Trustees Decide On West Tract

The "west tract" was decided upon as the site for the new high school building here when members of the Muleshoe Independent School District board of trustees met Wednesday night, J. Clyde Taylor, president, told The Journal.

There had been some talk about town favoring a site west of the Green Hospital, and it was designated for the school in a plan drawn up by Muleshoe's city planners.

Mr. Taylor said the board took the position that the voters of the district understood at the time of the bond election that the site on the Clovis highway, west of the highway department warehouse, was to be used for the new building, and that the board had no authorization to select a site other than this one.

Cooker Clinics Are Announced

"Conserve the Surplus" is a familiar statement and for food production to be effective we must have conservation. It has been estimated that the average person eats one-half of his food fresh and one-half processed in some manner. Since processed foods are going to be difficult to buy, we realize how important it is to preserve our own foods as much as possible to be sure of having a well balanced diet the year around.

Canning is considered the most practical all-around method of preservation for most of our foods. Canning may be used for more foods than any other method. It is quick, easy to store, and relatively inexpensive.

To have a finished product of best quality our equipment must be in the best working order. The home demonstration agent is holding a series of Pressure Cooker Clinics in Bailey County. The cookers will be cleaned and the gauges tested. Any one in the county has the privilege of bringing their cooker to be tested.

The clinics are scheduled as follows:

- Longview: Wednesday, June 5, Longview school house.
- West Camp: Thursday, June 6, West Camp school house.
- Bula: Monday, June 10, Bula school house.
- Muleshoe: Monday, June 17, Muleshoe school house.
- Stegall: Thursday, June 20, Stegall school house.
- Y. L.: Friday, June 21, Y. L. school house.
- Three-Way: Tuesday, June 25, Three-Way school house.
- Watson: Thursday, June 27, Watson school house.
- Circleback: Monday, June 24, Circleback school house.

RAINEY IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

HOMER P. RAINEY

AUSTIN, May 23.—Dr. Homer P. Rainey, ex-president of the University of Texas and former professional baseball pitcher and Baptist minister, declared himself a candidate for Governor of Texas today and announced that he would open his campaign on the night of June 4 at the ball park between Sherman and Denison.

"We need a government run by real Democrats for the benefit of all the people," Dr. Rainey said. "Too long our state government has been run by Texas Regulars and their fellow travelers, all posing as Democrats, but actually as reactionary as any Republicans in our national life."

Dr. Rainey upbraided the Texas Regulars, declaring that "in 1944 they became so brazen that they tried to steal the electoral votes of the Democrats of Texas and deliver them into the hands of the enemies of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

"But we, the people, the real Democrats, over 800,000 of us, in November, 1944, rose up to meet the challenge from that loud thug, small but puny band of Texas Regulars as they sailed forth for the steal."

Dr. Rainey declared that the Texas Regulars and "their political playmates" still control the state government and predicted a "political housecleaning" this summer.

Dr. Rainey pointed out that Texas has the greatest storehouse of natural resources in the world and touched heavily on the low rating of Texas in public education and health.

"We must all be ashamed," he said, "that our state government spends more money each year for game and animal protection than it does to protect human life. More children die each year in Texas than in any other state."

Dr. Rainey called for a program of industrial peace, for production for the consumer, better and more industry, a decent welfare program and a "best of other things" and asked the people of Texas to assist him financially and by work in his campaign this summer.

Those present endorsed the proposal to create a special road district preparatory to getting started on the program. Petitions are being circulated in Bailey County Commissioners' Precincts 1, 2 and 3 asking the commissioners court to create a special road district to include these three precincts in order that an election may be called for the purpose of voting on a bond issue in the sum of $600,000 for paving.

Little Rain Fell In Bailey County

Bailey county received little rain from the nice clouds which rolled in Monday night on the heels of an all day hard rain wind.

In Muleshoe there was only a sprinkle, and farmers from various parts of the county reported no rainfall or only a sprinkle.

