A QUICK READ OF THE NEWS

Yes Virginia,
There Is a Santa Claus

Dear Editor: I am 8 years old.
Some of my friends say there is no Santa Claus.
Papa says "If you see it in The Sun it's so.
Please tell me the truth: is there a Santa Claus?
Virginia O'Hanlon

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there was no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The external light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what does that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see.

No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay ten times a thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

More snow expected after weekend storm

Four inches of snow blanketed the area this weekend and more is on the way according to the National Weather Service in Lubbock.

The weather service was predicting four to six inches of snow in the next 36 hours at press time Monday night, with the precipitation ending well before Christmas Eve. A NWS spokesman did say there was chance enough snow would be left on the ground Thursday to make it a white Christmas.

"We're getting ready for what's coming this week," Muleshoe City Manager James Fisher said

Monday afternoon.

The City did minor snow removal and sanded trouble spots during the weekend storm, Fisher said.

The storm started as freezing rain, which resulted in several minor accidents and rollovers along U.S. Highway 84 Saturday, according to local law officials.

The worst conditions were in the afternoon and early evening Saturday. Department of Public Safety Trooper L.G. Kirk reported two rollovers and at least a dozen vehicles that slid off the road and into the ditch along on a four-mile stretch of Highway 84 east of Muleshoe.

The most serious accident occurred Sunday morning when a vehicle headed westbound on Highway 84 slid off the road and slammed broadside into a tree. Three adults from the Houston area travelling in the car were treated for minor injuries at Muleshoe Area Medical Center and later released.

"I really don't know how many (accidents) there were, but we worked a slew of them," Bailey County Sheriff Jerry Hicks said. "There were way

Kids still want one thing: Toys

By TERESASTONE
Journal staff writer

During the past few weeks the Journal has become the unofficial Santa Mail Center with thousands of letters arriving at the paper to be forwarded to the North Pole.

This is nothing new for the Journal, who has for decades been printing children's wish list and letters hoping that Santa would get each and every child exactly what they desire.

Looking back through old issues, reading what little boys and girls want from Santa, it isn't too long before you notice that children really haven't changed that much, or at least what they want from Santa hasn't changed that much.

Kids are kids, and kids want toys.

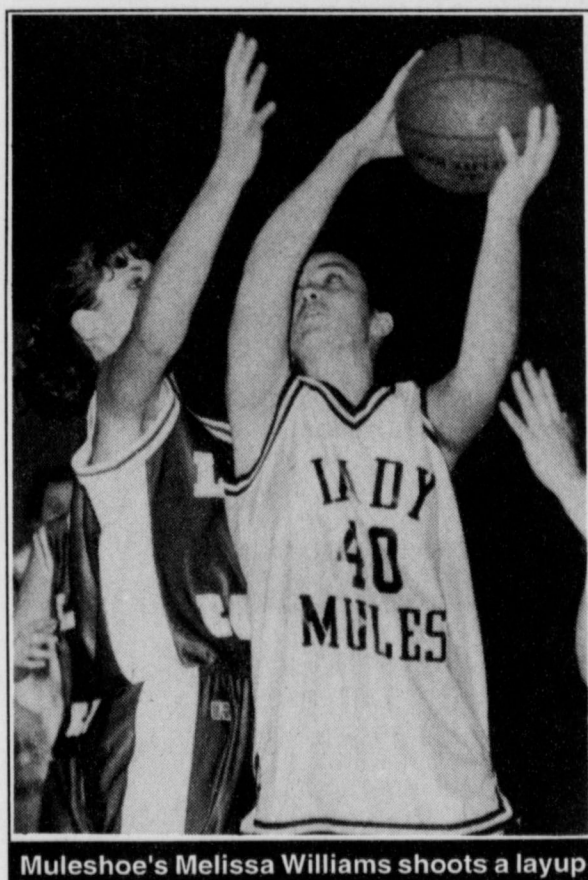

What is surprising though is that the types of toys children ask for hasn't changed much over the past 50 years either.

Sure the '80s and '90s have been bombarded with requests for computerized game playing systems, like this year's very popular Nintendo 64.

But even in 1957, the Journal was full of letters asking for electronic football and baseball games. Technology has definitely changed how games are played, but wanting some sort of electronic gizmo really isn't anything new.

