Isett to run for the 19th U.S. Congressional seat

State Representative Carl H. Isett of Lubbock has announced his candidacy for the 19th U.S. Congressional seat being vacated by Larry Combest. Isett is in his fourth term in the Texas House of Representatives.

According to his press release, Isett has won several awards from conservative groups and he has a 100 percent rating by both the Texas State Rifle Association and the Texas Association of Business.

Gov. Perry appointed Isett to the Governor's Homeland Security Task Force, "a distinction shared by only three members of the Texas House."

Isett says he will, "promote a progrowth economic policy of lower taxes and less regulation." He will, if elected, place a premium on strengthening our national defense and homeland security.

Isett, an accountant, and his wife, Cheri, have six children. He has a BA and Master degree in business from Texas Tech. He is serving as a Lieutenant Commander in the Naval Reserve.

Exibitors face tough competition in show New faces adorned the photos of the grand champions last weekend at the annual Bailey County Junior Livestock Show.

The two-day event ended Saturday with the annual Junior Livestock Sale.

In one of the most competitive shows of the weekend, J.R. Young captured the grand champion's banner in the Junior Market Swine Show. Young bested a field of 106 entries to claim the show's top Young's 237-pound Cross barrow finished one notch ahead of a Cross shown by Dal Whalin, who had the Reserve Grand champion. Both hogs came out of the light heavyweight class.

Also showing in the grand drive were Jackson Myers, who had the champion Hampshire; Madison Myers, who exhibited the champion Yorkshire; Andi Black, who had the champion Berkshire; Gunner Kerby, who had the champion Black OPB; Canaan Heinrich, who showed the champion White OPB and Sara Benham, who had the champion Duroc.

In the gilt show, Tyson Turnbow had the champion and Cassie Kirby had the reserve champion.

The hog show featured 106 barrows and 25 gilts; down slightly from 2002, when there were 107 barrows and 33 gilts shown.

Brandi Whalin was the senior and overall champion in the swine showmanship contest, while Mindy Hamilton was the junior champion.

The Junior Market Steer show was a contest between the Blacks—Marlie and Brady, a sister-brother combination. While Marlie won the American breed. Brady won both the British and Exotic divisions, making the grand drive an all-Black event.

Brett Bamert, who had the grand champion a year ago, reversed roles with Brady and won the reserve grand trophy.

There were 25 steers in the show as compared to 29 a year ago.

Cody Altman was the senior and overall steer showmanship champion, while Baylee Bessire was the junior winner. Altman went on to win the coveted Jimmy Dale Black Showmanship Award. The contest features a round-robin format and pits the overall showmanship winners from each species against each other with all showing goats, lambs, pigs and steers. Once a competitor has won the award, he or she is no longer eligible to com-

New faces also finished atop the heifer shows. Logan Caddell won the Dairy Heifer Show, while last year's winner, Abby Lawrence, had the reserve grand champion.

The Junior Market Goat Show was a family affair with the Vandiver sisters, Cydni and Cami Jo, collecting the top prizes. Cydni's Class 2 winner was judged the grand champion and Cami Jo's second-place entry out of the same class was named reserve grand.

Cydni had shown the reserve grand last year.

Dusty Clayton was named the senior and overall showmanship winner, while Courtney Mardis was the junior champion.

There were 17 goats in the show as compared to 23 last year.

Commissioners approve construction of jail facility

By MARSHALL STINNETT Journal writer

According to County Judge Marilyn Cox, the Bailey County Commissioners' Court has entered into an agreement with jail in Muleshoe on a lease purchase plan. Corplan will build the new jail and lease it to Bailey County for 20 years. At the end of the lease, Bailey County will own the jail. The lease purchase will be backed by municipal revenue bonds.

Corplan Corrections to build a new 96-bed

The location of the new jail was not revealed. "We are not giving out that information yet. We are still acquiring property," Cox said.

Cox told the Journal that the Court felt this was the best way to build a new jail because it didn't require taxpayers' money. The Court feels that being able to keep additional Federal prisoners and contracting cells with additional entities will more than pay for the lease and expenses on the facility. The new jail will have several cells for female prisoners.

