

Benham battles way to pair of 2-3A titles

By RICK WHITE
 Managing Editor

Kendra Benham's District 2-3A sprint titles didn't come easily.

The Muleshoe High School sophomore had to overcome a stumbling start in the preliminaries just to reach the finals of the 100 meters and has a nasty four-inch scar on her neck after nearly being garroted by the finish line in the 400-meter relay.

"I think maybe I should sue Friona after the week I had," joked Benham, while clutching her medals for winning the 100 and 400 relay.

Junior Cari Faver successfully defended her 1600 and 3200-meter titles, but the Lady Mules didn't have enough depth to stick with Friona or Dimmitt.

Friona won the meet handily with 167 points, followed by defending champion Dimmitt with 135 1/2 points and Muleshoe with 117 points.

The top two finishers in each event advance to the Class 3A Region I meet April 26-27 at Odessa.

"We did all right," Muleshoe girls coach Donnie Wiley said. "Dimmitt surprised me a little bit. They really loaded up for the meet. Otherwise, we could have made it interesting. "But we won two meets, finished second twice, and had some fun."

Benham avoided a near catastrophe at the start of Friday's 100 meter preliminaries when her starting blocks slipped, dropping her to all fours. She got up and finished third.

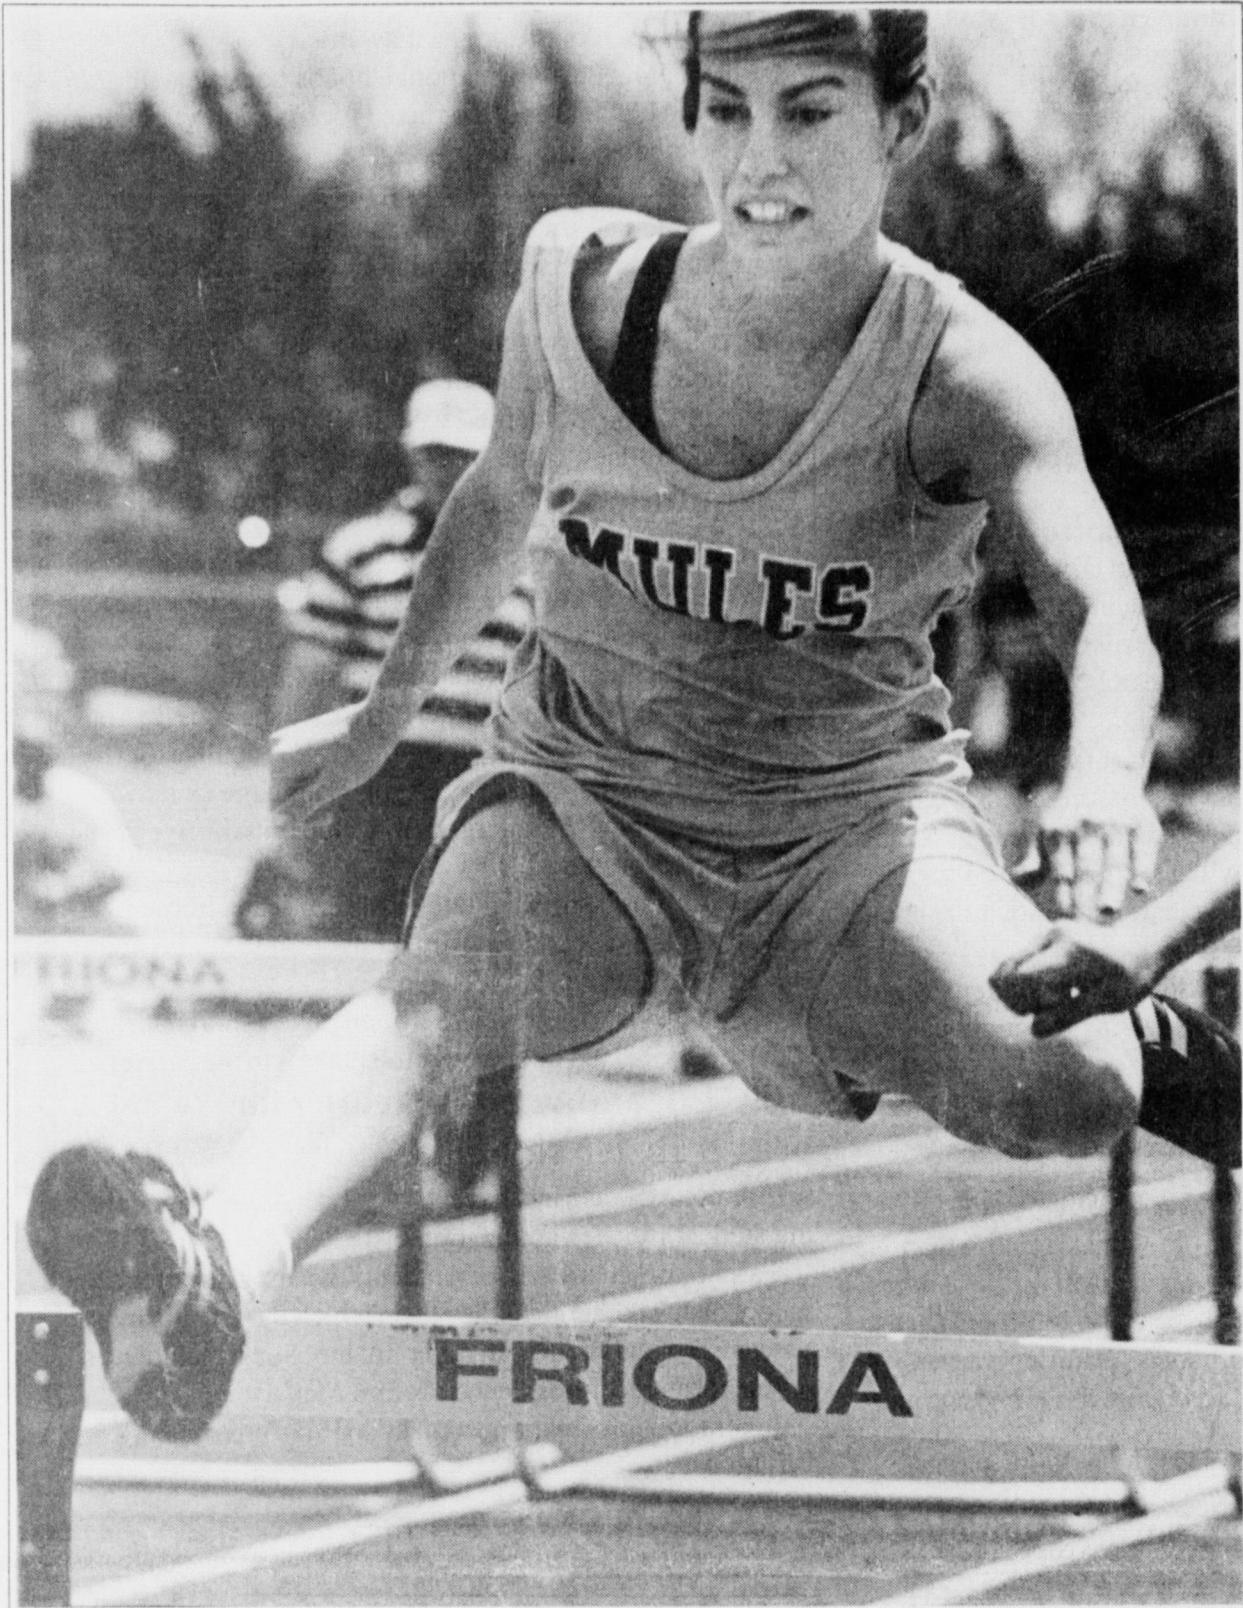

"I was mad. People said I had a mean look on my face and I never make faces when I run," said Benham, who also finished second in the shot and ran on MHS' third-place 800 relay team.

She was still mad Saturday when she breezed to the 100 meters title through a swirling dust storm in a time of 12.97.

In the 400 relay, Benham powered her way through a strong head-wind down the stretch, but became tangled in the string used to mark the finish. The string left a deep rope burn near across her throat.

Megan Harlan, Brandi Harrison and Carolyn Schuster joined Benham in posting the winning time of 52.84 seconds.

Faver feels she's on track to return to the state meet, where she finished third in the 1600

Power outage traced to Tolk Station

Muleshoe was credited with bringing most of the South Plains to a standstill Tuesday, when a substation at the Tolk Station malfunctioned and knocked out power to more than 220,000 Southwestern Public Service customers in Texas, New Mexico and Kansas.

