HIGHWAY PATROL

The task of safeguarding our highways is a tremendous one. It is doubtful that many of us have ever given thought to some of the chores that come with the duties of being a law officer.

In Gaines County during the month of April, two patrolmen, Charles Mueller and Pat Randell, traveled 7201 miles--Pat had 3651 miles, Charles Mueller had 3550 miles. At first this seemed almost a fantasy, but the following is almost as hard to believe. Did you know that in Gaines County, our patrolmen have the responsibility for Traffic Law enforcement on these, plus all of the other roads in the county. The breakdown of the paved routes is interesting--60 miles, U.S. Highway 180; 35 miles, U.S. Highway 385; then add to this distance the length of three state highways (#83, #214, #303) and ten farm to market roads, plus the unpaved roads in the county of Gaines, and you have MILES to cover.

The process of covering this area is routine, as are the many, many reports required in the Highway Department. Besides the road work, they have reports to make on wrecks, criminal cases, traffic case reports, car expense reports, daily activity reports, warrant service request, Special reports (such as a hit and run), abandoned vehicle report, fatality report, and jail receipts (arrests).

Maintenance and operation of this State Department is a rather large, and involved task. All major commodities used are supplied by companies who bid once each year. This year contracts are held by the following companies: Humble, Gulf, Armstrong, and Plymouth. (cont. on Page 9)

BY MRS. OPAL (R.M.E.) HUGHES

Last week was a busy week getting ready for Mother's Day and of course, visiting the sick and friends.

Mrs. J.E. Garland and Edward, Mr. and Mrs. James Garland of Seminole, and their family spent the day, Mother's Day, with Mrs. Margret Noble of O'Donnell. Mrs. Garland is Mrs. Noble's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. L.V. Castleberry and family had Mother's Day with his mother, Mrs. Lena Castleberry. Mrs. Opal Hughes was there also.

Mrs. Opal Hughes and Amon Castleberry spent Sunday afternoon at the singing at the First Christian Church in Seminole. This crowd really sang for the joy of singing.

Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Hughes had their son and family home for the week-end. They were Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Roy Hughes and sons of San Angelo.

First impressions are often lasting ones, and as true as the above, is the fact our own failings are often the hardest for us to see. With a little close inspection we might all find room for improvement. There's no disgrace in needing to improve, but when we fail to do something about a fault, after we are aware of it, it becomes disgraceful.

We are all guilty of being so accustomed to something that we do not recognize a need for change. As a community we should take a look at ourselves. If there is a need for improving, let's get busy. Overheard recently, and more than once, from out of towners, "Seminole needs a face-lifting".

It was rather unpleasant. It would have been easier if one of you had said it, but the sad part of the story is--it's true--we do need to give Seminole a face-lifting.

If you will clean up your yards, the city will have trucks traveling the alleys to pick up the refuse. If there are dead trees or trees to be trimmed, they will haul them off. The following days will be pick-up days: May 19th, May 22nd, May 26th and May 29th.

Please, help us do something about the old cars setting all over town, in the alleys, in the yards, and on our streets. Call the following number, and they will be hauled off, PL 8-2352; or go by the Chamber of Commerce office, 202 South Main. Help us get rid of the refuse.

Vacant lots with small trees and weeds are a gathering place for papers and other refuse. If you have a vacant lot, please call, PL 8-2352. All lots will be cleared and graded with your permission. But to clean them up they must have your permission.

Do you own an old house that you can not use or rent any longer, that needs to be destroyed? Forrest Lumber will Dismantle or tear down for the salvage. If it has no salvage value, the Fire Department, upon written authority, will stand by and burn it down. There are a lot of houses in our town that needs a good destroying. By destroying them it might save a neighbors house or the life of some small child.

School Board Meet

May 16, 1967 -

1. Board voted to accept resignation of Chet Morgan.
2. Board voted to ask for an election to raise maintenance tax of $1.50 to $2.00 per $100 evaluation, hoping this would be sufficient for three to five years. They further agreed to request the Commissioners Court to have the election, June 17th.
3. Hired Miss Karen Housenfluke from Alvin, Texas, for choral director to replace Hank Sellers.
4. Hired Mr. Sammie Dayton Robertson for new band director, from Lockney High School.
5. Hired Robert, Bice, replacement for baseball coach.

Farm hand

The number of gravel packed wells used for agriculture is very limited in Gaines County.

In areas where sand is a great problem a few have been gravel packed with good results. The gravel packing can have more than one good effect on the performance of a well and sprinkler system.

1. It will reduce the flow of sand into the pump and sprinkler system.
2. Prevent a sudden slough off or cave in that is frequent in times of heavy pumping.
3. All of this will naturally increase the life of a pump, sprinklers, gaskets and other components of an irrigation system.

The method used on existing wells that has proved to be most successful is as follows:
Irrigation wells:

The size of the hole drilled should be approximately ten (10") larger than the size of the casing to be run in the hole. For example:

12" casing	22" hole
14" casing	24" hole
16" casing	26" hole

The hole is drilled either with the size bit needed or with a smaller bit drilling a pilot hole and following with a reamer of the desired size. The casing is then put in with stabilizers (centralizers) to keep it in the center of the large-hole. This is done so as to get gravel around the casing equally from top to bottom. The 10" larger hole gives you 5" all around the casing.

After the casing is on bottom then the gravel is put in either by pumping with centrifugal or shoveling and bailing at the same time. The bailing is necessary to make sure it gets to the bottom and is not stopped by a bridge of sand.

After being sure gravel is on bottom the bailing should continue for several hours with gravel being added as it goes down.

Test pumping normally follows with more gravel being added at that time.

The grade or kind of gravel that is giving the best results is very fine about a grade six. This has proved most successful in several areas of west Texas. Using the very fine gravel practically necessitates the pipe being perforated by a machine. The width of the perforations using this gravel should be about 1/8".

The two big complaints against gravel packing are:

1. Original Cost
2. Shutting off flow of water.

This original cost is greater, but if it doubles the life of the pump, bowls, and sprinkler heads then it would be inexpensive at twice the cost.

As to slowing down flow of water this is probably true also, but by the same token it may lengthen life of a well. So which would be better? This is for each farmer to decide for himself. However, the number of wells to be gravel packed will increase greatly in this area in the coming years.

"Buy Land. They're not making any more of it."

MEETINGS

Mr. Ralph. T. Price, Chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, today announced three farm policy meetings to be held this month.

The meeting for this area will be held on May 24, 1967 from 10:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. at the Lamesa High School Auditorium - 14th & Avenue F, Lamesa, Texas.

The Chairman said that special invitations to attend the State meetings have been sent to farm leaders, and that area farmers also are invited to attend. Farmers will be encouraged to participate freely.