By far this wasn't the only similarity between the letters received this year to ones pub-

Lady Mules upset in district opener

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

Muleshoe started Friday's District 1-3A opener against Sanford-Fritch with leading scorer Lindsey Field on the bench with a knee injury.

Two more starters went down in the third quarter.

But the biggest hurt of all came when previously winless Sanford-Fritch rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit and upset Muleshoe 41-37 in double overtime.

Nicki Martin canned two free throws with three seconds left, tying the game at 37 and sending the game into the second overtime.

Muleshoe (7-6 overall, 0-1 in district) scored just 16 points in the second half and two overtimes.

Melissa Williams scored all her team-high 10 points in the second half and overtime for the Lady Mules. Amy Locker added nine points.

Martin finished with game-high 18 points for Sanford-Fritch (1-12, 1-0) as PORTALES, N.M. — Cyrus Norman scored 16 points and Muleshoe ended a three-game losing streak to Portales Friday with a hard fought 58-55 win.

"We did some good things on defense," Muleshoe coach Ralph Mason said. "We were able to hurt them some with the press and with our halfcourt defense. But we're still struggling on offense."

Mason said the Mules just haven't been able to find their rhythm lately.

"We don't seem to have any continuity," Mason said. "I'm not sure why but we need to get it ironed out pretty quick."

Norman, a 5-10 senior, has averaged 14 points in the Mules' last 11 games. He came through on a night when leading scorer Dustin Cleavinger was held to a season-low eight points.

Matt Mason made 5 of 7 free throws down the stretch, helping Muleshoe protect the 43-36 lead it took into the fourth quarter.

Mason and Bret Clements finished with seven points each for the Mules, ranked seventh in Class 3A in the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches poll.

Brad Ambrozevitch scored 19 of his game-high 28 points in the first half for Portales (3-2).

"It was a pretty tough environment to play in," said Coach Mason, who is now 1-3 against Portales. "It was a hard-fought win."

Portales won the junior varsity game 49-46.

Kyle Hahn led Muleshoe (11-4) with 15 points and Matt Turney added 10.

LADY MULES

Muleshoe had trouble stopping her slashing drives to the basket.

After a timeout, Williams hit an eight-foot bank shot off on inbounds play to put Muleshoe up 36-34 with a minute left in overtime.

Locker made the first of two free throws with 19 seconds left to push the Lady Mules' lead to 37-34.

Kelly Gray made the front end of a one-and-one with seven seconds left to close the gap to two, with Muleshoe re-bouncing the second free throw attempt.

But Martin stole the outlet pass under the basket and was fouled with 2.7 seconds left.

After swishing the first free throw, Martin rattled home the second to send the game into a second four-minute overtime.

After a Gray free throw, Martin scored on a drive to put the Lady Eagles up 40-37 with a minute and a half to go.

too many people driving way too fast."

The freezing rain switched over to snow by Saturday evening, and by daybreak Sunday, had formed a lush white blanket over vehicles and city streets. Elms bowed under the weight of the wet snow, which also spawned a series of snowmen in yards from Richland

Hills to the Lenau addition.

The winter weather didn't stop everybody from going out.

Local merchant and Muleshoe Chamber Board member Dawn Williams reported a good turnout for the Chamber's final Moonlight Madness sale Saturday "considering the weather."

"But I think the snow and the cold put people in the Christmas spirit," Williams said.

LETTERS

lished 20, 30 even 40 years ago.

Throughout the years, children have been asking for games, bikes, trains, trucks, dolls, makeup sets, clothes and much more.

Another common thread is music.

Santa has been getting requests for radios for years. Sure 40 years ago is was just a radio. But today's request for a radio usually means a radio with at least a cassette player if not a CD player.

One thing comforting is that children today are just as polite as they were years ago. Santa was thanked by many of the letter writers for the presents from last year. Politeness also shown brightly with many wish lists starting with "please" and ending with a "Thanks."

Many of the children, as many did in years past, took time to ask Santa to bring things for their brothers, sisters and parents.

Although letters to Santa haven't changed that much through the years, there was one thing that was noticeably different, and today's parents can be quite proud.

Many of the children that wrote to Santa this year, wanted to make sure that Santa helped those less fortunate than themselves. There were many requests for food for the poor, and homes for the homeless, and for children everywhere to be happy.

