Autos Meet On Buffalo Lakes Road

Melvin Bonne Tudor Found Dead At Scene

By PHIL HAMILTON
Avalanche-Journal Staff
A two-car collision a mile east of Lubbock Sunday afternoon killed a Lubbock County man, injured five others and scattered poll tax receipts over a stretch of FM 835.

Dead at the scene of the crash was 56-year-old Melvin Bonne Tudor of Rt. 1, Lubbock, a public relations man for Pinkie's Liquor Stores Inc. Investigating officers said Tudor was alone in his station wagon at the time of the crash.

Three In "Poor" Condition
Injured were the driver of the second vehicle, Samuel Homer Rodriguez, 31, of 2216 Colgate, his wife, Florintina, and children, Elizabeth Lynn, Sammie Jr. and Rod.

All the injured were hospitalized at Lubbock Osteopathic Hospital where Rodriguez, his wife, and eight-year-old Elizabeth Lynn were all listed in poor condition Sunday night.

Three-year-old Sammie and five-month-old Rod were listed as good. A sixth passenger in the car, Eddie Rodriguez, 7, was not injured.

Runs Off Road
Hospital attendants reported Rodriguez, a baker for Piccadilly Cafeteria, suffered head cuts and broken ribs in the crash.

Mrs. Rodriguez, 26, was reported to have suffered head and knee injuries and a broken wrist, while Elizabeth Lynn had head cuts and a broken collar bone.

Sammie was reported to have suffered a broken nose, while Rod had a bruised head. Highway patrolman Ted Court, who investigated the accident, said Tudor was apparently going west on the Buffalo Lakes Road and had attempted to pass another car.

He had apparently decided against passing and had pulled back behind the other vehicle. Court said when he ran off the road on the right hand side.

Poll Tax Receipts Found
When he pulled back onto the road, the car apparently went into a broadside skid into the path of the Rodriguez car that was headed east. Court reported.

Court said Rodriguez's car hit Tudor's station wagon in front of the right rear wheel, turning it over into the ditch.

Persons at the scene of the crash were:

POLL TAXES
Voter Cutoff At Midnight

Midnight today is the deadline for paying poll taxes, securing exemption certificates or receipts marked "Poll Tax Not Paid" for voting in 1966 elections.

The county tax assessor-collector's office in the new courthouse will remain open until midnight for the convenience of those who have not yet qualified to vote.

The tax may also be paid or an exemption secured at the office of the deputy assessor-collector in Slaton, at public schools throughout the county, at all Lubbock fire stations, at public utility offices, at the City Hall, at banks and various department stores and supermarkets and from members of the League of Women Voters or Lubbock Jaycees.

Voting this year will include elections for state offices through governor, for all seats in the House of Representatives and for one Senate seat.

Receipts marked "Poll Tax Not Paid" will be valid only for voting for the national offices.

Cold Boosts Fire Deaths

Four In Alabama Die Trying To Get Warm

(By The Associated Press)
FIRES caused at least six deaths and destroyed business buildings, apartment houses and private homes in the bitter cold of the East and Midwest Saturday night and Sunday.

Four of the deaths were attributed directly to the cold. Hot coals heaped into an old coal burner in a Birmingham, Ala., home fell to the floor, fire officials said, causing a fire that killed Sally Guster Tallis and George Miller Johnson. The temperature outside was 4 below, the coldest Alabama weather in 26 years.

Baby Perishes
Police said flames from an open heater ignited the clothing of Mrs. W. C. Yancey at her home near Gadsden, Ala., and she burned to death.

Police said Mrs. Richard A. Wallace died in a similar accident in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Her husband was injured trying to put out the flames from the heater.

In New York City on Sunday, an 18-month-old baby was fatally burned in a Harlem fire that broke out while his mother was borrowing milk from a neighbor, police said. The child, Iran Amaro, was found in a crib by firemen.

Tremes Build Fires
A 9-year-old girl died in a fire that severely damaged her home in a New York suburb. The body of Anne Marie Baker of Hicksville, on Long Island, was found in the bathroom.

In Charleston, S.C., four buildings near the center of the business district were burned out by an early-morning blaze in 11-degree temperatures. Firemen built fires to thaw hydrants. One fireman was slightly injured.

Three new buildings in a Kansas City, Kan., apartment house complex were destroyed by another fire where firemen battled the cold as well as the flames. It was below zero.

80 DIE IN SHIP MISHAP
Dacca, Pakistan (AP) - Eighty persons were killed and 38 injured when a passenger launch and a steamer collided at Chandpur Port, a Pakistan news agency said Sunday.

WORST OF CENTURY Atlantic Seaboard In Blizzard's Grip

(By United Press International)
DIXIE'S blizzard of the century snowed up to two feet of snow from the Gulf states to New England Sunday, bringing whole states to a standstill with wind-fanned 15-foot drifts and cold.

Record cold prevailed across much of the East half of the nation from the Canadian border southward to Florida and Texas. Sub-zero readings were reported within 300 miles of the Gulf of Mexico.

The year's heaviest rain storm pushed eastward from San Francisco, turning to snow as it reached the Sierras and Cascades.

Weathermen Convinced
The U.S. Weather Bureau was shut down by the storm until noon Sunday. When it opened, its first action was to declare the storm a blizzard.

Drifts up to 15 feet deep were reported in Washington, D.C., suburbs. Drifts up to 14 feet were reported in Pennsylvania's Cambria County. Drifts within 100 miles of the Gulf of Mexico.

At Dagsboro, Del., army tanks were used to drag fire trucks to answer alarms. National Guardsmen were called out in an effort to reopen the Delaware highways and roads.

Delaware highways and roads around the pumping station outside of Alpena at about 4 a.m. were turned off at the site. With this done, the main gas line could be reopened. Then, he said, crews had to return to each customer and turn the gas back on and relight pilots.

A hospital had its gas restored on an emergency basis. The spokesman said he knew of no reason for the gas to have been turned off.

Death Toll Soars To 60
The weather death toll since Thursday soared to 60. Pennsylvania reported seven deaths. Sunday, Alabama had four, Arkansas three, California two and Kentucky, Missouri and Iowa each listed one.

Forty persons were injured Sunday night after a series of chain-reaction traffic accidents in the New York State Thruway during the snowstorm.

All federal employees were given Monday off in and around Washington. State offices were closed at Harrisburg, Pa.

The snow belt reached southward to Alabama where northern areas had 8 inches and Mississippi, where Tupelo had 10 inches. In Charleston, S.C., firemen built fires to thaw fire hydrants at the scene of a five-building blaze.

The temperature at midafternoon in Atlanta, Ga., was 10 degrees and at 1 p.m. it was below freezing at Jacksonville, Fla., Knoxville, Tenn., reported an afternoon reading of zero.

Greenville, S.C., with 6 below zero, and Macon, Ga., with 3 above, had the coldest temperatures ever recorded in the area. See ATLANTIC Page 10

Surfers, Like Mail Carriers, Hardy Lot
ASBURY PARK, N.J. (AP) - It was 20 degrees and blowing snow as shivering bystanders watched surfers Robert Barth, 15, and Brad McKenzie, 17, ride 15-foot waves for an hour Saturday.

The surfers wore full-length rubber diving suits. One caught a huge wave and rode it nearly a quarter-mile onto the beach. They looked like they were having a great old time," said one onlooker.

PIONEER Chimponaut Ham Marks Anniversary

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON - An American chimpanzee, one Ham prepared for a momentous anniversary Sunday by eating a banana.

Actually Ham never orbited, but five years ago today on Jan. 31, 1961, he did the next-best thing. He took a sort of roller coaster ride into space from Cape Kennedy, then Cape Canaveral, a 44-mile journey that carried him as high as 156 miles. This blazed a trail for Alan B. Shepard Jr., John H. Glenn Jr. and all the rest.

Became Man
Now Ham is retired and in residence at the National Zoo. He's eight years old. Five years ago he weighed 27 1/2 pounds and is now believed to weigh about 100.

Beloved is the closest name Bernard Gallagher, supervising keeper of great apes, can come.

He explained. There aren't two men could put Ham on a scale.

Chimpanzees begin to get mean about 5 years of age and the meanness progresses with time.

Low I.Q.—Or Something
Ham's I.Q. may be below average, his keeper thinks. "Look," Gallagher said, pointing. "I've had that female, Maggie, in that cage with him for three months now. She shows every sign of affection, but he just walks away."

Ham might be considered a school dropout. One of his colleagues, Bobby Joe, has gone on to an ape Ph.D. at thechimp college, Holloman Air Force Base, N.M. So skilled is Bobby Joe that he probably could pilot a spacecraft into orbit and back, if called upon.

Incidentally, would you like to know what to do if you meet a fully mature male chimpanzee face to face, with no bars in between?

"Bare your teeth as if you were saying cheese," says Gallagher. "He'll back up because he thinks you're going to bite him."

SNOW TRAPS FISHERMEN
SUTTON, Ont. (AP) - About 100 ice fishermen were reported trapped by a raging blizzard on Lake Simcoe Sunday night in the Sutton-Jackson's Point area 35 miles north of Toronto. Police who gave the estimate said they were not believed to be in immediate danger.

IN FIVE MAJOR DRIVES U.S. Troops Slay Hundreds Of Reds

(By United Press International)
SAIGON (Monday)—The Viet Cong unleashed a heavy mortar attack against a U.S. artillery area and helicopter base 15 miles north of Saigon today, damaging a number of helicopters.

The attack came after U.S. military authorities reported hundreds of Communists killed Sunday as American troops pressed five major drives in South Viet Nam.

The Communists lobbed more than 50 rounds of 60 and 81 mm mortars into the 1st Infantry area during a 25-minute barrage. A military spokesman said Americans suffered light casualties.

One of the U.S. drives in South Viet Nam was a sweep by more than 5,000 Marines who came ashore in the biggest amphibious landing since the Korean war.

A military spokesman said an estimated 475 Communists were killed in the drive.

While the Marines and Air Cavalrymen pushed forward in neighboring drives along the South China Sea coast, U.S. paratroopers continued a drive northward up the coast and the Air Cavalry drive along Route One 300 miles northeast.

The Viet Cong in operations north and south of Saigon.

Some 50 miles west of Saigon, a Vietnamese military spokesman reported that Communist guerrillas overran a Roman Catholic village, beheaded its northerners, with full khaki field uniforms and gear, were found among 24 bodies in a trench overrun by troops of the 1st Cavalry Division early Sunday.

AT HONG KONG Reds Free Wandering U.S. Nurse

(By United Press International)
HONG KONG - An American nurse who wandered into China earlier this month was returned to Hong Kong Sunday by the Communists.

Officials of the United States consulate went to the border to meet Mrs. Beverly Reilly, 38, of Omaha. Later they questioned her about her almost three week stay in Red China.

The Communist New China News Agency said Mrs. Reilly crossed into Kwantung Province by mistake Jan. 11.

Treated "Properly"
The agency said she had admitted her mistake and had been "properly treated" during her detention.

