1987 Stays Filled With Many And Varied Events

(Editor's Note: 1987 was a year of contrast -- from weather extremes to awards -- from continuing trouble concerning West Plains Medical Center -- to bumper crops. Below is the first six months of 1987 in Bailey County -- highlighted for your perusal.)

JANUARY

Missing only two games, Kathleen Hayes started the year off right by winning the annual Journal Bowl Game Contest. Despite intense cold, renovation continued on the Santa Fe Depot and the Janes Ranch House at the Muleshoe Heritage Center. Muleshoe City Police Sgt. Richard Bonham spotted a vehicle wanted for questioning in a 'quick-change' scam; chased down the driver and apprehended a 35-year old Garland man for actions at the local Pizza Hut.

Dorothy Green received a plaque as an Outstanding Citizen Through The Years; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bass also received Special Recognition with a plaque; Wayne Wauson was named Man of the Year; Clea Williams was named Woman of the Year; and Sam Harlan was named Conservationist of the Year -- all during the annual Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Community Banquet.

During the first day of judging at the annual Bailey County Junior Livestock Show, Jodie Wheeler showed the Grand Champion Sheep and Greg Young exhibited the Grand Champion Steer at the Bailey County Coliseum.

Ice and snow slammed into the area, slowing traffic to a crawl, and a blizzard closed Highway 214 south of Muleshoe for several hours.

Winding up judging for the annual Bailey County Junior Livestock Show, Courtney Tanksley exhibited the Grand Champion Swine.

A trucker who said he had fallen asleep at the wheel slammed into the back of a Highway Department pickup east on highway 84 during a snow storm. Herb Whalin received minor injuries in the accident.

At Lazbuddie, Jody Copp won the lamb division, showing the grand champion lamb; and Dustin Weir showed the grand champion swine, during their annual Livestock Show.

Irvin St. Clair purchased the first memorial page to be inserted in the upcoming Bailey County History Book.

The Spirit of St. Mary -- the Flight For Life Air Ambulance from St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock made its first appearance in Muleshoe--landing at the Bailey County Civic Center for a Tuesday meeting of the Muleshoe Rotary Club, where a large crowd was on hand to view the new air ambulance.

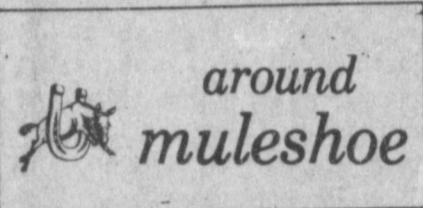

Littlefield voters soundly rejected a proposal to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages in that city by a vote of 872-694.

FEBRUARY

An intense effort by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture in a membership drive netted 89 new members. The contest losers from the CofC served the winners at a victory dinner at the Hungry Mule Restaurant.

The City of Muleshoe was notified they had received approval for an FAA grant in the amount of $1,247,000 to help build a new airport in Muleshoe.

Myrtle Creamer reported that Forrest Creamer, of Las Vegas, NV, is continuing to show slow improvement at Desert Spring Hospital.

He was critically injured in an accident on December 11. At this time, he has been allowed to sip liquids through a straw, although he is still being fed intravenously. He is also still breathing through a tracheotomy tube.

Four persons were treated for injuries received in a one vehicle rollover north of Sudan on Highway 303 on Sunday afternoon.

No one was seriously injured in the accident, which was one of several in the area attributed to icy highways over the Christmas holidays.

On Christmas morning, Sgt. Richard Bonham, of the Muleshoe City Police Department discovered the front door of Perry's had been broken out.

Store Manager Linda Foshee, summoned from her home in Littlefield, found nothing missing in the vandalism.

Several instances of stolen Christmas decorations were reported to police.

Value of the missing decorations were nearly $700.

"The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is now accepting applicants to the 'Leading Muleshoe' program which begins in January, 1988," according to the Muleshoe CofC.

Manager of the CofC, Toni Eagle, said the program is designed to educate the potential leaders of Muleshoe. These future leaders will be the next City Council members, County Commissioners, School Board members, Chamber Board members and Club leaders, she said.

Applicants will be schooled in city, county, school and chamber affairs, as well as historical information and future plans. Also in the curriculum will be law enforcement, taxes, voting, emergency systems, and other information.

Mrs. Eagle said the course will entail one day each month. Completion of the course and graduation depends on attendance and participation of students.

