CURTAINMENT ORDER HALVES CWA PAYROLL

Temporary Slice of Men, Money Expected to Be Followed by Time Extension.

Curtailment orders last week-end practically halved CWA work in Scurry County. Several projects have been halted altogether because their men-hours have been temporarily exhausted, and others are working on a part-time basis.

The work is expected to open up again within the next few days, possibly not on the full basis as before. Daily reports from Congress and federal relief headquarters indicate that CWA work will continue at least until May 1, but that it will undoubtedly be on a lower man-hour basis than before.

This county has forwarded requests for more projects and for extension of several projects already under way, and favorable action is expected on these when the present curtailment order is raised or changed.

The first order for reducing the payroll entirely excluded teams, but a new order put work animals back at the old basis. Rural workers are now allowed no more than 15 hours weekly, city workers 24 hours.

Last week's payroll, ending Thursday, totaled $3,889, with 781 persons benefiting, according to the summary report from Administrator Joe Monroe's office.

M. D. L. Myers Of Union Found Dead Yesterday

Death came to M. D. L. Myers, 75, resident of Union community since 1909, while he slept Tuesday night. He was found dead when his wife called him early in the morning. He had been effected by a serious heart trouble Friday, but had apparently recuperated, and was in good spirits when he retired.

Funeral rites are to be held this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Primitive Baptist Church, with Rev. R. B. Hester officiating and Odum Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Myers came to this community from Bumble Bee, Arkansas, 25 years ago.

Survivors include Mrs. Myers; two brothers, B. F. Myers of Center, Mississippi, and R. W. Myers of Lamesa; four sisters, Mrs. W. H. Shuler of Snyder, Mrs. J. P. Plunkett of Watson, Oklahoma, Mrs. M. E. Hamilton of Glenwood, Arkansas, and Mrs. T. V. Cumble of Polard; four sons, Mr. Richard Echols of Glenwood, Arkansas, Mr. W. B. Vaughn of De Queen, Arkansas, Mrs. Charles Long of Horton, Arkansas, and Miss Dora Myers of Snyder. Four half-brothers and three half-sisters also survive.

J. Wright Moorar's Condition Improves

Slight improvement in the condition of J. Wright Moorar, Scurry County pioneer, who has been ill in East Snyder for 12 days, was reported this morning by the attending physician.

The serious attack of pneumonia threatened to claim Mr. Moorar's life for several days, and he is not yet out of the danger zone.

A Vital Rally of Young Democrats.

Young Democrats, including women who prize their suffrage privileges, will have an opportunity Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to throw some of the false doctrines of Scurry County politics into the garbage can.

The rallying call that has been sounded for the special benefit of youthful Democrats with youthful ideals asks that party members gather in the district court room to perfect an organization to be known as the "Young Democrats of Scurry County."

What a challenge to the dubious young Democrat who has felt since he became of voting age that only the old war dogs of democracy could have a voice in party politics!

The word "candidate" originally meant "clothed in white," referring to the ancient Roman office seekers who went about the streets clothed in white togas. What a far cry from the meaning attached to the word today! It is the opportunity of young Democrats Saturday afternoon to begin a movement toward party cleanliness that will clothe the party and its candidates with something of the dignity of ancient Rome.

We must face a few facts that will be unpleasant to some of our present office holders and candidates. In the first place, we must grasp the spirit of the New Deal, which many of the old heads in Scurry County democracy seem to consider merely a plank on which they may ride to further personal gain and public pork-barrellism.

Democracy must be held so high by young Democrats that the former gods of inefficiency and graft will pass away without sentiment and fanfare. Again, we must face a discouraging fact in regard to the suffrage of women. Generally speaking, women are the backbone of a nation.

Politically speaking, it has not been so. They have exercised their power for good in many instances, but in many other instances they have been led, like their male colleagues, at the bidding of the chiefs who control party machinery. They have not been dishonest; nor have any larger number of our voters cast ballots that were knowingly for inefficiency and graft. We have simply been ill informed and misled, men and women alike. We have not taken the time to study the vital things of government and party politics.

DEM RALLY TO OFFER CHANCE FOR NEW DEAL

Young Citizens Will Have Opportunity to Help Shape Their Party's Policies.

Democrats of all ages are invited to attend the county-wide rally to be held Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, in the district court room, according to letters in organization of the "Young Democrats of Scurry County."

A dynamic appeal is made to the youthful voters and to women of the county, who are to be given, through the new organization, a definite and vital voice in shaping democratic principles and platforms.

Officers for the Scurry County unit of the "Young Democrats of America" will be chosen at the meeting, and delegates will be named to the West Texas rally of the group at Lubbock February 3. Only Democrats 40 years of age and under may hold office in the new organization, local, district or state.

To Propose Platform. A platform will be proposed at the Lubbock meeting, which is to be attended by young Democrats of 131 counties, which calls for the assistance of every West Texas citizen, according to Doyle Settles, the chairman of Lubbock County Young Democrats.

Hy Price, Lubbock newspaperman, was commissioned by Settles to "collaborate with the people on a political program for West Texas." He explains:

"Politicians in charge of the party machinery usually write the platform and send it to the county conventions asking that it be adopted. Because this is the easiest thing to do and because the people have had no opportunity to think collectively on a political program, the controlling politicians usually have their way.

Procedure Reversed. "But this time it's going to be different. We are going to reverse the usual procedure. We're going to let the people bring in the plans and all we'll do is nail them down."

F. I. Townsend, chairman of the Scurry County democratic executive committee, declares that the Saturday meeting will be in the hands of those for whose benefit it is called. He and other leading Democrats of the county will make brief addresses, giving a background of democratic ideals and principles, but the major work will be in the hands of the young people.

Parties to Honor President January 30

Every community in the nation will honor President Roosevelt when he becomes 53 years old on Tuesday, January 30, by giving local fetes to help endow an extension of the nation-wide work of the Warm Springs Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in which the President is so deeply interested.

West Texans Ask for 10-Year Lint Average

A score of West Texas counties were represented at Anson Saturday on a meeting that asked federal officials to make provisions in the cotton reduction contract whereby farmers more generally in this section may meet its requirements.

Scurry County was represented by Robert H. Curritute, county judge, W. R. Lacey, county agent, and O. P. Thrane, chairman of the county reduction committee. Judge Curritute was chosen as chairman of the gathering's resolutions committee.

Following is the Abilene Reporter-News account of the meeting as provided by a staff correspondent: Approximately 300 attended the meeting, including farmers, county judges and county agents. They came from 17 counties, and expressions of accord were received from five other counties.

Drouth, New Land. Chief bar to their participation in the campaign, said farmers at the session, is the contract's minimum yield requirement of 100 pounds lint cotton per acre, the figure being based on an average production for the five years, 1928-32 inclusive.

The hindrance works two ways, it was brought out at the meeting. Many counties, roughly in the sec-

HOG-CORN IDEA GIVEN IMPETUS

Sixty-five county agents and farmers from over thirty West Texas areas met in Lubbock Tuesday to hear the government hog-corn-reduction program explained by E. M. Regenbrecht, swine specialist, Texas Extension Service, and O. N. Fisher, United States Department of Agriculture. W. R. Lacey, Scurry County agent, was in the group.

The agent stresses the fact that under the new program hog production would be stabilized in the county, thereby insuring a supply of feeder pigs for farmers. Instead of shipping in breeding stock, as in the past, farmers would be able to continue their own hog breeding program.

