Review

After a tragic, final, motionless scene resembling an ancient oil painting, "Blood Wedding" ends with a chilling curtain call in the fog—with the actors still in character.

Left in suspension of disbelief, the audience wonders whether to applaud the unsmiling actors or to remain silent out of respect for the fate of the unfortunate characters.

Performed by Muleshoe High School's theatre department on Oct. 30 and 31, "Blood Wedding" will have its final performance tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Director Kerry Moore says the play about bad blood and feuding families in Spain is based on a true incident that its author, Federico Garcia Lorca, read in a Spanish newspaper in the early 1900s—about 30 years before he wrote the drama.

An underlying theme of the work is the difference between the traditional roles of men and women.

The mother of the groom, played by Chanda Weatherbie, explains to her son that he must be tough and in control with his new wife—so she will know who is boss.

But she wishes her son were a woman so he wouldn't have to go to the vineyards with his knife—a tool which can at any moment become a weapon. (If he were a woman, he could embroider, make lace, and be at peace, she tells him.)

She wishes men had never invented the knives which killed her husband and oldest son.

Another theme is bad blood. The bride is described as a "haughty" daughter with a beautiful mother who "didn't love her husband." The implication is that the daughter will follow in her mother's footsteps.

The Felix family represents for the groom's mother the ultimate threat—the Felixes have killed her loved ones and now "one of those Felix brothers" is about to come between her son and his bride-to-be.

Family finances also play a role in the drama, with the Felix family struggling for success and the bride and groom's families comparing their considerable wealth. (Tyson Moncrief portrays the father of the bride as a man of breeding and good taste.)

Music sets the mood, from eerie foreboding, to wedding frivolity, to the dread of approaching death.

Mules must forget about tough loss

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

Muleshoe's chances against Dimmitt Friday depend greatly on how the Mules handle the hangover from an excruciating loss last week.

And as anyone who's ever had a hangover knows, it's no easy.

Muleshoe was a minute away from an intoxicating come-from-behind win at Floydada, only to watch in horror as Ramon McCann returned a kickoff 79 yards for a touch down, turning a 34-28 Mules lead into a 35-34 loss.

"My two biggest concerns are psychological from two standpoints," Muleshoe head coach Randy Adair said. "In fairly similar circumstances we beat Dimmitt (the last two years) and they were surprised I don't think they'll be surprised a third time. And, the other is the nature of the loss against Floydada. I wonder how much it took out of (the Mules)."

Something will have to give when District 2-3A's lowest scoring team, Dimmitt (78 points), faces the league's most porous defense, Muleshoe (282 points).

Dimmitt (2-6, 1-2) runs the Wing-T, the same misdirection offense as Seminole, which beat Muleshoe, 48-6. But the LUBBOCK—With a squad that was whittled down from 13 to just five, Muleshoe finished third at the District 2-3A boys cross country meet here Saturday at Mae Simmons Park.

Frona edged Shallowater for the team title, 33-35. Muleshoe finished with 58 points.

Because of injuries, ineligibility problems and several students quitting the team, what started out as a promising season ended up in a survival scenario.