Cost for the 'Leading Muleshoe' program will be $135 per participant and will cover material, meals, breaks, any needed transportation and graduation. Participants can apply on their own, or businesses can sponsor applicants in the 'Leading Muleshoe' program.

MULESHOE'S CHRISTMAS BABY--There was a Christmas Baby born at West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe. Rogelio and Susann Herrera of Bovina became the parents of Maria Yesenia Herrera. Dr. Bruce Purdy delivered the six pound, 12 ounce girl at 6:59 p.m. on December 25. The Herrera's first child was 20 and one half inches long, and some 15 and a half hours after her birth, was kicking, waving her arms and very, very active.

Rotary News Network Film Shown At Meet

It was the "Rotary News Network" for the Muleshoe Rotary Tuesday at noon with Rotarian Max King in charge of the program.

The Rotary film covered a variety of fall and winter activities, including the Rotary Asian Regional Conference attended by 10,000 Rotarians from around the world.

Dr. Carlos Canseco spoke on the Rotary Foundation, citing the use in construction, medicine and exchange programs, while encouraging the continuation of the Foundation.

It was noted on RNN that January is Rotary Awareness Month, and urged Rotarians to inform the public more about Rotary.

Margretta Swigert a former Rotary Scholar from Illinois, briefly presented a program on the Improvement of International Understanding. She is a journalist in Kenya, Africa.

Bob Hope spoke for the Rotary Polio Plus Program.

Charles Keller, president of Rotary International, spoke at the World Peace Through Law Conference in Seoul, Korea.

In another Segment, the future of Rotary, and the process for obtaining new members was discussed.

Following an election in the Muleshoe Rotary on Tuesday, the following officers for 1987-88 were elected: George Nie-

Annual Banquet To Honor Citizens Set By CofC

Toni Eagle, manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, said the annual Community Banquet has been set for Saturday, January 16, 7:30 p.m. in the Bailey County Coliseum.

Tickets are priced at $10 for adults and $7 for students, in advance. The day of the banquet, each ticket will be $2 higher.

Mrs. Eagle said the speaker for the 38th Annual Community Banquet is being kept a secret until the night of the banquet. She promised all who attend a real "fun time."

"To pick up your tickets, come by the Chamber office at 215 South First Street," said the CofC manager, "and don't miss a fun-filled night."

Commissioner Kindle Seeking Re-Election

Joey Kindle, who is in his first term serving as Bailey County Commissioner, Precinct Three, has authorized The Journal to announce his candidacy for re-election to that position.

"I have enjoyed the last four years," said Kindle, "and have had an enjoyable learning experience serving the people."

He said he is in his fourth year as a board member of the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) in Lubbock, and further commented, "I appreciate all the confidence shown in me and would like to ask for your vote again, subject to the Democratic primaries in March."

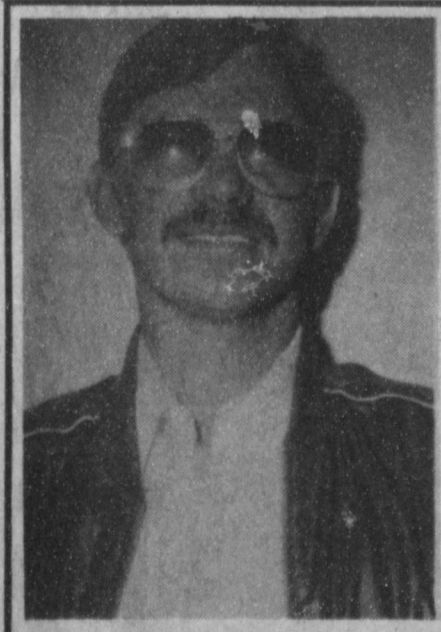

He is a native of southwest Bailey County, a graduate of Three Way High School, and he and his wife, Carolyn, are the parents of Keith, age nine; Johnathan, age seven; and Christopher, 16 months old.

As a resident of Bailey County for 33 years, he believes he knows how to best serve the people of the county, and says he is interested in the entire county, as well as his constituents in Precinct Three.