"With the processing tax on cured meats, it is all the more important that farmers produce their pork at home," the agent says. "Payments to those who qualify are liberal. Fully 70 farmers in this county could qualify."

The program will be stressed immediately after the cotton campaign is over.

Ticket Sales Indicate Parties For President to Draw Quota

Ticket sales for the three parties that Snyder will give Tuesday evening in honor of President Roosevelt indicate that not a place will be vacant.

Enthusiastic reports from club women who are selling the tickets make it possible that another party may have to be organized to take care of the overflow. Present plans call for 30 persons at each of the three local celebrations—ball, bridge party, forty-two party.

Snyder is marching with the nation. From all corners of the Union come indications that point toward the most elaborate joint celebration in American history. Thousands of towns and cities are staging balls and other festivities.

Briefly, money derived from ticket sales will help endow the Warm Springs Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which is near to the heart of the President. The fetes are to be held on the fifty-second birthday of the chief executive.

One-Hour Program Honors Roosevelt

In connection with the parties honoring the President, the combined facilities of the National Broadcasting Company and the Columbia Broadcasting System will present a one-hour gala program on the evening of January 30, beginning at 10:15 o'clock. This will include an address by President Roosevelt, and entertainment by outstanding artists and musical organizations of America. All local parties will "stand by" during this hour, and other citizens who have radios are urged to listen in.

Scurry County voters will have the opportunity on Saturday, February 10, to vote on the question of whether or not 3.2 beer shall be sold legally in this county.

The Commissioners' Court in regular session Monday accepted the several petitions passed in the county last week, and set February 10 as the date of election. The petitions contained names of 229 qualified voters, or more than the 10 per cent minimum required by statute.

Election supplies have arrived and will be distributed to judges of the various boxes within a few days.

EXTEND LIMIT FOR ACCEPTING POOL FEATURE

Local Office Signing Hundreds for Government's 1934-35 Cotton Slice Program.

Developments in government cotton control plans, old and new, as they affect Scurry County, may be summarized this week as follows:

The county agent has received $40,000 in option checks for 277 farmers who elected to take the $20 per bale advance and retain option pool privileges. This money is being distributed to farmers as fast as they sign their contracts at the agent's office.

Closing date for accepting option pool agreements has been moved up to February 1. No such agreements had been accepted since January 15.

Farmers who wish to sign the 1934-35 reduction contracts are keeping a good-sized office force busy in the agent's office on the first floor of the courthouse. In addition, the agent is changing the lint average for West Texas to cover a 10-year rather than a five-year period.

At a meeting of county judges, farmers, agents and others in Anson Saturday, 22 counties represented, made a definite move toward urging Secretary Wallace to change the lint average for West Texas to cover a 10-year rather than a five-year period.

At a meeting of farmers of the Snyder territory in the courthouse Wednesday morning, the vote was 70 to 9 favoring the Bankhead Bill, which would license gins to put out a limited number of bales of cotton, subject to scaled reductions by farmers. At least 50 farmers did not vote.

The Snyder farmers' meeting, called primarily to discuss terms of the new cotton plan, was one of several held in various counties of the county.

January 21 has been set as the final date for signing the new reduction contracts, and no official notice of extension has been received here.

Raids Made by Trio Bring Arrests and Recovery of Goods

Wholesale raiding of houses and cars brought heavy booty to three young men, one an ex-convict, last week, but their "rail cars" ended Saturday night when Sheriff S. H. Newman arrested the trio and recovered most of the stolen goods.

Bud Shipley sentenced to four years in the penitentiary, and recently escaped, was bidding with Max Shipley, who also has record at the sheriff's office, and another young man who gave his name as Lee Smith of Tyler. The Student-baker car in which they were riding when arrested in front of the fire station Saturday night was loaded with booty of all kinds. It has been identified as a Dallas car, and is believed to have been stolen.

The group made a number of "calls" Saturday night, cleaning out cars, as well as groceries, blankets and other contents. A large amount of clothing and several other items were identified yesterday by Sheriff R. I. Goodall of Kent County and J. W. Moore, a farmer living near Jayton, as having been stolen from the latter's home Saturday.

Many of the stolen items have not been identified, and Sheriff Newman invites those who have missed the property recently to view the loot at his office. David Strayhorn and Lynn Putman assisted the sheriff in running down the marauders.

Showers Is Given For Recent Bride.

Honoring Mrs. J. C. Witherspoon, who was before her marriage Miss Alberta Mullins, Mrs. Horace Mullins and Miss Helen Witherspoon entertained with a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. Mullins in North Snyder last Thursday afternoon.

A pretty pink, green and yellow color note was emphasized in decorations and in the dainty salad plate that was passed at the close of the entertaining games.

North Ward Council Member Coming Out For Position Again

James A. Clark who was selected in 1933 to fill the one year unexpired term of S. A. LaRue as north ward member of the City Council, makes official announcement this week that he is a candidate for reelection to his first full term.

In coming before his north ward friends again, Mr. Clark states that he is seeking to continue a period of service for the town of Snyder. He states that he has done his best, along with the mayor and other members of the council, to give Snyder an efficient and economical administration.

Mr. Clark points out that the government continues to operate on a cash basis, and says that if he is returned to the responsible position he will continue to put his shoulder to the wheel to keep it that way.

"If you think my one-year term of office has been one of service, I shall appreciate a chance to give my time to the city for a full term," the councilman declares.

Bob Martin Places His Name in Pot as Marshal Candidate

The name of Bob Martin will be found this week in the group of candidates for the position of city marshal and tax collector, subject to action of the April election.

A resident of Scurry County for 35 years, and for two years the city's night watchman, the candidate believes he is well qualified for the place he seeks. His many friends point out that he is fearless and fair in his enforcement of the law and that he will make Snyder a peace officer and collector to whom the citizens may point with pride.

"During my period of service as night watchman I have done my best to preserve peace in our city and to make it difficult for law violators to hold sway during the night hours. I submit my record in this position and my record as a long-time citizen as a basis for asking your vote and influence during the approaching election. I hope to see all of you before the voting day."

Superintendent at Pyron Marches in Candidates' Parade

To the people of Scurry County: I am announcing my candidacy for the office of superintendent of county schools and am asking for your consideration and vote in the democratic primary in July.

In making this announcement I want to say that I am aware of the responsibilities connected with the administrative affairs of the office and that my experience, as a teacher in the county schools ranging from the smaller to the larger that come under the jurisdiction of office, together with four years of college training practically completed, together with four years of college should qualify me to execute the duties of the office.

I came to Scurry County while a lad, in the year 1907, and have lived in the county most of the time since. I have been engaged in school work, continuously, for the past 19 years and am now teaching my third year at Pyron.

I believe the office should be administered for the good of the schools that come under its authority and if elected I shall devote my time and efforts toward attaining high standards for the schools of the county. I shall offer, freely, my whole-hearted assistance and cooperation along all lines of education that are sound and progressive, but I shall keep clear from any form of alliance that would tend to dictate and dominate the school affairs that come within jurisdiction of the office.

Again I want to say that I will appreciate your consideration and vote, and if elected I shall devote my time and efforts to the advancement of a sound, efficient and economical educational program for the schools of this county.

Sincerely,
 Grady Hamrick
 Pyron, Texas, January 24, 1934.

