School district spells out student code of conduct

By TERESA STONE
Journal staff writer

Parents of children in Muleshoe schools will be receiving a revised student code of conduct that was approved by Muleshoe Independent School District Board of Trustees Monday during regularly scheduled meeting.

The new code was organized by campus teams and district forums made up of community members, business leaders, and school representatives.

The revised version specifically identifies proper behavior, what the school expects from the students, as well as improper behavior and the consequences of such actions.

Also listed in the revised code of conduct is the specific discipline management techniques that may be implemented for misbehavior violations of the code, any additional campus rules, and classroom rules.

The code states the district's disciplinary authority which has one significant change — an extension of authority to within 300 feet of school property.

Revised regulations of the Alternative Education Program (AEP) include delegating authority to campus principals to remove a student to a disciplinary AEP in order to ensure consistency among grade levels that equal offenses have equal lengths of stay.

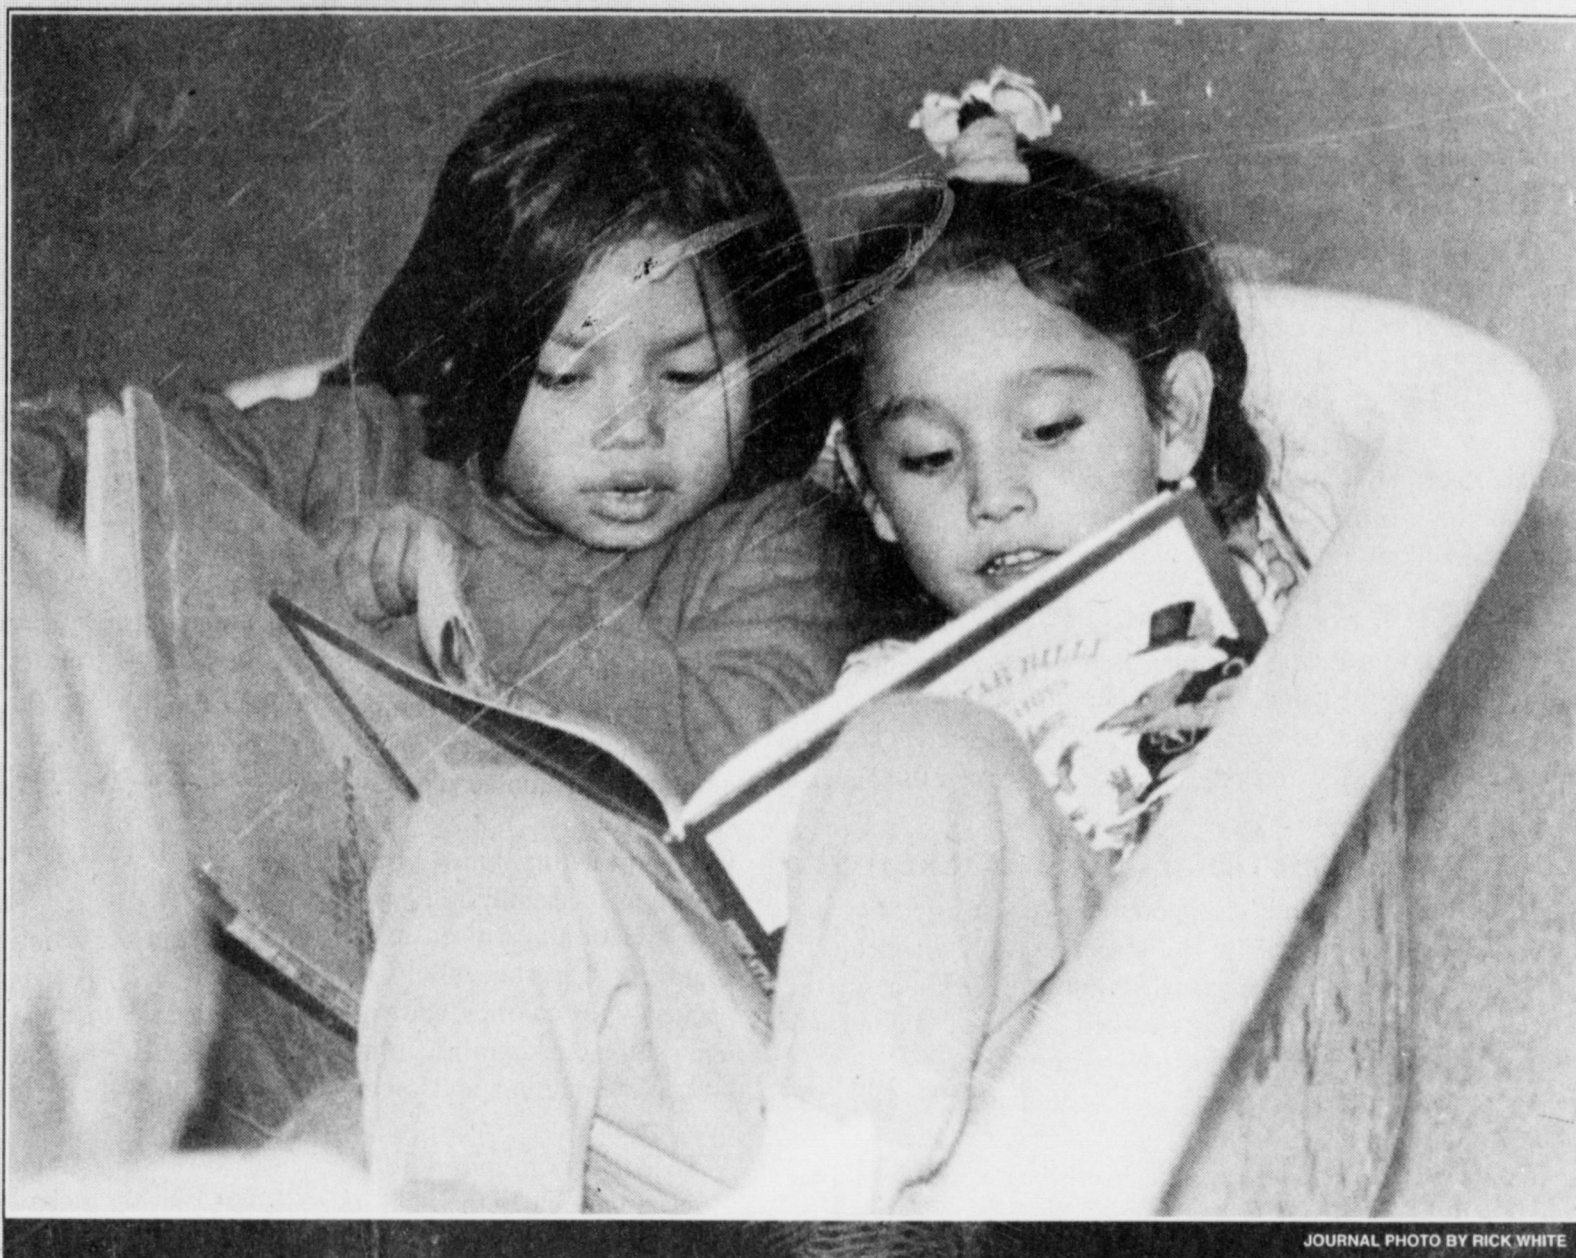

Complying with state law, students in disciplinary AEP will not be permitted to participate in any school-sponsored or school-related extracurricular or non-curricular activity.

The school district has also outlined tougher sanctions for drug offenses.

Students who possess, use, or are under the influence of prohibited drugs or alcohol on school property or at a school-related event on-or-off school property, will be sent to man-

Mules seek revenge, respect at Perryton

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

Muleshoe head coach David Wood was reluctant to talk about the focus this week's practice in preparation for Friday's important District 1-3A game at Perryton.

But even Barry Switzer could figure it out. Muleshoe will be looking for revenge and respect after getting embarrassed 55-0 by the Rangers last year.

"Last year we just didn't play and the kids know it," Wood said. "We pretty much have the same kids back and so do they. There will be a little bit of pride factor there."

Muleshoe (2-4 overall, 1-2 in district) will also be looking to rebound from a 45-6 loss to No. 6-ranked Friona.

"We just have to put the game behind us and concentrate on Perryton," Wood said. "We got to play a lot more physical game than we did against Friona.

Perryton (4-2, 3-0) used last year's demolition of Muleshoe as a springboard to a strong finish that has carried over to this season.

