Security Council Seat Goes To Tito Under Split-Term With Philippines

Chamber Of Commerce Passes One-State-Magazine Motion

The executive committee of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce, meeting yesterday, passed a resolution favoring a strong state magazine to promote the state through nationwide circulation, and forwarded a letter to that effect to Gov. John Simms at Santa Fe.

In a letter to Gov. Simms and signed by Paul Frost, Chamber president, the following resolution, passed by the executive committee, was set forth:

The Artesia Chamber of Commerce has gone on record favoring one strong state magazine in which the various state departments would advertise, and one which would be produced by an independent producer who would give it nationwide circulation.

"It is our feeling that emphasis should be placed on obtaining nationwide circulation rather than on having page after page of advertising. We also feel that the dry statistical reports of state departments can be changed into interesting information releases that would be of interest to read-

The letter from the executive committee of the Chamber also informed the Governor that he could rest assured of the Chamber's support in any reasonable change in the present state program.

On another matter, the executive committee discussed a referendum sent down by the National Chamber of Commerce concerning a proposed policy declaration for the national development of inter-state highways. No action was taken by the committee and the matter is to be brought up at the next regular board meeting.

Clouds Hide Sun, But Weather Is Fair Over State

By The Associated Press

High clouds hid the sun from much of the north and west parts of the Land of Enchantment today, but the Weather Bureau said weather continued generally fair over the state.

The thermometer showed a sharp rise in the extreme eastside, with Clayton warming up 31 degrees and Tucumcari 29 degrees from yesterday's overnight lows.

Reported overnight lows ranged from 15 at Otto to 43 at Clayton and Tucumcari.

The Weather Bureau said generally fair weather with considerable high cloudiness and mild temperatures is expected over New Mexico through tomorrow.

Non-Support Case Dismissed

John Ellicott, justice of the peace, today dismissed a case against Lester Johnson, 300 S. Sixth St., on a charge of non-support. The justice of the peace said the case was dismissed on motion of Mrs. Johnson, the complaining witness.

Fines totalling $65 were assessed against Willie Huston Buchanan in police court here yesterday afternoon, after he was found guilty on three counts of drunkenness, disturbance and indecent exposure.

A disturbance charge was dismissed against Doroteo Paz Torrez, 107 Gage st., at a trial in police court yesterday afternoon.

LONG ARM SOUGHT
LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The long arm of the law is looking for a longer arm of the lawless. Miss Loretta Mueller reported someone smashed a storm window, a regular window pane and reached through both to a bedroom dresser 18 inches from the window to lift her purse containing $85.

They Made Christmas 3-The Shepherds

By DR. J. CARTER SWAIM
Director, Department of the English Bible
National Council of Churches
(Third of a Series.)

Tending sheep is one of man's oldest occupations. It is also one of the most strenuous. The Palestinian shepherd had to be out in all weathers: the heat of noon-time and the chill of midnight; the drought of summer and the storms of winter. His was the duty of fighting off robbers and wild animals. His was so confining an occupation that there was not time to keep all the provisions of the ceremonial law. The orthodox therefore regarded him as outside the pale. The ancient Egyptians wanted to avoid the work of the shepherd.

When Christ was born, "there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night." It was they to whom "an angel of the Lord appeared . . . and the glory of the Lord shone around them." Such things were frightening. No matter how pious a man may be, a vision of the divine glory is an awesome experience. These shepherds were "filled with fear." Many people of earth have never gotten past this stage in religion. Fear—in the sense of wholesome respect for the Deity—is the beginning of knowledge (Prov. 1:7), but Christianity ends the reign of terror. It begins with the triumphant note: "Be not afraid," and this is echoed frequently in the New Testament.

There have been societies, as in Egypt, where life's best gifts were only for the rulers. The common people gained in significance only as they gave themselves to advancing the well-being of the Pharaohs and their court. One of the first notes of the Gospel is addressed to ordinary, hard-working folk. It is to "shepherds out in the field" that the announcement is made: "I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people."

Record-Breaking Deadlock Ended After 36th Ballot

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Yugoslavia was elected to a seat on the U. N. Security Council today as part of a lottery deal under which Yugoslavia and the Philippines would split a two year term.

The action of the General Assembly ended a record-breaking deadlock in which 36 ballots were cast during the last two months. It also cleared the way for quick adjournment of the Assembly's 1955 session.

This morning's vote was 43 for Yugoslavia, 11 for the Philippines, one for Finland and one for Sweden. This was five more than the required two-thirds majority of those present and voting.

While the split-term deal had the backing of both Yugoslavia and the Philippines, as well as Russia and the big Western powers, there was no vote on the deal as such. The Assembly merely elected Yugoslavia to a two-year term.

The understanding was, however, that the Yugoslav delegation would resign at the end of one year and that the Philippines would then be elected. Yugoslavia was chosen to serve the first half of the term after its name was drawn out of a box by Assembly President Jose Maza last Friday night.

The prospects for adoption of the compromise soared when Russia finally made known yesterday she would support it, although she felt the whole idea was illegal.

Some Latin-American delegates still opposed the plan last night, contending it set a dangerous precedent which could endanger the two seats Latin America traditionally holds on the council.

The British, who backed Yugoslavia's candidacy, argued that the proposal set no precedent because it did not involve any written commitment by anyone to support the Philippines next year.

The United States, the Philippines' chief supporter, first proposed splitting the two-year term but wanted its candidate to lead off. Britain and the Soviets opposed this, contending the seat should go to an east European country under a 1946 agreement which the United States contends held only for that year.

The Americans argued that Asia should have more representation on the council.

Assembly President Jose Maza of Chile finally came up with a "lottery" solution last week, putting both nations' names in a ballot box and drawing out one — Yugoslavia's.

Bond Set For Texan Who Shot Pastor "To Protect Wife, Home"

WEATHERFORD, Tex. — Bond of $7,500 was set this morning for Walter Vaughn accused of fatally shooting a Baptist minister who Vaughn says "committed adultery with my wife."

The Denver City, Tex., man waived examining trial on the murder charge before Justice of the Peace Eddleman Pickard. He said he expected his attorney from Denver City to post the bond for him later today.

Last night Mrs. Vaughn, mother of four children, backed up her husband's accusations. She told reporters that their family pastor, the Rev. Chester Stevens, "made his way into my home under the pretense of helping as my pastor. It was just pretense. It wasn't for the purpose of doing good."

Her husband, a slightly bald, thin man of 47, was charged here last night with firing six shots that instantly killed the Baptist minister in the front yard of the latter's home Saturday. A bond hearing for him was set for today.