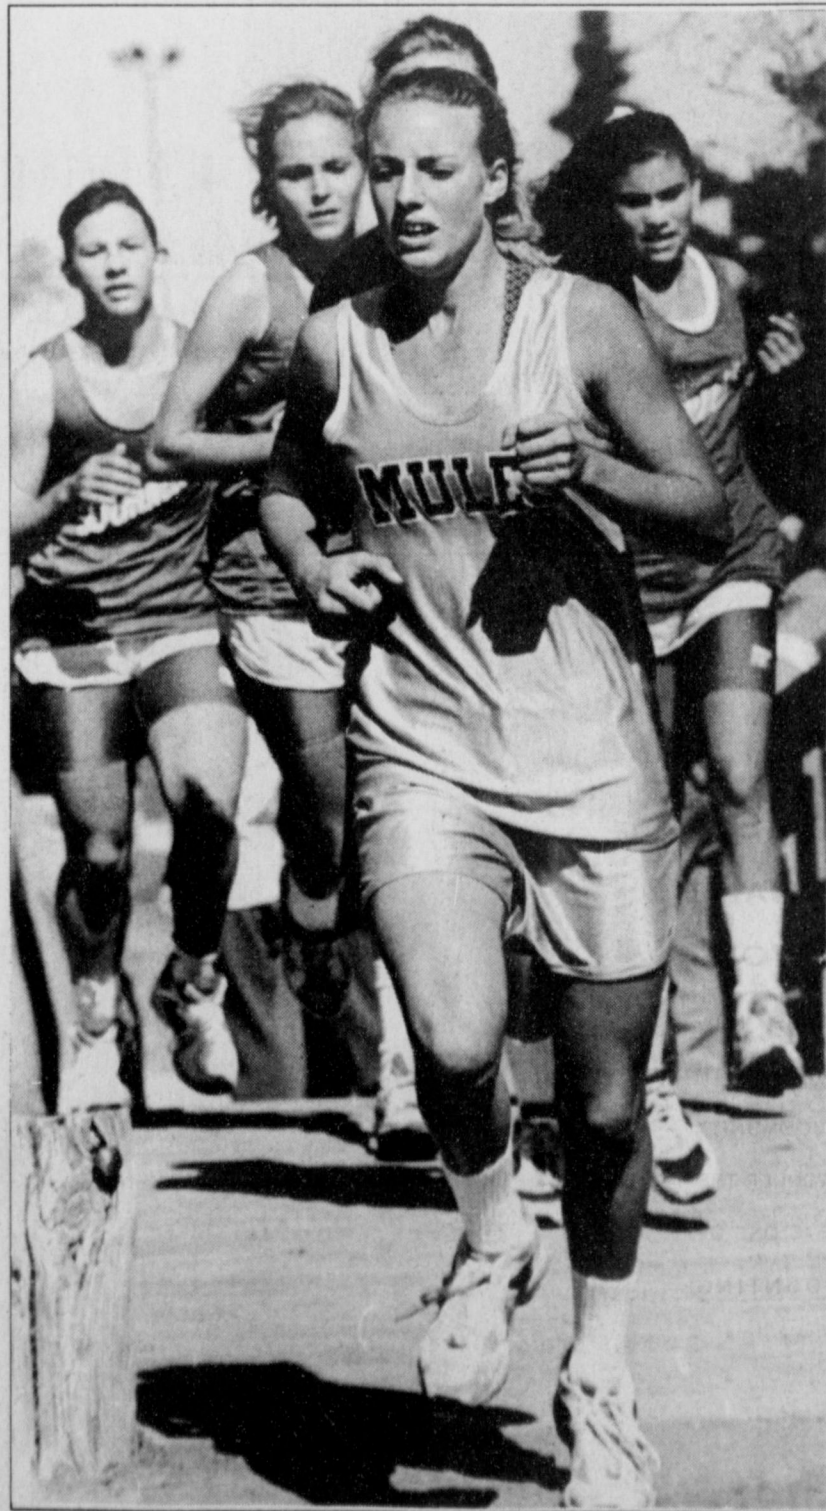

"I had real high expectations before we lost the kids," Muleshoe coach Jim Gruhlkey said. "But I'm just really pleased with the kids that stuck it out."

Senior Riley Byers led the way for the Mules with an eighth-place finish, touring the 3,000-meter course in 19 minutes and 51 seconds.

"He's worked hard all year long and been a real good leader," Gruhlkey said, disappointed that Byers didn't qualify for the Region I meet next week.

Lady Mules get another shot at Dimmitt next week

LUBBOCK—The expected showdown with Dimmitt never materialized.

