Perfection. Dustin Cleavinger approached it. Muleshoe embraced it.

Cleavinger, a 6-4 sophomore post, made 11 of 12 shots and scored 26 points Friday as Muleshoe won its fourth-straight game, a 90-76 romp over Brownfield at WJHS gym.

MHS (4-0) got balanced scoring behind Cleavinger. All 10 Muleshoe players scored at least five points.

As a team, MHS shot 48 from the field, including 8 of 20 on 3-pointers.

"I feel real good about where we are at," Muleshoe coach Ralph Mason said. "But we're not where we need to be for district yet."

"I'm really pleased with the balance," Mason added. "Each night, it seems someone else is stepping up."

Sophomore wing Matt McClanahan added 11 points for Muleshoe and sophomore point guard Carlton Lewis had 9 points and 6 assists and 3 steals.

Muleshoe forced 25 turnovers with relentless full-court pressure.

"The kids are believing in the press and in the pace," Mason said. "I don't know if this is the best game we've played since I've been here, but it's one of the better ones."

Cleavinger scored 11 points and Layne Kemp (5 points) and Lewis added 3-pointers as MHS bolted to a 25-14 first-quarter lead.

After a back-and-forth second quarter, Cleavinger gave MHS a 46-33 halftime lead when he scored as the buzzer sounded. He caught a length-of-the-court pass in the lane and hit a 10-foot shot all in one motion. The inbound play began with .45 seconds.

"That was a big play," Mason said. "It was more than the two points, it gave us a big lift going into halftime."

Cleavinger added two 3-pointers and eight points in the third quarter which ended with Muleshoe up by 17.

Muleshoe then made 8 of 11 free throws in the fourth quarter to help seal the win.

Tanner Pope led Brownfield (0-4) with 28 points and James Foster added 18.

Including Morton Tuesday, Mason said all of Muleshoe's first five games were what he considered "winnable."

The real tests will come early in December when the Mules play the likes of Nazareth, Shallowater and in the I-27 Tournament.

"Nazareth will be out toughest test so far," Mason said. Shallowater will be a good test too. If we can win one of those,

Community service promotes harmony

By SAMUEL VILLARREAL
Journal Staff Writer

Rev. John Wagner reminded a crowd of more than 350 worshipers that it is important to give genuine thanks for what they have instead of just going through the motions.

Rev. Wagner presented the feature sermon Sunday during the annual community Thanksgiving service Sunday night at the First Assembly of God church in Muleshoe.

As Rev. Wagner took the altar, he joked about how he was chosen to deliver the message.

"I'm sort of the new kid in town, so when it came time to choose who was going to give the message tonight, somehow I was chosen," said Wagner, who became pastor of the First United Methodist Church in June.

The annual service brings together people of all faith to give thanks for what God has given them.

The hour-long service featured local gospel entertainment and sermons from members the Bailey County Ministerial Alliance.

The a capella quartet of Jack

Stone, Scott Pace, Curtis Shelburne and David Downum drew the night's loudest applause after performing "I'm Feeling Fine," an upbeat song about how God can keep people feeling fine no matter what sort of trials and tribulations life may bring them.

The quartet illustrates the message of the service, that for one day people of different father can come together in one voice. Stone, Pace and Shelburne are all clergymen of different faith.

The community Thanksgiving service has been in the works for quite some time, according to Pace, music minister of the First Baptist Church.

"We've been working on and off for the last two months," Pace said. "We've also been working pretty intensively for the last week and a half."

The Bailey County Ministerial Alliance, an organization of two dozen churches in Bailey County, sponsored the Thanksgiving service.

The handbell choir of the First United Methodist Church opened the service, filling the Combest gets 2nd chair on ag committee

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Rep. Larry Combest (R-Lubbock) was chosen Friday to serve as vice chairman of the U.S. House Agriculture Committee for the 105th Congress.

Combest lost his chance to head the agriculture committee when House Speaker Newt Gingrich offered the job to former Oregon Congressman Bob Smith as an enticement to the veteran politician to run for the seat of incumbent Rep. Wes Cooley, who chose not to run because of controversy.

Smith had been the senior Republican when he retired in 1994. He was re-elected in the Nov. 5 general election.

