Latin Americans To Hold Meeting

The Latin American Baptist Mission of Bovina is participating in the Cruzada Bautista Nueva Vida or the Latin American Baptist New Life Crusade, which is a united effort of both Anglo and Latin American Baptists to promote an understanding and fellowship among both groups. The main objective is to win Latin Americans to a knowledge of Christ as their personal Saviour.

The Crusade is sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas and will be a state wide effort. Last Sunday, August 30, was a Day of prayer for the crusades which officially got underway in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and most of South Texas. The Crusade will consist of four weeks of activities. The first week will be devoted to an area revival meeting with several churches participating. The second week will be dedicated to personal witnessing through visitation. The Latin American Church is expected to be in revival with an Anglo preacher bringing the message at the Latin American Church. The fourth week will be a Central Revival in a tent in strategic points throughout the area.

From September 13-18 the Area crusade meeting will be held at Muleshoe. Rev. Jose Rivas professor from Howard Payne Baptist College at Brownwood, will be the evangelist. Mr. Rivas teaches the Greek Language at Howard Payne Baptist College. He was raised in Mexico, born a Roman Catholic later converted to the Baptist faith and came to the United States where he acquired most of his education.

The public is cordially invited to come and bring some Latin friend to hear the messages.

But to end such a contract both parties must make a mistake about something in the contract.

People often make oral agreements, and later write the terms down, suppose they make a mistake in doing this. When they find such a mistake they can go into court and have the contract reformed.

To induce the other party to agree through fraud makes the contract void. For a court to act in a fraud case one must prove five things:

- (1) A false representation;
- (2) The speaker's knowledge of its falsity;
- (3) His intention to mislead the other party;
- (4) The other's innocent reliance on the statement; and
- (5) Damage resulting from the deception.

Unless every one of these elements are proved, there is no legal fraud.

Except for guardians and others in positions of great trust, the law assume that persons deal at arm length and have equal ability to protect themselves. The law, in short, expects you to use your head in checking out claim and facts. This goes to the ancient Roman principle, Caveat Emptor (let the buyer beware). The law exacts you to look into the claims of the other party, and not to agree to any old paper shoved under your nose as a "standard" contract.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

er the less. Her husband on the floor above, was severely burned and the roof blown off the attached garage. The housewife died two days later. The second death was that of an Ames, Iowa, woman who suffered fatal injuries from an explosion and flash fire while using "X-33" on her basement walls in September 1963. The latest "X-33" fatality man who died of burns received while using "X-33" in a basement on June 4, 1964.

FDA said that "X-33" first appeared on the market early in 1962. As then manufactured, it had a flashpoint (the lowest temperature at which fumes or vapors from a liquid will ignite when exposed to a flame or spark) or 40 degrees below zero Fahrenheit. The product manufactured since July 1963 has been changed and has a flashpoint of 73 degrees above zero Fahrenheit. However little of this less hazardous product reached the market. The labels of the two products are indistinguishable.

The extremely flammable "X-33" was distributed by the Wilmington Chemical Corp. of Chicago, Ill., was in violation of the Federal Hazardous Substances Labeling Act because it did not bear proper warning regarding the hazard of the product the Agency said. The firm was notified that in order to comply with the Act, the "X-33" label must bear a stringent warning statement that would include among other warning information the following: "DANGER — EXTREMELY FLAMMABLE — EXTREMELY HIGHLY EXPLOSIVE — A spark from any source, even at remote points may detonate the vapors.— The potential hazard from use of this product is so great, it is recommended the user, before applying the material, consult with a professional exper in handling such highly hazardous materials to minimize the chance of personal injury or property damage."

While the "X-33" produced under a different formula since July 1963 is not as flammable as the older product, labels on the cans do not indicate which product is which, FDA said. Mr. Larrick recommended that persons who voluntarily decide to get rid of their stocks of "X-33" should consult their local fire departments regarding such material.

The Muleshoe Division of the Bailey County Fire Department reported that they have destroyed approximately $300 worth of this product for a local merchant and they ask that anyone having any of this product call the fire department as soon as possible.

Shown above is a grassed waterway on the Willie Welch farm, west of Enochs. It was shaped by a maintainer and sodded to Midland Bermuda.

