Cross Plains High School Requesting Items for Centennial Parade

Cross Plains High School is excited to join in the festivities to celebrate the Centennial of Cross Plains. Judy Killgo and Stefanie Forbus have designed a float to enter in the parade on Saturday, September 24th.

The float will represent different eras, starting with the Native Americans and continuing through the present day and featuring buffaloes and other items from the history of Cross Plains.

We're asking for the community to help us gather a few supplies to finish the float. We need several rolls of chicken wire, period costumes for the students to wear as they walk around the float (anyone hanging on to double-knit bell bottom hip huggers?...how about some 80's leg warmers? White socks and loafer? Poodle skirts?...and of course monetary donations are always welcome.

The students and staff of Cross Plains High School look forward to the opportunity to be part of the Centennial Celebration.

If you have any donations—either costumes or monetary, please bring them to the superintendent's office at the high school. Thank you!

Community Wide Sale Set for OCTOBER 1ST

Think cool weather, and it's time to prepare for the Annual Community Yard and Garage Sale! We have four weeks to clean out closets, garage and storage rooms, even kitchen cabinets and knick-knack shelves to "de-clutter" those areas you have promising yourself for ages to do.

Participate in the Community Wide Sale, scheduled for Saturday, October 1st and call Wanda Merryman at 254-725-4492 to register NOW!

Beta Sigma Phi (BSP) sponsors the annual community event and we are encouraging all area residents to either have a sale, attend the sale, or both!

A new addition to the event this year will be opportunities for sale of arts and crafts, so artists and "crafty" people are solicited to join the sponsors' are, to be located at the Robert E. Howard Pavilion on Highway 36. You will need to provide your own table for display of wares. Call Lavonne Childress at 254-725-4321, or Sharon Parr at 254-725-6879, or Wanda at 254-725-4492 for more information about registering your arts/crafts.

Yard/garage sale participants will pay a small fee of $3 ($5 for organizations) to have their yard or garage sale listed on a Participants' List and Map. Publicity will be provided by BSP. Cross Plains will be swarming with bargain hunters, so it is an excellent time for you to have your fall cleaning and "getting rid of things" sale, to make room for those treasures you find at someone else's sale!

Murder Mystery Supper Theatre SOLD OUT!!!!!! Matinee Possibility

It's just a few weeks until the Cross Plains Public Library's murder mystery supper theatre, "Murder at the Barbarian Festival" is here! Bob Childress has been building stages and furniture; Nancy Rodenberger has scenery draped all over her living room waiting for the paint to dry; Ginny Hoskins has been piling up props in her spare cabin, while taking in stray stuffed dogs; Helen Parson has been outfitting the cast in costumes; Ann Beeler is holding mini-rehearsals; Linda Burns and her volunteers have sold the tickets at the library; while the remaining board members have been busy canvassing businesses for sponsors to purchase ads in the play's program.

The library board would like to thank everyone who donated materials and to a sponsor who is underwriting our expenses, so that every penny of our ticket sales and ads are profit for the library.

All tickets for the play have been sold and we are now taking names for a waiting list to have POSSIBLE matinee on Sunday, September 18th for $10/person. If you are interested, call the library at 254-725-7722 and if we have enough people signed up, then we will have another performance.

The Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control Group is sponsoring a fundraiser for the Cross Plains Senior Citizens Center this Friday in front of Lowe's/Super S. Barbecue brisket sandwiches for $3 will be served, along with a bag of chips for $1 and soft drinks for 50 cents. Super S has store specials featured and free Cokes and samples of bakery items will be offered inside the store in celebration of their 46th Anniversary.

Teri, Gilbert and I stopped by the center last Friday and visited with Amber Thomas, who lives just north of Cottonwood, and R.L. Barnett, former Cottonwood resident.

Friday night is Musical Night and Taco Night. Come out and hear some great music and enjoy the food. Local boys, Sid and R.W. Bogue, also known as "Eight Eighty East" will be on the program, as well as many other musicians.

