

Registration Deadline Falls In Six Days On October 6; Mayor Proclaims Drive

with deadline for voting registration only six days. Mayor J. L. Briscoe Monday issued a proclamation urging Artesians to register and placing an intensive voting campaign in effect.

election. The registration deadline is set by state law. Chamber of Commerce committee members heading the Artesia registration drive Monday pointed out that those who need to register are mainly:

- 1—Young people who have become 21 since the last election and who fill other requirements.
- 2—Citizens who have not voted in the last two general elections and whose names therefore have probably been purged from registration lists.

- 3—Residents of other states who have moved to New Mexico since the last election and who fill residential requirements.

Artesia C of C state and national affair committee, headed by Howard Whitson with Dr. C. P. Bunch and Neil Watson, attorney, as members are conducting an intensive drive this week to register voters.

Business houses have been asked to poll their employees, finding those who are not registered. Chamber of Commerce will send a registrar to the business house to register citizens who want to vote in the Nov. 4 general election.

In addition, final plans have been prepared for a block-to-block registration survey. Women volunteers are surveying one block apiece in the city to find residents who are unregistered. When a block is surveyed and report made to chamber offices, a registrar is to be sent to homes requesting the service.

In addition, citizens who want to be absolutely sure they're registered are going to office of Mrs. Erma G. Williams on second floor of the Booker building. Mrs. Williams is official full-time registrar for the Artesia precinct.

Mayor J. L. Briscoe issued this proclamation Monday:

"Whereas, voting is a solemn duty of citizenship too long neglected by Americans (including even the best of them here in Artesia) and governmental affairs directly affect our daily lives, our pocketbooks, and our future; and

"Whereas our neighbors in Roswell, Carlsbad, Lovington, and Hobbs are attempting to beat us in a get-out-the-vote contest;

"Now, therefore, I, J. L. Briscoe, mayor of the City of Artesia, do hereby proclaim the following program in effect in Artesia, to-wit:

- "1—The Chamber of Commerce shall be the official agency in this voting campaign.
- "2—Businesses are requested to give employees an opportunity to register on October 1, and all residents are encouraged to call for registration service on October 2 and 3.
- "3—For reasons of good citizenship and political dividends to the community, as well as civic pride, each and every eligible resident is urged to vote as early as possible on election day in order that the last-minute rush at the polls will not deprive fellow citizens of the opportunity."

Meanwhile, Howard Whitson, chairman of the committee promoting registration and get-out-the-vote drives, said still more women are needed for the block-

Oil Fire Flares Before Dousing Sunday

BLAZING wildcat oil well 35 miles east of Artesia was finally subdued early Sunday morning after an earlier, unsuccessful attempt at mid-afternoon Saturday. Searing flames plainly visible in aerial photo above were quenched by drilling mud and water pumped under high pressure; no nitroglycerine was used. (Artesia Advocate photo)

Second Effort Drown Oil Blaze Successful

stubborn, million-dollar oil blaze was brought under control Sunday morning on Contention Oil Co. No. 1 Anderson, 35 miles east of Artesia.

The costly fire was put out by expert Myron M. Kinley's crew on Sunday, after a first attempt at mid-afternoon Saturday had failed.

Work began at the well at 10 p. m. Tuesday, despite the fact that the crew's three-day effort to drown the blaze. Company officials said that water pumped into the well through a special gimmick devised by Kinley cut down the fire Saturday afternoon, finally quenching it at 3 p. m.

The tremendous gas pressure that kept the first plug and water treatment was tried this time for a longer period and was successful.

Kinley avoided use of nitroglycerine, thereby salvaging the well for further use by Contention. The probable a new drilling rig will be set over the hole to complete work, company officials believe.

Public Is Invited To See Movie On Artesian Water

The general public is invited to a special Kiwanis program featuring a color film on artesian underground water, scheduled to be screened following a 7 p. m. dinner this Thursday night at Presbyterian Parish hall.

The film, "Maya," was produced in color by the American Arabian Oil Co. to explain how an underground water supply exists and is used.

Tickets for the 7 p. m. dinner are priced at $1.50 and may be obtained from Kiwanis ticket committee members Vernon Bryan, Milford Estil, or T. E. Johnson.

Artesians Carry County Entries Into State Fair

Artesia area representatives are carrying Eddy county 4-H flags into State Fair contests this week, according to Asst. County Agent Allen Beck and Asst. Home Agent Frances McGee.