The Rangers have won six of their last seven district games since opening the 1996 season 0-3, losing only to Friona.

"We played fairly well against Muleshoe and I think the kids started believing in themselves," Perryton head coach David Cottrell.

The Rangers played their first four games shorthanded after 12 starters were suspended in a hazing incident.

Cottrell said it was definitely a low point of the season, "but I think the incident solidified the kids and brought them together."

The Rangers are coming off a huge 13-10 win over perennial playoff contender River Road.

"It was a nice win, a big win," said Cottrell, in his fourth year at Perryton. "But we have to get focused because Muleshoe is coming up here with something to prove."

Perryton's offense is led by 6-0, 180-pound senior running back Allan Adkison, who has gained 704 yards and scored nine touchdowns behind a veteran offensive line led by all-district center Tanner Alexander (6-0, 202).

Last week, Adkison gained 214 yards on 20 carries, including a 52-yard touchdown run.

"He's the key to their offense," Wood said. "They just run a few plays, but they run them well."

Perryton is averaging 230 yards rushing a game

The Rangers' bread-and-butter play is the counter trey, made famous by the Washington Redskins, where the off-side guard and tackle pull and lead for Adkison.

A QUICK READ OF THE NEWS

Lazbuddie farmer killed

LAZBUDDIE — A 28-year-old Lazbuddie man was killed Friday morning when the pickup he was driving ran into the back of a farm tractor about three miles north of Lazbuddie.

Blane Smith was fatally injured when his 1981 Ford pickup struck a 1993 John Deere tractor being driven by Manuel Estrada of Friona shortly after 8 a.m., according to police reports. Both vehicles were travelling southbound on FM 1172.

Smith was transported to Muleshoe Area Medical Center where he was pronounced dead by Dr. Bruce Purdy at 9:16 a.m. Estrada was treated at the scene for minor injuries.

The Lazbuddie farmer is survived by a wife and two children.

CNN visiting Lazbuddie

A national news network will be in Lazbuddie Thursday and Friday to film a story about six-man football in Texas, according to Longhorn coach Mark Scisson.

Crews from CNN will interview Lazbuddie players and community members and also attend Friday's game against Silverton.

Hospital district sees need for expanded nursing home

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

The Muleshoe Area Healthcare Center building isn't getting any younger.

A citizen task force and Muleshoe Area Hospital District administrators appear focused on building a new off-site facility that would include a separate Alzheimer's unit.

"Given the age and utilization of the nursing home, we are looking at improving or expanding," hospital district administrator Jim Bone said.

A six-member task force was appointed in August to gather public input and provide direction for the hospital district board.

The citizen committee has determined there is a definite need and support for expanding for project, Bone said.

The Healthcare Center has run near full capacity for years. Built in the 1950s, the nursing home has 54 beds.

The committee and hospital district administrators initial proposal would be for building a 100-bed facility at a separate site, including at least a 20-bed Alzheimer's unit. The estimated cost is between $2-3 million.

DISTRICT

Most or all of the funding would have to come from endowments and grants. Bone said the hospital district would most likely have to hold a bond election if additional funding was needed.

Possible sites include property near the old Muleshoe airport and on land the City of Muleshoe currently owns south of the new city park. The City is willing to sell the district five to nine acres of land in the Park Ridge section for a nominal fee, according to City Manager James Fisher.