A late press release advises that Mr. Horace D. Godfrey, National ASCS Administrator, will attend all three meetings and lead the discussion, at our meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Garrett had as dinner guests Sunday, his children and grandchildren. Guests attending were:

Ray Dean, of the home Mr. and Mrs. Donald Joe Earl, Donnette, Delinda, and Denee of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Garrett and Rhonda Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frankfather, Jr. of Denver City; also sisters and brothers and their families - Mrs. Joe E. Watson, and Debbie of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Garrett and Tommy of Denver C Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Garrett, Barbara, and Bobby of Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. O.M. Hounshell, Kay and Chris, now of Andrews, and formerly of Seminole. The guests' mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother is Mrs. H.R. Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Collier (Cowtown Kin) visited in the home of her neice, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Woods, Larry and Lindy.

Dear "Cowtown" Kin:

Only yesterday I was talking to some good friends over at Jo's Restaurant. I was asked if I wanted any 'Country Butter'. Of course I said "Yes". "This will be about the last I will make. We're going to have to get rid of our cow," was the reply received.

Times change, fewer and fewer people know how to milk, fewer people have seen someone churn for butter, not many children have seen a quilt put in frames; a chicken's head rung off; or the marvel of nature as she gives life to her babe.

I am not clammering for 'the good ole days', but it is pleasant to think back about those days "Depression days" when a big table was fully surrounded by friends and loved ones, laden with good wholesome food; about having to use honey for sugar; drinking 'Bright & Early' coffee that came packed in a two gallon bucket; chilled clabber; having to eat that plain home cured ham; wild duck; squirrel; home made bread and honey robbed from the 'super' off the bee hive.

I do not want to go back to the 'Model T'; but on cold nights it is still nice to stay home with the family rather than brave the cold wind. In the old days that wind came blowing through. TV ball games are nice, but the kind we played out in the edge of the corn field were better. Westerns are good on film, but the joy of riding out front, yourself, is too wonderful to describe. I like the fruit I buy, and the convenience of shopping, for it is good, but one has lived so little that has never been sick on green peaches, apples, berries, or eaten a green persimmon. Even two percent milk makes me fat; but just one more time I would like to eat the cream off a two gallon container. How would a fresh berry or a green grape cobbler taste? Say cooked in a pan about a foot wide and two foot long.

I remember when, in the late fall, "Barnum & Bailey" came to town. I can still hear that crew that lifted the big top sing out as they tightened the ropes and raised the tent, "He-eave, Hi-i, Ho-o, Hit it hard, shake it up, turn-it-round, Break its neck", (as he made his final tie). To see those big horses pull when they unloaded in the black mud; the elephants pushing, the busy time of getting ready, was better than any circus performance.

I like Seminole, I like the times I live in, but I also enjoy some of the past. Tell all the folks helb.

"When I lived in Amarillo, there was a boy eight years old. And he had a cub cadet tractor. He took that tractor anywhere and anyplace to get to my house." Written by Terry Lynn Ditto, age 9, for his picture shown above. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Ditto, 505 S.E. 4th and he is in the 3rd grade. Mrs. Mary Patillo is his teacher. He is a News boy for the NEWS.

A piano recital will be presented by Mrs. B. A. Rea's Studio of Music in Hobbs, New Mexico. It will be in the High School Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 23. Lynda Shults, Sammie Hill, and Lori Nix will be presented at the recital.

The music will include classical, and semi-classical selections. The public is invited.

QUESTION AND ANSWER FROM THE ART SECTION

(Q) Is it ethical to copy from photos or prints? Will such a copy be considered "original"?

(A) As soon as one puts his signature to a "hand-painted" canvas, it is definitely an "original." Whether one copies from a Rembrandt or a calendar or from himself, this is immaterial. How much talent there is on "copy". That's what counts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hobbs, Buddy, Clay, Rocky, Symaron and Synda and Linda Fox attended the drag races in Hobbs, Sunday.

Visiting over the week-end with Mr. Foster Brock, who is ill, was his sister, Miss Inez Brock; his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Smith and her daughter, nie; all from Loving, New Mexico. Also visiting Mr. Brock was Mrs. Smith's son, Bill Smith and his wife from Lubbock.

Mr. Brock is the father of Mrs. Bud Winks and Garland Brock, both of Seminole.

Valli Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barber will be a majorette for the Buffalo and of West Texas State University in Canyon beginning of the fall semester. Tryouts were at 1:00 p.m. Sunday and Valli rated 3rd of 13 girls trying out. Congratulations!! Valle.

Michael Malone and his fiancée, Linda Kathryn Higgins spent Mother's Day with his grandmother, Mrs. Sam Malone, Sr.

Book Club Meets

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Adult Great Books Program will be May 23rd, from 8 p.m. until 10 p.m., at the home of D.C. Chesnut, 403 S.W. Avenue D. The reading for discussion will be Sophocles: Antigone. The Great Books Program rests on four basic ideas: First, that liberal education is necessary for all men. Second, that liberal education is lifelong education. Third, that some great books, written in our Age, as well as in other Ages, provide the basis for a liberal education. And, finally, that people who respect the power to reason, in themselves and in other men, can help one another to learn from the Great Books.

A HANDY GUIDE ON HOW TO SPOIL YOUR CHILD PROPERLY SO THAT HE WILL BE A MISERABLE MALAJUSTED ADULT

1. Begin from infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe that the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him-- he will pick up phrases later on that will blow the top of your head off.
3. Never give him any spiritual training-- wait until he is 21 and let him decide for himself.
4. Avoid the use of the "wrong word." It will develop a guilty complex. This condition will lead him to believe later on that if he is arrested for stealing a car that society is against him and he is being persecuted.
5. Pick up everything he leaves lying around--- clothes, books and shoes. Do everything for him so that he will be experienced in not accepting responsibility.
6. Let him read any printed material he can get his hands on. Be careful that the tableware and glasses are sterilized, but let him feed his mind on garbage.
7. Quarrel frequently in front of him. This way he will not be too shocked when his home is broken up.
8. Give the child all the spending money he wants. Never let him work and earn his own. Why should your child have it as tough as you had it?
9. Satisfy his craving for food, drink and comfort. See that his every desire is gratified. Denial may lead to frustration.
10. Always take his part against teachers, neighbors and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
11. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for him; also apologize for yourself by openly admitting you "could never do a thing with him".
12. Start each day by asking him how he feels--- this will teach him to be a hopeless, helpless neurotic making any adjustment necessary in life through illness.
13. Never let him learn household chores. Knowing the responsibility of the upkeep and maintenance of an orderly household sometimes makes them good husbands and wives.
14. Prepare yourself for a life of misery----- you are sure to have it.

They are discussing wind damage and sick gardens.

Baccalaureate Services Set

Graduation ceremonies for eighty-seven Seminole High Seniors get underway with the Baccalaureate services at 8:00 p.m. Sunday, May 21, in the high school auditorium. Preaching the baccalaureate sermon this year will be the Reverend R. L. Kirk, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Commencement exercises and awarding of diplomas will be at 8 o'clock Monday night, May 22, also in the high school auditorium.

