Muleshoe Mules Take On Cooper Pirates Friday

When the Muleshoe Mules travel to Lubbock Friday night they will be taking on the undefeated Cooper Pirates. The Pirates played the Crosbyton Chiefs last week defeating the Chiefs to the tune of 28-6. Last week the Mules played the Denver City Mustangs.

The Mules played the Mustangs in the Benny Douglass Stadium. The Mustangs took the opening kick-off. Fabian Flores managed to rake up 43 yards and 3 first downs. Mustang Bobby Azam proved to be the Mustangs powerhouse and unstoppable by the Mule defense.

It was the Mustangs ball until they fumbled with 9:38 left in the first quarter. The Mules recovered the fumble and after a few pass attempts were forced to punt the ball away at 7:45 left in the quarter.

The Mustangs once again had the ball and with 4:25 left in the first quarter Denver City Mustang Jeffery Rogers scored. Manual Tovar kicked the extra point.

With 4:20 left in the quarter the Mules took possession of the ball and Jonathan Villa moved the ball upfield 24 yards. The Mules were forced to punt the ball away with 2:27 left in the quarter.

The Mustangs were still in control of the ball at the beginning of the second quarter. At 11:19 in the second quarter, the Mustangs tried for a 35 yard field goal but were unsuccessful.

With 11:14 left in the quarter the Mules took possession of the ball and after a few plays punted the ball back to the Mustangs.

Industrial Foundation Sets Public Meeting

The Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation has announced a public meeting to be held in the Muleshoe High School Auditorium Tuesday, October 1, at 7 p.m. William Barry, Director of Management Services with the Texas Department of Corrections will offer a program on the proposed corrections facilities for Bailey County.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide information regarding the type of facility to be constructed, the site selection process, and to answer any questions that you might have regarding the facility.

A typical facility would provide 1,000 to 2,250 beds. The unit would provide employment for 300 to 800 people in jobs ranging in description from clerical to correctional officers and unit administrators. Annual payroll for the facility would range from over $6 million to about $17 million. Salaries would range from $12,000 to $37,000 annually.

Jay Messenger speaking for the Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation says, "It is vitally important that the meeting be well attended and that people are provided an opportunity to have THEIR questions answered first hand."

Barry serves on the state selection committee for corrections facilities in the State of Texas. Therefore, it is extremely important that there be a large number of people in attendance at this meeting. The amount of community support for this proposed corrections facility is one of the criteria considered by the committee.

Cross Country Place In Hereford Meet

Coach Cranford and the Muleshoe Cross-Country teams travelled to Hereford on September 21. The girls placed fifth but they defeated all of their district opponents that competed in the meet. The Muleshoe boys placed second, with 58 points, but Canyon won the meet with 33.

Individual results are as follows: Andy Crawford, fourth, 17:07; Corley Hutton, eighth, Cont. Page 6, Col. 2

Free Enterprise Students, Director Gives Program

Muleshoe's chapter of Rotary met Tuesday, September 24 in the Bailey County Civic Center with about 80 members and guests in attendance. President, Randy Field recognized members of Jean Allison's honors history class at Muleshoe High School as special guests. About 15 other visitors were introduced.

R.A. Bradley announced plans for a project to re-roof the Boy Scout hut. Volunteers were asked to bring shovels, hammers and nail aprons to the hut at 8 a.m. on October 19. Cost of the project will be about $1,000.

J.D. Cage introduced Dick Laird, executive director of the Center for Business and Economic Education at Lubbock Christian University, who brought the program.

Cargile Wins This Week's Contest

There must have been a lot of upsets in football this week. This week's Merchants Football Contest only had five players to miss six games, while others missed up to ten. Better luck next time.

To determine the winner we had to go to the tie breakers, since the winners all missed six games. This week's winner, Wade Cargile of Farwell, missed six games and was correct right down to the point on the tiebreakers. He received $10.00 and 10 points toward the grand prize.

Travis Bessire missed six games and was 10 points off on the tiebreakers score. Bessire received six points and $7.50. Francisco Torres also missed six games and was 11 points off on the tiebreakers for a third place win. He received four points and $5.00.