Bill Taylor Comes Out This Week for Sheriff's Position

Here comes the announcement of Bill Taylor, who states: "After having made the race for sheriff two years ago, I feel that I have made many new friends and better ones out of my old ones.

"I am running the same kind of race I ran before, clean and on my own merits. Each and every person will get the same consideration regardless of standing, should I be elected.

"I want to take this method of thanking and remembering my supporters two years ago and my new ones this year. You were not wrong when you tried to elect me before, and you will not be wrong this time.

Yours for sheriff,
 W. B. (Bill) Taylor.

Uncle Dave Nation Will Resign Office

"Uncle" Dave Nation, justice of the peace in Precinct No. 1 for eight years, states this week that he is not a candidate for reelection. He gives falling health as the chief reason for retirement from public service.

The pioneer settler, who has held the place without opposition in recent years, has made an efficient and worthy official in the opinion of citizens who have had business in his office. He asks The Times to thank those who have made it possible for him to administer the duties of the office fairly and according to law.

Davenport Seeking Justice Office in The Local Precinct

The Snyder justice of the peace, thrown open by announcement of Dave Nation that he will not be a candidate for reelection, is being sought by F. E. Davenport, resident of Scurry County for more than 23 years.

For a number of years Mr. Davenport resided in the Ennis Creek community. For several months he has been a Snyder citizen.

The candidate states that he places his record as a citizen before the voters as his chief qualification for the place he seeks.

Walter W. Bishop For Commissioner

Walter W. Bishop announces this week as a candidate for county commissioner from Precinct No. 3. Mr. Bishop's name "will be found in the political column" this week, but his statement will be published in a later issue.

NEW COTTON PLAN INTENDS TO REDUCE CARRYOVER IN 1934-35

Average Slice Expected to Hold Up Purchasing Power of Farmer Says A. & M.

"The big idea behind the 1934-35 government cotton plan is to wipe out the 11,600,000 bale carry-over without curtailing the cotton farmer's purchasing power and without shifting production from cotton to other farm commodities in an equally bad plight," explains G. E. Adams, special agent in cotton, Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

"The carry-over is cut down to a three or four million bale normal by reducing American acreage 40 per cent, and the cotton farmer is to be protected from decreased income while he does this by paying him the money collected from a four cent per pound processing tax on the domestically used cotton in the United States.

Buying Power Guaranteed. "The government expects to collect about $130,000,000 in cotton processing taxes, of which about $5 million dollars may be paid to operating farmers in the form of land rentals and the remainder in the form of 'parity' payments. It amounts to guaranteeing the farmer pre-war buying power for the 100-pound requirement, Lynn County pointed out that the fall for two years heavily cut its production; Coleman county had insect infestation and drought; it was the same story from Scurry and other counties.

A resolution unanimously adopted asked that county committees and county agents in the so-called "drought" section be authorized "to change the contract base years so that same shall cover a five-year period of 1923-32 inclusive; or a ten-year period of 1923-32 inclusive; or in the alternative to accept for a contract any individual farm which the local committee and the county agent will accept at a five-year average yield of 100 pounds per acre, where such farm is potentially capable, under normal conditions in this area of West Texas, of producing over either a five or a ten-year period."

Rented Acres Not to Be Used. "That is why," explains Mr. Adams, "that cotton farmers who sign cotton contracts must agree not to use rented acres in any way that may lead directly or indirectly to throwing more farm commodities on the cash market. They must also agree not to increase their total cultivated acres above 1932 or 1933, and further, they must agree not to increase their acreage of corn, wheat, rice or tobacco, nor their numbers of dairy cattle and hogs.

"Through the new cotton contract the government undertakes to continue the restoration of the fortunes of cotton farmers, but in return asks that the farmer cooperate in the New Deal by refraining from unfair competition with already harassed corn and hog and wheat and rice and dairy farmers," he said.

Lum Day to Announce. J. C. (Lum) Day, former commissioner of Precinct No. 1, asks The Times to state that he will be a candidate for the position this year, subject to action of the July primary. Mr. Day's formal announcement will be made at a later date.

In the meantime, he asks his friends to remember that he is definitely in the race, and is soliciting their early support and influence.

J. H. Henley Asks For Commissioner's Place in Precinct 4

J. H. (Jess) Henley makes the following announcement of his candidacy for commissioner from Precinct No. 4.

"I am a farmer 39 years old, and have been living in Scurry County 15 years. For 11 months during the World War I was in the service of Uncle Sam. I now reside near the center of Precinct No. 4.

"If the voters see fit to elect me to this office, I promise to give them honest, straightforward service, and a debt-free and pay-as-you-go administration for my precinct and the county.

"I shall try to see each voter between now and July 28. I respectfully and earnestly solicit the vote and influence of each voter in my precinct."

Obstacles in Path. A representative from each county outlined the situation as it affects his own section. Jones, for instance, was the banner cotton producing county in the state in 1932, but County Judge Otis Miller estimated that in figuring the average yield over the 1928-32 period, approximately 40 per cent of Jones County growers could not meet the 100-pound requirement. In the Modern Manner. If you are not prepared to view some of the simple secrets of life, pray do not read "Penelope's Man," one of the best of John Erskine's extravaganza. Further, if you do not have the temerity to view, with Odysseus, the nude-innocent figures of the Lotus Eaters and the Sirens, perhaps it will be best for you to digest more subdued mind food.

Professor Trskine begins his tale on the premise that Homer's "Odyssey" and other classics concerning the experiences of the fabled king of Ithaca have been garbled in the telling; that the king of many amours really went out of the way to have personal acquaintance with Helen of Troy, Circe, and the other enchantresses of legendary reputation.

As the tale unravels, Odysseus discusses problems of home life and love, of war and eating, with his new-found island friends. As the scene shifts to the new world, they see why they become of age, seek their wandering father, but no, Philanderer father did not sit at the fireside of Penelope, his lawful wife, for long.

A household of suitors were seeking the hand of the queen-wife, Penelope's man quickly chopped their heads and bodies into bits, and hid his gory self to her quest. Penelope was only slightly interested, after all those years.

So Odysseus departed again. The reader cannot but wonder if Author Erskine will not some day write a book detailing this second trip. If No. 2 were to include something more of enchanted forests and disintegrated but interesting paragonous, one would naturally expect it to go into extra printings.

LEAGUE MEET WILL BE HELD MARCH 23-24

New Plan of Financing Interscholastic Events Mapped by the Directors Here Saturday.

March 23 and 24 were set Saturday morning as 1934 dates for the annual Scurry County Interscholastic League meet. The rural track meet is slated for March 10.

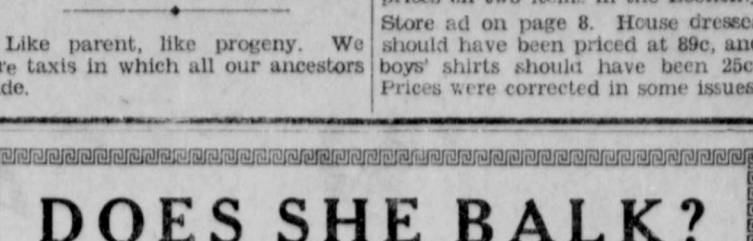

Along with date fixing, the group of directors that met in the county superintendent's office mapped a new plan for financing the county-wide school event. Instead of financing the program through entrance fees or subscriptions from merchants, a one-act play tournament is designed to take care of expenses.