At Dimmitt a heavy rain fell. No rain was received west, south or directly north of Muleshoe.

The wind whipped the dust about savagely Monday and increased in strength toward nightfall. Many large limbs were blown from trees here by the hard, straight gale, that reached a velocity of 55 miles per hour according to the weather man at Lubbock.

Cotton and other young crops likely were damaged considerably by the dirt and wind.

and it is estimated that this amount of money will be required. Paving was estimated to cost about $7,000 per mile.

A group of citizens of precinct 3 was present and included Tommy Galt, Baker Johnson, Paul Carmickle, and L. A. Corbell.

They said they had at first considered a plan to create a special district if their precinct had decided to contact other portions of the county in the matter.

All spoke in favor of the proposal to seek to create the special road district.

Pat R. Bobb outlined the proposed paving program using a map to indicate tentative routes to be paved. Muleshoe men who spoke in favor of the plan included R. L. Brown, Ray Griffiths, Irvin St. Clair, Henry Hanover, Neil Rockey, Fred Johnson, and many others.

When the petitions have been passed among the people and signed they will be presented to the commissioners court for action.

Speakers pointed out that probably no county in this section is more in need than this one of a good roads program. A big majority of our farmers are still at a considerable distance from a paved road despite the fact that there are two paved state highways thru the county. Bailey County has now been allotted about 23 miles of farm to market roads to be built by the highway department, but this will end that program, it was said.

Mr. Bobb pointed out that routes tentatively decided upon to be improved will be so situated that perhaps a very few farmers in this county would then be more than six miles from a paved road.

Thinning Fruit Is Adviseable

Prospects for a bumper fruit crop are good over all parts of Texas, according to Mrs. Laurette A. Wilson, county home demonstration agent of Bailey County.

But, like the farmer who was saddened by his wonderful potato crop because there were no culls for the hogs, Mrs. Wilson says the heavy load of fruit is using up so much plant food that there is a slow growth of limbs and twigs.

Next year's crop, she points out, will be borne on the new wood now forming.

Since there will be lots of fruit on the market anyhow, Mrs. Wilson recommends that fruit be thinned out from 4 to 6 inches. She suggests leaving the better quality fruit, removing the fruit that has been damaged by hail, brown rot, peach scab, or curculio. This will throw some strength to the new growth of limbs and twigs and will result in a high percentage of large, quality fruit.

The orchard should be cultivated at a shallow depth as often as necessary to protect the busy trees from competition with weeds and grass.

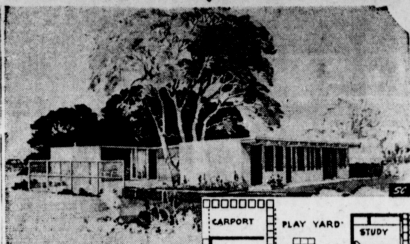

Many sandy soils are short on nitrogen and a top dressing of a lb. nitrate of soda or ammonium sulphate per tree in late May or early June will help hold fruit and promote growth—a two hundred lb. per acre application of balanced

New Homes Feature Glass

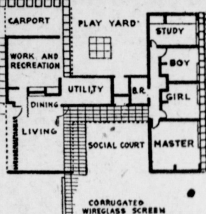

PITTSBURGH, PA.—American home owners are showing an almost universal desire for more and bigger windows in their new dwellings.

Particularly are they interested in windows of the type that take up the entire wall of one room. Most homes now being built or planned include at least one of these large units. These windows not only add beauty to a house but also make heating easier by using the heat of the sun. They take less time to clean than small windows with the usual small panes.

First Prize Winner

Indicative of the new use of glass for homes is this design by architects Norman and Jean Fletcher which won first prize in the national "House For Cheerful Living" competition sponsored by Pittsburgh Plate Glass and Pittsburgh Corning companies. More than 900 architects competed. This design calls for an H-shaped unit of seven rooms with three bedrooms, a work and recreation room, living room, dining area, and a prefabricated utility and kitchen area.