In 2002, the County received $75,000 for keeping Federal prisoners in the current 22-bed facility along with local prisoners. The U.S. Marshal's Service pay the county $38.50 a day plus transportation.

Cox said the Court had considered build-

Election filing at hand

The Muleshoe City Council met a short 30 minutes Tuesday. Mayor Pro Term Clifford Black chaired the meeting while Mayor Victor Leal and his family were attending the inauguration of Governor Rick Perry in Austin.

The council voted to accept the resignation of Councilman Jerry Hicks from District 3. Hicks and his wife are moving to Lubbock.

Hicks' position will be filled by special election on May 3, the same day of the mayor election and the special election called by Gov. Rick Perry to fill the congressional seat vacated by Larry Combest.

The first day to file for mayor and councilman is February 17. Candidates do not have to live in district 3 to run for the position.

The council authorized City Manager David Brunson to send out a request for proposal for solid waste collection in Muleshoe. Duncan Disposal, current solid waste contractor, contract expires on August 1, 2003.

The city has been sharing an employee with the Muleshoe County Club for

"Commonplaces Never Become Tiresome"

I was not particularly looking for wisdom when a friend and I walked into a Thai food restaurant recently; I was just looking for food and trying to make sense out of a menu filled with genuine Thai cuisine. What I ended up eating was excellent, but I'm still wondering about one menu item that just sounded interesting.

Larb. L-A-R-B.

I still wonder what it is. A staple item in the Thai diet? A delicacy? The kind of thing a fellow just develops a taste for and says to his wife one evening after work, "Ya know,

Focus On Faith

Shelburne

I could really go for a big bowl of larb right now! Man, that would hit the spot!"

I still don't know what it is. But I do think I found a bit of wisdom.

On the wall of the restaurant.
Well, to be completely truthful, it was on the wall of the restroom of the restaurant, a place where I surely wasn't expecting to find any wisdom.

It was a quotation at the bottom of a Norman Rockwell print. The words were Rockwell's words, which is what gave them even deeper meaning. Rockwell, arguably America's most beloved artist, a man who succeeded in capturing on canvas the warm heart and the living soul of this nation, wrote this: "Commonplaces never become tiresome. It is we who become tired when we cease to be curious and appreciative. We find that it is not a new scene which is needed, but a new viewpoint."

He is so right! Yes, there are times to take a trip, see new things, meet new people. But what most of us need far more is simply to open up our eyes to that which is beautiful and wonderful, joy-filled and life-giving, all around us every ordinary day in lots of ordinary places. Because, you see, there aren't any simply "ordinary" days or "ordinary" places. And you never met an "ordinary" person. Our extraordinary God never created anything or anyone who was just "ordinary."

The more I think about it, the more I realize that "commonplaces" are what God uses to make our lives uncommonly rich and interesting, and those who spurn them are poor no matter what their income.

The way your wife strokes your hand during a movie.

The wry smile of your son when you tell him that being taller than you is disrespectful. Early morning fog or a blanket of new snow creating a completely new world just outside your front door.

A clear, calm, crisp winter night and the smell of an oak fire warming the heart of a home. The crackle of that fire in the hearth, its warmth on your back, and a book in your hand.

The taste of chocolate.
The easy laughter and good-natured joking of good friends.

Your favorite chair or your oldest pair of slippers.
Taking a snooze in the sun.

and realizing your dog is right about snoozes in the sun.

"Commonplaces never become tiresome." Thank God for them!

Lady Mules beat Dimmitt, Brownfield

By DELTON WILHITE Journal sportswriter

The Lady Mules completed the first lap of district 2-3A by downing the Dimmitt Bobbies in the Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium 65-43 and returned home Friday to dump the unknown but scrappy Brownfield Lady Cubs 73-42.

Mindy Locker put the Lady Mules in front to stay with an 18-foot jumper as the first period began. Tori Barton and Sara Benham served notice on the Bobbies by completing a fast break with a half-court pass and a layup.

Barton drained a three from the top of the key to push the Muleshoe advantage to 7-2 just over three minutes into the game. Tiffany Flores grabbed a Bobbie pass and drove the lane to ignite a seven point Lady Mule run. A Bobbie hit from down town Dimmitt to end the first period with the Bobbies trailing 18-9

Shani Rasco was held scoreless until the second quarter began. Rasco stuck back two rebounds to start the second period. She then ripped the ball away from a Bobbie on the Muleshoe base line and kissed the ball off the glass for two-points.