Enthusiasm at the directors' meeting indicated that all the larger schools in the county will take part in the one-act play contest, which is to be held in Snyder February 22 and 23, under the direction of Charles S. Owens, local teacher. All schools are urged by E. O. Wedgeworth, general director of county league work, to make plans for entering a tournament cast.

It was decided that banners and loving cups will be awarded first place winners in final league events. Fluvanna now has cups recognizing her as winner of first place last year in both grammar and high school events. Ribbons will be given to other winners. R. L. Williams of Snyder, director of athletic events, states that a detailed program will be announced later, and literary directors will also have information about their plans from time to time.

A round robin debate tournament will follow last year's plan, with Cleo Tarter of Dunn in charge. The debates will be held in Snyder.

THE WEEKLY DOZEN

Keeping His Shirt Clean.
 Pessimism Pete insists that the only reason he is keeping out of the political cauldron is to protect his family from the slurs of outrageous candidating fortune.

Latest Farm Report.
 The Abilene Morning News suggests this is the latest typical farm report: "Father did very well with his lunch stand, but he barely broke even on his gas and oil."

This Dollar Devaluation.
 If dollar devaluation does no more than convince many Americans that money is not nearly so steadfast as character and the principle of the Golden Rule, Roosevelt will have earned his oats.

Streamlining Prosperity.
 Talkative Tillie says that the new streamlined cars, capable of turning sharp corners at 40 to 60 miles per hour, may have something to do with America's getting around the corner that leads to prosperity.

A New Radio Wave.
 When Graham McNamee, 44, and a 22-year-old New York City resident were married last week, it is reported that many a radio fan turned the knob to avoid a new brand of static from the studios patronized by the announcing wizard.

Carriers of Scurry County.
 Scurry County has some carriers of her own. Take the fellow who condemns preachers and other public servants, for example, and never throws his shoulders to the wheel of public service... heap much talk, little punch.

"Don't Call 'Em Dog-gies."
 John M. Hendrix of Sweetwater: "Don't call 'em 'dog-gies.' That's wrong. Call 'em 'dough-gies' and spell it with either an 'e' or 'i'—if you call 'em anything. They are really worthless little critters, traveling in the herd behind the drags and causing no end of trouble."

Faith In Our Education.
 We have faith in education as the foundation of democratic government... Our schools need the appreciation and cooperation of all those who depend upon them for the education of our youth—the state's most valuable asset. Our schools are today enabling America to achieve great results.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

We Are in a Revolution.
 West Texas Today: "We are in a revolution. No competent and unbiased observer will deny it. Only it is peaceful revolution, born of a conviction of an enlightened people that certain ways of the past were not good and that change was good. Yes, things are changing, long-anchored standards and traditions and practices are going by the board."

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!
 Fifty ones! Fifty twos! Fifty again! Sold to Scurry County for fifty candidates! Most anyone would have been content only a few weeks ago with 50 candidates in local, county and district races. Not so today. Old Man Politics threatens to disrupt all candidate history by providing mere candidates for the disapproval of poll tax payers than the citizenship ever dreamed of.

He'll Take West Texas.
 O. A. Porter, editor, Breckenridge American: "There's something in the old West Texas spirit I never expect to find anywhere else, and if any one of you are planning to go to some strange country to make your home, after you have lived in these 'parts' for as long as a year or more; just heed of my lot in Tennessee, which I know you will not; and learn what a good place West Texas is to live, from me."

Pay That Poll Tax!
 This year, with political waters boiling at their best, it hardly seems necessary to mention that poll taxes cannot be paid after January 31. The Times has an old-fashioned idea that a citizen's first duty, after providing the necessities of home, is to have a hand in the election of the officials who govern him. In our mind, the man who gripes and groans about government continuously, and yet does not have enough interest in it to pay $1.75 for a poll tax, is like a hound barking up a coonless tree.

Hubby—"Well, Darling, I've just had my life insured for $5,000."
Wife—"That's nice. Now I won't have to keep telling you to be careful every place you go."

America: "To Our President."

Next Tuesday, our President's birthday, will be a red letter day in this nation's history. Citizens in cities and towns, in hamlets and crossroads, will join hands in a common remembrance of the fifty-second birthday of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

As a famous artist has suggested, the birthday slogan is: "America: 'To Our President!'" Snyder is giving such a toast to her President by a three-way birthday celebration.

Those who enjoy bridge may play bridge. There will be forty-two for those who follow the dominoes; dancing for those who sway to music's charms. No matter what your choice may be, you have an opportunity to join your fellow Americans in the most distinctive observance in American history.

As The New York Times has said: "It is a humane as well as happy thought which lies behind the plan to raise an endowment for the Warm Springs Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and offer it to President Roosevelt as a gift on his birthday."

"Nothing could be nearer the President's heart. It is he who has made Warm Springs and what it symbolizes, near to the heart of the American people. They recall his own uncompromising and gallant and successful fight against the affliction which overtook him, and which threatened to end completely his public life. They also remember how his sympathies and hopes turned to the help and relief of others crippled as he temporarily had been."

"Now at Warm Springs an establishment with skill and experienced treatment is able to work almost miracles of recovery, and needs only larger resources in order to extend its benefits more widely."

"All must hope that this plan to delight and cheer the President by such a birthday present, insuring as it would the larger success of Warm Springs, will be carried out enthusiastically and triumphantly."

More than 150 Scurry County persons are expected to attend the birthday observances Tuesday. They will be putting their 50-cent pieces not only into a fund for a humane purpose. They will be paying unique and appreciated tribute to the man who is helping to pull them up the hill.

The Price of Cotton.

It is high time for the federal government's machinery to begin functioning in the matter of loans to cotton farmers, seeing that recent sags in the market have cost Texas and the South tens of millions of dollars. Government action advancing 10 cents a pound on low middling seven-eighths-inch staple and eight cents on shorter lengths may help to steady the market. But one wonders why federal agencies did not decide to lend 15 cents a pound instead of a dime, when all the world knows that, if prowar parity is aimed at, the figure offered is inadequate. The American Cotton Cooperative Association takes the position, and with considerable weight of evidence on its side, "that cotton now is only 69 per cent of its prewar price, while articles farmers buy are 116 per cent. Clearly cotton price is out of line. Any efforts toward farm recovery in the South must aim at a substantially higher price."

Directors of the American Cotton Cooperative Association also take the view that the Secretary of Agriculture has legal sanction to bring about prewar parity in line with announced program. It is unfortunate that, when such powers have been placed in the hands of government officials, they take their own good time to put remedial measures into operation. In the matter of cotton acreage reduction steps were taken so late that farmers actually had to plow up whole fields in full fruit when more timely action could have prevented the planting of an excessive acreage, by far the cheapest method all round. As to distribution of federal cotton checks, these would have done greater good had they been sent to farmers early in August as ordinarily due. Coming largely in October they are still highly welcome and are greatly helping business conditions. Better late than never!

In Lynn P. Talley the administration has selected a man to head the new credit corporation who has had long and varied acquaintance with cotton banking problems and who knows not only farmers but bankers and merchants. His Texas experience alone will give him the needed background of intimate knowledge of a situation requiring special talents.—The Dallas News.