Combest will also chair the Resource Conservation and Research Subcommittee on the agriculture committee. Among his duties will be overseeing the Conservation Reserve Program.

From his senior position of the agriculture committee, Combest will help oversee the implementation of new farm

Chamber offering bigger prizes for Christmas floats

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce hopes to make its annual Christmas Parade Saturday, Dec. 7 bigger and better this year by awarding bigger cash prizes.

The lighted parade, which circles through downtown Muleshoe, starts at 7 p.m. and features floats made by area businesses and organizations.

This year, the Chamber has increased the first-place prize money for the best float to $250. Second place is worth $100 and third place $50.

The theme for this year's parade is "Classic Christmas Carols."

"We've offered larger prizes this year to get more people to enter floats," said parade organizer and Chamber board member Terri Hahn. "Floats are usually sponsored by businesses and organizations, but anyone is welcome to enter."

Under the recommendation of the Muleshoe Police Department, parade organizers are asking participants in the parade not throw candy as a safety precaution.

"We had some near-disasters last years with kids running into the street to get the candy," Hahn said.

She added that the Chamber of Commerce float will be giving candy to the kids.

Amarillo Farm & Ranch Show Dec. 3-5

AMARILLO — Farmers and ranchers attending the 12th annual Amarillo Farm and Ranch Show on Dec. 3-5 will get a first hand look at new products and the opportunity to attend education meetings.

Greg Geisler of Champion Farm Show said, "This year's show combines the best lineup of new products offered by national manufacturers."

Over 700 exhibits will fill the Amarillo Civic Center during the three day event.

On the educational side, the CRP Program will be a major topic Dec. 4.

Continuing Education Units for Pesticide Applicators will be offered during the meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday. Certified Crop Advisors will have the opportunity to earn Units during the Farm Show Symposium on Wednesday. Groups holding meetings include: Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Greater West Texas Angus Association, Pioneer Hi-

Bred, ASI Ag Services & DTN, Potter County Ladies Program (held at the Texas A&M Center on Wednesday), Southwest Association and Texas Wheat Producers.

"Combining exhibits and education in one location offers the attendees the best of both worlds," Geisler said.

Show hours are 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Admission to the show is free.

For more information on the meetings and exhibits call 800-827-8007.

Conservation program Dec. 13 in Canyon

CANYON—Agricultural producers and landowners must make key decisions every year about conservation and protection practices for their farming and ranching operations.

The "Ag Producer's Role in Environmental Stewardship" program has been set for Dec. 13 from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. as West Texas A&M University in Canyon. The conference will be held for the purpose of aiding area producers in making sound environmental choices.

"Some of this country's best stewards of land and water quality are our farmers and ranchers," said Robert Buckley, executive director of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board (TSSWCB), one of the agencies sponsoring the event.

"The conference has been designed to offer factual and up-to-date information on land and water quality issues important to today's agricultural operator," said program planner, Brent Auvermann, assistant professor of agricultural engineering and Extension Service specialist for environmental systems with the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center in Amarillo.

Questions most often asked by producers have formed the agenda. Agency officials and university scientists will help address key issues, such as nonpoint source (NPS) water pollution and the need for certified water quality management plans, as specified by the 73rd Texas Legislature in Senate Bill 503.

State Rep. David Swinford of Dumas will present the keynote briefing on Senate Bill 503, its history and the provisions allowing producers to develop voluntary site-specific management plans to meet state water quality standards.

Presentations by TSSWCB officials, including Buckley, will cover the legal and regulatory benefits of a water quality management plan (WQMP), including management practices that will best serve the needs of the Texas High Plains producer.

Participants will also learn about alternative best management practices (BMPs) being demonstrated in the region that are funded through the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) under Section 319(h) of the Clean Water Act. Funds for the projects are administered by TSSWCB, which is the lead agency for the state's agricultural/silvicultural NPS management program.

The registration fee is $15 and includes all sessions and a catered lunch. The deadline to register is December 5th and late registration does not guarantee lunch. Registration forms are available through the TSSWCB Regional Office in Hale Center at (806) 839-1030 or Brent Auvermann, Texas A&M Center at (806) 359-5401.

