Ray's 'Ritin'

By RAY MARTIN

Maybe you wouldn't believe it if you have a nice (even though mortgaged) roof over your head, but Muleshoe practically has no houses for rent. We know. We have been trying to find one for two months now — ever since the landlord told us he was selling our Goshard Estates Flats.

As nearly as we can figure out at the moment this is being written, there are only two rent houses in all of Muleshoe, and both of them very small houses. There's also a three-room apartment, I believe.

But with a Hammond organ and all the furniture that a couple picks up after 31 years of marriage, there just isn't a rent house in town big enough for all the junk we've accumulated.

All of which means that Muleshoe is growing — too fast for its housing accommodations, but growing just the same.

There are towns that are not so fortunate. Got to looking through a daily the other day, reading the "for rent" and "for sale" ads. Several of them read like this: "Paint the trim as down payment." And others said, "Pay me $50 and assume loan. No credit check!" In fact many said, "no credit check."

Now that particular town was one of those that overbuilt during the late '50's, and then when a slump hit the oil business, this town slumped also; it is strictly an oil town. And another daily I was scanning through had a number of ads for rental property which said, "Children and pets gladly accepted." When ads say that, houses are plentiful!

Got to talking with a man who has a doctorate degree in geology. He was hard hit by the pooling of geologists and by companies "farming out" their many different jobs to a service company. He was caught in that squeeze play. He now sells brushes, door-to-door.

Change of pace. One of the Journal fellows the other evening discovered a real old-time traveler, one the likes of which I hadn't seen in many a day. Back when I was a kid, folks used to call them "knights of the road."

This one had the usual long hair, the little campfire with the half-pound coffee can for a cooking utensil, and the washed-out whiskey bottle for a water jug.

Asked him where he was going. "Straight east," was his reply. "Straight east and tomorrow I make Plainview maybe, maybe not." He had been on the road he said for two months, coming from California. He said he didn't know how far east he would go, and when he gets there, he probably will turn right around and head back west again.

Our house in Byars was only two blocks from the railroad tracks, and we frequently used to have "rod-riders" knock on our back door and ask for food. My mother always obliged them. "You never know," she would say if the knight of the road happened to be young, "he may be on his way back to see his mother." So, she always loaded them up with food, and sometimes they sat down on the back step beside the cistern and ate every crumb. Sometimes, though, they took the food with them, explaining that they had a "buddy down by the railroad track and he hasn't had

Seedling Diseases in Cotton, Sorghum Cloud Crop Prospects

Bailey county farmers are trying to answer a big question this week: Just what is the extent of seedling diseases, brought on by wet, cool weather? They are asking themselves

Old Cars Still Chug

Muleshoe automobiles that were first strutting their stuff back in the late part of the Roaring '20's or in the early days of the depression, chugged their way to Bryan recently to take part in the automobile old-timers' parade. Both cars are so shiny as when they rolled off the assembly lines back in the days when "Yes, We Have No Bananas" was popular.

The cars are a 1932 Chevrolet owned by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Guinn, and a 1929 Oldsmobile owned by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carroll. The two cars crossed the state to Bryan in 21 hours at around 35 to 40 mph, their owners said.

Both cars were completely restored by the owners. The Chevrolet won a "special interest" cup at the Bryan meeting, the 10th Texas Tour, sponsored by the what will happen if the sun comes out or what will happen if the sun does not come out to dry out the soggy soil.

They also must decide soon just how much loss should a farmer sustain before he replants. And if he replants, should he replant cotton or should he switch to grain sorghum?

Those are the critical mid-June questions which farmers frequently have to answer, says J. K. Adams, county agent.

Better than expected wheat production is possible for this area, says Texas Employment Commission in its mid-June farm labor bulletin, issued June 17.

For the Muleshoe, Littlefield, Dimmitt, Farwell and Hereford area, the bulletin reads: "Harvest on dryland acreage is underway, and if weather permits, irrigated harvest will begin this week. Yields are expected to be better than earlier forecasts."

Rains over the weekend, the bulletin says, "have again stopped harvest operations in the Panhandle and South Plains, but will be resumed as soon as the ground is dry enough to move equipment

(See WHEAT, Page 7)

Nevertheless, in spite of these troublesome questions, Adams says dry land farmers are in much better shape generally than they were at this same time last year.

He says the dry land farmers have had their headaches this year, but the overall picture is good. He points to the abundance of underground seasoning and the fact that most dryland farmers have their crops up and off to a good growing start.

Of course, like all farmers, the dryland farmer in some cases must replant, but the overall picture, Adams concludes, is better than it was at mid-June in 1962. Many farmers, both dryland

Muleshoe Gets a Number in New Postal Dispatch System - 79347

If you get your mail at Muleshoe, Texas, you can speed up the process if you have all your kinfolk and business houses to add this figure at the end of the Muleshoe, Texas: 79347.

Because that's the new "zip code" number assigned to Muleshoe, Postmaster Spencer Beavers announced Thursday.

Not only will the new zip code number be used on incoming mail, but patrons are urged to put that same five-digit code on their return addresses.

"Everyone living in Muleshoe, Texas, will use this zip code on all correspondence to speed mail deliveries and reduce the chance of mis-sent mail," Beavers said.

Zip code, the post office department's revolutionary new system of improved mail dispatching and delivery, goes into effect nationally July 1.

The postmaster stressed the importance of all citizens of Muleshoe learning this city's zip code and using it in their return address on all correspondence. In answering mail, he said, zip codes used on return addresses on incoming mail should be used.

"The zip code is literally the last work in mail addressing," Beavers said.

He cited this example as the proper use of Zip Code: Spencer Beavers, Postmaster U. S. Post Office Muleshoe, Texas 79347.

The new zip code plan, Beavers said, for the first time will permit the post office department to short-cut repeat address reading. The address on mail must

Farmers Face Loss of Feed Grain Aid If New Bills Are Passed by Congress

Bailey county farmers who have been plagued by rain, hail, no cotton legislation, and potential loss of income from wheat were alerted today of another danger facing them.