Waterways Can Be Made Useful

Waterways are often needed in the Blackwater Soil Conservation District. Where a waterway is needed, several factors have to be considered. First, to consider the location. The most satisfactory location usually is a natural draw because he grade and slopes are already established. The natural slopes confine the water flow to the waterway and eliminate the need for a lot of man waterway will, in several instances, save a complete field from eroding and washing away. A diversion terrace is built at the top of slope on the water is diverted to a waterway; this can stop erosion problem even before they get to a point of seriousness that can develop into gulley in the lower part of the field.

In a waterway moisture conditions are favorable to good grass growth. Some of the most favorable grass to put in a waterway are switch grass, sideoat, grama or bermuda grass. Since the vegetation in the waterway receive extra water, it can be made an asset to any farm. With proper management a grassed

THE SOVIET CHILD

(Third in a series of three). To further emphasize the "children's cult" of the Soviet Union. It should be noted that as of May, 1964, the U. S. S. R. provides the following for its children:

3 229 Pioneer Palaces and Houses, the largest being the Moscow Pioneer Palace which can accommodate 8,000 children.

361 Young Technicians Stations
275 Young Naturalists Stations
167 Excursion and Tourist Stations

174 Children's Recreation Parks

33 Children's Railways
1,965 Children's Music, Art and Dancing Schools

190,000 Children's Libraries
106 Children's Theaters

7,916 Children's Pioneer Camps in the countryside.

1,965 Children's Sports Schools. What does this mean? Simply that millions of children are being brainwashed and thoroughly convinced that the state and Communist Party is the supreme power in today's world. All the benefits come from this source and this source alone.

This "Children's cult" trend is associated with Lenin. Children will freely tell you that all the best things in life are associated with the name and life of Lenin.

Sharopov Sadry, leader at the Young Pioneer Palace on Lenin Hills in Moscow, stated to me, in the summer of 1962, "Every thing we now have that makes our children's lives so beautiful can be attributed to Lenin." Let me assure you that Lenin is found in statues, pictures and posters in most every gateway, garden, room, and public place in the children's centers and organizations.

The Moscow Pioneer Palace, constructed of glass, aluminum, and concrete is made up of lecture halls, studios, laboratories study rooms, and game rooms. Within the building and campus area, Lenin looms up over a hundred times.

In the school, the Soviet child learns physics and literature, grammar, and mathematic, history and chemistry. At the Pioneer Palace, the child joins one of its many groups of young readers and writers, young chemist, mathematicians, designers, signers dancers and artists. Here in the Palace every child does only what he likes best. The child believes that Lenin built the Palace to show him how wonderful and interesting the world is and to help him find his proper place in it.

From childhood, the next step is to the Young Communist League (Komsomol). It now has a membership of 26 million young men and women from 14 to 28 years of age. The YCL is an independent organization with its own rules, elected bodies, publishing houses that issue over 200 newspapers and magazines. Under the YCL, there are palaces of culture, marriage palaces, and holiday homes. More than 200 YCLers are members of the National Parliament — the U. S. S. R. Supreme Soviet.

Frankly speaking — The children of the U. S. S. R. may feel that their way is the road to life. Will they ever learn that their life is not life at all?

Insect Activity Shows Little Increase

Insect activity on cotton has shown little increase during the past week in most localities. Bollworms and boll weevils continue to be the major damaging insects.

BOLLWORMS have appeared in spotted infestations in most counties. Heaviest damage was reported in some Crosby County fields, though infestations were light in most plantings. Gaines and Dawson counties report light to medium infestations. An occasional planting in Lubbock County needed control applications. Other counties report only light bollworm infestations.

Beneficial insect populations are heavy in most fields and have done much toward checking bollworm infestations. Fields should be checked frequently for bollworms since this is usually the period for most activity.

BOLL WEEVILS continue in heavier infestations in Dickens County than in other counties reporting. Square infestations average approximately 28 per cent. Infestations in the Afton-East Afton area dropped considerably, due to control treatments and burning of cotton. Kent County had about 28 per cent square infestation. Motley and Garza counties had low infestations mainly due to burning of the crop.

Above the Caprock one new field was found infested in Briscoe and Floyd counties, while five additional fields were found infested in Crosby County.

For control recommendations, please refer to L - 508, Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in the High Plains and Trans - Pecos areas of Texas, or to L - 218 Texas Guide for Controlling ICC Insects — both published by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Copies of these guides may be picked up at your county agricultural agents office.