Windows range in size from the normal units in the bedrooms to the full-wall sliding panels facing the living area. These panels permit use of the social court as an integral part of the living quarters. The national trend in home building is toward this type of functional use of windows and large areas of glass.

Jester Approves Truman Attitude

AUSTIN.—Among the first in Texas to publicly applaud President Truman's railroad strike broadcast was Railroad Commissioner Beauford H. Jester.

Immediately following the President's address, Mr. Jester sent the following telegram:

"Pres. Harry S. Truman: In behalf of the people of Texas, and as a member of the Texas Railroad Commission, I congratulate the fortitude of your bold pronouncement tonight. Surely the responsibility which you so clearly define can not be neglected further under the momentous critical circumstances."

For many months now Texas has resented radical leadership which disregard the public welfare and flagrantly challenge decency and vested authority. Please command me for anything which you might wish me to do in support of your determination to reestablish our Democracy."

QUICK BREAD FOR BREAKFAST IS AN EASY MATTER

COLLEGE STATION. — Many housewives these days are faced with the problem of making a quick bread for breakfast when they are unable to buy bread for the usual toast. Edith Lawrence, specialist in food preparation for the A. and M. College Extension Service says that hot biscuits or muffins can be prepared with almost as little effort as toast if one learns the secret.

A biscuit mix which can be stored in refrigerator and quickly made into biscuit or muffins is her answer. The recipe is: 12 cups sifted flour, 1-3 cup double acting baking powder, 4 teaspoons salt, and 1 to 1 1/2 cups fat. Sift flour and measure. Add baking powder and salt and sift the three together. Cut in fat until mixture has a fine even crumb. Place in a closed container and keep in a cool place, refrigerator preferred.

For roll biscuit, combine about 2-3 cup milk (enough to make a soft dough) with 2 cups of mix. Turn out on slightly floured board. Knead very lightly about 18 strokes. Roll to one half inch thickness, cut with biscuit cutter first dipped into flour, place on baking sheet either ungreased or only slightly so, and bake in hot oven, 450 to 485 degrees, for about 15 minutes.

For drop biscuit, combine about 3-4 cup milk (enough to make a little softer dough than above) with 2 cups of mix. Mix lightly. Drop from a spoon about an inch apart on baking sheet. Bake as for roll biscuit.

For muffins: Combine 1 slightly beaten egg, 1 cup milk, and 2 table-spoons sugar. Add 2 cups biscuit mix and stir only until dry ingredients are moist. Fill well-greased muffin tins about 2-3 full. Bake in hot oven 400 to 450 degrees about 20 minutes.

This recipe makes about 1 gallon of mix which will keep in the refrigerator at least a month. Whole wheat flour may be substituted for white flour.

TO: The Unknown Heirs, and a known legal representative, of W. M. Thacker, and Nancy Thacker, both deceased Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the honorable District Court of Bailey County at the Court House thereof, in Muleshoe, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 24th day of June A. D. 1946, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 10th day of May A. D. 1946, in this cause, numbered 1489 on the docket of said court and styled James A. Cox, and Forrest I. Cox, Plaintiffs, vs. The Unknown Heirs, and unknown legal representatives, of W. M. Thacker and Nancy Thacker, both deceased Defendants.

That this is a suit in trespass to try title; that on or about the 1st day of Sept. A. D. 1945 plaintiffs were lawfully seized and possessed of the following described lands and premises situated in Bailey County of Bailey County, Texas, at the Courthouse in Muleshoe, Texas. Said Defendant's First Amended

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. A picnic shoulder of pork. The one shown here is a smoked picnic shoulder; the same cut is also sold as fresh pork.

Q. Where does the cut come from, and how is it identified?

A. The picnic shoulder comes from the lower half of the pork shoulder. It is a rather squarish, chunky cut, including the fore shank. It contains the arm and shank bones. The cut may vary from about 4 to 9 pounds in weight.

