

Med School, Hospital May Boost Area Economy

By KIM COBB
Avalanche-Journal Staff
Health Sciences Center Hospital is admittedly a financial nightmare — but Texas Tech medical school officials think understanding its economic impact on the city may make the trouble easier to stomach.

If projections hold true, the hospital and medical school will have pumped more than $630 million in real dollars into the area economy from 1971 to 1985.

Workers in the planning office for Health Sciences Centers (the Tech medical school and other programs) have projected the multi-million dollar figure as the amount they believe will be injected into the Lubbock economy through new construction, program operations and expenditures by health professionals and students.

"It's a conservative estimate," Sam Richards, associate vice president for Health Sciences Centers contends. Money usually changes hands many times before moving out of a community, he said, which multiplies the original cash estimate even more.

If, as Richards predicts, the original cash figure changes hands three times before leaving Lubbock, the amount circulated would be about $1.9 billion. And if the money circulates seven times — as Chamber of Commerce estimates often predict — the circulation figure grows to more than $4 billion.

"The community looks at the hospital as 'Oh, that impossible situation — There goes my tax dollar,'" Richards said. The average observer doesn't realize the economic benefits associated with a facility of that size, he said.

The projections are based on actual figures from the first state appropriations in 1971 through the present — as well as predictions of future growth through 1985.

However, the projections through 1985 include the addition of three health professional schools — including the stymied school of nursing. Texas Governor Bill Clements recently vetoed the allocation of funds which would have started the school, and Health Sciences officials aren't sure when the program will become a reality.

And Health Sciences Center Hospital, in light of its continuing financial problems, is cutting back staff to save money, reducing the number of employees able to spend their money in Lubbock.

"We view that as temporary," Richards said. He and the planning office staff are anticipating that growth within the medical school will pick up the slack created by the teaching hospital's financial quagmire.

The projection, completed in late July, includes eight points on the economic impact:

— The projection from 1971 through 1985 is based on new construction, operations and individual expenditures.

— As of July, approximately 1,500 personnel were employed in the entire TTUHS and HSCH operation which, added to their families, accounted for about 4,500 citizens in Lubbock — about two percent of the current population.

— In 1985, projections indicate the combined facilities will employ about 2,600 people, accounting for about 7,800 people when added to their families —

Gold Skyrockets To Record $375

A-J News Services
LONDON — The price of gold continued its relentless surge today, jumping more than $22 per troy ounce and hitting an all-time high of $375.75 a troy ounce at mid-day on the London bullion market. The noon price in Zurich was $373.50.

"Dealing has been a nightmare. We haven't stopped taking orders since we arrived this morning," a dealer for bullion brokers Johnson Matthey said in London.

"Buying from the United States, Far East and the Continent started the ball rolling for new highs for gold when the market opened this morning. Some market men thought a lot of the buying was on behalf of the Arabs," another gold expert said.

"People who were worrying about the weak dollar are now doing the same for the pound and other currencies, and are moving into gold as a safe haven," a leading banker said.

Although there is buying from all over the world there is no doubt that the price is being pushed up by the growing OPEC revenue surpluses following the latest price increases, gold experts said.

"Demand for gold has been strong with no pause," a dealer for bullion brokers Samuel Montagu said.

"It seems only a short time back we were hoping for gold to break the $300 barrier. Today market men are suggesting $380," a dealer for bullion dealers Mocatta and Goldsmid said.

Gold has now jumped by more than 21 percent in the past month.

"Really with the state of the market at the moment, its anyone's guess what's going to happen or which way the price is going to go. Anyone who does is a fool," a leading economist said.

Sterling opened today at $2.1525, up a tad from Monday's close of $2.1515 but well below its highs of the last two months. At the end of July sterling reached a four-year high against the dollar of $2.3295.

Elsewhere in Europe, the dollar opened slightly lower on quiet money markets. In Paris, it dropped to 4.2285 francs from 4.2320 Monday, in Brussels it was 30.2250 Belgian francs from 30.27, and in Zurich 1.63015 Swiss francs from 1.63085.

Gold has gained $50 an ounce over the past two weeks as the Arab oil countries, European banks and speculators convert large cash holdings into precious metal as a hedge against inflation.

One analyst attributed today's jump to purchases by traders who had contracted to sell gold in the belief that the price would drop, and now must buy up quantities at higher prices if they are to stay in the volatile market.

But he also noted a price push from new investors willing to gamble that the gold price will go still higher.

Observers have recently warned that the big money interests could pull out of gold just as quickly as they entered the market, and this would produce a violent downturn amid a scramble of selling.

The price of gold has risen more than $160 an ounce in the past year and is up from $35 in 1967.

House Gets Chance To Vote For Raise

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Rules Committee voted today to give the full House another chance at raising the $57,500 annual salary of members of Congress. But it limited the options to a 7 percent or a 5.5 percent raise.

The committee's voice vote sets up a House showdown on the issue later this week, possibly as early as Wednesday.

The panel, which serves as kind of a legislative traffic cop deciding what bills get to the floor and what kind of amendments can be considered, first rejected a move that would have also permitted a freeze on congressional salaries.

Pay-raise opponents then vowed to fight both the 7 percent pay proposal and the 5.5 percent one on the House floor.

"We have no other choice," Rep.

George M. O'Brien, R-Ill., a pay-raise foe, said after the vote.

"When it comes to the floor, first I'll fight against the 7 percent increase, then if that is defeated, I'll wage my battle against the 5.5 percent pay hike," he said. "If that is defeated too, then there'll be no pay hike. And I think we've got a good chance of beating it."

Existing law provides for an automatic 12.9 percent pay increase for members of Congress and other highly paid federal officials on Oct. 1.

House rejection of both the 7 percent hike and the 5.5 percent hike proposals would technically leave the 12.9 percent increase intact.

Deluges Bring Flood Threat

A-J News Services
Light rain fell over the South Plains Monday night and early today, and heavy rain in South Texas caused the issuance of a flash flood watch along the coast.

In the Gulf of Mexico, Hurricane Henri was downgraded to a tropical storm as it wandered toward the port city of Tampico in northeastern Mexico. Winds in the storm were estimated at 65 mph.

Forecasters said there is a 20-percent probability of rain today and tonight as the South Plains sky remained cloudy this morning.

Area rain totals ranged from a trace at several towns to .07 inch at Spur and Olton.

Lubbock had an official .01.

Flash flood watches were issued along the coastal plains of Texas after Brownsville had 3.68 inches overnight, Beaumont 2.21 and Galveston 1.43.

The Lubbock area forecast calls for considerable cloudiness today and partly cloudy skies Wednesday.

Temperatures will be in the high 70s today, mid-50s tonight and mid-70s Wednesday, weathermen said.