Mrs. Reilly's sudden appearance at the border caught local officials by surprise.

She was living in a small village near the China border when she disappeared. It was widely believed she had entered China but that was not certain until the Communists announced her return Sunday.

A Hong Kong government spokesman said Mrs. Reilly was carrying an American passport.

Newsman Shunned
A U.S. Consulate spokesman said Mrs. Reilly specifically requested the press not to be notified where she was staying, but gave no reason for the request.

Sources said Mrs. Reilly had visited the consulate trying to get her passport validated for a visit to China before she disappeared, but was unsuccessful.

American passports, except those occasionally issued to newsmen, specifically forbid travel to Red China.

Mrs. Reilly's case virtually paralleled that of a young American sailor who entered Red China several weeks ago and was returned by the Communists after polite treatment.

U.S. authorities kept the sailor hidden from newsmen and refused to permit him to talk.

Asia's Women Hold Top-Notch Jobs

By DALTON DE SILVA CEYLON (WNS) — A few years ago no Asian mama would have allowed her darling daughter to step out of the house unchaperoned.

Today, Asian girls daubed with lipstick and rouge and sporting the latest fashions copied from the West not only travel alone in crowded buses and trains but ride scooters, drive cars and run countries.

Asia nearly gave the world the first woman President of an independent Republic when Miss Fatima Jinnah contested Field Marshal Ayub Khan at the Presidential elections in Pakistan a year ago.

Miss Jinnah failed to oust the Field Marshal from the Presidential seat and Asian women were deprived of another world record.

Asia, however, has a woman Vice-Chairman of a Republic in Madame Sun Yat-sen who commands much prestige in Red China and has held several high posts in the Communist Party and the Government.

On the other side of the Bamboo Curtain, her sister, the redoubtable Madame Chiang Kai-shek, helps guide the destinies of Taiwan.

AMBITION TOLD Asian beauty, Madame Chan has a successful career as a fashion model in the United States. She also works as a fashion consultant. But her ambition is to be a designer and she is currently studying to do so.

Other Asian women have played prominent roles in their countries as Ministers, Junior Ministers and other responsible posts.

Mrs. Gandhi, herself, was the Minister of Broadcasting and Information in the Government of the late Mr. Shastri. Ceylon got her first woman Minister in 1956 when Mrs. Vimala Wijewardene was appointed Minister of Health.

STRATEGISTS CLAIM

U.S. Deterrent Power Not Affected By Spanish Ban

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States presumably can enter over the Mediterranean area above the international waters of the Strait of Gibraltar. The massive search for the bomb which is under way, combined with the utter silence on all other aspects of the case, created questions of why such top secrecy should exist. One obvious answer as to the reason for the land and sea search for the missing hydrogen bomb, one of four believed to have been aboard the bomber, is safety. American nuclear experts discount the danger of a nuclear detonation. As in other similar accidents which have occurred, the weapon was reported in Spain to have been unarmed for explosion. But if the bomb casing is shattered in an accident, the raw elements could be harmful in handling.

International Waters It is pointed out by strategists that refueling of bombers by U.S. Air Force tanker planes, operating either from American-based bases in Spain or from other bases, can be conducted over international waters rather than over Spain. Such refueling could be done by tankers operating out of bases en route to Europe, such as those in Portugal's Azore Islands, or from bases in the general Mediterranean area outside of Spain. Bombers from

Fluorides In Dallas Water Are Okayed

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas voters approved fluoridization of the city's water supply Saturday in a convincing fashion with a record special-election turnout of nearly 40,000 voters. With all votes tabulated Sunday, approval of adding the fluorides to the water won with 27,089 votes to only 10,940 against the additives.

Was Hot Issue Extremely cold weather got the voting off to a very slow start, but the bright sun beckoned the record-breaking special election crowd to the polls during the afternoon. The election was one of the most widely debated issues of the year, with voters in Dallas, Fort Worth, and other areas. Both daily newspapers, the Dallas Times Herald and the Dallas Morning News, supported fluoridation in the water.

Absentee Voting Absentee voting exceeded any prior pre-election vote on record in the city for a special election. Eleven paper ballots were returned, and 224 ballots were cast absentee at the City Hall.

Before the election was called, the water department had completed plans, and bids on the needed equipment were about to be let by the council. Estimates on the cost of the equipment to fluoridate the water supply ranged up to $100,000.

A lengthy public hearing on the fluoridation issue was held by the city council last September. Following the hearing, the council instructed City Manager Elton Crull to proceed with fluoridating the water. The ensuing study was almost finished when a petition was presented making the election necessary.

UP ONLY ONE PER CENT State's Building Figures Show Tiny Gain Over 1964

AUSTIN (UPI)—Building construction in Texas went up only 1 per cent last year, the University of Texas Business Research Bureau reported Sunday.

The bureau said $1.627 billion was spent on new buildings and remodeling in 1965, compared with $1.612 billion the previous year. All of the increase came in showed an 8 per cent increase over 1964, and in alterations, which were up 16 per cent.

The nonresidential total of $685 million was $50 million above the previous year. This was offset, however, by an 8 per cent drop in residential construction from $809 million in 1964 to $743 million last year.

What stability there was in residential construction came from single family dwellings, where the total dollar value was unchanged from 1964, the bureau said.

This cushioned the effect of

DRAFTED Pleas Fail To Keep Physician Out Of Service

ROCKLAND, Maine (AP)—Despite petitions from neighbors and letters from Maine's senators, it appears that Dr. Emer B. Howard, 52, of Rockland, will enter military service Feb. 28.

He received his draft notice Friday. Dr. Howard, who started practice a little more than two years ago, has 2,300 patients and three children of his own. He is one of two full-time pediatricians who serve a population of 35,000 persons in and around Knox County.

Regretful Comment "It's kind of bad to be taken out of a community," the doctor said Sunday. "There are many chronically ill young people in this area, and many of them will have to be turned out to other communities for medical treatment."

Capt. Nathan Bard, chairman of Rockland's Selective Service Board No. 7, said Howard had been repeatedly deferred to continue his medical studies. That made the doctor eligible for military service up to age 35. Last December, Rocklanders circulated petitions asking further deferment. They were withdrawn at Howard's request, but he appealed a 1-A classification.

"There are still letters of appeal with Augusta and Washington authorities," Howard said, "but once you get your notice of greetings, I guess it's all over."

Health Won't Wait!

JOHN H. DAY, D.C.

How much longer do you intend to put up with hurting or being sick?

We are advised to take action to get results. This is particularly true in matters of health. Nature often needs assistance in removing the interference that prevents healing.

Chiropractic fills this need in the healing sciences today. There is no substitute for Chiropractic.

Chiropractic corrective adjustments remove the vertebral pressures against spinal cord nerves produced by falls, jars, jolts, or smashes and tensions which cause less than normal function to the body.

Don't continue to suffer with headaches, backaches, stomach trouble, menstrual disorders, respiratory ailments, nervous conditions, allergies, etc., whose cause can be corrected through Chiropractic care.

A lady patient suffering from the effects of a whiplash injury in a car accident which resulted in extreme symptoms of pseudostroke, high blood pressure, and violent headaches has received such amazing results from her adjustments, she keeps saying, "Oh, how I wish I'd started sooner. I feel like a new woman!"

If you are planning to return to Chiropractic care, or to begin Chiropractic treatment through your own intelligent deduction, or the insistence of friends or relatives. DO IT NOW!