Weather service urges winter preparedness

With the winter weather upon us even before winter officially begins, officials from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and National Weather Service (NWS) are encouraging individuals, families, and businesses to be prepared for winter storms, flooding, and severe cold.

Many preparedness measures are the same for winter flooding, Nor'easters, ice storms, blizzards and deep freeze, according to Kay Gross, FEMA's executive associate director for Preparedness, Training and Exercises.

"Residents should have provisions ready to get by without help, and plans to cooperate with neighbors or evacuate if necessary.

"In addition, you should also keep home heating oil and vehicle fuel tanks full to help avoid becoming trapped without heat when storms arrive swiftly. Winter emergency kits for every car or truck are also potential lifesavers."

Across much of the Southwest United States, the NWS Climate Prediction Center is forecasting above normal precipitation amounts in comparison to the 30 year median of precipitation at stations throughout the winter months.

Emergency management officials point out that timely preparation, including structural and non-structural mitigation measures to avoid the impacts of severe winter weather, can avert heavy personal, business and governmental expenditures.

packed sanctuary with the melodic sound of gospel music.

The Silent Witness mime team of the New Covenant Church presented a dramatic performance of the ultimate sacrifice that Jesus Christ gave mankind.

Dressed in black and white and donning their white makeup and gloves, the six mimes captivated the audience with their rendition of the crucifixions of Jesus by a Roman soldier as his followers looked on helplessly.

As the "followers" looked on, they realized that Jesus' sacrifice was for them and all others who chose to follow his teachings.

Rev. David McIntire, pastor of the New Vision Church of the Nazarene, followed with a prayer, thanking God for the freedom to worship without restraint. Rev. McIntire gave thanks that America is a country where people can worship as they please without fear of the government or its military oppressing them.

As with all community services, a "love offering" was taken to help support the Bailey County Ministerial Alliance. The Bailey County Ministerial Alliance uses the combined efforts of more than a dozen local churches to help administer to the needs in the community.

One of the main projects supported by the Bailey County Ministerial Alliance is a "travelers fund." The fund helps by giving a tank of gas or even a hotel room for a night to assist a person who may be in need of help as they travel through the community.

Along with the travelers fund, the Bailey County Ministerial Alliance also does a "Christmas in April" project, a project that help to repair and restore homes for people who can't afford or are otherwise unable to upkeep their homes themselves.

A wee Thanksgiving

BAXTER BLACK
ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

How do you explain Thanksgiving to a 3-year-old.
 "A long time ago..."
 "Yesterday?"
 "No, more than yesterday. A bunch of people came in a big boat..."
 "Pirates?"
 "No, good guys and mamas and babies..."
 "An boys, too?"
 "Yup, and boys, too. But when they got in the woods they were hungry but they didn't know what to eat."
 "And they had bears in the woods, and tigers."
 "Probably, but they didn't see them. So they were hungry and walked around looking for something to eat. And then came the Indians who lived in the woods."
 "With... with bows and arrows and shooting...?"
 "No, no. The Indians said they would help them find something good to eat..."
 "Like fruit bars and pop tarts and chickenuggets..."
 "Well, the Indians said they should have a picnic and so the Indians got some turkeys to eat and they cooked'em and made fry bread and corn on the cob..."
 "But no peas, but some cottage cheese and bread and honey..."
 "Right, so they made a big table..."
 "On the blanket..."
 "Yeah, no table, just a big blanket and they all ate and ate till their stomachs were full..."
 "And the little boys, too?"
 "And the little boys and little girls and little boy and girl Indians, all of'em ate... and then took a nap."
 "But the little boys no wanna take a nap. Little boys wanna play with bows and arrows."
 "Okay, but when everyone woke up they were happy. So the Indians shook hands and they all said Thanksgiving to each other and Thanksgiving to God..."
 "And to Jesus and Pastor John and Grandmother Phyllis and to all the little boys."
 "Yup, and they said it was so much fun, let's do it next year."
 "And tomorra or free days."
 "So now every year we have Thanksgiving with friends and eat a lot and say thanks for the blessings we have."
 "Bessing? What looks like, a blessing?"
 "A blessing? Sometimes it looks like a little boy."
 "Like me?"
 "Yup, sometimes it looks just like you."

bill provisions. Combest said he will maintain strong leadership in cotton, wheat and other farm commodities.

