Native Of Coke County Has Story Published In "True West"

Velma Barger Lovell, a native of Coke County, and one who is very proud of her heritage, has just published her first article, which now appears in the October number of TRUE WEST.

The old Barger home was on the Sterling City highway about mid point between the two county seats. Since the location was in Coke County, Robert Lee became their trade center.

She first attended the Pecan School and later Green Mountain and Edith. Her teachers were, for the most part, Coke County products: Paul Brown, Floyd Sturman, Georgia Payne, Maggie Newton, Edna Johnson, Willie I. Tubb and Naomi Lee Adams.

"My educational foundation was as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar," she bragged. She later graduated from Robert Lee High School and was valedictorian of her class.

After this, she married Sylvester James Lovell, a teacher by profession. They attended college in summers and taught during the school terms until her husband had received both Bachelor and Master's degrees.

Velma Barger Lovell

Her only child, Jan Barry Lovell, was born in 1935 and she kept busy at home until he was ready for college. When he was a freshman in Odessa College, she finished her senior year in Sul Ross, receiving her Bachelor's degree.

In Sul Ross she was on the Dean's list and was elected to Kappa Delta Pi, an educational sorority. She was invited to apply for a teaching position in English and continue her master's degree work, but she had been away from home a great deal and declined the offer because it would have meant more neglect of home.

They had lived and taught on the Texas Plains for a number of years, in Sanderson several years and then in the oil patch at Kermit, Texas. After nineteen years in Kermit, they retired to their home in San Angelo. Mrs. Lovell had previously taught in San Angelo 1956-57 and 1957-58, while residing with her mother and sister, Nina, who were both ill and passed away during that time.

Her husband passed away in 1975 and Mrs. Lovell then moved to Irving, Texas, where she now resides.

Her story centers on her father, and is entitled "Charley Barger's Humor". It appears in the current issue of TRUE WEST which is currently on the shelves at the Roadrunner and at Robert Lee Pharmacy.

Mrs. Lovell is the sister of Juanita Barger of Robert Lee, a longtime elementary teacher in the Robert Lee schools.

Monday, September 6, will be the date celebrated this year. In Robert Lee, the day will mark a holiday for the school, County Courthouse, and most other businesses and offices in town. However, food and gas will be available to locals and travelers at some stores and stations which front highways for customer convenience.

Blood Drive Is Successful

The local blood drive conducted by United Blood Services of San Angelo on Thursday, Aug. 26, has been termed a success by hospital administrator Jay Leath. He reported 60 volunteers came to West Coke County Hospital seeking to donate a pint of blood; 49 donors were acceptable out of the group.

Blood has often been referred to as "the gift of life" due to its need for our survival. The hospital administration and staff want to extend their appreciation to the community for their generous effort toward this undertaking.

Mrs. Richard Edward Black

Miss Davis, Mr. Black Repeat Vows In R-Lee Baptist Church

Sherill Ann Davis became the bride of Lieutenant Richard Edward Black in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, Aug. 28, at 7:30 p.m. Held in the Robert Lee Baptist Church, the services were conducted by the Rev. Roy Epperson, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan S. Davis, Col. (USAF Ret.) and Mrs. Robert B. Black of San Antonio are parents of the groom.

Mattie Hill of Abilene registered wedding guests in the vestibule of the church, as they were greeted by the groom's mother and the father of the bride.

Wedding music was provided for the occasion by soloists, Sterling Allen, San Angelo, and Wayne McClellan of Dallas, pianist, Donna Burns, also of Dallas, and organist Betty Sue Litzler of Houston.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal white Victorian gown of Knit chiffon, underlaid in ivory. Point D'espirit lace formed the sheer yoke and lantern sleeves which were banded by wide Wedgewood lace. A deep ruffle of the same lace encircled the shoulders and edged the hemline. The semi-cathedral train ended in rows of Wedgewood lace. The extended cathedral wedding veil was held by a bandeau of seed pearls and lilies of the valley to complete the ensemble.

Mrs. Terry Poehls of Wingate, cousin of the bride, served as the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Janie Payne of Dallas and Mrs. Bill Childs of Houston, sister of the groom.