Fire Chief Joe announced that the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control Group would have one of the fire trucks and firemen in the Cross Plains Centennial Parade on Saturday morning, September 24th. The parade starts at 10 a.m. so be sure to come out and cheer for our fire truck and the rest of the parade!

That day, September 24th is also the last coonhunt of the season. If you haven't been out to see the hunting dogs or meet the Battle Creek Coonhunter's Association here in Cottonwood, this will be your last chance until next year. The dogs get there around 4 p.m. and the Brisket Dinner starts at 5 p.m. and runs until about 7-7:30 p.m. Fire Chief Joe's cooking brisket, sausage, chicken and maybe even some ribs. Everyone raved about Kathleen's banana pudding last time, so she's planning on making it again. If you'd like to donate an item toward the dinner, the Fire Control Group can use potatoes, vanilla wafers, brisket and probably some other items. Get a hold of Fire Chief Joe or Deana or give me a call at 254-725-7369.

Rising Star Nursing Center

Well hello to everyone. We received a 1/4" rain last week and it sure was nice. It looks like we will hopefully receive some more this week, so everyone please keep the prayers going.

We have been having fun this past two weeks. We have a very talented person here at the nursing center who has done an amazing thing. We get decorations about 5 times a year from Tim's Floral in Cross Plains. Well, this year's "patriotic" theme arrangement got a new makeover.

My activity assistant, Karol Soto, repainted them and they are fantastic. They were red, white and blue and now they are sunflowers. We are using them as table decorations and the ivy keeps on growing.

Karol is such a talented person and can paint just about anything. We were having a silent auction and she went outside with Steven and found a row disk. She brings it in, takes a wire brush to get off some of the rust, and then proceeds to paint a picture of a windmill and sunflowers just as if it were nothing. Thank you so much Karol, we do appreciate all of your talents.

Casino Day last week went real well for at least one of our residents. Kay Justice beat me out of quite a few dollars and was even happy about it. I can't figure that one out??? Anyway, I say just wait till next time Kay!

The residents have been working overtime on the arts and crafts projects here. They have been making sunflowers and some fall flowers and apples, so just come on in and check it out. So, till next time, may God bless and keep you.

Patiently

What is it you are seeking,
What could it be?
Could I make a suggestion,
try seeking Me.

I've seen when you looked for happiness, in money and fame.
I've waited patiently, for you to call on my name.

I've seen when you loved someone deeply and not been loved back at all.
I've waited patiently,
to have that call.

I've seen when you gave so much of you and everyone just took.
I've been waiting ever so
patiently,
to have you look!

I've see all your struggles,
they have not been simple,
they have not been small.
I've waited patiently to catch you before you fall!

I've seen your many losses, I've also seen your many gains.
I've still waited patiently,
until you made your claim.

You sought Me!
And you surely did find,
You are a true and loved Child of Mine.

There's a good rain coming on September 18!! You see, what goes around comes around and following the record setting heat in Aug. of 1935, the middle of September brought a wonderful 8 inches. Sure sounds promising, anyway.

The opening of football season for the Buffs in 1936 brought with it the wonderful news that the new stadium was ready for action. The Review described it as "a beautiful carpet of grass and grandstand seats for nearly 200." Compared to most of the lawns around town, the current turf is a beautiful carpet this year also. We can be thankful that the boys don't have to play amongst the grass burrs and mole runs.

What Do You Want?

The problem with intelligence, knowledge, and even common sense is their lack of power. It is not that they have no power. To a degree, knowledge is power; but it just doesn't have enough. We find that desire, or "want to," often overpowers intelligence and knowledge.

If you seek to understand why people, "do what they do," you have to look no further than desire. In our culture today there is much ignorance or lack of knowledge and people often do not know the difference between good and bad. To speak of human behavior as evil has become politically incorrect, so our youth often grow up believing a lie about adultery, stealing, lying, cheating and foul language. While ignorance of truth on any subject can be a problem, desire is the root of behavior. Desire is shaped, molded and unleashed from the heart level of being. Behavior, good and bad, is only a reflection of the desires within us. We end up doing what we want to do.