Vaughn, looking tired and grief-stricken, told reporters: "Why, he came into my house under false pretenses and he committed adultery with my wife. My wife told me . . . I learned about it in November. . . I trusted him completely."

Asked about her husband's statement that the minister came to the Vaughn residence for the purpose of committing adultery and did commit it, Mrs. Vaughn said "yes, it was true."

The Vaughns were members of the Denver City Baptist Church where Rev. Stevens was pastor until two months ago when he became pastor of the Harmony Baptist Church near here.

Vaughn gave this account of the shooting: "He said he drove to Weatherford Saturday and saw Stevens in town. He lost track of the minister but got directions to his home at a store. Stevens drove up to his home and got out of his car. Vaughn got out in the yard and started firing a .22 pistol he had bought for his wife after she told him about an affair with the preacher. Vaughn said "he went all to pieces" and didn't remember actually shooting the minister. Vaughn said he did not know of Stevens' death until he was told about it in jail last night. Showing no emotion he said "I don't think any man should be sorry for protecting his wife and home." Vaughn said he had served as a Sunday school teacher in the Denver City church but that Stevens "shoved me back and made me feel unwanted." He said he resigned after the minister criticized him and told him he didn't "know how to meet the public." Vaughn said Stevens left the Denver City church after a vote of confidence went against him. He also said "my wife already told him if I found it out I'd kill him." Vaughn surrendered shortly after. ### School Board Members Accept Cafeteria

Artesia School Board yesterday voted unanimously to accept the new Junior High School cafeteria as it now stands, with minor completions yet to be made by the contractors.

Board members gave the cafeteria a thorough going over. Chairman Howard Stroup said, "Everything looks ship-shape. I feel we have certainly got our money's worth here."

The cafeteria is designed to seat 100 people in the 46x76-foot main dining room. A large, well-equipped kitchen will supply hot food for all Artesia schools. Six portable steam tables, which can be transported by truck from the central kitchen to the other cafeterias, will keep food hot while en route.

A large walk-in freezer opening off the kitchen will enable the schools to take advantage of quantities of government surplus products available to them at low cost.

In addition to the dining room and kitchen, there is a snack bar, office and storage rooms, and locker rooms for personnel.

"I feel we now have a good and very complete Junior High School plant throughout," Mills said, after hearing the board vote to accept the new addition.

On hand to show board members through the cafeteria, was M. A. Baker, field representative for the architects, Voorrees and Standhardt, of Roswell. Baker said his firm believes that the contractors, Lempeke, Clough and King, have done a good job on the new addition.

The cafeteria will go into use soon after the Christmas holiday, Mills said.

Truck Damaged In Hit-Run Crash Monday

A hit-run accident at Thirteenth and Hermosa yesterday at 8:23 p.m. caused about $50 damage to the left front end of a pickup truck driven by Harry Ray Bryant, 1108 Hermosa, police said today.

Bryant told police that he was driving south on Thirteenth Street and had begun a left turn into Hermosa when a light colored car, believed to be a 1947 or 1948 model Buick, came from the south on Thirteenth at a high rate of speed, collided with Bryant's vehicle and kept on going.

Police said the car that left the scene of the accident should have a damaged left rear fender with green paint from Bryant's pickup. A car driven by Guy Smith, Box 545, Artesia, received an estimated $50 damage in a minor collision in the 100 block of South Fourth Street at 2:45 p.m. yesterday, police said.

Smith was driving south on Fourth Street when a car driven by Johnnie G. Crow, 1205 W. Chisum, backed out from the curb and collided with Smith's car, police reported.

An estimated $10 damage was done to Crow's car.

DISASTER STRUCK ON STATE ROAD Year Ago Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Disaster struck on New Mexico's highways a year ago today. The result was that as of this morning the 1955 highway death toll suddenly reflected considerable improvement again.

As of this morning—on the 354th day of the year—the State Police figures showed 350 dead, compared with 358 a year ago. It was a year ago tonight that seven persons died in a head-on crash a few miles south of Tularosa. Three of the victims were from Holloman AFB or Tularosa. The four in the other car were from Texas. A Quay County death the same day raised the total for that day to eight.

If the toll can be kept down in coming days, the state again will have a good chance to forge well ahead of 1954 on Friday. For on Dec. 23, 1954 that year's toll was increased by seven—six in one accident west of Las Cruces.

State Police adopted a crossed-finger policy.

"If we can just keep going now without any deaths—or at least without any of these terrible crashes—we should be able to make it through the year and register an improvement over last year," a spokesman said.

The 1954 toll was 371, compared with the record of 416, charged against the state in 1953.

Ferguson-Steere Takes Over ICC Hearing Witness Stand

ANTA FE — The Ferguson-Steere Motor Co., ordered to explain its highway safety record to the satisfaction of the Corporation Commission, today took over witness stand again to present its testimony.

George W. Cramer, a company president, was called as the rebuttal witness for the purpose of discussing the company's failures to report certain accidents, as well as a letter in an Interstate Commerce Commission official was highly critical of company practices.

The ICC letter and testimony were introduced last Thursday and Friday, respectively, by Attorney General's office, reporting the Corporation Commission.

When K. Haggerty of Fort Worth, District Director of the ICC, had written the company the attributed "the very serious and frequent accidents result in fatalities in the state of Mexico to the laxness with which your company supervises its operations." He said there should be an immediate and complete correction of company operations.

Cramer testified today, in connection with the Haggerty letter, that immediately after receipt of the letter, Ferguson-Steere took steps designed to correct operations which had drawn criticism.

As for testimony of SCC Chief Clerk Wendell K. Waite, that the company had not complied with SCC rules to report all accidents, Cramer said a delay of about six weeks had ensued before the company received a book of rules, orders and regulations which Cramer asked an officer then employed by the SCC on Dec. 8, 1953 to send to the company.

Cramer testified also that in his phone conversation with the official he had received the impression that reportable accidents—reportable only in cases causing injury or death of $100 or more damage.

SCC Chairman John Block Jr. commented it was possible to see why minor accidents had not been reported to the SCC. He said, though, that two which the SCC contends were not reported to it, in October, 1953, both involved one death, and one of those two also involved three persons injured.

It was indicated that company President Bruce Steere would reply later, when he again had an opportunity to take the witness stand.

Counsel for the SCC earlier today completed presentation of 57 exhibits embracing huge numbers of documents relating to truck driving operations of the Ferguson-Steere organization.

The SCC now is in the second week of a hearing at which the company was ordered to explain a highway accident record which SCC Chairman John Block Jr. has said does not appear to be in line with the best safety precautions.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Jack Smith, representing the commission, at mid-morning completed his presentation of exhibits which included 226 refinery company manifests and a like number of Ferguson-Steere drivers' logs. The purpose of this was to bring out any discrepancies which might exist between the manifests and the drivers' own records.