Master of ceremonies for the baccalaureate will be Valedictorian, Melinda Melone, and the processional and recessional music will be played by Mrs. Linda Douglas. Glen Shook will give the invocation which will be followed by a vocal solo by Vaudine Brown, accompanied by Deborah Stanley. After a scripture reading by Wayne Hunt and a prayer by Darrell Price, the A Capella Choir will present a selection of music. Charles George will give the benedictory prayer following the address by Reverend Kirk.

Larry Phillips will be master of ceremonies on Monday night at the commencement ceremony and processional and recessional music will again be furnished by Mrs. Linda Douglas. The invocation will be given by Cathy Parker and the salutatory address by Stephen Stanley. A vocal solo will be presented by Linda Setser accompanied by Deborah Stanley. Following this, another solo will be given by Johnny Farmer who will also be accompanied by Miss Stanley. Preceding the valedictory address by Miss Melone, the A Capella Choir will sing.

Honor awards will be presented by Principal V.N. Keyes and the graduates will receive their diplomas from Superintendent James Bramlett. The benediction will be given by Charles Caffey

Honor graduates, other than Valedictorian Melone and Salutatorian Stanley are: Charles Caffey, Charles George, Wayne Hunt, Cathy Parker, Larry Phillips, Darrell Price, Linda Setser, Glenn Shook and Deborah Stanley.

Pool Opens

The Seminole Public School's swimming pool will open Saturday, May 20, weather permitting, school officials said. In case of cold weather, or the apparently highly unlikely event of rain, opening will be delayed until a more favorable time.

The pool will be open from 1:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. each day except Sundays when it will close at 6:00, and Wednesdays, starting June 14th, when it will be closed to public swimming at 5:00 p.m. due to the meeting of the ladies' swimming class.

Operating the pool will be J.C. Collins and Elmer Six as operators and instructors, and Mrs. Evelyn Wolfforth who will run the concession stand. Admission will be the same as last year, 25¢ for students and 50¢ for adults.

Two new classes will be taught this year in addition to the regular schedule as in past years. These two are the wader class for three and four year olds, and water safety aid for instructors.

A complete list of classes and the dates and times when they will be taught is given below:

WATER SAFETY AID: 8:00 a.m.-12:00 noon, May 22-26; qualifications required are a junior or senior life saving certificate.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR LIFE SAVING: 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon, May 29 - June 9; for the junior class, a student must be a least 12 years old and must pass the swimming requirements, and must be at least 16 years old and meet the swimming requirements for the senior class.

REGULAR SWIMMING CLASSES: Boys on Monday and Wednesday, 10:00-11:30 a.m.; girls on Tuesday and Thursday at the same hours; test day for both will be on Friday from 10:00-11:00 a.m. for the boys and from 11:00-12:00 o'clock for the girls; students must be at least five years old to be eligible for these classes.

WADER CLASS: (3 and 4 year olds) July 3-July 14, 1:00-1:25 p.m.

FAMILY SWIMMING: Beginning July 11, 5:30-7:30 p.m., admission $1.00 per family.

There is no charge or pool admission for lessons for children but ladies pay the regular pool admission fee of 50¢ for the ladies' class but no fee for instruction.

The pool may be reserved for private swimming parties after 7:00 p.m. for a fee of $7.50, plus admission fees, for 2 hours.

Airman basic, Gary Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.W. Hicks, is in the Air Force in San Antonio. Gary left for basic training April 17th. He and his wife, the former Cindy Miers, of Seminole were married last June. Gary had attended Tech prior to his enlistment in the Air Force.

This basic is for the boys going into the field of Electronics. He will graduate June 1st. Cindy will be going to San Antonio and will be going with Gary wherever he is stationed.

Gary's brother, Randy, is attending Tech, and his sister, Sherrie, is a Junior in Seminole High School. Randy and his wife, Marilyn, will be going for the graduation also.

Duties of the Highway Patrol

Our authority is the Authority of THE STATE of TEXAS and is effective throughout the State. Our area of responsibility is Gaines County with special assignments to patrol adjoining Counties when the Patrolman assigned to that area is off duty due to illness or vacation, etc.

Our primary duties are Traffic Law Enforcement on the Rural Highways and Motor Vehicle Traffic Accident Investigation. It is the policy of The Texas Department of Public Safety, when a city has a Police Department that we do not "Work" traffic within the City Limits. However we do have authority to make arrests in the City Limits and do occasionally when we detect a violation while in, or passing through the City.

Our Secondary duties in General Police Work. This means that we are alert for violations and violators for other than traffic laws. If we detect a stolen automobile, a violation of the liquor law, an illegal alien, a fugitive from justice, persons committing thefts, vagrants or any other offenses while engaged in traffic law enforcement we take appropriate action until the violator can be turned over to the agency specifically charged with the responsibility of enforcing the law that has been violated.

We also assist any agency, when requested by that agency, in any type law enforcement whether Criminal or Traffic.

We also may be called upon from time to time to assist in areas where natural disasters such as hurricanes or tornados have struck, aircraft crashes and riots and mobs.

Traffic Law Enforcement has five parts. Detection, apprehension, prosecution, adjudication and penalization. We are employed by the public to detect and apprehend violators, the first two parts. Others are employed to perform the other part. We work together to perform a service for the Public. However there seems to be a general feeling that the Police and Courts are doing something to the Public instead of for them. In order to be effective in the work that you have sent us to do we need your support and help. We cannot be everywhere at once and many more violations are detected by citizens than by Police. We would like for the Public to report any violation of a serious and continuing nature or any circumstance that could cause damage or injury to anyone whether it be the violator himself or to some innocent party. This includes drivers that may be intoxicated, livestock roaming at large on the highway, unlighted vehicles parked on the roadway at night or maybe an automobile that appears to be abandoned.

At accident scenes there are many things that need to be done and citizens can be really helpful in assisting with aid to the injured, directing traffic and helping remove wrecked vehicles blocking the roadway. If you are present at an accident scene you may be asked to help. If you are not asked to help and would like to assist you may want to volunteer your services.

Occasionally you may even witness an accident and should be willing to volunteer your services even if it becomes necessary to testify in court. This is as much a Public Duty as is voting or serving on juries.

We are always ready to answer any questions that you may have and assist with any problems that you may have concerning any phase of traffic law. If you have any such problem please feel free to call on us and we will help if we can.

The district headquarters in Midland furnish supplies and stamps. Clothing is furnished by the General Store in Austin.

Mr. Mueller and Mr. Randell said, "Tell the people to attend to their driving when driving."

1. "Stop your car when you want to spank a child."
2. "Stop your car to get rid of a wasp."
3. "Be careful when adjusting windows in your car."
4. "Watch the road when smoking or cleaning your pipe."
5. "Look out when driving and trying to show off before your best girl or friends."
6. "Remember that highway fatigue bothers us all."
7. "STOP to read your road map."