Instead, the Muleshoe Lady Mules managed to survive an off day and advance to Regionals by finishing a distant second here Saturday at the District 2-3A cross country meet at Mae Simmons Park.

With Shawna Kenworthy running away with the individual title and two other top 10 finishes, Dimmitt coasted to the team title with 32 points.

Led by a seventh-place finish by Priscilla Aguirre, Muleshoe (52 points) held off Shallowater (61 points) for second.

Muleshoe coach Jacinda Langen said it was far from a good outing, with several of her top runners finishing more than 30 seconds off their normal times.

"I don't feel we ran our best," Langen said. "I feel we've got a lot better performance in us."

Muleshoe will face a lot stiffer competition at the Region I meet here Nov. 4.

Besides Dimmitt, the Lady Mules will be tested by Clint, Lubbock Cooper, Sanford-Fritch and Brownfield.

The top three teams and top 10 individuals advance to the state meet.

"Basically, we start with a clean slate," Langen said.

Kenworthy toured the 2,000-meter course in a brisk 12 minutes and 45 seconds, 18 seconds ahead of Floydada's Tara McCandless.

Aguirre was well back at 13:14 while Cari Faver was a disappointing ninth with a time of 13:29. Faver was expected to challenge Kenworthy.

Because of a scheduling mixup, several other district meets and a college meet were held at the same time, leading to confusion.

Langen said that was factor in how her team ran.

Stephanie Sexton (13th, 13:35), Jo Beth Gilleland (15th, 13:37) and Brandi Harrison (16th, 13:40) added top-twenty finishes for the Muleshoe.

PTO officers elected at Lazbuddie

The Lazbuddie Parent/Teacher Organization held its first meeting on Monday, Oct. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Lazbuddie school cafeteria.

The first order of business was the election of officers. Tonjua Scisson was elected as president. Nathan and Sharli Crawford were jointly elected to the office of vice-president. Rosa Davis was elected secretary/treasurer and Jayna Lennon was elected reporter.

There was a discussion on Senate Bill I. This bill states that "each board of trustees shall cooperate in the establishment of ongoing operations of at least one parent-teacher organization at each school in the district to promote parental involvement in school activities."

Parents were elected to serve on the school improvement committees for each campus at Lazbuddie ISD.

• Elected for the elementary campus were Susie Sterling, Janette Thorn, and Sherri Nichols.

• Elected for the secondary campus were Deloris Salazar, April Coker and Pat Randolph.

It was then established that two of the parents from each committee would need to be at each of the district committee meetings.

back to a former time in Spain, while a wedding gift wrapped in typical modern fashion seems out of its time period.

The scenery is minimal, allowing the audience to focus on the various characters.

Kermit Price aptly plays a naive bridegroom who is almost unaware of the drama unfolding around him.

The bride, played by Holly Hutton, keeps the audience off guard with ambiguity, as she waivers between two possible courses of action.

In his role as Leonardo Felix, Carlos Rojas expresses emotions from confusion, anger, desire and brief joy to apprehension and fear.

Cameo roles by Kenzi

Brown as Leonardo's wife and Melissa Mata as his mother-in-law provide insight into the place of women in Spanish family culture of the period.

Mark McGuire, as the bride's steward, adds comic relief; and Scotty Mills—often cast in comic roles—turns in a sinister performance as the Beggar (Death).

The moon with a metallic silver face, played by Adrian King draped entirely in silver, adds a poetic, dancelike quality to the performance.

"Blood Wedding" seems shorter than it really is (an hour and ten minutes). The drama moves quickly toward an expected, almost unavoidable conclusion.

Bobcats don't have the same quality players, according to Adair.

In fact, the Muleshoe coaching staff said they've seen a lot of new faces in Dimmitt's game film, the result of injuries, according to the rumor mill.

Dimmitt, which beat Floydada 21-11 in its district opener, has played a tough non-conference schedule with games against Slaton, River Road and Springlake-Earth.