Following the commission's ruling on admissibility of the exhibits and the attorney general's resting of his case, the company was scheduled to begin rebuttal testimony. With a possible conflict threatened with a hearing set for Friday and the Christmas

Billy Mitchell's Sister Asked For Adventure, Got Too Much

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Ruth Mitchell wanted adventure—and she got more than she bargained for.

Now a blonde, vivacious and youthful-looking grandmother, the sister of the late Maj. Gen. Billy Mitchell was one of the pioneer women airplane pilots, heard her own death sentence as a prisoner of the Nazis, faced starvation in German prisons, and now has lived to see wide recognition of her brother who, she says, died of a broken heart after his outspoken advocacy of air power led to a court-martial at the height of his career.

Ruth lives in London these days, in a flat she swears is haunted by the ghost of Lord Byron, a former tenant. Currently she is touring the United States in connection with the motion picture "The Court-Martial of Billy Mitchell." This loyal sister has refused many honors in the past because she felt the world had not given proper recognition to Gen. Mitchell.

But now that Congress has voted to strike the 1925 court-martial from his record and is expected to restore his rank as a major general, and now that a motion picture has been devoted to his story, she feels that justice has been done.

Ruth Mitchell was born in Milwaukee, educated abroad, married an Englishman, William Van Brada, and had two children. Her son was killed in World War II.

After the death of her husband, Ruth took up a career of photography and writing, went to the Balkans shortly before World War II to cover the marriage of King Zog of Albania, and stayed four years—most of them in prison.

"All the women in those prisons expected to die, and I think all the rest of them did. We were starved, tortured and beaten. But I wouldn't have missed the experience for the world. It taught me the heights of courage to which the human soul can reach."

Bulldog Cagers Open Tourney Against Alamo

The Artesia Bulldogs, losers of straight games, attempt to reverse their winning ways tonight when they clash with Alamogordo in the latter's floor in the second of a two-day holiday tournament.

Victors over Artesia last night, and Gadsden of the latter's floor in the opener of a double-bill at 7 p. m.

The tourney will be judged on the results of three games to be played by each team. By virtue of win over Artesia, Lovington will appear to have the edge in the tournament.

Tomorrow afternoon the Bulldogs go up against Gadsden at 1:30 p. m. to get a chance for revenge from the latter's floor at 7 p. m.

The Bulldogs started the season with a tip-off over Hagerman, well and New Mexico Military State. Last Friday night, however, Carlsbad's defending state champions, used a full court press to subdue the Artesians and again Saturday night Coach Verlon Davis' charges went down to defeat.

Davis said this morning he will get Clyde Chaney at center, Bob and Charles Robinson at forwards and Max Hatfield and Perry at forwards in tonight's battle.

Only one other 1955 game remains on the Bulldogs' schedule following the tourney. Dec. 30 they take on the Alumni. The club then is idle until Jan. 6 when Alamogordo will host the Artesians and on the next night Hobbs will be the Bulldogs' den.

Alabama Tops Holy Cross In Game Upset

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Anybody who could diagram a football play could explain to anyone else why Alabama would list today just what Michigan State will throw against UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

A crowd of more than 3,500 turned out for a public showing of the Spartan tactics in an open house practice at East Los Angeles Junior College.

It was the first time there has been prior announcement by a visiting Big Ten team of a come-one, come-all workout.

Some of the assistant coaches were shaking their heads in amazement as "Coach" of the Year, Duffy Daugherty explained each series of Michigan State plays while the team romped through their formations.

"This is our quick kick," Daugherty would explain, while his team ran through the play, "and our fake kick, and our quick-kick hand off, and our lateral off the fake."

"We showed them about everything we used this year," Daugherty said afterwards. "I figure Red Sanders has us pretty well scouted so what's the harm in showing the folks our stuff."

Daugherty, talking over a portable public address system, introduced his players and exchanged quips with the enthusiastic and applauding crowd of fans.

UCLA staged a brisk 30-minute defensive scrimmage during its workout, "the best one yet" according to Coach Sanders.

Alabama Tops Holy Cross In Game Upset

The Bama boys know how Holy Cross feels. Alabama won the Birmingham Classic tournament recently. Then the Tide, rated No. 1 in last week's AP nationwide poll, went on the road. First North Carolina walloped Alabama, 90-19, in New York last Saturday. St. John's of Brooklyn beat Alabama 87-79.

Alabama beat Holy Cross from free throw lanes, converting 34 of 44 chances, while the Crusaders made good on 12 of 19. Holy Cross bagged 36 field goals, five more than Alabama.

Vanderbilt, rated No. 8 in this week's ratings and the only other team in the top 10 to see action, tied away in the second half to beat Georgia 85-61. Georgia led 31-10 soon after the start—before Commodores began to roll.

Other games involving ranking teams showed Indiana an 80-61 winner over Cincinnati, Illinois 79 over DePaul, and Duquesne 85 over Loyola of Los Angeles.

The Rice Owls ran the unscathed string to seven by defeating Kansas 75-66. The Owls led by 10 points at one time. Temple 66-43, but four TCU players were out in the extra session.

Of the 10 teams that were scheduled to play in the extra session, Robin Freeman scored 21 points as Ohio State defeated Tulane 72-50 while Norm Stewart tanked 30 points for Missouri, which thumped Idaho 81-57. Iowa State, led by Thompson's 24 points, defeated Colorado A&M 72-60, and Wisconsin rallied for 44 points in the last half to defeat Nebraska 32. Dick Miller tallied 21 points for Wisconsin.

The Carrousel basketball classic started at Charlotte, N.C., and Duke Forest ripped Mississippi 68-58; Colgate tromped Davidson 86-51; Tennessee downed Austin University 80-77 in spite of Kevin Thomas' 46 points; and Clemson rocked Florida State 94-41. In the championship semi-finals, Colgate meets Wake Forest while Clemson plays Tennessee.

Alabama Tops Holy Cross In Game Upset

Alabama topped Holy Cross in a game that was a surprise to many. The Crimson Tide, who were ranked No. 1 in the country, were upset by the Crusaders. The game was played in New York City and was a major event for the Crusaders. Alabama's victory was a significant upset in the college basketball world.

N. M. Lobos Drop Fifth Straight Tilt

CANYON, Tex. (AP)—The New Mexico Lobos, looking for their first victory in six starts, will take on Hamline in the losers bracket of the West Texas Tournament.

The Lobos lost their fifth straight game last night, falling 88-80 to West Texas. New Mexico outscored the hosts 33-32 from the floor, but fell back on the free throw line. The loss of Toby Roybal through a back injury and the personal foul elimination of Walt Schuman and Dave Kibard also hurt the Lobos.

