Penasco Officials Agree To Sponsor Flood Project

Penasco Soil Conservation District officials, meeting with representatives from various state and federal agencies at Hope last night, agreed to sponsor a soil conservation and flood control project for the Penasco District, G. L. Beene, area conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, said here to-

Two things will determine whether the project will materialize, Beene said. That is whether, after study of reports now being prepared by the various government agencies, the benefits to be derived from such a project are shown to be greater than the costs, and whether private land owners in the area can meet their share of the costs.

Children To Have 'Good Sledding' At Rotary Party

There won't be any snow for Santa's sleigh tomorrow but it should be good sledding for the children of Artesia when Santa Claus hits town with a sleigh loaded down with candy and fruits.
Santa will appear at Morris Field at 2 p.m. tomorrow, under the sponsorship of the Artesia Ro-

Armed Robber Nabbed After El Paso Holdup

EL PASO, Tex. — A 58-year-old man nabbed here early today following an armed robbery at the Ranch House Oasis has been identified as the robber of a Las Cruces liquor store.
Ernest Forste, also known as Frank Moran, of an El Paso hotel was captured at gunpoint by rookie policeman Arthur Trejo and his partner, Elmer Ramsey, in an alley at the rear of the Legion Bar at Mesa and Franklin streets.
Sheriff Frank Romero of Las Cruces brought Carlis A. Perea, owner of Perea's Liquor Store in Las Cruces to El Paso today to view the robbery suspect.
The youth, Thomas Keene, was returned to Las Cruces to face the robbery charge. A .32 caliber automatic was found in Forste's belt.

Mrs. L. L. McNeil Dies At Hospital

Mrs. Lillian Levinia McNeil, 70, of 611 W. Dallas, died at 1:00 p.m. yesterday at the Artesia General Hospital, after a prolonged illness.
Mrs. McNeil had been a resident of Artesia since 1908. She was born in Jonesville, Va., Jan. 16, 1874, and married A. Cass McNeil in 1906.
She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Artesia.
Mrs. McNeil is survived by a son, Charles A. McNeil, Artesia; three brothers, A. C. Bishop and J. P. Bishop, of Corpus Christi, Tex., and B. A. Bishop, Berkeley, Calif.; and a sister, Miss Margaret Bishop, El Paso, Tex. Surviving also, are three grandchildren and one great grandchild.
Funeral services will be con-

SCC Hearing On Truckers' Record Waning

SANTA FE — The State Corporation Commission hearing on the accident record of Ferguson-Steele Trucking Co showed signs of finishing up today.
The hearing, rocking along at an increasingly faster pace, was the scene of fireworks yesterday over a letter criticizing the firm's operations.
Although company attorneys objected, Asst. Atty Gen. Jack Smita SCC attorney, succeeded in having introduced a critical letter from Reuben K. Haggerty, Fort Worth, district director of the Interstate Commerce Commission.
The letter was written in 1954 when Haggerty was investigating reports of alleged use of fatigued drivers.
In part, it said:
"I consider the condition of operations of your company to be so bad that there should be no delay whatever in an approach to a proper correction . . .
"Frankly, I attribute the very serious and frequent accidents resulting in fatalities in the state of New Mexico to the laxness with which your company supervises its operations."
The ICC official's letter went on to say we had found evidences of drivers operating far in excess of regular hours, falsified driver logs and 55-mile speeds when the legal truck speed was 50.
In rebuttal, the company introduced letters from other ICC officials praising Ferguson-Steele, particularly improvements in its safety record.
The firm has already introduced a citation awarded it by the American Trucking Assn. for having the third best safety record among petroleum carriers last year.

Police Give Car Thorough Probe In Search For Heroin Shipment

CARRIZOZO — Officers today went over a late model car with a wary eye in the search for a shipment of smuggled heroin believed to be in the vehicle.
The alarm for the car, bearing three Colorado men, was sent out yesterday by the Immigration and Naturalization Service in El Paso.
The federal agency told New Mexico State Police it was thought a shipment of heroin destined for Denver was in the car.
The three men were arrested last night at one of a series of roadblocks set up for them throughout southern New Mexico.
State Policeman Charles Anaya of Vaughn said the three offered no resistance when he stopped them at a roadblock at Duran, on U. S. 54 between Vaughn and Corona. The arrest took place at 10:27 p.m.
"One of them was shaking pretty badly," but it could have been the cold," Anaya said.
The three were held without charge in Carrizozo, where sheriff William Bradley said he searched the car last night without result. He said he was planning to give it a more thorough examination today.
George Shasteen of the Immigration Service's Alamogordo office was in Carrizozo to aid in the investigation.