The 1964-65 Feed Grain Law passed by Congress only last month will be wiped out if Wheat-Feed Grain bills now being advocated by some farm and business groups should pass, according to Elbert Harp, president of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

Harp said that all current new bills calling for wheat-feed grain legislation provide for abolishing the feed grain program and lowering the price of grain sorghum. He pointed out that no further legislative action is required to assure continuation of the current level of farm income from grain sorghum through the Feed Grain Act of 1963.

The act, supported by the association after county and area policy meetings earlier this year, will continue a program of price support loan, direct payment, and

Banners to Go Up Today For Jubilee Celebration

Item No. 1 in Muleshoe's Golden Jubilee celebration is in the making today.

Crews from a professional street decorating service will start today (Thursday) to put up banners welcoming people to Muleshoe for its Golden Jubilee celebration.

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce held a general board meeting this week and checked over final plans for the celebration. They include:

1. Hospitality Day when highways will have roadblocks and motorists will be offered free coffee — and information about Muleshoe and the celebration will be given out. That event is scheduled for Saturday, June 29.

2. Jubilee Days when special bargain prices will prevail in Muleshoe stores. These are set for June 29 and July 1, 2, and 3.
3. A downtown information and entertainment center, to be in use during Jubilee Days. Among events already signed up are demonstrations by the Muleshoe

Square Dance club.

4. Gift certificate drawings.
5. The annual July 4th family picnic, talent contest and fireworks display.

Everything is in readiness for the big program, and merchants will start next week marking down prices for the four jubilee days.

Meantime, talent is being sought both for the downtown daytime events throughout the four days, and for the July 4th talent contest. Roger Albertson, chairman of the July 4th talent contest, says entries already are being received for the mammoth conclusion to the jubilee, but he urged that "persons who plan to enter send in their names as early as possible."

Usually entries are not received (See BANNERS, Page 7)

County's '62 Cotton Output Estimated at 98,100 Bales

Bailey county may not have produced as much cotton in 1962 as was at first reported.

This was revealed Wednesday when the 1962 "preliminary cotton, acreage, yield and production" report was issued by the Crop and Livestock Reporting Service of USDA and SRS.

The new figure set last year's production of 500-pound gross weight bales produced in Bailey county at 98,100. Earlier this year, the Texas Employment Commission here had set the county's ginning total at 116,199 bales. The previous year, the county produced 102,691 bales officially.

The earlier figure, of course, was based on ginning reports. Farm experts had figured that majority of the cotton ginned in this county was grown in Bailey county, but the new USDA preliminary estimate would indicate that Bailey county's gins did a lot of work for cotton producers outside the county — more than out-of-county gins did for Bailey county cotton growers.

By the same token, it was pointed out, some Bailey county cotton may not be included in the new preliminary report by USDA and SRS.

The report the county had 99,700 acres of land planted to cotton and that 93,000 acres were harvested. Yield per acre was figured at 505 pounds, or slightly more (See COTTON, Page 7)

Four Injured in May Crashes

Four persons were injured and property damage of $4,680 was done in five Bailey county accidents last month, according to Sgt. D. S. Lawson, patrol supervisor of this area.

This brought the county's 1963 record to date up to 30 crashes, resulting in two deaths and 16 persons injured. Property damage to date totals $26,730.

Lubbock county reported the greatest number of persons injured during May; 18 persons were hurt and two killed in 27 accidents investigated in that county last month. Total property damage in that county was estimated at $17,440. In serious accidents, Palo Pinto county was a shade below Lubbock with 11 injured and three killed. Property damage from those wrecks ran the highest for this 29-county district — $25,185.

Archer county also had three deaths during the month. Hockley county reported eight persons injured, Lamb county had two, Cochran one, Garza six and Hale five. Crosby county had one of the best records for the month

Higher Moisture Level Approved

Grain Sorghum with 14 percent moisture content, instead of the previous 13 percent level will be eligible for price support loan on 1963 grain sorghum as result of recent change in Commodity Credit Corporation policy. This could mean as much as three to four cents per hundred to Bailey county grain sorghum producers since moisture discount of normally 2 percent per point will now begin at 14 percent instead of 13 percent according to Bill Nelson, Executive Vice-President of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

Nelson said that the association spearheaded a move for the change and was joined in their efforts by Producers Grain Corporation and the Texas Grain and Feed Association. Membership of both the elevator groups adopted supporting resolutions requesting the change.

Commodity Credit Corporation will accept grain higher than 14 percent provided the receiving warehousemen will attach an agreement to deliver 14 percent moisture grain. All previous rules regulating 13 percent to 15 percent receipts and 15 percent and over have been voided. Nelson said that the new regulations more nearly reflect actual trade practices and move closer toward the official grain sorghum standards used in free market trading.

Nelson said farmers in Texas,

Space is Scarce For Our Big Special Issue

Deadline for historical copy for the Journal's special anniversary edition was passed Wednesday, but "very condensed" stories still can be handled.

That word came from Publisher L. B. Hall Thursday.

Meantime, typesetters are busily setting up scores of stories which will appear in that edition, due to come off the press Sunday, June 30. The Muleshoe Journal and Bailey County Journal are grateful for the splendid cooperation which the papers have received in compiling this edition. Many persons have contributed their services in writing stories or providing old-time pictures.

Orders for special anniversary copies are being taken at 50 cents per copy, including mailing costs. Of course subscribers will receive the edition at no additional extra, but many persons will want extra copies to send to friends and relatives.

Study of Midge Gets Under Way

Getting under way this week is research leading toward control of the midge — a pesky little microscopic orange insect which did millions of dollars of damage last year to Texas' grain sorghum.

The insect caused considerable damage in Bailey county last year.