Hamline dropped its first tournament game 111-80 to Murry State of Kentucky.

$100,000 Dallas Golf Tourney Scheduled At Preston Hollow

CHICAGO (AP)—George S. May, Chicago golf promoter whose all-America tournaments are the richest in the world, says he isn't worried about competition.

"It's about time somebody else was offering some money," said May when informed that Dallas is coming up with a $100,000 tournament next spring.

"That's only half of what we give during our All-America in August," said May. "In 15 years we've given away $1,130,370."

"I'll tell you this. Nobody is ever going to beat me. If anybody ever threatens to give bigger golf prizes than I do, I'll raise the ante."

May's tournaments at Tam O'Shanter went over $200,000 last August.

The $100,000 Dallas tournament will be the richest ever held in the Southwest and second only to

Billy Pierce Wins American League's Earned Run Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Pierce, hard-luck lefthander of the Chicago White Sox, was the American League's earned-run leader in 1955 while several other southpaws also showed to good advantage in the official pitching records.

Pierce, who lost 4 games by 1-0 scores, still managed to rack up a 15-10 won-lost mark.

He gave up 45 earned runs in 206 innings for an earned-run average of 1.97, the lowest since 1946 when Hal Newhouser of Detroit finished with 1.94. Pierce also is the seventh White Sox pitcher to cop earned-run laurels. The last was Saul Rogovin in 1951.

Tommy Byrne of the New York Yankees, Herb Score of Cleveland, Billy Hoelt of Detroit and Ed Whitey Ford of the Yankees were the other lefthanders who shared pitching honors with Pierce.

Score led in strikeouts with 245 to establish a major league record for first-year men. The old mark was 227 by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Philadelphia Phillies in 1911.

Byrne, making one of the year's best comeback, topped the list in winning percentage. The veteran won 16 games and lost 5 for .762, 15-10 won-lost mark.

Hoelt was the pace-setter in shutouts with 7. The Tigers' lefty had a 167 record.

Pitching the most complete games, 18, Ford also tied Cleveland's Bob Lemon and Boston's Frank Sullivan for the most victories. Each won 18 games.

Ford, in addition, was second to Pierce in the earned-run competition with an average of 2.62. Early Wynn of the Indians was third with 2.82 followed by Score with 2.85 and Sullivan with 2.91.

Sullivan, a righthander, also pitched the most innings, 290 and started the most games, 25. Bob Turley of New York walked the most batters, 173 while Steve Gromek of Detroit allowed the most home runs, 26.

For the first time in its history, the junior circuit failed to produce a 20-game winner.

Duffy Daugherty Shows Visitors Spartans Plays

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Anybody who could diagram a football play could explain to anyone else why Alabama would list today just what Michigan State will throw against UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

A crowd of more than 3,500 turned out for a public showing of the Spartan tactics in an open house practice at East Los Angeles Junior College.

It was the first time there has been prior announcement by a visiting Big Ten team of a come-one, come-all workout.

Some of the assistant coaches were shaking their heads in amazement as "Coach" of the Year, Duffy Daugherty explained each series of Michigan State plays while the team romped through their formations.

"This is our quick kick," Daugherty would explain, while his team ran through the play, "and our fake kick, and our quick-kick hand off, and our lateral off the fake."

"We showed them about everything we used this year," Daugherty said afterwards. "I figure Red Sanders has us pretty well scouted so what's the harm in showing the folks our stuff."

Daugherty, talking over a portable public address system, introduced his players and exchanged quips with the enthusiastic and applauding crowd of fans.

UCLA staged a brisk 30-minute defensive scrimmage during its workout, "the best one yet" according to Coach Sanders.

Texas Cager, Benched In First Game, Hottest Player In League

AUSTIN, (AP)—He was benched when he failed to score for Texas in the first seven minutes of his first Southwest Conference game. But today he's the hottest basketball player in the league.

The name is Raymond Downs. He's listed as a forward, but he's so deadly on hook and jump shots and such a fine rebounder, Coach Thurman (Slue) Hull plays him at the post position.

Hull thinks Downs may prove the greatest player in the school's history.

Downs ran his season scoring total to 189 in seven games the past weekend as he led the Longhorns to the Blue-Gray Tournament championship at Montgomery, Ala.

His ambidextrous ability produced 31 points against Auburn, 29 against Old Miss and boosted his average to an even 27 points for seven games, tops in the Southwest Conference.

Take away his 45 points in two games with the semi-pro Phillips Oilers—which the NCAA won't allow for official statistical purposes—and his average for collegiate competition is 28.8, high on the list of national leaders.

His coach says he can't compare Downs with any previous Longhorn star because "he has such a variety of shots."

The 6-4 junior from San Antonio shoots his free throws right handed but surprises opponents by banging in most of his jump shots with his left hand.

That deadly marksmanship helped Downs score 400 points as a sophomore, one shy of the all-time school record of 401 held by John Hargis.

Downs would have set a new record had he not been over zealous about practicing. Working out on his own the Sunday before the season opened last year, he sprained an ankle.

He saw little action that first month, and his inability to score in the conference opener put him on the bench after seven minutes of play.

Downs broke loose the next game for 38 points against Taylor and rolled on to establish the highest average ever recorded by a Longhorn, 18.2 per game. He also set a league free-throw record of 23 for a single game and a school mark of 158 for the season.

Pastrano Takes Easy Decision Over Rex Layne

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A badly battered Rex Layne, once regarded as the most promising heavyweight in a decade, today predicted nothing can stop Willie Pastrano from going all the way to the championship "if he takes his time."

But wily Willie, the New Orleans middleweight, turned light heavyweight, turned heavyweight, showed little inclination last night to take his time as he breezed to a unanimous 10-round decision over the mauler from Lewiston, Utah.

Pastrano, who weighed in at a well-packed 185 pounds, danced jabbed his way into serious contention for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight crown and all but eliminated the fast-fading Layne from the picture.

"I can't see anybody stopping Pastrano if he only takes his time," signed the 208-pound Layne, bathing in a deep, raw wash over his left eye, Willie's target for last night. "He's the fastest I've ever seen."

Instead of hollering "bring on Rocky," however, Pastrano is considering a return to the light heavyweight ranks for another meeting with Detroit's Chuck Speiser.

"Everybody wants me to meet Speiser again," he said with a look at manager Whitey Esnealt. "I'd like to go wherever there's the most money."

Pastrano brought the crowd to its feet several times by abandoning his deft toe work to swap slugs with Layne. And at one point, he even sent the big boy into full retreat with a fifth round volley that opened the cut. The wounded eye bled every round thereafter.