Exhibiting livestock in the State Fair Junior livestock show are Billy Madron, Hope, registered Holstein; Donald Jones, Artesia, fat lamb and registered Holstein; Jack Porter, Lakewood, fat barrow.

Eddy county will be represented in other contests by Norma Jo Thigpen, Cottonwood, junior dress revue; Theresa Hines, Pleasant Hill, cherry pie contest; Perry Zumwalt, Kenneth Taylor, and Albert Back, Artesia, livestock judging; and Donal Jones, Artesia, 4-H tractor operator's contest.

State winners are to be chosen at the fair, which opened in Albuquerque, Sept. 27, and will continue through this Friday, Oct. 5, in the dress revue, cherry pie, livestock judging, and tractor driving contests.

Community Chest Organizes Drive

Problems in organizing Artesia's Community Chest drive, slated for the last two weeks in November, were overcome in an organizational meeting held by key personnel of the Council of Social Agencies Friday.

New methods for operating the drive were decided on by the group and will be placed in effect when the campaign opens Nov. 17, according to Floyd Springer, president of the council, and Mrs. H. R. Paton, drive chairman.

One new feature will be listing of participating agencies on the back of pledge cards. Community Chest donors may specify which agency they wish their checks to be given to, or may leave them blank, allowing an even division among active agencies.

Pledges on an annual basis to be paid in installments will also be sought in the Red Feather drive, rather than a lump donation.

Relationship—Chest officers again discussed methods to clarify relationship between the Council of Social Agencies (Continued on Page Eight)

New Associate Joins Kiddy Firm

Appointment of Fred Stowe as an associate with the Kiddy Agency was announced Monday by the firm. Stowe will specialize in financial investment programs, having recently attended special courses in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowe and their two daughters are residing on the Hope highway.

Little Theater To Organize Wednesday Eve

In response to growing interest in Artesia, an organization to foster amateur theatrics in the community will be formed at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday night at a meeting in Senior high school auditorium.

Altus Stevens, high school English teacher and dramatics coach who has been coordinating interests in a little theater group, announced Monday representatives of Carlsbad little theater will attend Wednesday's meeting.

"Little theater people from Carlsbad, who are casting now to produce 'By the Spirit' have a growing organization and have attracted a great deal of interest," Stevens stated. Carlsbad representatives will briefly address the group on organization and operation of their little theater."

Other Business—Other business to be taken up Wednesday by those interested in little theater here will include: election of either a nomination committee, acting chairman, or permanent slate of officers, Stevens added.

In addition, committees for casting, selection of a name, script choices, and other details will be considered and probably set-up, Stevens pointed out.

Senior high school officials have promised full cooperation with amateur theatrical enthusiasts, especially in improvement of stage acoustics and other features.

Promise to Attend—Stevens said a number of Artesians have promised to attend Wednesday night's session, and an active group is expected to turn out for the meeting.

Several residents were formerly members of the city's first little theater group, which was organized here sometime ago and was unsuccessful. However, members of that group have expressed renewed interest in amateur theatrics.

Club Must Be Re-Built Now, Manager Warns

Competition for the Longhorn league's first division will be "the toughest ever" in 1953 and Artesia must rebuild the Artesia Drillers now, Earl Perry, Driller manager, said Monday.

"The league is tightening up," Perry stated, "because clubs like Eliz Spring, Roswell, and San Angelo can't afford to be shoved out of the first division by upstarts like Artesia and Midland—it costs those clubs too much money."

Perry made his statements in a serious but enthusiastic manner during an interview Monday after returning from annual meeting of the Longhorn league, held Sunday in Odessa.

Artesia Baseball Club, Inc., owner of the Drillers, was represented by Clyde Guy, vice-president of the organization. Only Guy and Perry attended the meeting from Artesia.

Perry pointed out that in addition to clubs from cities larger than Artesia pushing to re-organize first division teams, Carlsbad will be pulling every stop to make a good showing in its freshman year in the loop next season.

"Therefore, we are starting an intensive drive to sell box seats and season tickets," Perry declared. "This year we cannot sell stock. We must raise our winter operating budget now from advance sale of season tickets and box seats."

Perry reminded Artesia baseball fans that "ball clubs are built in the winter—you can't wait until the season starts."

Kiwanis Announces Highly Successful Kids' Day Here

Artesia's youngsters turned out en masse Saturday to enjoy one of the most successful National Kids' Day programs under Kiwanis club sponsorship ever held here.