They further state:

"PLEASE HELP US!" If you see an erratic driver get the license number, kind of car, direction of travel and call PL8-2112 or 8-2322.

"TO REPORT A WRECK, call and tell how many vehicles are involved, tell us if an ambulance is needed, or if the road is blocked, and the location, where help is needed. Remember that the highway patrol could be as far as 50 to 70 miles away."

"PLEASE REPORT DRUNKS as quickly as you would report livestock on the highway."

We all need to work to work together to accomplish the goal we each want-- SAFE HIGHWAYS.

HOMERS SINKS INDIANS

Pinch-hitter Steve Crawford's home run broke a 7-7 deadlock in the top of the eighth inning and handed the Andrews Mustangs a district 2-AAA victory over the Seminole Indians.

The Mustangs jumped on Indian starter A. C. Baker for four runs in the first inning by virtue of Mike Jones' grand slam home run. They added one in every inning except the second, third, and seventh.

Andrews pitching held the Indians down until the fourth when Seminole sent nine men to the plate and scored four runs. In the sixth they again broke out of a batting slump and sent the game into the extra inning with a 3-run burst.

The Mustangs used three pitchers in limiting the Injuns to 12 hits, 5 walks, and striking out 14 batters. Doug Ham, ace of the Mustang staff, was credited with the win in two innings of relief. His two victories in district play have come over Seminole. Coach Morgan resorted to five hurlers in the course of eight innings. Darrell Price was tapped with the loss, extending his record to 4-6. Baker, Childs, Spencer, Cottrell, and Price combined to strike out 5 and walk 5. They did, however, give up 13 hits which spelled the outcome.

Seminole committed 3 errors to Andrews 4.

The loss dropped Andrews and Seminole into a tie for fifth with identical records of 2-6. Both Mustangs wins are over Seminole.

The loss ruined the crowning of Kala Jones as baseball queen and the Indians final home show.

Society

The Gamma Lambda Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society met Thursday evening at 7:00 at the clubhouse of the Yoakum County Park for their annual Founders Day Dinner.

Mrs. B.J. Dupree narrated the program: "The Key and the Rose--A Gift from Our Founders." She told of the society being formed in 1929 at the Faculty Womens Club in Austin, Texas by Dr. Annie Webb Blanton and eleven other women educators. The society, as envisioned by Dr. Blanton, was to be a medium through which women leaders in education might gain recognition and protection of professional interests.

The charter granted in August, 1929 stated that the corporation was formed for educational and benevolent purposes. In 1952 the original charter was amended to permit expansion internationally.

Other members on the program lighted a candle for each of the twelve founders of the society and gave a brief biographical sketch of each.

The president, Mrs. G. W. Shelley of Seagraves, called the meeting to order. The members repeated the "Collect". A short business meeting concluded the last session of the year.

Those attending from Seminole were: Mesdames Dave Anderson, Charles Wrenn, J.C. Strawn, Clifton Decker, C.M. George, E.W. Gray, Sanford Ruthart, Floy Purvis, and Frank Nix.

LIONS BASEBALL PROGRAM

The Seminole Lions Clubs are again sponsoring a baseball program for the young boys of Seminole. They will operate two parks for four nights a week beginning May 29. Play will close July 22.

There will be four divisions: Pony, Babe Ruth, Little, and Pee Wee Leagues. Each division will hold four team with an average of 15 boys per team. Each team has 13 scheduled games.

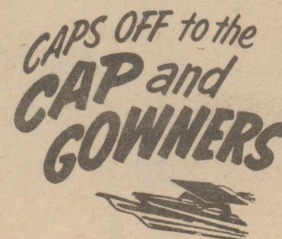

The Lions are hoping for a better and stronger program this year. Efforts will be made by coaches and sponsors to allow all participants to play in each and every game.

SEMINOLE FORFEITS TO ECTOR

The Seminole Indians forfeited their next to last district 2-3A game with the Ector Eagles last Thursday night by a 9-0 count.

The Indians lost the four runs which they had gained in the top of the first inning when Umpire Schatz called a forfeit on the Indians.

The forfeit came when Coach Morgan refused to the ejection wishes of umpire Schatz. Morgan was ejected because of a dispute with the ump over an illegal pitch by Spencer of Ector.

The Indians had picked up 4 runs on 3 hits and committed 3 errors. Ector's 9 runs came on 9 hits and they committed 4 errors. Seminole pitching offered 8 bases-on-balls and struck out a total of 3.

Spencer walked two and struck out 10 in uping his district record to 1-1.

Morgan filed a protest, but it failed to go anywhere.

Seminole High School baseball coach, Chet Morgan, announced his resignation effective May 11.

The Seminole school board accepted the resignation in their scheduled meeting Tuesday night and immediately set about getting a replacement. Superintendent James Bramlett made a motion that Robert Bice, now assistant coach at Seminole, be offered the job. The motion was tabled for further consultation among the parties involved.

Morgan resigned so he could accept a summer job with the Olympic Committee in Italy. He will become an Italian baseball coach as that Committee tries to spread American baseball into several foreign countries.

Morgan turned in his resignation to Raymond Golden after the board refused to grant him an absence-of-leave from his job as coach and history teacher.

The leave would have stretched from the 15th of May to the 15th of October, encompassing the last week of this school year and a month and a half of the 67-68 term. The board felt that this would hinder the learning of the students involved in his classes and based their decision upon this.

The resignation came post-Ector game, which the Indians forfeited. Morgan had been thrown out of the game in a hassle over an illegal pitch, but he refused to leave and the Umpire called a forfeit.

Morgan led the Indian baseball team to four district championships in his seven years as head coach.

dryland conditions. With a good seedbed and good quality seed, 60 per cent of the seed can be expected to produce grain bearing stalks. Narrow-row planting can increase yields as much as 20 per cent, says the County Agent.

Best results are usually obtained when rows 10 to 18 or 10 to 20 inches apart on a 40 inch bed. In this case, planting rates should be kept the same or increased not more than 25 per cent. To obtain the most benefit from narrow-row planting, adequate fertilizer and moisture levels must be maintained. However, regardless of row spacing, good yields can be realized only if weed control and other management practices are observed. Excessive planting rates on both irrigated and dryland grain sorghum should be avoided. Adjustments in planting dates of sorghum and cotton with the main emphasis on timing of irrigation would greatly improve overall production efficiency. In some cases, a medium maturing hybrid such as RS 626 can be planted in April and irrigated twice before cotton requires any irrigation. The two irrigations are sufficient to carry this hybrid to maturity.

Since midge damage is usually more severe in late-planted sorghum yields should be no later than May 20, depending on the maturing characteristics of the variety. Sorghum that is planted so as to be in bloom or blooming by August 1 will escape most midge damage.