The Muleshoe coaching staff hopes quarterback Daniel Garbarino and its new offense continue the maturation process that led to season highs in points and total offense (428 yards) against Floydada.

Garbarino rushed for 170 yards and two touchdowns and completed 5-of-14 passes for 99 yards and two more touchdowns. Tailback Jake Adair added balance with 121 yards rushing and scored two touchdowns (31-yard reception, 9-yard run).

"That was the first time since we put in the new offense (three games) that we had the whole package in," Adair said. "The offensive line was really dominant."

Muleshoe didn't play that bad on defense against Floydada, but was burned by two big plays, a 67-yard run by McCann and a 72-yard half-back option pass that gave Floydada a 28-27 lead with 3:32 left in the game.

"Subtract two or three plays from the formula, and we win handily," Adair said. "But we had a couple of real poor plays defensively. Offensively we had one or two—and summarily, it cost us big."

X&Os: Run to perfection

It was just like the coaching staff drew it up on the chalkboard.

When Daniel Garbarino scored on a 35-yard quarterback draw in the third quarter of Muleshoe's 35-34 loss at Floydada last week it was perfect.

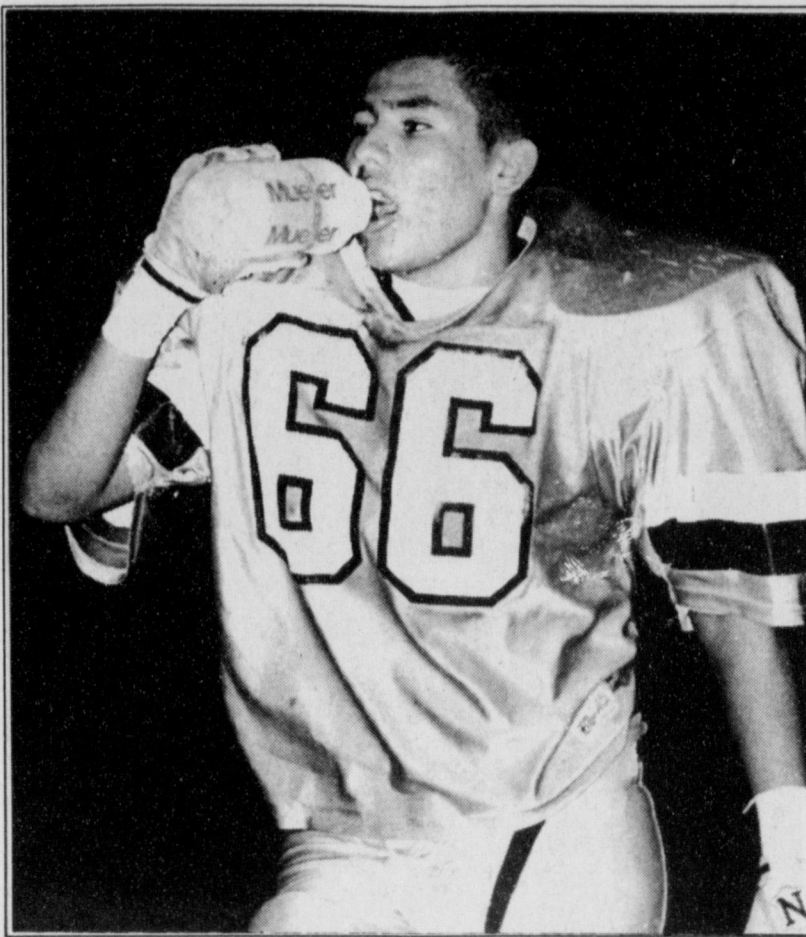

Actually, it's a version of the Washington Redskins' infamous counter-trey, now in every playbook in some form.

With the left side of the line blocking down, right guard Chad Johnson and right tackle Rico Aguirre pulled to left while Garbarino took a false step to the right to create the misdirection.