South Plains readings early this morning were mainly in the low 60s and upper 50s. Lubbock's overnight low was 58 degrees after a Monday afternoon high of 77.

Winds will be light and variable today and tonight.

The West Texas extended forecast calls for considerable cloudiness with minor day-to-day temperature changes Thursday through Saturday. Daytime readings will be in the 70s except in the far southern part of the region, where it will warm into the low 80s during the day.

National Weather Service radar indicated widely scattered showers over the southern South Plains at 8:30 a.m. today. The showers generally were north of a Midland-to-Abilene line.

The entire state was cloudy at dawn today, except for a patch of fair sky from North Central to Southwest Texas east of the Pecos River, weathermen reported.

Pre-dawn temperatures ranged from the 70s in South Texas to the 60s in West Texas.

Wichita Falls had an early morning low of 57.

Elsewhere in the nation, scattered showers soaked the South and Southwest today, and California sweltered in a heat wave while parts of the Northeast got a preview of autumn temperatures.

Forecasters said California temperatures were expected to top 100 today, while in upstate New York highs were expected in the upper 60s and low 70s.

Rangers Protect Macho Image
DALLAS (AP) — The director of the Texas Rangers says he does not want a woman law enforcement officer.

"I don't want a woman — sorry," Senior Capt. W.D. Wilson said at a session of the 86th annual conference of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

"Can you imagine the heat I'd get if a woman was working with West Texas sheriffs in their 60s?" Wilson asked. "And my biggest backers, as much as the men, are their wives. There are no triangles in the Rangers. Fool around and you lose your job. The wives appreciate that."

Wages Lose To Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The personal income of Americans rose a scant 0.4 percent in August, as recession-related factory layoffs cut deeply into workers' payrolls, the Commerce Department reported today.

August's increase was the smallest since January, a Commerce Department official said. It was far from enough to keep up with the persistent impact of inflation, which has been rising at about 1 percent a month.

The Commerce Department said total personal income including factory wages, farm income, rents, interest and dividends rose $8.4 billion last month from $1,929.7 billion to $1,938.1 billion.

Total personal income in July had increased by $24.5 billion, the Commerce Department said, but even that relatively large increase was deceptive, since it was due largely to annual cost-of-living adjustments in Social Security payments.

A Commerce Department spokesman, who asked not to be named, said August's personal income figures provide clear proof of the developing recession.

The payrolls of all commodity-producing workers, for example, declined by 0.3 percent, or $1.4 billion in August, the first drop since April. It had increased $3.1 billion in July.

The payrolls of manufacturing workers fell 0.5 percent, the Commerce Department said. That was the largest drop since a 1.4 percent decline in February 1975, during the last recession.

"Declines in employment and average weekly hours more than offset a small increase in average hourly earnings," the department said.

The August decline was felt particularly hard in the durable goods industries including motor vehicles, electrical and nonelectrical machinery and fabricated metals.

Earlier, the government had reported that industrial production in August declined 1.1 percent, while factory operations dropped 1.3 percent.

Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety through an often turbulent 11 years, announced his resignation today, saying he would leave the job Dec. 31.

Speir, 62, had a controversial reign, largely because the DPS compiled dossiers on legislators and citizens never accused of crimes.

Speir said he would retire at the end of this year, after more than 43 years of public service. Speir was named director of the department on June 1, 1962.

Speir To Leave Top DPS Post

DALLAS (UPI) — Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety through an often turbulent 11 years, announced his resignation today, saying he would leave the job Dec. 31.

Speir, 62, had a controversial reign, largely because the DPS compiled dossiers on legislators and citizens never accused of crimes.

Speir said he would retire at the end of this year, after more than 43 years of public service. Speir was named director of the department on June 1, 1962.

"It was a very difficult decision to make," said Speir. But he said "I felt the time had come to retire. Certainly I have mixed emotions....

Speir spoke at a Dallas news conference and noted he would also be stepping down as president of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Speir, a former school teacher, came under fire in recent years for alleged abuses in the DPS' narcotics department and spying on civilians by his intelligence agents.

Several legislators and civil liberties groups demanded Speir's resignation following a 1975 Senate investigation which found the DPS had maintained "countless" intelligence files on private citizens "who were not even remotely connected with criminal activities."

The investigation began after it was disclosed that DPS intelligence agent David Dumick compiled a dossier on an airline pilot who opposed a nuclear power plant in Texas and turned it over to the pilot's employer.

Because of poor attendance by some board members at regular meetings, the bylaws stipulate that members who have two unexcused absences automatically will be dropped from the board.

Council member Ray Chapman questioned the present method of giving notice of impending meetings, saying he missed two meetings because he wasn't informed they were going to be held.

Council Secretary Becky Mahan said notices will be sent to each board member in case special meetings are called.

Montford Lauds Identification Program

By JEFF McCASLIN
Avalanche-Journal Staff
Calling Operation Identification the "most worthwhile investment of our time," Criminal District Attorney John T. Montford told members of the Lubbock County Crime Prevention Council this morning that the program needs to be targeted for high crime rate areas in the city.

Montford, who said one of the problems being encountered with Operation Identification is that it is taking a lot of time, pointed to a redirection of the program to areas of the city where there's a high incidence of burglaries.

"After reading through offense reports for the past eight months, I found that we need to get people who live in these areas (of high crime rate) to mark their valuables first," he said.

Montford also said that the council has gone "a long way toward liquidation of debts" and that response to pleas for financial backing has been encouraging.

In a reorganization move, the council adopted a new set of bylaws which specifically state the purpose of the LCCPC, method of electing officers, greater responsibilities for the executive board, designated rules for the acceptance and disbursement of funds and changes in the regular meetings.

The LCCPC will meet as a full board of directors the third Tuesday of each month, with a special annual meeting to comply with guidelines of non-profit organizations and to elect officers.

The council also amended the bylaws to include the names of the standing committees, which are Operation Identification and Neighborhood Watch; public education, which includes the drug abuse and public schools subcommittees; senior citizens; business crimes, juvenile offenders; and funding and finance.

LCCPC President Frank McGlaun said he wanted the bylaws to provide for a speakers' bureau. "We need a good, strong speakers' bureau if we're going to educate the citizens of Lubbock about crime prevention."

McGlaun also noted that the council will get strong guidance from the executive board, which includes the officers of the board of directors, and that the executive board will be the nucleus of the LCCPC.

Raises Campaign Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bess Myerson, a former Miss America considered a political plus to many New York state campaigns in recent years, has raised $200,000 for a possible U.S. Senate campaign, sources say.

Miss Myerson, who won the beauty crown in 1945, has not announced her candidacy or filed with the Federal Election Commission. However, the New York Daily News columnist confirmed she has been personally involved in fund-raising for the 1980 race.