EDITORIAL OF THE WEEK

THE MERCHANTS' OPPORTUNITY

Merchants and other business firms of this town are face to face with the opportunity of a lifetime, and we believe they realize it. The president's commodity price raising campaign has gone far beyond what he expected, and has become a matter of grave concern. It has brought the profiteers out in the open and they are gouging people to the limit, and the gouging is sinking deeper day by day. In a certain fair sized city a few weeks ago a popular brand of crackers was selling at nineteen cents a box. A few days ago the same crackers were priced at thirty-one cents a box—a price boost of more than sixty per cent.

That is just one small sample of what the profiteers are doing even this early in the game. We believe the business firms of this town are possessed of good judgment and a desire to be fair with their customers—they must of a necessity make a reasonable profit on the goods they sell—they are entitled to that.

There is no excuse or justification for the skyrocket rise in commodity prices during the past few weeks. That is most noticeable in the cities, where merchants appear to be going mad in their insane desire to "make a killing" in price boosting.

And therein lies the golden opportunity for the country town merchant. The buying public is going to become incensed and disgusted over the greed that has followed the president's invitation to raise prices. City merchants are not merely adding the increase in wholesale cost to their own retail prices. They are greatly increasing their standard scale of profits, thereby annexing additional pounds of flesh at the expense of luckless consumers.

If our home merchants will refrain from such wild profiteering, and add only the increase in wholesale cost to their retail prices, they will find their selling cost far below the cities. They will win the respect and gratitude of our townspeople and of the farming community adjacent to us, and that gratitude will keep trade at home that might otherwise go to some city nearby.

Wise men take advantage of legitimate opportunities and plan for the future. Foolish ones think only of the present and the penny in hand.—Democrat-Tribune, Carnat, Illinois.

The Belton yarn mill has resumed operations and will use two shifts of eight hours each with approximately 200 workers engaged and a payroll of $10,000 a month. Within a few days after opening up the plant added 100 men to its payroll, doubling its output.

CURRENT COMMENT

By LEON GUINN

Some of the first sippers states that stormed for prohibition repeal have a problem concerning drunk drivers and automobiles... Opinion differs, but the majority of people in wet states contend that wet temperance compels the public to be educated and aroused to the point where gurgie drivers will not drive during wet spasms, for someone will tell the coppers!

In Europe some nations do not allow drinkers to drive within eight hours after a spree, and if America's damp states are to care for the drunk menace something of the sort should be at least given a trial... Improving public morale is a scholarly touch of poppycock... If the person reporting an intoxicated driver were given 25 per cent of the fine or some such token, wet advocates might be getting somewhere.

Since high crust streamlining and modernistic touches are household words, it is easy to wonder if ever the human race will have need for synthetic foods and clothes... This seems to be a far-fetched trend of thought, with pork and wheat surpluses; besides many bushels of corn, yet the American Chemical Society thought the synthetic food question worthy of close analysis... The greatest obstacle in the way of synthetic food reproduction concerns flavor, for with all the brains and machinery chemistry can master, flavor has never been synthetically reproduced successfully... It is therefore evident Mother Nature will continue to hold the flavor throttle years hence, and the most noteworthy contributions in science deals with concentrated food... Vitamins and carbohydrates have been squeezed and pressed into wee tablets for trapped miners and such... But synthetic food will finish this already jaded civilization... Imagine the wailing if labeled bottles of breakfast were substituted for cattle and corn... Would shipping lines scream?

America has reared its high dollar bulk like the Matherhorn in affairs financial, and because the dollar is being further devalued the British are gravely concerned... For one thing a high perch for the American dollar gave British traders all the velvet... Foreign nations have debased currency to wipe out debts with, and because Mr. Roosevelt is doing the same thing many foreigners are really griping... Because CWA work in Scurry County has been drastically reduced this week many think unjust and snobbish things... It is to be hoped additional funds will be shortly received and CWA work will again reach its peak of employment quota... I recently heard one farmer fuming because some farmers were on the CWA payroll... He feared some of his great grandkids would have an additional cent in taxes to pay, merely because CWA funds were helping worthy citizens... Uncle Sam might be able to borrow a dollar or two from him sometime!

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. B. A.

Aunt Het on School Teaching

"One o' my girls had her heart set on bein' a school teacher, but I talked her out of it. Teachin' school is too much like bein' a preacher's wife. It's a high callin', but people expect you to give more'n they pay for."

"You take the teachers here in town. The only difference between them an' Christian martyrs is the date an' the lack of a bonfire."

"They was hired to teach and they do it. The teach the younguns that can learn, and entertain the ones that fell on their heads when they was little. But that ain't enough. They're supposed to make obedient little angels out o' spoiled brats that never minded nobody, an' wet nurse little wildcats so their mothers can get rest, an' make geniuses out o' children that couldn't have no sense with the parents they've got."

"But that ain't the worst. They have got to get up plays an' things to work the school out o' debt; an' sing in the choir an' teach a Sunday School class, an' when they ain't doin' nothin' else they're supposed to be a good example."

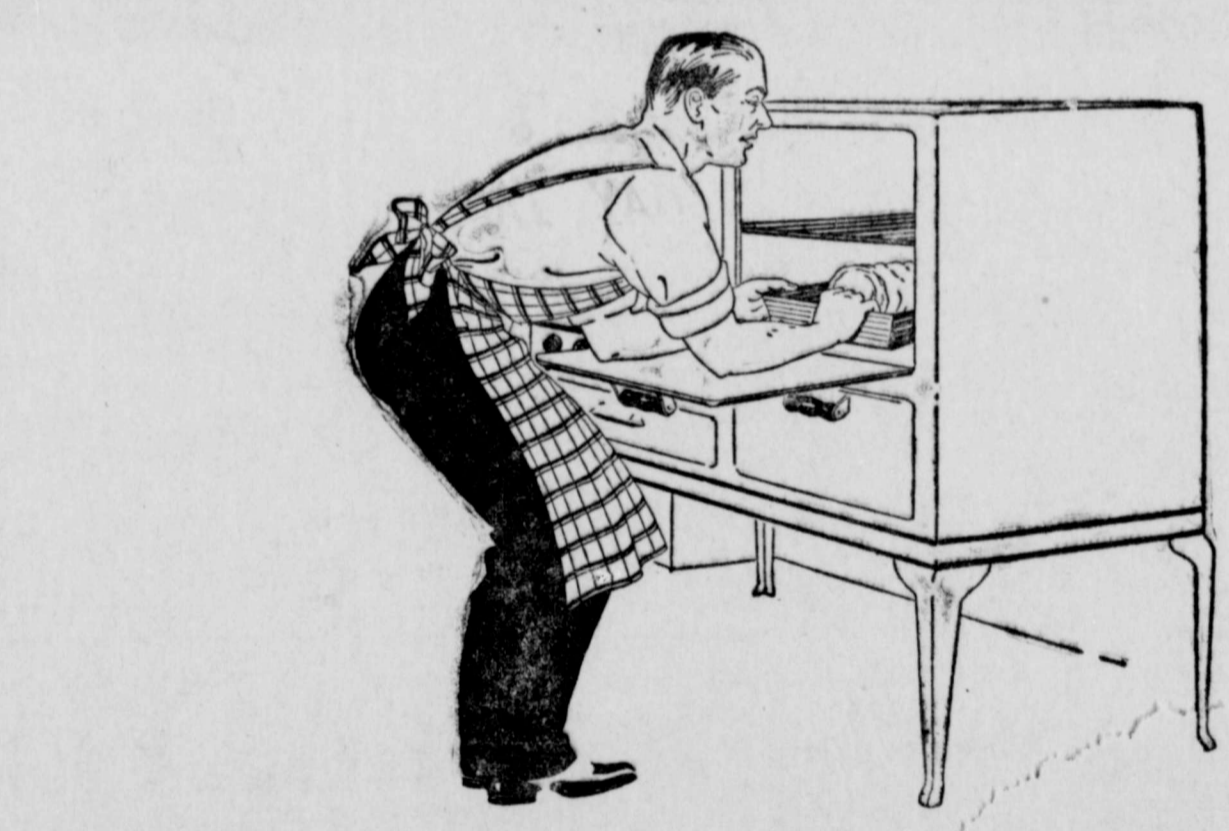

"Then they don't get no pay for six months an' can't pay their board or buy decent clothes an' on top of ever'thing else they can't hold hands comin' home from prayer meetin' without some pious old sister with a dirty mind startin' a scandal on 'em right now."