Power was lost from about 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in most towns. Ironically, while Muleshoe was pointed to as the center of the problem (even though the Tolk Station is located in Lamb County), Muleshoe was one of the few isolated areas not to lose power.

Bill Krenshaw of Southwestern Public Service called the major power outage a "freak occurrence."

Officials still don't know whether the outage was the result of an electrical or a mechanical failure, but it triggered more shutdowns as a safeguard, having a domino effect that reached as far as southwest Kansas and almost to Midland.

Power was out for hours in Hobbs, Tahoka, Slayton, Borger, Clovis, Portales, Roswell, parts of Amarillo and all of Lubbock, which is serviced by Jones Station.

City reaches agreement with West Plains, Inc.

By MARTHA TOLES FROST
 City Editor

The Muleshoe City Council Tuesday passed an ordinance granting a franchise agreement with West Plains Telecommunications, Inc.

West Plains agreed to three changes in its original proposal, presented to the City of Muleshoe April 8.

The revisions included monthly rather than yearly payments, a 10-year rather than a 25-year lease, and the right of the City to re-negotiate in case of a change in ownership.

In other business, a City Manager Dave Marr, Jr. informed the Council that interviews are being set up with interested applicants for the Muleshoe Police Chief position.

The City of Muleshoe has been awarded a $250,000 Texas Community Development Program (TCDP) grant for a paving project in "The Flats" in the northwest section of town, with the City to provide a percentage ($60,000) in matching funds.

Marr said he wants to take bids on the paving project before the next regular meeting at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 21 so that he can recommend a bid to the Council at that time.

The City is attempting to get a TCDP grant for the paving of Eighth Street and Avenues B and D on three sides of the Muleshoe Housing Authority, as well as for water line looping and sewer system improvements in the same area.

Councilman Tom Bonds requested that the Main Street project be put on the agenda for the next night meeting slated for 8 p.m. Thursday, May 9 to canvass City General Election votes.

Councilman Cliff Black said he would like to see the input of Main Street businesses concerning the beautification and the meeting of Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) mandates.

Marr is planning a slide presentation for the night meeting, centering around City Engineer Joe Shehan's study of a proposed island project that would preserve pull-in parking on Main Street.

Marr suggested that the input and energy of Kristy Price also would be appreciated, describing Price as "a mover and shaker who is effective in a diplomatic and polite way."

Also discussed was work being done on the ash walking path and bridges in the new city park, as well as the upcoming replacement of asphalt basketball courts in the Eastside park, with a regulation-size concrete basketball court and two goals.

Board sets minimum salary scale

By MARTHA TOLES FROST
City Editor

Three incumbent Muleshoe Independent School Board members were declared duly elected at Monday night's board meeting.

Cindy Purdy, Place 2; Sam Harlan, Place 5; and Frank Saldana, Place 3, were re-elected as unopposed candidates.

New state election laws provide that unopposed school board candidates can be sworn into office without ballots being cast if they are unopposed, if no proposition is to appear on the ballot, and if no candidate's name is to be placed on a list of write-in candidates for that office. The measure saved the district approximately $500 in election costs.

In other business, the Board set a minimum salary increase for teachers, counselors and librarians for 1996-97.

The Board's action ensures that all professional staff will receive an increase of at least $1,250. Those with Master's degrees or higher will receive an increase of at least $1,450.

Under the new plan, the district will supplement any staff member whose state increase falls below the $1,250/$1,450 level. This will cost the district $197,121 according to a MISD April 16 newsletter.

Next year, and for one year only, the district will receive an additional $83,398 in "transition funds" to help offset the cost of moving to the new state salary schedule.

"The new state salary schedule does not provide equal steps for each year of service. Had we continued with the old method, salary increases would have ranged from $580 to $3,746 for professional staff," MISD Superintendent Bill Moore said.

"Under the new method no one will receive less than a $1,250 increase. This method will also give the Board more control over personnel costs, which make up 75 percent of our total budget, because they will determine on an annual basis what the minimum increase for professional staff will be."

The Board also approved proposed curriculum changes at Watson Junior High School, approved the district's media contract with the Education Service Center, and approved an overall 8 percent increase in the campus instructional budgets for the 1996-97 school year.