Ernesto L. Montoya, a research entomologist with Texas A & M College arrived in the High Plains to initiate the study. The program is being implemented by a $5,000 emergency grant to Texas A & M College from the Agricultural Research Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture which was requested by the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. Members of the Panhandle Grain and Feed Dealers Association have joined with the producer group in assuring continuation of the research as long as needed to obtain information on adequate midge control measures.

Montoya is a graduate of New

Training Program Set In Plainview

Jehovah's Witnesses will hold a three-day training program in Plainview June 21-23, it was announced by Boyd Lowery, presiding minister of the Muleshoe congregation. He describes the seminar, not as a revival, but as a convention held primarily to advance Christian Bible education and training in the field of ministry.

The three-day program, which will be held in the Plainview High School Auditorium will include a variety of talks on Bible subjects. Groups of ministers will discuss ministerial problems and demonstrations will show how Christians may conduct Bible studies. Sessions will be conducted each morning, afternoon and evening and a baptism of new ministers on Saturday afternoon.

One of the principal speakers on the program will be Harry A. Fetzik, from world headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in Brooklyn, N. Y. On Friday, June 21, he will open the session on the assembly theme, "Right Kind of Ministers." Approximately 600 delegates from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma are expected to attend.

Soup Makes The Introductions At Spring Meals

There is nothing to compare to a bowl of soup as a prologue to dinner. It possesses the remarkable faculty of soothing nerves, stimulating appetites, and encouraging conversation.

A soup course a regular part of your menu. To augment the glory of soup as a starter, add a dash of one of the more unusual herbs or spices, as in this recipe for Herbed Vegetable Soup. Fennel is the secret... and what a wonderful prelude to a spring-oriented dinner of broiled lamb chops, parboiled new potatoes, and fresh asparagus.

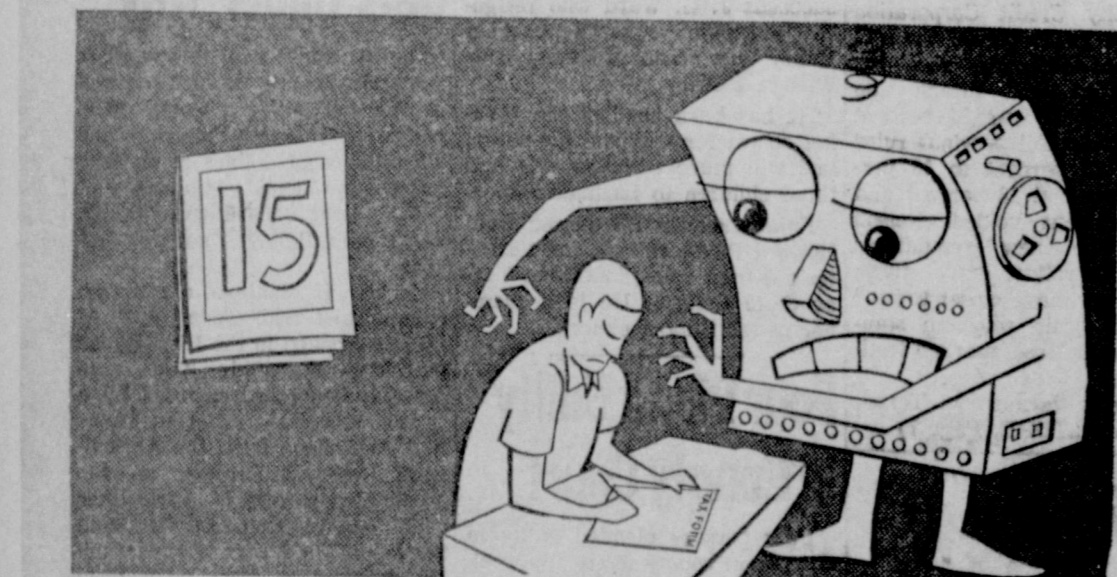

Herbed Vegetable Soup
1 can (2 ounces) vegetable soup
2 cups boiling water
Generous dash fennel

In saucepan, stir soup mix into water; add fennel. Partially cover; simmer for 15 minutes, stirring now and then. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

One of the world's rarest spices—saffron—gives canned chicken noodle dry soup mix true regality.

Chicken Noodle Soup With Saffron
1 can (1 1/2 ounces) chicken noodle dry soup mix
2 cups boiling water
Generous dash saffron
Toasted chopped almonds

In saucepan, stir soup mix into water; add saffron. Partially cover; simmer 7 minutes, stirring now and then. Garnish with almonds. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Don't Let the Machine Catch You!

Some months ago, the government opened a new data processing center in West Virginia—the first of a series of such centers to be located across the nation. With them, the government will be able to check every federal income tax return in the country automatically.

If anything looks fishy, the giant computers will toss out a return for additional checking.

All of which means that your tax return had better be accurate—right down to such things as drug deductions.

It can be, when you purchase from us, because all of our customers receive absolutely free of charge our special DrugTax service.

When you buy from us, all of your purchases are recorded on "memory" tapes, which are later fed into giant electronic computers. At the end of the year, we send you a DrugTax statement which tells you how much you spent for drugs of a deductible nature.

No guesswork. No cost to you. You may actually save money—because you get the benefit of every single drug deduction to which you are entitled.

(You might be surprised at how many things are of a deductible nature—and you might be surprised, too, at how many millions of dollars the American taxpayer loses each year because he doesn't claim them).

Come in today and take advantage of our free DrugTax service. It's our way of saying "thank you" for your patronage.

NEVER-ENDING SEARCH!
EVERY YEAR, UNITED STATES OILMEN DRILL NEARLY 200 MILLION FEET IN THE SEARCH FOR OIL AND GAS. THIS IS EQUIVALENT TO BORING ALL THE WAY THROUGH THE EARTH MORE THAN FOUR AND A HALF TIMES!

MORE THAN HALF A MILLION U.S. DRILLING VENTURES IN THE PAST 100 YEARS WERE "DRY HOLES," ONLY 3 OUT OF 100 OIL AND GAS WELLS DRILLED IN NEW FIELDS ARE COMMERCIAL SUCCESSFUL.

