But that scrap will make tanks and guns. Round it all up and bring it in NOW, so that it can get to the smelters at once.

The Treasury is now advocating a new policy to avoid a double burden on corporations. A tax credit on profits recaptured by the government through contract negotiation, and on which excess profits have been paid, would be allowed. This may be included in the new tax bill.

Black markets are due for trouble. Investigations in all critical materials are imminent OPA, WPB, FBI, Army, Navy and the Maritime Commission are on the war path. The President has issued pointed orders. Appropriate legislation to follow will have long, sharp teeth.

Log books may soon be a part of the automobile driver's equipment. Officials are planning federal licenses for all cars, drivers of which must record mileage and keep within quotas tuned to occupational needs. Under ODT administration, violators could lose licenses and automobiles.

While considered as an autumn "must," ODT officials are reluctant to barge into the new travel priority plan. Under this measure, all seats, including coaches, would be reserved for passengers. Engines may soon be used for freight.

Even under White House blessing, an AFL-CIO "peace exchange" combine is not likely to ripen soon. While both groups find they can cooperate as separate units and are working out a formula to eliminate jurisdictional disputes—each eyes the dairy progress of Lewis with considerable fear.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC AT LARIAT

Members of St. John's Lutheran church gathered at the church grounds at Lariat recently for their annual picnic. Dinner was served beneath the shade trees. Contest were enjoyed, by both participants and spectators. Three-legged races, sack races and lemon races produced many hearty falls and laughs. A nail driving contest was held for the women, while the men displayed their ability in a sewing contest.

In the final feature of the contests, the married men played the boys in a game of softball. The boys took an early lead, but the men rallied in the late innings to win, 14-6.

FORBIDDEN FRUIT

At St. Oederode in southern Holland, Pastor J. van der Meent informed his parishioners that he had joined the Nazis. The following Sunday no one came to the service. In a letter sent to the Nazi press, the pastor complained that he had been regularly boycotted and that when he handed in his resignation he was granted a "miserable pension."

He further reported that when the new pastor preached for the first time the church was crowded. His successor chose for his first sermon the text: "Thou shalt not eat of the Fruit of this Tree."

ADVICE FROM HITLER

The Belgian underground paper, La Libre Belgique, published the following passage from Hitler's Mein Kampf: "So-called passive resistance would be logical only if supported by the determination to come out and wage an open fight, or adopt a kind of guerrilla war." La Libre Belgique added: "The Belgians are absolutely determined to follow Hitler's advice."

No wonder mankind stays in a mess. All important questions lead to controversy and in time of controversy, nobody will listen to reason.

Swat The Fly Campaign In Full Swing In State

Homemakers are unwilling hosts to an enemy—the common fly. It's a disease carrier and a pest. Swat it! says Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Flies spread typhoid fever, dysentery and other wasting diseases which cause thousands of deaths yearly. They breed in refuse. Get rid of them by destroying breeding places. Keeping the yards clean and having a sanitary toilet. Screen windows, doors and chimney openings. Trap them before they get into the house a fly trap is easy to make, and crack down on 'em when they get in. Use fly sprays and get every member of the family to help destroy them. Keep at the job.

Mrs. Claytor suggests checking screens often. Make sure that frames fit doors and windows tightly, and patch holes and repair ripped places. Paint galvanized screens once yearly with thin paint or screen paint, and also paint frames to preserve them. Finally, put a strong spring on screen doors so they'll close quickly.

Screens probably will have to last out the war, she suggests, and accordingly, should be well cared for as they guard the family's health. It's a good idea to put on hooks or latches and protect the lower part of a screen

Bomb 'em with JUNK

Let's blast Japan—and Germany—and Italy—with the chain lightning of destruction that can be built from the scrap in our cellars, attics and garages, on our farms and in our places of business.

Scrap iron and steel, other metals, rubber and waste materials. It will all be used to make tanks, ships, planes and the fighting weapons our boys must have. It is needed at once.