On irrigated acreage planting at the rate of eight pounds of seed per acre is sufficient to produce maximum yields. This amounts to about eight seed per foot of hybrid. With limited irrigation, five to six pounds per acre is normally sufficient.

About two-and-one-half pounds of seed per acre is adequate for hybrid to maturity.

SPORTS

The school year is over, and so are the various sports program, which are governed by University Interscholastic League.

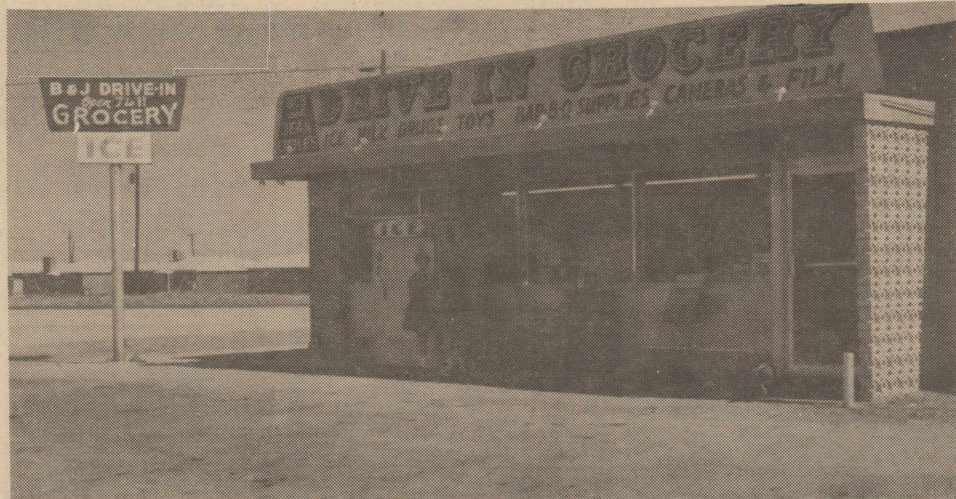

High School baseball is over, with the Indians setting several school records. The year began slow and ended even slower. The Indians took their first two district contests in fine fashion. Their first victory was over favored Kermit with the Indians coming from behind to win in the bottom of the seventh. The Indians then picked their second victory in a row, beating Monahans. The district experts began to wonder if the Indians might be a dark horse winner.

The Indians dispelled all doubts by dropping the next eight district matches. They finished lower than ever before in the 2-AAA standings. They lost more games (18) than any other team since baseball began in 1961.

Seminole had bright spots in hitting and several good innings but could not stand up when the chips were down.

Coach Robert Bice did a fine job with handling of the team after coach Chet Morgan's resignation.

Sorority Chapter

The Tau Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday, May 15, in the Seminole Room of the Seminole State Bank with Mrs. Dick Kephart as hostess.

Beginning the meeting was installation of new officers, with Mrs. Pat Randel, retiring president as installing officer. The new officers for the 1967-68 year are: President- Mrs. Monte Paxton, Vice-President, Mrs. Edward Rodgers; Recording Secretary - Mrs. Jimmy Owens; Corresponding Secretary - Mrs. Larry Carlisle; Treasurer - Mrs. Jimmy Calvert; Extension Officer - Mrs. Wayne Stokes; and Sponsor - Mrs. Roy Basham. A yellow rose was presented to the new and retiring officers.

The business meeting was then held with the new president presiding. One item on the agenda was the discussion of adopting a new daughter from Girlstown, U.S.A. for the organization, and it was voted that two girls would be sponsored by this chapter, little Becky Lewis, ages 6, and little Kim Piazza, age 5. The Chapter plans to visit with the girls as soon as possible.

The new committee will meet through the summer to prepare for the coming fiscal year. Several projects were discussed with a possible "Miss Seminole" contest in the future. The chapter will disband temporarily for the summer except for monthly socials to be planned later for the families by the Social Committee. The next meeting as a chapter organization will be August 27, which will be Beginning Day for the new year.

Mrs. Paxton announced there would be a pledge training meeting at her home Thursday night, May 18. The door prize was won by Mrs. Carlisle, and she will bring the prize for a drawing at the next meeting in the fall.

Programs were brought by Mrs. Paxton on "Substance for the Art of Living--The True", and Mrs. Jimmy Owens, on "Substance for the Art of Living--the Beautiful".

Refreshments of pineapple frozen deserts, coffee and cokes were served by Mrs. Kephart to Mesdames: Roy Basham, Edward Rodgers, Jimmy Owens, Jimmy Calvert, Pat Randel, Wayne Stokes, Monte Paxton, Larry Carlisle, Herman McReynolds, and Jess Treadwell.

GIRLSTOWN, U.S.A.

Where Girls From Broken Homes Become Part of a 'Family'

By RICHARD F. WILLIAMSON

POLICE found 14-year-old Dorothy—hungry, alone, and frightened—on a street in Dallas. Motherless and abandoned by a drunken father, she might have been sent to a state school for abandoned children.

Ruth ran away when her mother was legally married for the 14th time. As a runaway, she could have been placed in a correctional institution.

But today, both Dorothy and Ruth (these are not their real names) are among 60 girls ranging from 5 to 19 years old who have found a home-and-family atmosphere and a new beginning at Girlstown, U. S. A.

IT IS NOT a big or pretentious institution, but rather a colony of half a dozen one-story buildings on a tract of flat farm land nine miles south of the village of Whiteface, Tex. Nor is it a rich refuge for needy girls, for it receives no federal or state support or tax funds. It is not a correctional institution, because the girls who live there are not delinquents, but by-products of broken homes.

Marshall W. Cooper, who served as juvenile court officer of Andrews County, Tex., before becoming managing director of Girlstown, U. S. A., believes that actions speak louder than words. Instead of lecturing and scolding, he and his wife, Wanda, and their three young children live as a happy, normal family—providing their charges an example of ideal home conditions.

"One girl asked me one day how long Marshall and I had been married," said Mrs. Cooper. "I told her 14 years."

"The girl thought a moment—and then told me she never knew any folks stayed married that long."

There are no fences or iron-barred windows at Girlstown, U. S. A. The girls may leave any time they wish—but very few ever do. They may remain as long as they wish, even after they finish high school. But most go on to colleges (through scholarships which friends of Girlstown provide), or take jobs—or even marry and begin their own families.

THERE HAVE to be some rules of procedure, of course, in so large a "family," but these are reasonable and aimed at giving the girls an experience in family living and an opportunity to develop their own personalities.

The girls live in groups, with a woman member of the staff of 12 acting as the "mother" of each group. Eighteen of the oldest girls live in their own dormitory—doing their own cooking, cleaning, and other household chores. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hill, members of the staff, live with this group and supervise them.