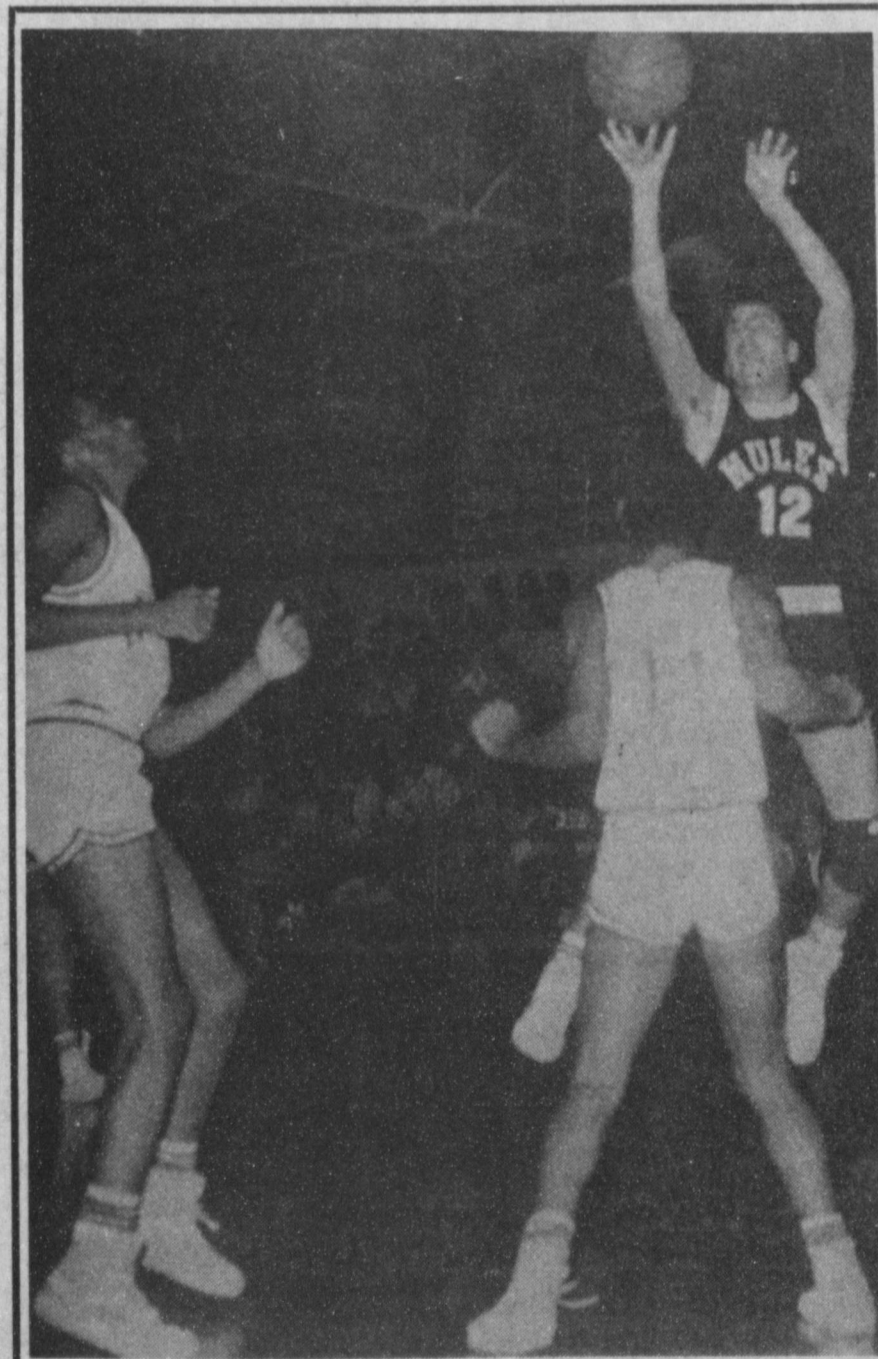

Most of his life has been spent as a farmer, although he has been well-versed in budgeting, roads, taxes, and other aspects of county government.

He said he would sincerely appreciate your influence and vote in the March Primaries.

TEXAS UTILITIES CO. PLAYS SANTA CLAUS TO MULESHOE PATRONS

The Texas Utilities Co. played Santa Claus to its Muleshoe patrons Christmas. Every customer in the city was given a 100 watt electric light bulb, which was neatly wrapped in holly paper. As always, the utilities company did the job right and these presents represented quite a large expense. We wish to join other citizens of Muleshoe in extending our thanks.