Miss Myerson said her lawyers had advised her that potential candidates who are just "testing the waters" are not required to report their activities to the FEC.

Democratic politicians for whom she has worked, including New York City Mayor Edward Koch, Gov. Hugh Carey and Sen. Daniel Moynihan, credit her with being a highly effective campaigner.

Miss Myerson said if she did become a candidate for Sen. Jacob Javits' seat, it would be "inappropriate" to continue her column. Javits, 75, has not said whether he will seek another term.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Erik Estrada was back in a hospital bed, but this time it was make believe.

Returning to the "CHiPs" television show set Monday for the first time since his Aug. 6 motorcycle accident, Estrada was immediately laid up in his role as California Highway Patrol Officer Frank Poncharella, who suffers a similar accident in the series.

"I feel good — better than I did at the Emmys," said Estrada, who made his first public appearance since the accident at the annual awards show Sept. 9.

Estrada broke eight ribs, his collarbone, his sternum and his wrist when his motorcycle skidded out from under him and he crashed into a parked car. The accident hospitalized him for 10 days, and he is still recuperating.

Prince Turns Author

LONDON (AP) — Four pages of an unknown fairytale entitled "The Old Man of Lochnagar" went on display at Windsor Castle in a fund-raising exposition, and the author turned out to be none other than Prince Charles.

"Not all that long ago," the prince's story begins, "when children were even smaller and people had especially hairy knees, there lived an old man of Lochnagar."

The heir to the British throne wrote the tale for his younger brothers, Andrew and Edward.

Sir Hugh Casson, President of the Royal Academy and a friend of the royal family, said Charles wrote the story 10 years ago on the royal yacht Britannia but did not finish it, "probably because he ran out of time and the children grew up..."

A Buckingham Palace spokeswoman said the story was "a family thing," and will not be submitted to a publisher.

Tennis 'Must' For Johnny

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — A heated pool would be nice, but a tennis court is a must for the home Johnny Carson will rent for five days while he performs at the Chateau de Ville here next month.

Clover Associates of Framingham said Carson will pay $1,000 rent for five days, provided the house is on an acre of land, has luxurious furnishings, has four or more bedrooms and three or more bathrooms, and is within 30 minutes of Framingham.

Advertisements seeking the house, which appeared in local newspapers over the weekend, did not mention Carson by name, but Clover broker Lucille Leaman said she's sure those who have answered the advertisement know who it is. "They can put two and two together."

Carson's West Coast booking agent, Stan Irwin, said Carson always chooses a private home for his outside appearances to avoid crowds and lines in hotel lobbies.

Carson is scheduled to appear at the club Oct. 12-14.

Surviving Octuplets Gaining Strength

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — A month after their birth, the two surviving Naples octuplets both weigh over 2 pounds and are gaining strength daily, a hospital spokesman said.

But physicians at the San Paolo Hospital here continued to express caution over the possibility of survival of Anna and Silvana, born two months prematurely to Mrs. and Mrs. Stefano Chiamese on Aug. 16.

Anna reached 2.2 pounds on Monday, and has overcome intestinal problems, said Dr. Igo de Bellis, chief of the hospital's pediatric ward. Silvana now weighs just over 2 pounds, 5 ounces, he said.

Their 29-year-old mother, Pasqualina, had taken fertility drugs. One of the octuplets died 10 hours after birth, four others within five days of birth and the sixth two weeks after birth.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL:

Rhetoric Meets Reality

THE FLIGHT of manufacturing firms from the industrialized states of the North to the Sun Belt states of the South and West may be neither as extensive nor as runous as some critics of this practice have maintained.
But legislative "remedies" proposed for the situation would do more economic harm than good, according to Clemson University economics professor Richard B. McKenzie.

Well, I, too, hope I am not narrow-minded. But if being against the spending of federal tax dollars to help propagandize in favor of the legalization of prostitution constitutes narrow-mindedness, then I must plead guilty.

Healthy Snacks Develop Good Eating Habits

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

At last! The children are back in school.

Now another problem looms: What to feed the growing youngsters — for breakfasts, after-school snacks and easy suppers.

Many youngsters who refuse to eat eggs or cereal will down a tasty drink in the morning. So, put the blender to work by whipping up combinations of fruit and milk for their breakfasts.

You may add wheat germ, yogurt or even ice cream to entice them. After all, any breakfast is better than none to launch an active day of school and play. Of course, the drinks are also good after school.

If you're watching diets, you can prepare the drinks with skim milk and low-fat yogurt.

Another treat is stuffed pocket bread. This handy style of sandwich from the Middle East has recently been adopted by Americans.

You can fill the bread with almost any combination of meats, cheeses, fruits or vegetables to eat hot or cold.

Don't forget the snacks. Nutritionists advise that carbohydrates — even sweets within reason — are essential to healthy growth.

It's a wise parent who keeps the refrigerator stocked with fresh fruits and vegetables. When readily available, these healthy snacks quickly become part of children's eating habits; that means they will consume less candy and soda pop.

PEACHY GRAPEFRUIT

1 cup grapefruit juice, chilled
1/3 cup diced peaches with syrup
Combine ingredients in blender. Whirl at top speed until smooth. Serve sprinkled with nutmeg. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 1 serving.

GRAPEFRUIT FRUIT DRINK

1 cup grapefruit juice, chilled
4 water-pack apricot halves, drained
4 fresh hulled strawberries
1/4 large ripe banana
1/4 cup unsweetened pineapple chunks
Combine all ingredients in blender. Whirl until smooth. Pour into glasses and serve at once. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 2 servings.

BERRY PINK FIZZ

4 cups cranberry juice cocktail
1 (10-oz.) pkg. frozen strawberries
1 pint orange sherbet
Halved orange slices
In blender container, combine cranberry juice, strawberries and sherbet. Whirl at top speed until smooth. Pour into glasses and serve at once. Garnish, if desired, with orange slices. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 servings.
(If blender container holds only 1 quart, make half of recipe at a time.)

CRANBERRY GRAPE TEASER

1 cup grape-cranberry drink or cranberry juice cocktail
Strip of lemon peel
1 tsp. vanilla
Dash ground cloves
Combine all ingredients. Serve cold with ice cubes or heat in saucepan until bubbly. Pour into thermos and seal. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 1 serving.

STRAWBERRY SWIRL

2 cups skim milk
1 cup fresh or frozen strawberries
Combine ingredients in blender container. Blend until smooth. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 3 cups (2 servings).

WHEAT—GERM POCKET BREAD

2 pkgs. active dry yeast
1 1/2 cups warm water (105 to 115 degrees)
1 tsp. sugar
1/2 cup vacuum-packed wheat germ, regular
1 1/2 tsp. salt
Cooking oil
2 1/2-3 cups flour
Sesame seeds (optional)
In large bowl, mix yeast with water until dissolved. Stir in sugar. Let stand 5 minutes.
Add wheat germ, salt and 1 1/2 teaspoons oil. Beat in enough flour with wooden spoon to make soft dough that leaves sides of bowl. Turn out onto lightly floured surface.