DESPITE SUCH ODDS, OILMEN CONTINUE THEIR NEVER-ENDING SEARCH FOR NEW RESERVES, BETTER DRILLING AND PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES, AND RECOVERY METHODS THAT WILL PRODUCE THE MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF OIL AND GAS FOR THE NATION'S EVER-GROWING ENERGY NEEDS.

KNOW YOUR INSECT ENEMY THE CORN EARWORM

American farmers lose an estimated two million acres of corn each year to this hungry pest, the corn earworm. This same pest also attacks many other crops, from cotton to tomatoes.

Moths emerge from the ground in spring and early summer. They vary in color from grayish to brown with irregular markings. Wingspread is about 1 1/2 inches. Female moths lay 500 to 3,000 tiny yellowish eggs individually on corn silks. Within 2 to 10 days egg hatch. Worms first feed on leaves and soft silks. Eventually larvae eat their way down the silk and devour kernels of corn. Mature earworms are 2 inches long and range from light green to pinkish in color.

After maturing, the larva leaves the ear, enters the soil and becomes a pupa from which a new moth will develop. From egg to adult takes about 30 days in summer. Two generations are usual in Northern areas, 5 or more in the South.

Insecticides will control earworms. But when DDT and similar pesticides are applied, the forage cannot be used for livestock feeding because of residue problems. Now, however, a new-type pesticide has been introduced. This insecticide, called Sevin, is a carbamate which is safer to use than many previously available materials. As a spray or dust, the new insecticide gives excellent earworm control, and presents no residue problems when used according to label directions. Thus, farmers can grow worm-free corn and also make good use of their forage for livestock feeding. No traces of Sevin show up in milk or meat from animals fed Sevin-treated forage.

Entomologists also recommend several cultural methods to help cut down earworm populations. They suggest growing strains of corn with long, tight husks, planting early and plowing fields in the fall to eliminate pupae. FMS

CLOVIS FILM SERVICE

Phone 3-7970

CLOVIS, NEW MEXICO

Yarborough in Washington

Dear Fellow Texan: Since my last report to you on Padre Island, Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall and National Parks Director Conrad Wirth have appointed Bill Bowen of Santa Fe, New Mexico, a veteran of 25 years' service with our national parks, as superintendent of the Padre Island National Seashore Recreation Project. He is here with me in the studio.

Superintendent Bowen, we welcome you to Texas. We are glad to see a man of your experience appointed. What is the first work of the superintendent of a national park like Padre Island?

MR. BOWEN: Of course, the first thing that we have to do is get the land. We will have $1,500,000 as soon as the appropriations bill is passed with which to start the land acquisition; in addition to what we will buy is the land that the State of Texas will give us for the seashore project. Land acquisition then is our first move. And I want to say this, fellow citizens, the feasibility report on Padre Island of February, 1950, the work primarily of Bill Bowen, was one of the chief documents that we used in the long, hard fight to pass the Padre Island Bill. I introduced it first in July, 1950. This is the culmination of a five-year fight and this report by Bill Bowen was of tremendous help in getting the bill passed.

Now, will there be park rangers there when you get enough land to get the park going, Superintendent?

MR. BOWEN: As soon as we acquire the land, we have the responsibility for protecting it and having it available for the people of Texas to use. Just as soon as we have the land, we will have the park rangers. We are already looking for a chief ranger who will move in, get things organized, and develop the staff that is needed.

SENATOR YARBOROUGH: This is encouraging news, and I know that you as a veteran of park service will be interested in knowing that a good many people told me that they visited Padre Island and like it as it is, but they also want to see it, a National Seashore Recreation Area, so they will have national rangers there to keep it clean and safe. This can't be accomplished overnight, can it?

MR. BOWEN: No, this is a long-term project. Actually I am much impressed with the work the constables are doing on the seashore now, keeping it in shape until the rangers can take over.

SENATOR YARBOROUGH: That is a fine compliment to our Texas constable force. Will there be a ranger headquarters and facilities for visitors on Padre Island?

MR. BOWEN: Senator, they will be provided just as soon as we can get the land. Such facilities will have to go under next year's appropriation. However, we will get the park rangers down there right in the beginning. The people are already there, Senator. They are not waiting.

SENATOR YARBOROUGH: We are happy to have a man of your capability in the state developing this seashore.

MR. BOWEN: Thank you, Senator.

The French Toast with the Most

Nearly 1,000,000 breakfasts were served in dining cars on Santa Fe Railway trains last year, with French Toast topping the popularity poll, according to R. T. Hillyard, superintendent of dining car service, Chicago.

Fred Harvey chefs use a special recipe which produces a puffy, golden brown delicacy that has been the perennial favorite breakfast item with Santa Fe travelers since 1918. The ingredients are: 2 eggs, 1/2 cup cream and a pinch of salt.

Trim triangular pieces of dry bread, cut 3/4 inches thick. Combine beaten eggs, cream and salt. Soak bread in egg-cream mixture thoroughly. Fry bread in vegetable shortening on both sides to a golden color. Transfer to a clean towel to absorb any excess grease. Then place on baking sheet and allow to puff up in a 400-degree oven for 3 to 5 minutes.

Sprinkle with powdered sugar. Serve with apple sauce, currant jelly, honey, maple syrup or jam.

IT'S THE LAW

5 THE LAWYER'S ROLE

There was a time when the method of trying lawsuits was so technical and strange to the average layman that the lawyer was considered a behind-the-scenes manipulator.

Now, since the public has come to know more about trial procedure, this erroneous conception largely has been corrected. The attorney is pictured for what he really is — a hard-working fellow who presents a case in a

Commissioner of Health

When the first school bell rings this September there will be 264,783 six-year-old children entering school for the first time in Texas, according to estimated enrollment figures compiled by the Texas Education Agency.