Clear Skies, Rise In Temperatures Seen - Dust, Too

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Clear skies and warm westerly winds were expected to warm frost nipped eastern New Mexico today.
But in the same breath, the District Weather Bureau said those winds were to kick up dust in the highlands of that part of the state.
Clouds cleared last night, leaving only a smattering of very light snow in the northeast corner of the state and eastern Colorado.
Otherwise, the Weather Bureau said, there was no precipitation within a 500 mile radius of Albuquerque.
The warmest place in New Mexico yesterday was Glenwood, in the southwest quarter, with 68. The highs ranged down to 32 at Las Vegas and Raton.
The coldest overnight mark was 10 at Raton.

Christmas Around The World

Family Bonds Are Closest In Italy On Christmas Day

By STAN SWINTON ROME — Christmas in Italy is the day when the family bond is closest.
On Christmas Eve, before the eager eyes of the children, mother and father construct a model of the Nativity scene. This "pre-sepio" is to Italian children what the Christmas tree is to Americans although the foreign custom of Christmas trees is spreading even here.
Usually the presepio shows the Child in a wooden or rock manger.
An ox and a donkey flank the manager. Around it, kings and shepherds kneel in veneration.
Colored lights shine on the scene.
In poor homes the presepio may be of cardboard. Among rich honors there may be expensive hand carvings. But always there is the presepio.
Babbo Natale Father Christmas is known in Italy but it is the Gesu Bambino the infant Jesus who lays presents beside the heads of sleeping children before they awaken Christmas morning.
Thus begins Christmas, the one day of the year in which every Italian is expected to rest at home with his family. Through the day the family group plays cards, talks and jokes, drinks coffee and eats candies or sweets.
Sweets vary from city to city but everyone must have panettone.
This is a sweet bread with raisins and candied fruit which has spread from Milan across the world. Thousands are shipped to the United States for Italo-American Christmas celebrations there.
There is far less emphasis on gifts within the family than in the United States. However, tradition calls for presents to those who have done you services during the year. The postman, the telegraph boy, the policeman, the parking lot attendant—all call to pay their respects before Christmas and expect a panettone or cash present.
In Rome the great day of family gifts giving is Jan. 6, Epiphany.

Tennessean Promises Fight For Democratic Nomination

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) plunged into the Democratic presidential nomination race today, and announced he will enter as many state primaries as time and money permit.
Kefauver, who led in the early balloting at the 1952 party convention but lost the nomination to Adlai E. Stev-

NATO Leaders Plan Policy In Hot Spots

PARIS — Fifteen foreign ministers of the Atlantic Alliance sought today to coordinate their policy for dealing with danger spots all over the globe.
Each attended the meeting, which lasted three hours, accompanied by only two top advisers.
Spokesmen would only say afterward that the talk ranged all around the world where ever there were problems directly or indirectly affecting the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.
U. S. Secretary of States Dulles warned yesterday that Russia has opened two dangerous new fronts in the cold war — the Middle East and Southern Asia.
The ministers concentrated their attention on the explosive Middle Eastern situation, especially the effect on other NATO members of Turkish and British participation in the Baghdad pact. Portugal also raised the issue of her dispute with India over the status of Goa.
Some of the time was devoted to economic cooperation among the member nations — a subject which will come up again in plenary session during the afternoon when nonmilitary activities will be tackled.
A member of the NATO international secretariat said some conclusions reached by the ministers would be mentioned in the communique — tonight or tomorrow.
While the secret meeting was still in session, Paulo Cunha, Portuguese foreign minister, came out to explain to the press Portugal's views on her dispute with India over the territory of Goa. Portugal says Goa is a Portuguese province and not a colony as the Indians claim. The Indians want it as part of their union.
Cunha hinted that in the event of an attack on Goa by India or on Macao by Red China, he would invoke Article 4 of the NATO treaty, which authorizes member states to start consultations in case of an attack on their territories. This article, however, does not obligate other members to give military assistance. Cunha said Portugal did not consider Goa as part of the North Atlantic area, where the automatic obligation of mutual military aid would come into play.
He expressed the hope that Spain, now admitted to member-

