Oil Man Killed Auto Accident Yesterday

GRO SHOT DEATH ON DAY EVE.

Holloway Killed
By Railroad Spur—
McNiece Arrested
Placed in County
at Carlsbad.

McNiece, aged 64, colored, died here Saturday morning following a shooting. The shooting occurred shortly after 10:00 p. m. The shooting is said to have occurred at the railroad spur near Iverson Tool Co., building two walked toward McHome, about a hundred yards away. One shot was shot twice. One struck his body on the right side of the right nipple. Another struck him in the abdomen. Holloway ran about fifty feet, dying almost immediately. McNiece used a .38 Smith & Wesson. The trouble is alleged to have occurred over an argument over a $50 debt made by Holloway. A discussion of some of the details of the shooting led to the argument, McNiece a liar. The latter said, when Holloway came toward him in a threatening manner. Arthur Lee, another man with the two at the scene of the shooting, fled when he was said to have snapped at him twice. McNiece is said to have taken three drinks of liquor at a time previous to the shooting. He did not appear in court after the shooting, one of the officers, McNiece stated. McNiece lived in Artesia for four years and had known Holloway since 1926. The two had never been in contact before. McNiece claimed he did not know Holloway. The shooting occurred a short distance from the home of Oliver Harrison and Harrison was the first to reach the scene. McNiece was arrested before W. H. Harrison, justice of the peace, waived preliminary hearing as bound over to the Eddy district court, under bond of $500. His trial will likely be held at Carlsbad the week of March 17th.

Hard Say Nearly Able Bodied Men Employed By WPA

Practically every able bodied man in the three southeastern Pecos counties, Eddy, Lea and Pecos is now employed, Fred W. WPA projects manager yesterday. Highway work is being the principal burden of the program, while a number of projects have been shut down to give men for the highway work. The curb and street improvement program will be curtailed to furnish men for work on Highway 83. Likewise the road work of Hope will be curtailed to the need for more labor.

NYA QUOTA FILLED

County's national youth admission quota was filled last week by the assignment of four men to a campus improvement program at the Cottonwood camp. There are now thirty-seven people employed in the program. The present setup will run until July 1.

Start Retard Dam for Hope The Latter Part of This Month

It was learned here yesterday that a strong possibility of starting the retard dam to serve the Hope irrigation district the latter part of the month. Plans for construction of the dam have practically completed; the dam is to be located on the Penasquito near the YO crossing and built for the purpose of retarding the flood waters of the Rio Grande. The project is expected to employ forty men.

Claud Reno Home Destroyed By Fire Sunday Morning

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Claud Reno residence in the southeast part of town at an early hour Sunday morning. The structure, a six-room frame building, was too far gone to be saved when the fire alarm was turned in near 2:00 a. m., Sunday morning. None of the Reno family were at home at the time of the fire. The entire house was a flaming mass when the fire truck arrived. Both the house and furniture were practically a total loss. The building and contents were partly insured. Mr. Reno stated he had no idea how the fire might have started.

J. E. DeArcy Dies At Wink March 7

Heart Attack Fatal To Early Day Resident Of Artesia

Early day residents of this section will regret to learn of the death of J. E. DeArcy, aged 65, which occurred at Wink, Texas, on March 7th. The death of Mr. DeArcy was due to heart failure and came unexpectedly. Mr. DeArcy, a native of Indiana, came to the Pecos Valley in 1896 and moved to Artesia in 1904, shortly after the town was established. He aided in the development of the Artesian basin and helped to drill a number of Artesian wells. Dr. H. A. Stroup received news of the death of his brother, Ben Stroup, aged 64, at Winston-Salem, North Carolina, which occurred early Monday morning. The end came peacefully while Mr. Stroup slept. He had been in ill health for some time and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Stroup, a former resident of New Mexico, was well-known in many parts of the state. He served as superintendent of the Albuquerque high school for a number of years and was later made superintendent of the Albuquerque school system. Still later he became federal enforcement officer for the Volstead act and lived at El Paso for some time before being transferred to the east. Funeral services were held at Winston-Salem on Tuesday. Dr. Stroup was unable to attend the funeral services.

Monthly Auction Is Successful

The second monthly auction sale held here yesterday measured up to expectations in every way, Arba Green, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, reported. While the sales made were mostly small items, the total amount of the sale was $113.60 from over 100 articles. The crowd was much larger than in the initial event last month and the public seemed to be pleased with the results, it was reported. Mr. Green said he was in favor of making the monthly auction a permanent event in Artesia, but the final decision would rest with the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Van S. Welch returned from a business visit to eastern points Sunday. B. F. Pior returned Sunday from a business visit to Chicago, Detroit, Michigan and Akron, Ohio.

Prospects Good For a Big Calf Crop This Spring

Ranchmen are facing the brightest prospect in several years for a bumper calf crop. The season has already started on several ranches and ranchers are looking forward to a crop of about eighty-five or ninety percent, compared with about a twenty-five percent last year at the corresponding period. The number of the cattle on the range is less than two years ago, due to the drought relief program, but most ranchers say the cattle numbers are about as large as the present range will support. Movement of livestock is practically completed. Little or no cattle will be moved to market until the new crop is ready to ship. Several cattle buyers have visited this section recently, but few sales have been made.