In addition to the million-and-one chores that must be performed in getting the youngster ready for school — new shoes, clothes, health examination — most school districts require proof of age for beginning students. A certified copy of a birth certificate is usually requested.

Anticipating this, the Records and Statistics Section of the Texas State Department of Health is readying itself for the onslaught of requests for such copies that comes pouring in during the middle and late summer.

The problem is, too many parents wait until the last moment before requesting their copy.

Because of this, a temporary increase in staff is necessary. It takes a sizable staff just to open the thousands of letters received daily, let alone search out the requested certificate, remove it from the thick volume, photograph it or make a certified copy, mail it out, and then return the original certificate to its proper place.

Years of experience have eliminated nearly every bottleneck. The operation is smooth and fast. Usually, the copy is mailed within a day or two after the request is received.

However, one serious bottleneck still exists — persons who insist upon waiting until the last few days before school begins to mail in their request.

In recent years the last-minute rush hasn't been quite so bad, but it is still a serious problem. Requests should be sent in as soon as possible. The State Health Department fee for certificate copies is $1.50.

Certified copies can also be obtained from county clerks and local registrars for a similar fee.

Most important aid for speedy service — aside from getting requests in early — is complete and correct information.

Parents should include the child's name, his place of birth, date of birth, and the parents' name (including the mother's maiden name).

Armed with the correct information, a certified copy or birth card will be speeded on its way as quickly as many years of experience and a well-trained staff can send it.

maneuver designed to fully and legitimately protect his client's interests.

The lawyer's duty starts with his first contact with his client. When advised of the controversy, he usually questions his client thoroughly to determine all of the facts involved. His first duty is to objectively evaluate the facts involved. He immediately advises his client to tell everything. Facts and circumstances which may seem trivial to the client can be of great value to the lawyer in the trial of the cause.

The attorney then fits the law to the facts involved, and determines the theory under which lawsuit or controversy must be approached. It is surprising to the layman to learn that no two cases are alike; and, that nearly always it is necessary for a lawyer to "hit the books" to find a case or decision which governs the particular principle involved. This is sometimes a long and arduous task depending, of course, upon the intricacies of the factual and legal situation.

Quite frequently the lawyer will find it necessary to take statements of opposing parties or of witnesses to determine what facts they know that will comfort him later in the trial. He is permitted to do this under our rules at any time before the trial. He also immediately starts planning his strategy, and determining the main points, factual and legal, upon which he will rely.

The next step in nearly every instance is negotiations between the parties which may or may not lead to a settlement. This usually takes considerable time, ingenuity and diplomacy. As a result many cases are settled out of court. If the case is not settled, the attorney then prepares for trial. The case may be won or lost in trial preparation.

One of the most important aspects of a trial is the jury. The fate of the lawsuit is determined by 12 persons drawn from different walks of life, of different interests, and frequently of different race, sex, and nationality. The lawyer presents his client's case to the jury through examination of witnesses and the introduction of other evidence. Based on this evidence the jury decides what are the facts of the case and renders its verdict in accordance with their findings.

(This newfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

'Question Seven' Showing Here

"Question 7", a widely-acclaimed movie about life under Communism in East Germany, is coming here. It will play at the Cox Drive-In Theatre Thursday and Friday. The show opened Wednesday night. The movie's appearance here is sponsored by the Bailey County Ministerial Alliance.

The film comes laden with honors. It was named "Best Film of the Year" by the National Board of Review, given the Thomas Alva Edison Foundation Mass Media award as "the Film Best Serving our National Interest" and the Vigilant Patriots Award of the All-American Conference to Combat Communism.

It also has two awards earned at the Berlin Film Festival, a special commendation from the National Council of Churches, a special accolade and A-1 rating of the National Legion of Decency and, in Assisi, Italy, was awarded the Grand Prix of the International Catholic Film Office as the best film produced anywhere in 1961.

"Question 7" tells the story of life in a small East German town as the Communists carry out their program to destroy the religious life of the community.

The title refers to a pivotal questionnaire distributed by state officials to the students in the schools of East Germany. Only those students whose answers show them to be politically reliable are allowed to pursue advanced study toward careers of their own choice. Consequently, the questionnaire becomes a test of each student's conscience forcing him to choose between answers he knows to be true and others he knows to be nothing more than party line.

That usually was sufficient to cause my mother to bring out another piece of pie or maybe another sandwich. Anyway, I'm quite sure our gatepost had some kind of a mark on it, a mark that secretly said, "Easy pickings, boys!" or words to that effect.

But Dad was less accommodating. I recall the time that a husky young fellow asked for a handout, and mother hustled herself about to dig up some pretty high-powered food. Dad stepped into the scene before the food was actually handed over the non-working muscle man.

"See that woodpile?" my Dad asked. "Well, suppose you split a few sticks of stove wood before you eat." The young man, obviously disappointed and probably a knight of the road because he wanted to avoid work of all kinds, nevertheless began to peel off shirts. He didn't need luggage; he just wore all the clothes he possessed. I remember he had on six shirts, even though the weather was fairly warm. Finally getting down to his bare torso, he was a pretty muscular, if dirty, young specimen.

"Why don't you work for a living?" my Dad inquired. "You certainly look strong enough."

The young traveler laid aside the axe for a minute and said, "Well, you see it's like this: I was world champion heavyweight until I hurt my back and couldn't fight any more, so I had to give up the ring. I've never been able to hold a really first-class job since — on account of my back, you understand."

He picked up the axe, chopped a few licks, and then stopped again. "Besides," he added as if an afterthought, "why should I work when there are plenty of people who will feed me if I just ask them to — like your wife, for instance."

Gains, head of the Department of Entomology, will serve as part of the requirements for Montoya's advanced degree.