Q. How should this cut be prepared?

A. The smoked picnic is usually prepared like a smoked ham; it may be either baked (roasted) or simmered in water. If roasted, it is cooked in a slow oven (300° F.) for about 25 minutes per pound. The cooked meat is very good sliced cold, or may be used instead of ham in a variety of "made" dishes.

And a cross action filed by Mary V. Knowlton, against Walter H. Knowlton, Wade H. Knowlton and Mary E. Knowlton, own an undivided one-half interest, in and to said described real estate, and in and to said described personal property.

It being alleged in said cross action, that in the event that the Plaintiff has disposed of said personal property, that the value of the interest held by the Defendant

Mary V. Knowlton, disposed of by the Plaintiff, be fixed, and a lien created and fixed on, and against the interest held by said Plaintiff in said real estate, to the extent of the value of such personal property so disposed of by Plaintiff.

Issued this the 10th day of May, A. D. 1946.

Sidelights From Washington

By GEORGE MAHON

This is Saturday noon. The President is scheduled to address a joint session of Congress at 10:30 P. M. today.

The intolerable industrial strife and strikes of recent months are retarding production, producing inflation, and wrecking the economy of the Nation.

A straightforward labor-management policy, which some of us have long advocated, would have avoided the Pearl Harbor, during the war and since the war, the House of Representatives has passed legislation designed to protect the trous-strikes- and labor-management trouble, and at the same time give labor and management a fair deal.

But the efforts of the House have been ineffective. Why? Because the U. S. Senate has willfully failed and refused to take favorable action on what the House has done. In fairness it must be said that the Texas Senators have not been parties to this inexcusable delay.

To be more specific: On June 7, 1940, the House passed a bill to revise the National Labor Relations Act by a roll call vote of 258 to 129. It went to the Senate Committee on Education and Labor and died there. On December 3, 1941—four days before Pearl Harbor—the House again passed a bill for this purpose by a vote of 253 to 126. This bill also went to the Senate Committee on Education and Labor and died there. On February 7, 1946, the House again passed a bill which is commonly referred to as the Case Bill. That bill passed the House by a vote of 258 to 155. It also went to the Senate Committee on Education and Labor and remained there until a few days ago. I am among those in the House who voted for each of these bills.

It is frequently hoped that those in the Senate who have blocked appropriate legislation in the past will now, at long last, join in a program of action for the common good of our nation.

SAVE BREAD FOR EUROPE

The other day, as I was buying my groceries, I noticed a huge poster tacked on the wall bearing the words "Save Bread for Europe" and somehow the grocer and I began talking about food conservation. He told me that many women do not realize just how much food they waste every day. And I told him my favorite trick for keeping food fresh and cutting down food costs at the same time.

"Waxed paper," I said, "is the clue to food saving that a lot of women simply overlook. I always choose items wrapped in waxed paper and use that paper to protect my foods and insure their freshness. Take a loaf of bread, for instance — by carefully re-wrapping the waxed paper wrapper on my bread after taking out just enough for each serving, I can keep it fresh for days. Cereals, too, as well as many other foods, keep fresh ever so much longer if the waxed paper lining is folded carefully every time the package is put back."

The grocer told me that I should pass that trick along to every housewife I know — that, according to actual statistics, if each housewife would save only one slice of bread a day, the national saving would be a million pounds of bread daily! Enough to feed 6 million people! Think what that would mean to the people in Europe who are actually starving! You've been reading about the urgent need of food conservation — and hearing it over the radio — so why not try my method of saving? Let waxed paper do the work it's intended for — to keep your food fresh and, by eliminating unnecessary waste, help to feed the millions of starving people in Europe.

Cull Poultry Now Is Expert's Advice

The present ceiling prices on wheat, corn, and other grains and protein concentrates means that heavy culling must be done in farm and commercial flocks if poultrymen hope to stay in the black on egg production, according to S. A. Moore, poultry husbandman of Texas A. & M. Extension Service.