Fouled on the play Rasco finished the old fashion three-point play to push the Lady Mule lead to 27-12 with four minutes to play in the half. Rasco scored 13 of her 19 points in the second period and had back-to-back blocks with 25 seconds remaining in the half.

The Lady Mules led 35-24 at intermission and out scored the Bobbies 13-6 in: the third period. Rasco and Benham recorded doubledoubles against the Bobbies by scoring 19 and 17 points respectively and pulled down 10 rebounds apiece.

120 Main

Kelsi Friskup added eight points, Locker six, Barton five and Lindsey Wood and Flores made four each for the Lady Mules.

The Brownfield Lady Cubs full court press and zone defense stunned the Lady Mules in the early going. With just under five minutes to play in the opening period the Lady Cubs owned a 9-7 advantage.

The final three minutes of the period was all Lady Mules with a 10-0 run in the final three minutes of the period to gain a 17-9 advantage. Locker powered down the lane for two points to continue the run and extended it

Brownfield cut the Lady Mule lead to 27-22 with an 11-6 run that ended when Friskup made one-of-two from the charity stripe. Muleshoe then went on a six-point run of their own with Barton draining a deuce just inside the free-throw line to push the Muleshoe lead to 34-22 after three periods.

In the final frame Jamie Carpenter picked a Lady Cub's pocket and scored and then nailed a three to seal the deal for the Lady Mules. Benham led all scorers with 24 points and Flores sank nine-of-ten free throws in the second half for 11 points.

Locker made nine, Friskup and Carpenter had seven each, and Rasco six, Barton five and Wood added one for the Lady Mules.

The Lady Mules hosted the Lubbock Cooper Lady Pito 14-0 when she put back her rates Tuesday and travel to own shot to start the second Littlefield to meet the Lady Cats in the second round.

Big score for local food pantry

On Sunday, January 26, 2003, Muleshoe residents will join with others across the nation in promoting "Souper Bowl" Sunday! Held in conjunction with the NFL's Super Bowl, the event promotes the awareness of hunger in our nation.

Event coordinators will be garnering support from local churches and youth groups to help feed local hungry. The Bailey County Ministerial Alliance Food Pantry, which serves the residents from the county, will be the beneficiary of the proceeds.

People are asked to donate one can of soup and $1.00 to the local agency during Sunday morning worship services. For those unable to donate at that time, the food and donation can be taken to the Food Pantry the following Saturday from 9:00-10:30 a.m., February 1.

Utilizing Super Bowl Sunday to inspire and mobilize our youth to fight hunger and poverty in their own community allows them to see mission emphasis on a firsthand local basis.

Corplan Corrections to build jail

By MARSHALL STINNETT Journal writer

Corplan Corrections is the firm the Bailey County Commissioners' Court has selected to build the new 96-bed jail facility in Muleshoe. The firm is headquartered in Argyle, Texas.

The company was founded in 1990 and the President is

James M. Parkey.

According to the company brochure, "this team has developed, designed, constructed and financed more correctional facilities than any other team in the nation.

The recent projects included: the Dalby Correction Center in Post; the Webb County Correctional Center in Laredo; the Karnes County Correctional Center in Karnes City, the Bradshaw County Jail in Henderson, the Winkler County Jail in Kermit and the Garza County Regional Juvenile Detention Center in Post.

The Commissioners' Court has visited both facilities in Post and Winkler County according to County Judge Marilyn Cox.

ADIES GOLF ASSOCIATION

The Muleshoe Country Club Ladies Association met Wed., Jan. 15 for their first luncheon this year. President Pat Kirk, presided over the meeting. Laverne Winn, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. Judy Wilbanks, treasurer, gave her report. Pat gave the birthdays for January. They were Jerrie Flowers, Linda Elder, Dorothy St. Clair, Laverne Winn and Deborah Noble.