The WJHS Band was recognized for its UIL sweepstakes award. Also recognized were WJHS students who competed in the Texas Math and Science Coaches Association state meet, including Lincoln Riley, Adrienne Ashford, Kamal Bhakta, Leonard Joyner, Daniel Patterson, Megan Tipps and Ricardo Aburto.

the weekend to advise them that he was resigning.

"I would like to express my appreciation to the board," Murphy said.

"They have given me support and understanding and have been good friends. In my career, they are the best board of directors I ever worked with."

Murphy is expected to resign officially at the next hospital board meeting April 24.

Texas wheat production down from last year

AUSTIN — Texas wheat producers expect to harvest 55.0 million bushels this year, 27 percent less than both the 1995 crop and 1994 crop.

According to an April 1 survey conducted by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service, planted acreage for the 1996 crop is estimated at 6.0 million acres, up three percent from 1995 but unchanged from 1994.

Production on the Northern High Plains is expected to total 28.0 million bushels, down 16 percent from a year ago. Irrigated fields across the region are in fair to good condition, while dryland fields are in poor condition.

Producers in the Blacklands expect to harvest 9.0 million bushels, down 14 percent from last year. Planted acres for the region increased four percent from the previous year to 730,000 acres. Dry conditions have plagued this region throughout the fall and winter.

Mule seniors inched out of district titles

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

FRIONA — A couple of hat sizes cost Muleshoe High School's Daniel Garbarino and Chad Johnson District 2-3A track titles at Friona High School.

A quarter inch was the difference between first and second place for Garbarino in the triple jump and for Johnson in the shot put.

It would have been the fourth title for Garbarino, who won the high jump, 110 and 300-meter hurdles Saturday.

It was more heartbreaking for Johnson, a senior who was edged out of what would have been his first district title on the final throw by Floydada's Zack Abshier.

Johnson shattered his previous best by almost two feet with a toss of 51 feet, three and three-quarter inches on the second-to-last throw in the shot. He could only watch as Abshier beat his mark less than two minutes later with a throw of 51-4. Abshier was the leader heading into the final round with a throw of 49-10, two inches better than Johnson.

"Sure, I would have liked to win the district title," said the quiet, stocky Johnson. "But I'm really happy about breaking 50 feet, and I'm still going to regionals."

"We were all pretty fired up because it was the first time he had busted 50 feet," Muleshoe boys coach Ted Johnson said. "The 50-foot barrier had been a big wall all year."

Dimmitt won the last two events and slipped past defending champion Friona for the boys team title.