Knead about 5 minutes until smooth and elastic. Cut into 10 equal pieces. Shape each portion into smooth ball. Flatten slightly, then roll into 5 1/2 to 6-inch rounds. Sprinkle with additional wheat germ and sesame seeds before rolling if desired.

Place rounds on greased and floured baking sheet. Brush lightly with oil. Do not cover. Let rise in warm, draft-free place until puffy, 1 to 1 1/2 hours.
Bake in 475-degree oven 5 to 7 minutes or until bottoms are golden. Remove from baking sheets and cool on rack. If rounds don't open completely, cut open with tip of sharp knife. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 10 rounds.

BEEF IN POCKET BREAD

4 pocket bread rounds, halved
1/2 lb. lean ground beef
1 med. onion, coarsely chopped
2 large cloves garlic, minced
2 tbsps. cooking oil
1 cup vacuum-packed wheat germ, regular
2 (8-oz.) cartons plain yogurt
1 1/2 tps. dried mint leaves, crushed
1 tsp. oregano leaves, crushed
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup minced parsley

Wife Of Music Mogul Becomes Actress

By REBECCA MOREHOUSE
Women's News Service

NEW YORK (WNS) — Lorraine Gary is a serious, if sometimes frustrated, actress. "People think of me as the bimbo who married the mogul," she said in a tone more bemused than bitter. "I married a student who became a lawyer — he was the lowest-paid lawyer at Universal. I got Sid into the business."

Sidney J. Sheinberg is easily a mogul. He is president and chief operation officer of Music Corporation of America, the octopus of the entertainment world. Within its capacious grasp are Universal Pictures, Universal Television, Universal Tours, MCA Records, Infinity Records and Spencer Gifts, a mail-order company.

"Sid and I were at Columbia when we met," she said. "Four years after we married I had two children, no money, and no career. When I realized I had all these commitments, I was so miserable I wanted to kill myself. I went into therapy."

Misery passes, as we know. Money ceased long ago to be a problem. The children are grown, and how? "My sons are beautiful Californians, both in college, both over 6 feet tall."

As an actress she is not yet box-office magic but she's getting there.

Her new movie is "Just You and Me, Kid," with George Burns and Brooke Shields. "George is the least-mean man I ever worked with," she said, instantly placing herself in jeopardy.

Would she care to name a mean actor she's worked with?

After a pause no longer than a beat, "Roy Scheider," she said. "A man with a small ego can be very dangerous."

She played Scheider's wife in "Jaws" and "Jaws II," both whopping money-makers for Universal. "Let's not talk about him, maybe I've said too much. I love George Burns, he's wonderful."

She acts Burns' meddling daughter in "Just You and Me, Kid," somehow making the role palatable. "Miss Gary is a much better sparring partner for Burns than Miss Shields is," applauded The New York Times. The movie's world premiere took place at Resorts International in Atlantic City.

"It's a shame how Atlantic City is developing, it's disgusting," Miss Gary said, leveling again. "The atmosphere of panic and desperation depressed me so. I won $125 in the casino and left. I'd rather go to Bloomingdale's — it's my favorite spot in the world. This was the first premiere of mine I've been to. I really felt like a movie star."

The movie, a mild comedy with a dash of melodrama, is a Columbia release. "Isn't it amazing that I was hired outside of Universal? I'm basically insecure, so I took a mental pill for the audition and became an adult. They were thinking of Elizabeth Taylor but I got it."

Blonde, with wide-spaced cheekbones and brown eyes, she is far better looking than the screen has thus far allowed to be. Give her Dietrich lighting and makeup and stand back! "I don't know how to deal with people who say I look better in real life than on the screen," she says.

She lives with her family in the old Spencer Tracy house in Beverly Hills. "I don't like to cook. I can do turkey and chili, that's it." She is so likable one wants to console her, cheer her on, as she talks of the troubles she has encountered in acting.

"I've studied and worked at acting for 30 years but people don't see me as a real actress. For the first time in my life I've hired a press agent. I've tried producing and writing. Acting is an illness. I know the odds are astronomical but I must act. It's my satisfaction."

"Sid didn't always understand how important it is to me but I think he does now. My fantasy is we'll live in a small town, he'll produce plays and I'll star in them."

Clip 'n' Cook

GRILLED SHORTRIBS

3 to 4 lbs. beef shortribs
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
1/2 cup prepared yellow mustard
1/2 cup orange marmalade
1 tsp. chili powder

Cover ribs with salted water in large pan. Simmer, covered, 1 to 1 1/2 hours or until tender, drain well. Stir together tomato sauce, mustard, marmalade and chili powder; brush over ribs. Grill over hot coals or broil 15 to 30 minutes, turning frequently and brushing with sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Specialist Details Needs Of Children

COLLEGE STATION (Special) — "Just enough" love is best for kids — rather than too little or too much, says Dorothy Taylor, a family life education specialist.

"Children who receive too little love feel rejected. Those who receive too much may suffer 'smother love' — and never be allowed to mature," she explains.

Children can be damaged by excessive — or insufficient — amounts of such essentials as affection, attention, stimulation and praise, the specialist cautions.