All committees gave their plans for the year. A lot of activities are planned and looked forward to by the ladies. Ann McElroy gave a report on the coming Valentine shrimp peel and hors d'oeuvre party to be held Feb. 8. A lot of work has gone into making this a very special party, so do make plans to attend. Those attending the luncheon were Pat Kirk, Deborah Noble, Helen Templeton, Claudine Elliott, Laverne Winn, Jo Rempe, Jeanetta Precure, Lynne Box, Judy Wilbanks, Ann McElroy, Jenny Bamert and Neats Foster.

Playday awards were given to Sheryl Engelking and Claudine

Elliott. Door prize was won by Ann McElroy. Ladies winning the golf scramble were Helen Templeton, Claudine Elliott, Neats Foster, Deborah Noble and Pat Kirk.

Mules suffer district loss at the hands of Dimmitt

By DELTON WILHITE Journal sportswriter

The Dimmitt Bobcats evened the Mule's district season at 1-1 by dropping the Mules 80-45 in the Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium last Tuesday night. But much like the ball they play with, the Mules bounced back on Friday against the Brownfield Cubs.

The Mules absorbed two big runs by the Cubs and came back from a 10-point defect midway through the third period to defeat the Cubs 54-49.

In the first six minutes the Mules took the action to Dimmitt. Landon Sheets nailed three treys, Tatom Heathington hit a mid-range shot from the elbow and Luis Sanchez hit from behind the arc to hang on to a 13-12 Muleshoe lead.

In the final two and half minutes, the Bobcats poured in 13 unanswered points for a 25-14 lead at the quarter break. Danny Bonilla opened the second period with a three to break the Dimmitt scoring run.

The two teams exchanged baskets with Dimmitt hanging on to a 10-point 39-29 advantage at the intermission. The Bobcat defensive pressure in the third period held the Mules to only five points and opened a 56-34 margin with eight minutes left to play.

The Bobcat pressure remained strong and out scored the Mules 24-11 in the final period. Heathington paced the Mules with 16 points while Landon Sheets made four threes and 14 points all in the first half. Bonilla added five points, Brady Black four and Sanchez and Tyler Sheets dropped in three points each.

Landon Sheets picked up two quick personal fouls and had to sit out most of the first half in the confrontation with the Cubs. Brownfield grabbed a 14-7 first period advantage.

A.J. Flores cut three from the Cub lead as the second quarter began. Bonilla hit from behind the arc and Heathington nailed a baseline jumper to cut the Cub advantage to 15-10 in the first three minutes.

Heathington's jumper ignited a 14-3 Muleshoe run before the half ended with the Mules leading 27-22. The Cubs returned after intermission with blood in their eyes and mounted a 15-0 run in the first four minutes of the third quarter to take a 37-27 advantage.

Landon Sheets returned to the floor and Heathington dropped in an eight-foot jump shot that broke the Cub run and began a 13-2 Mule run to end the third quarter with the Mules ahead 40-39.

The Cubs opened the final period with a basket before Black drove for a layup to give the Mules a lead they would not give up with just less than seven minutes remaining in the game. The Mules made seven of 13 free throws in the final period to hang on for the win.

"We came out flat in the first period and then again after half but stepped it up to take a lead at half and again in the final period," said Tatom Heathington. "When Landon (Sheets) went out with fouls the rest of us knew we had to step up if we were going to win tonight."

Heathington paced the Mules with 14 while Landon Sheets dropped in 12 and Bonilla added nine. Black made eight, Tyler Sheets five, Flores four and Layne Sheets chipped in two for the Mules. The Mules made 17 of 29 free-throw opportunities while the Cubs only made nine of 22.

"It sure is nice when you win on Friday," said Mule coach Ralph Mason. "I told the kids if they had any hopes of making the playoffs they had to beat Slaton and Brownfield and they had to beat them both times."

"Luis (Sanchez) and Danny (Bonilla) shut down their shooters tonight as we ran a triangle and two defense and we made enough free throws down the stretch for the win. We dug two holes tonight and came out of both of them. Our kids really battled back at the end .... How about them Mules?"

The Mules hosted the Lubbock Cooper Pirates on Tuesday and traveled to Littlefield to tangle with the Wildcats to wrap up the first round of district competition.