Miss Carleen Manley, aged 17, died at the St. Francis hospital in Carlsbad yesterday morning about 7:30 o'clock. The death of Miss Manley came as a distinct shock to members and friends of the family here. ### 7 MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL TO BE ELECTED Mayor and Six Aldermen Are To Be Chosen On April 7th, In Addition To Voting On Hospital Bond Issue.

A mayor and six aldermen from four wards are to be chosen in the coming city election on April 7th; in addition property owners will vote on the $30,000 hospital bond issue. Two aldermen elected from ward 1 and ward 3, two years ago, have since moved from Artesia. Mayor Hollis Watson will also come up for reelection. Mr. Watson at first declined to let his name appear on the ballot but said Tuesday he had reconsidered the matter and would be a candidate for reelection, provided, of course, that he was acceptable to the voters. Decision to let his name appear on the ballot for re-election came about due to the fact that the city will have some unfinished business that will need attention from those who are familiar with the city affairs.

Other members of the city council whose terms expire as aldermen have not made a public expression so far as known, relative to re-election. In ward 1, Dr. J. J. Clarke was elected for a term of four years at the last biennial election. He has since moved from Artesia and his place as alderman will be filled at the coming election. Likewise S. E. Ferree, elected for two years at the 1934 election will be up for re-election.

C. O. Brown is the holdover for alderman in ward 2, having been chosen for four years in 1934. W. H. Gilmore is the two-year alderman and will be up for re-election. M. W. Evans resigned as alderman from ward 3 several months ago and his unexpired term will be filled April 7th. Walter Douglas, alderman for two years, will be up for re-election.

Arba Green is the holdover in ward 4, having been chosen for a term of four years in 1934. Albert Richards, chosen at the same time for two years, will be up for re-election.

TRAGEDY IS CAUSED BY BLOW-OUT

Wm. McGinley, Ft. Worth, Meets Death Near State Line While En Route Here Yesterday; Two Others Injured.

William McGinley, aged about 60, of Fort Worth, Texas, prominent Texas oil man, met instant death yesterday in a car accident about 3:00 o'clock, two miles south of the state line while en route here to look over his oil properties. Two other oil men, D. E. Reiswig and Wayne Pointing, also of Fort Worth, were seriously injured when the car, a Chrysler Airflow, overturned twice from either a tire blow-out or bad puncture. Sheriff Dwight Lee of Carlsbad, called to investigate the accident, said the car overturned probably from a blow-out.

Jack McGinley of Artesia, son of Mr. McGinley, had also been to Fort Worth, but in going down had left his car at Pecos and returned to Pecos on the train, had driven his car here, preceding his father a few hours, and was here awaiting the three when news of the tragedy reached him, it was learned yesterday afternoon. Otherwise he might have been one of the accident victims.

D. E. Reiswig, passenger in the ill-fated car, suffered a broken collar bone and severe bruises. In addition to bruises and cuts, Mr. Pointing suffered a broken left arm and a broken right leg. His condition was critical. The injured men and the body of Mr. McGinley were returned to Pecos. At Pecos the body was transferred to Fort Worth, where burial will be made.

Mr. McGinley, known to practically all of the oil fraternity here, had purchased the R. D. Compton oil properties about three months ago. His son Jack McGinley, has been here for several weeks, overseeing the property. Two additional wells have been drilled on the leases since the property changed hands.

Mr. McGinley was president of the McGinley Oil Corporation of Fort Worth, Texas. Additional details of the wreck received here this morning indicated the car was traveling at a high rate of speed when a front tire blew out. The car, it was said, rolled 400 feet from the highway.

Concern was also manifested for the safety of young McGinley when he left here and was not heard from for several hours. Later a phone call from Pecos stated he had also had car trouble due to a blowout and had been delayed.

Light Rain Falls Here Friday Night Heavier Northwest

A rain varying from a light to a heavy shower fell over southeastern New Mexico Friday night, giving needed moisture to stockmen and farmers. The moisture here amounted to only a sprinkle, but was more beneficial to the north and west. At Hope approximately a half inch of rain fell. The precipitation was also heavier in the Dexter community. The first seven days of March has been unusually calm and balmy.

District Board Meets Saturday Outlines Plans

The regular meeting of the Pecos Valley Artesian Conservancy District board was held in Roswell Saturday. The board heard a few well applications and also a report of the plugging operations. George Frisch, board member, said Monday the crew which had been attempting to plug the water flow in an old oil test east of the river and northeast of here had been moved to a well near the Atoka school house. The well east of the river will be abandoned temporarily and the time devoted to working on wells easier to plug.

Explosion Fatal To Oil Worker

J. T. Dunivan of Eunice Loses Life When Blast Goes Off.

The body of J. T. Dunivan, 48 years old, oil field driller, killed instantly Saturday night in an explosion near Eunice, was shipped to his home in Glen Rose, Texas, it was learned at Carlsbad Monday.