Others who missed six games were Tom Burgess. He was 19 points off on the tiebreakers. Also missing six games was Nona Blake Douglass, who missed the tiebreakers by 37 points.

Its still anyone's game, so keep those entries coming in. Tom Burgess has a total of 16 points, a first and second place; R.G. Wilson and Wade Cargile, 10 points each; Jimmie Chapman and Travis Bessire, six points each; and John Graves James Hanson and Francisco Torres, each have four points.

Flu Vaccine Available Shots Given On Tuesdays

The Texas Health Department told the Journal Monday afternoon that the influenza vaccine is in and will be available at the Health Department each Tuesday without appointment.

Because influenza (flu) is usually not life threatening in healthy individuals and most people recover fully, health officials emphasize the use of vaccine for the elderly and people with other health problems which make these individuals more likely to be seriously ill or to die from the flu or its complications. People who after light exercise become short of breath due to diseases affecting their heart or lungs, and people who have low resistance to infections, are likely to be more seriously affected by the flu.

Persons over 65 years of age, even if they are healthy, or adults and children with long term heart or lung problems which caused them to see a doctor regularly, or to be admitted to a hospital for care during the past year should receive the vaccine, according to the health department.

They also recommend that people of any age who during the past year have regularly seen a doctor or have been admitted to a hospital for treatment for kidney disease, called Health Occupation Students of America to encourage students to start careers in the health field. In addition, SIFE has written a workbook called, "How to Plan a Business."

Recently, Southwestern Bell has awarded the students in SIFE a grant that will fund continued efforts in this direction. This has helped provide a sophisticated computer network that will assist in the work of the program.

SIFE has also started a student emergency loan program that benefits all interested students at LCU.

SIFE started an ethics seminar that has been presented to many area groups. Already, SIFE has shipped its educational tools to 22 states.

Workshop Offered At Halfway

Producers wanting to learn more about developing financial statements to improve their record keeping should sign up now for a new course to be taught Oct. 2 and 3 at the Texas A&M University Computer Training and Education Center at Halfway. This course will utilize Quicken4, a low cost, easy-to-use cash record keeping system that is popular among South Plains farmers.

With the decrease in the cost of computers and the improvements in low-cost, high quality software, computerized cash record keeping is an option for more and more farmers, said Dr. Jackie Smith, Economist and management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Lubbock. In our rapidly changing agricultural environment it becomes increasingly important to have, at our fingertips, information for making decisions at our fingertips, he said.

Participants in the course need to be familiar with the Quicken software and have used it enough to be comfortable with transaction entry. The course will begin with a review of Quicken4, highlighting entering, memorizing and splitting transactions and the use of accounts, categories and classes. Other review topics will include report options and shortcuts to speed transaction entry. Transferring between accounts, customizing filtering and closing out a year Cont. Page 6, Col. 2

The Industrial Foundation wants and needs the support of this community to make this a possibility. Jay gave some of the qualifications of a system like this. Some of the benefits for all of the community and it looks real good. There has been a good story in the news about this. This. There will be a community wide meeting on October 1 at the Mulshoe High School with William Berry giving the program and answer-

Football Highlights

Florida State, the team picked by many to be the 1991 national champion, hasn't disappointed anyone to date. The Seminoles opened in August with a convincing 44-28 win over Brigham Young. Tulane was a 38-11 victim followed by Western Michigan, 58-0. Florida State was our 5th-ranked team at the conclusion of the 1990 season. After completing a 9 and 2 season-losing only to Auburn and Miami, they beat Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. Michigan hosts the Seminoles Saturday in the Game of the Week. Three weeks ago, the Wolverines almost sputtered themselves into an opening upset loss to Boston College, but recovered in the second half to win 35-13. Two weeks ago, Michigan beat Notre Dame, 24-14. We favor Florida State over Michigan Saturday.

Mississippi State won only one game during the 1988 season while losing ten. The past two seasons, 5-6. The Bulldogs may be on the move under new coach Jackie Sherrill who returned to coaching this year after leaving Texas A&M in 1988. State destroyed Cal-Fullerton in its opener 47-3, upset Texas 13-6, following by a big 48-0 win over Tulane. Last week, the Bulldogs met Tennessee. Saturday, the challenge is just as difficult: Southeast Conference opponent, Florida.