Adults had almost as much fun as the kids, and Kiwanis antics made fund-raising aspects of National Kids' Day nearly painless.

In a day of contests Saturday, there was also an undertone of serious concern for underprivileged children, who will benefit directly from money raised by the National Kids' Day program. Kiwanis Pres. Rufus Stinnett pointed out all Kiwanis-raised money will remain in Artesia to help underprivileged "kids."

Among the winners Saturday were Verna Jean Lewis and Hershell Scott, Jr., who had the best-decorated bicycles in Saturday morning's parade, and Andy Anderson and Kathryn Coffin, dressed in "the most original" costumes seen in the parade.

Field Events—Field event winners in contests Saturday afternoon were: Toe sack race—Pre-primary, 5 through 7 years old: Robbie Bullock first, Merlyn Kemp second; Kynda Wallace first, Billie D. White second. Primary, 8 through 10: Roy Northam first, Ronald Weindorf second; Sandra Hunts first, Mary Solga second. Junior and seniors, 11 and over: Jimmy Wilbanks first, Gordon Smith second; LaRae Carter first, Marlene Briscoe second.

Fifty-yard dash—Pre-primary: Robbie Bullock first, Manuel Flores second; Linda Coeiman first, Billie D. White second; primary: Charles Mullen first, Roy D. Northam second; Earville Briscoe first, Ellen Denton second.

Hundred-yard dash—Primary and older only: Gordon Smith who resigned.

Top Democratic Candidates Slate Artesia Visit

Top Democratic party candidates for state and national office will visit Artesia for a day-long session with political leaders and local residents, according to J. B. Mulcock, state vice-chairman and Artesia precinct chairman.

Slated to visit Artesia are Everett Grantham, candidate for governor; Tibo Chavez, seeking reelection as lieutenant-governor; Beatrice Roach, seeking reelection as secretary of state; and Richard Robinson, candidate for attorney general; and A. M. Fernandez, seeking re-election as congressman.

Schedule for the day-long visit by leading Democratic candidates is now being formed, Mulcock said, and will be announced later this week.

All five candidates will be available throughout the day for visit with any Artesia citizens wishing to talk, Mulcock emphasized.

Rain Delays Fall Color Of Aspens; New Date Is Set

Rain in the Sacramento mountains has delayed fall turning of quaking aspens, disappointed Artesians who visited the mountains reported Monday morning.

Aspens about the first of October change to a golden hue and provide one of the most striking color panoramas in all nature—but visits to the Lincoln National Forest are now premature, several Artesians reported.

One person making the trip to the mountains this week-end speculated that quaking aspens may don their fall colors this coming week-end, but to avoid disappointment, Artesians would do best to visit the mountains the week-end of Oct. 13-14, a week from this coming week-end.

Southern Union Promotes Two Key Managers

A. J. Green of Carlsbad has been promoted by Southern Union Gas Co. to manager of the southeastern New Mexico district, and E. C. Reddy, who formerly held the position, is being transferred to Albuquerque as manager of the Albuquerque district, according to an announcement by J. R. Cole, III, Santa Fe, vice-president in charge of the company's New Mexico operations.

As district manager, Green will be in charge of Southern Union's operations in southeastern New Mexico.

"His promotion is well deserved," Cole said, "and is in keeping with the gas company's policy of training its personnel for advancement and making promotions within the company."

Green, who has served as district transmission superintendent since 1943, has been with the 23-year-old natural gas utility more than 21 years. His varied experience with the company gives Southeastern New Mexico a highly qualified and trained man to handle the gas company's operations in this area, Cole pointed out.

Albuquerque, which has been a part of Southern Union's North-western New Mexico district, is now being made a district complete in itself, Cole explained. Reddy will be in charge of all operations in Albuquerque, which will include providing natural gas

Dewayne Miller Sent to Alabama For Army Basic

Private Dewayne A. Miller of Artesia has arrived at Camp Rucker in southern Alabama to undergo his initial army infantry training.

Inducted Aug. 12, and processed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, he will receive basic training from the 47th "Viking" Infantry Division here. The new soldier will undertake a rigorous schedule incorporating a wide-range of military subjects from military courtesy and field sanitation to machine gun and bazooka familiarization.

After finishing eight to 16 weeks of primary training, the recent inductee will be eligible for reassignment for further infantry or specialized training.