If you seek to know God (which is different than knowing facts about Him) you will be drawn to His love. If you do not reject Him at this point but invite Him in, selfish desires within begin to fade and you are enlightened by genuine love. This is truth. Is it what I want? That's the only question we need to answer.

Cross Plains answered with 3:34 in the third quarter with a QB sneak by Stephenson, the two point conversion failed, bringing the score to 30-12.

Stephenson responded again in the third on a 29 yard touchdown scamper with 2:33 left in the game. The two point conversion failed, leaving the score 30-18, and that would be the final as both teams were unable to point a scoring drive in the fourth quarter.

Justin Pope and Cody Self led the defense in tackles, and each had a forced fumble. Sheldon Libey had the team's only sack, and recovered both fumbles.

The Buffaloes played smart and disciplined football as they were only tagged for 1 penalty for 5 yards. Cross Plains falls to 0-1 on the season, and will travel to Menard to face the Yellow Jackets next Friday. Come out and support the boys as they look to get their first win of the season.

Register Now for October ACT Test

IOWA CITY, IOWA—Registration is now open for the October 22, 2011 ACT achievement test. Students who wish to take the college admission and placement exam must register before September 16, 2011. The ACT is a curriculum-based achievement exam. It tests what students have actually learned in school, not their aptitude for learning. The ACT also measures what students need to know to be ready for first year credit-bearing college courses based on ACT College Readiness Standards. Every student's results can be tied directly to these consistent standards. The ACT has four sections: English, mathematics, reading and science and takes about three hours to complete. Students who take the ACT Plus Writing complete an optional writing test that requires an additional 30 minutes. Unlike other exams, students are not penalized for guessing or answering all the questions on each test section. In fact, it is beneficial for test takers to answer all questions within the time allowed. During registration, students may select up to four universities to receive their score reports. ACT scores are accepted by all four-year colleges and universities across the United States. ACT reports scores only when requested to do so by the student. Additional score reports are available for a small fee. All students complete a detailed inventory of questions during ACT registration. Each test taker receives an ACT score report that includes a wide variety of information to assist with high school course selection, college readiness, career planning, and college admissions. The cost for the ACT test without writing is $34. When combined with the optional ACT Writing Test, the total cost is $49.50. Students who qualify may apply for a fee waiver through their high school counselor. The ACT website, www.actstudent.org, has helpful information, free sample items, and inexpensive test prep materials to help students prepare for the exam. However, the best preparation is to take rigorous core courses in school, study hard, and learn the academic skills needed for college. Most students register online at www.actstudent.org. Students may also pick up registration forms from their high school counseling offices. Late registration is available until September 30, 2011 for an extra $21 fee.

Our goal is not to out-cheer the Buffalo cheerleaders, but to cheer along with them to support our 2011 Cross Plains Football Team. All you need to have to join is a love for our students, a positive attitude, and all of the spirit you can find. We will all try to sit close at the pep rallies and ball games so we can be heard and we want to dress in all of the purple and gold things we have and bring (legal) noise makers. Let's show our players and cheerleaders that we love and support them and make this a fun football season.

Census Bureau facts on Labor Day

The first observance of Labor Day is believed to have been a parade of 10,000 workers on Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, organized by Peter J. McGuire, a Carpenters and Joiners Union secretary. By 1893, more than half the states were observing "Labor Day" on one day or another, and Congress passed a bill to establish a federal holiday in 1894. President Grover Cleveland signed the bill soon afterward, designating the first Monday in September as Labor Day.

!REWARD!