Johnson kicked out the contain man while Aguirre sealed off the pursuit. Garbarino bolted through the gaping hole, picks up a "textbook" block from wide receiver Darren Elliot, and streaked into the left corner of the end zone.

Perfection for one play.

marching methodically downfield while gouging huge chunks of time from the clock.

Second-and-eight at the Floydada 35 with under four minutes to go. Mule time!

But Garbarino loses the ball on a bootleg and the Whirlwinds recover at the 32. It was the only mistake Garbarino made all night in an otherwise brilliant performance.

Then Muleshoe makes the first of two critical mistakes in the last 3 1/2 minutes, giving up a 72-yard touchdown pass on a halfback option. Blown coverage.

But as Muleshoe head coach Randy Adair would explain later: "Even after that, my feeling was I knew we were fixing to score."

Muleshoe did on a beautifully executed 60-yard drive, going ahead 34-28 on a 12-yard pass from Garbarino to Doug Fields.

I can't seem to remember what happened after that...

Now if the players can only remember to forget.

Have a nice day!

Memory loss is sign of age

It's one of the quandaries of life that you remember what you should forget, and forget what you should remember.

What Mulshoe needs to do is combine the two, remembering to forget the hurt and disappointment of Friday's 35-34 to Floydada.

They need to develop Teflon skin, because nothing sticks to Teflon.

If anyone is capable of forgetting, it's the young.

Short-term and selective memory are two of the greatest attributes of youth, much to the dismay of parents and teachers.

Not that Mulshoe should forget the whole Floydada game. Just the final outcome.

Mulshoe did so many things right against Floydada, fate did them wrong.

Mulshoe played nearly flawlessly while building 21-7 and 27-14 leads in the second half.

They had the Whirlwind defense on its heels.

With quarterback Daniel Garbarino (170 yards on 17 carries) stretching the defense from sideline-tosideline on timely bootlegs, and Jake Adair (121 yards on 25 carries) attacking the soft middle, Mulshoe rolled to a season-high 418 yards of total offense.

Meanwhile, the defense, except for a 67-yard run by eventual villain Ramon McCann, was eliminating the big plays that had been the death of them all year.

Then came the type of play that's been haunting Mulshoe all season.

Fourth-and-13 at the Mulshoe 25 early in the fourth quarter. Floydada goes with the screen pass, and they make it after the Whirlwind ball carrier bounces off two tacklers three yards short of the first down.

Four plays later, again on fourth down, quarterback Zack Abshier hits Chad Hinkle on a quick post to make it 27-21.

Mulshoe responds in unlike Mulshoe fashion,

District 2-3A roundup

Littlefield took over sole possession of first place with a 41-10 win at Shallowater.

Littlefield (8-0, 3-0) rallied to take a 13-10 halftime lead, then put the game out of reach with a 21-point fourth quarter.

Michael Benton rushed for 94 yards and three touchdowns for Littlefield, which rushed for 236 yards. Benton scored on two short runs in the fourth quarter.

Shallowater (6-2, 2-1) took a 10-0 lead on a 94-yard pass from Blane Brown to Cole Roberts and Jay Lusk's 26-yard field goal.

Aaron Clark's 43-yard punt return for a touchdown midway through the second quarter got Littlefield on the board. Clark's 36-yard return moments later set up Benton's nine-yard run that gave the Wildcats the lead for good.