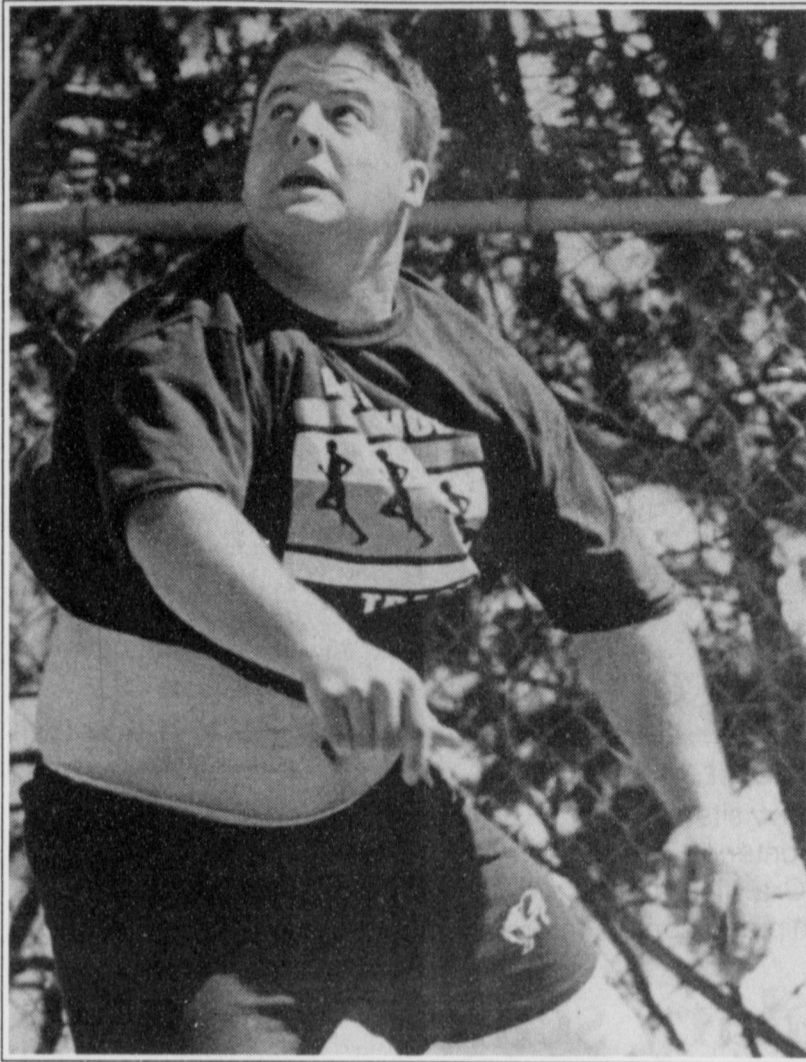

Jerome Larra won the 1,600 meters and the Bobcats won the 1,600-meter relay to finish with 135 points. Friona was second with 130 points, followed by Littlefield with 105 points and Muleshoe with 87 points.

"We did the best we could with what we had," said Coach Johnson, who had hoped to somehow slide into the second spot despite a painfully thin team. "Dimmitt brought a bunch of kids up from JV and had some of their key people step up big."

The top two in each event advance to the Class 3A Region I meet April 26-27 at Odessa.

McClanahan sets two JV records

FRIONA — Matt McClanahan set two school records, helping Muleshoe finish third at the District 2-3A junior varsity track meet April 12-13 at Friona High School.

The MHS freshman won the 300-meter hurdles with a time of 44.13 and was fourth in the 110 hurdles with a time of 17.69, both JV school records.

McClanahan also ran on Muleshoe's 1,600-meter relay team that finished fourth.

Floydada won the meet with 201 points, Friona was second with 138 points and Muleshoe third with 57 points.

Riley Byers leaves lasting impression

Riley Byers saved his best for last at the District 2-3A meet last weekend.

But this isn't a story about a great high school athlete winning more medals than Gen. Schwarzkopf, or a good high school athlete going out on top with a performance he can brag over a couple of beers in 20 years.

It's about an average high school athlete performing a near anonymous feat.

Byers finished fifth in the 110-meter hurdles, running the race in under 17 seconds for the first time. Few outside his coach, family and friends even noticed.

Byers finally received the payoff for four years of hard work.

"It was the one time I felt all the hard work was worth it," Byers said Monday. "I've never felt like that. The last couple of nights I couldn't sleep."

Imagine if he had finished first?

Great athletes come along about once a decade. So do kids like Riley Byers, said his coach Ted Johnson.

"Having a kid like Riley Byers is as rewarding as getting a kid who wins at the state track meet," said Johnson, who coached Muleshoe's last state champion, Eric Sisneros, in 1983. "What makes Riley so special is he gets so excited when he improves."

"He's what makes coaching fun. I look forward to going to track meets and having him around. He's just an inspiration."

He's also an inspiration to senior teammate and friend Daniel Garbarino, one of those great athletes who comes along once every decade. He's an eight-time district champion, 12-time regional qualifier in track with a good shot at returning to the Class 3A state meet in the 300-meter hurdles.

"I always wonder what kind of athlete I could be if I had as much heart as he does," said Garbarino, who signed to play football at New Mexico State University. "He's an amazing little

Wood upbeat about offseason program

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

As part of the off-season training program, Muleshoe High School football players drag a spare tire up and down the practice field this spring.

Now they know what it's like to be middle-aged.