The bridal attendants were dressed in identical, soft yellow chiffon gowns, which featured fitted bodices and spaghetti straps, overlaid with sheer chiffon. The skirts were enhanced by a ripple of fabric, draped to the side.

Bill Childs of Houston served his brother-in-law as best man. Groomsmen were Waid Davis, brother of the bride and Wayne McClellan of Dallas.

Ushers were Glenn Davis, and Barry Davis of San Angelo, cousins of the bride, Mike Cragger, Fort Worth and Randy Gressett of Snyder.

The bridegroom and his father were attired in the dress uniforms of the United States Air Force.

The groom's attendants and ushers were all dressed in formal black tuxedos and tucked white shirts.

Wedding guests were received on leaving the church sanctuary by the bride and bridegroom.

A reception honoring the couple was held following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's table was centered by a white tiered wedding cake and a silver punch service. The traditional cake cutting by the bride and groom was carried out by the couple using a military dress sword.

The groom's table was highlighted by a chocolate sheet cake topped by an airplace. Coffee from the silver coffee service completed the table.

Close friends and family members served as the house party.

A rehearsal dinner honoring the couple and the wedding party was hosted on Friday evening by the groom's parents at the Coke County Recreation Center.

Mrs. Black is a graduate of Robert Lee High School and holds B.S. and Master of Education degrees from Hardin-Simmons University.

The bridegroom, a member of the United States Air Force, graduated from Ft. Hunt High School in Alexandria, Va. and from the U.S.A.F. Academy with a B.S. degree in engineering.

Beware Of Health Quackery It Is Alive and Well!

Health quackery is alive and well! - Health fraud is a multibillion dollar business in America today.

Victims suffer medically as well as financially. They are often persuaded to abandon reliable, safe therapies for the dangers of unscientific treatment.

Modern health fraud includes the promotion of laetrile and the billion dollar-a-year business of arthritis quackery.

Mistreatment of the overweight with scientifically unsound diets, drugs and devices is another common practice in health frauds.

Mind Those Drugs! - Many people know that prescription drugs cause side effects or adverse reactions but probably expect them to be physical in nature. This is not necessarily the case. Reported psychological side effects of drugs prescribed for physical problems range from delusion to suicidal depression. Consumers should be aware of this possibility, since their physicians often are not.

YOU SHOULD KNOW HOW YOUR SENATOR VOTED!

Senator Lloyd Bentsen cast one of the two deciding votes to give away the Panama Canal, April 18, 1978.

He voted not to allow the President to take appropriate action to ensure that the Canal remained secure and open, July 26, 1979.

Prior to the final vote, the Senate considered a number of important amendments intended to protect the interests of our country.

One would have required congressional approval before any U.S.-owned Panama Canal property could be transferred to Panama.

Two others would have (1) withheld payments to Panama from Canal revenues unless the U.S. had first been reimbursed for its costs of implementing the 1978 treaties, and (2) withheld such payments if either the President or Congress determined that Panama was directly or indirectly interfering in the affairs of another nation.

Yet another amendment would have authorized the President to take appropriate action to assure that the Canal remained secure and open, even if it meant overriding actions of the Panama Canal Commission. Senator Bentsen voted against each of these protective amendments.

On September 25, 1979 the Senate had a last chance to vote against the Canal giveaway, but Senator Lloyd Bentsen of Texas voted to give it away. If he had opposed the giveaway the U.S. might still own our Canal and enjoy the military (and other) advantages it affords. If it ever closes, the trip around South America must be about 8000 miles further than through the Canal.

Did Senator Bentsen represent you when he voted to give our Panama Canal into the hands of a Communist dictator?

TWO TERMS IS ENOUGH

Texans have a healthy skepticism of their elected officials, a wariness of entrenched power that they have embodied in the state constitution. They have historically refused to keep top state officeholders more than a few terms.

Now my opponent comes along, having spent nearly ten years in the Lt. Governor's office, one of the top state policy-making offices. Mr. Hobby wants yet another term to make it 14 years in that crucial job. That is unprecedented. Never in Texas' history has any Lt. Governor served that long—or wanted to.