"It takes around 11 pounds of feed to produce a dozen eggs from a hen that is laying at the rate of 80 eggs per year," Moore said. A 200-egg hen will lay a dozen eggs on 5 pounds of feed.

The poultry specialist estimated

Clean-Up Time for Nancy

"It might as well be Spring" warbles Nancy Martin, nationally known radio singer, as she adds the final important touch to her Spring cleaning by purifying every "nook and corner" of her home with the aid of the new postwar Lowell electric Thoro-Spray. Strapping the handy portable motor over her shoulder, she is able to cover each room with speed and ease. The spray can also be used for painting, moth-proofing and many other uses around the home.

that 3 1-2 million Texas hens, or about one out of seven in the average flock was costing her owner money instead of bringing it in.

While culling boarders from the flock is always good business it is especially necessary now because of the feed situation, he said. Many low producing hens in poultry flocks are eating feed at the rate of four to five pounds per month, so two birds culled out now will save a sack of feed in the next year.

The feed so saved can go to relieve the feed and food shortage elsewhere, or two young birds can be raised up to production on what one would eat in the meanwhile.

DON'T BLAME YOUR CASE DEALER

We know you put in long hours during the war.

We know you are still working long hours in an attempt to conscientiously meet the government's request for more food for other nations.

You probably wondered, after the Case strike had been going on for 30 days, why the issues hadn't been settled.

Yet, it has now been more than 4 months since the union officials shut off production of the farm equipment and replacement parts you need so badly.

A Fight To Hold Prices Down

During that period, some of the strikes at other farm machinery manufacturers have been settled - but only by granting of union demands, which we know to be unreasonable and harmful to the farmers' best interests.

To prevent unwarranted increases in the price of farm machinery, and in defense of principles which have proven sound during the 104 years of our continuous operations, we are unwilling to accept the terms which the union has demanded.

We hope you will continue to support us in defending American enterprise. The Case Company will resume production as soon as manufacturing can once again be carried on in accordance with sound business principles.

Army Makes Plans to Return Bodies Of War Dead to U. S. For Burial

With the passage by Congress and the approval by the President of the bill authorizing the return and final burial of all personnel of the Armed Forces who died overseas since September 3, 1914, the date of the limited national emergency, the War Department announces that all next of kin will be asked to state their wishes about disposition of the remains.

The program will be carried out by the Office of the Quartermaster General. The War Department has been informed by casket makers that they will be unable to meet the scheduled requirement for shipment of caskets to Pearl Harbor and Europe in July because of their inability to obtain steel for manufacturing. Had caskets been ready for overseas shipment in July the War Department would have returned the first remains requested by next of kin by mid-September. This will not now be possible and a delay as late as the end of this year appears likely. Casket makers say the earliest they expect to receive the necessary steel to accomplish casket delivery will be by late fall.

The next legal of kin may express their desires within the following options:

1. The remains may be returned to the United States, or any possession or territory thereof, for interment by next of kin in a private cemetery.
2. The remains may be returned to a foreign country, the homeland of the deceased, for interment by next of kin in a private cemetery. Shipment to a foreign country is dependent upon the ability of the U. S. Government to obtain entry therein. If entry can be obtained, shipment will be made to city or town designated by next of kin.

3. The remains may be returned to the U. S. for final interment in a National Cemetery. This is restricted to burial of remains by members of the Armed Forces only. When this option is desired, the remains will be transported to the continental United States and interred in the National Cemetery selected by the next of kin.
4. The remains may be interred in a permanent American Military Cemetery overseas. Establishment of permanent American Military Cemeteries overseas in the European area and the Philippine area is contemplated.

Requests should be made of the Quartermaster General in Washington. In each theater there is an American Graves Registration Command, and until overseas theaters are abolished, graves registration is a responsibility that will pass directly to the Quartermaster General, who has been designated as Chief of the American Graves Registration Service.