The 47th Division, the first permanent Army assignment for the new soldier, is a Minnesota-North Dakota National Guard unit. Activated for service on Jan. 16, 1951, the division now is completing its second year at Rucker. Since activation, the 47th has trained men from all 48 states and three territories.

service to more than 40,000 customers.

Reddy has been with the gas company in Carlsbad since 1929 and served as Southern Union town plant manager there a number of years before he became district manager in April 1950.

The personnel changes are effective Oct. 1, 1952.

Oldest Stove Is Sought in Gas Firm's Contest

An "oldest stove" contest, from Oct. 6 through Nov. 15, has been announced by Southern Union Gas Co.

During the contest, any local owner of a kitchen range may register with one of the local gas appliance dealers or the gas company, giving the date of purchase or age of her range and the brand name. The winner of the contest will receive absolutely free a new gas range, her choice of any brand, from her favorite dealer.

The stove entered must have been in use during the past 12 months.

The contest is a part of the activities carried on jointly by Southern Union and appliance dealers during Old Stove Round-Up season.

Club Must—

money or solicit donations next year, as has been done in the past," the Driller manager pointed out. "We are offering people something for their money. We want them to have those box seats and season tickets in return for their cash."

No Stock Sale—
"No stock will be sold this year," Perry emphasized.

He flatly stated in Monday's interview the club would not solicit donations or contributions in any form.

Goal for the campaign is 140 box seats and 300 season tickets, Perry stated.

a bass solo; and Dr. Lawson will bring the inspirational address. The program will be carried over KSVP for the Pecos valley.

This compares with 100 boxes and 150 season tickets sold this year, he observed.

"We will lose $10,000 to $12,000 by not selling stock, and we must make it up somewhere," Perry declared.

Recalling shop talk by Sunday's league meeting, Perry said, "Artesia has gained a lot of respect and prestige through its 1952 campaign; we had a fairly good second year in the league."

While the club's operation resulted in a deficit of "well under" $5,000, Perry said, there is no money in the organization now to buy ball players. This is a critical situation now, when other clubs are "red hot and rebuilding," the manager declared.

"The only way to compete with teams from those larger towns which were pushed into the second division and lost a lot of money as a direct result is to prepare now for the 1953 campaign that starts April 21," Perry pointed out.

"Small as our deficit is," he added, "we still can't buy ball players. We especially can't replace key men we lost or those men we may lose through the National Association of Baseball Clubs draft, scheduled for Phoenix in December."

Among the 1952 Artesia Drillers, Joe Bauman, Jim Ackers, Rudy Briner, Mike Rodriguez, Paul Halter, and Pete Pichan are all eligible for the player draft. National association procedure states that clubs who desire veterans from lower clubs have only to pay $1,000 and draft the player.

"We can't let Roswell or Carlsbad and those other teams get the start on us," Perry declared. "We've got to start now if we're to re-build the ball club that will perpetuate baseball in Artesia. We've got to start strong and stay out in front.

"We are not going to call for donations or charity—we are calling for response to our box seats and season tickets campaign which is starting now. From the response we'll know what lies ahead for us this coming year.

Perry said Artesians filling and mailing the coupon on one of today's Artesia Advocate will receive a personal call from club representative.

down Friday night 11 minutes after the game started. Bulldogs rolled up two first downs before being stopped on the Alamogordo 22 brief minutes after the game opened.

Alamogordo took over on downs but Doug Whitefield intercepted a Tiger pass four plays later and returned it to the Artesia 47. Whitefield shoved to the 40, and after an incomplete pass and fumble recovered by Jay Mitchell, Yumpy Barker departed around right on one of his famous cross-country runs that netted 21 yards.

Bobby Loyd went through left tackle to the 18, then Whitefield smashed to the one-yard line. A jump bullet-pass from Barker to Beadle scored the first TD. Beadle's kick-conversion added the extra point.

Only 2 1/2 minutes had elapsed in the second quarter when Artesia again scored after Roy Johnson recovered a fumble on the Alamogordo 40. Loyd shoved, cut, and twisted to the 25, then Whitefield drove through to the 10. A play later he smashed through center to score.

Beadle's conversion was good, but a holding penalty sent Artesia back to the 28. Undaunted, Beadle passed to Bill Brown in the end zone.

Then within seven minutes Artesia scored three touchdowns, only to have all three called back by officials. First TD was called back for illegal use of hands, second for clipping, third for offside.

Beadle completed a pass to Brown in the end zone for the first, Freddy Sanders and Yumpy Barker set-up the second, and Freddie Sanders went over from the 10 for the third.