Friona rushed for 297 yards

Senior Gabriel Mendoza was named the Western 6 athlete of the week. Mendoza had 11 tackles (six solo) and recovered a fumble against Floydada in his first game since regaining his academic eligibility. He missed three games...Michael Woodard had Mulshoe's first interception in seven games in the third quarter, setting up a nine-yard touchdown run by Jake Adair that gave the Mules' a 21-7 lead. Doug Fields chased Floydada QB Zack Abshier out of the pocket, and throwing across his body, Abshier overthrew his receiver and Woodard hauled it in at the Whirlwind 23. Mulshoe had two interceptions in its season-opener against Portales...Defensive end Josh Otwell had two sacks while Chad Johnson and Fields were credited with QB hurries. Otwell leads the Mules with three sacks...Leading by five, 33-28, Mulshoe decided to kick the extra point instead of going for the two-point conversion. A successful two-point conversion would have made it 35-28, and forced Floydada head coach Bryan Davis to decide whether to go for the tie or the win. Instead, Abshier kicked the extra point that gave the Whirlwinds a 35-34 win. Mulshoe head coach Randy Adair said that if he a chance to do it over again, he'd go for two. "But hindsight is 20-20."...Jesse Gonzales was 2-for-3 on extra points in his first game kicking...Coach Adair said the right side of the line, starting at center with Otwell, Johnson at

Quote of note

"The films lied. They were a lot quicker than they looked."

— Lazbuddie head coach Mark Scisson after losing to Whitharral, 76-42.

Loss leaves Lazbuddie hanging

WHITHARRAL — Lazbuddie's string of seven straight playoff appearances is in serious jeopardy after Whitharral exploded for 47 points in the second half en route to a 76-42 District 1-2A six-man win here Friday.

The win gives Whitharral (8-0, 3-0) the inside track on its first playoff berth in 13 years. Whitharral is tied with Amherst for the 1-2A lead. The top two teams in the district qualify for the state playoffs.

Whitharral plays at top-ranked Amherst this week.

Lazbuddie's second-straight loss drops the Longhorns (4-4, 1-2) into fourth in 2-1A.

"The kids know they're probably not going to make the playoffs, so the hardest part is going to be getting them prepared the next two weeks," Lazbuddie coach Mark Scisson said.

Michael Lopez threw for 169 yards and five touchdowns and rushed for 119 yards and a touchdown for Whitharral.

Lopez threw three touchdown passes in the third quarter when the Panthers outscored Lazbuddie, 31-0.

"Their offense was just a lot quicker than our defense," Lazbuddie Mark Scisson said after the Panthers outgained Lazbuddie in total yards, 532-420. "Then we completely fell apart in the third quarter."

Lazbuddie's Juan Reyes, who returned the opening kickoff 76 yards for a touchdown, gained 264 all-purpose yards before leaving the game with a separated elbow early in the third quarter. Reyes is out for the season.

Reyes rushed for 107 yards and two touchdowns. His 30-yard run gave the Longhorns a 28-26 halftime lead.

"We were able to run the ball, but when we fell behind we had to pass the ball to slow the clock down," Scisson said.

Justin St. Clair completed 13-of-40 passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns and added a 40-yard touchdown run.

Brice Foster rushed for 73 yards on eight carries and had two catches for 28 yards and a

Silverton tramples Three Way, 60-14

SILVERTON — Three Way had its faint playoff hopes trampled in a 60-14 loss to Silverton.

Silverton (5-3, 2-1) overpowered the Eagles behind Arnold Garza, who ran for 215 yards and three touchdowns.

The Owls outrushed Three Way, 289-4.

"That's what really hurts us is our lack of physical strength," Three Way coach Rowdy Bryan. "Big, physical teams just overpower us."

Garza scored three times (5, 56 and 7 yards) as Silverton built a 22-0 first-quarter lead.

The Owls led 38-6 at halftime.

Three Way (3-4, 0-3) scored on a five-yard run by Jose Gutierrez and a 17-yard pass from Keith Kindle to Torrey Roberts.

The Eagles play at Cotton Center (1-7, 0-3) Friday.

"The guys seem to have a pretty good rival going with them," said Bryan, in his first year at Three Way.

Index forecasts moderate growth

AUSTIN — "The latest Index of Leading Texas Economic Indicators reflects a continued strong faith in the state's prosperity from Texas consumers and business investors," State Comptroller John Sharp said.