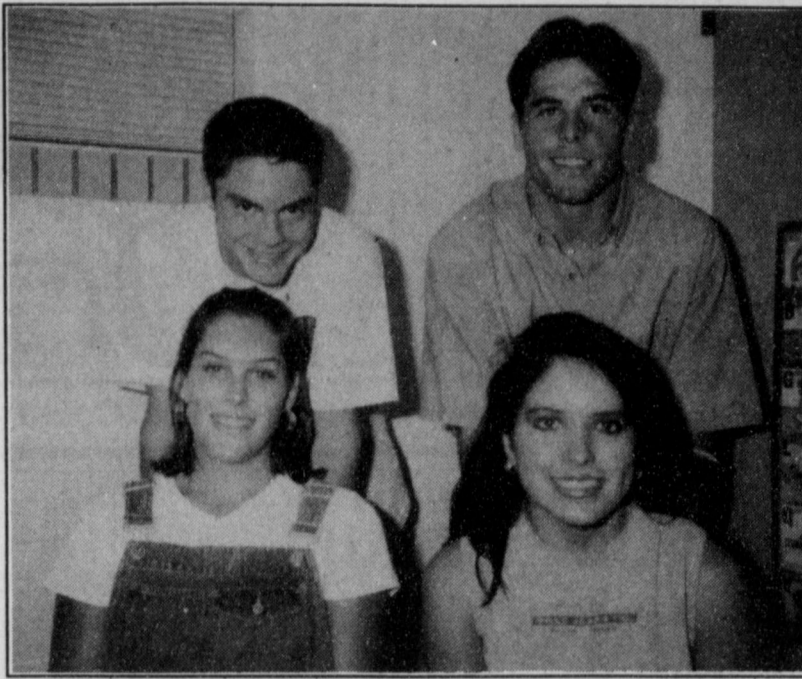

Fisher, who also serves on the task force, believes the land is a good site for a nursing home because of low traffic and its proximity to the park.

"I think it would complement the area real well and we would be able to incorporate it into the long-term plans for the park," Fisher said.

Nursing home administrator Ed Dudley, who heads the citizen committee and is pushing hard to have an Alzheimer's unit included, believes a new facility would be an attractive addition to the community.

Bone said all discussions are preliminary and the hospital board is still waiting for the citizen committee's recommendation.

Halloween tips for miniature munchers

TEMPLE — What's the scariest thing you'll see this time of year?

Forget the spooky masks and the Dracula fangs. It's the mountain of Halloween candy sitting there, tempting you. Every grown-up knows that those treats can really trick your determination to eat sensibly. Candy is scary because it is packed with calories and fat and short on vitamins, mineral, protein, fiber and other nutrients.

So what's a nibbler to do? How can you keep the tick-or-treating children happy while you refrain from snatching a handful of candy? A pound here, another pound there. It all adds up, ruining the waistline and the best intentions.

Here is some timely advice, just in time for the trick-or-treat hoards at your doorstep:

Buy Late, Buy Less: Even though the grocery stores start pushing Halloween candy before the 4th of July, there's no reason to buy it early. The longer the candy is in pain view, the more tempting it is. Buy the candy just a day before the major Haunting. When you do shop, buy less than you did last year so you will have fewer leftover. Those big family-sized bags of goodies simply scream, "Eat me now!" So what if your run out of candy during the Halloween onslaught? Toss a few nickels and quarters into the children's sacks. (Have you ever known a kid to turn down money?)

Buy What You Don't Like: Buy only the stuff that turns you off. The quickest way to kill the nibbling urge is to take away the enjoyment. One friend gives out individual packages of Sweet Tart, her least favorite candy. "Of course," she adds, "it would be a disaster if I had M&M's or Snickers. I'd eat more than I would give away. So I don't even stock them."

Nibble Like A Bunny: Keep a constant stock of raw vegetables and fruits handy. As you sole out the candy bars, chomp down on a carrot stick. Yes, we know it isn't like eating a chocolate bar but your hips will show the difference.

Look For Alternatives: One way to keep from consuming Halloween candy is not to buy it at all. Rather, hand out alternatives such as pencils, decorative erasers, tiny bottles of bubbles, stickers and inexpensive trinkets.

The Adventurers

Profiles Seven Famous Adventurers

The Adventurers presents thrilling stories of bravery, courage, and daring, told through a powerful combination of historical footage, intimate firsthand accounts, and dramatic reenactments. The series offers inspirational testimony to the indomitable nature of the human spirit through profiles of seven famous adventurers: Neil Armstrong, Thor Heyerdahl, August and Jacques Piccard, Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay, and Richard Byrd. Two episodes premiere in October:

"Neil Armstrong: Reluctant Hero" examines a dream as old as humanity itself: to walk on the moon. On July 21st, 1969, that honor fell to one man, a farm boy from Ohio named Neil Armstrong.

"Thor Heyerdahl: Across the Sea of Time" reveals an epic story of bravery and conviction. An unknown Norwegian academic named Thor Heyerdahl set out to convince the scientific world that ancient mariners crossed the world's great oceans. Heyerdahl was willing to risk his life to make his point. In 1947, in a balsa raft called the Kon-Tiki, Heyerdahl and his crew embarked on one of the most daring and provocative voyages in history. Original crew members, actual expedition footage, and Heyerdahl himself tell the captivating tale of their quest.