Referee Frank Kercheval had Willie in front 7-2-1, Judge Pete Giaruso saw it 5-3-2 and Judge Eddie (Kid) Wolfe had Pastrano the winner 7-1-2.

Terp Gridders Go Home For Rest, Holiday

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Maryland's football team went home for Christmas vacations today for a rest and an opportunity to give some serious thought to what might happen when a speedy, lime-ripping offense collides with a stubborn, craggy defense.

The answer will be unfolded in Miami Jan. 2 when Coach Bud Wilkinson's high-scoring Sooners from Oklahoma meet unyielding Maryland in the Orange Bowl.

Singing the accustomed pre-game blues yesterday, Wilkinson saw Maryland as pointing for his No. 1 ranked team, a distinction he feels is psychologically bad.

Maryland's powerful defense and what Wilkinson feels is a psychological disadvantage are the chief Sooners problems, judging by statements from the Oklahoma campus.

Loss Of Tank Younger Severe Blow To Los Angeles Gridders

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—The loss of fullback Tank Younger is a staggering blow to the Los Angeles Rams as they try to revise their offense for the pro football championship game here next Monday against the Cleveland Browns.

Coach Sid Gillman didn't lose any time naming Younger's replacement. He will be the 230-pound Dan Towler, who has been in the injured reserve list for a month. Towler has reportedly been in disfavor with Gillman and has been used very little since the third game of the National Football League season.

Younger sustained a fracture of a neck vertebra in the Green Bay Game, Dec. 11. He had recovered from early season injuries and was a driving force in the Rams' drive to the Western Conference title. With him on the sidelines the big punch at the center of the line and Cleveland can look for Norm Van Brocklin's passing and end sweeps by the fleet rookie, Don Baller.

Behind Towler, Gillman has the 220-pound rookie linebacker from Georgia Tech, Larry Morris, who has seen service at fullback, and Tommy McCormick, who weighs only 186.

Eloy (Crazylegs) Hirsch, injured Dec. 4 against Philadelphia, is ready to go, but he probably will be spelled by Woodley Lewis, safety man who did a fine job of pass catching in relief.

Aside from Younger the Rams are in fairly good physical condition, but the loss of the pile driving fullback is bound to bumper the Los Angeles ground game.

San Francisco Fires Strader; 'Incompatible'

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers were in the market for a new coach today after firing one a year ago for failure to win a National Football League title and his successor yesterday on the grounds of "incompatibility" after a 4-8 season.

Coach Norman (Red) Strader, hired on a three-year contract last Dec. 23 to replace Lawrence (Buck) Shaw, was "relieved of his coaching duties," effective immediately, by Owner Tom Morabito.

"There was a little dissension, some resentment," Morabito said. "In a nutshell, the players were playing under Red and not for him. It was a case of incompatibility."

Morabito, admitting that "we have some cry babies on the club," said that "a lot of little things, like ordering meals and setting a bed time, kept building up."

"I don't think you can treat grown men like children. I'm not saying Red was wrong, maybe he was right; it's a matter of opinion. But it's easier to replace one man than 33, you'll have to admit."

Inventory Is Good Idea

EVERY BUSINESS with merchandise and stock usually takes an inventory prior to the new year. This is done, of course, for tax purposes but it still is a fine idea.

It gives the business firm a lot of valuable information if they only make the most of it. For instance it shows us just how much of a particular line of items or of one item we have in stock. From this we can draw a pretty good idea as to how well that article sold; whether it is worth stocking in the future; and whether we should order more.

It definitely gives us an idea of how much of certain lines of merchandise we have on hand and it may indicate we need to push that item or maybe we need to hold a sale and sell off those particular products before they get so old they are no longer useful or no longer of value.

Certainly an inventory gives us some idea of how much stock we are carrying; how much money we have invested; and perhaps gives us some clues as to what we should add to the line of merchandise we now have.

This inventory is a good thing for the merchant but it is also a good idea for the individual as well as the clubs, the organizations, the various groups to run a little inventory on themselves or on their undertakings.

Maybe they will learn they haven't done so well because perhaps they haven't done their best. Maybe some of the clubs, organizations or groups will learn they have done a lot of meeting, a lot of talking and maybe a little boasting but their accomplishments haven't been very much when they are checked out.

It is what we have accomplished and what we have done. It comes right back to the old idea that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating."

And so it is with our individual accomplishments or the so-called accomplishments of our groups, clubs, organizations—either they have value and merit when the final count is made or they have no value and our boasting, bragging and even our publicity has misrepresented the real facts.

Trappist Monks Only Hear, Sing, Pray, Think Of Christ's Coming To Earth At Christmastime

By FRANK WETZEL

HUNTSVILLE, Utah, (AP)—A tinseled tree, gaily wrapped gifts, a family feast, jokes and laughter and, maybe, a word or two about Jesus. That is Christmas for most Americans.

But not for 70 men living in a rugged, mile-high Utah valley. They pray and think, hear and sing of Jesus and of His coming to earth. That is their Christmas, and nothing more.

These men, who rarely use their voices except to praise God, are Trappist monks. There are roughly 700 like them celebrating Christmas this year in 11 monasteries scattered across the nation.

Although called Trappists, their real name is Cistercians, or Reformed Cistercians. It is an order of the Roman Catholic Church.

The monks at the Abbey of Our Lady of the Holy Trinity have renounced the world to become contemplatives. Their profession is prayer. Their function is not to teach, nor to win converts, but simply to love God.

With a few exceptions, such as the monk detailed to greet visitors, they do not speak in conversation. They exchange information by signs. They do not eat meat, fish or eggs. A typical meal consists of soup and cooked vegetables. Christmas Day the food will be something special — soup, two vegetables, homemade bread, cocoa, fruit and a few sweets.

On Utah Highway 39, leading east from Ogden, a tiny roadside sign reading simply "Monastery" shows visitors the way to the abbey. There is a silo, a barn—each with a humble cross amid the rolling fields of the 1,600-acre ranch. A dormitory and a church, the principal buildings, are converted quonset huts.

The observance of Christmas starts Dec. 24 at 5:30 a. m., when the festival of the nativity of Jesus Christ is solemnly announced in the church. Then one of the monks delivers the Christmas sermon. The High Mass of the Vigil is sung by the Abbot, which marks it as a special occasion.

The cloisters are decorated with greens. A crib and a representation of the Cave of Bethlehem, peopled with figurines, are erected in the church, all along simple, modest lines.

In the afternoon a bell begins to toll and the sound of heavy shoes sifts into the chapel. The Trappists file in, heads shaved except for the monastic crown, in long white robes. They genuflect in front of the altar and take their places in their stalls.