Sell it to a Junk dealer—give it to a charity or collection agency—take it yourself to the nearest collection point—or consult the Local Salvage Committee... If you live on a farm, and have found no means of disposing of your Junk, get in touch with the County War Board or your farm implement dealer.

Throw YOUR scrap into the fight!

The kitchens of the nation are in this war too and you and I are soldiers of production. A different kind of production, to be sure, from that which is taking place in the plants and factories of the United States.

Look at your pots and pans in a shining row above your kitchen tables or stacked neatly in one of your cupboards. They are the tools for your all-important job of producing the right foods for your family.

Our food industry, which is sending billions of pounds of food overseas, is still providing us with everything we can possibly need. Let's see that we do our part in using it effectively so that our families will be energetic, confident, cold-free and courageous all this coming fall and winter.

Walther League Convention Ends

On Wednesday, August 12, 90 percent of the leaguers and a host of friends filled St. John's Lutheran church, where the second Walther League convention met. In the absence of Candidate Ralph Temme, the Rev.

Rudolph Weiser of St. John's conducted the opening devotion, speaking on the topic, "Search the Scriptures." Stressing and encouraging the leaguers to continue to search the scriptures, the basis of true knowledge, calling to mind that the Christian knowledge department of the Walther League is the heart of its program.

Miss Velma Kube and Miss Lillymae Kaltwasser were at the registration desk. Eighty-two persons registered.

The business session was opened by the convention president, Melvin Pyetzki of Clovis. The address of welcome was given by Gilbert Kaltwasser, president of St. John's Walther League. The response was given by Reverend Keller in the absence of Mr. Guibals. The convention secretary, Melvin Sachs, read the minutes of the first session.

A resolution was adopted that winter conferences be held for officials. Plans for this will be made later.

The Rev. Karl Keller, Clovis led the discussion on the Christian Knowledge department. He gave a fine picture of the department, stressing its importance, showing that knowledge must always precede service. A Bible quiz conducted by Rev. Weiser was enjoyed by all. The third and final session of the convention was held in the Rhea, Tex. school, Friday, Aug.

CONSTANTLY STRIVING—

We constantly strive to operate a good sound bank and to serve the needs of this territory.

We are not trying to reform anything, neither are we trying to run our City, County, State or Nation. By the same token, we are not always satisfied with the way they are run in every particular, but we console ourselves in the thought that if they were run exactly to suit us, there would be other dissatisfied people all over the country.

We are trying to do our part in the war effort by buying bonds, by selling bonds, as a free service to our country. Help your Government and yourself by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds & Stamps.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after Section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows: "Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any special session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes."

From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1942, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, being November 3, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

THE 1,000-PLANE RAIDS ON GERMANY started "way back in the days when the vaunt was blighting Britain. Gigantic aircraft factories were secretly but efficiently built in Britain, work to forge the avenging weapons. As revealed in this picture, the enormous 4-motored biplanes roll forward on duplicated-and-triplicated-assembly lines looking like railroad box-cars. Today there are enough of these British-built Stirlings-and Halifaxes and Hurricanes to carry the offensive to the enemy and hasten the end of the years of "blood, sweat and tears."

Paint Supplies Are Being Diminished Before long, paints of many types are going to become scarce. Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement for the A. and M. College Extension Service, says shortages will be felt especially in paints, varnishes, and enamels for interiors. The reason is, these require natural or synthetic resins. For some time synthetic resins have been earmarked for exclusive war use, and lately the War Production Board has ordered a 50 percent cut in the amount of natural resins manufactured for civilian purposes.

Here are some of the specialist's suggestions for choosing and using interior paints to the best advantage. Semi-gloss paint, which washes well and is not too harsh in appearance, is suitable for kitchens and bathrooms. Flat paint gives a "soft" appearance and is best for large areas such as walls and ceilings. It soils less quickly than gloss paint, but it will not stand up as well under washing. Calcimine is the cheapest wall paint available. Though it cannot be cleaned, it can be washed off entirely and a new coat applied. The specialist cautions: "Don't use calcimine on smooth woodwork or on walls which have been covered with oil paint." The coating eventually will chip off and make later re-painting far harder.