CREDIT GROUP FOR LIVESTOCK MEN, FARMERS

Two Scurry County Men Are Officials in Area Association Formed at Sweetwater.

A half-million-dollar credit reservoir for farmers and livestock men of Scurry and three adjoining counties became a reality Saturday when the charter of the newly organized Sweetwater Production Credit Association was delivered to headquarters at Sweetwater.

C. P. Thrane of Snyder is second vice president of the association, and J. R. Patterson of Pflugina is one of the six directors.

Receipt of the charter was the final detail preparatory to actual functioning of the new credit organization which is set up and operated under the federal farm credit act of 1933.

Four Counties Served.

The concern will serve Scurry, Nolan, Mitchell and Fisher Counties, making loans on all kinds of farm and livestock requirements, including refinancing of farm notes and tax payment. Interest rate is six per cent and loans are made for 12 months or less.

The association has a capital stock of $100,000. Through its connection with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston it will provide a loan capacity of $300,000.

Officers, in addition to the two Scurry County men, are: W. L. Boethe, Sweetwater, president; W. E. Bennett, Sweetwater, first vice president; D. H. Snyder of Colorado, C. C. Thompson of Colorado, Sterling Williams of Fisher County, and G. S. Barnes of Sylvester, directors.

Loans in Each County.

A. M. Cooper of Sweetwater, secretary, states that each county in the district will handle its own applications, which will be forwarded to the Sweetwater office and finally to the Houston headquarters for approval. "Application takers in the various counties will be appointed so meet the convenience of the public."

It was pointed out that this organization, under the federal loan plan, replaces all other government loan agencies of this nature except the crop production loan, which has not yet been acted upon by Congress for the coming year.

The loan organization is in no way an emergency plan, but it is a permanent agricultural loan system. The Sweetwater association is one of 51 established in Texas districts. All are operated under the federal farm credit act, which allotted seven and one-half million dollars to Texas for capital stock of such associations.

Former Resident of Snyder in Politics

Announcement has just been made in Sweetwater papers that H. V. Williams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Williams of Snyder, is a candidate for state representative from the district composed of Nolan, Fisher and Mitchell Counties. He seeks the place now held by Will Scott of Sweetwater.

The former resident, a teacher and school executive of wide experience, has taught in Scurry and Mitchell Counties, and is now principal of a Nolan County school.

Grass and Shrubs Being Sought for Highway Planting

Plans to plant Bermuda grass, shrubs and other plants along Scurry County highways, in connection with the state-wide highway beautification program, are being made by G. R. Austin, state highway superintendent for this area, and Mrs. Lee T. Stinson, chairman of the county beautification committee.

Those who have any of the wanted plants or grass are urged to get in touch with Mr. Austin, Mrs. Stinson, or Mrs. W. R. Bell, county Better Homes of America chairman.

Highway workers will call for the plants or grass, dig them from the owner's premises, plant them on the highways, and then keep them watered and cultivated.

The week beginning January 29 has been designated the special time throughout the state for centering all highway forces on beautification plans. A landscape engineer is scheduled to be here next week to assist local chairmen and Mr. Austin in making county beautification plans.

Improvement for Highways To Be Planned at Rally

Definite plans for beautification of state highways in division 8, of which Scurry County is a part, are to be made in Abilene Saturday afternoon beginning at 3:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Lee T. Stinson, who was appointed to the chairmanship of this county's beautification committee, will attend the session.

Presentation of the state-wide program will be made in Abilene by Jac L. Gubbels, landscape architect for the highway department, member. The gathering of the club and W. R. Ely, highway commission women will be at the Abilene Woman's Club, with Mrs. E. E. Traweck, president.

Chairmen of the beautification committees in all the 13 counties comprising division 8 have been invited to the meeting by Mrs. Dallas Scarborough, division chairman.

Others interested in the plans are also invited.

Mrs. Stinson plans an intensive campaign for highway beautification in this county, with the assistance of clubs and other county agencies.

HEALTH PLANS MADE MONDAY AT AREA MEET

Startling West Texas Death Rate Cited by Judge Charles W. Lewis, Nolan County.

Plans discussed at a five-county Sweetwater rally of CWA health workers Monday night were given impetus by a statement made early in the meeting by Charles W. Lewis, county judge of Nolan County.

West Texas has a higher death rate than New York and practically all other American cities, declared the judge, citing the Rockefeller Foundation as his authority.

He told of his own conversion to the county health unit before creation of the CWA, and described Nolan County's sanitation and health program.

Nolan County Saves.

Judge Davis declared that results of a year-round health movement netted not only results in saving of lives but meant actual dollars and cents gain. Nolan County has the lowest death rate of any West Texas county.

The Sweetwater program was arranged by S. H. Steel, supervisor of the sixth district, statewide sanitary project, and Miss Ilga Buehser, nurse of the state department of health.

Scurry, Nolan, Kent, Mitchell and Fisher Counties were represented. This county's delegation of 12 was the largest of the five. It was headed by M. K. Maples, county health supervisor. Others who attended were Miss Adelle Eaux, Mrs. Ivan Elkins, Frank Farmer, A. P. Miller, Edgar Taylor, John Adams, W. H. Williams, George Brown Sr., Frank Darby, R. S. Snow and J. C. Smyth.

Several Speakers.

Speakers on the program, with their subjects, follow: Dr. E. W. Prothro, Nolan County health officer; "How the Physician May Profit by Sponsoring Health Activities"; Miss Grace Buzell, Nolan County health nurse; "Relation of County CWA to the Health Program"; R. F. Fornby, Fisher County CWA administrator; "How to Organize a County"; W. D. Staples, sanitarian of Nolan County; "Sanitary Surveys"; G. D. Smith, sanitary engineer of Nolan County; "Duties of a Foreman"; Miss Inez Cheate, Nolan County secretary; "Duties of the Secretary."

Mr. Maples reports this week that Mrs. Elkins, county health nurse, has examined children in several schools, and will continue this work

Tigers to Make Local Debut As Basket Shooters

Local basket ball fans will soon have their first opportunity in two seasons to see the Tiger thinly clad in action on the home court. The chance will come Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, with Pflugina as the opposing quintet. Admission will be 10 cents per person. Coach Red Moore says he is expecting a good showing of fans.

In the first game of the season, at Pflugina Friday afternoon, the Bengals trimmed the Pregs with little trouble by a count of 21 to 16. Huestis and Falls featured the locals in a first half sprint that showed the score to 17-3. Forest Beavers, regular center, was unable to play, but John Blakey, relief man No. 1, played center acceptably.