The midge has been known to inhabit Texas for over 60 years but its first real heavy economic damage was in 1962 where in many areas 20 percent to 50 percent of the grain sorghum crop was lost to the pest. Until now the only available control measure has been early planting of grain sorghum. In bad weather years, such as this one, this cannot be a sure means of control. The entomologist emphasized that all segments of the Texas A & M College System of Research and Extension will be mobilized to assure complete information on identifying, studying and controlling the midge if it should occur this year.

LINCOLN WAS RIGHT. And rural electrification is a living example of his wisdom. When rural people could get electricity no other way, Congress created the Rural Electrification Administration to help them finance their own non-profit power systems. Today this combination of local ownership and REA financing brings electric power to 20 million rural people.

Following Lincoln's concept of helping people to help themselves, the rural electrification program is strengthening the nation's economy and fostering democracy in rural America. Based on the finest principles of the American private enterprise system, rural electric cooperatives are owned, operated, and controlled by the local people they serve. Although they serve the sparsely-settled, country areas, rural electric managers carefully to make ends meet. Already they've repaid more than $1½ billion in principal and interest on their REA loans.

Few programs in our nation's history have accomplished so much for so many Americans. Rural electrification does, indeed, prove the truth of Lincoln's idea.

LAZBUDDIE — Henry Ivy of near Lazbuddie brought in the first load of wheat in Parmer county last Thursday to the Shirley Anderson Elevator in Lazbuddie. Joe Moore, manager of the elevator said the wheat was a 60 pound per bushel test weight. The wheat had been damaged some by hail. It ran 12.7 percent moisture. Ivy received $25 bonus for the first load.

Birthday greetings are extended to Sig Kimbrough, Glen Hardage, Charlie Garazua, Christene Espenosa, Tracey Mimms, Kathy Coker and Ruby Harris.

The TEL Sunday School class met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Perry Barnes. Present were Mrs. W. S. Menefee, Mrs. T. D. Reed, Mrs. J. E. Williams, Della Morris, Nina Mosley and the hostess Mrs. Barnes. The women had as study, "scripture reading." Refreshments of iced tea and pie were served.

Mrs. Perry Barnes accompanied by her sister, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Bovina, went to San Antonio last week to visit the Lesley Barnes; to Corpus Christi to see the Joe Scott Menefees and to Huntsville to visit the David F. Donells.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ady, Burk-barnet, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Hardage last week. The two couples went to Grand Canyon, Ariz., and Las Vegas, Nev., for a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilbanks returned from a trip in east Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ward and boys are in McKaymy, this week making arrangements to move there about the first of July.

Tommie Hall, daughter of Reba Hall, Muleshoe, and Freddie Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Savage of Lazbuddie exchanged wedding vows in the North Side Church of Christ, Muleshoe, Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Wallace Hays, Dallas, brother-in-law of the groom read the ceremonies.

Jimmie Oliver, formerly of Lazbuddie received his BS degree with a major in physical education June 1 at the NMSU in Memorial Stadium.

The Lazbuddie 4-H girls and boys enjoyed a swimming party at the Friona Swimming Pool last Thursday evening.

This community extends deepest sympathy to the family of the Finis Jennings on the death of her father, A. E. Noble, 85. Mr. Noble has been in bad health for several months. He passed away in the Knights Nursing Home in Littlefield. Funeral services were held in Cone Methodist Church Saturday afternoon with Rev. Teyhon Fullington, Lubbock, in charge. Fullington is an old time friend of the Jennings. Mrs. J. D. Carpenter and Mrs. Frank Hinkson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jennings to the funeral.

Recent visitors of the T. D. Vaughns, the R. G. Treiders and Mrs. Annie Vaughn were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn and Bruce. Visiting Mrs. Laura Treider from Amarillo Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bates Jennings bought a ranch in Dekalb last week. This is near Red River and Texarkana.

Nola Treider and Beatrice Vaughn attended cooking school in Lubbock last week.

The R. G. Treider, Jr. family are in Wichita, Kan., visiting her parents, the Charlie Neeleys. They also visited relatives in Oklahoma last week.

FORMER RESIDENTS
 Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lane, Jr., visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lane, Sr.

While he was here, several of his friends who live in Muleshoe stopped by to see him.

NUMBER EIGHT FIRST — Holiday Road, a thoroughbred owned by L. H. Adams, Muleshoe and W. F. Willis, Midland, won the six furlong race at Ruidoso Downs Friday, June 14. It was a day for 'firsts' for the horse and owners as it was the first race for Holiday Road to run and she won first place. Trainer was Bob Arnett and jockey was Randy Phillips. This three-year old was sired by Ancipital with Ima Bird. Ima Bird was sired by the famous Kentucky horse, Papa Redbird.

Progress Couple Return from Trip

By MRS. M. O. NIGH
PROGRESS — Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lee and Shirley visited several days with three of Mr. Lee's sisters at Arlington, and at Caddo, Okla.
 They went fishing and went to Six Flags Over Texas. They reported a very enjoyable trip.

N. D. Kelso and daughter spent a week at Long Beach, Calif., visiting friends.

Mrs. Lena Kelso has been in Dallas the past two weeks visiting her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chisem and family of Mountainair, N.M. spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Chisem are attending ENMU this summer. They teach at Mountainair.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Davis went to California to visit their daughter Lucille.

Mrs. Mattie Griffen is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Mollie Johnson, Albany, Okla., and Mrs. Alice Self, Kiowa, Okla. One of the sisters is to have surgery soon.

OUT OF THE MOUTHS
DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Mrs. Mark Ravreby of Des Moines is taking a full schedule at Drake University, in addition to her duties as housewife and mother.

Studying for an exam and having trouble, Mrs. Ravreby asked her 12-year-old daughter, Marti, how to read some something and remember it.

"Read it to yourself aloud," Marti replied, "and make believe it's gossip."

Today's Meditation

"UNCONSTITUTIONAL"

A year ago this month some of the more NARROW-MINDED people were considered to be over-alarmed about the supreme court's ruling on the matter of certain prayers used in public schools being unconstitutional. I remember some of the statements made about those of us who were alarmed about the court's ruling. They said we were shallow and narrow in our reasoning.