One of the coldest spells of the winter hit Muleshoe Friday night and Saturday evening the temperature stood almost at zero. This was a climax to a number of Spring like days earlier in the week. Many car owners met with grief in the way of ruined radiators, which made business brisk for the garage man.

Helpful Financial Record Keeping Strategies Given

If you're paying year-end bills and wondering where your money went in 1987, now may be the time to improve your financial record keeping for 1988.

"The best record keeping system is one that works for you," says Nancy Granovsky, a family economics specialist. "Typically, this will be a simple system that allows you to easily retrieve the information you want and need."

She maintains that an effective record-keeping system will provide a means of organizing and filing receipts, cancelled checks, income statements and other financial papers and a method for summarizing information about income and expenses.

According to the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist, any one of several basic record keeping strategies will be helpful:

- Receipt method. Keep file and sort receipts according to categories of expense, such as food, utilities, or entertainment.
- Envelope method. Place the money you have allocated weekly or monthly for each category into an envelope. As you spend it the money, write what you spent it for on the envelope.
- Checkbook method. Code each entry in your checkbook according to the category of income or expense.
- Ledger system. Keep detailed daily entries in a ledger. You can buy a record-book in almost any size at a store, obtain one at your county Extension office or make your own forms in a spiral notebook.
- Computer system. Computer software is available that

Texas A&M professor claims layoffs lead to discrimination suits

COLLEGE STATION — Asking older employees to leave the workforce has almost become an automatic invitation to a lawsuit for age discrimination, says a Texas A&M University management professor and current adviser to the chairman of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

"Even when the reasons have nothing to do with age discrimination, companies that ask employees 40 years old or older to leave can almost count on an age discrimination suit, says Professor Leonard Bierman, who is on leave to serve with the EEOC for the next year.

A record number of age discrimination charges totaling 18,443 in 1986 were brought to the EEOC, he said, amounting to more than a 10 percent increase over the 16,754 charges filed in 1985. Bierman pointed out that the law protecting employees against age discrimination covers anyone older than 40.

"It used to be that people between 40 and 65 were protected, and then the upper limit was raised to 70," he says. He adds, "With some exceptions, the law now protects people over 70 who wish to continue on their jobs. . . It stems from the fact that people are living to be older and while a good many of them want to retire, some prefer to continue working. So employees who are 75 cannot be laid off because of their age."

Respite Care

Assists Families

Families with a disabled or chronically ill member now have a resource for learning about available respite care, according to family life specialist Dr. Sarah L. Anderson.

Respite care is any type of relief care, ranging from a few hours break to intermittent custodial care for varying lengths of time, explains the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist.

"The continuous care required by a severely disabled child or an aged, infirm parent is physically and emotionally draining. Without some relief, the stress will take its toll on the family." According to Anderson, The Texas Respite Resource Network (TRN) has published a Directory of Texas respite and support service programs. It lists respite services available in Texas by location and includes information about types of services, clients and ages served, and fee schedules.

Families may write for a copy from the Texas Respite Resource Network, Children's Ambulatory Care Center, P.O. Box 7330, Station A, San Antonio, Texas 78285.

The wide variety of respite services available include care provided on an emergency basis or on a periodic or regular basis either in the family's home or in out-of-home settings, Anderson remarks.

In-home respite caretakers may provide babysitting services, sitter / companion services, homemaking services, attendant care or nursing services depending on the needs of the family and the age and level of disability.

The specialist says out-of-home care often includes day care centers for elders or the disabled.

"Respite care gives families time to relax away from continuous caretaking and to renew their energies," she says. "Temporary relief can also allow a family to maintain its stability in crisis situations and help them cope."

She points out that the disabled also need time-off from their families, and respite care may provide opportunities for new experiences and friends.

"Unfortunately, respite services are not available in all areas, although many communities are becoming aware of the need," notes Anderson. "Organizations and families interested in forming a coalition to establish respite services in their area can also obtain information and technical assistance from TRRN."

Creative Living

by Sheryl Borden

Beginning this week, "Creative Living" will feature a new format. The show that airs on Tuesday noon will still repeat on Saturday afternoons at 2 p.m. The show that airs Tuesday evenings at 9:30 p.m. will repeat Thursdays at noon. We hope this change will enable everyone to enjoy "Creative Living" at a time that is most convenient.