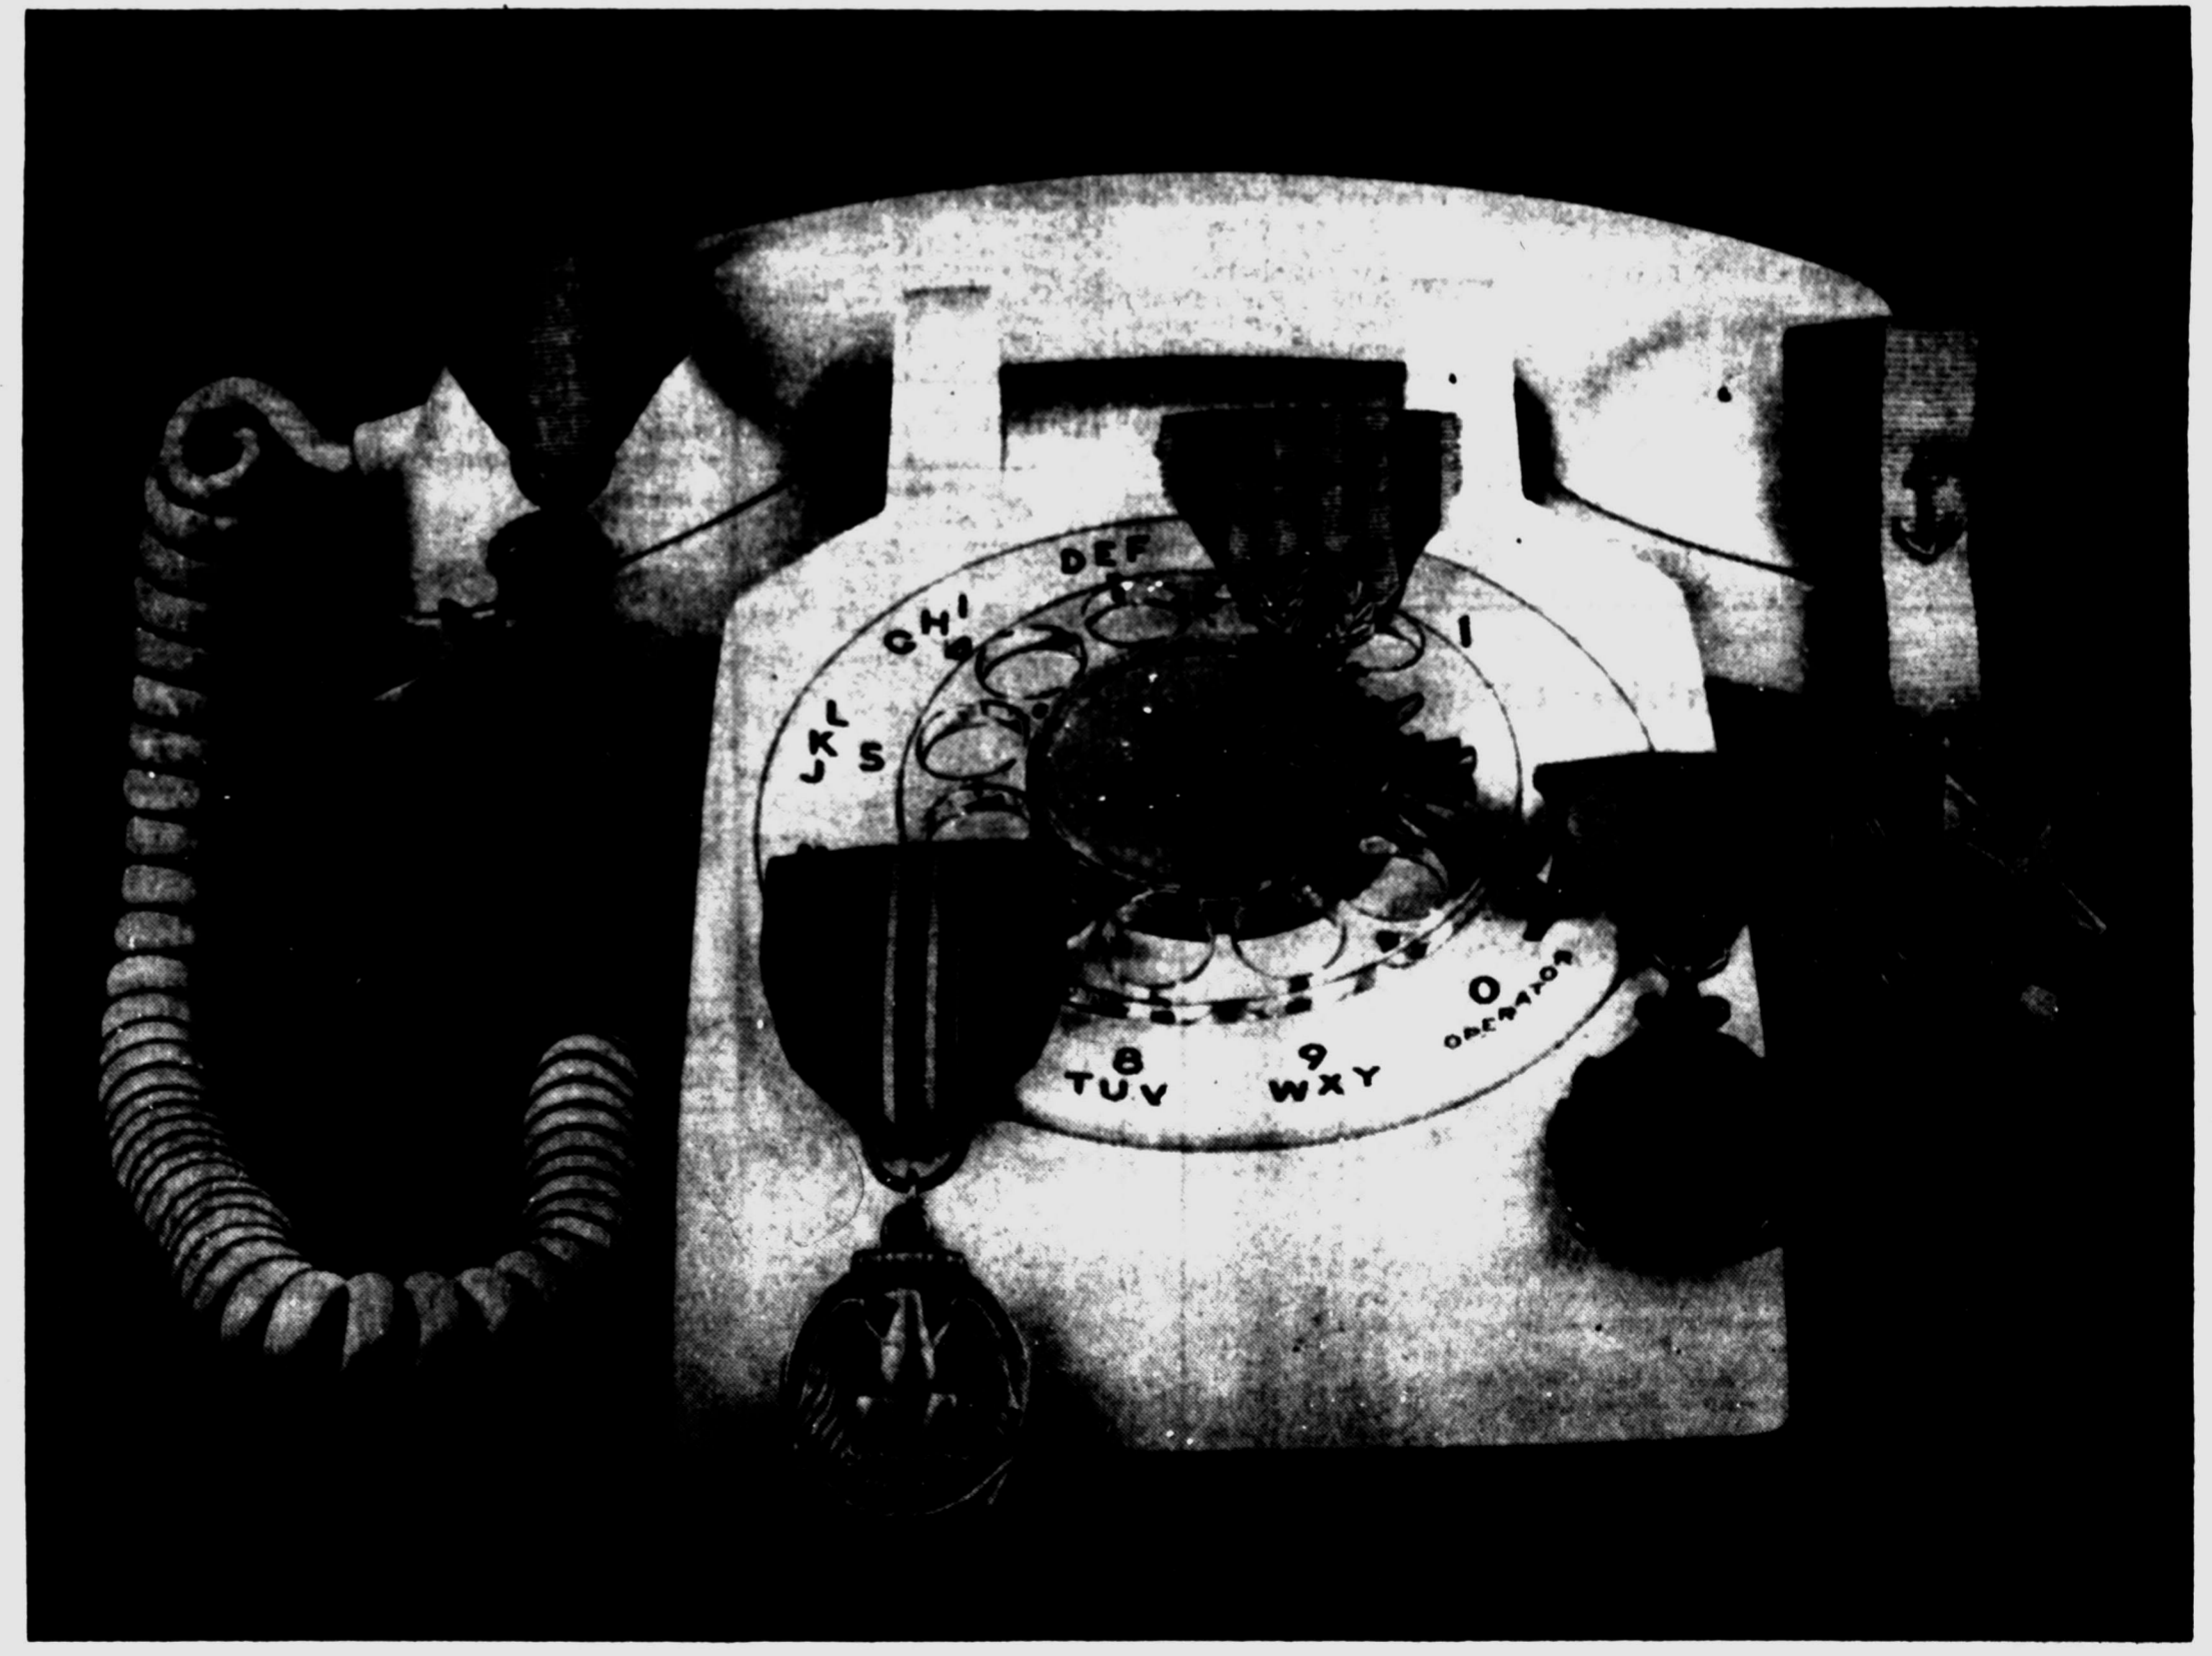

Delay can be dangerous. Sickiness is no joke. Good health is the greatest possession you can have.

DR. DAY

Hero

Sure it is. The telephone helps save lives, catch criminals, put out fires, bring help and guard homes. It's had a hand in spreading the alert on tornadoes, floods and hurricanes. It can bring the doctor, the fireman or the policeman—in a hurry. And being a modest hero, it can also do less dramatic things. Like letting you talk with friends and loved ones around town or around the world, quickly and easily. Or letting you shop from your easy chair, call ahead for reservations and do a thousand other things that make life richer, more rewarding, more fun. Isn't it nice to have a hero around the house?

Woman, Once Frozen To Death, Recalls Ordeal

By BOB COOPER
PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It was just one year ago that Mrs. Goldie Jennings went to bed in her trailer home and began a four-day nightmare that took her within a pulsebeat of frozen death.

“I don't remember getting up on Sunday morning, but I must have,” she recalled Saturday. “I cooked breakfast and left it on the stove, but I don't remember doing that, either.”

Viet Nam Mail Time Speeded

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has approved a recommendation of Postmaster General Lawrence F. Oberman to cut from one to four days of the mail delivery time to and from servicemen in Viet Nam and the Pacific.

This would be done by sending such mail by air mail within the borders of the United States rather than by regular mail.

This already is done to move mail across the Pacific. Oberman estimated 20 million pieces of first-class mail is involved for the 380,000 servicemen in the Pacific area.

Johnson said the faster delivery will be welcomed. "It is part of our unremitting effort to support the high morale of our troops in Viet Nam by bringing them the very best in mail service," he said in a statement.

A BIT OF LOGIC

Concerning Upholstery

Now for a bit of logic. Would there be more happiness in the home where the upholstered furniture is torn and tattered or would a warm feeling of happiness more likely be found through spring coverings that bring out the upholstered furnishings as the highlight of the home?

Anyone with any bit of logic would have to agree that the more attractive furnishings would contribute more to happiness in the home.

And it is this happiness that can be found through keeping your furniture covered properly.

For the spring coverings with the right shades and designs, make an appointment with Fine Arts Upholstery, 2249 34th St. Mrs. Inez Allan, owner of the business, will personally take care of your needs, even down to minor repairs.

Adds Personal Touch
It is you she strives to please, and please she does as her quality work has kept her in business here for 20 years.

She says, "I want to give the customer the best fabric, fitting and buy for what they can afford to spend." Prices at Fine Arts Upholstery start at $3 a yard and up.

Mrs. Allan adds the personal touch to her work as she takes out samples to the home and personally cuts and fits all the pieces herself.

She also pleases her customer, when there is a need for the chair or sofa to be returned in a hurry. For instance, a chair used by an invalid needed re-upholstering. Seeing a definite need the chair was returned, finished, late the next day. If the furnishing is taken on a regular basis, Mrs. Allan says, "It will take between five days and a week for it to be returned."