Enamel should be used only on very smooth surfaces, for it makes holes, chips, and scars more noticeable. Homemakers who want to avoid the trouble of sandpapering and planing uneven surfaces, should use a gloss or semi-gloss paint instead of enamel.

Rejected Suits: "Well, in any case, I shall always be a brother to you." "Sorry, but if I had any use for a brother I could reach under this sofa and get one right now."

Why Banks Sell WAR BONDS Without Compensation or Profit

Do you realize that for the billions of dollars of War Bonds sold by the banks not one cent of compensation has been paid to them?

Banks have spent large sums to advertise and sell Bonds. Yet they receive no fees, no commissions. That is as it should be. That is how the bank want it. Banks place their country's interest first. They do not wish to be paid for rendering a service which every loyal banker deems a patriotic duty and privilege. We urge you to buy Bonds sold by this bank without cost to the purchaser or the government, as a Patriotic Service.

Homemakers Are Urged To Save Household Fats

A national campaign for the collection of household fats through out the United States has been announced. No household fat should be wasted since grease makes glycerine and glycerine makes explosives. According to Lillie Gentry, county home demonstration agent with the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College, we are not to turn in any household fat which may be needed for food, but on the other hand, use every bit of fat in the home before going to the market to buy more. There is no object in selling the fat we have and going to the store to buy more to take its place.

- Here are the reasons for the fat campaign: 1. We need glycerine for explosives for the armed forces. 2. Glycerine is made from fats. Two billion pounds of household fats are wasted annually by homemakers. This means 200 million pounds of glycerine might be salvaged. 3. The supply of vegetable oils we have been receiving from the Far East has been cut off and our lend-lease responsibilities are increasing. Miss Gentry offers the following: 1. Make best use of all cooking fat. 2. Save all your waste fat. 3. Strain it into a clean, wide-mouthed can. 4. Keep it in the refrigerator or coolest place possible. 5. Take it to your meat dealer, and: 1. Don't take less than a pound. 2. Don't take fat in a glass container. 3. Don't let fat become rancid. 4. Don't take fat to the meat dealers on weekends if it is at all possible to do so on other days. The amount of fat that can be collected through this program will not supply all our needs for glycerine, but what we can contribute may one day

An editorial headline asks "Do poets die young?" Our private investigator informs us that unfortunately, the worst ones do not.

"What's it good for?" "Guns, tanks, and maybe part of a plane"

JUNK needed for War

In the barnyards and gullies of farms and in the basements and attics of homes is a lot of Junk which is doing no good where it is, but which is needed at once to help smash the Japs and Nazis. Scrap iron and steel, for example. Even in peacetime, scrap provided about 50% of the raw material for steel. It may be rusty, old "scrap" to you, but it is actually refined steel—with most impurities removed, and can be quickly melted with new metal in the form of pig iron to produce highest quality steel for our war machines. The production of steel has gone up, up, UP, until today America is turning out as much steel as all the rest of the world combined. But unless at least 6,000,000 additional tons of scrap steel is uncovered promptly, the full rate of production cannot be attained or increased; the necessary tanks, guns and ships cannot be produced. The rubber situation is also critical. In spite of the recent rubber drive, there is a continuing need for large quantities of scrap rubber. Also for other waste materials and metals like brass, copper, zinc, lead and tin. The Junk which you collect is bought by industry from scrap dealers at established, government-controlled prices. Will you help? First—collect all of your waste material and pile it up. Then—sell it to a Junk dealer, give it to a charity, take it yourself to the nearest collection point, or get in touch with your Local Salvage Committee. If you live on a farm, consult your County War Board or your farm implement dealer. Throw YOUR scrap into the fight!