I have lost my wedding ring and I need anyone's help!!!! I live in Midland and I travel back and forth to see my husband who works in Brownwood. On Thursday, August 18, 2011, I was traveling from Abilene to Cross Plains on Highway 36. I honestly don't remember the exact point I stopped but I do know it was after the sign that said 28 miles to Cross Plains. I know it was there that my wedding ring slipped off my finger. I know it is like looking for a needle in a hay stack, but this ring means the world to me and I would do anything to have it back. I am asking for anyone who may have a metal detector and the time to help me look. My name is Brianna Garcia and my telephone number is 432-559-4964. Please Help!!! 25-11c

CARD OF THANKS

There were so many families and individuals that we did not have addresses for - so we decided this was the best way to say our thanks: Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece, If so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, As any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you so much whatever the part.

DEFECTIVE TIRES BLOWOUTS
 Tire failures and tread separations are more common in summer. Long distance travel over hot asphalt magnifies potential defects in tires. Many manufacturers scrimp on materials and market defective tires, which may result in catastrophic roll-overs or crashes. Barb's Cues

By Barbara Holmes Worcester

Lessons In Hugging

Life's biggest lessons aren't learned all at once. They are taught and learned time and time again over years and years. I realized this today when I was with my youngest son in the store. We were walking back and forth looking for something both good tasting and good for you when he suddenly reached over, wrapped his arms around me, and gave me a hug. This made me smile with both laughter and joy. I realized then that even though I hadn't been able to teach my son everything over the years, I had at least been able to teach him how to hug.

I am so delighted too that all of my children have learned this lesson so well over the years. My daughter's hugs brighten my days and uplift my soul. I have been blessed a million times over by the love and joy she so freely shares with me. My two sons' hugs always bring happiness to my heart as well. It makes me feel good to know that they have learned two of the most important things in life: how to choose love and how to spread joy.

Remember then that every loving act you do, smile you share and hug you give teaches all those around you as well. The lessons they share are priceless. Little by little, time after time, and year by year they teach the minds, hearts, and souls of all you touch. They spread God's love and life's joy everywhere. They show all who are watching how to love, how to give, and how to live.

I hope that someone was watching when my son gave out his own lesson in hugging. A single hug can warm a hundred hearts. Hugs like love, joy, laughter, and smiles travel from heart to heart and from soul to soul until they circle the world. They make us more like the angels and Earth more like Heaven. They help us to give lessons in God's love and wisdom each time we simply open our arms and wrap them around another.

"Since"

Not be a child of Yours, Lord,
I wouldn't know how not to be?
Not since You changed my life, separating those
"old sins" from me.

Not since You gave me a heart of Love, not of selfishness as it use to be.

Not since You filled my very soul and spirit so thoroughly.

Not be a child of Yours, Lord,
is as unthinkable to me as reality.

Not since I've seen Your beauty with "renewed eyes", the sunsets, the rainbows, the star-filled skies!

Not since You've become "my still small voice" of guidance, direction and making good choices.

Not be a child of Yours Lord,
is a world I could not begin to face.

Not since I called on Your name,
and heard You reply,
"Yes, my child here am I."

Not since You wrote my name
in Your Book of Life,
I could never turn from You.
No, not on YOUR life!

Opossum

Opossum makes up the largest order of marsupial in the Western Hemisphere, including 100 or more species in 19 genera. They are commonly called possums.

The Virginia opossum was the first animal to be named an opossum. Usage of the word was first published in 1610. The word opossum comes from the Proto-Algonkian meaning "white dog" or "white beast".

They are flexible in their diet and are able to live and survive in diverse locations and conditions.

The female possum has a pouch-marsupium and a gestation period of twelve to fourteen days. They give birth to large numbers of young, of which most fall off on the way to the pouch. The young must find its way to the pouch where it will nurse anywhere from 70 to 120 days. As many as 13 can nurse at one time.

Possum is traditionally prepared by smoking then stewing. It has a light and fine grain of meat but the musk gland must be removed as part of the preparation. The meat can be used to replace rabbit and chicken in recipes.