"A member of Congress is allowed to be the chairman of only one committee at a time and my seniority in Congress gives me the preferred choice of subcommittees that will provide the best input from the folks in the region," Combest said. "Solving problems and developing new ideas in Congress begins at the grassroots level — in the subcommittees. My role as subcommittee chairman and as vice chairman of the fill committee ensures that the Panhandle-West Texas region's voice is loud and clear."

The Lubbock Republican also lost his chairmanship of the House Select Intelligence Committee. He was reappointed to the Small Business committee, the slot he left when he took the helm of the Intelligence Committee.

As Small Business Vice Chairman, Combest said he will continue to focus on the common sense reform of regulations that most affect his constituents.

House lawmakers spent the better part of last week angling for choice positions on committees, as Republican and Democratic leaders shuffled legislators around. The process done in private will not be completed until some time this week.

Fillies gallop past Muleshoe

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

Shallowater was in midseason flow while Muleshoe was busy wading through a flood of turnovers.

Behind six 3-pointers and a confidence-shattering trapping defense, Shallowater whipped Muleshoe, 61-43, Saturday in a game between former District 2-3A rivals at WJHS gym.

"Hopefully, we can pick it up and start to gel," said an exasperated Muleshoe coach Jim Gruhlkey, at a loss to explain his team's woes. "The confidence part is really what bugs me. We've got to get some confidence. But our schedule doesn't lend to getting us a lot of confidence."

On the horizon for the Lady Mules (1-3) are defending state champion Nazareth and two tournaments loaded with some of the best teams in West Texas, including a first-round game against the state's top-ranked team in Class 5A Amarillo High in the Frenship Tournament.

The Fillies preyed on MHS ballhandlers near halfcourt, jump-trapping from the blind side. Shallowater's quickness, which only increased with its second unit, took the Lady Mules completely out of their offense and resulted in at least two dozen turnovers.

Kristen Warren led Shallowater (4-0) with 15 points and all but one of the 10 Fillie players scored. Jenny Neal added 12 points, including three 3-pointers. Felicia Fuentes chipped in 11. Neal and Fuentes were the lone returning starters.

Brandi Harrison led MHS with 16 points and Erin Wilhite added 12. Only five Lady Muleshoe managed to score.

Wilhite was a bright spot. The sophomore post pounded the smaller Fillies on the offensive boards and was aggressive in gaining position and going to the basket. She also stayed out of foul trouble, which was a problem the last two games.

Muleshoe played Morton Tuesday then plays in the Turkey Classic Nov. 28-30 at Frenship.

Muleshoe's Lindsey Field gets a shot off despite pressure from two Shallowater defenders during Saturday's non-district game at WJHS gym. The Fillies defeated Muleshoe, 61-43, to remain perfect on the season at 4-0. The Lady Mules dropped to 1-3. Muleshoe played at Morton Tuesday then plays in the Turkey Class in Frenship Nov. 28-30.

LHS escapes Bovina with 3rd-straight win

BOVINA — Kia Morris scored a season-high 16 points, helping Lazbuddie overcome a sluggish performance and beat Bovina, 53-39, in a rare Saturday afternoon game.

Roxann Warren added 15 points and Mandy Magby a season-high 10 points as Lazbuddie (3-0) won its third-straight game.

"We were sleepwalking a little bit but we came out of it okay," Lazbuddie coach Carey Sudduth said. "Our defense kind of carried us. (Bovina) was having a hard time getting good shots. But we didn't do a very good job pushing the ball up the floor."

Most of the team traveled to Silverton Friday night for the Lazbuddie football playoff game and didn't get home until late.

The Lady Longhorns made 20 of 32 free throws and have shot 118 free throws in three games.

Bonnie Quintana led Bovina (1-3) with 16 points and Lisa Hromas added 10.

AREA PLAYOFF ROUNDUP

Frona and Springlake-Earth cruised to easy wins Friday in the regional round of the state playoffs.

Their reward — both meet the state's top-ranked team in their respective classifications this week in the quarterfinals.