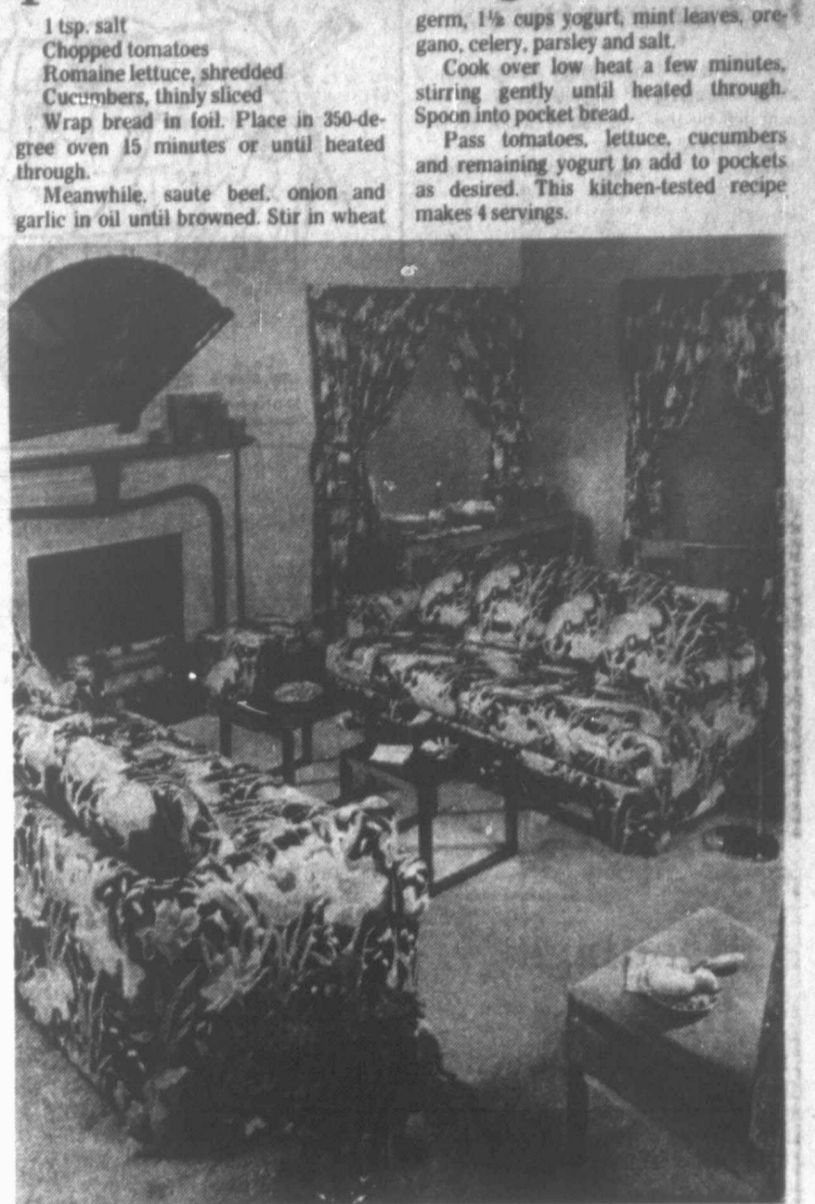

Different children require different amounts and expressions of love, so it's important for parents to know their children and their special needs, she says.

Some children respond to a hug, a kiss or other displays of affection. Other children feel better about a good grade, verbal praise or special privileges.

Praise and recognition are closely associated with feelings of love. Too little recognition may lead to feelings of inadequacy. When a child doesn't feel appreciated, he may become discouraged and develop a sense of futility or hopelessness.

On the other hand, an over-abundance of praise may create self-centeredness. Also, excessive praise can lose its meaning and lead to feelings of dishonesty or mistrust.

Finally, the most important fact to remember about love, affection, attention, stimulation and praise is to give it immediately to children. When the act or deed has long been forgotten, love and attention have no impact or real meaning, the specialist reminds.

ENEMIES TURNED FRIENDS — If you've been reading your decorating handbook, you'll know that large-scale patterns and contrasting colors are on the enemies list of small-sized rooms. But in the deft hands of designer Peter Culhane they become powerful positives. New apartment-sized sofas (77 inches long), covered in a large-scale naturalistic pattern are in a seafoam and rose quartz on a black background. A cool green wall color and sensuous coral carpeting help expand the space.

But this one thought stands, never goes —
If I might but be one of those born in the future: —
then, perhaps, to be born a woman will not be to be born branded.

Gold Prices Push Down Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Rising interest rates and gold prices combined today to drive down average prices.

You like football?

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks fell 5.12 to 876.19 during the first two hours of trading.

Six-month Treasury bills sold for a record yield of 10.315 percent Monday, and there were indications today that the Federal Reserve Board will push up interest rates again in an effort to stem inflation.

Oil issues were among those hit by the decline. Mobil fell 1/4 to 48 1/2, Gulf slipped 1/4 to 32 1/2, and Standard Oil of California was down 1/4 to 56 1/2.

Trans World Corp., the subject of takeover interest from Texas International Airlines, bucked the downturn and was up 1/4 to 27 1/2 as the most actively traded issue on the Big Board.

AT&T slipped 1/4 to 55 1/2 as the Federal Communications Commission rejected the giant utility's request for an immediate increase in authorized profit margins.

The NYSE's index of more than 1,500 common stocks fell 38 to 61.70 and the American Stock Exchange's market value index was down 1.45 to 222.42.

Big Board volume in the first two hours came to 17.52 million shares, up from the 17.27 million shares traded during the same period Monday.

2,000 Guests Expected To Attend Party

By GERRY BURTON
Avalanche-Journal Staff
A old-fashioned prairie party is expected to draw about 2,000 guests to the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center Friday for food and entertainment and to see Amarillo's Jay Littleton Taylor receive the second annual National Golden Spur Award.

Taylor, a national leader in the livestock industry for four decades, will receive the Steuben Glass-designed award. Seven of the nation's largest livestock associations sponsor the honor for an individual who has brought distinction and made significant contributions to the livestock or ranching industry.

The award party will begin at 6:30 p.m. Fiddle music, from the bow of Cecil Caldwell, and Charles Terry's 'Badlands Band' will provide the music while party participants dine on steak.

The Ft. Griffin Fandangle Sampler will bring song and dance from days gone by. The group from Albany has been staging outdoor musicals since 1938, and has performed at the LBJ Ranch and in Europe.

Watt Matthews and members of his family have been in each Fandangle production over the years. Matthews maintains a herd of Spanish mules, buffalo and Texas longhorns for use in the 'pageant' which attracts about 10,000 each year to Albany.

Matthews had a key role in developing the Ranching Heritage Center at Texas Tech. His longhorns and the Fandangle Sampler are familiar sights to annual Ranch Day visitors to the 12-acre outdoor museum.

He used his influence and time re-searching the structures and historic ranches for the museum, and, when funds were non-existent and work on reconstruction about to come to a halt, a cash donation from Matthews kept hammers going.

As a bi-centennial dedication loomed and the museum was without a barn, he arranged for the Reynolds-Gentry barn to be moved to the site at his expense.

Currently, the honorary chairman of the Ranching Heritage Association's board of overseers is taking the lead in a fund drive to build the D. Burns barbecue pavilion.

Couple Provides Home For Old Animals

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Mae and Bob Noell run a retirement home for the old, homeless and decrepit. They take in fat, washed-up actors, maimed dancers and sickly orphans.

There's a 900-pound Alaskan brown bear who got too old to keep in step for circus performances and an 80-year-old alligator with a growth on his tail. He was too ugly for a zoo to keep on display.

Then there's Mike, a fat ape who, at the equivalent of 60 years in human age, is too old to swing on the vine. And nearby is Tommy, a 575-pound gorilla the Noells nursed from a sickly 13 pounds.

The couple has more than 30 creatures — three gorillas, a bear, the 'gator, some orangutans, apes, chimps and monkeys with fingers bitten off in fights.