No 'Card Burners'

Found At Seminaries

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many Lutheran seminaries, although draft-exempt to study theology, are eager to learn the role they may have in combining allegiance to church and nation by becoming military chaplains, says the Rev. E. O. Midloe, executive secretary of the National Lutheran Council's Division of Service to Military Personnel.

The Rev. Midloe said, after completing annual visits to 12 Lutheran theological campuses, he met very few conscientious objectors and found no "draft card burners."

AT SALON L'LEE

Jack Shirley Has Artistic Qualities For Hairstyling

There is a true art in hairstyling and perfection of the art naturally lies in the hands of the stylist.

Jack Shirley, at Jessie Lee's Salon L'Lee, is one of the best stylists in the business. Like the artist, who works quietly in his studio, seeking the right color combinations and the proper strokes to produce a masterpiece, Jack works for his masterpiece in creating each and every hairstyle.

Jessie Lee says that because of his quiet personality and the quiet little salon in which he works that he is virtually undiscovered by the public. However, the talent and training behind his ability as a hair stylist has made him the one you want to create the beautiful hairstyle that will give you your weekly lift.

Artist With Waves
Jack is a perfectionist about detail, and this is most valuable to the customer, because it means his services are technically perfect.

When Jack gives your permanent wave you know the best blocking of the wave, the conditioning of the hair before and after, and the styling of the new permanent wave are the very best.

Jack is a naturally talented artist and does the sketches for Jessie Lee's Style Pamphlet each month. This means that he has a special feeling for design, which goes into every style. You'll find his hairstyles are not just the "same old 7 & 6."

Top Wig Stylist
This stylist is just as thorough with color for your hair. He never cuts corners in color, which means his color services are superb every time. There are no short-cuts to good hair coloring whether it is correcting a color problem or just your first adventure into changing the color of your hair. Jack's skills with your color formula and application will make your advertisement work.

Lower Prices
One of the frills that Stinson cuts out is pickup and delivery.

For most college students that phrase is not merely words, but a necessity. Stinson's Cleaners, 1708 Broadway, turns that statement into reality hundreds of times daily for its customers, not just the students, but all its customers.

Cuts Frills
For instance, take men's suits — at Stinson's, to have them cleaned and pressed it costs you only 69 cents. Cleaning and pressing of men's trousers is only 44 cents, which also is the price on the cleaning and pressing of ladies skirts. Ladies dresses are only 89 cents. To have your hat cleaned and blocked, Stinson's price is a low $1.19.

Years ago Stinson Cleaners learned to cut out the frills and stick to the business of cleaning clothes, gives the customer an extra savings and cleaner clothes too.

Ample free parking is available in front of the store. Also, if you want to save money and who doesn't take your laundry and dry cleaning to Stinson's Cleaners, 1708 Broadway.

Lee's Hair Design Institute, Inc., but is not connected to the services of the school.

The prices for services in Salon L'Lee are average for most salons in this area, with shampoo and sets starting at $3.

Permanent waves start at $5; haircuts, $3; and tint touch-ups, $7.50.

Bring this clipping with you as an introduction to Jack Shirley and receive a free conditioner and haircut with any other service. For an appointment call PO 5-5902.

How About Shrimpers?

CAMERON, La.—"Shrimp boats are a-coming; their sails are in sight. Shrimp boats are a-coming; they'll be dancing tonight."

AND IT COULD spell bankruptcy for a lot of shrimp-boat skippers and unemployment for their crews.

BUT NOBODY mentioned the shrimp boaters, whose problem is equally great. This Gulf Coast, and particularly the Louisiana part of it, is heavily Catholic.

IT IS HARD to say what is right or wrong about this situation, but the arm of the Vatican reaches far. The question is: Does the Pope know how far his influence extends?

GUEST EDITORIALS: Secrecy Futile

THANKS TO the diligence of a Republican Congressman from Minnesota, anybody now can find out the names of the needy youths who were hired by the Post Office last summer.

"I sure don't blame the kids," says Rep. Que, and we suppose he's right. It is a little harder to absolve the members of Congress, as Rep. Que also does, on grounds that postal authorities neglected to tell them that the summer job program was supposed to be a part of the Youth Opportunity Program.

O. C. McBRIDE: Dear Turnrow Tunkel . . .

DEAR TURNROW DID YOU know that the Chinese Communist Government operates 35 retail stores in the British Colony of Hong Kong?

'CRIME STOP' IN CHICAGO

Police-Citizen Partnership Watched

ITS ENCOURAGING news that Chicago's "Operation Crime Stop," which enlists citizens' aid in apprehending lawbreakers, has proceeded with significant success since its start in April of 1964.

"We need the same kind of citizen interest and involvement that contributed so much to improvement of public education. The public is worried about crime—sometimes to the point of hysteria. But consistency of interest and genuine support are low," says Powell.

It is understandable that criminals feel encouraged by all too often lenient courts and juries, and by the fact that most law enforcement agencies are undermanned and handicapped by legal red tape.

Other cities have started crime reporting campaigns similar to Chicago's or have them scheduled to start soon.

Touch Of Honesty In South Carolina

ALL THE WAY from South Carolina comes a refreshing legislative breeze, supplied by 67-year-old State Sen. Roger "Ploxy" Scott of Dillon County.

including a claim that he has practically everybody in his county on welfare. "Ploxy" Scott's performance provided a reminder that there is indeed "ignorance in high places" not only in government but in business and in most other human enterprises.

If Senator Scott loses his place in the re-appointment, he should be sent to the one place which needs him most—the Congress.

Senator Scott, who drinks buttermilk and chews tobacco, not necessarily at separate and distinct times, demonstrated the other way that he knows exactly why he was elected to his office and what he is expected to do therein.

The occasion was a filibuster to block reappointment of the Senate, which would take control away from the rural members.

He commented, "The voters didn't want smart people up here. They wanted average people. And they got average people."

Epton Earned More

PIFASANT NEWS has been received that William Epton, Harlem chairman of the pro Red China Progressive Labor Movement, has been sentenced for his part in inciting the Harlem riots of 1964 and his conspiracy to overthrow the New York State Government.

Michael J. Quill

THE PRESIDENT of the International Transport Workers Union, Michael J. Quill, died the other day at the height of his fame.

Possibly no one will ever know exactly why he ordered the New York City transit strike. However, there is reason for the belief that he felt impelled, near what he might have known, or felt, was the end of his career, to do what he had never done before—pull out his union members in a dramatic demand for increased wages and benefits.

During his 40 years in the transit work, he made himself a household name with periodic episodes of playing suspense and humor. But this time the performance got out of hand. Never before had Quill commanded so much attention at home and across the country.

The object of some of his sharpest jibes, Mayor John V. Lindsay, has noted that Quill was very much a part of New York. The former Mayor, Robert F. Wagner, has reminded that "he was a tough protagonist but personally a man of great good humor and wit."

New Yorkers have good reason to remember the colorful Mike Quill, in one way, or another.

It is disappointing, however, that he is scheduled to serve only one year in prison, since his sentences on three charges will run concurrently. Before the sentencing, New York Supreme Court Justice Arthur Marke, who permitted Epton to make a 40-minute speech attacking the U. S. Government and the State. The speech was cheered by some 60 of Epton's followers, who were thereupon—although tardily—cleared out by guards.

DAVID LAWRENCE: Soviet Bureaucratic Mind Blamed For Mott Tragedy

WASHINGTON The Soviet bureaucratic mind, which could conceivably trigger a possible nuclear war some day, has revealed an example of its eccentricity in the handling of the case of Newcomb Mott, an American tourist who is alleged to have committed suicide on a train in Russia.

Young Mott wandered across the Norwegian border last September into Russia without a visa, which he thought he didn't need, as much as persons of other nationalities were not required to have visas to enter Russia in this area. It is alleged in Russia that Mott was a spy and connected with the Central Intelligence Agency. This is absurd on its face. Nobody with any intelligence would ever send into another country on a dangerous mission—or any other kind of errand with risks involved—an American who didn't have a proper visa, especially when it is so easy to employ persons of other nationalities living nearby to undertake such tasks.

very heavy casualties. The shock this gave General Marshall is comparable to the stunning blow that persons familiar with the simple rules of justice in cases of minor offenses felt when they read of the 18-month sentence at hard labor given Newcomb Mott by a Soviet court.

BIT WHAT IS even more incomprehensible is the way the arrest and trial were carried on by the Soviet authorities. To sentence to 18 months of hard labor in a prison camp a tourist who mistakenly assumed he could cross an international boundary, as persons from other countries were privileged to do, is to point the finger of blame squarely on the Soviet bureaucracy.

Now THE BLUNDER has been compounded by the clumsy handling of the inquiry into the circumstances under which Mott died. Why wasn't a Soviet guard able to prevent the tragedy? Plainly any prisoner undergoing hardship can go berserk and do violence to himself. But the Soviet bureaucrats wouldn't think such things out that way.

THE DISCUSSION concerned ways and means of using electronic devices to clear mine fields and protect troops advancing against enemy lines. Stalin said such detectors weren't necessary, as he always used battalions of his own infantry and the soldiers tripped and exploded the mines as they moved forward. This, of course, meant

ROWLAND EVANS & ROBERT NOVAK Javits, Ervin Join Up

WASHINGTON Totally divergent motives are uniting liberal Northerners and conservative Southerners in Senate opposition to one of President Johnson's top priority civil rights plans.

J. Ervin Jr. of North Carolina. Ervin's argument, the legislative history of the 1964 Civil Rights Act "clearly" put the service in the Department of Commerce.

The President's plan is now getting the hard sell on Capitol Hill by Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, one of the most skilled government lobbyists. Subject to veto by either House of Congress, it would move the Community Relations Service, the racial conciliation service established by the 1964 Civil Rights Act, from the Commerce Department to Katzenbach's own Justice Department.

LIKE MOST thoughtful Senators, Ervin wants the CRS to become, as it has not so far, a bridge between white and Negro in the South. In his letter, Ervin contended the CRS cannot be trusted by Southerners if it is wedded to Katzenbach's Federal prosecutors.

KATZENBACH'S TALENT for persuasion has succeeded in staying off what figured to be strong opposition from civil rights groups, but not influential members of the Senate's bipartisan civil rights bloc.

Ervin has a special place within the Southern hierarchy as Dixie's chief attorney. Thus his opposition could add a dozen or more Southern votes to the Javits-Hart liberals.

Headed by New York Republican Jacob Javits and Michigan Democrat Philip Hart, they are fighting a rearguard action against the switch.

THE LIBERALS oppose the transfer for different reasons. They fear the CRS is being dragged into what they view as a go-slow policy in civil rights enforcement presided over by Katzenbach in the Justice Department.