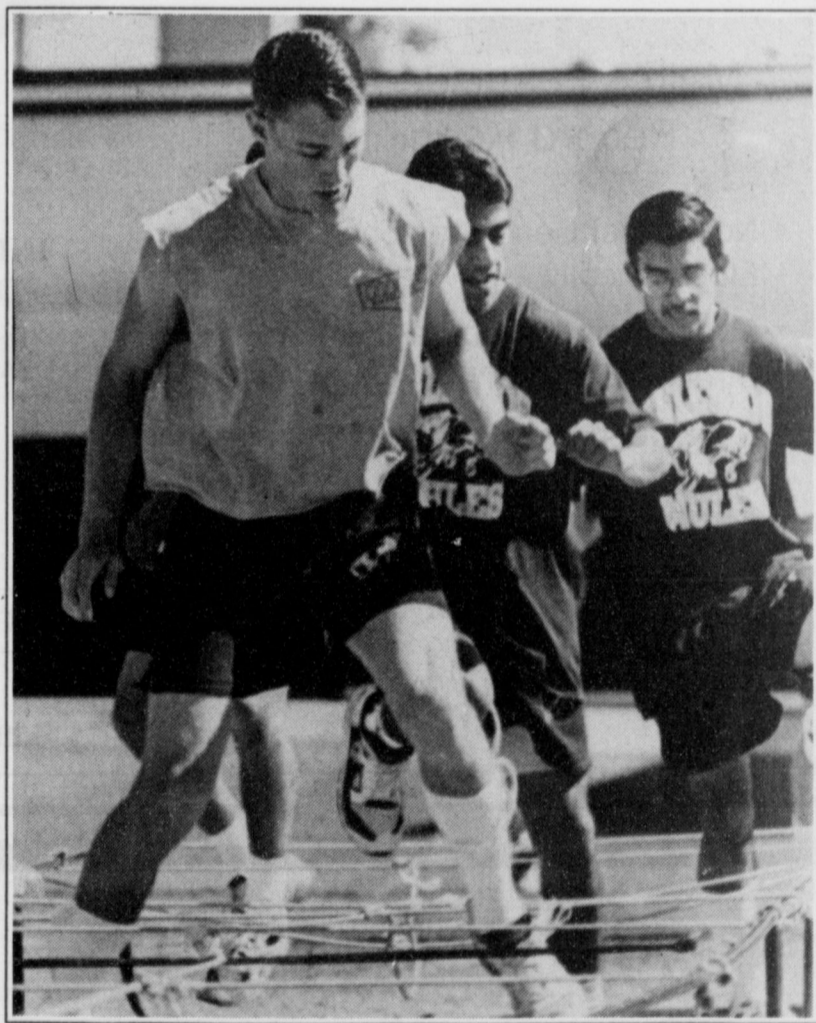

Dragging tires is just one of the conditioning exercises the players are doing this spring. There's also agility drills and plenty of time pumping iron in the recently upgraded weight room.

There also getting introduced to the nuances of the new offense expected to be installed by new head coach David Wood.

Sixty-two players in the freshman through junior classes are taking part in the program, encouraging numbers to Wood.

"Hopefully, with the new weight room and the new program, it might encourage them to stay in the program," Wood said. "We're trying to build a program, not trying to survive from year-to-year."

"The kids attitude has been great. They've already called son since 1983. "Anything is possible if the kids believe in the program," Wood said.

Mules open at Portales

The Muleshoe High School football team's long road to the top of the district standings is a little shorter this year.

Muleshoe will host both Dalhart and Perryton, the two longest road trips within the newly aligned District 1-3A for the Mules.

"I think the schedule fits us pretty good," Muleshoe head football coach and athletic director David Wood said.

The Mules open the season Sept. 6 at interstate rival Portales and concludes the non-district portion of the schedule Sept. 27 by hosting small-school power Springlake-Earth, which dropped to Class A this year.

"In the 1600, I felt pretty good. But it was hard to tell because of the wind," said Faver. "But I don't want to use that as an excuse."

Faver ran the 1600 in 5:41.77. With little wind Friday, she ran her second-best 3200 (12:25.56) of the year.

Faver doesn't necessarily outrun her opponents, she out works them.

"Even at the beginning of the year, I was working toward district and state. I know the other girls there work hard every day, I just have to work harder than they do," Faver said.

Muleshoe's Jo Beth Gilleland also qualified for regionals, finishing second in the 300-meter hurdles (50.36).

Friona won four of the five field events and seven of 16 events total.

Friona's Courtney Carthel (shot, discus) and Dimmitt's Jennifer Vick (300 hurdles, long jump) were also double winners.

wind-aided time of 14.86 seconds, his best effort of the year.

"It felt real good because I ran an almost perfect race," Garbarino said. "I was more aggressive between the hurdles."