The Noells have been giving homes to primates with problems for years. Their chimp farm actually started in 1954 as winter quarters for their own show monkeys.

"We ran a circus side show 40 years ago," says Mrs. Noell, 65. Noell, 68, and his wife traveled all over the country with 11 chimps until 1971.

"Most of the chimps were growing old," she says. "We felt we owed them something. After all, they did a lot for us."

So, when they retired, the Noells turned their chimp farm into a retirement home.

Group Protests Tokyo Airport

NARITA, Japan (AP) — Some 10,000 opponents of Tokyo's troubled Narita International Airport rallied and marched near the facility under the scrutiny of 8,000 police equipped with riot gear. There was no violence and airport operations continued.

Waving flags and shouting slogans, the demonstrators snake-danced through a nearby village Sunday. Later, some of them set fire to tires at the end of a runway and launched balloons in an attempt to disrupt flights.

Narita first became a controversial issue when farmers protested the government's decision to acquire their land for the airport, 41 miles northeast of Tokyo. Environmentalists, students and anti-government radicals took up the cause and prevented the airport's opening for 11 years. The airport finally opened in May 1978.

Most Parents Control Child's TV Viewing

NEW YORK (AP) — A majority of American parents feel it is their responsibility to control what their children watch on television, a Redbook magazine shows.

In the survey of more than 6,000 mothers of children under 12 years of age, 98 percent said they control what their children watch. The survey also showed 22 percent of the parents favor a proposal to ban commercials aimed at children 8 years old or younger, while 68 percent favor a ban on commercials touting highly sugared foods.

Agriculture Department Raises Estimates Of Farm Crop Stocks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The latest monthly report of American crops forced the Agriculture Department recently to raise its estimates of cotton, soybeans and feed grain stocks which will be on hand at the end of the 1979-1980 season.

Larger stocks of the crops are likely to push down prices received by farmers.

A crop report released last week indicated that U.S. Farmers are expected to produce a record 285 million tons of food and feed grains, up 5 million tons from an August estimate and 12 million tons above last year's record.

In a supply and demand report, the Agriculture Department predicted that cotton stocks on Aug. 1, 1980, the beginning of the next cotton marketing year, could reach 6.1 million bales, compared to 4 million bales a month ago.

It would be the "highest since the late 1960s," the report said. The Agriculture Department is prohibited by law from forecasting how that will affect cotton prices.

The cotton crop is forecast at 14.2 million bales, up 4 percent from the August estimate and 31 percent above last year.

As a consequence of a projected soybean crop of 2.17 billion bushels, up 2 percent from last month and up 18 percent from last year, the Agriculture Department predicted 330 million bushels in stocks would be on hand Sept. 1, 1980, the beginning of the next soybean marketing year.

That is up from a 290-million-bushel estimate issued last month and a little more than twice the level of stocks this past Sept. 1 and a year earlier.

Soybean prices are expected to range between $5.75 and $6.50 a bushel, compared to an average of $6.75 for the just completed marketing year.

With an estimate of a record corn crop boosted 2 percent to 7.27 billion bushels, the Agriculture Department predicted that corn carryover stocks on Oct. 1, 1980 would be 1.07 billion bushels, 100 million bushels larger than last month's estimate.

But the stocks are expected to be nearly 200 million bushels below the level expected this coming Oct. 1.

The Agriculture Department predicted corn prices would range between $2.40 and $2.70 a bushel, slightly below last month's forecast.

The September estimate of the wheat crop fell slightly to 2.12 billion bushels. Wheat carryover stocks on June 1, 1980 were estimated at about 782 million bushels, down 19 million bushels from a month earlier.

The forecast would be 15 percent below a year earlier.

The Agriculture Department predicted wheat prices would average between $3.60 and $3.90 a bushel, compared to a previous forecast of $3.50 to $4.25 a bushel.

MARMADUKE by Brad Anderson Problems Arise Over Pope's Planned Visit

"Tell the boss I'll be a little late getting to work this morning!"

By The Associated Press
As New York priests puzzled over how to distribute tickets to Pope John Paul II's appearances there, Boston and Philadelphia officials found themselves in the middle of debates over who should pay for papal Masses in those cities.

Philadelphia officials announced last week that some $775,000 in public funds will be spent on the pope's visit next month, including $75,065 on a platform from which the pope will celebrate a Mass on Oct. 3.

Mayor Frank Rizzo, a Roman Catholic, emphasized that the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will supply all the religious accoutrements, including an altar and throne, for the circular platform.

But the American Civil Liberties Union has threatened to sue the city on the grounds that spending public funds on the platform violates the constitutional separation of church and state.

"The issue is not the structure, but what is being done on the structure," said Hilda Silverman, the local ACLU's executive director. "It's a Mass that's being said. It's a sectarian religious service directed toward Catholics. It would be different if the pope was going to stand on the platform as a head of state and speak to the people of Philadelphia."

City Solicitor Sheldon Albert said the city would go ahead with the platform. He said he told the ACLU that the city was building a platform as it would for any other head of state.

Boston Mayor Kevin H. White included $150,000 in a special budget to pay for a similar platform for the pope's visit there, but a spokesman said last week the issue is under discussion because of threatened suits if municipal funds go for religious purposes.

A fellow Pole, national security adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski, will be on hand to greet the pope when he arrives in Boston on Oct. 1, the Boston Herald American reported today.

However, the president of the Boston Archdiocesan Sisters' Senate, which represents 41 religious orders in the Boston area, says she will boycott the papal Mass on Boston Common.

Sister Frances Froelich of the Sisters of Providence said many nuns are irritated by the pope's announcement that women could not participate in distributing communion waters.

Women and nonordained men have been permitted since 1973 to help distribute communion as "special ministers of the Eucharist." An estimated 2,000 to 2,400 women now serve as special ministers in the Boston archdiocese.

In New York City, where the pope is to spend Oct. 2, each of the 400 parishes in the Roman Catholic Archdiocese has been guaranteed at least 10 tickets to the Mass the pope will celebrate at Yankee Stadium. And many priests are puzzled over how to distribute them.

"You have to be a Solomon to pick out the 25 parishioners who are the most worthy," said the Rev. John Foley of Christ the King Church in Yonkers.

Gee, Teddy, you don't look a day over sixty!

When Morris Michtom, a Brooklyn candy store operator, saw a cartoon in 1902 drawn by Clifford Berryman, Washington Star cartoonist, an American tradition began. The cartoon was a spoof on a story about Theodore Roosevelt saving a bear cub's life. Morris, inspired by the cute little drawing, hand constructed a simple brown stuffed bear and dubbed it "Teddy". The rest is history...

Teddy became world famous and the original Teddy is now on display at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C.