His desire, frankly, puzzles me. You would think he would have other goals, other challenges he might want to tackle. As his primary opponent this year said, "If he had anything to get done, you'd think he would have done it by now."

My opponent will tell you that experience is what counts. I think voters need to look at the experience they have had with him. After ten years, our highways are in bad shape, the quality of education has declined, we still do not have a new, statewide water plan and he has refused to tackle the growing crime problem. We can't afford more of that kind of experience.

I have a long-held belief in what I call the citizen-politician: someone who holds a job, serves his country or state for a reasonable time, then returns to that job and private life. For that reason, the first order of business after I am elected will be to have a constitutional amendment introduced in the legislature limiting the Lt. Governor to two terms—eight years. That is enough time for anyone. Too great a concentration of power for too long is bad. That is a principle of democracy.

Mrs. Fred Ballard Jr.

Miss Simpson, Fred Ballard Jr. Repeat Vows In Garden Wedding

Carolyn Elizabeth Simpson and Fred Britton Ballard Jr. of Britton were united in marriage on Saturday evening, Aug. 21. The wedding was in the bride's parents' garden, overlooking Lake Spence, with the Rev. Fred Cox of First United Methodist Church officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Simpson are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Ballard Sr. of Mansfield.

The ceremony took place in an alcove off the upper terrace. The alcove, planted in roses and live oaks was encircled with potted white mums. Hurricane lanterns with pink bows graced the upper and lower terraces.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown in white lace and net. The fitted bodice of Sheffi embroidered Belgium net, had a portrait neckline and brief sleeves. Appliques of the daisy pattern of the lace, traced with paillettes and tiny seed pearls enhanced the neckline and sleeves. Lace and embroidery was repeated over the controlled full skirt, edged in lace, and the skirt fell into a chapel train. A wreath of silk rosebuds and lilies of the valley entwined on lace held her long mantilla of imported English illusion that was lavishly applied with lace. The bride carried a bouquet of pink to rose colored summer flowers with a pink rose to be given to each mother.

Miss Dianna Tinkler served as maid of honor. Miss Lori Murdoch of Jayton was her bridesmaid. They wore identical two-piece dresses in ivory and rose. The romantic blouse in ivory were designed with a high neckline of lace and rose ties. Lace was repeated down the front with self color embroidery and full puff sleeves. The gathered taffeta skirts with built-in cummerbunds were floor length. The attendants carried bouquets of pink to rose summer flowers.

Joe Ballard of Britton served as his brother's best man. Doug Tolleson of Crowley was groomsman. Serving as ushers were William John Simpson, brother of the bride, and Rodney Munsell of Falfurrias. The men in the wedding party wore light gray tuxedos with deep pink carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Leslie Copeland, pianist, provided traditional wedding music. Mrs. Bill Jones sang: "Our Wedding Prayer", "I Take Thee Dear", and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

The wedding reception was held in the bride's parent's home. The three-tiered white bride's cake, with citrus, was decorated in pink to rose colored summer flowers. The cake was topped with a dove perched under a bouquet of flowers like those used on the rest of the cake. The bride's cake was served by Mrs. Steve Austin and Mrs. Bill McKinnon of Abilene, cousins of the bride. The groom's cake was chocolate and decorated with fruit. Miss Lu Ann Harrison of Arlington served the groom's cake. Miss Kellye Percifull served coffee. Miss Lana Butler of Bonham served fruit punch. Mrs. Dubby Bosworth registered the guests. A host of relatives from far and near and a few close friends attended the wedding.

The bride's going away dress was a red organdy sundress with a short jacket. Her corsage was taken from the drop of her bouquet.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Robert Lee High School. She is currently a junior at Texas A&M University.

The bridegroom is a 1976 graduate of Mansfield High School. He attended Sam Houston University and graduated from Texas A&M University in 1982.

Following a wedding trip to South Padre Island, the couple will be at home in College Station.

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, was held Friday evening at Zentner's Daughter's Steak House in San Angelo.

T.K. Whiteside remains a patient in St. John's Hospital in San Angelo. He is undergoing a battery of tests to determine his illness. He has been a hospital patient three weeks now, having to return after a short stay at home.