As stated then, it has never been that I am in favor of written or form prayers of any sort. I think a person through prayer should feel at freedom to talk to the Heavenly Father without being confined to a written prayer before him. So it was not a matter of FORM PRAYER but THE PRINCIPLE that was behind the move that I was and still am opposed to.

This was clearly a decision that was influenced by those that would like to completely rid our country of any thought of Almighty God. They are making tremendous progress in that direction. It was my prediction a year ago that soon we would hear of the court's decision in regards to Bible reading in the public school. This came sooner than most thought that it would. Soon our Pledge of Allegiance will be modified to suit the fancy of atheism. This is something that should awake a nation that was founded as a Christian nation. Our nation's constitution was written to uphold these great Christian principles recorded in God's Holy Word. How in the name of COMMON SENSE can we say "ONE NATION UNDER GOD" when we declare the reading of His Word unconstitutional in the schools supported by our Nation.

This is something to think about... yes, and something to pray about... and may God impress us to demand that something be done about such trends toward godlessness.

LITTLE LADY APPLES
SONORA, Calif. (AP) — Tuolumne County produces about 90 per cent of California's lady apple crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Abbott Jr. are the largest growers; their ranch has produced the apples for 105 years.

Lady apples grow in clusters on long limbs. Used mostly for decoration, they are very small and bright red.

The 452 public two-year colleges in 42 states enroll one-fourth of all college students in the nation.

Potatoes are composed of about 78 per cent water, 18 per cent carbohydrates, and two per cent protein.

SIDE-DRESS

WITH THE FULL MIGHT OF NITROGEN

It's now or never for this year's cotton and grain crops. The nitrogen needed for an abundant, high quality harvest should be applied before the 12th week of growth or before the plant begins to boot or bloom. Anhydrous ammonia supplies this nitrogen in the largest quantity by volume and in the most usable form. We recommend and sell Shamrock Nitromite because we know it to be a fine brand of anhydrous ammonia, 82.2% nitrogen.

SAFETY DIRECTOR DUCKS
MIAMI (AP) — Donald D. Pomerleau reported for work and was being shown his office, when bricks and debris fell around him. Workmen, making a doorway between two rooms assigned to Pomerleau, had broken through a wall. Pomerleau, Miami's new public safety director, retreated and watched at a safe distance.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reverses himself and comes out in favor of a trip to the moon, for others.

Dear editor:

I wouldn't want to be in the position of the man who told the Queen of Spain she was nuts to spend her jewelry on Columbus' trip, that she had better spend it improving the lot of her own people, but the thought comes to mind as the politicians and scientists argue the value of spending billions to put a man on the moon. In the first place, who's to say the man talking to the Queen wasn't right? I mean, I can't see any noticeable gain Spain has ever made by the discovery of America, and I'm not sure the average Spaniard is any happier living on a round world than he was on a flat one. On the other hand, of course, if she hadn't spent her jewelry on Columbus she might have spent it on an Opera singer or a traveling tent show, and Spain would be in about the same place she is now anyway.

However, the discovery of America has turned fairly well for us people now living here, and my position on sending a man to the moon is that it's all right with me so long as I'm not the man.

It's true that there may not be anything up there worth having, and I personally see little hope for an area where it never has rained, other than the fact they blamed sure don't have a farm problem up there, but it's something that can't be avoided, on account of the by-products. You never know what'll turn up.

I mean, exploring space is no longer a sporting event, like climbing a mountain. I read the other day that Russia is now working on a plan to launch atomic bombs into orbit, hundreds of them circling the globe in all directions, so that any time she decides to, she could throw a switch and let one descend on whatever target it happens to be passing over at the time. New York, Washington, the Johnson grass farm, Muleshoe, London, Cape Canaveral, etc. From a military standpoint, this sure would be launching them from a cave in Cuba, and you wouldn't have to eat lunch with Castro besides.

I guess if you get right down to it, I'd rather have a big national debt hanging over my head than a big Russian atomic bomb.

If it takes it, let's give our jewelry to keep exploring space. This is an excellent idea. I don't have any jewelry.

Sincerely Yours, J. A.

Cotton Testing Service Widened

COLLEGE STATION — Cotton farmers will have another service available to them from their cotton classing office this fall, reports B. G. Reeves, extension cotton ginning and mechanization specialist.

Micronaire readings on samples of cotton submitted for classification under the Smith Doxey Program will be available on a fee basis during the 1963-64 season, he adds.

This service provides a measurement of fiber fineness of cotton as determined by airflow instruments. Fiber fineness is a quality factor important in spinning. Testing for micronaire readings is authorized under the Cotton Testing Service Act.

The micronaire reading service was introduced during the latter part of the 1962-63 season and was used extensively by farmers in West Texas and Oklahoma. A fee of eight cents per sample was charged for this service, and will be held again for the coming season.

Applications for the testing service must be submitted by a ginner to the Agricultural Marketing Service cotton classing office serving the territory in which the gin is located. All samples submitted for classification from a gin that files an application for the micronaire service will be tested.

Applications should be submitted as soon as possible but no later than July 1. Several weeks are required to install equipment and train personnel to provide the testing service. Classing offices may not be able to provide testing service to gins submitting applications after July 1 due to a lack of equipment and trained personnel.

The gin that submits applications for the service will be responsible for payment of the test fee. Applications for micronaire readings and additional details regarding the service may be obtained from any local Cotton Division Classing Office of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

"Farmers who are interested in this service should let their ginners know," says Reeves. "This is a service for the benefit of the farmer. Those interested should talk to their ginner now."