The body was prepared by C. M. Bynum of the Talmadge Mortuary at Carlsbad, who was called to the scene of the accident.

Mr. Bynum said the body was horribly torn apart by the blast, which occurred when drillers prepared to "shoot" the well.

The powder ignited too quickly, blowing tools from the hole and a heavy cable looped about Dunivan's head, tearing it from the body.

The well was showing oil, and drillers had decided to blast it with dynamite to prove the sand.

The body was taken to Hobbs. Mr. Dunivan is survived by his widow and two children.

Food Handlers Are Required to Undergo Health Examination

Carl Henderson of Carlsbad, county sanitarian, was calling on the local cafes, restaurants, meat markets and soda fountains here Tuesday and explained to the food and drink handlers the new requirements to be met, to conform with the New Mexico health department rules and regulations. Dishes used to serve the public should be washed and sterilized in a chlorine compound. Also all food and drink handlers and their employees should undergo a health examination at the hands of a physician. Health certificates will be issued to handlers following the examination, and all certificates should be in the office of the health department by March 24.

SEVERAL CASES OF FLU AND PNEUMONIA

Several cases of flu and pneumonia have been reported in this vicinity recently. The son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Waldrip of Lake Arthur is ill with pneumonia. James Womack, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Womack, is also ill with pneumonia, however, his condition is not regarded as critical.

Number of PWA Projects Left Out

WASHINGTON — Secretary Ickes disclosed Tuesday that reductions in the public works administration's share of the present $4,000,000,000 work relief fund had left 1,476 approved projects without allotments.

His report on the "inactive" PWA program, which was submitted to the Senate in response to a resolution introduced by Senator Hayden (D-Ariz.), recalled the President's decision last September to limit the new PWA program to a $330,000,000 share of the relief fund. Ickes offered no comment on the report, but PWA officials said there was no chance of carrying out any of the projects unless congress provides additional funds. Clyde Guy was an El Paso, Texas, business visitor the first of the week.

PAYING HIGH FOR WAR

The administration at Washington estimates that the American government, to date, has spent $7,800,000,000 on its World War veterans. The new bonus will add substantially more than $2,000,000,000 to that. And if pensions ever come, the figures will become astronomical.

But it is too late for us to start weeping about it now. The time to have worried about all this expense was in the spring of 1917, when our participation in the World War was still ahead of us.

The lads who went to fight the Germans for us in 1917 and 1918 didn't invent the pensions-and-bonus system; neither, it should be added, were they the ones who thought up the idea of drawing cards in the World War.

on long after war's dead bones have been laid to rest—it just comes on long after war's dead bones have been laid to rest—is just comes with the bicycle. Declare war, and this is what you get.

And if we don't like it, there is one fool-proof way to avoid it; by staying out of war.—Bruce Catton in Belleville, Illinois, Daily Advocate.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

It is significant that another national organization, at its annual meeting in Chicago, adopted a resolution pledging its 20,000 members to use more newspaper advertising this year. This time it was the National Retailer Owned Grocers association and members will urge their customers to read newspapers in order that cooperative advertisements will be more widely read.

Periodically, other forms of advertising are tried besides newspapers. Sometimes it is direct-by-mail, circulars, handbills, or catalogs; recently, it has been radio. But, one by one, the advertiser returns to the newspapers. There he finds his most effective results. Newspapers have reader interest in both its news and advertising columns. They can be digested at leisure and comparison can be made.—Las Cruces Daily News.

New Mexico residents get a taste of high-pressure salesmanship occasionally when a bunch of girls hit town and make a whirlwind campaign of the business and residential section. Recently at Gallup, a man directing the efforts of twelve girls selling magazines, forfeited a $50.00 bond in police court when he failed to appear to answer charges of violating a Gallup ordinance against authorized peddling. Complaints charged the girls boarded moving autos, persisted in entering business houses and conducted themselves as a nuisance. The girls said they worked on a percentage basis and split commissions with the sales director.

The girls, usually attractive, get business by playing on the vanity of the males.

We have seen lots of trees being transported for planting to various properties in and around Artesia recently, which is a wholesome sign for it indicates the people are civic-minded. It is to be regarded as unfortunate more trees cannot be planted along our principal highways, leading through Artesia. Attractive trees and shrubbery attract the visitors and there is no doubt but that some of our neighboring cities have profited handsomely by taking the tourist down tree-lined highways.

Weather men who are supposed to know their stuff say we are in for a cycle of hard winters, which means more moisture in addition to more cold weather. It seems that the weather runs in cycles and we have just emerged from a dry cycle. To say the least the present March has been the most pleasant one experienced here so far in many years; made pleasant by spring showers and the absence of so many high winds.

Everyone is acquainted with the "Stop, Look and Listen" sign at railroad crossings, says the Lovington Leader. It is credited with having saved thousands of lives by causing people to be more careful. Yet the man who originated this slogan, together with his wife, was recently killed in a traffic accident near Seattle, Washington.

