BAIRD BROCHURES IN MAKING FUNDS STILL COMING IN

BAIRD — For quite some time, work has been progressing in the preparation of a colorful brochure on Baird. This undertaking is a project of the Baird Chamber of Commerce, through a special committee who will coordinate the materials and statistical information used.

A number of business and professional people have contributed to the cost, but additional funds are needed. The brochure will be distributed through the Chamber of Commerce and placed in the various places cooperating in the project. Places serving the public will be a source of distribution and perhaps some will use the brochure for mailing to friends and out of town contacts. Highway ports of entry to the State will be another source of distribution used.

Please contact the Chamber offices or members of the Committee: Felix Manion, Katie Burleson, Mrs. Lee Ivey or Howard Farmer if you wish to assist in this project. It will be most appreciated. This is most important to our community since the last brochure was prepared by Callahan Luncheon Club a number of years back.

The material in the brochure will consist of color pictures on just what Baird can offer those living here, and perhaps those who would like to make Baird their home or business location.

A brochure fund has been opened at the First National Bank, and if you would like to help, feel free to do so. You may deposit any amount, and the committee members will certainly appreciate your cooperation, since their time is limited to devoting full time to this project.

The following business firms and citizens have listed their help, as of this date:

Callahan Co. Farmers Co-op, $100.00; West Texas Telephone Co., $50.00; U Bar U Steak House, $50.00; First National Bank, $25.00; Sutphen & Wristen, $20.00; M. L. CLYDE HAWKS BASEBALLERS BELIEVE IN CLOSE GAMES

CLYDE — The Hawks are just about to be the death of their manager and coach, as a result of the most recent games. They have won their last six games, but the last four have left everyone limp.

It all really began on Tuesday night, June 26, when they went to Breckenridge and scored 3 unearned runs after two were out in the 8th inning, after a scoreless pitchers duel between Lee Olson and the Hawks Ron Meredith. The final score was Hawks 3, Breckenridge 0. Olson pitched a no-hit game even though he was a little wild and the Hawks tagged several well-hit balls but always to the opponents glove. He finished the game without giving up a hit while walking five and striking out 14 batters. Two dropped fly balls in the 8th allowed two of the men who had walked to score.

Ron Meredith actually pitched a better game probably, as he walked only 1, gave up two singles and recorded 16 strikeouts. The 8-inning game was played in 1½ hours.

Friday, June 29, the Hawks hosted Cisco and battled them in the rain to finally edge Cisco 4-1. Jackie Fleming allowed one hit. It was first thought that no hits were allowed by a closed that a single was allowed in the 4th inning. Jackie walked three and struck out 13.

Meredith was the leading Clyde hitter as he doubled twice and singled in 3 times at bat. He knocked in two runs and scored two. Johnny Arms was 2 for 4 as Clyde outhit Cisco 8-1.

Tuesday, July 3, the Hawks unveiled some pre-July 4th fireworks to pull one out of the fire after it looked doubtful. Eastland the Hawks 3-1 with two out in the 7th, and runners in second and third when Johnny Tucker singled in both runs. Meredith was next up and he doubled to left field as Tucker broke for 2nd, scoring the winning run, 4-3. Clyde had three pitchers in this game. Meredith started but had to have help in the 3rd, David Dunn came in relief for 4 innings. Fleming came on in the 7th with bases loaded and none out. Eastland scored one run but that was all. Leading hitters for the Hawks were Meredith, 2 for 4, and Johnny York, 3 for 3.

July 6th, the Hawks traveled to Albany for an uptight game, and trailed at the end of four innings 9-0. They finally put together three hits and two walks to score 4 runs. They tallied in the 5th but still came to the 7th trailing 10-5. York sin-

Little League Play Ends Yankees 1st

CLYDE — Regular season play for Clyde Little League ended last week. Scores are listed as follows: June 26 - Yankees 11, Braves 7; Colts 16, Red Sox 15; June 28 - Giants 14, Colts 9; Braves 9, Dodgers 8; July 2 - Dodgers 42, Colts 15; Yankees 6, Red Sox 2; July 3 - Braves 14, Giants 4; July 5 - Colts 12, Giants 10.

League standings are Yankees 1st, Braves 2nd, Giants and Red Sox tied for 3rd, Dodgers 4th and Colts 5th.

gled, Fleming walked, Dugan doubled, Holden singled, Beeman singled, Arms singled and Maxwell walked. Meredith scored on an infield out, and the Hawks were leading 12-10. The defense held and another game was saved.

Fleming picked up the win, as he walked 8, gave up 4 hits and struck out 8. He is now 7-1 in league play. The Hawks outhit Albany 15-4 led by Mike Dugan with 4 for 4, Paul Beeman 3 for 4, Arms 3 for 5 and York 2 for 3.

The Hawks appreciate the support from the fans and invite all to the game with Breckenridge this Friday at 8 p. m. in Clyde. Each team has lost two games, with both Breckenridge losses to the Hawks.

Warning: If you come, stay for all the game and bring your tranquilizers.

CLYDE — Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hutchcraft and sons, Wayne, Lonnie, Gary and Scott of Arvado, Colo., visited last week in the home of her mother. Also visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Tucker were Mr. and Mrs. Roy White of Dallas.

MRS. LARRY MURRELL MEDLEY

Mitchell - Medley Repeat Double Wedding Vows In Monahans

MONAHANS — Double ring wedding vows were exchanged June 8th by Miss Kathryn Gay Mitchell and Larry Murrell Medley. Rev. Bill Taylor performed the ceremony in the First Baptist Church.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Mitchell of Monahans, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Billy M. Medley, also of Monahans.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Tommy McLain at the organ, and Mrs. Larry Conklin was soloist.

Mr and Mrs. Mitchell presented their daughter in marriage. The bride's floor-length gown was created from oriental silk, designed with a vietrain lace yolk edged with a lace ruffle extending to the empire waist. The lace was repeated at the high ring neckline and encircled her long full sleeves, creating a ruffle. She carried a detachable orchid corsage surrounded by stephanotis and lilac net in a cascade, tied with white satin streamers atop a Bible belonging to her aunt. The bride wore a 100-year-old ring that belonged to her great-grandmother.

Miss Linda Mitchell attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Boggs and Miss Christie May of Clyde. Attendants wore carpet-length gowns of lilac organza over satin with sheer puffed sleeves ending in a ruffle at the wrists. White lack garden hats accented with deep purple streamers completed their costumes. They carried nosegays of a large single lilac mum backed with white lace and white satin streamers.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Steven Mark Medley as best man. Groomsman were Billy Mitchell, brother of the bride, and Bruce L. Tuxhorn. Guests were seated by brothers of the couple, Gary Medley and Michael Mitchell.