The girls attend the public schools in Whiteface and are encouraged to attend churches of their choice in that community. In addition, Sunday vespers are conducted by the girls themselves at Girlstown, and all must attend.

Girls are permitted to "date" boys from Whiteface after they reach the age of 15. Strictly chaperoned dances and parties provide additional wholesome recreation for the girls.

WHILE NONE of the girls is a juvenile delinquent, there are some problems of discipline (largely because of the environment in which many of them have lived previously) and some infractions of rules. These and other problems are discussed by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and the girls—and Cooper said that frequently the girls themselves recommend more severe punishment than he considers necessary, for those who have stepped out of line.

"Our whole objective," said Cooper, "is to give the girls a rich experience in community and family living; to encourage them to lead happy and normal lives, and to teach them respect for God, a sense of responsibility, and an appreciation of other human beings."

Girls are recommended—not sent—to Girlstown, U. S. A., by state, county, and local welfare agencies, the courts, and juvenile officers, and no girl is admitted to Girlstown except by a court order.

There is no premium on idleness. The girls have regular responsibilities—as would the daughters in any normal family. In summer, many of them do light chores for Raymond Hoffman, the tenant who operates a small (for Texas) farm on the outskirts of the community. Hoffman pays the girls prevailing wages for farm hands—and the girls do so well that last Christmas he paid each one a bonus equal to 20 per cent of the wages she had earned during the year.

THE GIRLS have developed talents of their own. They sing, play the piano and other musical instruments, and make sketches, and groups from Girlstown are often invited to provide entertainment for service clubs and other organizations in the area.

Girlstown, U. S. A., is chartered by the state as a non-profit corporation. Girls have come from all parts of the United States, and no girl has ever been rejected because of her race or creed.

Gifts for the support of Girlstown have come from many sources. Donors listed in a recent report included residents of Vallejo, Calif.; Kansas City, Mo.; Carmel, N. Y.; Anderson, Ind.; Pontiac, Mich., and Cleveland, and dozens of cities and towns in Texas.

The biggest organized support comes from Beta Sigma Phi, the national sorority. It refers girls to Girlstown, makes financial contributions, and encourages its local chapters across the nation to "adopt" girls by contributing to their support.

There is a modest income from the farm operation.

But financing is a constant problem, since the institution's operating budget totals about $130,000 a year.

NOT ALL contributions are made in money. Students from Plains Junior College at Level-land, Tex., tutor girls who are having problems with high school courses. Lions Clubs in Fort Worth and Dallas each summer provide a holiday trip for the girls. Last Christmas, virtually all of the girls were invited to private homes to spend the holidays.

The Morton (Tex.) Junior Chamber of Commerce provided a school bus. A Chicago man made a gift of two high-spirited horses, then approved a trade in which they were exchanged for more gentle animals that the girls could ride safely.

A wealthy Texan provided $60,000 to pay for the dormitory in which the 18 oldest girls live.

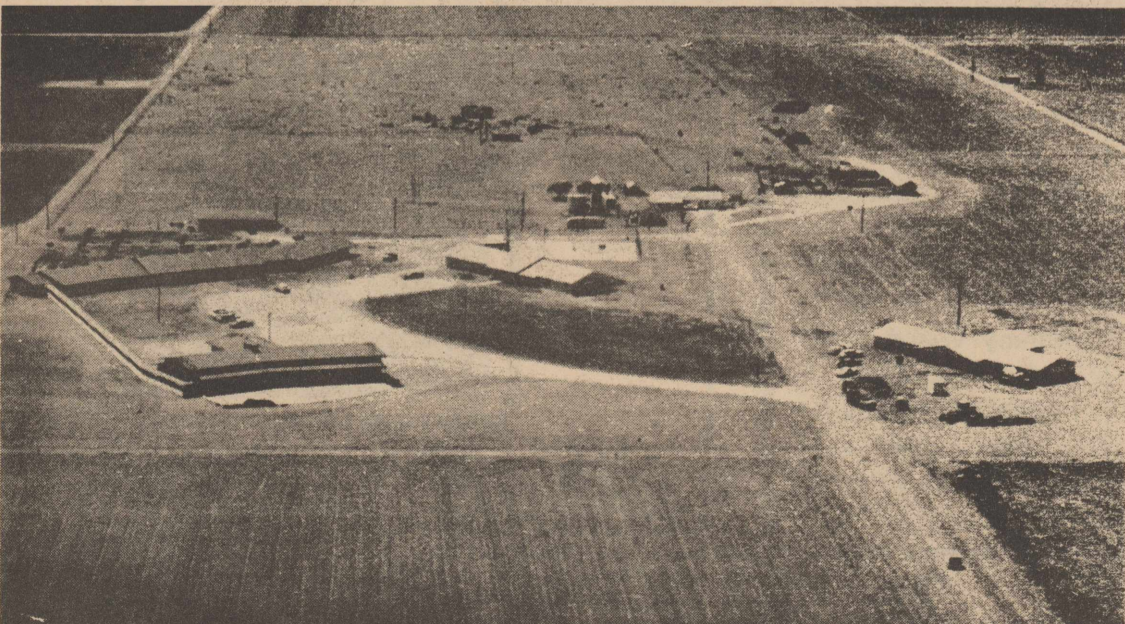

The board of directors of Girlstown provides each girl a small, monthly allowance of spending money.

Girlstown, U. S. A., was established in 1949 in Buffalo Gap, Tex., by Miss Amelia Anthony, herself an orphan.

LATER, Tom Duggan, a wealthy rancher, offered a site of 1,425 acres near Whiteface, and the institution moved there. A single small building was the first structure on the property. Now Girlstown has two large dormitories, a building used for dining and study, and an administration building. It has assets of about $600,000.

When Miss Anthony gave up active direction of Girlstown, a group of women operated it for a time. Three years ago, Cooper became the managing director. Over-all supervision of Girlstown rests with Cooper and a board of 13 directors, including several women. Miss Anthony continues a lively interest in Girlstown, although she no longer actively takes part in its management. H. P. Clemons, of Lubbock, Tex., is currently chairman of the board.

"Because we have no state, federal, or other government aid or tax income, Girlstown, U. S. A., is a wonderful example of a program in which people help people," said Cooper.

Girlstown, U. S. A., Occupies Colony of One-Story Buildings on Flat Farm Land of 1,425 Acres 9 Miles South of the Village of Whiteface, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Holcomb were in Lubbock over the weekend. Genella says the last report from Bill is that he is doing fine.

Mr. John Fennell is in the hospital in Odessa. He is recovering from eye surgery. Mr. Fennell is the father of Mrs. Robert Hurst.

OPEN NEW HORIZONS

Enemy and Brother by Dorothy Davis. John Eakins in the guise of an American scholar goes to Greece with the intent of scholarly research, as a cover up, but actually to clear his name of a murder of which he had been convicted. His accuser, Paul Stephanou, becomes a friend and together they unravel a past mystery and foil a present conspiracy.