They say ex-President Hoover is developing a sense of humor as he goes along and his sense of humor is reflected in his recent political speeches. Well, Herbert was pretty badly beaten when he was serious four years ago and now maybe he thinks he can laugh off the brain trusters.

The automobile driver is told he must keep his eyes open. Doesn't seem much danger of his closing them, so long as he has the girl friend on the front seat with him.

There are said to be 3,000,000 rundown homes in this country, but the breakdown condition of an equal number of automobiles seems to cause more distress.

The boys who ask a girl for every date in the world except that of a call on the minister possibly need a little leap year treatment.

Health Column

Conducted by Dr. J. R. Earp, Director, New Mexico Bureau of Public Health.

Public Health Opinion

One of the most effective forms of social restraint is public opinion. It operates quietly but effectively alongside the more obvious compulsions of law and order. As we have all seen in our lifetime law enforcement is impossible unless public opinion is firmly on its side.

Far more people than those who encompass it desire the death of their enemies. Of those who refrain from murder a few, a very few, may be restrained by fear of detection and punishment. Far more are restrained by the common horror of taking human life. The strongest argument against capital punishment is the effect it must have in weakening this mass moral inhibition. To put laws upon the statute books one must be elected to the legislature. Few of us will ever be senators or representatives. Yet any one of us may help to change the vital and elusive force of public opinion.

Junior dies from diphtheria. Today the parents suffer from a sense of loss but not from a sense of shame. The neighbors offer condolence but take no pains to hide a cruel reproach. There is no hope of hide.

In a few years time if Junior dies from diphtheria the parents will suffer more keenly from the condemnation of their own conscience than they could from any prison sentence. The neighbors, feeling instinctively the parents' guilt and guilty pain, will offer tactfully whatever excuses they can find.

In the next few years public opinion will have changed. The people will get to know that no child need have diphtheria let alone

Chislings

A Scotchman and an actor were dining at the Artesia hotel cafe recently. After partaking of an expensive meal the waitress was surprised to hear the Scotchman say: "Please give me the check, waitress." A short time later southwestern papers carried the story, which read: "Ventriloquist murdered shortly after dinner."

Many a man seeks a girl for her pa value.

Looks like we are about to have a mail order wedding. Last week we learned from an El Paso paper that an Artesia school teacher had issued a proposal to an El Paso bachelorette, in the leap year husband hunting contest. Or rather the teacher had the proposal issued for her. We suppose such proposals come about from the fact that the grass looks a little greener over the fence and the gals often pass up the home boy, who may be a potential captain of finance for the city slicker who may lead her to the altar one day and divorce court the next.

V. D. Bolton is finishing a new fireplace and plans to stage a spitting contest as soon as his wife puts the finishing touches on the hardwood floors. Members of the Spit and Whittle club will be barred, but amateurs may enter. Suitable prizes will be awarded for the one that can spit the farthest.

If Artesia could rustle up some quintuplets like the five Dionnes, it would be worth far more to us than the Carlsbad Caverns is to Carlsbad. Last year 75,000 people paid a quarter to get a peek at the kids and they estimate 500,000 will see them this year. We merely drop the suggestion for some young couple to consider.

The ambitious young applicant for a civil service post was sitting his examination. All came out all right for him until he came to the general knowledge test.

This puzzled him for a while, but at last he thought of a way out of the difficulty.

"Give the quantity of coal exported from U. S. A. in any stated year," read the question.

With a sigh of relief he put down his answer: "In 1492—None."

A mechanic was called to a certain lady's home the other day to attend to her car, the lady telling him when he arrived, "I have done everything I could think of to this car and it just won't start."

"Did you choke it?" he asked.

"No, but I sure got mad enough to," she replied.

About the only time some girls keep a stiff upper lip is when they are putting lip stick on it.

Brown: "What will you give me for my daughter's piano?"

Naylor: "I'll give you $3 a cord for it, sawed, split and delivered in my woodshed."

One advantage of living out here in the great open spaces is that you don't have to worry about the elevator boys going on a strike, whereas if you lived in New York and occupied a forty-story building the prospect might worry you.

A strike of this kind might even be fatal, in case you are bothered with your heart and had to walk up and down the steps, to and from your work.

Amos: "Do you use tooth paste?"

Andy: "No, sah, my teeth ain't loose."

Newspaper item: Mrs. Lottie Prim was granted a divorce when she testified that since she and her husband were married he had spoken to her but three times. She was awarded the custody of their three children.

In addition to starting the twin bed fad over town, Mrs. Leah McDonald has also inaugurated a new fad in planting roses, by covering the top part of the rose plant and leaving the roots sticking out of the ground so they can have air. The main advantage in the new method of planting is that it gives protection to the tender buds, which might otherwise be killed by a pre-Easter freeze.

TAX COLLECTIONS NORMAL

The Eddy county tax collections were normal for February, according to a statement made at the office of County Treasurer Joe Johns at Carlsbad last week. The county is in the best financial condition of its history, with less obligations to pay and more money in the county treasury. A major share of the credit is given the administration's agricultural program, which has enabled the farmers to meet their obligations promptly.

die from it. The great majority of parents will submit to the constraint of public opinion and see to it that their children are protected. The making of this public health opinion of the future is in your hands and mine. It is our sacred responsibility.