WHAT HAS NOT been advertised is that the Southern Democrats quietly have been planning a battle of their own. The first sign of potent Southern opposition came Dec. 9 in a personal letter to President Johnson written by Sen. Sam

Unlike Ervin, the liberals now are more interested in the North than the South. Unlike Ervin, they would like to see the CRS given a new and important status inside the Housing and Urban Affairs Department, particularly with racial tensions rising in the Northern big-city Negro sections.

ANDREW TULLY: Voting Case Misargued

WASHINGTON They were wrongheaded as hell, but the legal beagles who used to argue the South case were giants compared to those pathetic pettifoggers who challenged the 1965 Voting Rights Act before the Supreme Court.

NO WONDER then that Katzenbach, under the President's constant prodding, is working overtime to sell the Johnson plan to Congress. First step in the hard-sell was to name Roger Wilkins, nephew of renowned and respected civil rights leader Roy Wilkins, Director of the CRS (and the first Negro Assistant Attorney General in history). The Wilkins name immediately quieted opposition from the Civil Rights Leadership Conference.

THE ARGUMENT presented by those representatives of six Southern states, if such a term is permissible, was mostly twaddle. They went on and on about how Congress had acted as both judge and jury in passing the voting legislation because of found certain states guilty of discrimination in the application of literacy tests.

Next, Katzenbach got Presidential approval to raise CRS's budget from $1.2 to $1.8 million and to add 23 new consultants to the pathetically undermanned staff.

THIS APPROACH may have boosted a certain quality of cheap theatrics, but it missed the point entirely. That point is not whether Congress may enact a state of a crime, but whether it may enact legislation which infringes on states' rights and is therefore unconstitutional.

Whether Katzenbach's skillful lobbying wins out may depend on Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York. Kennedy may turn out to be the President's salvation. If he supports Katzenbach and his other old colleagues in the Justice Department, the Johnson plan will get a major boost. Otherwise, the strange joining of Ervin and Javits could defeat it.

In its prosecution with claiming martyrdom, the South has overlooked the realities on its side. The Supreme Court in 1959 upheld all state literacy tests as the exercise of the "lawful power" vested in the state by the Federal constitution. Its ruling certainly did not have in mind condoning the action by the Civil Service Commission last year in instructing Federal examiners to register all voting applicants "even if they cannot read or write or even sign their names."

On Memory Lane

(Taken from the files of the Lubbock Morning Avalanche, Jan. 31, 1946.) Swelled by more than 1,000 veterans, many of them enrolling in college for the first time, registration at Texas Tech climbed near the 3,000-mark Wednesday during first day's enrollment for the spring semester. The registration was expected to hit 3,500 before enrollment ends.

ON THE RECORD, it seems credible that certain sections of Dixie have used literacy tests to discriminate against the Negro. After all, such discrimination has been a political pattern for the past 100 years. But again, this is beside the point. What Congress did in the Voting Rights Act of 1965 was to amend the constitutions of the various states to accommodate a segment of the electorate. Worse, it abolished literacy tests in some states while permitting them to stand in others.

LONDON In its first major action, the United Nations security council agreed unanimously to permit Russia and Iran to settle their dispute by direct negotiation but reserved the right to request information on the progress of their negotiations at any time.

IN ITS prosecution with claiming martyrdom, the South has overlooked the realities on its side. The Supreme Court in 1959 upheld all state literacy tests as the exercise of the "lawful power" vested in the state by the Federal constitution. Its ruling certainly did not have in mind condoning the action by the Civil Service Commission last year in instructing Federal examiners to register all voting applicants "even if they cannot read or write or even sign their names."

WASHINGTON Congress showed an inclination to go slow on a loan to Britain and fast on a strike-control bill with teeth today. President Truman asked Congress in a message to authorize $3.7 billion to lend to Britain. Solons weren't of a mind to do it. In the House, the rules committee sent a strike-control bill to the floor. It would ban foremen's unions and violent picketing, allow civil suits against violators of labor contracts and injunctions against unions.

MOREOVER, DIXIE has a more recent precedent on its side. A U.S. District Court panel here last November ruled unconstitutional a provision of the Voting Rights Act which permits citizens to vote even if they can't speak or write English. In doing so, the two-to-one majority said New York state had a legal right to "enforce its own constitution."

General Motors last night served notice that it was unwilling to renew any maintenance of union membership clause in a new contract and reoffered a temporary 13 1/2 cent per hour wage increase which union leaders promptly rejected.

Only those pitifully vicious leftovers from the old segregationist South will argue that discrimination against Negro voters should be tolerated in this age. But as the District Court panel noted, Congress has no right to alter the states' voter qualification standards by mere legislation; it must do so by a Constitutional amendment requiring ratification by the states. Hopefully, the Supreme Court will decide this one on the law, not on the state of somebody's glands.

Boys Are Nominated For 'Meanest Crime'

Lubbock police Sunday were ready to nominate the theft of a $1 box of candy as "the meanest crime of the month."

Two 9-year-old Campfire Girls were selling the candy from door-to-door Saturday when the incident occurred. A car, occupied by four young men, stopped the girls at the intersection of 28th St. and Louisville Ave.

One of the occupants asked the girls the cost of the candy, then offered to buy a box for a $1. He handed the girl $1, but when she gave him the box of candy, the youth grabbed the money back and also grabbed the candy. The car sped off, leaving two broken-hearted Campfire Girls at the curb.

National Gold Reserves Show Sharp Decline

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States lost $1,664,000,000 worth of gold in 1965, the Federal Reserve Board reported Sunday. It was the largest U.S. gold loss since 1960.

The 1965 gold outflow left the United States with $13,807,000,000 worth of gold at the end of December. This included $74 million of gold in the exchange stabilization fund out of which the Federal Reserve conducts day-to-day foreign exchange operations.

The gold loss included a payment of $259 million to the International Monetary Fund when quotas were increased last year. In exchange for this gold the U.S. borrowing rights at the IMF increased by $259 million.

The U.S. gold stock declines when the government sells gold to industry. But most of the gold loss comes when foreign government cash in their excess dollars for U.S. gold at the rate of $35 an ounce.

The administration's campaign to end the dollar outflow is designed to put a stop to the gold loss.

New Discovery Now Makes It Possible to Shrink And Heal Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain In Minutes

New York, N. Y. (Special): A world-famous institute has discovered a new substance which has the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids without surgery. The sufferer first notices almost unbelievable relief in minutes from itching, burning and pain. Then this substance speeds up healing of the injured tissues all while it quickly reduces painful swelling.

Tests conducted under a doctor's observations proved this so—even in cases of 10 to 20 years' standing. The secret is the new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—now offered in both ointment or suppository form called Preparation H®.

In addition to actually shrinking piles—Preparation H lubricates and makes bowel movements less painful. It helps to prevent infection (a principal cause of hemorrhoids).

Only Preparation H contains this magic new substance which quickly helps heal injured cells back to normal and stimulates regrowth of healthy tissue again. Just ask for Preparation H Ointment or Preparation H Suppositories (easier to use away from home). Available at all drug counters.

China Brands Fidel 'Liar'

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China called Fidel Castro a liar Sunday for saying Peking had broken its rice-for-sugar pact with Cuba.

The Chinese said the pact, which was an untruthfully made public the contents of the negotiations and tried to shift on China the responsibility for the cut in the rice for its population. This really compels us to suspect that in so doing the Cuban side is after something else."

Reply Broadcast

The lengthy reply was broadcast by the New China News Agency and monitored in Tokyo. The source of the statement was given as "responsible official of the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Trade."

Castro told his people China would not send Cuba any rice during 1966. He accused China of breaking a long-term pact calling for Cuba to give China two tons of sugar for every ton of rice.

"As a matter of fact, in the trade between China and Cuba there has never been any exchange of two kinds of commodities in direct ratio with each other. The question of exchange between one individual commodity and another simply does not exist."

The Chinese official also took a slap at Castro's orders for ration rice, a staple food for Cubans. "As far as we know, Cuba started to ration rice at the monthly quota of six pounds per capita in 1962. In that year China exported to Cuba 120,000 tons of rice. Then in 1963 and 1964, China exported to Cuba 135,000 tons of rice each year, and the rice ration for the Cuban population remained unchanged. In 1965, China's export of rice to Cuba nearly doubled, yet there was no increase in the Cuban rice ration."

The statement added that China's export of rice to Cuba this year will be less than some previous years but will equal that of 1963 and 1964.

Congressmen Split Over Ending Bombing Lull In North Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five Congress members who participated in a sometimes heated discussion of U.S. policy in Viet Nam split Sunday over whether the nation should resume bombing North Viet Nam — and over practically all aspects of the Southeast Asian war.

"Unquestionably yes," said Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss.), chairman of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, when the question was posed.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) said: "I think it should be a military decision to be decided by the commander in chief and the commanders in the field. I don't think congressmen should decide military strategy."

Hopes Lull Continues

Sen. Joseph Clark (D-Pa.) said: "I think it is a political decision which has to be made by the President acting only secondarily in his capacity as commander in chief. I hope he will decide that for political reasons not to resume bombing at least for the time being."

"My personal opinion," said Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), "is that bombing must be resumed very soon."

But Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), the fiery critic of administration policies, asserted: "It would be fatal for peace in Asia. Escalation of this war is going to kill additional thousands and thousands of boys who shouldn't be killed. We ought to stop escalation of this war."

The five were interviewed in a special 90-minute television-radio program "Congress and the War."

Stennis opened what at times turned into a debate with a declaration not only for resumption but for marked expansion of the air strikes on the north.

Calls For Expansion

"We must strengthen our forces and that means we are driven to resumption of bombing North Viet Nam," he said, mentioning power plants, fuel supplies, ports and harbors.

"When the President makes the decision to resume bombing, military men can select the targets," Stennis said. "I don't think Congress needs to worry about that."

Claims Charter Violation

Morse, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, voiced one of his several dissenters, saying that escalation of the war would lead to a massive land conflict in Southeast Asia.

Morse asserted that U.S. operations in Viet Nam have violated 11 articles of the United Nations Charter, and he challenged the President's authority for waging war without a formal declaration.

No president, including President Johnson has constitutional authority to send any American boy to slaughter in Viet Nam without a declaration of war," and Morse said, "I call on you, President Johnson, to make such a declaration."

Stennis and Morse at one point engaged in hot verbal exchange over whether U.S. operations in Viet Nam are illegal.

Morse contended that "We are violating law as long as we use up that U.N. Charter" and he said a resolution calling for a withdrawal over Viet Nam should be presented to the U.N. Security Council.

"Nothing Illegal"

"We have done nothing illegal," Stennis countered. "To refer it (Viet Nam) to the United Nations for a solution would be giving them a problem they could not solve. We had better go on and do it under our command."

The group was asked about the price of war and the nation's willingness to pay it.

"I don't believe we can have guns and butter at the same time," replied Mundt, a member of the Joint Economic Committee. Nonessential domestic programs, he said, should be cut back.

"I don't see anything wrong with having a little sacrifice generally among the people," Mundt said. "We all suffer from this conflict."

Clark, also a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said the question is really "how many guns and how much butter?"