As the fourth period opened Artesia was on the 15 and Loyd drove to the five before Artesia was set back for holding. Starting again, the Bulldogs fumbled, but Barker recovered on the 25. Alamogordo took over on downs, punted to the 45, but Loyd pushed back to the 15. Seconds later he turned loose on a lateral pass around left, plowed through without interference for the final score. Beadle kick-converted.

Alamogordo's deepest ground penetration came in final minutes of the period with Artesia quickly stopping the attack on the 40.

Rodriguez Is Fourth Among Loop Hurlers

Mike Rodriguez, Artesia's ace hurler, finished fourth among Longhorn league pitchers with 90 or more innings during the 1952 season, according to league statistics released Sunday.

At the top were Perez of Odessa with 300, followed by Nicolls and Reguera, tied for second with 750, then Rodriguez with 724.

Rodriguez won 21 games, lost eight, and hurled in 31 games, completing 23. He hurled 240 innings, facing 973 batters and allowing 147 runs from 252 hits. He walked 126—more than any other pitcher except Vernon's Wallis.

Irvin Armin finished 11th among Longhorn hurlers with his .636 average, earned in 16 games—eight of them complete—and a total of 96 innings. He was credited with seven wins, four losses.

Rooster Mills, ace reliever for Artesia, finished two notches below Armin, winning 10 and losing six for a .625 average. He pitched in 35 games, completed none, and went a total of 142 innings.

LaVerne Herrmann won five, lost four for .556, Bob Pressley won eight, lost eight for .500. Len Ruyle won four, lost four for .500, and Frank Fernandez won two, lost six for .250.

Upstart Charlie Buck Edges Big Joe From Batting Lead

An upstart by name of Charley Buck from Sweetwater nudged Big Joe Bauman from a season-long position as Longhorn league batting leader, according to statistics released Sunday by Collier Parris, league-statistician.

Buck in 136 games and 550 times at bat banged 210 hits and 119 runs for a .322 average, a slim seven points ahead of Big Joe, who nevertheless led in the other departments that count.

Bauman, in addition to racking up a .375 in 139 games and 469 times at bat, under-hit Buck 176 to 210, but earned more runs—144 to be precise—than any other loop batter. He also led in total bases with 347, followed by Rudy Briner, Driller catcher, with 307.

Big Joe hit 50 home runs to set a new league record, surpassing by six the 1950 mark. He was also walked more times—148—than any other batter, and was far ahead of the field in runs batted in with 157. In second place in the RBI department was Paul Halter with 123.

Rudy Briner was in fifth place at the end of the season with 362 batting average.

Other Driller batting averages: Paul Halter .332, Jim Ackers .331, John Alonzo .311, Bill Haley .302, Pete Pichan .294, Mike Rodriguez .286, Vince Sarubbi .280, Wally Hanna .256, Rooster Mills .220, and Bob Pressley .200.

In the individual fielding department Rudy Briner was ninth-place catcher with a .968 average. Briner had more put-outs than any other catcher—734—took part in more double plays—23—and was credited with 61 assists, second only to Niedson's 91 and Castor's 66.

Paul Halter, who played catcher in four games, had a perfect 1.000 in that department.

Joe Bauman was statistical fourth-place first baseman with .934, falling below Bossberry of Midland, Slicer of Sweetwater, and Baez of Sig Spring. Bauman led at first base putouts with 1,154 in 139 games.

Vince Sarubbi was fourth-place second baseman with a .968 fielding average. Pete Pichan was second among the third basemen with .937, second to Yates of San Angelo. Paul Halter pulled down a .929 while playing third, and Wally Hanna chalked up .914.

Geologists Plan New Mexico Field Trip October 3

Annual field conference of the New Mexico Geological Society will be held Oct. 3, 4, and 5, in the Rio Grande Trough of central New Mexico. John A. Frost of the state secretary, announces.

Participants will register in the afternoon and evening of Thursday, Oct. 2, and over the weekend will proceed south along the east side of the Sangre de Cristo and Sandia ranges (with the trip to Sandia Crest at 10,000 feet elevation); the east side of the Manzanita and Manzano mountains; Abo canyon and the head of Chupadera mesa; the Pecos mountains; and the north of the Caballo mountains and Hornada del Muerto, site of rewildat drilling.

More than 250 are expected to attend the trip.