Garbarino, now a 12-time regional qualifier and winner of eight district titles in the last two years, has spent most of the year working on the 300 hurdles in hopes of returning to the Class 3A meet in that event.

The 6-3 senior didn't look as sharp in the 300 hurdles, but still won comfortably.

"Fundamentally, it was horrible," Garbarino said. "But it was still good to know I could run it in 40 flat (actually 40.59) running like that. I was stuttering at every hurdle."

Garbarino also won the high jump with a less than stellar effort, topping two others tied at 6-0 on less misses. Garbarino had jumped 6-4 in his last meet.

Friday, he qualified for regionals in the triple jump with a jump of 42-21/2. Jason Wright of Littlefield won it with a jump of 42-23/4.

Abshier (discus, shot), Littlefield's Ruben Martinez (100, 200) and Dimmitt's Larra (1600, 3200) and Joey Flores (400, 800) were all double winners.

Riley Byers is a people magnet, the kind of person who could have a hundred best men at his wedding.

"I'd always want him on my team," Garbarino said. "He's always supportive, always a friend. He's just fun to be around, always smiling, always laughing."

Byers also was part of two Mule relay teams that finished third and fourth at the district meet in a weekend he'll never forget.

"It's over, but it's not over," Johnson said. "He'll relive that race the rest of his life."

So Riley Byers is an average high school athlete. There's no shame in being average. Most of us are. That's what average means.

Besides, in 20 years Riley Byers will have moved up a couple of places at the district meet, and lopped a couple seconds off his time while being edged in a photo finish by one of the greatest athletes in Muleshoe High School history.

At least that's probably what he'll be telling friends over a couple of beers.

SPS recognized for conservation practices

AUSTIN — Southwestern Public Service Company received one of two Bob Derrington Water Reclamation Awards presented during the joint Texas Section — American Water Works Association / Water Environment Association of Texas Conference April 15.

Since 1961, Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) has established successful methods of re-treating and re-using significant volumes of purchased, secondary-treated sewage effluent for cooling and other processes at three steam-generation electric power stations in the Panhandle South Plains region.

During 1994, SPS reclaimed, treated, and used more than 3.77 billion gallons of effluent from the cities of Amarillo and Lubbock.

Moreover, SPS and partners have developed and established successful methods of disposing of the utility's waste industrial-use waters through turf and crop irrigation and related stock grazing. The utility thereby manages not only to be a "zero-discharge" large industrial water user, but also achieves other beneficial re-uses of what was formerly thought of as a useless, even offensive, waste.

The Bob Derrington Award is presented annually by the Texas Section of the American Water Works Association. It honors the contributions made to water reclamation and water conservation by Bob Derrington, Director of Utilities for the City of Odessa from 1978 until his death in 1990.

Through its awards program, the Texas Section AWWA recognizes water utilities, private companies, governmental agencies, and others who have developed or are developing innovative and successful methods for water efficiency and conservation.

males, 16 females).

In 1994, of 367 reported offenses by people over 18, 254 were by Hispanics and 113 by non-Hispanics.

In 1995, of 339 reported offenses by people over 18, 237 were by Hispanics and 102 by non-Hispanics.

For the specific offense of fraud, however, 37 were by non-Hispanics compared to only 26 by Hispanics in 1994.

In 1995, 32 non-Hispanics and only 30 Hispanics were reported for fraud (mostly bad checks, Robinson said).

The report is further broken down into age groups within the under-18 group and the over-18 group.

In the under 18 age group, the largest number of offenses were reported to have been committed by 13- to 14-year-olds (36 males, 20 females) and by 15-year-olds (33 males, 12 females).

In 1995, the largest number reported were by 10-12-year-olds (33 males, 2 females) and 13-14-year-olds (23 males, 10 females).

In the over 18 age group, the predominant age of offenders in 1994 was 25- to 29-year-olds, with 61 males and 37 females offending, as well as 30- to 34-year-olds, with 37 males and 7 females offending.

In 1995, the predominant age of offenders was the same two age groups, with 51 males and 19 females in the 25-29-year old group and 41 males and 10 females in the old group.

Robinson said that of the 25 reports she filed last month, only two offenders were over the age of 40.

Nursing Home News By Joy Stancell

We at the Healthcare Center had a nice and enjoyable Easter season. We trust you did too.