If the war is escalated "we may have to raise taxes," Clark said. "I favor raising more revenue to keep the 'Great Society' going, rather than leaving the tax structure where it is."

Boggs said "the economic base we operate from is a strong base indeed," and the cost of the Viet Nam war represents only about 1.5 per cent of the nation's Gross National Product, the total of goods and services.

"Today we have about a $221-billion debt ceiling," Boggs said, "but we take $720 billion."

Boggs declined to say, however, in answer to a challenge by Mundt, that the administration will not seek extension of the debt limit this year.

"You are saying that Viet Nam will continue to stay within the budget estimate," Clark told Boggs at one point. "But I say that a resumption of bombing will escalate this into a major war in Southeast Asia."

Foreign Policy Discussed

Turning to foreign policy and particularly Soviet-Chinese relations, Stennis said the United States must carry the Viet Nam problem to a successful conclusion.

"The certainty for it all to collapse would be our failure to carry it through," Stennis said. "We need some kind of alliance or plan that will be effective toward stabilizing that country."

Clark denied that the United States should fight for "total victory." "The vital aspect of our foreign policy," he said, is Soviet-Chinese relations. Clark urged, among other things, a "detente" with the Soviet Union on such matters as wars of liberation and nuclear proliferation. And he said bombing Hanoi would only "drive Russia into the arms of China."

Boggs pointed to the lull in U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam for the last 28 days, and said President Johnson's peace offensive has made it clear the United States seeks peace.

"We have taken away a propaganda device that the Communists have used — that we won't negotiate," Boggs said. "I think that this has been a tremendous gain among the capitals of the world."

Reds Say Prisoners 'Illegally' Returned

TOKYO (AP) — North Viet statement said. It added that Nam protested Sunday the return of 21 prisoners of war, saying they were "illegally" sent back from South Viet Nam.

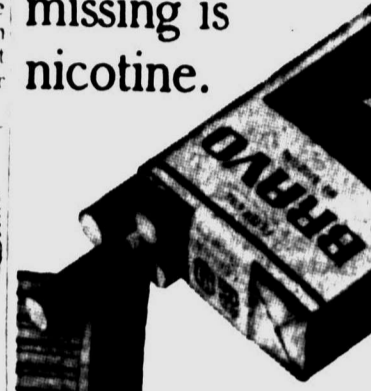

Hanoi radio reported, in a broadcast heard here, that the protest was made by the delegation head of North Viet Nam's people's army to the Joint Commission for the Demilitarized Zone.

"This is an obvious maneuver designed to slander the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam and cover up the U.S. imperialists' scheme of intensifying and expanding the war of aggression in Viet Nam," the statement said.

Tax Increase Not Likely, Says Fowler

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler said Sunday "I don't have the feeling we're close to a general tax increase."

Fowler said he thinks the current economic program of the administration will stand up through the next year and a half.

Pressed on whether he anticipates a tax increase for a year and a half, Fowler replied, "I am neither anticipating that we will or we won't. I think under current conditions it is not required."

Johnson In Warning

Fowler conceded unforeseeable events could cause a tax increase and noted that because of that President Johnson included the warning in his recent budget message to Congress.

"We are considering a full range of all the various alternatives and are studying them," he said.

One of the first areas to study would be increases in the individual income tax and corporate income tax, he said.

Fowler said there is no precise formula for determining when a tax increase is needed.

"We will have to look at developments as they occur," he said.

Lists Factors

He mentioned that factors would be the movement of prices, more appropriations for Viet Nam and pressures of supply on demand.

If the price index moved up as it did last year, he said, "I don't think we would take alarm." He called a price increase of 1.5 to 2 per cent undesirable and unwelcome, but tolerable.

There is no current thought, Fowler said, that rigid, formal wage and price controls will be needed.

"I think the voluntary restraints of both management and labor are working very well," he said.

LUBBOCK GROUP RETURNS Mexico Trade, Investment Possibilities Held Excellent

Twelve Lubbock men, members of Lubbock's first organized trade mission to Mexico, returned to wives and families Sunday after a nine-day tour of the Latin American country. Sponsored by the U. S. Commerce Department, the tour explored mutual trade possibilities between Texas and Mexico. Members of the trade mission, the first from West Texas to visit any foreign country, represented the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and their respective business firms.

Head of the delegation was Robert L. Reinhardt, executive vice president of Hancock Manufacturing Co., which makes heavy earth-moving equipment. Reinhardt commented Sunday that the Lubbock group had discovered increased governmental stability and "very favorable trade possibilities" in Mexico.

"We found relations between the two countries were better than we had expected," he said. "I think we accomplished a great deal."

Dr. John B. Hilderbrand, economics professor at Texas Tech, said, "There is a high rate of economic growth in Mexico which makes investment and trade possibilities in the country excellent." Hilderbrand also explored the possibility of adding more Mexican scholarships to the Texas Tech program, which now has only one Mexican student on such a basis.

Other members of the group which visited Monterrey and Toluca while in Mexico, included Elmer Adams, manager of the Ford B tractor and Equipment Co.

THINKING OUT LOUD
WHIT RIX VICTORY ARLEN P. TRICE

The self interest instinct is the most commonly recognized trait in the human race. There are occasional exceptions of course, but for the most part, we put "me" . . . "I" . . . "mine" . . . ahead of "you" . . . "yours."

This philosophy starts early in life. For instance, in our childhood prayers, we are taught to say, "Now I lay ME down to sleep; I pray the Lord-MY-etc." And it often goes on with, "Bless mommy and My daddy," and so on. The thinking of "Me first" . . . "you next" . . . even has some comedy as many parents see when they settle childish squabbles over such routines as bath room occupancy . . . In contrast, read this poem (author unknown).

"We cannot pray the Lord's Prayer, and even once say I . . . We cannot pray the Lord's Prayer and even once say MY . . . nor can we say the Lord's Prayer and not pray for another; for when we ask for daily bread, we must include our brother . . . Certainly, others are included, in each and every plea; from the beginning to the end of it, it does not once say Me" . . .

It is an interesting contrast!

Mud, Misery Characterize 'Dirty Little War'

AP staffers Bob Poo and Henri...
Airmobile Division troops into action...
on South Viet Nam's central coast...
Here is their report.

An Thi, South Viet Nam (AP)—
Out in a shell-pocked no-man's land, a thick blob of mud moved toward our trench, forming Communist real estate but now our haven as well as our hospital and mortuary.

The muddy blob was a U.S.
infantryman, wounded minutes earlier as his platoon made another attempt to reach a clump of palm trees 100 yards away.
Neither he nor the platoon made it. Now he was crawling back, bullets spattering around him.

Trench Of Misery

He flopped into the trench, wounded in the hip. A medic floundered across American dead and wounded in the trench, a trench of misery with the rain falling, the bullets cracking and the wounded piling up.

It had been the Communists' first line of defense around this tiny village on the central lowlands that the 1st Cavalry had chosen to visit Friday.

The Reds had built it deep into the sand. The cavalrymen wrested it from them in charges across an open rice paddy under withering sniper fire that cut down several of the cavalrymen.

Medic Wounded

Medic Thomas L. Cole, from Richmond, Va., himself wounded in the head, helped tend the wounded, sprawled in the mud of the trench. He was nearly blinded by the bandage wrapped around his head.

But Cole kept on going, answering the cry of a wounded man here, a dying man there.
Cole spent an hour in mouth-to-mouth resuscitation trying to revive one terribly wounded soldier. The man died.

In late afternoon, Cole had civilian casualties to tend to,
a whole family.

They had been hiding in a house in the tiny village nearby, and had suffered from the battle. A baby barely a year old had been hit by shrapnel in the abdomen arms and legs.

The company commander,
Joseph Suggins of Cornwall Bridge, Conn., cried out to the father as he carried the baby near the American position.

Child Beyond Help

The man came over as enemy troops sniped around him. His wounded wife, blood all over her face, followed. There was little that Cole or any of the other men could do for the wounded child. As the day passed into night, and as the rain grew stronger in its intensity, the baby began whimpering then died.

The wailing of the grieving family, lying fearful in the muddy trench, shattered the nerves of some of the soldiers.

"Tell them to shut up," one wounded man called.

The battleground at An Thi looked like photographs of the beachhead at Iwo Jima in World War II.

The command post of the 2nd Battalion of the 7th Regiment was in a deep trench and the main force of the Communists fought from dug-in positions behind the line of palm trees.
Enemy snipers with automatic weapons perched in the trees on each side of the command post.

Hide Behind Graves
Cavalrymen dashing across the open ground took refuge behind raised graves of an old cemetery. Some of them made the trip time and time again until the enemy fled under air assaults that rained down bombs and napalm.

A drenching rain fell throughout Friday night and in the pre-dawn hours of Saturday, then slacked off about dawn.

The light of dawn exposed a picture of bloody battle—the dead and wounded in the muddied trenches, the empty cartridge clips and ration boxes scattered about, the shell holes.

In the village a rooster crowed and hens pecked in the mud. A pig rooted through empty
C-rations cans.

It was a dawn that did not come peacefully.

Beard Improves Lead At Lucky International

Fires One Under 70 Sunday

Mike Souchak Trails By A Single Stroke

Kentuckian Frank Beard shaved another stroke off par Sunday to maintain the third round lead in the $57,000 Lucky International Open Golf Tournament with a 203 as he aimed for a wire-to-wire victory.

Beard finished just one stroke ahead of his Mike Souchak, who fired a 68 for 204 while Beard was at 70 over the Harding Park municipal course on a crisp, sunny day.

Ray Floyd of Fayetteville, N.C., finished third after 54 holes with a 69 and 205 as a jammed field headed into Monday's final round—one day late because of a Pacific storm which caused a postponement of play Saturday.

Chris Blocker, with a 152 for two rounds, failed to make Friday's cut. Mule-shoe's Terry Dill shot a 70 Sunday for a 208. He lost the ball on the 16th when he pushed a wedge shot into the top of a huge cypress tree, costing a penalty stroke. He came back and birdied 17 and 18 to finish one under par for the third round.

The 26-year-old Beard, from Louisville, Ky., who led with 66 after one round and 133 after two, carded a 34-36 for his third round over the par 71 course and just clung to the lead despite being 10 strokes under par.

Stood Challenges Off
First he stood off the challenge of Floyd, who toured the first nine holes in 32, and then that of the steady Souchak.

Arnold Palmer headed a list of five who came in at 207, still in position to threaten the leader. Palmer, the all-time lead-in money winner, started with a 73 but has come back with 66-68 to put himself in top contention.

Also at 207 were local favorite Ken Venturi with an even par 71, Joe Campbell, 69, Tom Weiskopf, 70, and Dave Ragan, 71.

Terry Dill, who hit one shot that stayed up in a tree, came in at 70-208.

Beard carded seven pars and birdied the fifth and ninth holes with putts of only one and two feet for his 24 on the opening nine. He did not card another bird and slipped over par on the 237-yard 16th when his second shot went over the green. He chipped short and missed an eight-foot try for a par.