Jami Wedel and J.C. Orozco will perform with the High School Honor Band on Saturday at 3:30 after having obtained the honor at the tryouts in December at Floydada. Jami and J.C. both qualified for the area tryouts held last weekend in Sundown. They competed with the top students in Area A. This area includes all 1-A, 2-A and 3-A bands in an area covering the entire Texas Panhandle to Snyder and then west

Jami was fourth chair in the Honor Band on the flute. This is her 3rd year to make the Allregion Band and her second year to qualify To for the Area tryouts. She came in ninth out of 18 flutes trying out at Area. Jami is a senior and this is quite an accomplishment for her high school cand career.

J.C., a sophomore, will be performing with the All-region Honor Band for the second year. He was third chair on snare at the regional tryout, which qualified him to compete in the Area auditions in Sundown on January 11. J.C. was first chair in Area which puts him the All-State Band. This is a big accomplishment for any Texas band member but is especially difficult to make as a sophomore. J.C. will be traveling to San Antonio with the high school band director, Becky Jones, on February 12 for the All-State Clinic and Concert held in conjunction with the annual Texas Music Educator's Convention. The concert will be at San Antonio on February 15 at 11:00 a.m. J.C. will get to play with the very best students from the State of Texas under the direction of Francis McBeth, a legendary composer and conductor. He will also get to attend the many exhibits on the convention floor as well as attend many top-notch concerts by colleges and Armed Service bands from all over the coun-

J.C. is the son of Richard and Alma Orozco from Muleshoe. Jami is the daughter of Jimmy and Susan Wedel of Muleshoe and Elizabeth is the daughter of David and Tina Symm from the Lariat Community.

Beau Henry, Kimberly Doty unite in First Baptist Church

Beau Cameron Henry and Kimberly Renette Doty were united in marriage on December 28, 2002 in the First Baptist Church in Sudan, Texas. Andy Melton of Littlefield and uncle of the bride officiated the wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Craig and Sherri Doty of Sudan. She is the great-granddaughter of Verdie Gann of Sudan. Her grandparents are LaFern Doty and Joyce Thompson both of Sudan.

The groom is the son of David and Belinda Head of Muleshoe and the late Bobby Don Henry. He is the greatgrandson of Clyde and Nell Henry of Canyon and Selma Redwine Smith of Lubbock. He is the grandson of Pat Nickels of Lubbock, Marcia Mardis of Hereford, and Marshal and JoAnne Head of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Courtnee Harris of Lubbock, cousin of the groom, attended the bride as matron of honor. Jenny Wilson of Littlefield attended the bride as maid of honor. Meghan Melton, aunt of the bride, carried her daughter, Madilyn Melton, down the aisle as she served as a bridesmaid. Lindsey Robinson of Frisco and Stephanie Brown of Sudan, both cousins of the bride, served as bridesmaids. Serving as junior bridesmaids was the sister of the groom, Natalie Head.

The bride attendants wore floor length Victorian lilac gowns of satin made by the bride's grandmother, Joyce Thompson. The back of the dresses were accented with two rows of rhinestones. They carried glasses of floating candles with a white bow.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Bradley Henry. Groomsmen were Cory Harris of Lubbock and Blake Henry of Lubbock, both cousins of the groom, and Brian Kiser of Abilene and Luke Senter of Abilene, both friends of the groom. Serving as junior groomsmen were Chance Doty, brother of the bride and Marshal Head, brother of the groom. Serving as ring bearer was Greg Wood of Sudan and friend of the bride. He carried a heart

The groom was attired in a black long tail tuxedo with a silver vest. The groom's attendants and the fathers of the couple all wore black long tail tuxedos with black vests.

Johanna Hanhinen of Finland, friend of the bride, registered guests as they arrived and Jeff McGuire of Dallas, cousin of the groom, served as the head usher. Also ushering guests were the couple's brothers, Chance Doty, Marshal Head, and Bradley Henry.

As the parents entered to light the unity candles, Jeremy Bruns, concert organist of Boston, Mass., and cousin of the groom played.

Before the bride entered, Jeff McGuire unrolled a white carpet runner. Harlee and Haven Gortney of Odessa, cousins of the bride dropped white flower petals as they walked down the aisle.

As the bride and her father entered, the traditional "Wedding March" was played. Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white satin gown with a Queen Anne neckline and a 12-foot cathedral train.