Sections of rocks ranging from Cambrian to Recent are well exposed in the areas to be visited during the field conference, and correlation of the Paleozoic and Mesozoic sections will be emphasized. Side trips will be made Saturday morning of the largest perlitic dikes in the United States, operated by the Great Lakes Carbon Co., and the Carthage coal field, near Socorro. The conference ends Sunday afternoon near Socorro.

A guidebook is being prepared under the editorship of Dr. Charles Head, of the U. S. Geological Survey, which will contain articles on the structure, landforms, and Mesozoic and Mesozoic stratigraphy of the ranges bordering the Rio Grande trough. Detailed road maps and sections pertaining to the field conference route also are included in the guidebook.

Inquiries for further details on the trip should be addressed to the New Mexico Geological Society, P. O. Box 27, Campus Station, Socorro, New Mexico.

"He is a completely dedicated servant of Christ, giving his life to the preaching of the gospel," Reverend McGuffin states in announcing the revival. "He believes in and preaches the Bible, and is most effective in the pulpit." Reverend New is cooperating with Baptist simultaneous revivals being held this month. In Artesia he will preach daily at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Registration Deadline

WHILE CAMPAIGNING for the general election Nov. 4 is still gathering momentum and will not really reach its peak until October, voters face an early deadline to register for one of this nation's key elections.

Deadline for registration is next Monday, Oct. 6—less than a week from today. Unless a citizen is registered, he cannot vote for a president, governor of New Mexico, and other highly important officials.

Those who need to register to vote are those who have never before voted in a New Mexico election. This includes young people who are first voters. They are 21 and over, and must register in order to take part in the general election.

Newcomers to New Mexico must also register in this state to be eligible to vote.

Registration requirements call for a citizen to be 21 and over, to be able to read and write, to be of sound mind, and to be a resident of New Mexico for one year prior to the election, a resident in the county where he will vote for 90 days before the election, and a resident of the precinct in which he will vote for 30 days before the election.

On page one of today's Artesia Advocate are more details about registration service. If you don't want to wait for someone to sign you up, then see Mrs. Erma G. Williams, public stenographer, on the second floor of the Booker building. Mrs. Williams is registrar for the Artesia precinct, and will be glad to sign you.

We believe those who want to vote Nov. 4 but fail to do so will find themselves in the grip of utter frustration as the campaign steamrollers and gather momentum through October.

There is still sufficient time for you to register so you can vote Nov. 4. But you'd better hurry up.

Living on Income?

SINCE PRESIDENT Harry Truman took off, April 13, 1945, his administration has taken in some $290,163,833.362 and has spent a total of $364,765,895,028.

The public debt as of now stands at $260,199,543,889 and you as a citizen owe your country some $1,666.89.

Most of us, of course, don't understand the above figures and most of us are not in any position to even pay what we owe the government.

That sum of $1,666.89, which we owe, of course, is our share of the public debt now. Most of us have been taught that we should learn to live on our income. It is also true that we have heard it said that when we spend more than we earn or more than we take in that we are going to have financial troubles.

This also applies to our country. When we spend more money than we have and more than we can take in—we are going to be in trouble.

And most of us know and realize that America today is in financial trouble because of the wild spending during the last seven years.

THIS MAKES THE HORSE A 10-HORSEPOWER HORSE

CLAYTON, 9-year-old percheron, looks back pityingly after crossing finish line way ahead of a one-horsepower tractor in a race at Lake Shore Lumber company's yard in Cleveland. Clayton is being driven by Harry DeBock, while tractor salesman Bob Bricker pilots the Planet, Jr., Tuffy tractor. Patrolman Robert A. Paisley supervises from his mount. The "scientific" facts of this test indicate the horse has about 10 horsepower. Clayton's normal pull is 3,000 pounds of lumber and he can pull 5,000 pounds if he wants to show his stuff. The one-horsepower tractor pulls 500 pounds. (International)

One-Sided Compromise

WE HAVE NEVER been able to understand how anyone could compromise some situation when the compromise is one-sided and in reality isn't a compromise.

We have heard pleas sounded and observed efforts being made to seek co-operation and to emphasize a willingness to compromise on some highly controversial issue and yet those urging that a compromise be reached definitely weren't willing to compromise.

After all when you compromise it means there has been an agreement reached because both sides were willing to give and take.

And when it is all one-sided and those asking cooperation and urging a compromise when they aren't willing to compromise definitely are not being fair or honest about the matter.

What they really want is for other folks to discontinue opposing them and let them have their own way, even when it means violating and ignoring a state law and when it means denying the rights of a good many individuals.