Two tough Saturdays. We're picking the Gators.

Our picking percentage through games of Saturday, September 14th: 311 right and 109 wrong. Average, .740.

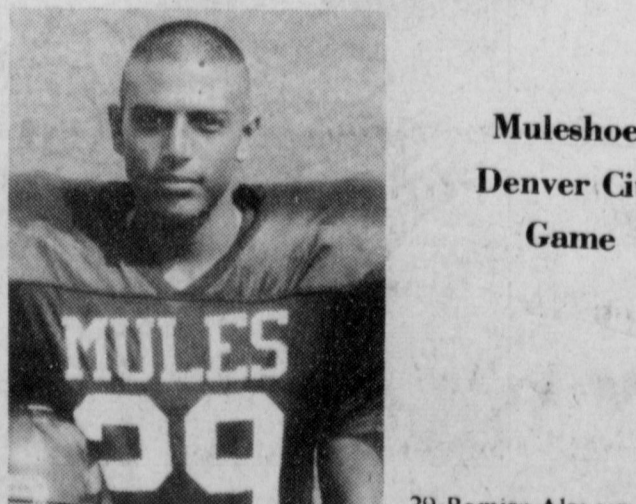

The annual state of North Carolina shoot-out between the Tar Heels and the Wolfpack takes place in Raleigh Saturday. N.C. State has won the last three including last year's 12-9 squeaker. This year, the Wolfpack again. And the real biggie in the Atlantic Coast Conference this week matches last year's #1 and #2 teams, Georgia Tech and Clemson. The Yellow Jackets squeezed out a 21-19 thriller in '90 on their way to their undefeated season. The game is at Clemson, and we think the Tigers will win it.

Enjoy Totally Texas Menu

By Rick Perry, Texas Agriculture Commissioner

Americans today enjoy the most plentiful, healthful and affordable food supply in the world. Our farmers and ranchers generate a bounty of the highest quality and purity. And they do so with such efficiency that we spend less for food than any other country in the world.

In Texas, our food and fiber system is our state's second largest industry. We are a leading producer of a host of food products. In fact, it may surprise you to know the extent of the commodities raised here. They're as diverse as the people who grow them.

Texas is known for its beef, red grapefruit, winter vegetables, spring onions and a whole range of Mexican food products. But did you know that we also produce flavored rice, wild game, gourmet cheeses, tilapia, free-range chicken, rabbit sausage, cottonseed cooking oil and even specialty herbs?

If you didn't, if you are surprised by any of the Texas-grown goods I just mentioned, I want to encourage you to contact us at the Texas Department of Agriculture. Use us as a resource. Our marketing specialists can serve as a link between consumers who want to buy menus, too. The diversity of our goods makes a "Totally Texas" menu totally possible. Think about it--a special menu featuring a full array of Texas products. It will be a meal your guests will never forget.

A "Totally Texas" menu might feature: Fresh Gulf coast shrimp cocktail, French 1015 onion soup, grilled axis venison or Texas beef tenderloin, winter garden vegetable medley, aromatic rice with Texas mushrooms, fresh blueberry-peach cobbler or chocolate-pecan decadence cake, 1988 Cabernet Sauvignon and Texas sparkling waters.

Whether this particular menu tempts your taste buds or not, my point is this: Texas produces a wide variety of wholesome and exceptional commodities--grown, in some cases, not far from your tables. So why not take advantage of the proximity and the quality? Buy Texas whenever you can. We all benefit, producer and consumer alike.

Sweet Music
Nature arranges things nicely--she always gives us the kind of voice that our own ears enjoy hearing.

60 Years Ago

About two weeks ago in our neighboring city of Plainview its only bank was forced to close its doors, and since has been trying to organize for renewal of business. Such closings are disastrous, not only to the town in which a given financial institution is located, to its depositors and stock-holders generally, but also to the surrounding areas. Reports are to the effect this action was the result of factionalism and other inter-municipal strifes which leaves an otherwise excellent town in a bad way. It should be a decided lesson to other towns.