The information used in this "Cotton Insect Survey Release" was compiled from reports received from county agents, vocational-agriculture teachers, personnel of Texas A&M University System, branches of USDA, commercial cotton inspectors, chemical companies and others. We hope that everyone who does any field checking will send us a report of the situation as he finds it.

GENERAL TELEPHONE OF THE SOUTHWEST

Yarborough In Washington

Dear Fellow Texan:
The Senate has passed the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, commonly called the Anti-Poverty Bill. I was a co-author of this bill, a member of the Special Senate Subcommittee on Poverty which held hearings on it and I am pleased to see this bill go to President Lyndon B. Johnson to be signed into law.

Its purpose is to help people help themselves. It is to help help the 36 million people in families with low incomes, particularly young people, to cast off the chains of despair, to obtain proper training for our technological civilization.
This country has always been known as a land of hope for a better way of life. In the age of the frontier, this hope was focused on free land. That free land was responsible for the settlement of the West. And nobody called it a give-away program in those days. That's the way the West was won. This opportunity for the early settlers was made possible by the government, in keeping with the needs of the people at that time.

And fellow Texans, that's just what the Anti-Poverty Bill does now. It is no more a give-away bill than the bill for the settlement of the West, for the great free lands of the West.

Our problems today are different. This is an age of technology, an age when only the very skilled can hold their own. An age when it is economic suicide to drop out of high school. Today a person needs at least a junior college education in this technological era.

It is this new technology, rather than any sudden decrease in moral fiber, that necessitates government program such as the War on Poverty.
People talk about everybody losing their moral fiber. I don't believe it for one minute. Automation and technocracy and computers have just automated them out of jobs. People are willing to work if they can get work. They want to work.

Now, what will the Anti-Poverty Bill do?
It will call for a Federal Job Corps for young men and women 16 to 21, to help those with less than high school training. About 209 conservation camps and 21 residential training centers will be set up around the country as a training program for young men and women between 16 and 21. There will be loans for rural families of low income, to help them get started with high earnings to be a productive part in our society.
This is a rescue measure of an emergency nature, to help cut down the 4.9 per cent unemployment rate, to extend the benefits of a free and competitive society to those who have found the door of opportunity closed in their faces, primarily because of the lack of education and training. This is a burden borne by some families for generations.
We are trying with this bill to give the young people of America a share in their country's chance to train and educate and develop themselves so the future will be open to them and their children, as the great West was open to all Americans.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm surely must have a flaw in his thinking this week, but we'll let you figure it out.
Dear editor:
I have been reading the financial statements of the two candidates for President and the way it looks to me, the wives and children are worth more than the man, and I would like to ask you if you think this is a sound trend?

It's a fact, the total worth of Mrs. Johnson and children and Mrs. Goldwater and children is a lot more than the net worth of the two men, according to the financial statements the newspapers have been publishing.
It's not that either man is hard up for cash, but this idea that the women and children have a lot more in their name is a trend which I do not look upon with favor, although understand I am not asking the Supreme Court to rule on it. You get the Supreme Court trying to re-divide the division of money between a man and his wife and the lid is off. In fact, the Court if it keeps going is likely to come up one of these days with a ruling whose effect clearly implies the Court itself is unconstitutional, if it hasn't done it already. For example, the Court is now claiming that Congressional districts and state Senatorial and Representative districts throughout the land have to be fairly even in population, or the members are unconstitutionally elected.

Carrying this one step further, you reckon it's possible the Court will rule that each United States Senator has to represent the same number of people and that two Senators from a state with 250,000 people aren't entitled to the same vote as two Senators from a state with 10,000,000? Why should two Senators representing only a handful of people in Nevada have the same power as two Senators from New York state with 10 million people or whatever the figure is: Anybody can see this is unconstitutional.
And therefore, if a Supreme Court Justice is confirmed by a Senate made up by this clearly one-sided and unfair representation, isn't the Justice himself unconstitutional.
I tell you, the day the Supreme Court rules the Supreme Court is unconstitutional, where'll we turn?
Starting out on the financial condition of Presidential candidates and winding up on the unconstitutionality of the Supreme Court just goes to show you where thinking can lead both me and the Court too. These are critical times we're living in.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