BETTER THAN EVER? . . . By Alan Maver

Sam Snead Becoming Better Golfer As He Grows Older

SANFORD, Fla. (AP)—Sam Snead is like wine; he seems to get better with age. The Slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., is 43, and for a professional golfer that's up in years. But Sam isn't conceding Father Time a thing. He's looking, feeling and playing as well or better than ever. In successive competitive rounds he has turned in two record per-

Bulldogs Face Carlsbad Tonight

The Artesia Bulldogs come up against what may be a tough one in the Carlsbad Cavemen here tonight in a battle that may be indicative of things to come. The Cavemen will be sparked by Don Hamett, who scored 17 points against Hobbs Tuesday, before knocking under for a 59-51 defeat. They put up a surprising show of strength against the Eagles and go up against the unbeaten Bulldogs with two defeats from top teams.

$40,000 In Bonds Stolen From Ace

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Vic Raschi, former New York Yankee pitching ace, lost $40,000 worth of non-negotiable bonds here yesterday and also discovered that not everyone is a baseball fan. Raschi reported his loss to the police and was written up in the police blotter as "Vic Radhsci." Raschi said the bonds could not be cashed as he had not endorsed them. He said he was on his way to a bank from his home in Conesus, 30 miles south, when he lost the bonds.

REESE GETS RAISE

BROOKLYN (AP)—Pee Wee Reese, 38-year-old captain of Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers, has signed his 1956 contract, Reese, first of the Dodgers to sign, reportedly received a boost of $1,000 to $36,000.

SHOPPING CENTER PLANNED ALBUQUERQUE

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Builder Dave Bellamah has announced plans to construct an 80-acre shopping center in Albuquerque to cost from 5 1/2 to 6 million dollars. He says it will be "far larger than anything now in the state." It will be located in the northeast section of the city, south of Manual. Construction is to start early in the summer.

Sooners To Receive Second O'Donnell Trophy Tonight

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—For the second time in the past six years, Oklahoma tonight receives the Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell Memorial Trophy, emblem of the national football championship based on The Associated Press annual poll. The presentation will be made at an award banquet before an expected crowd of 500 persons. Joe Abbott of Patterson, N. J., president of the Notre Dame Monogram Club which offers the trophy, will present it to Oklahoma's tri-captains, Bo Bolinger, Cecil Morris and Eidon Loughbridge. Ted Smits, New York, general

Lightburn 13-10 Favorite Over Dupas Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Ludwig Lightburn, an invader from British Honduras and a recent graduate of the prelim ranks, is a surprising 13-10 favorite to beat lightweight contender Ralph Dupas of New Orleans in Madison Square Garden tonight. It is the Garden main event debut for both youngsters. NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p. m. EST. The odds are strange because Dupas, a seasoned veteran of more than five years of pro battling at 20, figures to have too much experience for the promising, 21-year-old Lightburn. Dupas has fought better fighters and is working on an unbeaten string of nine, including victories over former lightweight king Paddy DeMarco, Frankie Ryff and Cisco Andrade. His overall record is 57-6-5 with 10 knockouts. Lightburn has come up fast this year. He has won four straight and has a 6-2 record for the year. The two losses were to heavier Ike Logart, now a welterweight contender. Ludwig's record all told is 35-6 with 13 knockouts.

UMN ATTENDANCE DOWN ALBUQUERQUE

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—The University of New Mexico, in six home football games this year, drew an average of 7,263 fans. The total attendance was 3,477, compared with 42,504 in five home games last year and an average of 8,501

Syndicate Pays $1,251,000 For Horse Of Year - Nashua

NEW YORK (AP)—Mighty Nashua will be shipped to Florida next week to continue his sensational career after being sold for a world record price of $1,251,000.

Executors of the estate of the late William Woodward Jr. sold Nashua yesterday to a syndicate headed by Leslie Combs II of Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, Ky. This was the greatest single horse trade ever concluded, involving an unprecedented sale of a great colt still at the peak of his racing career. Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, 81-year-old trainer of Nashua, will take charge of the big 3-year-old again late next week.

Nashua, of course, was the big news in the dollars and cents part of the bargain. But for the sentimentalists the clink of hard cold cash did not outweigh the passing of the famous Belair Stud—one of racing's greatest stables—founded 45 years ago by William Woodward Sr.

A total of 62 horses, including Nashua, sold under sealed bids for a grand total of $1,866,200. Combs said Nashua would be sent from Kentucky to Hialeah Park in Miami to begin training for the $100,000-added Widener Handicap Feb. 18.