"We haven't had our throats cut yet, not by a long shot," declared Bailey County Agriculture Agent J.K. Adams Friday following his appraisal of effects on crops of three days of cool temperatures and almost continuous rain. The county agent was of the opinion that except for cotton and tomatoes, rain benefits to grain sorghum and alfalfa offset weather damage during the three days. The county agent emphasized that his appraisal was based on the most recent rains and noted that it was obvious that sunshine and a normal freeze date will determine the outcome of the 1971 crop. He said harvest of some of the estimated 30,000 acres of corn in the county had indicated yields in excess of 8,000 pounds in some fields. Jack Little who was about ready to harvest his corn crop when last week's rains came said corn growers were in better shape now than they were this time last year because the corn borer had done less damage.

Parents of the couple are John and Jody Thomas of Miami and Bennie and Carolyn Stancell of West Camp.

The church was decorated with heart candleabras with archways in the middle. The sanctuary pews were decorated with draped bows and candles decorated the windows.

Music for the wedding was provided by six singers from the 16th and Pile Church of Christ in Clovis, N.M.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, John Thomas. She chose a white dress with ruffles from the waist to the end of the train. It had a fitted bodice and ruffled sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of callallilies and carnations with daisies.

In keeping with tradition, the bride wore her Grandmother's senior ring as something old. Something new was pearl earrings and a necklace. Something borrowed was her sister-in-law's slip and something blue was a blue garter.

Samantha Womack of Canyon served as matron of honor. She wore a peach dress with yellow ruffled sleeves and carried a carnation, callalily and daisy cascade.

Bridesmaids were Amber Grantham and Robin Grantham, both sisters of the bride of Miami. They wore floral yellow dresses with peach ruffled sleeves.

Kyle Stancell of West Camp, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Steven Stancell, brother of the groom, of Oklahoma Lane; Kevan Taylor, cousin of the groom; Scott Taylor, cousin of the groom; and Greg Taylor, cousin of the groom, all of Abilene.

Flower girls were Angela Billingsley of Lariat and Meagan Miller of Farwell.

Ushers were Robbie White of Lariat and Devin Vaughan of Farwell.

The wedding reception was held at the Lariat Church of Christ. Decorations were a lattice board decorated with draping peach bows and a peach bride's table with peach flavored wedding cake. The groom's table was yellow with tractors, corn and cotton decorations and chocolate pudding cake.

NROTC Scholarships Available

By Ron Vanasden

The U.S. Navy has announced the opening of competition for the 1992 Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) Scholarship Program, according to Petty Officer Jim Foster, NROTC Coordinator for east central New Mexico, West Texas, and Oklahoma and Southern Kansas.

"The 1992 four-year NROTC Scholarship Program," said Foster, "is available to high school students who are U.S. citizens, and who will graduate before August 1992. NROTC Scholarships are also available for those wishing to pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing.

The NROTC Program, founded in 1926, offers young men and women an opportunity to qualify for commissions in the Navy and Marine Corps while attending college. As the largest single source of Regular Navy and Marine Corps officers, the NROTC Scholarship PROGRAM fulfills a vital role in providing mature young men and women for leadership and management positions in an increasingly technical Navy.

Foster said students are selected through a highly competitive national selection process and receive tuition and other financial benefits that can be worth as much as $70,000 at many of the country's leading colleges and universities.

MRS. CAREY STANCELL
(nee Kathy Grantham)

"Such factors as high school records, college board scores, extracurricular activities and leadership qualities play an important role in the selection process," Foster explained.

According to Foster, NROTC Scholarship students are appointed midshipmen, U.S. Naval Reserve, by the Secretary of the Navy, and granted the compensations and benefits authorized by law for a period not to exceed four years of undergraduate study.

Foster stated that during these years of college training, the Navy pays tuition, cost of textbooks, fees of an instructional nature, such as lab fees, and a subsistence allowance of $100 per month for a maximum of 40 months.

"The program is open for applications from high school juniors who will be graduating prior to August 1993," said Foster.

Applications and additional information are available by contacting Petty Officer Jim Foster, 1209 University Ave., Lubbock, TX 79401 or by calling collect 806-744-3922 or by talking to your high school guidance counselor.

