presented.

The flag was sent by the Kionobori International Goodwill Society of Japan. Forty of these flags were sent to the Southern Methodist conference. One was presented to Mrs. C. F. Walker, president of the New Mexico conference, at a national meeting last week in Saint Louis. Mrs. Walker presented this flag to Mrs. Reed Brainard of Artesia, Conference secretary of Children's work, at the meeting last week in Albuquerque. The flag will be opened at the Sunday school hour here on the fourth Sunday of this month and will then be sent to different Sunday schools in the district. The carp, one of the most courageous and persevering fish in the Japanese waters, is a symbol of courage and perseverance in children's work.

The convention was well attended by the different churches of the district. Carlsbad will be the hostess city next year.

BIRTHDAY AND RECIPROCITY PARTY

Chapter J of the P. E. O. sisterhood celebrated its eighth birthday anniversary last Friday afternoon with a party at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kerr. Sixteen members of Chapter A of Carlsbad were guests on this happy occasion.

After the regular business meeting a program on "Music and Musicians of New Mexico" was given, with Mrs. Fred Cole as leader. Mrs. Cole prefaced the musical numbers with a paper ably setting forth the rich musical heritage of our state in which Spanish, Indian and cowboy music each have an important part. The different types were illustrated in a truly beautiful program in which Mmes. V. L. Gates, M. A. Corbin and Cole rendered characteristic songs of each race, with Miss Dawn Hornbaker accompanying at the piano.

As a fitting background for the program the Kerr home was profusely decorated with articles of Indian and Spanish handicraft—Indian pottery, baskets, bead work, chimayo weaving, Navajo rugs, Mexican sarapes, etc. Also the young ladies who assisted in serving refreshments, Mmes. Cole and Leslie Martin and Miss Merrill Bradley, were gayly adorned in lovely Spanish shawls.

A birthday cake bearing eight yellow candles was cut by the president, Mrs. Gates, after which two-course refreshments were served by the committee composed of Mmes. W. C. Martin, Ralph Shugart, R. G. Knoedler and Fred Cole.

The chapter accepted the invitation of Chapter B of Roswell to attend its 25th anniversary party, which will occur the 25th.

The ladies present from Carlsbad were Mrs. Williams, state organizer, who gave a brief talk during the business meeting, and Mmes. Kern, J. W. Lewis, C. C. Lewis, Linn, Morris, Crawford, Roberts, Sears, Groves, McLenathen, Hemingway, Thorne, Wunsch, Dowling and Miss Dorothy Swigart.

Miller of Pasadena, California, Glenn Yarnell of Roswell, and John Shearman of Artesia.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches and Societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 14th. The golden text is: "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise." (Jer. 17:14).
Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible:
"For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." (I Tim. 1:7).
The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook:
"When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will muster either a desire to die or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that besets mortal existence."

Ill California Student Awarded A Pontiac Auto

Dame fortune, whose visits sometimes seem as unusual as Cinderella's fairy godmother's, but as definitely guided as a pigeon's homing, paused for a moment last week at the little sanatorium cottage of Eugene Temple, 28 year old Franciscan student of the Santa Barbara Mission in the mountains back of Southern California.

The good fairy probably peeked over Temple's shoulder as he wrote the 200 word essay which won for him a new Pontiac automobile in a nation-wide contest.

In fact, dame fortune must have been back of the whole plot, although Temple couldn't have realized it, as he lay there at the Banning hospital and sanatorium, waging what after eleven long months now appears to be a successful fight against the white plague.

When he entered the sanatorium eleven months ago, with a few books and a tiny table model radio, the doctors gave him only one month to live. But he must have gotten comfort and solace out of his radio, for it was from it that he learned about the Pontiac radio contest. Judges back in Detroit who had read some seventy thousand of these 200 word essays during the previous five or six weeks, sat up a little straighter in their chairs, cracked wise and took a new lease on life when the postman brought in Temple's contribution.

It had all the qualities of a full length story packed into 200 words. Human interest, imagination, humor, tragedy, sympathy, merchandising.
The judges, who were men of letters themselves, rushed to an atlas to see where Banning, California, was located. Oh yes, back on the edge of Death Valley.
Probably Temple was a desert rat. But who ever heard of a desert rat writing a piece like that? And besides a desert rat wouldn't have a radio. And what could he do with a new Pontiac if he won one?

Well, probably he was a scenario writer up from Hollywood, on location perhaps, getting some local color for one of next year's movie thrillers. But what of that? There wasn't a ban on scenario writers, was there?

Let's give it to Temple. And then surprise followed surprise when a west coast representative of the Pontiac Motor Co. flashed back the word about the Franciscan student and his courageous up hill fight for health.

So the judges were glad they had done something that perhaps would help to cheer him on his way.
The new car was driven up to the Banning Sanatorium where C. G. Riley, Pontiac's Southern California zone manager, officially presented the keys to the car to its winner, while the head nurse of the institution accepted the car itself for him.
Pontiac Motor Co. and the contest judges never may have believed in fairy tales before, but they do now.
And they are a friend of the fairy princess who visited student Eugene Temple on his hospital bed.

WILDFOWL RESTORATION MOVE IS LAUNCHED IN A WIDE AREA

NEW YORK—Happy landings are in prospect for America's homeless wild ducks in dozens of states this year as state game and park officials, sportsmen's clubs, civic organizations and groups and individuals of all types join in the first "roll up the sleeves" wildfowl restoration movement of its kind ever launched.

With the first national prohibition of all waterfowl hunting being "talked" by legislative conservationists, work on establishment of chains of voluntary wildfowl refuges has been started by advocates of conservation "deeds, not words," according to the More Game Birds Foundation.

Following recent announcement of a national waterfowl refuge contest, launched for the purpose of replacing some of the 17,000,000 acres of drained wild duck marches and ponds throughout the nation, response was immediate from 14 states. The Connecticut Board of Fisheries and Game, with the slogan "More native ducks for Connecticut," forwarded eight private and public refuge entries. The Nutmeg State offers to stock, develop and manage suitable refuge sites entirely without obligation to pond owners.

New York conservation department entered five state refuge sites in addition to six others submitted by private south Michigan groups have started four refuges and Wisconsin organizations a similar number.

The first refuge entry received came from W. I. Sargent, Jefferson, Iowa, through the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber of Commerce of Bend, Oregon, also has gone in for duck restoration. Park officials of Appleton, Wisconsin, and Hartford, Connecticut, were the first to submit public park refuge projects.

MORE EVIDENCE AGAINST HAUPTMANN

MILWAUKEE, Wisconsin—The Milwaukee Sentinel said Saturday night that a Milwaukee priest Friday came into the Lindbergh kidnaping case with evidence which shatters the testimony of Bruno Richard Hauptmann and some of his principal alibi witnesses.

The Sentinel said the priest, the Rev. Michael J. Kalkock, pastor of St. Joseph's church in Cudahy, a suburb of Milwaukee, told a story which indicated, the Sentinel said, "that the plot against the Lindbergh family was fostered many months before the kidnaping and that Bruno Hauptmann knew every inch of the grounds surrounding the Lindbergh estate."

The information is now in the hands of the department of justice, who have relayed it to New Jersey authorities for further investigation, the Sentinel said.
The Sentinel said that for five years prior to taking up his pastorate in Cudahy, Father Kalkock was pastor of St. Michael's church on the outskirts of Trenton, New Jersey.