Bailey Bros. Circus In Roswell Today

Bailey Bros. Circus, one of the very few remaining large circuses now on the road, will give two grand performances, afternoon and evening, at Roswell on Thursday, March 12th. Truthfully advertised, honestly conducted, is the standard business ethics of this great circus, known as the "Circus Beautiful" presenting one hundred new acts featuring thrilling sensations by champion arctic stars of six nations. As a prelude to the circus proper, a beautiful and spectacular pageant is presented, which is a gorgeous professional fiesta of old Texas, entitled "The Fall of the Alamo," whereby every member of the Circus takes part and is headed by its Prima Donna, Dainty Little Miss Delores Gomez, Mexico's most celebrated entertainer, Hollywood's sweetheart and movie star in person. . . . The Horse Fair of high bred gaited horses are presented by Mr. Robert McCue and a dozen lady riders. The three herds of performing elephants are presented by Captain Wm. Woodcock, Miss Maxine Taylor and Miss Gertrude Mayes. There are many funny clown to make you laugh and drive away the blues. Miss Janes Caaps, the original girl on the flying trapeze, the Connor Trio, America's most daring acrobatic, somersaulting, dancing air artists, The Dreisbaugh Sisters, Germany's celebrated bareback riders. The Atterbury Family of acrobats, tumblers and gymnasts. Senor Manuel Gonzales, who presents the wild animal numbers. Now comes the crowning feature of Bailey Bros. Circus, "Mouton The Great."

The sensation of the century, presented twice daily at one and seven p. m., on the show grounds, in the most thrilling and sensational act ever before attempted by any performer who will keep you spell-bound while performing his difficult feats while mounted on the top of a one hundred and thirty foot ladder without the aid of nets or safety belts and dives into a tank of fire as a climax to his act, at 1 and 7 p. m., free of any cost. Roswell Thursday, March 12th.

1935 SETS NEW HIGH MARK IN TRUCK SALES

The year 1935 proved the most notable in the history of International motor trucks, recording new high marks in both sales and expansion of the line, W. F. McAfee, manager of motor truck sales, International Harvester Co., has announced.

"Exceeding the combined industry every month last year in percentage gains over the corresponding months in 1934, International established a 69.5 per cent gain for the year in new truck registrations, compared with a 26.4 per cent gain for the industry," Mr. McAfee said.

"In heavy duty truck sales, International continued leading the procession in number and did so by an increased margin. Close to one in every three trucks registered in this class was an International."

"During 1935 International added twelve new models in twelve wheel-bases and maintained a continuous program of engine and chassis refinements."

MARTIN TRIAL IS SET FOR MARCH 17

CARRIZO—Judge Numa C. Frenger delayed the trial of Hollis Martin, youthful accused slayer of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shaffer, and their nine-year-old son, Monday until March 17th in order to allow defense attorneys time to bring witnesses from the 18-year-old boy's Altus, Oklahoma, home.

The three persons were slain last November near Hondo and Martin was indicted last week by a Lincoln county grand jury.

Scout News

Camp-O-Ral, April 23rd-26th, at Lake Van, Dexter, is just "around the corner." We are expecting over 500 Scouts to attend this four-day camp. Many troops started preparations months ago. Special attention should be given to health and safety of Scouts. Be sure to water-proof your tents. National Jamboree 1937—Now is the time to start preparation for our first national jamboree. Dates have not been definitely settled but it will be early summer of 1937. The cost will be about the same as previously which was $75. This may be increased some but not much. Many troops are holding intact the money they raised last year for this purpose. We urge this policy. Candidates should be chosen as soon as possible. The commissioners of the area will continue to serve as the jamboree committee and a detailed bulletin on this subject will be issued from them after they meet in the near future.

Advancement in Rank: We are happy to make known that Scouts in this area showed a gain of 150 per cent increase in advancement during the first two months of this year over the same period last year. This is real evidence of progress.

SHORT CIRCUIT BLAMED FOR HOBBS DEATH

A short circuit from a radio receiving set to a gas radiator was blamed Saturday for the death of Charlotte Roberts of Canadian, Texas, whose badly seared body was found in a hotel room at Hobbs. A coroner's jury decided the woman, whose body was discovered Saturday night, died from an accidental electrical shock. Her body was held pending the arrival of relatives from Canadian, Texas.

DUSTER HITS AGAIN

GUYMON, Okla.—March winds billowed rust across the southwest Tuesday. Here in the storm center automobile drivers switched on headlights at noon. Two hundred yards was the limit of visibility here at Beaver, Oklahoma. A high north wind screened roads with silt, forcing traffic to crawl. Boise City, Oklahoma, was peppered with dust on both flanks. Throughout the night a southwest breeze filled the air with a fine, chalk-like silt. In other section of Oklahoma, western Kansas, eastern New Mexico and the Texas panhandle the storm was less severe. Nowhere did conditions approximate those of April 14, 1935, when a great black blizzard, yardstick of all succeeding dusters, blotted out the sun.

ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

Man Stabbed To Death At Clovis

Jay Gibson, 28-year-old Clovis wholesale liquor dealer, was stabbed to death in a rooming house at Clovis Saturday, and Raligh Daugherty, 18, of Lariat, Texas, was arrested in connection with the slaying.

Arrest of the youthful Texan, a former resident of Etowah, Tennessee, followed a few hours after Gibson, his jugular vein slashed, staggered down the stairway of a second-story hotel on to the sidewalk and gasped:

"My God, they killed me." Witnesses said Gibson had gone to the rooming house to see a friend, Martin Cranfill, of Texico, and while there became involved in an argument with two men in defense of Mrs. Ruth Bowman, proprietor. They told officers Mrs. Bowman had spoken to the pair about creating a disturbance in one of the rooms and that Gibson intervened when one of them struck her.

Provision of New Act Are Outlined

Preservation and improvement of national soil resources, re-establishment and maintenance of farmers' purchasing power, assurance of adequate supplies of foods and fibers for consumers, and the protection of rivers and harbors against the effects of soil erosion are provided for in the soil conservation and domestic allotment act which was signed by the president on March 1.

Temporary federal aid in the form of payments direct to individual farmers to assist voluntary action by them designed to accomplish the soil conservation purposes is authorized until 1938. Commencing in 1938, grants will be made only to states upon approval of state programs by the secretary of agriculture in accordance with the provisions of the act. Grants may be made to states under plans approved before 1938. These state plans are to include as a principal objective the re-establishment of farmers' purchasing power, and may provide for production control. The act authorizes an annual appropriation of not more than $500,000,000.

Under the temporary plans of federal aid, the secretary of agriculture is authorized to make soil conservation payments to producers measured by (1) their treatment or use of land for soil restoration, conservation, or erosion prevention, (2) changes in the use of their land, and (3) the domestic allotment of one or more designated commodities. Productivity of the land affected is to be taken into consideration in making payments measured by changes in use of land or treatment of land for soil conservation.

The act authorizes the secretary of agriculture to utilize county and community committees of agricultural producers in carrying out the provisions of the act.

The roundup, branding and barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carder on the Lawrence ranch Sunday was the occasion for the gathering of about 175 people. Included in the guest list were many old-timers of this section.

ARTESIA ALFALFA ASS'N. ANNUAL BANQUET AND MEETING TUESDAY

Approximately 165 people attended the annual luncheon for members of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association, their wives, employees of the association and several special guests, given Tuesday noon at the roof garden of the Artesia hotel. I. S. Reser, president of the board of directors of the association, called attention to the fact that this occasion was the first luncheon given by the association in the past four years. This feature of the annual meeting of the association had been omitted on account of the general financial condition of the country, he said. On behalf of the association, Mr. Reser extended a welcome to members of the organization as well as the guests.

Luncheon guests introduced by W. Leslie Martin, acting as toastmaster, included: Mr. and Mrs. Arba Green; Fred Barham, A. M. Vance and Miss Yost, all of Carlsbad, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin of Artesia.

The High School Orchestra, under the direction of E. L. Harp, rendered several orchestra selections during the luncheon hour and at the conclusion of the luncheon, Toastmaster Martin introduced A. M. Vance, assistant county agent, who spoke briefly on the local problems connected with his work. He said the new farm program should be completed ready to start working by the first of next month. Messrs. J. R. Ogden of Loving and W. A. Wunsch of Las Cruces are attending a farm conference in Salt Lake City, Utah, this week and will doubtless have additional information with reference to the new program on their return, he said. Mr. Vance also announced that there are twenty-eight cotton contracts in the county on which all payments have not been received. Final adjustments on the 1935 cotton contracts are being made as rapidly as possible.

Miss Yost, the new district home agent, was also introduced. Fred Barham, county agent, spoke briefly on the necessity of program planning, if the farmer expects to profit from his labors. He traced the necessity of adjusting farm production to meet an over-expansion due to the World war and said each county should be permitted to work out its own particular problems.

W. R. Hornbaker, manager of the association, also spoke briefly. Ladies attending the banquet were given free tickets to an afternoon matinee at the Ocotillo theater, as compliments of the association.

The business session of the afternoon was given over to the various reports of the Manager, W. R. Hornbaker, covering the volume of business transactions in each department; cotton ginning; cotton sales, hay sales, merchandising, gas and oil, and the profits accruing from each department. The report indicated a very successful year in spite of reduced crops. An interesting feature of the report to the farmers was that portion dealing with the distribution of the total profits to the units handled. The organization being strictly cooperative makes it necessary to distribute all profits in every line in which it operates to each customer based upon that customers volume of business. The total net profits resulting from the year's operations as shown by the managers report was $22,705.20 which amount was distributed as follows:

Per bale of cotton ginned.....$2.75
Per bale of cotton sold..... .60
Per gallon of gasoline..... .02
Per gallon of distillate..... .01
Per gallon of kerosene..... .01
Each ton of fertilizer..... 2.00
On merchandise bought..... 5%

Besides the above patronage dividend (that is, the dividend based upon the volume of business of each customer) the regular stock dividend of five percent as guaranteed under the association by laws was also distributed to the various holder of Association preferred stock.