Then begins the first vespers of the Feast of the Nativity, one of the many magnificent Gregorian chants more than 1,000 years old.

Later, when the music is finished on the day before Christmas, the monks retire at 5 p. m., only to rise again at 9 p. m. They sing other Gregorian chants for two hours, then, at midnight, sing the Pontifical Mass.

They return to their straw pallets until 5:30 a. m. Christmas Day, when they again sing their chants and say Mass. Around 8 a. m. they get some cocoa, a piece of bread and—something different—a piece of home-made butter.

Sometime during the day they get the opportunity to write letters home, one of four occasions during the year when they may do so. The rest of the day is spent praying, thinking, singing their chants, until finally, at 7 p. m., they return to their hard beds and their Christmas will be over.

11 Airmen —

bre jet smashed into a B29 bomber in the air over Port St. Joe, about 200 miles up the Florida west coast, and killed three fliers. Three others were missing. Both planes were from Tyndall AFB at Panama City, Fla.

The Tampa planes fell dangerously close to a trailer park. Terrified residents said they thought an earthquake had struck. One plane exploded on contact and the other seconds later.

Spokesmen said the accident apparently occurred when the MacDill plane was having trouble with its landing gear and the Pinecastle craft flew underneath to take a look. This is often done.

Then both must have hit a down draft, causing them to collide. Two crewmen tried to jump to safety, but their chutes failed to open in the short space to the ground. The wreckage fell about half a mile from the trailer park and set fire to a pine thicket. Thirteen children were left fatherless in the holiday season tragedy.

A portion of the B29 bomber wreckage fell about five miles west of Port St. Joe, on busy U.S. 98, and barely missed a dozen beach houses.

"The planes collided with a very bright flash that lit up the sky," said Highway Patrolman Clyde Leroy Pfeiffer. "After the first explosion, they separated into two small balls of fire, then they exploded again."

"The main part of the B29 fell on the highway. A smaller part fell in the water just off from the beach and the main part of the smaller plane crashed in the woods about a quarter of a mile north of the highway."

"Three bodies were found on the highway near the fuselage of the big plane."

Witnesses said two or three parachutes were seen after the crash. Search parties went into the wooded area north of the highway to hunt wreckage of the jet.

Unofficial reports said the jet was acting as an interceptor on a simulated bombing run by the B29 and that the pilot apparently misjudged the distance between the two planes.

MacDill AFB listed its dead as Capt. Robert B. Harris, 34, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who was flying the plane; Capt. Samuel Brier III, 30, of Clearwater, Fla.; Maj. Frederick A. Clark, 36, of Fort Worth, Tex.; and 2nd Lt. Kenneth H. Teragawachi, 23, of Honolulu.

Pinecastle's dead were: Maj. Samuel L. Castleberry, 36, Adel, Ga., pilot of the plane; Capt. Robert Chamberlain, 39, of Spruce, Mich.; Capt. Arthur H. Miller, 31, of Lakeland, Fla.; and Capt. Lynn E. Hunter, 39, of Berkeley, Calif. The three men killed at Port St. Joe were identified as 1st Lt. Michael Lewis Cappola of Ansonia, Conn., 2nd Lt. Arthur F. Sevickley of Struthers, Ohio, and T. Sgt. Lested Strickland of Panama City.

Airman 2/c Dorland W. Wallace of Tyndall was listed as one of the two B29 crewmen still missing. The names of the other bomber crewmen and the jet pilot were withheld until next of kin were notified.

The highest priced mutuel payoff at Hialeah race track was not a winner. It was the $971.10 paid to place by Baal who ran second on Feb. 4, 1932.

Ferguson Steere —

holidays if the hearing is not completed by Thursday, this morning session was started earlier than usual, at 9 a.m.

Company executives still present for the hearing included President Bruce Steere and Vice President Cramer, and Rollo Kidwell, company attorney from Dallas, who is assisting attorney O. Russell Jones of San Antonio.

Already in its second week, the hearing gave indications of extending for some time.

Corporation Commissioner James Pickett insisted on introduction of all refinery company manifests available, after Commissioner Chairman John Block Jr., at a point yesterday interrupted the proceedings to say he thought there had been enough of the records entered to establish a track. Block said he felt further testimony would only incline toward repetitiousness.

The hearing was ordered by August, during a highway safety crack-down, when members of the SCC questioned the truck firm's highway safety record as seemingly out of line with good safety precautions.

Witnesses for Ferguson-Steere have testified that the company safety record stands well up to companies of its size and nature. Asst. Atty. Gen. Jack Smith introduced 179 refinery company manifests and drivers' logs of the firm in an effort to bring out any discrepancies which might exist. Forty-seven more were scheduled for presentation today.

Luther Oldham Sr., chief of field forces, held the witness chair all day yesterday.

While company officials were hard at work in defending the company's safety record before the commission, two Ferguson-Steere trucks were involved in accidents near Roswell within a three-hour period yesterday.

The first mishap occurred at 11 a.m. when the truck driven by Jess Hill of Dexter was struck in the rear by a pickup truck. Hill suffered head lacerations in the accident which occurred near the south city limits of Roswell.

At 12:30 p.m., another Ferguson-Steere truck, driven by Elmer Boone of Big Spring, Tex., was driver of the second Ferguson-Steere vehicle.

Boone later pleaded guilty to charge of reckless driving and paid a $15 fine in police court.

The majority of the Wilbourns' farm clubs will do the spring training at Waycross, Ga. under the supervision of farm director John Mullen and camp director Hugh Wise.

Hungarian Reds Setting Up Minefields But Talk Freedom

VIENNA (AP) — While Communist leaders talk about freer exchanges between East and West, the Hungarian Reds are setting up new barbed-wire entanglements, minefields, watch towers and other control devices along the Austrian-Hungarian border.

The purpose is to halt the increasing flow of refugees who risk death to flee westward.

Austria has become an easier haven for the refugees since 44,000 Russian occupation troops were withdrawn in September.

Now the refugees do not have to dodge the Red Army and Austria has pledged asylum to political refugees.

To Hungarian anti-Communists, as well as to the Austrian border population, the Iron Curtain has become a hated symbol of oppression. Bearing this fact in mind, Austria's Foreign Minister Dr. Leopold Figl recently announced that he would make a formal request for its removal when a Hungarian economic delegation comes to Vienna early next year.

The most difficult part of an escape from Red Hungary is not so much getting through the curtain itself, as approaching it unobserved. Austrian Police Inspector Viktor Pinterits said.

The inspector was born in the border village of Klingenberg and has been on Iron Curtain guard duty for 10 years.