"The August Index is 124.7. That is a 2.1 percent increase compared to the same period last year, but only a fractional gain compared to the previous month. Six of the ten indicators we track show economic growth, while the remaining four indicators show a slight slowdown in the Texas economy. On the whole, the Index forecasts moderate economic growth," Sharp said.

Consumer confidence is one of the major factors driving the Texas economy, as it has for many months. The consumer confidence index is 25.2 percent higher than one year ago, and 5.2 percent higher than the previous month. Low inflation, plentiful job opportunities and faith in the moderate growth of the national economy are feeding consumer optimism.

As a result, retail sales are up 7.6 percent compared to one year ago. The strongest sales are in cars and housing goods, while clothing sales are soft.

guard, tackle Rico Aguirre and tight end Jarred Redwine was one of the main reasons the Mules gained a season-high 328 yards rushing. "They were real dominant, graded out well and didn't make many mistakes."...Trivia: What Southwestern Junior College did former Cowboy great Roger Staubach attend before going to Navy?...Coach Adair said the 72-yard halfback option pass that gave Floydada a short-lived 28-27 lead was the result of blown coverage. He said the defensive coaching staff had prepared for that play all week...Muleshoe came right back to scored on a 12-yard bootleg pass from Daniel Garbarino to Fields. A 38-yard pass from Garbarino to John Embry set up the score. Speaking of Staubach, that's who Garbarino looked like on the TD pass. As he neared the line of scrimmage and a line of Whirlwind defenders, Garbarino jumped up on one leg and fired the ball to a wide-open Fields....Answer: Staubach played at New Mexico Military Institute Junior College in Roswell...Surprise score of the week: Lubbock Cooper 21, Seminole 19. Other scores: Denver City 33, Lubbock Roosevelt 0; Portales 26, Tucumcari 0; Midland Lee 14, Odessa Permian 7.

City of Muleshoe Fair and Equal Housing Opportunity

Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, makes discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, familial status, or national origin illegal in connection with the sale or rental of most housing and any vacant land offered for residential construction or use. FAIR HOUSING IS A NATIONAL POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES. IT IS THE LAW, AND IT IS YOUR RIGHT.

It is the right of all citizens to live where they choose, when they choose, and for as long as they choose and can afford to do so. Yet, people who want to rent or buy a home may be discriminated against because of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, familial status, or national origin. You can do something about housing discrimination.

The City of Muleshoe has a Fair Housing Ordinance on file, and the City Council has proclaimed November as "Fair Housing Month". Complaints may be filed locally with the City Secretary or by reporting violations to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, toll-free at 1-800-669-9777 or 1-800-927-9275 (TDD). 44t-1tc

NATURE

"Monkey in the Mirror"

The 12-week-old baby on the screen gazes into his mother's eyes, responds to her smile and the sound of her voice, grasps her extended finger, and wails inconsolably when she leaves the room. These are the typical reflex reactions of any healthy infant. But this baby is a chimpanzee, and his "mother" is a research scientist.

It doesn't take an expert to recognize the similarities between humans and other primates. The face of an ape or chimpanzee, for example, often provides an uncanny reflection of ourselves in terms of habits, gestures, and expressions. But is there more to our kinship with these animals than meets the eye?

The intriguing answer is revealed in fascinating detail when Nature presents "Monkey in the Mirror."

Drawing on the latest discoveries both in the lab and in the wild, the program reveals in the world of primates a wealth of attributes we once believed were uniquely human. They live in societies as complex as ours in many ways, replete with intricate relationships, instances of bloody warfare, sex for pleasure, and power politics.

"Monkey in the Mirror" on Nature airs Sunday, November 5th at 8:00 p.m. It repeats Saturday, November 11th at 12:00 a.m. on KENW-TV.