Teddy's fame goes on today, even though he's approaching eighty. So, it's not unexpected that the image of Teddy appears in many forms at Hemphills. Rose of New Orleans has created an entire collection of children's jewelry with fearless Teddy clutching the chains and belts as a handsome gold tone sculpture. Trudy Toys has produced replicas of the original Teddy in a Momma, Pappa and Baby version, and Teddy's relatives are everywhere in our toy department at South Plains Mall. Join us tomorrow and share a piece of Teddy's cake.

The last time the Texas Tech football team made a television appearance, Steve Sloan was the Raiders head coach, Jimmy Carter was still doing well in the polls and the only crisis on the Tech campus involved alcohol — not gasoline.

That was late in 1977 when the Texas Tech-Arizona clash here was regionally televised by ABC on Nov. 24, and again on Dec. 23 in Orlando, Fla., when the Raiders met Florida State in the Tangerine Bowl in a game that was seen via the Mizlou network.

Now Rex Dockery and the Red Raiders will make their first appearance on the tube since that ill-fated Tangerine Bowl (Tech lost 40-17) Saturday in Tucson against the University of Arizona.

The game will be telecast regionally by ABC in Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and parts of Utah and Colorado. The pre-game show begins at 12:30 p.m. with the kickoff slated for 1 p.m. (CDT).

It may not be The Tonight Show, but Rex Dockery is plenty excited about his team's television debut.

"It is important for our team to be on television for a number of reasons," said Dockery, Monday. "First of all, it gives our players' parents a chance to see them on TV and it also helps us in our recruiting."

But Dockery also figured that the rare television appearance for Tech would give the Raiders a slight mental boost.

"It should make our team work a little harder," said Dockery. "This will give us a chance to show what kind of team we have."

Tech has been on television 28 times since its first appearance in 1954. Seventeen of those have been regional telecasts and 11 national, but the last time the Raiders won on the tube was in 1975 when they defeated Baylor 33-10.

In fact, the Raiders haven't been overwhelming on TV. Tech's overall record is 10-16-2.

And the Raiders will have their hands full once again Saturday. Arizona is 2-1 for the year after dropping a heart-breaking 10-7 decision to California on Saturday.

"Their (Arizona's) offensive line is very big," said Dockery. "They are a whole lot stronger inside than they have been. Defensively, they are also very big."

"It should be a close, exciting game."

But Dockery's biggest concern isn't putting on an exciting show for the television viewers — it's something much more important.

After two games, Tech still lacks a passing attack.

"We've got to do better (passing) this week," said Dockery. "Sometimes that just takes a little longer to come around. I'm hoping that's the case — we need some success in the passing game."

In two games, quarterback Ron Reeves has thrown the ball 26 times and completed only nine. An even bigger concern is that the opposition has already intercepted the sophomore six times.

Last year Reeves gave up only nine interceptions in 10 games. But last season, Reeves was throwing the ball in the direction of veteran receivers Godfrey Turner and Brian Nelson.

"You have to remember," said Dockery, "that the entire strong side of our offensive line is new. And we've also got new wide receivers."

"Our defense did very well against New Mexico," added the coach. "Offensively, we've just got to do a better job of execution. We really made some errors on critical downs — that's where we need to improve."

And Raider fans will be able to judge Saturday how much the Tech offense has improved — courtesy of ABC.

Lady Raiders Get New Track Coach

Jarvis Scott has been named new women's track and field/cross-country coach at Texas Tech. Athletic Director Jeannine McHaney has announced.

She replaces Beta Little, who resigned this summer.

Miss Scott, 32, finished sixth in the 400-meter dash at the 1968 Olympics, and has competed in a multitude of international meets.

Mustang QB To Seek Added Year Of Play

By United Press International

He has plenty of time to change his mind. But at the moment quarterback Mike Ford thinks he will stick around SMU for an extra year.

Ford, SMU's junior quarterback, suffered a season-ending knee injury against TCU last Saturday night, but because the injury came so early in the year he is eligible to apply for a "hardship" grant from the Southwest Conference.

Under SWC bylaws, an athlete who has played in no more than 20 percent of the season before his injury can be granted an extra year of eligibility. The conference grants the extra year almost automatically if a school requests it.

"We certainly plan to petition the SWC for a hardship ruling," SMU coach Ron Meyer said Monday. "We want to talk it over with Mike some more and we want to talk it over with his parents. But today, when I talked to him in the hospital, he told me that it was his intention to stay for an extra year."

If Ford does carry through with that plan, he would play for the Mustangs in the 1980 and 1981 seasons. His alternative would be to skip the 1981 season and become eligible for the professional draft that year.

"I've never known any of those (hardship) votes to be anything other than 8-0-1," a SWC spokesman said. "The school with the petition abstains in the voting."

Ford was injured late in the first half and Meyer, after looking at films of the game, said the tackle that put Ford out for the year was not a particularly hard hit.

"It certainly wasn't malicious," said Meyer. "Mike had scrambled out of the pocket and one of the TCU tackles was pursuing him. After Mike threw the pass the defender lunged and did not even hit him with a hard blow. Mike was hit on the upper part of the thigh and his leg just happened to be planted the right way."

Ford will be replaced by sophomore Jim Bob Taylor, who paced the Mustangs to their 27-7 win over TCU.

"Taylor is a very underrated quarterback," said Ford. "I think he can throw the ball better than a lot of people give him credit for."

Elsewhere around the league Monday, Texas Tech coach Rex Dockery announced sophomore Mark Olbert will start at tailback next Saturday against Arizona in place of Mark Johnson. Johnson injured an ankle during the Red Raiders' 17-7 victory over New Mexico.

TCU coach F. A. Dry, meanwhile, had high praise for his defensive unit, which had a good game in the Horned Frogs' season opener against SMU.

"That was as hard as a defensive team has played since I've been at TCU," said Dry. "Our offense, though, developed a few new plays and a couple of new formations which the coaches didn't know anything about."

Steve Stamp (the Frogs quarterback) is the type of youngster who feels he has to do a lot of things that he didn't have to do to help us win. He was a little too excited. But he's going to be a good quarterback. I'm not worried about him."

The First One

IT WAS ALMOST suppertime Monday, but Jerry Don Sanders wasn't thinking about a taco or a plate of enchiladas.

Sanders' football Chaparrals had their first victory ever, and it could have come earlier than many had expected. But, that Saturday afternoon triumph didn't bring Sanders making any boastful predictions. What it did bring was a mental satisfaction which he hopes extends well beyond the post-game party.

After two lopsided losses, Lubbock Christian College posted a lopsided win of its own. The 47-0 whumping of the team from Monterrey, Mexico, possibly taught Sanders' Chaparrals more lessons than they learned in the two defeats.

It brought a touch of confidence to the team; Sanders is confident of it.