LETTER OF COMMENDATION--Elmer Depalma was recently presented a letter of commendation aboard the U.S.S. Chancellorsville. The announcement was made by Captain Gordon H. Rheinstrom of the U.S. Navy. operations in various locations. SIFE administers tests to students on elements in the business marketplace. A recent SIFE phone survey quizzed residents of the South Plains area on aspects of the business marketplace in the United States today.

Another of SIFE's missions is to promote the balancing of the federal budget. The group sees a need to alert the public on the necessity of bringing this budget back into balance.

Along with its emphasis on business ethics, SIFE has organized a group of speakers who provide talks on contemporary business issues.

SIFE has bought advertisements in various local and national media to promote the continuation of its work. They emphasize the importance of educating people of other nations about the roots of free enterprise.

"You never know how far a free enterprise idea will go," says Laird. "Our story needs to be told across the disciplines."

Laird said that when asked why he was retiring, Johnny Carson said that it was because his audience no longer could laugh at this monologue. He believes that TV viewers are no longer informed enough about current issues to laugh at jokes made about them.

Citing this country's 3 trillion dollar deficit, Laird noted that we as Americans still pay numerous unseen taxes. He called upon his listeners to help make the U.S. a better place to live by being informed.

Laird concluded by stating one of SIFE's purposes--that of motivating America to help Eastern bloc nations become free and independent.

Viewers Petition CBS For Guns Of Paradise Return

"Viewers Voice, Inc." a national viewers' organization, announces the delivery of 7,367 signatures to CBS Broadcast Group President, Howard Stringer, petitioning CBS to return the cancelled western family series Guns Of Paradise to the air. The signatures represent viewers in 47 states, the District of Columbia, Canada and Guam, as well as 63 veterans of Operation Desert Storm.

"Viewers Voice, Inc." is a non-profit organization and is not a censorship group. It strives to keep quality and alternative programming on the air. Currently, the status of the hour-long drama is of special concern to the members of "Viewers Voice, Inc."

Many feel that the Nielsen rating system is totally inadequate for gauging nationwide viewing habits or viewer satisfaction due to its selection process for "Nielsen families" and the small numbers involved. This certainly seems true in the case of GUNS OF

PARADISE.

GUNS OF PARADISE was placed in typically poor weekend timeslots and received little promotion. With proper "handling" GUNS OF PARADISE could be successful considering its broad appeal to both rural and urban audiences, old and young, male and female.

The sponsors of GUNS OF PARADISE will also receive results of this petition effort, including demographic information.

Chamber Comments

By Carolyn Johnson

Thank you, for making me feel so welcome in my new endeavor as Chamber Manager. Coming into the job less than two weeks before the Mule Days/County Fair Celebration was a definite challenge. Your support and community spirit brought it all together the way only "Muleshoeites" know how to do it.

We appreciate all of you who took part in the activities. As most of you know, this was the first time ever that the two events were combined with the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, the Muleshoe Activities Committee, the Jenny Slippers, and the Heritage Foundation all working together. We solicit any feedback or ideas for future Mule Days Celebrations.

One of our goals for the year is to keep the community aware of what is happening at the Chamber. You need to know what the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is doing to promote tourism and to promote Muleshoe as a place to live, work and own a business. This weekly column called "Chamber Comments" is just one step in achieving this goal and improving the lines of communications.

A weekly feature in the column will be "This Week's Bouquet". Recipients will be individuals, groups, or organizations that have gone above and beyond the call of duty to assist the Chamber. After much thought and consideration, this week's bouquet goes to the Muleshoe High School Band under the direction of Mr. Carlos Acevedo for its outstanding performance in the Mule Days Parade. Our office has received many calls praising the band and expressing delight in their participation in the parade.

A special rose in this bouquet goes to Mr. Acevedo. In addition to the band marching in the parade and later performing at the Muleshoe Activities Committee program at the fair, Mr. Acevedo also volunteered his time to be a sitting target on the Dunkin' Booth for our Ambassadors/Ambassadoresses. And remember, all of this was on a Saturday following his involvement in the Friday night football game at Idalou!

With this kind of community commitment and support, how can we at the Chamber look for anything but the best year ever for 1991-92?

might cause serious illness and complications in persons infected with AIDS virus, these individuals should receive influenza vaccine.