The Adventurers will air Mondays at 10:00 p.m. beginning October 20th on KENW-TV.

All Aboard

Takes Viewers Back to the Old Days of Railroading

All Aboard, a new 26-part series, re-captures the sights and sounds of old-time railroading for those who remember, and for a new generation. This nostalgic series features engines, cars, and other equipment that are again in action. Typically scrapped as junk in the 1950s, the steam locomotives and their paraphernalia are priceless today.

Host Howard Goodwin covers the entire panorama of North American railroading, from the Rock Island & LaSalle, the Denver & Rio Grande Western, the Norfolk Southern, and the Canadian Pacific to the Amtrak passenger trains of today. The series also features short lines, including the NASA Railroad at the Kennedy Space Center in Central Florida.

The history and romance of the passenger and freight trains of the past have sparked contemporary interest in preservation, leading to the establishment of several tourist railroads running authentic equipment.

All Aboard airs Mondays at 11:30 p.m. beginning October 20th.

Egg Industry

BAXTER BLACK

ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

"Cholesterol Doubts Remain Despite New Egg Industry Research" read the headline of an Associated Press news story last month.

For many years an active campaign has been waged against the egg industry to convince the public that eggs are bad for our health since egg yolks are high in cholesterol. It has worked. As a result, egg consumption in the U.S. has declined twenty-five percent in the last thirty years.

The logic for this campaign was based on the "sharks in the water" line of reasoning, i.e.; sharks live in the water therefore going in the water is dangerous.

In the ensuing years many studies have been done to evaluate the effect that eating eggs has on the cholesterol levels in people. During the same time we also have learned a great deal about "good" and "bad" cholesterol and their influence on risk of heart disease.

A recent University of Arizona analysis of these studies has concluded that an egg a day would increase blood cholesterol about two percent. The analysis was given a rigorous review and approved by the Department of Agriculture. As a result, a new egg industry advertising campaign began this summer, stating: "If you're healthy, go right ahead and enjoy your eggs. Your cholesterol will probably stay about the same."

Now please go back and read the headline quoted in the first part of this column.

Think back on all the shocking headlines you've read over the years:

"Hormones in cattle cause cancer!"

"Red meat causes heart attacks!"

"Salmonella discovered in cantaloupes!"

"Alar poisoned apples!"

"E Coli infects hamburger!"

"Cows belching methane causes global warming!"

"Mad cow disease fatal in humans!"

Virtually all of these headlines, and many, many more in reputable newspapers have regularly been presented to the public in this same sensational way, as in, "there are sharks in the water!" When one reads the accompanying news stories we find the emphasis is on an isolated incident or survey speculation. Rarely is equal time given to the dissenting voice of reason.

Suddenly when the egg industry presents a scientific conclusion, based on sound research approved by independent Department of Agriculture regulatory officials, the Associated Press chooses to derogate their results. They present views of the detractors for the first half of the story, then present the study's findings, followed by paragraphs questioning the credibility of the people who did the scientific analysis.

The same story could have easily been written from the opposite point of view: "Study Says Eating Eggs is Okay for Healthy Folks." But it wasn't. Maybe the reporter felt that if he presented the egg industry in a positive light too many "sharks in the water" headlines would have been retracted. Naw, they wouldn't do that anyway. He wrote it in a negative way on purpose. He has other fish to fry, other opinions to scramble.

Late surge lifts Lazbuddie past Three Way 58-21

MAPLE—Lazbuddie overcame two major distractions and beat Three Way 58-21 Friday in the District 3-1A opener for both teams.

The Longhorns (5-1) played without starting quarterback Josh Morris, and earlier in the day, learned of the death of Blane Smith, a Lazbuddie farmer who was killed Friday morning in a motor vehicle accident.

Smith was the cousin of two Lazbuddie players.

"We've had to overcome a lot of adversity this year," Lazbuddie coach Mark Scisson said. "It was tough emotionally because so many of the kids knew (Smith) so well."