Nine other race horses and 12 yearlings went to John Korose, Teaneck, N. J., electrical supply man who owns a racing stable, for $205,000. Mildred W. Woolwine of

Baseball Owners To Hear Players

NEW YORK (AP)—Major league baseball club owners will get another chance to hear the players' proposals, which they rejected at their recent meeting in Chicago. Commissioner Ford Frick yesterday promised the players' representatives, Robin Roberts of the Phillies and Bob Fellers of the Indians, that he will see that the demands are resubmitted at a Feb. 4 meeting of the owners.

The two major items being pressed by the players are: Increase of minimum salary from $6,000 to $7,200 and the right to participate in the negotiations for a new TV contract, which expires after the 1956 World Series.

SADDLER DEFENDS TITLE SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sandy Saddler will defend his world featherweight crown here Jan. 18 against the man who outpointed him last June in a no-holds-bar weight bout—Flash Elorde of the Philippines.

GLICK TO CANADA TORONTO

TORONTO (AP)—Garry Glick, star halfback of Colorado A&M, arrived by plane early today to talk contract terms with the Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four Football Union.

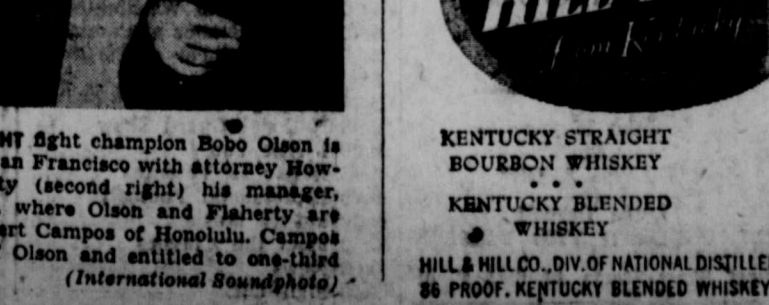

KEGLER TOURNEY OPENS CHICAGO

CHICAGO (AP)—Veteran Joe Wilman, a former champion, and Anita Cantaline of Detroit, held the top spots after the first day's competition in the finals of the national All-Star Bowling Tournament.

SHRIMP TEAMS ARRIVE GALVESTON

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—A reception of beautiful girls and warm kisses is scheduled today for the Fort Hood Tankers football team today which plays Sunday in the Shrimp Bowl. The opposing Navy Gator team from Little Creek, Va., was greeted that way yesterday.

BOBO FACES $500,000 SUIT

THROWN WORLD MIDDLEWEIGHT light champion Bobo Olson is shown (second left) in court in San Francisco with attorney Howard C. Ellis (left), Sid Flaherty (second right) his manager, and attorney Bernard Glickfeld, where Olson and Flaherty are being sued for $500,000 by Herbert Campos of Honolulu. Campos claims he is former manager of Olson and entitled to one-third of his earnings until 1950. (International Soundphoto)

Majestic mountains and placid valleys! These catch the eye and stir the imagination... symbols of power and of fertility.

Rugged peaks and lush meadows however do not exist for themselves, or even for stirring our love of the beautiful. They serve the tiny lily which climbs from the dark earth up into the sunlight of God. Mountain and valley are servants of the purity and the loveliness of the flower. Out of the rock the Divine Gardener gathers rich minerals to be pulverized into life-sustaining soil; down the crevices and the canyons run the rivulets and the creeks which carry the moisture to quench the thirst of growing things; matted earth catches and protects the seed until it can feel the call of the warm sun for its growth up into light and unfolding glory.

The valleys of ancient Canaan were a riot of color in the springtime, shouting to the man with eyes to see that God was walking His earth and every path was checked with anemones and iris and tulip and cyclamen and daisies. Acres of color and of fragrance testified to the presence of the Lord of Life. The anemones or windflowers may well have been the 'lily of the valley,' dear to the heart of the Master; they carpeted the land in "brilliant reds or delicate pinks, purple, white, blue and cream." "Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

Look at the purity and the beauty of the lily; see the care and the love of the beautiful which mark our God; know too that the same good God is seeking by every ministry of grace to bring purity and loveliness to flowers in the human gardens of His love. Your life is of more value than is any 'lily of the valley' and your purity and gracious kindness of soul bring greater joy to His heart than does any flower of the field. You are to grow forever under the watch-care of the loving Creator. Will you keep your heart pure and your soul sensitive? Will you respond as naturally to the ministries of divine Love as the lily answers the call of sunshine and of shower? Then attend your church and support her good work.