Ye there are those who have the nerve to make such a request. They aren't interested in being fair, just, reasonable or even honest about their matter. They aren't even being honest and fair when they request that someone drop their opposition when those providing the opposition are concerned because a good many people are involved and when these people are being denied their rights.

Just how can anyone expect to ignore a large group of people; refuse to even consider them; deny them rights granted to them under the constitution and yet to ask others to give in, cooperate with them and do what they want to do.

Why don't these people admit their proposal is not right; admit that certain individuals, all good American citizens, are entitled to every right every other citizen is entitled to enjoy, and try and work out ways and means that will be agreeable to both sides.

But so often they don't want to do that. They want to have their own way; they want to set up their own rules of the game; they want to dictate how that something is going to be done and to ignore the rights of others.

It seems they display a great amount of nerve when they ask others to cooperate and work with them in open violation of laws and when they know that many are being denied rights guaranteed to them by state laws. Yet there are those who do just this.

Little Theater Organizes

AN ORGANIZATIONAL meeting for an Artesia little theater group will be held at 7:30 tomorrow night in the Senior high school auditorium. This comes as exceptionally good news to us, for we believe organization of the group will fill a long-felt need in community life, despite already crowded calendars.

We hope it will not be "the same old crowd" which goes for that meeting tomorrow night, not the same few people who continually take an active part in community life. Little theater is something new for Artesia, and should draw some new faces, perhaps from among those people who have only recently made their homes in Artesia.

There are many things to be done by amateur theatrical enthusiasts, and Wednesday night's organizational meeting should see everyone attending given some kind of job, some opportunity to express his individual talents, some chance to make his personal contribution to community life.

Representatives from either Carlsbad or Roswell little theater groups will be on hand Wednesday night to talk briefly to those interested in amateur theatrics here. From their growing pains Artesia enthusiasts will find comfort and the wisdom of experience.

Starting such an organization is not easy, and keeping it going will be even more difficult. Gradually as this group works together, its members will find themselves quite unwilling to give the project up.

We give our very best wishes to an Artesia little theater as yet unformed. May it have the best of success from the very beginning, and may it never falter.

THE HEIGHT OF FOLLY

is Artesia Grows

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(From The Advocate files for Sept. 29, 1922)

Later figures on Sunday's hail damage in the Cottonwood community will be much greater than was first estimated. Clarence Pearson says that 750 bales of cotton were ruined in the community and that Pearson Bros. had 400 acres of cotton damaged.

Only about 18 bales of cotton have been ginned by the gins in this area since the last report.

Many ducks are coming into the valley on their migration southward and can be seen on many streams.

Work on remodeling the Haley building at the rear of the McAdoo Drug Co. into an emergency hospital has been completed according to Dr. C. L. Womack.

The Flint ranch southeast of town has the best apple crop seen on the ranch in several years.

The fortnightly Bridge club met with Mrs. Lewis Story Tuesday afternoon for a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Mrs. Hollis Watson entertained with a party Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Helen's seventh birthday anniversary.

TEN YEARS AGO
(From The Advocate files for Oct. 1, 1942)

The annual boys' and girls' poultry show at the vocational agriculture department rooms of Artesia high school Saturday was one of the most successful ever held since the project was started several years ago, and the auction of the exhibited fowls at its conclusion brought in slightly more than $1 head, the total for 108 chickens being $110.

Members of the Artesia Rotary club had a double surprise Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting, when many of the wives showed up to share their luncheon and Col. D. C. Pearson, superintendent of New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, was on hand to deliver an address.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Briscoe had as their guests last week Mrs. Eugene Wenunt of Monterey, Calif.

Bulldog Parents Schedule Dinner Tonight For Gridsters

Bulldog Parents' club will hold its regular weekly meeting at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria. A covered-dish supper will be served honoring the entire football squad and coaches.

Chicken, dressing, and giblet gravy will be furnished by the club, as will potatoes and cranberry sauce. Parents attending are asked to bring a vegetable, salad or desert sufficient for at least six people.

The club would like to re-emphasize the fact that attendance at meetings is not limited to parents of football players, but is open to all who are interested in high school athletics. For Tuesday's supper persons attending other than those with football player sons, however, it is deemed advisable that they bring a meat dish in as much as the chicken and dressing furnished by the club has been planned on a "player-parent" basis.

It was recently brought to the attention of club members that some persons are still unaware of the use to which club funds is put. The Advocate and radio station KSVP have carried stories explaining this to the public.