Recipes for barbeque a la carte and information on decorating for the aging will be featured on Tuesday, January 5 at 12 noon and repeated on Saturday, January 9 at 2:00 p.m. on KENW-TV. (All times are Mountain.) Vickie Jones is the Marketing Home Economist with Southwestern Public Service Co. in Roswell and she will demonstrate recipes for barbeque a la carte. The emphasis will be on using the microwave oven and the food processor, and she will prepare several recipes that are perfect for accompaniments to a barbeque meal or for any other meal.

June Schlossberg is an interior decorator, and her business is called Designers' Collaborative in Carmel, IN. She is going to discuss decorating ideas for older persons. She'll cover areas such as carpet selection, furniture choices, the use of contrasting colors and the importance of different types of appliance controls as they pertain to the older population.

Two interesting topics will be featured on Tuesday evening, January 5 at 9:30 p.m. and also on Thursday, January 7 at 12 noon. Cathy Voit is the home economist with the Reynolds Metals Co. in Dallas, TX, and she will share some recipes and ideas to prepare meals in minutes--3 minutes to be exact!

Also, Sandy Allison, former Texas Agricultural Extension Agent, will show how to use "junk" in the house to make items that will delight children of all ages. The secret ingredient is "imagination"! Sandy lives in Littlefield, TX.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show airs on more than 100 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, CO. Viewers can request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KENW-TV's toll-free telephone lines between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Rubied Spinach Salad, Change From Ordinary Humdrum Salad Rubied Spinach Salad provides the pleasure of lighter summer eating throughout the winter months. The combination of lighter summer eating of sweet, juicy Texas Ruby Red grapefruit and strawberries, with the crispness of fresh spinach, is an exciting change from an ordinarily humdrum salad. Even the dressing for the salad adds the tangy, sweet flavor of the grapefruit; a touch of grated peel and freshly-squeezed grapefruit juice can really perk up an average poppy seed dressing.

The lightness of this salad, plus the sweet flavors of fruit, make it a perfect choice for meal planning. Not too hungry? Enjoy a Rubied Spinach Salad by itself, with crackers or bread sticks. Need something scrumptiously different to accompany the main meal? In that case, the addition of Ruby Red sections to your salad is your best choice. You can even vary the salad's flavors by substituting slices of avocados for the strawberries. The complimentary taste of grapefruit and avocado will both amaze and delight you.

Undoubtedly delicious, the Rubied Spinach Salad is also nutritious. With the addition of hand-picked, freshly-harvested Texas Ruby Red grapefruit, the Rubied Salad is brimming with Vitamin C. The low calorie fruit, at about 55 calories in an average-sized half, also contributes other vitamins and minerals, making it an invaluable addition to anyone's diet.

Texas Ruby Reds are truly delicious by themselves! When sectioning the grapefruit for this recipe, go ahead and section a few more to have plenty on hand. Put the sections in a covered container and enjoy them as snacks--sweet, juicy, and delicious alone!

Sectioning can be simplified by following this procedure. Using a sharp knife, cut off both ends of the grapefruit, cutting all the way through to the flesh of the fruit. With the fruit standing on end, cut the peel away, from the top to the bottom along the curvature of the fruit. Be sure to cut deep enough in order to remove all of the white pulp. To release each section, cut down beside the membrane to the core, gently turning the knife sideways, several times to loosen the section at the center. Other sections can be removed in the same manner.

RUBIED SPINACH SALAD

immediately with Ruby Poppy Seed Dressing.

Yield 6 servings.
RUBY POPPY SEED DRESSING

1/4 cup red wine vinegar; 1 cup salad or vegetable oil; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard; 1 1/2 teaspoon finely grated grapefruit peel; 1/4 cup grapefruit juice; 2 tablespoons poppy seeds.

Yield 1 1/2 cups.

SPS Plans

To Credit

Customers

Southwestern Public Service Company's (SPS) Texas retail customers will begin receiving in their January bills a one-time $11.2 million fuel-cost credit. The refund was approved Thursday by the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT).

The "average" residential customer, based on monthly consumption of 600 kilowatt-hours, will receive about a $10 credit, said Sam Hunter, SPS vice president of rates and economic research. The refund will include interest at an annual rate of 11.7 percent.

Hunter said lower costs for coal and natural gas, which are major expenses in generating electricity, and mild summer temperatures, which allowed the company to operate only its most efficient power plants, made the refund possible.

Leadership...