Return of remains will be progressive which means that information on the final disposition of remains will be sought from next of kin only as the record of each cemetery is completely verified. Therefore, inquiries to next of kin will be mailed only as verification by cemeteries in different parts of the world is accomplished, which may mean that the next of kin of different deceased who may live adjacent to each other may receive inquiries at widely separated times. The War Department states this should not be a matter of concern as all legal next of kin of deceased whose remains have been recovered and identified will be asked to state their wishes. The first inquiries will be mailed within a few weeks.

The cost of return and final burial is estimated to be between $195 and $215 million dollars. Congress requires that the task be completed within five years, but Major Gen. T. B. Larkin, The Quartermaster General, anticipates that it can be completed in less time. All costs of burial overseas in an American military cemetery or in a National Cemetery in the U. S. will be paid by the government. If burial is in a private cemetery in the U. S., the government will pay up to $50 of the interment expense upon application to the Office of the Quartermaster General.

The first caskets in which the final burial will be made will be shipped overseas beginning in the late fall. Caskets are of seamless steel construction and hermetically sealed. As soon as the casket industry reaches peak production the War Department expects to receive 25,000 caskets each month.

Graves registration and complete verification of all records is now in progress both overseas theaters and in the Office of the Quartermaster General in Washington. In each theater there is an American Graves Registration Command, and until overseas theaters are abolished, graves registration is a responsibility that will pass directly to the Quartermaster General, who has been designated as Chief of the American Graves Registration Service.

Peanut Pie Has High Taste Appeal

For a sweet, crunchy dessert that is delightfully different, try Peanut Pie, advises Marjorie Griffin, Rural Home editor of Capper's Farmer. The nutty flavor from chopped peanuts has high taste appeal, she writes in the nationally circulated farm magazine.

Just before serving the pie, top it lavishly with whipped cream. Arrange it around the edge of the dark filling in a ring of snowy peaks.

PEANUT PIE
 2 tbsp. Sugar
 1/2 C. water
 1/2 C. salt
 1/2 C. hot water
 1 C. dark corn syrup
 3 eggs
 1 C. shortening
 1 C. peanuts
 1 C. unshelled peanuts
 1 C. 4-6 inch pie shell
 Combine flour, sugar and salt; add water and corn syrup and blend well. Boil gently for 3 to 5 minutes. Then slowly, pour mixture into slightly beaten eggs, stirring continuously. Add shortening. Spread chopped peanuts over bottom of 9-inch pie shell. Pour filling into crust. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) for 10 minutes; reduce heat to 350° F. and continue baking 35 minutes. When silver knife inserted in center of filling comes out clean, pie is done. Before serving, top with whipped cream. Serves 6.

In support of UNRRA's plea to use wheat-substitutes so that this country can fulfill its promise to help feed starving Europe, pretty Shirley Nelson serves a loaf of oatmeal bread. And to avoid waste, she takes a tip from her baker and wraps the loaf in waxed paper to keep it fresh and moist. Housewives are urged to conserve food and use wheat-substitutes until Europe's wheat can be harvested.

Howdy Scouts: Be sure and have a grand time at camp next week. Think of Mom and Pop, back home working and I'm sure you will have a wonderful time.

As one Tenderfoot said to another. Are we really on a Camping Spree and no Mom around to wash our ears?

Scout — Hey, get up, it's your time to cook breakfast — Very sleepy. Good, good. I know just the spot. It's right around the corner. They have the best scrambled eggs and bacon in town.

Out hiking — Hey Mister, that looks like a good milk cow. Why are you skinning her? Oh, she froze to death. How did she freeze to death this time of year? We put her in the ice house and tried to make her give ice cream.

Do you want to hear something great? Rub two bricks together.

If you want to see something great, come and see our new Filter Queen Sweeper — No dirty bags to empty.