Possums are opportunist when it comes to their diet, they will eat anything. They eat insects, frogs, small mammals, earthworms and fruit.

They are 8 times less likely to get rabies than dogs and most snake bites such as rattlesnakes and cottonmouth will not affect them. They may date back as far as the Cretaceous or early Paleocene periods.

Legislation regulating speed limits takes effect

Texas motorists may notice some changes to speed limit signs in the next several months, as new laws regulating speed limits on the roadways of the state highway system begin to take effect.

The 82nd Texas Legislature passed and the Governor signed House Bill 1353, which takes effect on September 1st. This legislation allows the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) to create a 75-mile per hour speed limit on any state highway found to be reasonable and safe through a speed study. TxDOT will be reviewing existing 70-mile per hour speed limits to determine where a 75-mile per hour speed limit may be safely posted.

HB 1353 also eliminates the 65-mile per hour nighttime speed limit and all truck speed limits. On September 1st, the existing nighttime and truck speed limits are repealed and no longer enforceable.

TxDOT awarded maintenance contracts in August to remove the nighttime and truck speed limit signs and is also in the process of hiring consultants to perform the required speed studies needed to implement the higher speed limits.

"We will be removing the existing nighttime speed limit signs, truck speed limit signs, and evaluating approximately 50,000 miles of state highway with a current 70-mile per hour speed limit," said Carol Rawson, TxDOT Director of Traffic Operations. "With these contracts in place, we are moving steadily ahead to implement these new laws. However, it is important to remember that any increases to speed limits are not effective until the new speed limit signs are actually installed."

Speed limits in Texas are set by the 85th percentile method, which represents the speed the majority of drivers are traveling at or below. This is a sound engineering principle used to set speed limits on highways nationwide for the past 60 years. For more information on speed limits see: http://www.txdot.gov/txdot_library/safety/traffic_safety_pubs.htm

The existing 65-mile per hour night and truck speed limit signs should be removed by the end of this year. The complete evaluation of the state highway system and posting of all new 75-mile per hour speed limits should be complete by early 2013.

BUSY WEEK AT THE HOWARD MUSEUM

It may have been the opening week-end of the new Conan movie or just a good time for vacations, but the Museum enjoyed three groups of tourists on the same day. Shown above is Dr. Vernon and Shirley Holleman of Temple and Eric Belky of Morgan, Georgia. The other group will be featured in another issue.

Holleman is a doctor of internal medicine at Scott and White Hospital and Mrs. Hollerman serves on the preservation committee for historical areas in the Temple and Belton areas. The doctor was born in Brownwood, but the family relocated when their home was included in the area taken over by the government to become Camp Bowie. After becoming addicted to Howard's writings, he made the Brownwood connection and a return to his roots became the vacation destination. He was also interested in the role of country doctors in the 1920-30's

Both Robert Howard and his good friend, Lindsey Tyson, were sons of country doctors.

A fan of Howard's writings since he was a young boy, Belky definitely was on his way to Abilene to see the new movie and had made Cross Plains part of his itinerary for his trip across Texas. He had included numerous sites in the Brownwood area also. Belky is a Professor of Psychology at the Northern Marianas College on the Island of Saipan; rotating annually with another professor. It's totally understandable that a 14 mile long island can be very confining and the rotation is a necessity. Probably allows a lot of time for reading also.

Mystery Picture #3 Identified

Project Pride's mystery picture #3 was easier to identify than the previous picture as ten correct entries were received by the deadline. By driving down the alley behind Higginbotham's or looking north from 1st Street, the X shaped brace was easy to spot.