We are grateful to our friends in our community that showed us and gave us many, many gifts of love.

Irene Thorn baked, and sent by Hazel Waddell, loaves of banana nut bread for residents and staff.

The Muleshoe High School FHA baked cookies for us.

We enjoyed the Easter Hat Parade put together by Vivian White and Ada Murrah. Harold and Avis Carpenter, Carman (the Easter bunny), the children, who hunted eggs, Janice Johnson's son, who gave us a real live rabbit to feed and love, Volunteers plus, the residents and staff, all joined together to make this an extra special event.

Thursday morning, Nancy Lemons brought ceramics for the residents to paint. Residents participating were, Bootie Tiller, Rosa Sneed, Vera Engleking, Florence Harvey, Vera Downing, Lillie Wuerflein, Kathrine Rogers and Lora Dale. Aline Locke and Helen Tinskey watched and gave encouragement to the ladies as they painted.

Sunday afternoon, the Calvary Baptist took time to come for a special service.

People in Motion II

Stereotypes and misperceptions can be the toughest obstacles of all for people with disabilities. The second season of the award-winning People in Motion: An Innovation Miniseries sets out to shatter these presumptions by focusing on the impact of technology on those living with disabilities in the 1990s.

"A New Sense of Place," episode one, profiles extraordinary individuals who have found a way to "ramp" their way into the world and workplace — in front of orchestras, in the glare of news cameras, on the walls of museums, and just about everywhere else. Among them is Grammy Award-winner Evelyn Glennie, considered the world's leading solo percussionist in classical music. She has been profoundly deaf since age 12.

"Breaking the Silence Barrier," episode two, explores creative technologies designed to assist people with cognitive disabilities — people who once might have been written off as hopeless cases because of their autism, cerebral palsy, traumatic brain injury, or learning disability.

"Without Barriers and Borders," the final episode, explores the burgeoning global movement for independent living. In Cambodia, American veterans are working with local people with disabilities to build leg braces, artificial limbs, and wheelchairs, creating a cottage industry where war and destruction had been.

A viewer's guide for People in Motion is available free of charge by writing to: People in Motion: 2nd Season, P.O. Box 245, Little Falls, New Jersey 07424-0245.

People in Motion airs Sundays at 11:00 a.m. beginning April 21st. The series repeats Saturdays at 11:00 p.m. beginning April 27th.

Fred Rogers' Heroes:

Who's Helping America's Children

Fred Rogers ventures beyond his neighborhood to New Mexico and other states to profile four extraordinary true-to-life heroes in communities around the country. Especially for adults, the dynamic stories of these four people are convincing evidence that each of us can make positive and enduring changes within our communities.

Fred Rogers' Heroes: Who's Helping America's Children will be broadcast Sunday, April 21st, 10:00 a.m. It repeats Sunday, April 28th, 11:00 p.m.

Be There for Your Baby

This half-hour special takes a thoughtful look at how teen parents can better understand their children — and themselves. The program concentrates on practical advice for young parents. It encourages young parents to begin shaping their own parenting strategies now, and to think about what kind of person they want their child to be.

Be There for Your Baby will be broadcast Sunday, April 21st, 4:30 p.m., and repeats Sunday, April 28th, 1:00 p.m.

The years teach us much which the days never knew.

In 18th Century America, artists journeyed from town to town with paintings of men and women, complete in every feature, but the faces. A person wishing to sit for a portrait had to select the body he liked best and let the artist fill in the missing hair and face.

Three Way's Holmes honored for employee safety record

Bud Holmes, Maintenance and Transportation Supervisor of the Three-Way Independent School District was recently honored for outstanding employee safety by the North Texas Educational Insurance Association at its annual meeting conducted in Austin, Texas.

The Association consists of 121 participating school districts located throughout northern and central Texas.

The purpose of the meeting was to recognize those districts that have held both the number and severity of employee accidents to a very low level.

The Three-Way Independent School District was a Diamond Star award recipient, with the actual losses from employee accidents equaling less than 10 percent of the fund set aside by the district for claims expenses.

The actual savings to the school district was $11,859.

The combined savings during the 1994-95 school year, for all participating districts, was over 2.5 million dollars when compared to the costs of fully insured programs.

The total savings for all districts since inception of the programs in 1991 exceed $28 million dollars.