Letters from children in '57, '67, '77 and even 1987 didn't seem to mention social concerns.

Maybe this is just a sign that today's younger generation is more aware than kids were 20 and 30 years ago. Or maybe its a sign that there's just more problems in society today. Whatever the reason, it is reassuring to know that so many Bailey County children want to reach out and offer a helping hand to those that need it.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

How are you doing? I'm doing fine. I wanted to make sure you knew my address this 207 W. Ave. F Muleshoe, Tex. 79347. I admit sometimes I'm not the best child in America but hey, I try.

This year I don't want only toys, all I would like to live in one place longer than 4 years and to see my best friend Holly Tittle.

I have some yes or no questions to ask you. Is it cold in the North Pole? Do you get sleepy staying up all night on Christmas Eve? Do you get a sore throat saying, Ho! Ho! Ho! or Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night?

One more thing before I go, Thank you for all the presents in the past.

Love,
Christie Reeves

Dear Santa,

I hope you are feeling well and Mrs. Claus and the elves. And this year I want a Green Bay jacket and a radio. Also bring food for the poor children, and also bring presents for them. Thank you for the presents last year.

Love,
Joe

Dear Santa,

How are you doing in the north pole? How is Mrs. Santa Clause? This is what I want for Christmas. I want a rebounder and tantrun. I love you Santa. Thank you for the presents last year.

Love
Bronson

Dear Santa,

My name is Tyson. I am 4 years old. I would like new skates and new set of golf clubs. Be careful and I'll see you Christmas.

Thank you,
Tyson Turnbow

Dear Santa,

My name is Trissy. I want to tell you what I want for X-mas. I want cinnamon, and chocolate candy because it's the best candy on earth. Another thing I want is a bird or a rabbit, and a chemistry set for experimenting. Can you get this for me. I hope you can fit it right were you always put it. Do you think your elves can do this.

To one of my favorite people,
Trissy Herington

Dear Santa,

I have a couple of things that I want to tell you. First I'm going to tell you what I want for Christmas. The first thing I want is a weenie dog, and I want it to be a girl. The last thing I want for Christmas is a parrot, and I also want it to be a girl.

Here is one thing I need, and it's a house with stairs, and there is one last thing. Please give those children present, because they don't have one.

Janice Pacheco

Dear Santa,

My name is Barry Morris age 11. I have 2 parents and a 16 year old sister that plays basketball. Our house has some brownish white bricks with a white shingled roof if you were wondering.

I have two dogs, Daisy and Duke. For Christmas, I would like clothes, money and a Playstation. All my sister needs is a big lump of coal. Well I better give you some time to make all those presents!

Bring presents,
Barry Morris

Dear Santa,

How are you and yourselves doing? How is Mrs. Santa Claus doing? Can you bring good Christmas to everybody? I hope you can. Can I have some money to buy the other children some presents?

Love,
Noel

Dear Santa,

I love you! Please bring me a toy santa and a Barbie. I would like a rope to jump.

Love,
Vanessa Chavez

Dear Santa,

Bring me a new super dog. That's all!

Love,
Robert Brewster

Dear Santa,

How are you? I am fine. For Christmas I want you to help kids in the hospital. I would also like a .22 rifle, a horse, saddle with a holster on it for a rifle and a holster for me side. I also want a motorcycle, 20 gauge shot gun and clay pigeon to shoot at.

from your friend,
Wes Herington

Dear Santa Claus,

How is Vixson? I have been really good this year and I want a swimming pool and a Bat mobil that I can fit in the one in part 4. Do you like Chocolate Chip cookies?

Sincerely,
Franklin Pilard

Dear Santa,

How are you doing this year? For Christmas I want a remote control car, also money to feed and clothe the poor. Most of all I want love.

Your friend,
Joe

Dear Santa,

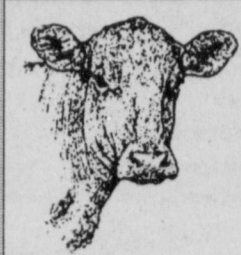

I been very good for you. Can I please have something for me. Can I have something like a barbe and a teddy bear for me. Can I have a baybee too.

by Shaelynn Cannon