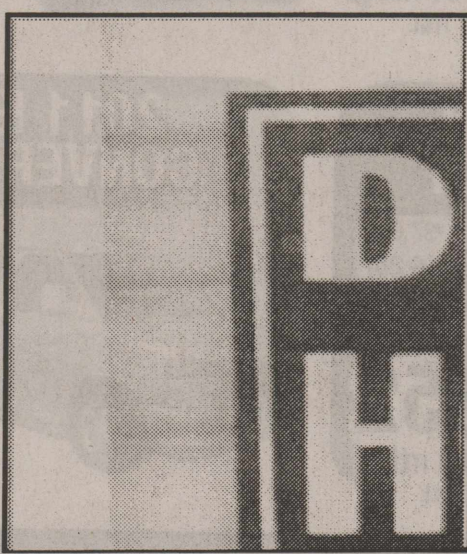

Although investors had purchased most of the lots on the east side of Main between 1st and 2nd at the January, 12, 1911. Higginbotham's bought out 6 of those lots from four different owners in June 1914. When the general store opened a year later, it was said to be the largest store between Dallas and El Paso. The story goes that when somebody asked the builder why he didn't make it even bigger, the reply was that he couldn't find any more bricks.

Winners of picture #3 are: Michelle Kaiser, Judy Luter, Bob Childress, the Shepard girls (Jackilann, Madilynn and Abbigale), Kenzie Taff, Helen Parson, Bob Ossowski, Kellie Draper, Wilma Lawrence and Leo Franke.

There are still three pictures to be identified before the winner is announced at the Celebration banquet on Sept. 24 at the Baptist Family Life Center.

Peanuts

The population was increasing five fold between 1860 and 1900 and eight out of ten lived on farms and in small towns with most growing cotton as their cash crop. Tractors were taking the place of mules and a farmer could cover three times as much land in the same amount of time. With most land being sandy loam, there was a big shift to Spanish peanuts as a cash crop and with every part of the peanut plant being used, there was no waste.

The first peanut shelling machine in Texas was introduced in 1940 in Gorman, Texas. With Gorman quickly becoming the center of the peanut industry with both the Texas Peanut Producers Board and the South West Peanut Growers Association headquartered there.

Sometime between 1890 peanut butter was invented and in 1903 the first peanut butter making machine was patented. In 1914 many companies were producing peanut butter. Peanut butter and crackers became a fast and easy meal with a high protein content for cowboys out on the range and soldiers in the trenches.

Joseph L. Rosenfield introduced a churning process that made a creamy smooth peanut butter. In 1928 the Pond Company produced Peter Pan Peanut Butter. In 1932 Rosenfield began making his own brand of peanut butter called Skippy, which included the chunky version. Now days, there are different varieties of peanuts, used in everything from peanut butter to trail mix.

Pioneer Quilting Club

Marqueta Westbrook

August is almost gone, school has started, and we are hoping for some cooler weather. At Pioneer we have been busy quilting on Norma Tucker's quilt for her friend who is fighting her battle with cancer. It is a beautiful pink and brown quilt with the breast cancer ribbon insignia quilted on the border. We hope to finish it this week.

Lou Grider was able to be with us last Tuesday and we are so glad she is feeling better. Olena Ezzell, Glenda Phillips, Barbara Medley, Norma Tucker, Crystal Conway, Mary Dean and Marqueta Westbrook were all present and quilting.

Aldon and I made our trip to Bayfield, Colorado, for our granddaughter's wedding. Everything went beautifully and it rained while we were there and the temperatures were nice and cool. But is always so good to get home again.

We have had some more contributions for building and that is exciting to us. We want to give a special thank to May and D.P. Jones and Jean and James Alexander. We appreciate you so much.

We always want to extend a welcome to any and all who would like to stop by and visit. Who knows? You may end of becoming a quilter. "Quilters never grow old, they just go to pieces."

Texas Department of Agriculture's Hay Hotline offers information

AUSTIN—As the worst one-year drought in Texas history continues to scorch the state and deplete critical hay supplies, Agriculture Commissioner Todd Staples announced several updates to the Texas Department of Agriculture's Hay Hotline. The service, which connects ranchers who need hay with those who have it, is now being updated to include prices and sources for donated hay. The Hay Hotline also now connects ranchers with transportation services to deliver hay and available grazing lands.