For the traditional something old, she wore her grandmother, LaFern Doty's wedding bands. For something beads. Fresh white flowers of rose, carnations, daisies, and baby's breath with greenery covered the table.

Serving the cake and punch were Courtney Montez, friend of the bride, of Littlefield and Cristy Gortney, cousin of the bride, of Odessa.

The groom's cake was made by Gweena Gore, of Sudan, friend of the bride. It was shaped like a golf bag with golf clubs coming out from the top. The table was covered in golf balls and assorted color golf tees with the couple's name embossed on them.

A rehearsal dinner of brisket and all the trimmings was held in the commons area at the high school by the groom's parents. The tables were decorated with a golf theme.

The bride is a 2001 graduate of Sudan High School and is currently attending South Plains College at the Reese Center. She is employed by Sprint PCS of Lubbock. The groom is a 2000 graduate of Muleshoe High School and currently attends Texas Tech University. He is employed by Chaparral Jet Center of Lubbock.

Following a honeymoon in Wolf Creek, Colo., the couple reside in Lubbock.

ETIRED TEACHERS

Texas Retired Teachers Association, District XVII, had a special meeting for the officers of the district and local officers, January 14 to plan for the year from January until the last of May, 2003. Seven units were represented at the meeting. Those from Muleshoe were President Lucy Fave Smith and Vice-President Mary Nell Bleeker. District President Buddy Sexton presided. He informed the group of a new state director, Patricia Conradt, who will be taking office in September. She is a well qualified person for the

Mr. Sexton also encouraged each unit to send at least one person to attend the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the Texas Retired Teachers which will take place in Wichita Falls, April 23-26. There will be special sessions and most important a general session about our health program. Lavone Rogers will present a history book about the history of the organization. There will be special training for district and local presidents. This will be a very important convention.

The local Muleshoe Area Retired Teachers had its regular meeting Friday, January 17 at the 16th and D Church of Christ Fellowship Hall. A special program was presented by Lucinda Russell, Texas Highway Patrol Officer, from Amarillo. She gave some very good tips on safety for seniors. She gave the groups ways to recognize scams and how to protect from them. She also gave the driving skills to be aware of for senior citizens. Her pointers were well received by all who were present.

The next meeting of the Muleshoe Retired Teachers will be February 21 with an art student of Helen Adrain of Muleshoe High School presenting the program. All members and interested persons are encouraged to attend.

Those attended the January meeting were Joyeline Costen, Mary Crane, Aline Bryant, Rose Sain, Lucy Faye Smith, Wilma Smith, Mary Nell Bleeker and hostess, Bette Cowan.

Dustin Bartlett is the 18year-old son of Rocky Bartlett and Renee Wright. His birthday is May 16. Things that are important to Dustin are goals, friends and family. 911 means a time where many American suffered and we all came together to help in a time of need. His high school goals are to be active in community service and organizations. He will graduate and attend the college of his choice. His favorite movie line is from the Fight Club, "Without, pain, without sacrifice, we would have nothing." If Dustin won a million dollars, he would start his own scholarship program to help the less fortunate kids achieve a higher education. His favorite list includes: Songs We Wish We'd Written CD by Pat Green and Cory Morrow, smoked pecan salmon, English Bulldogs, Adam Sandler, topaz, and a visit to New York. His fear factor is anything that Katy Loudder is the 17year-old daughter of Lance and Terri Louder. She was born on October 16. Important things to her are family, friends, and salsa verde. 911 means a lot to Katy. Her plans are to graduate. Her favorite movie line is, "You got something to say? — "Yeah, about a million things, but I can't express myself monosyllabically enough for you to understand it all." If Katy won a million dollars, she would wet her pants. Her favorites include CD's too numerous to name, fried chicken mashed potatoes and gravy, a panda bear, Edward Norton, and a visit to Delaware. Her fear factor is clowns in tomato soup.

Chase Timms is the 12year-old son of Chris and Jill Timms. He was born November 11. His family is the most important to him. 911 means an emergency. His goal for Jr.. High is to get straight A's His favorite movie line is "I'll be back." If he won a million dollars, he would buy himself a BMW ZW3. His favorite things are any CD, steak, Swedish meatballs, Longhorns, Arnold Schwartzenegger, ruby and a visit to Disney World. His fear factor is baby food (Yuk!!)