It was shown from the report that the total amount distributed to a cotton grower who owned an average amount of preferred stock on which he drew dividend and who also ginned and sold his cotton with the association was $4.25 the bale, $2.75 resulting from the ginning, 60c as a result of the sale profit and 90c average benefit based upon stock dividend.

The report also showed a total volume of business transaction approaching the million dollar mark—$236,000.00 of this represented transactions in cotton sales alone. After the managers financial and business reports the meeting selected three directors to succeed themselves, W. Leslie Martin of the Atoka district, R. M. Middleton, now of Hagerman and Lee Glasscock representing Hope community.

PLOW DESIGNER WHITTLED MODELS FROM POTATOES

The plow invented by Jethro Wood in 1814—with mouldplate, share, and landside cast separately—forecast modern plows. But Wood had great difficulty in getting workmen to mold his plows as he wanted them. He was taunted with being a "whittling Yankee" because he whittled away bushels of potatoes before he had a miniature model plow that suited him. Seward, Lincoln's secretary of state, said, "No citizen has conferred greater benefits on his county... none has been more inadequately rewarded."

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text book: "As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should die for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of spirit, not matter. The belief that man has any other substance or mind, is not spiritual and breaks the First Commandment, Thou shalt have one God, one Mind."

Mountain Lion Killed At Otis

A mountain lion, very large and very dead, created a great deal of excitement in Carlsbad Monday, says the Current-Argus.

Killing of the lion solves a mystery which has confounded Walter McDonald, rancher, who, for several weeks had found the remains of sheep slain by a wild animal.

McDonald had thought the killer was a wolf, but he was puzzled by the manner in which the sheep had been torn to shreds. It did not look like a wolf's work, but the rancher did not suspect a mountain lion. Other ranchers had blamed wolves.

The beast, measuring six feet in length, was killed one mile from Otis by M. L. Tidwell, farmer.

Tidwell was hailed by Leo Matkins, irrigation ditch rider, at 7:00 a. m., and told that a mountain lion was in the vicinity, but Tidwell was incredulous.

Matkins insisted that he was "not seeing things," so Tidwell armed himself with a 25-35 rifle and accompanied Matkins to the spot where the lion was seen.

The panther was found walking down an irrigation ditch, and Tidwell dropped him with the first shot.

MY EXPERIENCE WITH DIXIE ROSE COTTON

In spring of 1935 I purchased some Dixie Rose cotton seed from Mr. W. S. Galloway of Vernon, Texas. Mr. Galloway guaranteed that cotton seed would produce twice as much cotton per acre as any cotton by which I would plant it and give it the same attention. I planted it on my farm along side acala seed which was from seed the year previous. The Dixie Rose cotton produced from five times as much per acre as the acala. He also told me I would gin out, staple and grade and pick with the acala which I accustomed to raise. I found that he was correct in every particular. I sent samples of the Dixie Rose bales and the acala bales to the Department of Agriculture for grading and stapling so I might be guessing about this phase of it. I did not pick any of my Dixie Rose cotton, my pickers said it picked as easy if not easier than the acala. It matured much quicker than the acala. I produced about three per acre on my best acres last year. I am confident that there will be a number of four bale per acre yields from this cotton in the Pecos Valley. It has yielded that much and more other places. I am not surprised that many erratic stories are circulated about this cotton. I am pleased with it that I am planting all my acreage to it this year. I may desire to plant at least a few acres of it. I have on hand a limited supply of well matured, carefully picked and ginned seed up in 100 lbs. bags, which I am offering for sale.

TERRAPLANE

Yes, different from other low priced cars—and far ahead of the rest—in style and everything else that counts! Can we prove this? Just look at a few facts about Terraplane.

Wheelbase, over-all length, inside leg room, head room, shoulder room—unmatched by any low priced car. Untouched by some costing $125 and $145 more.

"Extras" At No Extra Cost Of all low priced cars only Terraplane gives you—at no extra cost—a rear opening baggage compartment with more room than the average trunk model, with spare tire lying flat inside.

Power—the same story. Terraplane is ahead of other cars in its price class by as much as 18 horsepower. And no vibration at any speed! Terraplanes with 125,000, 150,000 miles and more to their credit show you what that smoothness means in long life.

23.95 Miles per Gallon Interested in economy? Here is Terraplane's latest—23.95 officially certified miles per gallon over 352 miles of mountain roads, with three passengers and baggage, in the recent Los Angeles-Yosemite Economy Run.

More... Terraplane is the only leading low priced car with body all of steel and seamless steel roof. And no other car in its whole price range has Duo-Automatic Hydraulic Brakes (patent applied for)... Radial Safety Control (patent applied for)... Tru-Line Steering... or The Electric Hand, optional at small extra cost.