"Before the fugitives come to the Iron Curtain barriers, they have to pass through an 11-mile security zone, which runs along the frontier with Austria. All persons in this zone are made to carry special passes and identity cards. The local population has strict orders to report all strangers," Pinterits said.

"Because of the tight security measures surrounding the border region, very few Hungarians from the interior and Budapest ever get through. I am quite sure that nine of every 10 Hungarian refugees get caught along the route in the Red dragnet. Those reaching Austria at the rate of some 35 a month nearly all come from the security zone itself and are familiar with the border region and the mines."

Russians Using TV As Medium For Propaganda

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Practically nobody knows anything about the nature and extent of television inside the Soviet Union today—except some Russians.

So it's worth listening to William Benton, former assistant secretary of state and senator from Connecticut, who recently returned from Russia with what appears to be the most extensive information yet available on the subject. He spent a month collecting material on entertainment and the arts for the Encyclopedia Britannica, of which he is the publisher.

"The Communist leaders shrewdly realize," he says, "that television is the most effective medium for propaganda ever available. They'll use it to its fullest effects, for the Russian people are infatuated with television. One can't help but be frightened by Russia's technological advances and the effectiveness of its indoctrination techniques. They pose an element of real danger to the people of the United States."

These are some of the things Benton learned.

There are now about one million TV sets in use apart from those in factories and public places where groups gather to watch.

There are now 36 million in the United States.

There are now 11 stations operating independently of one another.

There are 425 TV stations in 264 American cities.

By 1958 the Russians plan to have 31 stations and six to seven million sets in operation. In Moscow there will be two black and white stations and one color station. Relay points will tie all stations to Moscow. U. S. industrial sources expect at least 50 million sets in use by 1958.

There are no advertisements of commercial products. But there's heavy advertisement of communism and the latest propaganda line. Russian television, in short completely the instrument of the Soviet government.

Businessmen Could Be Asking Santa Claus For Many Things

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Belief in Santa Claus doubtless is more common among the little Virginias of our land than among hardheaded American businessmen.

But the titans of industry might well be writing letters to the good saint, for all we know, if so, here are some things they may be asking him to put under their Christmas trees:

Please, Santa, bring a tax cut—almost any old tax cut: on our profits, our take home pay or on the products we make and hope to sell. At the same time, naturally, we expect you to see that the budget gets balanced, the federal debt reduced, and national defenses made ever stronger.

As little politics as possible, too, please. It will be an election year, but don't let them make business the whipping boy. Don't notice if big business gets bigger. At the same time, help little business.

Let everybody make cents of money, and nobody fail except maybe one or two of our more troublesome competitors.

And go easy on those congressional probes. We spend countless man hours preparing for them. They come big, in time and money. And when they're over, often as not we just wonder what the shooting was all about.

For that matter, you've no idea, Santa, how much time we spend filling out government forms, how many clerks we hire just to keep Washington informed about—sometimes we aren't sure what about.

If the new year brings a guaranteed annual wage for labor, please, Santa, give us guaranteed annual profits, our stockholders guaranteed annual dividends, and the dads of the land guaranteed annual bank accounts riding high above the first of the month bills.

Then drop in our stocking a glossary of terms to show what the Russians mean when they say something. We look up their words in ordinary dictionaries but the meanings obviously aren't the same. We could all sleep better, plan better, enjoy the fruits of peace and prosperity more, if we could just be sure that what we think we see is really peace and prosperity with any kind of lasting quality.

And, Santa, something for ourselves: please see to it that next year we get tariff cuts on everything we buy as purchasing agents for our firms or as individual customers in the stores—but be sure, of course, to see that we get a higher tariff on everything that we make in our particular factory.

Then see if you can't bring some peace and quiet in this squabble between the auto makers and their dealers. Make sure that both grow richer and richer, but that we get a real good buy ourselves way below list price when we go shopping for a new car.

Finally, Santa, if it isn't asking too much, settle that farm problem. Somehow make the surpluses of farm products disappear with a profit to the government and without costing the taxpayers a cent—and also without hurting the feelings of our friends and allies who themselves have farm products to sell on the world market. Let farm prices rise so that the farmers will have more money to spend on the things we make.

But make real sure that if prices rise for the farmers the cost of living doesn't go up for us.

Claim Playboy Killed In Crash Was Poor Pilot

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A flight instructor testified yesterday that wealthy playboy Joel Throne was unqualified to be flying in weather existing the night of Oct. 8 when his plane crashed into an apartment killing him and eight others.

The witness was Edward Perlis of Long Beach, Calif., who appeared at a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing called to determine cause of the tragedy.

Perlis said he had checked Throne out in the plane when he bought it last June. He said the pilot was slipshod in his instrument check before takeoff, erratic in his control of flight, poor in his radio procedure and "timid" in his handling of the plane.

Asked how he would rate Throne as a pilot, Perlis replied: "Very poor."

Philip N. Goldstein, investigator in charge of the CAB inquiry, said Throne was first licensed as a private pilot in 1935 and was issued a commercial license in 1938. His latest license was issued on Feb. 26, 1953.

Goldstein introduced into the record a report that the playboy had been arrested 90 times for automobile traffic violations and 36 of them were for speeding.

Israel, Arabs Apparently Agreed No Peace Talks Expected Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Israeli and Arab spokesmen who have been talking separately about terms of a possible agreement appeared today on one thing only: no peace talks are likely soon.

Informed Israeli sources said yesterday Israel has told the State Department of a package of items on which it might be willing to make concessions. It did not include cession of any territory in return of Arab refugees.

These sources emphasized that no optimistic conclusions should be drawn from the U. S.-Israel talks. They said there is no evidence of any increased willingness on the Arab side to discuss terms Israel would consider.

Abdel Khalek Hassouna, secretary-general of the eight-nation Arab League, met newsmen after a call yesterday on Secretary of State Dulles. Asked about prospects for Israel-Arab relations, he replied, "I don't think they are at all encouraging," as a result of the Israelis' assault on Syrian positions near the Sea of Galilee. Hassouna would not say whether he had given Dulles terms that the Arabs would consider for a basic settlement. He referred newsmen to public statements he and other Arab leaders have made.

These have spelled out continued Arab insistence, as a starting point for talks, on the U. N.-proposed 1947 boundaries for Israel—more restricted than the present ones—and willingness to offer refugees a chance to return.

Other Arab diplomatic sources said the Arab countries have not given the State Department any outline of position comparable to the Israeli one.

The Israeli sources said their package of proposals was based on talks in which there could be no question of territorial cession, except for minor frontier changes. They said Israel also stands firm on the principle of resettling in other Arab lands the former Palestine Arabs who left the country, but would discuss compensation for them under the Dulles suggestions.