Frona, which ripped Monahans, 27-6, meets top-ranked Vernon (12-0) 7:30 p.m. Friday at Tiger Stadium in Snyder.

Andy Kendrick ran for 218 yards and three touchdowns on 14 carries for the District 1-3A champion Chieftains. Kendrick broke off a 91-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and Friona (11-1) never looked back.

Monahans (10-1) drove 74 yards for a touchdown on its first possession and was driving again when Aaron King intercepted a pass near the Friona 20.

Frona shut down the Lobos the rest of the way. Monahans finished with 230 yards.

The Chieftains put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter on a 29-yard scoring pass from Kyle Grimsley to Angel Vega and a 54-yard touchdown run by Kendrick.

District 1-3A's other playoff team, Amarillo River Road, continued its impressive playoff run with 31-6 win over Crane.

yards and two touchdowns and the Wildcats (8-4) held Crane to 211 yards.

District 4-3A champion Crane (10-1) scored with less than two minutes left in the game.

In Class 1A, Springlake-Earth ran roughshod over Wink, 40-6. The No. 2 ranked Wolverines (12-0) play top-ranked Windthorst (12-0) at 2 p.m. Saturday in Childress.

Quarterback James Williams rushed for 191 yards and four touchdowns. The District 2-2A champion Wolverines finished with 440 yards rushing while holding Wink to less than 200 total yards.

THANKSGIVING TIPS

Delicious food is often a special part of holiday events. Entertaining, whether for family or a party event, is fun but needs to be done with food safety in mind.

Consider how many people you can serve safely and how long it will take to prepare the food. If foods must be prepared ahead of time consider the amount of refrigerator space is available and if it will safely accommodate you storage needs.

Holiday meals and party foods are often served buffet style. This means the food remains on the table as guests come and go. Warm room temperatures encourage the growth of bacteria that cause foodborne illness. Foodborne illness usually has symptoms of diarrhea, nausea, and vomiting. Sometimes symptoms can be more severe.

The foods most perishable are meat, poultry, seafood, eggs, dressing, gravy, cream pies, pudding and dishes made with eggs. Meat or egg sandwiches are susceptible.

If cooking in advance is necessary:

Plan for adequate refrigerator or freezer storage.

When cooking large quantities of foods, quickly cool and refrigerate them.

Divide into portions and store in shallow containers. Deep containers increase the time the center of a food stays warm, encouraging bacterial growth.

Plan for time to thaw frozen food in the refrigerator or in the microwave never on the counter. (An 8-12 pound frozen turkey takes 1 1/2 - 2 days in the fridge. A 12-16 pound frozen turkey takes 2 - 2 1/2 days.)

In cooking a turkey, the internal meat temperature should be 180 degrees F. Set the oven at 325 degrees for roasting a whole turkey, breast of a turkey or turkey roast. (An 8-12 pound turkey takes 3 1/2 - 4 1/2 hours to cook. A 12-16 pound turkey takes 4 1/2 - 5 1/2 hours.)

Reheat foods to be served until hot throughout.

When serving:

Keep hot foods hot. Chafing dishes may or may not keep foods at the necessary temperature of 140 degrees F. or above. Never leave these foods out for more than 2 hours.

Keep cold foods cold. Nestle small containers of highly perishable cold foods on a bed of ice. They should be held at 40 degrees F. or below. Never leave foods out for more than 2 hours. Pub small quantities of food on the table. Replace them often from the hot source in the kitchen or from the refrigerator.

Any pies, pastries, or cakes with cream cheese, cream, custard or soft meringue fillings or icings are perishable. Dips made with sour cream cheese also are perishable. These foods need to be kept refrigerated until serving.

Leftovers are another special concern with holiday foods. Any foods on the buffet line not eaten should be discarded. Items still refrigerated or frozen, but not served, should be used within recommended times.