MISTAKE AND FRAUD
When you get the short end of a deal you may be inclined to claim mistake or fraud to get out of the contract.
But courts are not inclined to correct our business mistakes unless they also find error in justice. For to charge the other party with fraud is serious since fraud is a crime as well as a civil cause for action.
Our court, therefore demands more proof than usual in civil cases where one sues to get out of a contract on the grounds of fraud.
Suppose Smith and Black agree to do something in clear language, but Smith does not grasp the terms of a plain contract. This failure of Smith will not void the contract and our courts will enforce its terms.
But suppose instead Black well knew that Smith made a mistake, and he still didn't explain it to Smith. Then if his car is proved, Black may have trouble enforcing his contract.
Both parties often make a mistake which may void the deal. In one case Raffle agreed to buy and Smith to sell goods arriving on a ship named the "Peerless." But it just so happened that two steamers had the same name. Raffle and Smith had in mind different steamers. No contract. Why? No meeting of the minds.
FALSE CREDIT
It's easy to buy things on time if your credit is good. But some people try to make their credit look good when it isn't. This can lead to the crime of "theft by false pretenses."
In a recent case Sam Sadd wanted a new car just like his neighbor's.
At the Super Car Agency Sam could buy his new car for $300 down and 36 monthly payments.
The Agency asked Sam to sign a credit report. Sam reported that he made $50 a month, had a $65 car allowance a month, and his wife worked for $40 a month.
Sam drove off with the new car. But when he fell down on his payments, the agency repossessed the car and found that Sam never did have the income he claimed. Truth was Sam was making only $500 when he worked, and he had taken a leave of absence and had never gone worked for years.
The agency complained to the district attorney, charging Sam with theft by false pretenses. Sam was guilty as charged.
Though no one can be put in prison for debt, he can go to prison for fraud, if when he "bought" the goods, he never meant to pay at all, any time. But it is no crime if he just happened to be broke but made no false claims.
Using another's credit card without his permission is also a crime, just as it is to use one's own credit extensively, knowing full well that he cannot or will not make payment. Again this is theft by false pretenses.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
 by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas Democrats and Republicans are gearing for their big clash in the November general election. Democratic leaders are in Atlantic City, N. J., at their party's national convention. Gov. John Connally indicated both national and state campaign organizations will be put together in Texas soon after the convention. Meanwhile, Republicans report they already have built organization far stronger than any they have fielded to date. They plan to do vigorous battle in local races, as well as national and state campaigns.

WATER CONSERVATION DROPS — Water conservation storage in major Texas reservoirs dropped at the end of last month to the lowest point since March, 1957. The 6,400,000-acre feet stored was a decrease of 700,000-acre feet from the previous month.

OIL RISE — Texas Railroad Commission ordered a substantial increase in oil production for September. Wells which are under operation will be allowed to produce 28 percent of their capacity during September, compared with 26.5 percent this month.

NEW PRODUCTION QUOTA amounts to 2,831,583 barrels daily, compared to 2,794,312 for August. Commission also took under advisement conflicting testimony on effect of its proposed $5,000 bond requirement for drilling or reworking wells in the interest of pollution control. Fifteen days were allowed interested parties for filing for additional briefs.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Governor Connally announced nine appointments to Trinity River Authority Board of Directors, three to San Jacinto Battleground Commission, and two to the State Board of Barber Examiners.

REAPPOINTED TO THE Trinity River Board were Paul H. Cauthan Jr., Trinity; Bernice Finger, Shepherd; J. D. Kirven, Waxahachie; and O. P. Leonard, Fort Worth. New appointees are Walter Hailey, Dallas; Rex Caudle of Leon County; Dr. J. B.

HEATH, Madisonville; Fred F. Meridith, Terrell; and A. C. Spencer, Huntsville. Houstonians appointed to the Battleground Commission were W. N. Blanton, Sr., chairman (reappointment); Mrs. Joseph H. Sperry; and Fred Leggett.

Ed Tabola of Houston and H. D. Stewart Jr. of Big Spring were selected for the State Board of Barber Examiners.

TEXAS WATER Commission said dryland crops and pastures are suffering heavily, and municipal water supply of many small towns has "reached the critical stage."

DOVE SEASONS TO OPEN — Parks and Wildlife Department announces that white wing doves can be hunted on two weekends — September 5-6 and September 12-13.