Persons who should not be given the flu shot include those with an allergy to eggs that causes dangerous reactions if they eat eggs or anyone who has ever been paralyzed with Guillain-Barre syndrome should seek advice from their doctor about special risks that might exist in their cases.

Women who are or might be pregnant should consult with their doctor and persons who are ill and have a fever should delay vaccination until the fever and other temporary symptoms have gone.

The viruses that cause flu frequently change, so people who have been infected or given a flu shot in previous years may become infected with a new strain. Because of this, and because any immunity produced by the flu shot will possibly decrease in the year after vaccination, persons in the high-risk groups listed should be vaccinated each year.

At 8:36 the Mustangs fumbled the ball and Mule Michael Hardwick recovered it. Unable to move the ball, the Mules were intercepted by Mustang Manuel Tovar who ran the ball 80 yards into the endzone. The extra point was good.

The Mules once again had control of the ball, but was unable to move it and had to punt back to the Mustangs. Gage Angeley intercepted a Mustang pass attempt with 8:28 left in the quarter. The Mules had to punt the ball back after they were unable to move the ball.

The Mustangs were unable to move the ball and punted it back to the Mules. With 1:31 left in the quarter, the Mules fumbled the ball and the Mustangs recovered it, and ran into the endzone with 1:07 left in the quarter. The PAT was good.

Once again the Mules were unable to move the ball and fumbled. Denver City recovered.

The Mustangs again capitalized on the Mule mistakes and scored with :01 left in the quarter.

The Mules had control at the beginning of the second half. They were unable to move the ball upfield and at 10:13 punted the ball back to the Mustangs.

After a few pass attempts and some rushing plays the Mustangs were back in the endzone with 6:43 showing on the clock. The PAT was good.

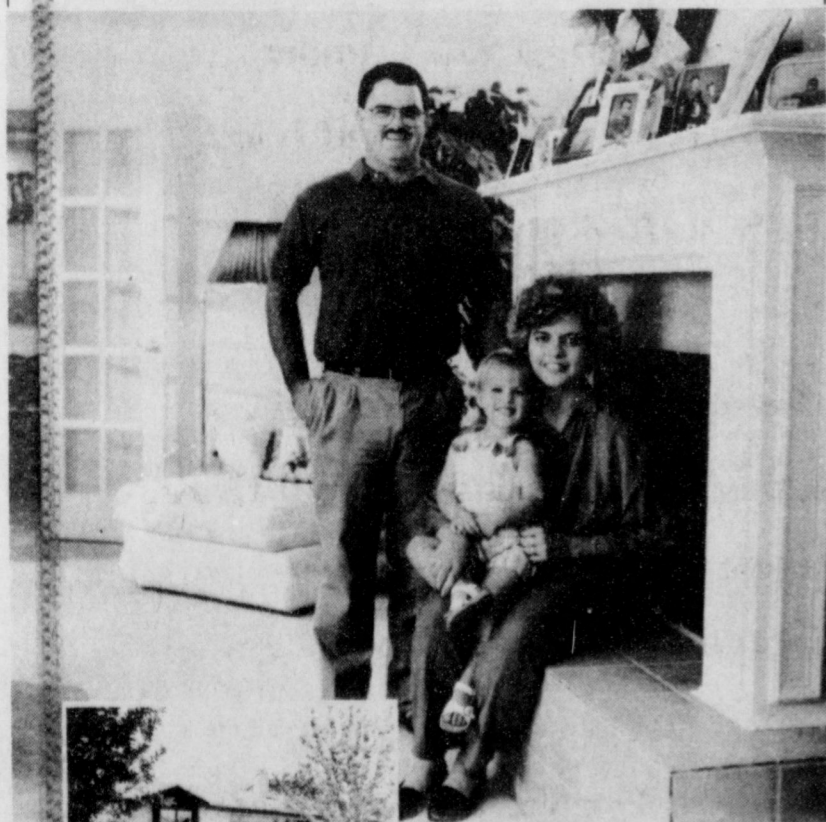

Ramiro Alarcon returned the ball 45 yards for the Mules. The Mules fumbled the ball at 5:52 in the quarter.