Morris, the area's leading passer, injured his right eye Thursday in a freak roping accident. Scisson expects Morris to return this week.

Don Burch and Jeffrey Seaton filled in admirably, combining to complete 10 of 16 passes for 197 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Lazbuddie scored the last 30 points of the game to break open a tight game.

"I think we just wore them down," Scisson said.

Adam St. Clair rushed for 112 yards and four touchdowns. Seaton rushed for 115 yards on four carries and passed for 108 and a touchdown.

Randall Rodriguez rushed for 244 yards and two touchdowns for Three Way. His 67-yard run pulled the Eagles within 28-21 midway through the third quarter.

But St. Clair scored on two short runs and Seaton busted loose and scored on runs of 34 and 78 yards in the fourth quarter, the last TD on the game's final play.

"For three quarters, we held up pretty good," Three Way coach Danny James said.

The Eagles (2-4) finished with 321 yards rushing.

Freshman Marvin McCaul gained 62 yards on 11 carries in the fourth quarter.

Three Way's Randall Rodriguez shakes loose in game against Groom earlier this season

Lazbuddie hosts Silverton in showdown

Lazbuddie is preparing for a big week. The Longhorns host talented Silverton Friday in an early showdown for the District 3-1A lead.

Plus CNN will be in town Thursday and Friday filming a documentary about Texas six-man football.

"This is a big, big game," Lazbuddie coach Mark Scisson.

The Owls (5-1 overall, 1-0), who are coached by Mickey Mantle's brother, Larry Mantle, are huge and physical, according to Scisson. "We're going to have to play well above our heads to stay in the game."

The Owls are led by 6-5 QB Jack Cherry and RB Jeremy Holt. Lazbuddie (5-1, 1-0) counters with the area's top offense, which is averaging more than 450 yards a game.

district teams above .500. Sanford-Fritch and Dalhart remain winless. Tulia got into the win column with a 9-7 win against Sanford-Fritch.

PERRYTON 13, RIVER ROAD 10

AMARILLO — Perryton won its third-straight game as Allan Adkinson rushed for 214 yards and a touchdown in a 13-10 upset of River Road.

Mike Clevenger's interception with 34 seconds sealed the Rangers' first win against River Road in three years.

Adkison, the district's second-leading rusher with 704 yards, scored on a 52-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that increased the Rangers' lead to 13-3. Shaun Eckhart added a three-yard touchdown run for the Rangers (4-2).

River Road pulled within 13-10 in the fourth quarter on Trent Mills' seven-yard run.

Perryton held the Wildcats (1-5, 1-2) to 82 yards rushing and 190 total yards. The Rangers gained all of their 275 yards on the ground.

DIMMITT 28, DALHART 12

DIMMITT — Dimmitt moved the ball

when it held onto it, beating Dalhart 28-12 despite six turnovers.

The Bobcats (5-1, 3-0) scored three unanswered touchdowns, building a 21-6 through three quarters.

Dalhart (1-5, 1-2) cut the lead to 21-12 in fourth quarter on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Justin Koehler to Terry Turner.

But Derek Buckley sealed the win with his second short touchdown run on the Bobcats' next possession.

Beau Hill and Zack Matthews also scored on short runs for the Bobcats, who finished with 360 yards.

Dalhart took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter on Garland Swecker's four-yard run.

TULIA 9, SANFORD-FRITCH 7

TULIA — Special teams helped Tulia beat Sanford-Fritch 9-7 in battle of winless teams.

Tulia's Marcus Finch ran seven yards for a touchdown and blocked Sanford-Fritch punt out of the end zone for a safety. Roy Gonzales rushed for 84 yards for the Hornets (1-5, 1-2).

Sanford-Fritch (0-6, 0-3) scored in the fourth quarter on Haven Reed's eight-yard touchdown pass.

Big plays return in Friona loss

For the first time all season, Muleshoe was hurt on special teams and by the big play.

Friona scored three touchdowns on plays of 62 yards or longer and dominated on special teams in a 45-6 romp over Muleshoe Friday in a District 1-3A game at Benny Douglass Stadium.

Until the Friona game, the longest scoring play the Mules had allowed was a 34-yard fourth-down scramble by Denver City quarterback Luis Villegas.

Last year, Mules gave up two-to-three big plays almost every game.