Crux of all these articles and discussions is this: All money raised by the Parents' club goes for betterment of athletics in Artesia high school with no profit to any member of the club other than personal satisfaction derived from promoting better sports and better athletes.

A complete accounting of fund dispersal will be given to anyone interested enough to attend meetings and ask for such information.

Despite Fourth Place, Drillers Rack Up Longhorn Loop Firsts

Artesia's fourth-place Longhorn league Drillers could nevertheless show a number of firsts tallied across the season ended early this month, according to final but unofficial statistics compiled and released Sunday by Collier Parris, statistician for the loop.

Drillers were top in club batting, led the loop in home runs with 164, knocked the most two-baggers—265—and easily were ahead on total bases with 2,288.

Artesia hit 1,468 times, 40 more than Odessa, and also led in runs-batted-in with 874. And the Drillers could tell you confidentially that with all that, they also struck out more than anyone else, too—692 times, leading Roswell by 10.

Artesia as a club chalked up a 301 batting average, followed by Odessa and Midland with 291. The Drillers were in third place in club fielding, following only Big Spring's 959 and Roswell's 952 with a 951 average.

The Drillers won 75, lost 65 to come out with a .536 season average and finish 12 games behind loop-leading Odessa.

Odessa and Midland were in second place in club batting with 291, followed by Big Spring with 290, Roswell 286, Sweetwater 284, San Angelo 283, and Vernon 266. Below the Drillers in club fielding were San Angelo and Midland with 950, Odessa 948, Vernon 943, and Sweetwater 939.

Final team standings across the 140-game Longhorn loop season look like this:

Team	W	L	Pct.	GB
Odessa	87	53	.621
Big Spring	86	54	.614	1
Midland	85	55	.607	2
Artesia	75	65	.536	12
San Angelo	65	75	.464	22
Roswell	62	78	.443	25
Sweetwater	52	88	.371	35
Vernon	45	95	.321	42

What Other Editors Are Saying

COUNTY ANNEXATION

Residents of lower Harding County, in the Pleasant Valley, will be given another chance to vote as to whether or not they wish to remain in Harding County or else join up with more populous Quay as they decided to poll many months ago. The notice of election being published in this week's Record on order of the board of county commissioners will no doubt receive warm reception by certain ones in the Pleasant Valley area, this for the reason that those same annexationists termed themselves "just plain dampools" after they found that they would be no better—even worse—in being residents of adjoining Quay County, and this was made plain when it was found that an all-weather road would run from their realm to a county seat and trading centers in a far cooler climate than is found in the sandhills of another region. And there were some of the annexation supporters who were given a harder lesson when they examined the tax schedules of the two bailiwicks. Guess of this writer is that many of the voters of the

ANDERSON'S OPPORTUNITY

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, visiting here Friday with the party of Senator John J. Sparkman, Democratic vice presidential nominee, stated that he would introduce a bill in the next Congress which will set a minimum to which lakes can be drained. It was music to a lot of ears. But Clinton apparently spoiled the idea when he mentioned making the same statement once before and then getting a good vote in Dona Ana County. Apparently some other time he made the statement and then ran a vote in Dona Ana County. The last time he ran for office was in 1948. But, Anderson has two more years before he faces another election and this time will get an opportunity to introduce the bill before asking for reelection.—Hot Spring Herald.

Community Chest—

...Community Chest, and "Red Feather" due to a general misunderstanding by the public.

It was again pointed out the Council of Social Agencies operates the North Eddy County Health and Welfare Center at 408 W. Texas street, and coordinates welfare and health operations in the northern half of the county.

Community Chest is the name of the drive to support the council, and the red feather has become the symbol of the council and its fund drive.

Personnel appointed at last Friday's meeting include Mrs. James Monroe of Artesia Woman's club, school program; Mrs. Wayne Adkins, display and special promotion; Dr. Ralph Earhart and Floyd Springer, speakers bureau; Mrs. John A. Frost, clerical and printing; Mrs. Robert Parks, direct solicitation; and Mrs. H. R. Paton, solicitors' banquet.

Need Success—

Community Chest officers attending Friday's meeting several times pointed out the need for a successful fund drive in the community this year if the organization is to continue its work. Last year the fund drive fell about $2,000 below its quota. Directors have decided that should the drive fail this year, the program will be abandoned, including the health and welfare center, until such time as the community becomes "so tired of drives they again demand a united campaign."