Denver City having control of the ball until .35 seconds left in the quarter saw the Mules score their only touchdown. Mule Pedro Nunez scored on a fumble by the Mustangs and ran it 50 yards into the endzone.

The fourth quarter being a see-saw action saw neither team able to move the ball.

The final score was Denver City 34-Mules 6.

1992 Mercury Sable Now At Muleshoe Motor

The Mercury Sable, which receives its first major redesign ever for 1992, has arrived at Muleshoe Motor Co. Inc. in Muleshoe.

The 1992 Sable features all-new sheet metal on every exterior panel except the roof, and numerous functional improvements to enhance its room, ride and comfort.

"We are launching the second generation Mercury Sable in 1992," said Robert Hooten, President. "The new refinements have created a more upscale and luxurious Sable, which features the same high quality and outstanding value our customers have come to expect.

"Since its debut in the 1986 model year, Sable has set the standards in its class for comfort," added Hooten. "With all of these improvements, we expect that to continue in 1992. This Sable is even more upscale and refined than its trendsetting predecessor."

The new Sable exterior features a sleeker front end with more streamlined bumpers and headlamps, while retaining an updated version of its distinctive front light bar. The backlight angle has been reduced to enhance Sable's upscale appearance.

Sable's interior has also been redesigned to improve both ergonomics and safety. A new, flow-through instrument panel integrates the instrument panel and the doors in a single form. A passenger side air bag supplemental restraint system has been added to Sable's optional equipment list, making the Sable and the Ford Taurus the only automobiles in their class to offer this safety feature. The driver side air bag supplemental restraint system remains standard.

Overall passenger space has been improved for 1992, including increased front seat hip room and rear seat head room.

Several significant improvements have also been made to decrease noise, vibration and harshness in the Sable for 1992, and to improve ride and handling.

Sable will again be offered in a GS and LS sedan and station wagon for 1992. Both sedan and wagon feature a standard 3.0-liter sequentially-fuel-injected V-6 engine. An optional 3.8-liter V-6 engine is also available. All Sable models offer a standard four-speed electronic automatic transaxle.

Among Sable's standard features are independent rear suspension, tinted glass, electronic AM/FM stereo radio, manual air conditioning, front disc/rear drum brakes, integral head rests, 15-inch wheels and all-season radial tires.

Options include electronic air conditioning, anti-lock brakes, an 18.4 gallon fuel tank, JBL audio system (sedan only), leather seats, dual power seats, six-way adjustable seats, and an electronic rear window defroster.

Muleshoe Motor Co. Inc. is located at American Boulevard & 12th in Muleshoe.

Beware of Hitch-Hiking Bees

By Kathleen Davis

Truckers hauling cargo from South Texas should be aware that Africanized Honey Bees (AHBs) might be looking for an easy ride north.

Paul Jackson, chief inspector for the Texas Apiary Inspection Service, said careful examination of a load before heading down the highway can help delay the more northern establishment of AHBs.

Currently 12 Texas counties are quarantined to prevent the intentional movement of any bees out of the area where AHBs have been detected. The counties include Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr, Zapata, Jim Hogg, Brooks, Kenedy, Webb, Dimmit, Maverick, Zavala and Willacy.

Almost 140 swarms of AHBs migrating from Mexico have been trapped and destroyed in Texas since October 1990. Most of the swarms have been in Starr and Hidalgo counties along the Rio Grande.

Officials from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and two agencies of the U.S. Department of Agriculture are trapping and monitoring the AHB movement. More than 1,400 traps are set up across South Texas.

But inspectors said unsuspecting truck drivers may pick unwanted freight in South Texas.

"We have verified that a swarm of Africanized Honey Bees arrived in a large spool on a truck in Nueces County," Jackson said. "We did find the queen, and all of the bees were destroyed."

Jackson noted that honey bee swarming will increase in the fall. Some swarms may land on trucks being loaded in South Texas but bound destinations north.

He said the swarms are not likely to be in closed trailer rigs but on uncovered trailers or flatbeds hauling heavy equipment or pipe. However, swarms might hitch a ride in spare tires stored underneath trailers, Jackson noted, or any other cavity in a truck.