REGULAR mourning dove season opens in the north zone of Texas on September 1 and will run through October 30. The south zone season is September 26 - November 20.

A new guide to hunting regulations, "Hunting in Texas 1964-1965," now is being distributed through Parks and Wildlife field offices and licensed deputies.

PRISON LAND — Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler's staff has completed surveys and subdivisions of 6,500 acres of prison farm land in Harris, Fort Bend and Walker Counties.

State Board of Corrections will offer the 43 tracts of land for sale on December 9. Land is surplus to needs of the prison system so effort is being made to get it in private hands and on the tax rolls.

Details may be obtained from the State Department of Corrections at Sugar Land or Huntsville.

Baary's Dixie Backing 'Backlash'

Washington, D. C. — The Democratic National Committee, increasingly concerned by Negro violence and what it could do to party chances in November, is now sending out news releases quoting liberal Republicans and "responsible" Negroes urging an end to rioting looting and spread of hate.

One such release quotes Theodore McKeldin, Baltimore's Republican Mayor, as deploring racism of any kind and voicing alarm that segregationists are finding hope under the GOP banner.

The committee, in another story, cites a statement by Frank L. Stanley, Sr., president of the Negro National Newspaper Publishers Association, urging the resource to institute programs colored press "to use their every resource to institute programs to prevent racial rioting, looting and the spread of hate in their communities." Through the release, the committee is evidently trying to associate the party with the responsible wing of the civil rights movement and to show that racists are flocking to the GOP.

However, regardless how hard the committee tries to create that image, the Democrats are branded with the civil rights law and will undoubtedly be blamed indirectly for causing part of the racial disturbances.

With the race issue, the Democrats anticipate some losses in Southern and Border States, especially with Senator Barry Goldwater heading the Republican ticket.

Democrats, who once ridiculed the selection of Goldwater as the GOP nominee and regarded him a pushover for Johnson, are now taking a different view on the matter.

DRYCLEANERS In a recent nationwide survey, the Institute for Motivational Research found that 68 percent of those interviewed take from one to five garments to the professional drycleaner each month, and 57 percent visit their drycleaner from 2 to 5 times or more each month. The Institute has found an "increasing desire to appear well-groomed on all socio-economic levels."

Like the Georgia Senator, many other Dixie lawmakers are beginning to walk a political tight rope in their efforts to maintain party regularity without typing themselves to Johnson's campaign.

Noticeably missing was any open endorsement of Johnson. When asked about that, Tallmadge's office replied: "The statement stands as is."

In my opinion the second session of the Congress just ending has not been overly productive of wise legislation.

Under the prodding of the Administration this session of the 88th Congress passed legislation that will cost all our citizens many millions of dollars in additional taxes. For example, it passed the Mass Transit Bill, under which citizens on our farms and ranches, and in our small towns and some of our large cities, will be taxed to provide transportation systems in a few large urban areas.

This session of Congress also passed the so-called anti-poverty bill, under which the Administration is given authority to spend nearly a billion dollars on vote-buying schemes in areas of its own choosing. This bill will do nothing to cure the real causes of isolated pockets of poverty in our land. But it will give the Administration a powerful tool in swaying the political opinions of voters.

This session did pass much legislation that will ultimately add to the tax burdens of our people, but what is worse, it acquiesced in the granting of still more power to the executive branch of government. In short, the Congress, again under the prodding of the Johnson Administration, allowed the executive branch of government to assume vast new powers, despite the fact that already far too much power has been assumed by the executive branches.

The poverty bill is a good example. It sets up what in essence will be a "poverty czar" with powers to spend vast sums of money. A great deal of that money will be spent in establishing training camps for persons whom the bureau decides needs the type of training that the program will offer.

Once this bureau is established it will become a vested interest, just as hundreds of other bureaus and commissions, and boards, and what have we in Washington. It will have a vested interest in poverty, for if poverty is eradicated the bureaucrats would then be out of a job, and they, in turn, would be looking for work. So they will always be able to find areas, or people, with incomes lower than they determine to be acceptable by some bureaucratic yardstick. Thus, until Congress completely abolishes the bureau it will continue as all others continue, and in so doing it will continue to consume tax dollars that must be provided by persons that are now declared eligible to receive benefits under the poverty program.