"Right now there is no pasture, no hay and no end in sight," Commissioner Staples said. "The need for hay is dire and getting more desperate each day. Through the recent improvements made to the Hay Hotline, we hope to connect more ranchers with hay producers across the nation who have much-needed forage. It's critical to do what we can to preserve the cattle herd for which Texas is known and on which American consumers rely."

Commissioner Staples sent a letter to all commissioners, secretaries and directors of agriculture in other states requesting assistance in locating hay donations for Texas ranchers. The letter also requests that available grazing land or hay be listed on the Texas Hay Hotline. Additionally, Commissioner Staples encouraged his colleagues to follow the Lone Star State's lead in waiving transportation size restrictions for hay shipments in ways that continue to protect public safety.

These hay transportation waivers have become critically important during the current record-setting drought. According to AgriLife Extension, agriculture losses due to this year's drought have already reached $5.2 billion and are now the costliest in state history for Texas farmers and ranchers. State Climatologist Dr. John Nielsen-Gammon recently declared this year's dry spell the "most severe one-year drought on record," while the National Weather Service is calling it the second-worst drought in Texas history.

The Hay Hotline can be accessed by visiting www.TexasAgriculture.gov/hayhotline or by calling (877) 429-1998.

Changes to Texas Cattle Trichomoniasis Regulations Announced

AUSTIN - The Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC) recently adopted changes to its cattle Trichomoniasis (Trich) rules. Trich is a venereal disease of cattle caused by protozoa that can cause abortions and infertility, subsequently causing economic losses for the producer. The cattle program is managed primarily through required testing of breeding bulls for the disease prior to change of ownership or entry into a herd. Interested producers, veterinarians and stakeholders provided suggestions to the TAHC over the previous year to help improve the Trich program. A TAHC Trich working group met in May to review the submitted suggestions and provided recommendations for the TAHC to consider. The working group suggestions that were accepted and recently passed by the TAHC went into effect on August 14th.

The following is an overview of rule changes for the Texas cattle Trichomoniasis program.

1. Texas will no longer accept "virgin" bulls for entry from other states. All breeding bulls 12 months of age and older must have a negative Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR) Trich test prior to entry.

2. Texas will no longer accept a negative culture test(s) for entry of breeding bulls into the state. Only PCR tests will be accepted.

3. Untested out-of-state bulls are now allowed entry into Texas if consigned directly to Trich certified feedyard facilities, and accompanied by a permit issued by an accredited veterinarian from the state of origin.

4. A "Control Herd Plan" option has been created that allows large cattle operations up to three years to eradicate Trich from their herd. The enrolled herds are allowed to test once per year (preferably prior to breeding season) instead of two or more times as normally required, but in exchange they must consult with a veterinarian and enter into a plan designed to remove the disease from the herd. In the interim, all bulls leaving the herd must be sold for slaughter or feeding for slaughter only until their quarantine is released.

5. The TAHC will now allow an approved laboratory to "pool" individually submitted samples (up to 5 samples) for PCR testing, to count as one of the two tests normally required to release a herd from quarantine. Pooled samples will still not be allowed for change of ownership testing however. This change was designed as a cost saving measure for producers, and must be approved in advance by TAHC regional management in consultation with the owner or veterinarian.

Questions about the new regulations may be directed to TAHC regional staff.

Agriculture Secretary Vilsack Announces Changes to CRP to Assist Producers Impacted by Severe Drought Conditions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8, 2011 - Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack today announced that the Farm Service Agency (FSA) is modifying its Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) policies to help those affected by sustained drought conditions. Throughout this year of extreme weather, USDA has supported and delivered assistance to farmers, ranchers, and rural communities across the country.

"We continue to do all we can to help thousands of farmers and ranchers in the southwestern United States who are struggling from drought," said Vilsack. "Many ranchers have been or will be forced to sell livestock due to drought and USDA will do what we can to help our farmers and ranchers during these challenging times."