"They have better athletes and are just a better team than we are now," Muleshoe head coach David Wood painfully admitted.

Angel Vega hurt Muleshoe both as a wide receiver and on special teams and running back Matthew Kendrick knifed through the heart of the Muleshoe defense for 204 yards on nine carries.

Vega, a 5-7, 140-pound senior, caught two touchdown passes, including a 62-yard catch and run for a touchdown on the game's third play, and returned a punt 51 yards to set up the Chieftains' third touchdown.

Vega also kept Muleshoe pinned down in its own end with great hang time on kick-offs, was a perfect 6 for 6 on extra points and booted a 35-

Let Go Of Worry

(NAPS)—People often say, "Don't worry be happy." For many of us, that's easier said than done. A smart person once said, "If you're going to pray, don't worry. If you're going to worry, don't pray." Prayer is a great way to overcome worry. Unity School of Christianity offers some other ways to help you curb worrying and start finding more joy in your life:

- Believe in yourself—Trust in your own spiritual gifts and instincts.
- Believe in others—Allow yourself to trust others, without conditions. This especially applies to family members and those closest to us.
- Honor the moment—Every moment contains a chance to express your spiritual gifts. Be aware of the little opportunities all around you.
- Believe in prayer—Talk to God and then listen to the still, small voice within you for gentle answers. If you pray first, you will proceed with more confidence.
- Practice forgiveness—Nothing will make you feel better faster. If you forgive someone, you can release the hurt and the worry along with it.

For more ideas on how to let go of worry and develop a deeper awareness of your own spiritual nature, call 1-800-669-0282 and ask for the free booklet, "Letting Go." No one will call you or visit you. Unity is here to provide food for thought on your unique spiritual journey. You can always write us at Unity School of Christianity, 1901 NW Blue Parkway, Unity Village, MO 64065-0001, with any requests.

Last week, Perryton nearly abandoned the pass in favor of the run. Quarterback Trey Duke was 0-4 as the Rangers gained all 275 of their yards on the ground.

"We were a little more conservative than we like to be," Cottrell said. "We like putting the ball in the air 15-20 times a game."

The Rangers' play a 4-3 defense, led by senior ends Ryan Culwell (6-1, 180) and Brian Gilbert (6-4, 195).

Alexander and Adkison anchor the defense at linebacker.

Muleshoe continues to have success moving the ball between the 20s but has trouble putting the ball in the end zone.

The Mules gained 261 yards and had 12 first downs last week against the district's top-ranked defense in Friona, but didn't score until the game's final play.

Muleshoe is averaging 10.8 points a game.

Gilbert Vela rushed for a 139 yards on 23 carries, the second-straight week a Muleshoe back topped 100 yards.

The Mules are still ranked second in the district in team defense at 253 yards a game, despite allowing 405 yards to Friona.

Senior Ricko Aguirre had 13 tackles, including seven solo, and recovered a fumble against Friona.

Despite two district losses in the first three games, Wood clings to the hope that the upstart Mules can slip into a playoff spot.

"It's a big game," Wood said. "It's a playoff situation every time we step on the field now."

ENMU wins Pew Leadership Award

PORTALES, NM — Eastern New Mexico University has been named one of three national winners of the Pew Leadership Award for the Renewal of Undergraduate Education.

The award was established last fall by Pew Charitable Trusts to recognize and reward colleges and universities "that have made substantial progress toward the revitalization of their undergraduate program," according to Pew guidelines.

Each winning institution will receive $250,000.

The other winners are Babson College, a specialized business college, and Mount St. Mary's College, a Catholic liberal arts college primarily for women.

These three institutions join last year's winners — Alverno College, Portland State University, and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute—as "pioneers and innovators that, by example, are leading the renewal of undergraduate education," according to Pew Charitable Trusts.

"We have a tremendous sense of accomplishment and pride in being named one of three winners of this prestigious national award," said Dr. Everett Frost, ENMU president. "Eastern was distinguished, in part, for its faculty's hard work in the use of technologies to improve course offerings."

The Pew Charitable Trusts recognizes a select number of colleges and universities "that have taken bold steps to redesign their academic environments for the purpose of improving undergraduate education."

All accredited, baccalaureate-granting public and private colleges and universities in the United States were eligible for nomination.

