WHAT DENOMINATION SHOULD I JOIN?

Since there are some 275 or more denominations in America today, many sincere people are confused about what denomination they should join, or whether they should join any. It is a disheartening mess. If I felt that I should join one, I would be most confused as to which one the Lord would wish me to join.

Fortunately we do not have to make such a choice in order to be pleasing to God. The Bible does not teach man to join any denomination. One can be a Christian and not join any denomination.

Let us look into the truth of the matter as it is revealed in the Holy Scriptures.

In Acts 26:27-29 we read that a certain King Agrippa was "almost persuaded to be a Christian." Paul the Apostle makes it plain that if he had obeyed Paul's teaching he would have been a Christian just as Paul was a Christian. Obeying Paul's teaching is what makes Christians. But, notice: Although Paul wrote 14 of the books in the New Testament he nowhere taught people to join a denomination.

In Acts 11:26 we read that Jesus' disciples "were called Christians first at Antioch." They were Christians, but they did not join any denomination.

Peter told the people on Pentecost what to do to be saved (Acts 2:38). "They that gladly received his word were baptized" (Acts 2:47). Then the divine record tells us that the Lord added them to the church (Acts 2:47). They did not join any denomination. The church which the Lord added them to was not a denomination, but the spiritual body of Christ (Eph. 1:22,23).

One can be a Christian and united to all other Christians in the Lord's body (which is His church Col. 1:18) without joining any denomination.

WHAT WILL YOU SAY AT THE JUDGMENT?

At the final judgment of God all men shall appear (Acts 17:31, Rom. 14:12). Each person shall give an account of himself (Matt. 12:36). We will all be judged by the word of God (John 12:48, Rev. 20:11-13). Each one must prepare for it, or he will be eternally lost. (2 Cor. 5:10, Matt. 12:36-41).

That many will have something to say on that day is evident from the Lord's own teachings. "Many shall say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." (Matt. 7:22,23).

Most people have a pretty good estimation of themselves. Each one likes to feel that he is saved. According to a recent survey in Ladies' Home Journal and Catholic Digest, approximately 7 people out of every 10 in the United States feel that they are saved.

The people Jesus spoke about in the above scripture had that feeling, too; yet they were lost! When we think of people who are lost, we usually think of murderers, thieves, immoral people and covetous, mean people. These people whom Jesus said speak to him at the judgment were not of that type! What kind of people were they? Let us notice.

1. They were religious people who claimed to be followers of Christ (Matt. 7:22).
2. They worked in his name (Matt. 7:22).
3. They claimed to be miracle workers (Matt. 7:22).

Yet they were lost! This teaches us three things: 1. Man can be religious and yet be lost! 2. He can claim to work in Jesus name and yet be lost! 3. He can claim to work miracles and yet be lost!

It is difficult for many people to see that it is possible for them to be lost even though they claim to work for the Lord Jesus. Jesus tells us these are that will find themselves lost, though they say they worked for him. He says, "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my father which is in heaven" (Matt. 7:21). Are you doing the Father's will, or your own will?

The only way you can know that you are doing the Father's will is to obey exactly what he says in His word.