Stanley Huestis and Jack Martin are regular forwards, while Jack Dunn and Pat Falls take the guards. Delmus Perry and Aubrey Wiese saw service at Pflugina. Others who are scrapping for regular places are William Horen, J. C. Morgan, Tommie Whinters, Richard Davis and Jack Bean.

This (Thursday) afternoon will find the boys mixing shots with the Hobbs crew at the Hobbs gymnasium. They will probably meet the championship Dunn squad some time next week.

Druggists of West Texas Hear Snyder Man, Elect Another

West Texas druggists who gathered in Lubbock Thursday of last week to organize their retail drug code authority heard Lee T. Stinson of Snyder, president of the Texas State Pharmaceutical Association, and named J. E. Irwin of Snyder as a member of their board of directors.

Mr. Stinson urged cooperation and strict observance of both the letter and the spirit of the retail drug code.

W. R. Fickus of Lubbock was elected president of the nineteenth congressional district group, representing 25 counties. Other officers and directors, in addition to the Snyder druggist, are: W. M. Blackmore, Plainview, and Cecil Westerman, Big Spring, vice presidents; A. B. Davis, Lubbock, secretary-treasurer, and Bert Pinson, Lubbock, J. W. Bryant, Lamesa, and Claude Anderson, Slaton, directors.

Mr. Stinson urged cooperation and strict observance of both the letter and the spirit of the retail drug code.

At least seven pit tickets have been completed, and others are being built by the shorthanded crew. Most of these are at Hemleigh.

LAST DAY FOR TAX PAYING IS NOT FAR AWAY

Polls, State and County Taxes Must Be in by January 31; Auto Fees by February 1.

January 31 is the last day on which you may pay your poll tax and have a chance to take part in some of the most interesting elections in Scurry County annals.

February 1 is the last day on which you may register your car and save a 20 per cent penalty. January 31 is likewise the last day on which you may pay your state and county taxes and avoid a 10 per cent penalty.

These facts come in the nature of warnings from the office of W. Nelson, county tax collector. The time is getting mighty short, and unless you want to stand in line for a long, long time, you had better hurry to the courthouse.

Already the lines are getting long. The tax collector's force anticipates the busiest days between now and Friday of next week, that they have had in several years.

Tax paying this year has picked up all along the line. State and county taxes, new and delinquent, are being paid up better than ever. The optimistic hoped for a few months ago. Automobile licenses have already passed the figure set last year.

Most interesting to the heavy crop of candidates that is abroad this season is the heavy increase in poll tax paying. The present deluge of polls indicates that the figure will be well above 2,000 as compared to less than 1,200 last year and less than 1,800 in 1932, the last "election" year.

Dr. W. D. Littler
Rupture Specialist

For One Day Only at Manhattan Hotel

Wednesday, January 31
From 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Will demonstrate without charge his system of treating Rupture by the Hypodermic Injection Method, without surgical operation. This method is curative and gives quick and permanent relief. In those old long standing, large opening cases of Rupture not suitable for the hypodermic method, he uses their Pit Well, Nonslip Shields, Trusses and Abdominal Appliances that are easy, safe and comfortable to wear.

Rupture is a troublesome and dangerous disease, and frequently causes other chronic diseases. Therefore, a specialist who knows, one who has had much experience in this particular practice should be consulted. This means that one should avoid those who are inexperienced, and whose main object is only to sell trusses and abdominal appliances, which frequently cause harm to the patient.

 Your dealer uses only genuine replacements parts on service jobs. His stock of parts will inventory into hundreds of dollars yet this is maintained solely for your benefit. 'Educate Folks to Do Something'

Leader of State Schools Explains New Deal Plans

"We are trying to educate folks to do things," declared State Superintendent L. A. Woods, Thursday night of last week in his address to several hundred school people and school patrons in the high school auditorium.

Seconding his "chief," Rural Aid Supervisor Pat Bullock, former head of Scurry County schools, declared that the new administrator's efforts to carry a practical education to rural and city schools alike resulted during the last session of the Legislature in "the greatest rural aid bill ever passed in Texas."

Dr. Woods, in brief, discussed efforts of his "New Deal" administration to reach children of all classes and ages with good school facilities and a curriculum to fit the changing times. Mr. Bullock outlined provisions of the new rural aid laws. Miss Sue B. Mann of Abilene, district supervisor, handed West Texas a bouquet for the fact that she is "trying to learn to do better," in contrast with the know-all attitude of many sections of the state.

Such was the triumvirate of speakers that visited Scurry County last week.

Manhattan Banquet.
At a hastily arranged informal banquet in the Manhattan Hotel previous to the program at the school building, the visitors broke bread—and cracked jokes—with 60 admirers and friends from Snyder and a number of other county communities. C. Wedgeworth, local superintendent, was toastmaster.

The Snyder superintendent opened the later program by introducing the Girls' Choral Club in two numbers under the direction of Mrs. Novis Rodgers. Mrs. Hilton Lambert gave a humorous reading. The visiting speakers and Superintendent Howard Niles of Fisher County were introduced by Frank Farmer, county superintendent.

About 20 visiting school people were present from adjoining counties, and practically every school in this county had representation.

Dr. Woods declared that the present Texas school system is sadly lacking in efficiency primarily because of lack of finances, lack of transportation facilities, failure to offer what the boys and girls are interested in, and its following of the old idea that education is for those interested only in the professions.

Together an Opportunity.
"Practically all of us are as one now in accepting the theory that every boy and girl is due an opportunity to get an education, but practically we are separated," the visitor declared. He stated that the recently enacted rural aid bill was designed to make that motto as practical and workable as possible. He pointed out that the income of school districts per pupil in various parts of Texas varies from $20 to $150, and declared that he hoped rural aid would eventually be developed to include an equalization fund that will completely wipe out this discrimination in favor of the wealthier districts. Raising of the equalization fund from three to five million dollars would assure at least an eight months school for every child in grammar grades, he said.

"It is necessary that we train and train properly," Dr. Woods emphasized, "in order that the child may learn to think quickly, solidly and justly. Our educational system must be redesigned to take care of the threefold nature of man—mentally, physically and morally."

Develop Curriculum.
"We must study and develop the curriculum to fit the various communities. A curriculum is never complete. It must change with society. We are trying to educate folks to do things—not to pass by on the other side, as the priest and the Levite did, but to render unselfish service in the manner of the Good Samaritan."

"We have a bunch of folks in our educational system who can spin lots of theories—but they can't hitch a horse to the wagon. There is no use to have a lot of so-called learning that cannot be applied. I am not saying that we should do away with academic courses, but I am saying that about 90 per cent of our children are not getting the training they need and want."

In concluding, Mr. Woods said in axiom that the two main objectives in all education are to teach how to live and how to make a living.

Rural Children Aided.
Emphasizing the tremendous importance of the Woods-sponsored rural aid bill, "Pat" declared that "this is the first time in the history of the state that the boys and girls in the forks of the creek are getting anywhere near an equal opportunity with their city cousins. Thousands of children who were not in high school two or three years

SIGN THE COTTON CONTRACT

In the curtailment of federal expenditures at Washington there is a plain warning to cotton farmers to get their name on the dotted line of this year's cotton contracts with the government. The time remaining of the signing-up period is short, January 31 is the deadline, and it is highly unsafe to gamble on an extension of the time. The sheer magnitude of its recovery measures makes it likely that the government will be forced to hold rigidly to schedules. The cotton farmer who stops to argue whether he or some other farmer should have the better seat on the crazy train is apt to find the train pulling out without him.