Forty-one schools nationwide were originally nominated. After a first round evaluation, the number was reduced to 19. Among those, six finalists were selected for site visits.

Three Pew evaluators visited ENMU April 10-11, then filed a final report in preparation for the Oct. 3 announcement of the winners.

Dr. George Mehaffy, ENMU vice president for Academic Affairs, said as an institution serving a rural area, Eastern must make a special effort to assist its students to participate in the technological, information age of the approaching century.

"Recognizing the impact of technology, Eastern has embarked on an ambitious plan to infuse technology throughout the campus, particularly focusing on technology in the teaching and learning process," said Mehaffy.

"Being named one of the three national winners for the Pew Award is an incredible public testimonial to our faculty that they are trying new strategies and approaches improving learning outcome for our students," says Dr. Frost.

"What's going on at Eastern is extraordinary. We're doing amazing things with technology that will prepare our students for careers and life in the 21st century."

OPINION

AARP chief applauds Medicare solution

By HORACE B. DEETS

They said it couldn't be done but they did it. After years of haggling and posturing, political leaders from both parties enacted legislation to balance the federal budget and extend the solvency of Medicare into 2007. And they did it without changing the Constitution or the integrity of the Medicare program. Leaders from both parties and the president are to be congratulated.

For three years, AARP has called for a two-step approach to reforming Medicare. This legislation accomplishes the first step—it keeps the program financially solvent for the next 10 years by taking steps to reduce fraud, increase choice and control spending while maintaining access and quality and introducing several important new preventive care measures for beneficiaries.

Make no mistake about it, the road to Medicare solvency is a rough one. So far, we have dodged a few potholes and filled in a few others. For example, the new Medicare legislation does not increase the age of eligibility, income-related the Part B premium or establish a home health-care co-payment. It does, however, assure that Medicare beneficiaries will continue to be able to afford the Part B premium by building on the current low-income protections. It also gradually reduces beneficiaries' co-insurance for outpatient service from an average of 50 percent today to the standard 20 percent required for other Medicare Part B services.

I believe acceptable Medicare reform is underway because AARP volunteers and members participated in the debate and let their senators and representatives know their priorities and concerns, congress had to make a lot of tough choices, and thanks to public opinion, they made a lot of the right ones.

Now we must look ahead to step two, an extensive debate on the options and trade-offs necessary to keep Medicare strong for the next generation. The commission that Congress and the president are proposing to study the issues should consist of more than panel of experts talking to each other in vacuum. The people who use the program—now and in the future—should be included in the discussion. Medicare affects millions of people, so the policy dissuasion needs to be public, open and extensive. We should spend at least as much time discussing these vital issues as we spend on various congressional investigations. They are infinitely more important.

So we must all engage in the debate and urge Congress to continue working in a bipartisan fashion. They say it can't be done—but we'll do it.

(Horace B Deets is the executive director of AARP)

Co-ops play vital role in communities

As we celebrate Co-op Month this year, we salute the employees who make your local co-op what it is.

Dedicated to high quality customer service, these local employees are on the front lines every day working for you.

Co-op Month is one small way that we can all take time to thank them for a job well done.

There are literally countless ways that co-op employees work in their communities, whether it is a crew working late into the night to restore your service after a storm or solving problems you may have when you change locations.

In some cases, it may be a member service representative who works to resolve a billing question or visits your home and business to provide you with the latest technologies.

Co-op employees are very involved in their communities. Many are fire and rescue squad volunteers. Others help out by coaching Little League baseball and other sports programs for young people.

As technology and the telecommunications industry continue to change, the employees represent one thing that can never be replaced—the human connection—the one-on-one partnership that makes our Main Street service so special. Without the commitment of local telephone employees, we could not be as successful as we are today.

Staying close to the consumer is one of the reasons your voice is heard. By living and working in the same communities you do, they know what is happening—what issues the community is facing and what your needs are.

Every October, cooperatives of every kind come together to celebrate Cooperative Month. We are proud to be a part of the cooperative family of businesses.

For co-ops, that means continuing their proud record of service to people all across the nation and a commitment to the qualities of local service, local control and community involvement that benefits everyone.

— Hubert Kidd
General Manager of the Five Area Telephone Cooperative Organization.