The policy changes influence FSA rules governing emergency grazing. The period normally allowed for emergency grazing lasts through Sept. 30, 2011. FSA is permitting farmers and ranchers in drought stricken states who have been approved for emergency grazing, including those in Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, to extend the emergency grazing period to Oct. 31, 2011, without an additional payment reduction.

Producers wishing to participate in emergency grazing must first request permission from the FSA county office by indicating the acreage to be grazed.

As a second condition designed to help livestock producers, FSA will allow producers nationwide to utilize harvested hay from expiring CRP acres when those acres are being prepared for fall seeded crops. Prior to this modification, all mechanically harvested hay was required to be destroyed. This change enables livestock producers to feed the hay that is mechanically harvested to their own livestock or to sell or donate hay. Consistent with existing policy for managed or emergency haying and grazing of eligible CRP acres, rental payments will be reduced by 25 percent for those utilizing this option.

"We are eager to do all we can in the face of this drought crisis across the southern plains," said FSA Administrator Bruce Nelson. "This has been one of the worst dry and hot spells since the Dust Bowl era of the '30s."

For further information about the Conservation Reserve Program and Emergency Haying and Grazing, producers are encouraged to visit their USDA Service Centers or go online to www.fsa.usda.gov. Search under Conservation Programs and Disaster Assistance.

Murder Mystery Supper Theatre Seeking Sponsors

By now you've read a lot about the Cross Plains Library's murder mystery supper theatre, "Murder at the Barbarian Festival" to be held on Saturday, September 17, 2011 in the Community Center. The library's board of directors is currently canvassing businesses for sponsors to purchase ads in the play's program; however, individuals may also purchase ads—for your home-based business, to wish your favorite Buffalo or team a great season, just to wish the cast and crew good luck on their first performance, or any other acceptable thing you'd like to say. A business-card size ad is $25 and can be purchased at the library. And be sure to join us for the play! Supper will begin at 6 p.m. In addition, we will be serving snacks during the festival scenes to add to the atmosphere. All of this for only $15.00! Tickets are no on sale (first-come, first-served) at the library with a seating chart so that you can pick out the best seat/table available. Seating is limited to 150 and tickets are going FAST, so don't delay. Mark your calendar and buy your tickets—TODAY!

As hunting season begins, keep fire safety in mind

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – With much of Texas still hot and dry and wildfires continuing to ignite across the state, dove hunters should be especially careful when heading out this week for the season opener.

Fire activity remains steady, and wildfires can easily ignite. All it takes is one spark from an unattended campfire, lit cigarette or even the muzzle of a gun.

"As responsible stewards of the land, hunters need to take wildfire conditions into consideration – especially when they're elevated as they are now," said Justice Jones, coordinator for the Wildland Urban Interface and Fire Prevention programs. "In doing so, they're protecting the resources and wildlife they strive to conserve."

Though dove season kicks off Thursday, Sept. 1st, hunters aren't the only people who should take precautions. All outdoorsmen should keep fire safety in mind for the next several weeks while conditions - hot temperatures and dry vegetation - remain ripe for wildfires.

If you're heading outside, keep in mind the following wildfire safety tips:

- Obey outdoor burning bans. Don't build a fire during dry or windy conditions.

- If conditions are right and there is no burn ban in place, you may build a campfire. But keep the fire small and never leave it unattended.

- Make sure the fire is extinguished and cold to the touch before you leave it.

- Avoid burning feed bags and other materials that can create flying embers.

- Keep water handy when welding on stands or working around hunting camps.

- Drive only on designated trails. Don't park or idle vehicles in dry grass, which can be ignited by contact with a hot muffler.

- When shooting close to the ground, be sure there is no dry grass or tinder in front of your muzzle. Though rare, it's not impossible for a shot to ignite nearby tinder.

- Use caution with cigarettes and matches.

- Use spark arresters on all power equipment.