"There must be someone within your business that you perceive as a leader for the future of Muleshoe," said the CofC manager. "Submit their name today. Classes will be limited to 12 students for 1988, so call now."

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN--State Capitol halls were quiet during the Christmas holidays, but Texas campaign trails were dusty and crowded as presidential aspirants continued to pay lots of attention to the Lone Star State voters.

With a little over two months remaining before the March 8 election, Texas politicians are almost giddy from the early and ardent wooing.

When Texas leaders gave the nod to joining the new Super Tuesday primary over a year ago, their strategy was to lure candidates to Texas early, to pay attention to us early.

To give us clout early.

In 1984 and earlier, New Hampshire was the darling of the candidates, never mind that it isn't much bigger than some West Texas counties. It still got all the early hugs and kisses because whoever came out of its early primary the winner was dubbed the frontrunner and got millions of dollars in free press.

Super Tuesday Working

It set the pace for candidates and some seemingly good candidates never really made it past the first curve. Remember Ohio Sen. John Glenn, the former astronaut whose man, president; Terry Hutto, vice president; Robert Leopard, secretary and Clifton Finley, treasurer. New board members include Brad Poyner, Curtis Shelburne, Ray Day and Don McElroy.

Guests included Charles Christian, Mark Williams, F.F. Donald, Doug Field, Ron Johnson, Chris Gikas, A.J. Liles, Julie Cage, Jay Cage, Barak Harlan, Howard Watson and Cleta Williams.

Texas NASA ties were an edge?

Texans never got a chance to vote for or against him, because his campaign chest couldn't hold on for our late primary.

But the strategy behind the Super Tuesday seems to be working even better than expected. Now Texas voters, along with most of the South and a few Yankee states, are the ones which will help dub the frontrunner.

If it's not important, then why has Sen. Albert Gore virtually withdrawn his campaign effort in Iowa to concentrate on Texas and the rest of the South? He and the others are here every week, because a new circuit demands a new plan.

Republicans Helped

Super Tuesday also helps Republicans, the theory being Vice President George Bush, a Texan, can build early momentum to ward off challengers.

One possible by-product of the early attention is that state voters may turn out in high numbers on March 8, and Texas voters always have a few surprises for the experts and public opinion manipulators. It should be fun for everyone.

New SMU Evidence

Attorney Gen. Jim Mattox said evidence found by his probe of the SMU football scandal may uncover possible criminal activity.

Mattox gave the evidence to the Dallas County district attorney last week and said he would continue investigating the possible theft of $10,000 from the SMU athletic department.

Mattox, an SMU law school alumnus, also indirectly ripped Gov. Bill Clements who chaired the SMU board at the time of the actions which led to NCAA sanctions and disbanding of the team.

Age Limit Upheld

A 74-year-old state district judge in Houston must leave his bench this summer after a federal court upheld a state mandatory retirement law.

Judge William H. Hatten is barred from seeking another term this election and must retire next summer before his current term expires. He plans to appeal.

Hatten sued to challenge the constitutionality of the law which forces him off the bench on his 75th birthday in August.

Yarborough Surgery

Former U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, the guru of liberal Texas Democrats, underwent a quadruple bypass operation in Austin last week and was in stable condition.

Yarborough, 84, practices law in Austin where he oversees liberal issues and candidates.

KNOW THE WEATHER

Why isn't the earth bombarded with space fragments, with meteors, etc.? Today it is known that such objects fly constantly through space.

Fortunately, the earth's weather problems don't include the problem of a fragment storm, or a heavy fall of such matter. Yet it's true that such metallic fragments crash into the moon by the thousands.

The earth's layer of gases (which is also our weather) saves us from the bombardment. The bombardment actually exists, and meteors and space fragments are hurtling toward us, into the atmosphere, constantly.

But as they reach our atmosphere, the friction caused by their exceedingly fast passage through the layer of gases surrounding the earth creates intense heat. The heat reaches such a degree that the fragments and meteors burn up and disintegrate. Only rarely does one survive long enough to strike the earth.

Living Fast?

Perhaps the least praiseworthy part of American life is its fast pace.

In the U.S., heart attacks, nervous breakdowns and strokes are on the increase. The experts say the reason for this trend is the terrific pace of life we set.

A slower pace will add years to one's life and increase the years in which one earns money.

Moreover, by relaxing and learning to live over again, one often becomes better equipped for his or her profession.