Weather Changes
Souchak, the 38-year-old veteran playing out of Grossinger, N.Y., carded a 33 on the first nine and an even par 35 on the second in weather conditions sharply contrasting the wind and rain of Saturday when greens were flooded.

Big Mike, former Duke football player, dropped birdie putts of four feet on the second hole five on the sixth and three on the ninth.

Floyd, a 23-year-old who already has proved himself a winner, bogeyed the first hole and then charged back with five birdies on the final six holes of his first nine to shove himself into contention. He dropped the ball by three-putting the 11th hole and missing both the green.

Pioneer In Big Eight Dies

Reaves Peters, 72, Was Executive Head

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Reaves Peters 72, former executive director of the Big Eight Conference and a leader in the national sports organizations for many years, died at his home Sunday night after a long illness.

He had returned home after undergoing treatment at a hospital.

Peters retired 2½ years ago after 14 years as head of the Big Seven—later the Big Eight—Conference offices. Formerly, he had served 15 years as commissioner of officials for the Big Six Conference.

He helped organize the National Football Foundation and the Football Hall of Fame and later was president of the foundation.

Active In Sports
He also helped organize the National Association of College Commissioners and was its secretary-treasurer 24 years.

Peters served on several committees of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and at the time of death was president of the Missouri Track and Field Federation, which was formed in 1962.

Born near Warrensburg, Mo., Peters graduated from Warrensburg Normal, then a two-year college, then started a long high school coaching career. He coached at Ferguson, Mo.; Jefferson City, Mo.; Birmingham, Ala., and Fort Scott, Kan., before becoming coach and athletic director at Kansas City Northeast High in 1927.

His Northeast basketball team won 11 city championships, and his track teams did almost as well.

While he was still at Northeast, Peters began working for the Big Six, which later became the Big Seven and then the Big Eight. Finally, in 1948, he left Northeast to begin full time duties with the Big Seven.

Raiders, Frogs Vie For Shot At Leading Aggies

(By The Associated Press) A busy week is in store for Tech. Texas Christian and Texas Tech meet Tuesday night at Lubbock to see who can keep up with Texas A&M in the Southwest Conference basketball race. Both teams are tied for second with 3-1 records. The Aggies are undefeated in five conference games.

Should Texas Christian win another showdown would come Saturday afternoon when the Kansas City Northeast High in 1927.

Should Tech win, it would be in ideal position when it takes on Texas Tech at Lubbock Saturday night.

Two Last Week
Only two conference games were played last week. Texas Tech outran winless Rice Saturday afternoon at Houston 108-90. Rice has lost all 13 starts this season.

Texas Christian ended a long drought as it defeated Southern Methodist 97-89 at Dallas for its first victory over a Mustang basketball team in 12 tries.

In nonconference games, three SWC teams went to Houston and found they had something in common besides their conference affiliation. None of the three, Baylor, Texas Christian or Texas A&M, could beat the fast-rising Cougars.

Houston beat Baylor 92-91, TCU 100-79 and A&M 97-85. Arkansas tied with Baylor with a 2-2 conference mark. SWC teams. All play one or more games.

The games include Rice-Baylor at Waco, Texas Christian-Texas Tech at Lubbock and Texas-Howard Payne at Brownwood on Tuesday night. Southern Methodist tangles with Arkansas at Fayetteville Wednesday night.

O'Banion's Troopers Now 2-2

Longhorns' McDuff Loop's Top Scorer

By CARLTON STOWERS
Avalanche-Journal Sports Staff

The Lubbock High Westerners, having squared their second round record to a respectable 2-2, try to step above the .500 mark in Municipal Coliseum at 8 p.m. today when they host the Caprock Longhorns in a District 3-AAAA cage battle.

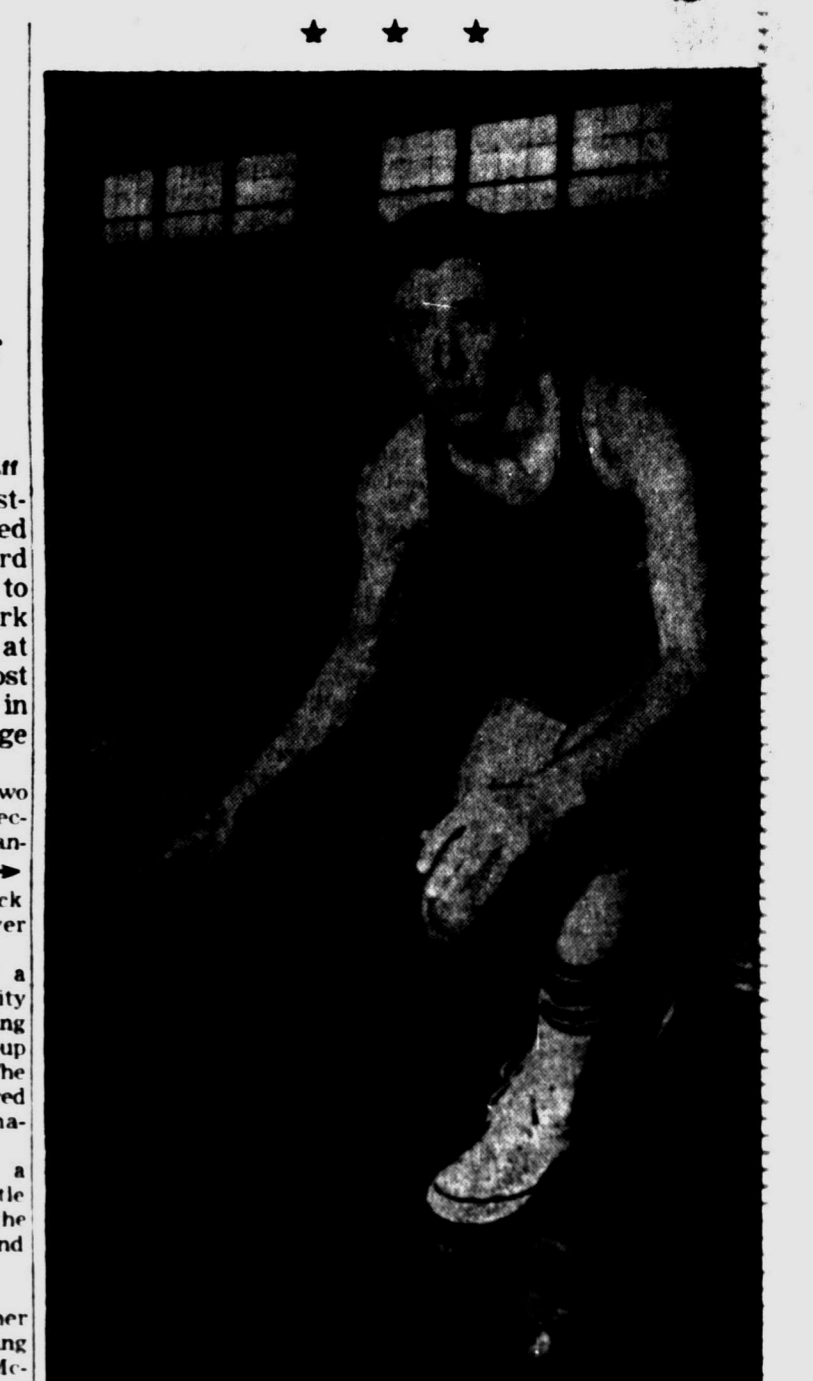

After dropping the first two encounters of the league's second round, Coach Max O'Banion's combo has come back strong to score easy wins over Berger and Palo Duro.

Tonight's action will mark a hasty return to the Hub City for the Longhorns after having played Monterey in a make-up affair here Saturday night. The league leading Plainsmen scored a 70-43 victory over the Amarillo crew.

Lubbock High will carry a 1965 season mark into battle with Caprock as 7-15 for the year and .65 in the second round of league action.

League's Leading Scorer
Local fans will get another look at the league's leading scorer in Longhorn Danny McDuff, a 6-0 senior who has hit for 204 points in 13 district games for a 15.7 average. He hit for 23 last Friday against Pampa to take the lead from Amarillo's Charlie Wells and despite failing to hit in double

Carlton Stowers

With The Wreck of the Sandies history and the Saturday night triumph over Caprock burning fresh in his memory, one loyal Monterey High School cage fan emerged from the warm confines of Municipal Coliseum and, after first making unmentionable mention of the temperature, voiced this bit of wisdom: "Well, I think they've got it in the bag now . . ."

Stakes High In Each Battle

HAD PLAINSMAN mentor Gerald Myers been within earshot, he most likely would have charged the man, issued stern reasoning why, Sir, such an idea was out of line and probably would have suggested washing out this "ole mouth with Lava soap."

Ya see, Myers, by nature, is not the kind of man who admits optimism. He dips his squad in the same line of thinking and, as may be attested by the 21-2 record his MHS quarter has recorded to date, therein may well be the key factor in the emergence of this year's Plainsmen crew as a bonafide play-off contender.

The Sandies, as Coach Johnny Ethridge and everyone else knows, have guaranteed themselves a shot at the title. The fact that the Amarillo combo marched through the first round without a scratch makes them most worthy.

"No one'll stop 'em in the second half," someone said. "The worst that could happen to 'em would be a tie for the second half crown," said another. Either such event would shove the Sandies right into the District Throne Room for the first time since back in the '40s.

SO, YA DIG out the schedule of remaining games and begin a little personal analysis of the whole hectic situation. It doesn't take long to see that the Plainsmen are, and will be for the next three outings, fighting an uphill battle. Standing between the Hub City crew and a perfect second round ledger are (1) Tascosa, a team the Plainsmen edged 41-38 in two overtimes; (2) Pampa, the league's defending champs who are also unbeaten in the second round to date; and (3) Lubbock High Westerners, the "herald" which Myers' Men downed, 4-41, the last time out.

And, Brother, unless you're a newcomer to these parts, it's financial suicide to wager on the outcome of that tie.

"We have definitely got to think about first things first," pointed out Myers, his voice given the "ole One-Two by a cold and yodeling instructor.

With Tascosa still in the running with a 2-1 mark, the Rebels are probably hearing something like "Fellas, you're not out of this thing yet." In Pampa, Terry Culley is preaching the same sermon, and Amarillo players are getting challenges in the same disage.

Which is to say the obvious. Each game, as loop play begins its swansong is a championship game. A trip to the bidistrict encounters may hinge on every outcome.

About Figures 'N Folks

ACCORDING TO FIGURES released by Public Schools Athletic Director Pete Ragus, Monterey threw 67,207 fans in 12 meet days this past season. Lubbock High had 14,141 and Palo Alto 13,743.

Coach James Odum's Plainsmen, making seven regular season home stands, drew 17,778 fans to the play-off matches. The next big drawing card was the Battle of the Seven Squares, matching the two locals. Paid attendance was 1,361. In its bidistrict match with Wichita Falls Rider in Wichita Falls, Monterey played before 10,136 folks.