The Civil Rights bill is another example of bad legislation passed by this Congress. We have discussed it so thoroughly in the past that I do not feel we need to go deeply into it here. But we must certainly list it among those bills that give vast new powers to the federal government, particularly that executive branch and the courts. At the same time, it restricts the property of our citizens and imposes a new set of federal officials as overseer of the lives and actions of our citizens.

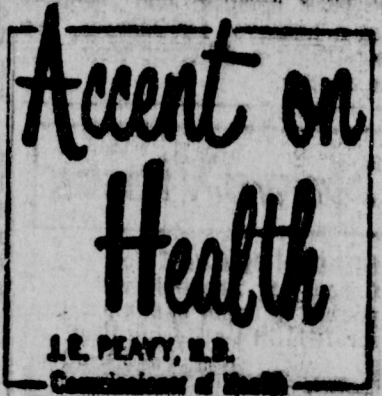

This Congress did pass one constructive legislation, however. For example, the Senate passed, by an overwhelming vote, my amendment to the foreign aid bill that cuts off aid to Indonesians in this country. We have poured millions of dollars of aid into Indonesia and it returns President Sukarno side with our enemies throughout Asia.

It seems very inconsistent and unwise, in my opinion, to furnish foreign aid to a country that opposes our policies at every turn. I am happy to report that the Senate agreed with me and my amendment was adopted 62 to 28.

But all in all, this was not a session we can boast about. It enlarged the powers of government, and set the stage for higher taxes on our citizens.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

AUSTIN — If your son is going to play football, make sure he is properly equipped.

Buying equipment simply on looks may cost your youngster an injury that will last a lifetime.

For proper head protection, select a helmet of shock-absorbing material encased in a rigid plastic shell. A snug fit and protection from "bottoming" of the helmet on the head must be assured. Select face mask, rigid with internal cushioning, that does not protrude farther than one and one-fourth inches from the nose, thereby preventing elbow contact with the eye.

Body protection is essential, too. All pads should incorporate shock-absorbing material and cover the intended area properly. The fit of the pants must assure effective positioning of the thigh and knee pads.

To insure foot and ankle protection, all players should have their ankles routinely wrapped with non-elastic bandage, two and one-half to three inches in width. Cleats should be kept short, if used. Rubber heels without cleats may be preferred.

Whether it is football on the corner lot or organized athletics, needs a mouth protector as a part of his regular equipment. If your young son wants a football helmet like the big leaguers, be wary of the low-priced helmets sold as toys. These are not suitable for real play. The suspension or internal padding provides little or no protection on impact. In addition, the edges of these helmets may be sufficiently sharp to cause lacerations.

Helmets to be used in actual play should possess the same protective qualities as those for varsity football. Otherwise, the safety of the wearer can be in serious jeopardy.

Whatever his age, if your youngsters plans to participate in football or other contact sports, keep these basic principles in mind when selecting protective equipment: purchase only the best available, make sure it is carefully fitted, wear equipment at all appropriate times, in practice or in games, and make sure equipment is conscientiously maintained.

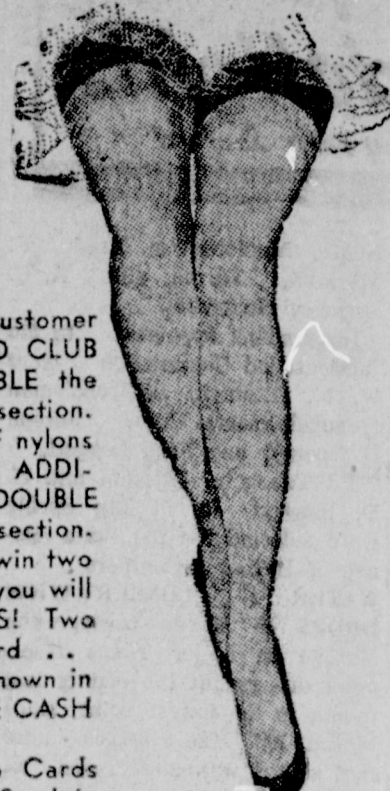

Football can be fun... as long as you're not gambling with unnecessary injury.

Tissue Will Lead the Way New brightly-colored facial tissues can help you find your way quickly and safely back to camp.

Just tear tissue into pieces and drape at eye level on branches along the route you don't want to forget.