The Gentle House by Anna Perrott Rose. How an eleven year old Latvian boy whose human qualities had almost been destroyed by war is transformed into a loving member of a family in America by the patience and affection of a wonderful woman who loved and guided him. He called his new home the "Gentle House."

Old Buck and I by Carl Raht. Carl Raht lives in Odessa, and in his autobiography, portraying the early life of he and his horse, he has related incidents that have never been included in other stories of early Texas ranch life. The way he thought is the way you remember thinking when you were a boy. Old Buck became his companion as well as transportation, and he was full enough of mischief to liven Raht's early life. Old Buck was fond of fruit, and loved eggs, causing Raht much added work and trouble. All ages will enjoy this book.

Escape from Red China by Robert Loh. The personal story of an intelligent Chinese man who believed communism was the answer to the problems of his country. Through disillusionment caused him to plan and carry out a daring escape to plan and carry out a daring escape to America, where he is awaiting citizenship. A book that will be well worth your time to read.

These books may be checked out at the County Library located in the court house. Open from 9 A.M. to 5:30 P.M. Monday through Friday.

IN OUR FAMILY KITCHEN

Pictured above is Mrs. H.R. Patterson, Jr. In July the Pattersons will have resided in our community for 20 years. Lurlene and H.B. are the parents of three daughters and they have one grandchild. Their children are: Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenberg, Duncanville, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Short are in El Paso. Toni is a Junior student in West Texas State University at Canyon, Texas. Their grandchild, Kelly Short, is 15 months old.

Mrs. Patterson is a member of the Seminole Study Club and they attend the First Methodist Church. She loves to sew and cook and she also lists as a hobby, refinishing furniture. The Pattersons' now reside in a new home on the Frankel City Highway.

CHICKEN AND DUMPLINGS
(Serves 4)

1 2 or 2 1/2 lb. chicken (cut up)
Place in large pan, cover well with water. Some of the broth will be used in the dumplings.

Add

- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/2 to 1/4 tsp. Celery salt
- 1/2 to 1/4 tsp. Black pepper
- 1 T. Butter or oleo

Cook until done, about an hour.

Dumplings

2 cups sifted all purpose flour
1/2 tsp. Salt

Enough of the boiling broth to make stiff dough, (about 1 1/4 cups). Mix roll on floured board to 1/4 thickness. Cut in strips all to the chicken. Cover and cook slowly for 20 minutes. Serve hot.

Group Installs Officers

Officers for 1967-1968 were elected for a term of one year at the May 10th meeting of the Seminole Classroom Teachers Association. They were: President, Gene Dew; 1st Vice-President Roy Barnes; Chairman Program Committee -- 2nd Vice President, Janelle Sullivan; Chairman of Welfare and Research -- 3rd Vice-President, Billy Hicks; Chairman of Publicity -- Secretary, Christine Nelson; Treasurer, John Lamb.

The constitution of the group has as its goal the following:

1. To promote and encourage cooperation and unity among all teachers of the Schools.
2. To promote within the group the highest type of professional practices; cooperative participation of all in the solution of school problems; encourage professional growth, and to arouse allegiance to a genuine spirit of professional ethics.
3. To promote, encourage, and assist other local organizations of all teachers and to promote cooperation among such organizations and the members thereof.
4. To cooperate with civic bodies having education objectives and to aid in interpreting to the public the problems, the functions, and the steady progress of the public schools.
5. To encourage teachers to exercise their rights and privileges as citizens and to accept willingly leadership in civic affairs.
6. To encourage teachers to use professional, organizational ethics in negotiations as opposed to collective bargaining.

The president, Mr. Dow, will go to Austin in August to attend the state meeting of the group.

WE ARE PROUD OF MIKE AND HIS ACHIEVEMENT

Friday, May 5, Michael Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Smith competed in the University Interscholastic League state meet in poetry interpretation. The three critic judges announced, after the other three participants had finished, a unanimous decision in Michael's favor. It had been a long, hard pull from the beginning of the school year to now but all of that was "history," for now Michael had won the highest honor in this contest in the state.

One may say that Michael truly deserved the honor of winning state, for in order to compete, a reader must prepare three poems from three categories of poets selected by the state U.I.L. committee. Michael had to read all three of them in the three contest which were steps to winning state. First, in district at Fort Stockton he read a cutting of three poems from a collection by Carl Sandburg entitled, "The People, Yes." Second, at regional at Odessa College, he read Oliver Wendell Holmes poem, "The Deacon's Masterpiece" or "The Wonderful One-Hoss Shay." Then, at the state meet in Austin on the University of Texas campus, he read T. S. Eliot's poem "The Hollow Men". One judge commented in an oral critique which followed the announcement of the winners, that the fact that Michael was the third participant to read this poem and won speaks for itself. Another judge said that she had read the poem so many times that she felt she knew every line by heart, but Michael had given her new insight into the poem and its meaning. Needless to say, Michael did deserve the honor and after having to read all of his selections exhibited his talent for reading and mastery of his selections.

Michael had represented S. H. S. in over 10 tournaments across the Southwest. He has worked hard and diligently all year and is a credit to his school and its student body which he represented in these tournaments and continued to represent through the state meet.

How Creep Feeding may help your cattle profits

Lots of cattlemen in this area have found it pays to creep feed their calves. Helps the calves, and their mamas, too.

Here's proof from work with 2800 head of test cattle where calves were fed Purina Creep Rations:

1. 34% more choice and good grade calves.
2. Heavier calves. Every 10 calves creep-fed Purina returned weight equal to one extra calf. (No extra cow to breed, feed and care for, either.)
3. Better cow condition. Cows suckling creep-fed calves carried 44 lbs. of extra condition.
4. This extra cow condition meant 16% more calves the following season.

That's a big return for just a little outlay in creep feeding the Purina Way. Come in and let us talk over your operation. Prove to yourself Purina feeding can cost you less.

RANGE DEFERRED GRAZING

It is the goal of most rancher in the Gaines-Andrews Soil Conservation District to keep their cattle in good condition for high beef production. In order to reach this goal, it is improtant to these ranchers to keep their rangeland in good condition.

An important practice used to improve and maintain rangeland is "deferred grazing". This means the grass is allowed a complete rest for a period of time during the growing season. To be effective, a deferment period should be for at least three consecutive months. A longer deferment period will be even more beneficial. Often a rancher only has range grass for his livestock to graze. This makes it difficult for him to rest his grass, but rotation-grazing systems can be developed whereby pastures are rested in turn while others are being grazed.

Range deferment is important because this rest allows the grass to increase in vigor and produce seed. Also, a feed reserve is built up for fall and winter or emergency use. This rest also gives new seedlings a better chance to become established.