NEW GRAZING DISTRICT MADE

Establishment of another grazing district in New Mexico, covering two million acres, and one of the largest in the west, has been announced.

Approval of Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes made it New Mexico Grazing District No. 2. It is known as the Northwestern New Mexico Grazing District because it embraces the northwest section of the state. It includes those parts of Bernalillo, Sandoval and Socorro counties which are west of the Rio Grande, and all of Valencia, Catron, McKinley, San Juan and Rio Arriba counties.

"No and I won't," she replied. "I'm afraid to do that. I'd sooner sit inside and look. That's better."

"Did they ever make any long touring trips?"

"We drove over to Gettysburg twice," she smiled, "and once over to Crystal Cave, but no long trips."

How about tire mileage?

Hiram turned around from unbuckling the hood.

"Those front tires have been on for eight years. The rear ones pretty near six."

He said tires last longer since the roads are good and that he wanted the state highway department to continue their fine work of building roads.

To manufacturers of motor cars, Hiram sends this message—"Keep making automobiles that are low in cost so that poor as well as rich may have them," he said emphatically. "That's right—that's American."

Red Bluff Dam Is Progressing

One hundred land owners, county officials and interested business men from four Texas counties and seven water improvement districts affected by the Red Bluff project, Saturday inspected the engineering project that is expected to bring prosperity back to 40,000 fertile acres in broad valley for a distance of 100 miles below the dam, says the Pecos, Texas, Enterprise.

Construction on the dam is now running about seven months ahead of schedule, with completion expected by mid-July, rather than November as originally scheduled. Fill work is going rapidly forward in the last section of the dam, that immediately above the river channel. Mammoth concrete conduits under the dam are now carrying the normal flow of the river, and within the next few days contractors expect to have the center section raised high enough to eliminate all danger of damage from flood.

By April 1 it is expected that the big floodgates may be dropped into place to stop the flow of the river and start impounding water for irrigation of the lands in the seven districts.

Concrete work in the center section of the dam is nearly complete. A surge tower, to rise from the conduit under the dam to a height of 105 feet in order to provide an outlet for emergency pressure in case power generating turbines are unable to carry the rush of waters, is being built upward through the center core of the dam at the same rate that the dam itself is rising.

Control rooms for flood gates will be located either just below this tower, or at the outlet of the conduits on the lower side of the dam.

McFADDEN WRITES

Glendale, 3-6-1936
Martin & Blocker,
Artesia, N. M.
Gentlemen:

Herein my check for $2.50 for the Advocate for 1936. Can hardly realize that I have been away from Artesia so long. The last 4 years have kept one in a turmoil and more or less a financial turmoil.

Getting nearer earth, but have much less of it personally or financially, but the outlook in some ways for some returns to stable real estate values in local real estate and building. In fact the dirt is flying and people hunting for bargains in homes. School buildings, parks and improvements of public utilities are in evidence and Glendale particularly fortunate in that way. So much subdivided property, war pressing the market and no inquiry, that is now in evidence with real sales. I hope Artesia and vicinity is moving forward to prosperity.

Very truly,
B. J. McFADDEN.

Range and Livestock Over State In Best Condition in Three Years

RANGES: Ranges over the state are furnishing about a normal amount of feed for this time of the year. Feed is getting very thin on winter ranges and near watering places. In some localities in eastern and southwestern counties the lack of sufficient range feed has necessitated feeding some hay and cottonseed cake. All ranges in use now are open and the snow covering is confined to high altitudes, and it is possible that there will be sufficient water for irrigation. Prospects for spring range feed are not as good as they were a month ago, but still the best at this time in at least three years. High winds that have prevailed during the past two weeks have depleted much of the soil moisture. Rain or snow is needed to abate the recurrence of last year's dust storms. Spring weather has apparently begun in southern counties a little in advance of normal time. Range water is generally ample over the state. There will be sufficient feed to carry livestock through to grass time with small carryover in some counties. The condition of ranges is reported at 86 percent of normal compared with 86 percent last month and 82.0 for the 10-year average.

CATTLE & CALVES: Continued mild winter during February was a feed saver for the cattle owners. Cattle generally have held up well with very little feeding. The condition of cows in most localities is good, and prospects for a calf crop this season are the best in years. Prices on all classes of cattle remain favorable, but very little trading is being done. Practically all cattle intended for market have already been shipped. Losses during the past month from all causes are reported very small and possibly below normal. The condition of cattle and calves is reported at 89 percent of normal compared with 89 percent last month and 84.9 for the 10-year average.

SHEEP & LAMBS: Losses of all classes of sheep have been small. Prospects are unusually good for a large lamb crop to be dropped. If soil moisture remains favorable for the next sixty days there should be plenty of range feed to raise lambs dropped, with few losses. No contracting of wool is reported, but prices remain favorable. The carryover of wool was exceptionally light and there are practically no sales to test the market for New Mexico wool. The condition of sheep and lambs is reported at 90 percent of normal compared with 90 percent last month and 85.4 for the 10-year average.