Kyra Kimbrough is the 14-year-old daughter of Kyle and Kim Kimbrough. She was born on December 5. Important things to Kyra are family, friends, school, and sports. 911 was a tragedy because so many people lost loved ones. Her goal for Jr. High is to make good grades and go to college. Her favorite movie line is, "Girl, please." If she won a million dollars, she would buy a Lotus and go on a huge shopping spree. Her favorite things are Eminem, snow crabs, fries, cheese sticks, a virgin strawberry daiquiri, White

The Board of Directors of Muleshoe Area Hospital District voted to lease purchase a six-channel heart monitoring machine, replace the water softening system and wrote off $48,358 in bad debts at their regular scheduled meeting last Thursday.

The new monitoring machine will replace the present monitor which only monitors four channels. The board voted to do a five-year lease purchase rather than to out right purchase the $40,000 machine to help with the hospital cash flow.

The board accepted the bid of $7,632.12 from Wilson Drilling for the new water softening system.

declares large cash dividend

First Ag Credit, Farm Credit Services board of directors declared a $4.7 million cash patronage dividend at their December meeting based on 2002 earnings. The patronage dividend will reduce most customers' net cost of borrowing by approximately 70 basis points, or almost threequarters of a percent.

This is the fifth consecutive year that over 6,500 First Ag Credit stockholders will receive a cash dividend from their agricultural financing cooperative. Members will receive their checks in early

The groom wore a traditional black tuxedo with matching cummerbund and bow tie. His boutonniere was a small Charlotte rose.

Groomsmen were Justin Mock of Ft. Worth, Kevin Graham of Denver City, George Kirkland of Lubbock, Jason Booker of Dallas, Joe Paul Conway of Hartford, Conn., Travis Speck of Raleigh, N.C., and Darren Keys of Dallas. They wore matching black tuxedos with cummerbund and bow ties. Ring bearer was Daniel Schulze, son of friends of the couple from Midland. He wore a match tuxedo to the groom. Ushers for the occasion were Corley Hutton of Round Rock, and Mark Long of Charlotte, N.C. All wore small Charlotte roses.

The church was adorned with peace lilies, white mums and a large floral arrangement of the bride's chosen flowers of Charlotte roses, tulips, gerberas, lizanthus, freesia, solidago and waxflower. The main aisle was roped with tulle and white lights.

Grandfathers of the bride, Sam Damron and Horace Hutton of Muleshoe and grandparents of the groom, Carlton and Bobbie Bullard of Garland and Elna Mock of Lubbock entered to the song "Hear My Prayer" sung by Jessica Goudeau. Parents of the couple entered to music provided by the Ellsworth Strings Quartet and trumpet as did the wedding party. The bride, escorted by her father, entered to "Hornpipe for Water Music" by Handel. Chris Baker of Houston provided a special song, "For You" by John Denver as the couple signed a family bible. The wedding party left the church to "This Magic Moment."

The reception was held in the foyer of the church and was decorated with tulle covered trellises, columns with peace lilies, and ficus trees of twinkling white lights. The bride's table was appointed with white linen and silver serving pieces. The five-tiered Bavarian cream cake with butter cream frosting contained alternating fillings of Bavarian cream and amarreto cream and was decorated with fresh flowers. The groom's table displayed a three-tiered arrangement of chocolate covered strawberries dipped in white and milk chocolate. The beverage table of brass and glass used brass appointments to serve coffee and punch.

The house party included Mr. and Mrs.: Steve Benton, Lloyd Bradshaw, James Brown, Bob Finney, Aubrey Heathington, Gary Hooten, Robert Lepard, Gene Sheets and Monti Vandiver.

Following a wedding trip to Kauai, Hawaii, the couple reside in Amarillo where the groom is continuing his education as a third year medical student at Texas Tech University School of Medicine. The bride is employed by Stewart, Martin, Dudley and Webb. A rehearsal diner hosted by the groom's parents the night before the wedding was held at the Fifty Yard Line in Lubbock. Special guests included a host of family and friends.