After last year's eye-opening experience with the government's cotton program, there is probably not a cotton farmer in the South who is not convinced of the wisdom of signing up this year. The cotton plan last year paid the farmers millions of dollars, in cash, besides increasing the value of all cotton produced by reason of its measures which held down the number of bales going to market. It was the first time that farmers ever had been hired to do something for their own benefit, and the cotton farmer is not so stupid as to fail to recognize their favored status.

This year the government's plan offers still more benefits to the farmer. It intends to pay him for leaving unplanted half of his crop, thereby assuring him that he will get more for the half that is planted. The payments are to be made in cash and in such a manner as to provide, at the various crop seasons, a cash income sufficient to finance the production of the crop. Thus, for the first time since cotton raising became general in the South, the crop is to be put on a cash basis. What this means to the farmer may be estimated from the fact that in all the other years the men who actually raised the cotton were working to pay for what had been borrowed. The cotton farmers have always been a year behind; the government put them even last year by its plow-up and option payments; it plans to put them a year ahead this year.

That there should be delay by farmers signing the contracts which put them in line for government payments seems preposterous, but delay there is. It is reported that the chief difficulty arises from disagreement between landlords and payments to be received. There is no such difficulty, since the government's intention as expressed in the contracts is plain. Misapprehension arises from the failure to realize just what the government is buying with the money it pays to the farmers. It is not renting land from the landlord; it is buying a reduction of the cotton crop of that particular farm. In other words, it is buying something which is not produced by the farmer. The nature of the division of the payments as between landlord and tenant should be controlled, and the government expects it to be controlled, but the respective interest of each in the cotton production of the farm. That is simple; it is merely a matter of arithmetic.

But regardless of misunderstanding as to what is a fair basis of division of the payments, and regardless of whether an agreement has been reached between landlord and tenant, the contracts should be signed at once. After January 31 there is no guaranty, where no contract has been signed, that either landlord or tenant will get anything. If landlord and tenant must argue, the thing to do is for both to sign up and thus make sure that there will be something to argue about.—The Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Owners of Small Homes Get Gleam Of Capital Hope

A gleam of hope for millions of small home owners threatened with foreclosure, who have heretofore not been eligible for aid from the Home Owner's Corporation, because holders of their mortgages refused to accept the Home Loan bonds, was seen in Washington yesterday in the statement of Senator Tom Connally of Texas, member of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, that he will advocate passage of amendments to the Home Loan Bank Act, liberalizing its terms and tending to create a stable market for its bonds.

Senator Connally worked for the passage of the original Home Loan Bank Act, and Home Owner's Loan Act which is empowered to issue bonds to take up home mortgages. The Owners United States Government guarantees the interest, but not the principal, upon these bonds, and for this reason many mortgage-holders have declined to accept the bonds.

"It appears that the small home owners of the nation cannot realize the fullest benefits from this legislation until Congress has liberalized its terms, so as to make the bonds readily saleable, so that they will be acceptable to all mortgage holders. Patriotic individuals and corporations throughout the country have already accepted millions of dollars worth of bonds, and hundreds of thousands of small homes have been saved from foreclosure as a result. But the bonds must be made universally acceptable, so that every small owner in the United States, who faces the loss of his property, which often represents the savings of a lifetime of toil and struggle, may take advantage of the liberal amortization terms offered by the Home Owner's Loan Corporation in refinancing such properties. I am extremely hopeful that the Congress, at the present session, may devise suitable legislation to accomplish such an extension of the benefits of the original Act, and I shall give my support in the Senate to whatever practical and sound legislation may be submitted with that end in view."

Latest reports in Washington show that in Senator Connally's home state, Texas, loans have been made by the Home Owner's Loan Corporation on 1,830 individual small homes, totaling $4,556,660.50, while thousands of additional applications for loans are in process of examination by the bank officials.

Graham and Rogers Install a Clarifier

Installation of a brand new naphtha clarifying system was being completed in the cleaning plant of Graham and Rogers yesterday, and operation of the benefits is now in full swing. The system has a capacity of nearly 450 gallons of the cleaning fluid, say the operators. Continuous flow of the liquid through filters and caustic solutions assures a plenty of purified naphtha for the plant.

Other improvements in the shop, three doors north of the bank, have been made, while additional fixins are planned for the next few days, say Joe and Abe.

Red Cross Meeting Planned Next Week

Lee T. Stinson, county chairman, announces that the annual meeting of the Scurry County Chapter of the American Red Cross is to be held Thursday evening of next week, 7:30 o'clock, in the district court room.

Reports from the past year will be heard from the Roll Call chairman and other officials, and officials will be named for the present year. The chairman urges full attendance of those interested in the Red Cross and its work.

ALMOST $2,000 FOR BUILDINGS

January building permits for Snyder, exclusive of any kind of CWA work, have reached a total of almost $2,000, it was revealed yesterday by P. M. Holl, building inspector.

Another improvement has been made in West Snyder by Mrs. H. B. Winston. The old-style rambling house has been converted into a unique rock veneer home. Her building permit was for $500.

T. T. Smith of Sweetwater has taken out a $300 permit for repairs on the building now occupied by the wrecking shop, just south of Hugh Taylor & Company.

Permit for a $1,600 house in West Snyder was let yesterday by Mrs. W. F. McCallum.

Dr. R. L. Howell is completing a new garage at his home place, at an outlay of $150.

Conversion of Dr. H. E. Rosser's home to a rock veneer has been completed, and the new home of Dr. J. P. Avery is rapidly nearing completion.

THINKS COTTON PLAN CLICKING

The new cotton contracts will be signed up by fully as many Texas cotton farmers as signed plow-up contracts last summer.

This is the consensus of opinion of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service staff members after returning to headquarters from preliminary cotton meetings all over the state the first week in January. Farmers credit the plow-up campaign with their increased prosperity in 1933 and are determined to make the new plan succeed, it was reported from all corners of Texas. Votes taken of prevailing sentiment revealed overwhelming support for the 1934-35 contract.

Many farmer committeemen predicted that the sign-up would start slow but would speed up toward the end as farmers had plenty of time to think things over.

China Grove School To Install Curtain

L. L. Troit, principal of the China Grove school, was in Snyder early this week soliciting ads to appear on a curtain that is to grace the stage of the new brick veneer building. He reports good cooperation on the part of both Colorado and Snyder merchants.

The principal and his co-workers are planning a play and probably a dedication service to be presented Friday night of next week. They invite friends from Snyder and elsewhere to take part in the joint program.

Farmer Poll to Be Made on Curb Plan

Secretary Wallace prepared a questionnaire Monday to determine the attitude of southern farmers on the Bankers' cotton bill which purposes to limit the number of bales each farmer may gin next year.

The poll is being sent immediately to 32,000 crop reporters and county committeemen in charge of the present voluntary acreage reduction activities.

ago are there now—thanks to the measures of the bill."

Both speakers discussed the merits of modern transportation methods as opposed to the old manner of trying to teach a number of grades in small rural schools.

The two Austin men spoke Friday morning at high school assembly at the invitation of Superintendent Wedgeworth.