These include a loan by the United States, and possibly other countries, to help Israel meet the compensation cost.

Robert Fulton's steamboat, "Clermont," began regular service in 1807.

Yule Carol Sways Judge To Leniency

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Strains of "Silent Night" filtered into the Common Pleas courtroom yesterday as 22-year-old Carl C. Martin was convicted of purse snatching.

Judge Harvey Straub had to decide whether to send Martin to prison or put him on probation. Hearing the carol, the judge said: "That does it."

He decided the prisoner should have another chance, with five years probation.

While choristers from county departments on the floor behind continued their caroling, another defendant came before the judge. He was Moses Hinton, 41, of Detroit, convicted of car theft.

The judge, giving Hinton two years' probation, noticed the man was wearing the same light-colored coat he had when arrested last August.

"Just a minute," the judge said. "I've got a coat here I don't know very much about."

So Hinton tried on the "overcoat" in the courtroom, finding it fit, was sent on his way.

Garment Workers Pledge Million To Israel Work

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Ladies Garment Workers Union has pledged $1,000,000 for projects in Israel, a gift which union President David Dubinsky believes to be the largest in labor history.

Dubinsky announced yesterday the union will give one million dollars in four yearly installments for a 200-bed hospital near Beer-sheva in the Negev. Two other immediate payments of $50,000 each will go to complete a sports stadium at Haifa and to replace out-worn equipment at the International Trade School there.

Dubinsky said he expects union locals and joint boards, representing 440,000 workers in the United States and Canada, to provide about half of the money from their treasuries. The rest is to come from voluntary contributions by union members.

Actress Surprised As Much As Others In Winning Award

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The actress who was selected for the most popular performance of the year was just as surprised by the honor as was some of Hollywood.

Some 15 million moviegoers voted in the Audience Award poll and Jennifer Jones came out on top for her role in "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing."

"It was a real surprise," she says, "and a very nice one. It was a big thrill for me."

In some ways, the Audie made more of an impression on her than the Oscar she won in 1944 for "Song of Bernadette."

"I was just starting in the business then," she explained. "When you're young and ambitious, you don't fully realize some of the wonderful things that happen to you. You take them a little for granted."

"Now I realize the value of such things and appreciate them more."

Miss Jones said it was especially pleasant to be honored by the public after having had many flops. What's this—a star admitting she has had flops?

"Oh, sure," she said disarmingly. "I've had them—perhaps more flops than hits. It's discouraging to do something you hope is going to please everyone and then find out they don't like it. But there's one good thing—you always find someone who likes a picture you've done, no matter how big a flop it is. That's the strange thing about the movies."

Noted Explorer's Widow Dies At 92

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—The widow of North Pole discoverer Adm. Robert Peary, died yesterday. Mrs. Josephine Diebitsch Peary was 92 years old.

She accompanied Peary on several of his arctic expeditions. She was the mother of two arctic adventurers, Mrs. Marie Peary Stafford of Portland, widely publicized as "The Snow Baby," at her 1893 birth less than 13 degrees from the pole; and Robert E. Peary Jr. of Brunswick, a construction engineer who has specialized in arctic building.

Born in Washington, D. C., the daughter of Smithsonian Institution Prof. Herman H. Diebitsch, she met Peary when he was a Naval engineer. They were married in 1888. At Peary's death in 1920, eight years after his dash to the pole, Mrs. Peary settled in Maine.

English Lady Opens Art Show, All Are Nudes

LONDON (AP)—Marguit Dalmas—a descendant of Johann Sebastian Bach—has opened a one-woman art show in London featuring nude ladies in trees.

"I wouldn't call my paintings Rabelaisian," said Miss Dalmas, a sloop-eyed blonde. "I'd call them revealing. It's my own word. It means they reveal a lot."

Miss Dalmas, who came over from France, said she got many of her pictorial ideas from visits to continental nudist camps.

"One does see strange sights in a nudist camp, you know, but frankly, I never saw a nude climb a tree. That's my idea. I like to climb trees and lie on the branches. Hence pictures about such things."

All of her nudes are women. "You couldn't paint a picture of a nude man in a tree," she said, "that would look just too silly."

Miss Dalmas has exhibited at the "Independants," the "Surindependants" and the Weil Galleries in Paris and the sporting club of Monte Carlo. She was born in Hungary, but is French by marriage.

To properly enjoy her pictures she believes a spectator should eat.

"Have some salted peanuts," she said, "and be careful not to drop that dish. It's by Picasso."

Time Finally Catches Up With Orleans

By PETER BUCKLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (AP)—Villagers of Island of Orleans Parish will attend Midnight Mass this Christmas Eve in a modern stone church.

For more than 200 years parishioners in the village near Quebec have worshipped in a little wooden church built in 1717.

Time at last caught up with the St. Lawrence River's Island. The church has become a museum. Horse-drawn sleighs, with bells tinkling, will still bring villagers to Mass this Christmas Eve, but they will share parking space beside late-model cars.

With the spread of English influence, sweeping changes have come over the "Jour de Noel" throughout the Quebec province in the last few decades.

New Year's Day, until recent years, was traditionally reserved for visits to neighbors and relatives, the giving of presents and hospitality. Now it is still a time to visit but Christmas has become the day when Pere Noel Father Christmas makes his trip from the North Pole.

One tradition that has hung on, although considerably deflated, is the "reveillon." On Christmas morning after Midnight Mass, the gathers around the Christmas tree—another innovation—for the exchange of gifts followed by a meal. This meal nowadays is inclined to be a modest affair of sandwiches, or a cold buffet and fruit cake or cookies.

The Christmas Day dinner itself is almost a duplicate of that enjoyed in English-speaking families—stuffed turkey, baked potatoes, vegetables and dessert, usually pie. There is little of the strict French tradition in the meals.

Two things that make for SAFER driving!

The first and most important thing is you—the driver. The courtesy, care, and common sense you show count more than anything else.

The second thing is the car itself. All cars are safer today. That's shown by the number of accidents in relation to the number of miles passenger cars are driven. The figure's down sharply.

Chevrolet has always made safety a major consideration, introducing many such features as the all-steel top, into its field. And this '56 Chevrolet is the safest one ever built. Its lively new power means safer passing. Its special Ball-Race steering—oversize brakes with Anti-Dive control—bring easier, surer driving. The Unisteel construction and safety door latches of its Fisher Body—the nailed-to-the-road stability that comes from advanced suspension and better balance—the sweeping panoramic windshield—all these things add to your safety.

Seat belts with or without shoulder harness? Instrument panel padding? Of course, they're available at extra cost. As your Chevrolet dealer, we'll be glad to show you the many safety features of the '56 Chevrolet.