PUMPKIN BREAD

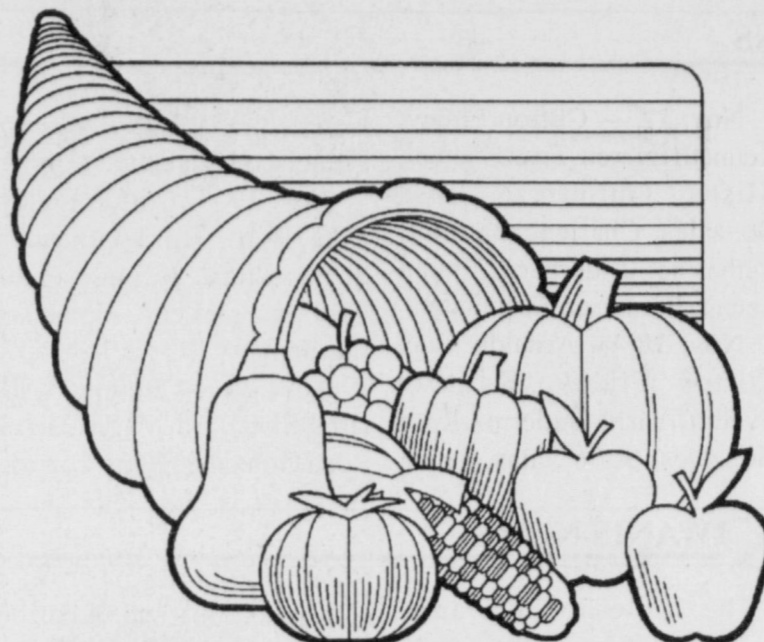

- 3 cup sugar
- 3 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 cup oil
- 1/2 cup applesauce
- 3/4 cup orange juice
- 16 oz. can pumpkin
- 4 eggs
- 2 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. nutmeg
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 tsp. allspice
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 cup pecans

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Mix all ingredients together in large mixer bowl. Spray two 9x5x3 loaf with nonstick vegetable spray. You may also use 5 minipans. Pour batter evenly into pans. Bake for 1 hour. Remove from oven and cool for 5 minutes. Turn out on wire racks to finish cooling. One loaf serves 16.

BROCCOLI SALAD SUPREME

- 5 cups chopped broccoli
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped purple onion
- 1/3 cup raisins
- 1/3 cup pecans
- 1 cup grated cheddar cheese
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1 1/2 tsp. vinegar
- 1/4 cup sugar
- lettuce leaves (optional)
- chopped pimento/red pepper (optional)

Wash vegetables and prepare for chopping either by hand or with a food processor. Combine broccoli, celery, onion, raisins, pecans and cheese in large bowl. Mix well. In a small bowl mix mayo, vinegar, and sugar well. Pour over broccoli mixture. Toss gently. Cover and chill at least 3 hours. Place salad in a lettuce-lined bowl. Garnish with chopped pimento or red pepper if desired. Makes 8-10 servings.

THE FOUR Cs

Make your holiday food events special and safe by following the 4 C's guidelines:

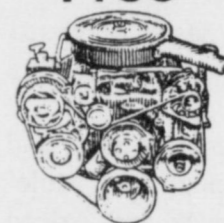

- Keep everything clean during handling.
- Keep foods chilled.
- Cook foods thoroughly.
- Avoid cross-contamination of bacteria from raw protein foods to cooked foods, or those to be eaten fresh.

Have a happy and safe Thanksgiving!

KIWANIS NEWS

The Muleshoe Kiwanis Club met Friday at their new meeting place — Tammy's Kitchen. The meeting was called to order by the president R.G. Bennett. Eddy Morris gave the invocation and the pledge was led by our sweetheart Kristi Bennett.

Guests were Dr. Bruce Purdy and Bruce Hartline.

Dr. Purdy is the scoutmaster of the Muleshoe Boy Scouts. He first wanted to thank the Kiwanis Club for the contributions to the scouting program. He assured the club that they have a great group of young men who are wanting to learn scouting.

It has been hard on the program and Dr. Purdy because of the untimely death of scoutmaster Terry Hutto. Terry was a tremendous asset to the Muleshoe Boy Scouts and will be truly missed.

Dr. Purdy gave the club an idea of where the scouts have traveled and many camps they have attended both on the local level as well as the international level near Washington D.C. The local boy scouts have started an explorer troop that includes the four eagle scouts in Muleshoe.

With adult leaders such as Bruce Purdy, our boy scouts are in good hands.