Swarms of honey bees are less likely to attack since they are homeless and do not have a hive to protect. But someone knowledgeable about swarm removal should be contacted when bees are found.

The inspection service, an agency of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, also should be called to obtain a sample of the bees. Jackson can be reached at (409) 845-9714.

Artificial Vision For Blind

The possibility of providing sightless people with a functioning visual sense has for decades held the interest of vision scientists. Among investigators actively pursuing this goal is a team headed by Richard Alan Normann, Ph.D., a bioengineer at the University of Utah.
 Dr. Normann, professor of ophthalmology, is developing an electrode array that will allow electrical signals from a miniaturized television camera to stimulate the visual centers of the brain. He reported at a Research to Prevent Blindness science meeting that the tiny camera would be mounted on an eyeglass frame. It would send video signals to a series of minuscule, needle-like electrodes implanted into the brain region where images are created.
 According to Dr. Normann, a relatively large number of electrodes, 625 to 1024, will be needed to achieve a useful visual sense. However, at this early stage, the Utah team is working with smaller arrays having 100 electrodes projecting out of a silicon microchip. The chip is so tiny that thirteen such arrays would fit on a single U.S.

penny with room to spare.
 Much more work will be required before this approach to providing a visual sense to the blind can be validated. The materials used in the arrays must be shown to have long-term compatibility with the human body. A safe and effective method for implanting the arrays has to be developed. Further technological advances may be needed to scale up the 100-electrode arrays to 625 electrodes or more.
 As this work progresses, the artificial vision team will continue development of silicon microchip circuitry that encodes visual signals similar to the way they are encoded by the retina. When completed, this "silicone retina" will replace the tiny video camera in the system.
 "While much work needs to be done in artificial vision, we hope to demonstrate by the turn of the century the concepts upon which our approach to provide sight to the blind is based," says Dr. Normann.

Even a conscientious worker sometimes gets fed up on the job.

Celebrate National Chicken Month

Chicken consumption is growing—and so are new ways to fix chicken, such as Skillet Chicken Helper from Betty Crocker.

Good news. If you like chicken, watch for specials on chicken during September, National Chicken Month. If you're eating more chicken than you did a few years ago, you're not alone.

Chicken consumption is up 21 percent since 1986, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. At the same time, beef consumption decreased 13 percent. In 1990, the average American consumed 72.1 pounds of chicken.

A recent Gallup study for the National Broiler Council uncovered additional chicken facts. For example:

- Three-quarters (77 percent) of consumers prepare chicken at least once a week.
- Chicken breasts are the most popular chicken pieces.

• The most common methods for preparing chicken are baking and grilling.

With people buying and serving more chicken, food manufacturers are responding with new products. For example, Betty Crocker has introduced Skillet Chicken Helper dry-packaged dinners. Other food manufacturers are vying for the market with pre-seasoned, fresh chicken breasts. Fast-food restaurants also are rapidly adding chicken entrees, from salads to sandwiches.

The top reasons people eat chicken, says the National Broiler Council: it's nutritious, it's a good value, family members like it and it tastes good.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
I live in a new development and I like my neighbors except for one thing. They seem to think I am the nursemaid for the community. Several of the women belong to clubs, and when they go, they send their children over to play with mine. I want my children to have friends, but I don't feel able to take care of six or seven children every afternoon.

-Mother, Ga.

Answer:

Why don't you invite these women over for a cool drink and discuss the situation. Suggest that you form a plan whereby each one of you will take care of all the children once or twice a week.

This will give you the opportunity of having one or two afternoons away from the children to rest.

-Louisa

Dear Louisa,
I am a woman in her seventies and as I have no close relatives I am thinking of going to a home for elderly people.

I have been looking at several homes and in the first one I can have a single room. In the second for the same price I would have to share the bedroom but we would have a living room and a small kitchenette.

Do you think this would work out or would it be better to have a single room?

--Mary--Col.

Answer:

It all depends on your disposition and that of your companion. If you are people who mind your own business and are content to let each other run her own life, you might find such a set-up very rewarding.

But if you are a person who likes to be alone and fill your time with books and television, you may prefer the single room.

-Louisa.