AUSTIN — On July 1 every article of outer clothing that costs less than $10 will go up two per cent.
 That is the date the extended state sales tax law goes into effect. All outer clothing now exempt will become taxable.
 Smart shoppers will take advantage of this last days of June to stock up on clothing for the family. Buying of school togs may take place earlier than ever before.
 Legislature made many changes in the sales tax law. Most changes affect reporting procedures of merchants. An important one, however, raises the state sales tax on automobiles from 1 1/2 to 2 per cent.
 As of July 1, if you buy a new car costing $3,000, for example, you will pay a state tax of $60.
 If you trade in an old car the salesman will deduct the trade-in amount from the total, then figure your tax on the difference. In other words if you trade-in came to $1,000 toward a $3,000 car, you would pay two per cent — or $40 — on the difference.
 "LAYAWAY PLAN" — At the last minute Gov. John Connally signed the $3,000,000,000 state budget bill. He criticized the bill for emphasizing "bricks rather than brains." But he knocked out $12,400,000 worth of "bricks" — i.e. construction items — before he affixed his signature.
 Connally said he would guard the $12,400,000 as a "layaway plan" for higher education.
 He hopes that his decision on the 1964-65 appropriations bill would decide the special session question fell through. He said he does not want to call a special session but will not hesitate to do so if he becomes convinced that excellence in higher education is threatened by a shortage of funds for teaching salaries, research and libraries.

VETOES — When the governor's deadline for signing bills arrived, he inked into law most of the 554 measures passed by the Legislature.
 But he vetoed a few, including: SENATE BILL 270, revising the antiquated 1856 Code of Criminal Procedure. Connally nixed the controversial code revision, after learning that the copy sent him for signature was not the one passed by the Legislature.
HOUSE BILL 769, exempting from jury service "all owners or operators of milk-producing farms where this operation is the exclusive means of earning a living." Connally said, "I believe that dairy farmers occupy an important role in our society and can serve a valuable function as jurors."
HOUSE BILL 1053, providing for election of directors to the Upper Guadalupe River Authority, rather than appointment by the governor. Connally said he vetoed this since there was a technical conflict in its legal language with might jeopardize the district.
HOUSE BILL 975, repealing the requirement that the Angleton Drainage District get approval of the Texas Water Commission before spending bond money for improvements. He said Water Commission approval would assure uniformity of improvements in all water districts.
MURRAY FILE — Income tax reports made by William J. Murray from 1946 to 1962 have been studied by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr. Murray resigned in April as a member of the Railroad Commission, following a conflict-of-interest charge.
 After noting that Murray's taxable income from oil, gas and allied operations during those 17 years exceeded $1,700,000, Carr stated: "This report does raise a serious question of a conflict-of-interest between the official duties of Mr. Murray and his private interests."
 Carr recommended a Legislative Council study for an improvement

Code of Ethics for State officials.
 Such a code, co-authored by Reps. Jim Nugent of Kerrville, Bob Eckhardt of Houston and Travis Peeler of Corpus Christi, passed the House during the legislative session but was killed in the Senate.
 Study of Murray's finances was made for a Travis County Grand Jury, which will attempt to determine whether Murray violated any laws.
SCREWWORM PROGRESS — Up to now, estimates of state and federal animal health authorities that the 1 1/2-year-old screwworm eradication program has resulted in anywhere from a 75 to 95 per cent decline in the disease have been pure guess work.
 But the joint report of the Texas Animal Health Commission and the U. S. Department of Agriculture for the five-week period ending June 1 confirmed a 93 per cent decline as compared to the same weeks in 1962.
 The clear comparison picture was the result of reporting cooperation on the part of livestock producers.
 Animal health report showed that during the period April 28 to June 1, 1963, research workers confirmed 480 samples as screwworm infestations, and 1,281 as non-screwworm. In the same period in 1962 there were 7,013 screwworm cases confirmed, and 597 termed non-screwworm.

PROGRAM IN JEOPARDY? — Members of the Texas Screwworm Eradication Committee considered Governor Connally's veto of a $300,000 appropriation for the eradication program a matter of "serious concern."
 They said more than 100,000 livestock producers raised $1,000,000 toward its $3,000,000 goal this spring in a 30-day period on the governor's word that the State would carry its share of the $12,000,000 program.
 Committeemen said that unless the $300,000 vetoed by Connally is restored, the entire program is in jeopardy, and possibly the loss of the huge investment producers already have made in the program.
FIRE PROTECTION RULING — That part of a 1961 law which provides that counties could provide rural fire protection to residents of adjoining counties was ruled unconstitutional by Attorney General Carr.
 Carr declared that a county can only contract to provide rural fire protection for residents of the same county living outside incorporated limits. He said his ruling did not negate the rest of the rural fire protection contact law, however.

SWEET SOLUTION
MILTON, Mass. (AP) — The Milton Water Department has a sweet answer for one problem. Gum drops for clogged pipes. "I know it sounds crazy," says Harold Sumner, who discovered the process some 10 years ago, "but it works and it's the most effective way I know of to clean out pipes."

Sumner explains that pipes normally are cleaned by forcing under 400 to 600 pounds of pressure. But the paper wads are more apt to cause leaks and break pipes.

The gum drops — the large size just fit the standard one-inch pipes — disintegrate after being forced through and into the main.

Does Sumner ever eat the gum drops instead of cleaning pipes with them? "Can't stand them," he says.

THE OPEN WINDOW THAT WASN'T THERE
TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — William R. Rhodes of North Little Rock, Ark., found out it doesn't pay to keep your car windows too clean.

He caught his car on fire at Tucson when he flipped a match out a window he thought was open. He didn't notice the window was closed and the match bounced into the back seat.

Rhodes suffered minor burns on his hand and the fire did $1,500 damage to his car.

Safety belts, according to the National Safety Council, could save 5,000 lives a year and prevent or reduce injury in 4 million other cases. Shamrock and your Shamrock Dealer want to do something about it. So, they are making this special offer. A Beam's #200 safety belt for only $5.98, installed. Put them on your Shamrock Credit Card and pay for them $1 a month per belt. Please stay alive and healthy. Put seat belts in your car today. Stop at a Shamrock Station displaying the special seat belt sign.