"Now," Sanders observed Monday, "our guys feel like they can beat some people." And he elaborated: "Last week, we worked on this (mental) aspect. We had a team meeting, and I told them they must play with character. By that, I mean the character to believe in what we're doing and to have the self-discipline to stay with it."

Then, he contrasted the 47-0 win over the Mexicans with the 47-0 loss to Sul Ross just seven days earlier. "That game, we got behind early, we got frustrated, wanted to stop 'em, and the guys got away from what they had been coached to do."

"But now, they realize they can have success if they will play as a unit."

SANDERS pegged the Mexicans as in the same position against his Chaps as LCC was in its first games. "They weren't physically as strong as we were — I imagine every opponent we play rest of the way will be stronger than we are. But, I think this (win) taught our kids to continue to play hard and stay with what they're taught: Just fundamental football."

Sanders observed that LCC played on emotion in the game against McMurry, "and we could have been tied (0-0) at the half, except for a couple of breakdowns. We're going to have to play on emotion, but if we do, and can stay with teams for a half, then (he shrugged) we'll just see what happens in the last half."

AS PLEASED AS Sanders was with the win, he was more pleased with the effect

Bucs Assume NL East Top Spot

By The Associated Press
Before starting against Montreal, Pittsburgh's Don Robinson found an autographed picture of Expos slugger Tony Perez hanging from his locker with the inscription: "See you in September."

Philadelphia and I didn't pitch well," he said.
Houston, meanwhile, chopped Cincinnati's NL West lead with a 1-0 decision over San Diego while the Reds were losing 7-4 to San Francisco.

"But it's not the end of the world. We'll go back at them tomorrow."
Astros 1, Padres 0
Cesar Cedeno hit a ninth-inning sacrifice fly to give Joe Niekro his 19th victory of the year as Houston defeated San Diego.

Giants 7, Reds 4
Roger Metzger's two-run triple
Dodgers 9, Braves 4
Joe Ferguson hit two home runs and Steve Garvey and Dusty Baker had one apiece to lead Los Angeles over Atlanta as the Braves' Phil Niekro absorbed his 20th loss.

Oilers' Starting QB To Return

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oilers running back Earl Campbell says there's one difference in the quarterbacking abilities of starter Dan Pastorini and Gifford Nielsen — Pastorini shouts signals louder.

Phillies 7, Cardinals 5
Manny Trillo raced home from third on third baseman Ken Reitz' error with two out in the ninth inning and Garry Maddox followed with a run-scoring single as the Philadelphia Phillies rallied for three runs to beat St. Louis.

PROBLEMS — Kansas City Royals manager Whitey Herzog acts as if he carries the weight of the world on his shoulders, as he talks to reporters after Monday night's game. But, the Royals whipped the California Angels 16-4 and now trail the Angels by only two games in the American League West. (AP Laserphoto)

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

KC Slices Angels' Lead

By The Associated Press
If the Kansas City Royals have designs on their fourth straight American League West title, they're headed in the right direction.

Royals center fielder Amos Otis agreed.
"When we come out Tuesday, it's going to be 0-0," he said. "We had it tonight and they didn't."

Twins 10, White Sox 3
Minnesota scored five times in the fifth with the benefit of just one hit, a two-run triple by Bombo Rivera. A bases-loaded walk, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly knocked in the runs.

Orioles 2, Tigers 1
Scott McGregor outpitched Milt Wilcox while Al Bumbry and Ken Singleton homered for the Orioles. McGregor, 12-5, gave up eight hits and the Tigers got their run in the ninth on Lynn Jones' sacrifice fly.

Brewers 7, Mariners 6
Paul Molitor belted a three-run homer with one out in the ninth to boost Milwaukee to victory. A five-run fifth for Seattle had given the Mariners a 6-2 lead, but Gorman Thomas' two-run single in the eighth brought the Brewers in to striking range.

Blue Jays 5-3, Red Sox 4-5
Boston was mathematically eliminated from the East race with the split.

Red Sox handed Toronto the opener in the ninth inning One-out singles by Rick Bosetti and J.J. Cannon preceded a double off the left-center field wall by Rick Cerone. Cerone went too far rounding second and Boston catcher Mike O'Berry tried to throw him out. O'Berry's peg sailed into center field and Cerone scored the winning run.

Indians 5-6, Yankees 1-5
Rick Waits threw a five-hitter in the opener and Mike Hargrove ripped a run-scoring triple in the bottom of the ninth of the nightcap to lead the Cleveland sweep. Jerry Narron, Bucky Dent and Reggie Jackson homered in the second contest for New York while Toby Harrah and Andre Thornton had consecutive homers for Cleveland.

Rangers 6, A's 3
Buddy Bell and Pat Putnam drove in two runs apiece and Jim Kern registered his 27th save for Texas. Putnam slammed his 18th homer of the season and Oakland's Rickey Henderson had his first major league home run.

RETIREMENT
DETROIT (AP) — Hal Middlesworth, director of the Detroit Tigers' public relations department since 1961, will retire from full-time duty on Oct. 31.

(American League Box Scores, Page 18, Sec. B)

get at least one hit Darrell Porter and Al Cowens each knocked in four runs. Porter boosting his season RBI total to a career-high 102 with a three-run homer in the seventh. Pete LaCock also homered for the Royals.

"We're ready for a struggle every night," added Royals manager Whitey Herzog.

The Angels have been struggling for the last week, losing five of six and two games off their lead.

"The score doesn't matter," said Angels manager Jim Fregosi. "It could have been 3-2. It's just a one-game advantage."

Don Henry

it could have for the remainder of the season.

"Right now, we're probably further along (with one win) than many people felt we'd be," he said. "I think we improved in just about every area, quarterbacking... among the running backs... secondary."

"Both quarterbacks (starter Kent Allison and Curtis Dean) gained a lot of experience. And the running backs, as the game went on, seemed to gain confidence."

Sanders lauded running back Marvin Wiley who picked up 102 yards rushing and scored three times. For his effort, Wiley was named the school's athlete of the week.

"And they defense... we got 12 turnovers, and you have to be going some to do that, no matter who you're playing. Pat Randolph played well on defense — so did Bobby McBride (after being moved from quarterback)."

But, the seasonal aspects kept creeping into Sanders' remarks. He wasn't predicting any long winning streaks, but he was thinking about continued improvement.

"We need to show the players they're improving, and we need to show others in this part of the country that we're trying to build a good program."

"We're playing mainly freshmen and sophomores, and the people we're playing have a lot of seniors and juniors. So, if we can play well — be competitive — against them, then in a couple of years, we should be as strong as they are."

"Right now, the league looks to be about even all the way down. But, we have to show high school coaches in this area that we will have a good program, so we can recruit some good players."

Sanders had picked up some of that confidence, too.