Here, in short, is a breakdown on the Monterey home games: Permian, 2,996; Midland, 2,460; Amarillo, 2,486; Caprock, 2,981; Fortner, 2,428; Plainsview, 5,013; Lubbock High, 1,984; Permian, 15,878. And road games: Palo Duro, 2,566; Tascosa, 5,212; Pampa, 2,632.

Home attendance for Lubbock High, Midland, Los 1,010; Tascosa, 3,411; Palo Duro, 2,428; Pampa, 1,486. On the road it looked like this: Odessa, 4,147; Borger, 3,079; Plainsview, 2,260; Amarillo, 1,384; Caprock, 2,066; Monterey, 1,964.

These figures, with the exception of the Lubbock Monterey game and the play-offs, are not a great deal larger than the year before, said Ragus.

A great deal larger? Maybe not, but last season was a Giant Step in the right direction.

HITHER, HITHER 'N YOON If Lubbock High's Max O'Ranlon, the man who has guided no less than 172 Westerners since 1955, gets the position at coach of this year's All-Star cage team, he'll be the third District 3-AAAAA mentor honored. Amarillo's Ethridge got the job in 1962 and Monterey's Myers was named in 1961.

Lubbock High's backfield Roy Farmer and guard Charlie Evans visited The University of Texas campus this past weekend and had a reunion with former coach Fred Akers, now Longhorn backfield mentor.

David Parks, former Tech American, established several records for the San Francisco area this past season. The big Abilene native was credited with 80 receptions, breaking the old mark by 20, against three 11-passers against Baltimore to tie the one-game high, accumulated 1,714 yards to break the old club mark by 712 yards, and averaged for 231 yards against Baltimore for a single game standard.

Texas Tech's Art Carroll will be in the second high school field at Fort Worth's Will Rogers Stadium, February 11. In the race to be the world's fastest 100-yard HJ time, he was with a 11.5 clocking. Oklahoma's Ralph Boston and S.W.C. star Jerry Trench, O'Connell, are now at Southern Methodist.

Frank Broyles, head coach at Arkansas, will announce at either the Lubbock HJ or Odessa Pre-nationals and has not yet announced plans. Broyles coached at engagements including the Rosebushes, Cotton Lake, etc. A full-time training session thing which Lubbock High has lined up with at this year's meet is being held in the near future. San Diego's Lance Alworth has indicated rumors that he will run for the senate.

FORFEITS SINGLES FINALS

Nancy Richey Drops From Meet

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Miss Richey, 23, dropped out of the fourth round with Nancy Richey, the surprise winner, Miss Smith and Lesley Phipps star from Dallas battled Turner.

In the women's singles final of 1-1, I am bitterly disappointed, the Australian Tennis Champ, but there's no other course. Miss Richey had had to withdraw, said Miss Richey, who was addressing Sunday of an ailing left wrist by a doctor not to play in the meet, forfeiting the crown to the singles final. I wanted to Australia's Margaret Smith play, but I just can't.

Miss Smith, the world's rank. Miss Richey has had to withdraw woman player, this takes draw from other matches in the title for the seventh straight Australian tour because of the year. She overpowered Charlie King.

Arthur Ashe of Los Angeles, who takes on defending champion Emerson for the men's singles title, said "I'm as confident as can be expected. I never dreamed it would come this far in the Australian Nationals. If I play well, I can beat him. If he plays well he can beat me."

Miss Richey moved around the court well against Miss Melville despite her knee. After breezing through the first set, the American had to fight in the second, but she had the winners against the young Australian when it counted.

Miss Smith held command all the way against Mrs. Graebner, beating the American for the fifth time in singles this year.

Bob Day Holds Two Records

UCLA Runner Owns Both College Marks

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Bob Day, the UCLA runner who won the national collegiate mile last year seems off to greater things this season.

Day, who was second in the mile in the Millrose Games in New York Thursday night, ran on the opposite side of the continent 48 hours later and turned in the fastest two-mile collegiate run on record.

Day was timed in 8:43 as he finished Gerry Lindgren of Washington State by 10 yards in the 1965 Indiana Track Meet Saturday night. Lindgren led all the way until Day turned on the steam with two laps remaining in the 2 1/2 lap race.

The 21-year-old Day now holds both the indoor and outdoor collegiate records.

The race was so fast that at the end both Day and Lindgren were out of breath. Brown of Montana, the national collegiate mile champion, and six-mile champion.

Otis Farrell, 23, world senior at the University of Nevada, cleared 7'11 1/2 in the high jump, three-quarters of an inch off the pole, to indoor record set by John Thomas of Boston University in 1961. Farrell's home is in Los Angeles, and he won the high jump event in a meet there last weekend.

Day's record was set in a 2 1/2 mile race in District 2. AAAA cage action this past week, during preservation week, Amarillo, 22-12, to move into the driver's seat in the second round of what has proved to be a most heated chase.

The Hub City crew then rode its momentum to a 70-41 win over Caprock Saturday in a make-up affair and now stands at 5-0 in the second round with three games left to play.

Amarillo won the opening round with a perfect 8-0 mark, defeating Monterey, 38-7, in overtime to hand the Plainsmen their one-lop loss.

Harvesters Threaten And while most eyes were focused squarely on the Monterey-Amarillo clash, Coach Terry Culley's Pampa Harvesters rang their second round mark to a healthy 4-0 by thumping Caprock, 64-57, Friday, keeping the defending champions very much in the running for Round Two honors.

Should any team hit Amarillo in the second round, it will have to face the Sandies in a 100-yard dash. The team, coached by AAAA national champion, Ed Smith, is the only team in the district.

Max O'Ranlon, Lubbock High Westerners, snapped a four-game losing streak on an impressive note, turning back Borger, 60-49, and Palo Duro, 64-50, in their respective games.

Hill and Willie Worsley are a pair of frustrating guards to enemy dribblers. Their trademark is a steal at midcourt and a layup. Haskins also had praise for Tilton Bailey, a senior who spends more time on the bench than he does on the court.

"I'm really providing spark to the kids," Haskins explained. "He doesn't get into the game much, but he's the happiest one of the whole bunch and he's quite an inspiration for our ball club."

Plainsmen Fired Loudest Shot In 3-4A Last Week

By CARLTON STOWERS, Avalanche-Journal Sports Staff

Coach Gerald Myers' Monterey Plainsmen fired the loudest shot in District 2 AAAA cage action this past week, during preservation week, Amarillo, 22-12, to move into the driver's seat in the second round of what has proved to be a most heated chase.

Crothers Able To Joke About Mile

BOSTON (AP)—Canada's Bill Crothers was in a jovial mood after romping off with the outstanding athlete award in the Boston A.A. Games.

"Mile?" he queried, his blue eyes sparkling behind the thick glasses. "The mile? I don't run the mile. I never run the mile. Never have. Never intend to."

The reference was to his unfortunate venture into the mile Thursday in New York's Millrose Games when he ran a poor fifth to Kenya's Kipchoge Keino. It was only his second try at that distance and Crothers says his last.

"That was it," he said Saturday night. "I'll stay where I belong from now on the half-mile, the 600, the 1,000."

He should have included the 440. It was at that distance, in a blistering anchor lap on the fastest mile relay of the night, that he made his biggest impression on the Boston Garden crowd of 10,479.

Crothers, running for Toronto's East York Track Club, had some 15 yards to make up when he took the baton on the anchor leg.

He reeled off a near incredible quarter caught on various watches as 47.1 and 47.2 swept past Georgetown's dismayed James Borek on the final turn and won it by two yards. The time was 3:18.9.

That effort came about an hour after he had won the 1,000 in 2:09.9, running easily and winning with his shoulder most of the last lap.

The double triumph re-established his claim as one of the world's finest middle distance men and won him the nod as the meet's top athlete over John Lawson of Kansas and Tommy Farrell of St. John's, N.Y.

Lawson finished second in the voting by sports writers after winning the two-mile in meet record time of 8:39.8. Farrell took the 600 with a come-from-behind 1:09.5 effort.

Willie Davenport of Southern University matched the world indoor mark of 5.4 in the 45-yard hurdles, a distance that isn't harder to run. It was his fifth straight hurdles victory of the indoor season.

Sam Perry of Fordham and Theron Lewis, Davenport's teammate at Southern, matched meet records of 5.3 for the yard dash and 48 flat for the 50-yard dash.

John Pennel won the pole vault at 16 feet, then boosted the bar to 17 in another unsuccessful attempt to improve on his own indoor record of 16-9 1/2.

Other major winners were Josef Odoliz of Czechoslovakia at 4:05.2 in the mile, Richard Ross of Baton Rouge, La., at 7 feet in the high jump and Maryland State at 7:37.4 in the two-mile relay.

Canadian took won the two women's 500. Corelia Carter at 2:14.3 in the half-mile and Joan Fisher at 6 flat in the 50-yard dash.

Raiders Acquire Two Linemen

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Linemen George Flint and Tom Keating have been acquired by the Oakland Raiders in completion of an October trade that sent flanker Bo Robertson to the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League.

Flint, 27, from Arizona State, is an offensive guard with five years of pro experience. Keating, 24, from Michigan is a defensive end-tackle who played two seasons with Buffalo.

Robertson, who played an important role as a pass receiver in Buffalo's drive to the league title, has been lost as a chance of the Miami Dolphins in stocking their new team.

to second with 176, three more than Wells.

Monterey's David Reed and Kenny Coleman are sixth and seventh respectively, with 147 and 146 points. Lubbock High's Wesley Verner is tied with Coleman for seventh place.

Craig Wright and Steve Hardin of Monterey have 138 and 129 points and Lubbock High's Don Burwell and Bill Green have hit for 128 and 122.

TAKES FREESTYLE U.S. Miss Does Well At German Swim Meet

BRREMEN, Germany (AP)—Martha Randall of Philadelphia broke the American 200-meter freestyle record Sunday with a time of 2:12 on the final day of a three-day swimming meet.

Miss Randall scored by two-tenths of a second over Piquey Watson of Santa Clara, Calif., who holds the latest American record of 2:15. Martha Koenig of Czechoslovakia was a distant third.

The only other Americans in competition—Garry Inman of Santa Clara and Jim Edwards of Manchester, N.H.—were also runners in the men's 100-meter freestyle. Last Nicolao of Argentina won the event in 5:2 Inman was next at 5:4 and Edwards third in 5:5.

Other winners were Ernst-Joachim Kueppers of West Germany in the men's 100-meter backstroke, 1:01.2; Kevin Berry of Australia in the men's 200-meter butterfly, 2:08.5; Georges Kuel of France in the men's 100-meter breaststroke, 1:09.7; and Klene Rimol of the Netherlands in the women's 200-meter breaststroke, 2:44.3.

Also Won 200 Miss Randall also won the 200-meter medley in 2:33.7, gaining the only other U.S. victory on the closing day.

Miss Watson finished third in the 200-meter backstroke in 2:38.9. Christine Caron of France won the 2:31.5.