A Natural Passion

At a time when the mysteries of the natural world are fewer and the demands of the viewing public area greater than ever, the job of the successful wildlife filmmaker requires tremendous dedication, inspiration, and often, danger. A Natural Passion examines the reality of this specialized career, looking at several wildlife filmmakers who risk their lives and their sanity to bring the wonders of nature to television.

Filming natural history is not a typical profession. A Natural Passion explores this exclusive world where danger and success often go hand in hand. While filming under the ice of the Antarctic, a director and cameraman are stranded without air; a cameraman alone in the African Serengeti encounters a hungry lion outside his tent; and another risks his life in a sea of mud and caustic soda to film the extraordinary migration of Africa's flame birds.

A Natural Passion airs Monday, November 6th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, November 26th at 4:00 p.m.

MGM: When the Lion Roars

Sundays, 11:00 p.m. (begins 5th)

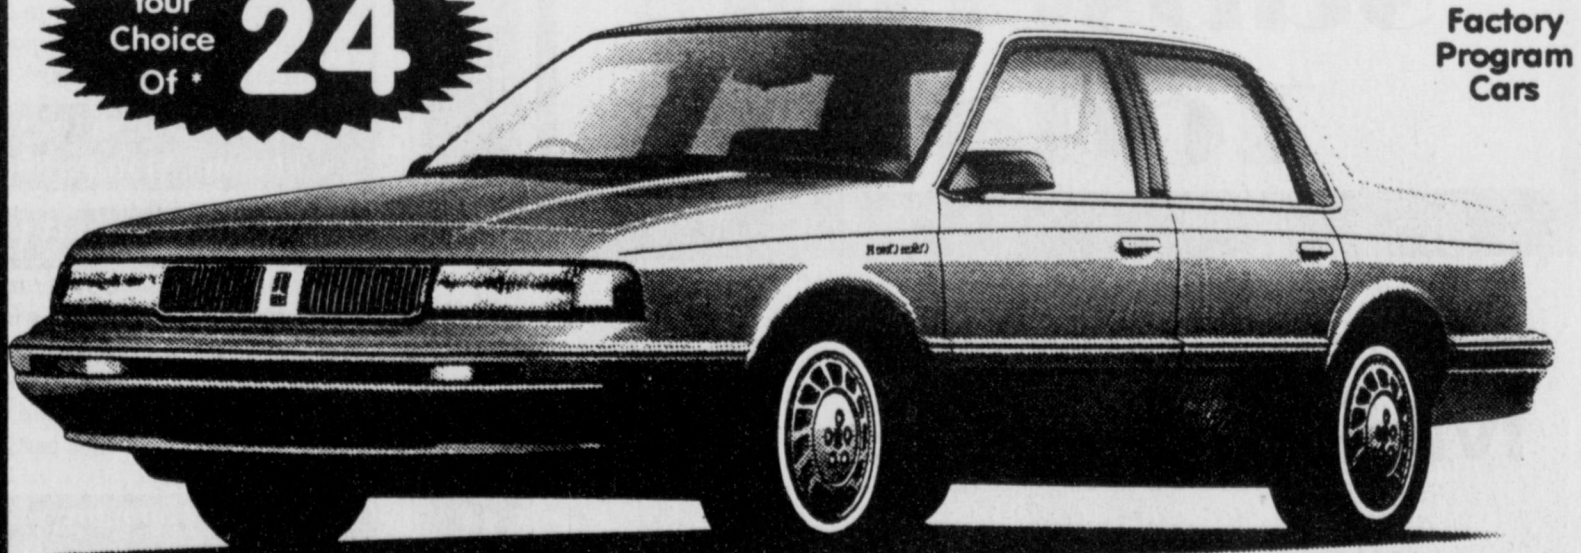

Public television looks at the legend of Hollywood's greatest dream factory — its rise and fall, triumphs and failures, romances and scandals. This three-part series covers the years 1924-1986, and combines film clips, interviews, and behind-the-scenes footage to reveal a vanished world. Patrick Stewart is the host.