In order for a deferred grazing program to do the job it should, good range management must be applied. Care should be taken to not overgraze the grass. When overgrazing occurs a grass plant is robbed of most of its ability to manufacture food since this process is carried out in the leaves. If the leaves are grazed off the plants stored food in the roots must be used to put out new leaves. If this is repeated too often the stored food will be completely used up, and the plant may die of starvation. Overuse of stored food will also hinder proper root development. Plants will be shallow rooted causing them to be less drought-resistant.

Start today in developing a sound program for range improvement. Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Gaines-Andrews Soil and Water Conservation District will be glad to help you in developing an improvement program for your rangeland.

THE ABC'S OF EDUCATION

A is for the Answers that education tries to provide to the problem of living for always another group of anxious children.

B is for the Burden of ever-increasing numbers of buoyant, bubbling boys and girls--Bestor notwithstanding.

C is for the Curiosity necessary in causing constant learning.

D is for the Dozens of duties outside the classroom undertaken by devoted teachers.

E is for the Energy expended in educating eager minds.

F is for the Fame and Fortune not frequently found by the faithful teacher.

G is for the Grace necessary in the teacher to give gratuitously to the good of the community.

H is for the mere Hope of having harmony between the home and the school.

I is for the Interest on money borrowed by teachers who can't live on their salaries.

J is for June, the joyous period when John and Jane join the ranks of the out-of-school.

K is for the Kinks in every kind of effort to improve the curriculum.

L is for the Love of little children which leads lots of teachers to teach.

M is for the Mystery as to what makes most children turn out better than we have any right to expect them to be.

N is for the Notoriety attached to every teacher by the absurd behavior of some teachers.

O is for the Opportunity given every child in an American school.

P is for the Proposition that every child is entitled to an equal chance.

Q is for the Questions left unanswered in the quest for certainty.

R is for the Respect for the individual without which any education is meaningless.

S is for the Society of which the school is the creature, the structure that supports education so that it itself may endure.

T is for the Tensions induced in every teacher by the failure of the community to know what it wants and to provide for it.

U is for Unity--of purpose, of program, of method--which insures a closer approach to any goal than is possible without it.

V is for the Vastness of the task of the school, an infinity of challenge and opportunity.

W is for the Wishing for more classrooms, more teachers, more equipment, more moral support.

X is the Great Unknown--what will be the results in the next generation of the effort of the school on this one?

Y is for Youth, a period of eagerness to know, reluctance to learn, and haste to act.

Z is for the Zenith, the height of achievement--the satisfaction of watching boys and girls become men and women, functioning citizens of the community.

Mr. Hicks presented gifts to the outstanding students in his 5th grade class. Receiving the honors were: Pam Sheets, Most Courteous Girl; Lena Hicks, Most Improved Girl; Ina Beth Decker, Highest Grade Average; Terry Caffey, Most Improved Boy; and Pete Goldston, Most Courteous Boy.

Opening Windows to the Mind...

... Through Proper Understanding

Helping slow learning minds requires a specialized program paced to their ability to learn. Having to compete with faster minds often discourages them and stymies what learning ability they have. Not able to face the social stigma of being a failure many of them drop out of school.

Unfortunately, special schooling for these children in Texas is mainly private and expensive. Some public schools do offer help on a limited basis, but the majority are not being reached.

Realizing this, Buckner began a school program of this type at its Dallas Children's Home in September, 1965, providing this specialized care for the dependent, neglected child.

... Through a Carefully Planned Program

The primary objective of this Buckner Vocational Academy Program is to prepare the students to take their place in life as an independent, well-adjusted, contributing member of society, rather than being dependent on society for their support.

The academic approach is on a practical level. Reading material for the intermediate and advanced students includes such things as the daily newspaper, job application forms, driver's training manual and current issues of Reader's Digest.

Some classroom time is spent learning how to work, and covers job interviews, filling out applications, punctuality, and getting along with supervisors. Math classes deal with the practical needs of weights, measures and distances; learning to read a ruler; rates of pay for jobs and budget planning.

Thirteen to 16-year-olds spend half a day on academic study and the other half in vocational activities such as upholstery, building maintenance, homemaking,

Much time is spent in personal instruction

Carol Norton, pictured above, is working with this group of children at Buckners. Carol is head athletic and recreation director and is a member of the Board. He has been on staff at Buckners for two years. Previously he was attending Southwestern Seminary in Ft. Worth. Carol lacks 25 hours receiving his degree from the Seminary. His plans for the summer are to work toward this. In his spare time, Carol is attending East Texas State University at Commerce and will receive his teaching certificate in August.

Carol is married to the former Pam Goodall. She is employed with Delta Air Lines at Love Field. Pam taught third grade in Ft. Worth and Dallas prior to going to work for the airlines.

Carol and Pam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B.C. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodall reside in Seminole. Carol and Pam are Seminole High and Baylor graduates.

and driver training. At 16, they are placed in a supervised work station, which may be off campus. Several students are now training as nurse's aides and maintenance assistants at Buckner's Ryburn Home.

Social adjustment and behavior is an important part of the curriculum. This is taught, not only in class, but in all campus life. The normal intermingling of students, supervised by competent, concerned house-parents and staff, provides a training ground for learning acceptable social behavior.

In addition, there is a full religious training program conducted in the Buckner Home Church.

... Through Motivation

Some would say that it's better to fail at a large task than to succeed at a small one. This is not true with our Academy child. Success at one small task can change their whole outlook on education.

This has been proven over and over in the Program. When a child begins to see goals he can reach, and reaches a few of them, this encourages him to try harder.

One of the greatest rewards of the Program thus far has been to see one teenage girl re-enrolled in public school and the possibility of another returning soon. Reaching academic goals they thought were unreachable gave them the confidence and motivation needed to compete on a higher level.

... Through Patience and Understanding

No small part of the renewed motivation of these children has come from patient, loving, understanding instructors.

Learning does not come easy for this child, and disappointments to teacher and child are many. Because of his "shuttered" window of learning, lessons must be repeated time and again. But these dedicated teachers, motivated themselves by Christian concern for their youngsters, have learned that patience has its reward. They will tell you there is nothing to match the glimmer of understanding that lights up the child's eyes as he exclaims, "I see!"

When the teachers see a desire awakened in the child to learn more, they begin to devote more and more time in personal, one-to-one work — hours beyond the time they're required to give. This in itself has a revitalizing effect on the child. He will do his best for you if he feels you really care.

... Through Hope of Future Expansion

Buckner has 60 children enrolled in its Academy Program, simply because this is all it can accommodate in its housing facilities. The Home continues to maintain its regular child care program for around 350 children who attend Dallas public schools.

One boys dormitory and one girls dormitory are being used for Academy children. Harold Hime, superintendent of the Home, said it would be no problem to fill two more dormitories with children who need this special schooling, if space were available. There are 30 children on the waiting list now.

The Buckner administration, convinced of the merit of such a program, gives assurance that it will grow as fast as financial support makes it possible.

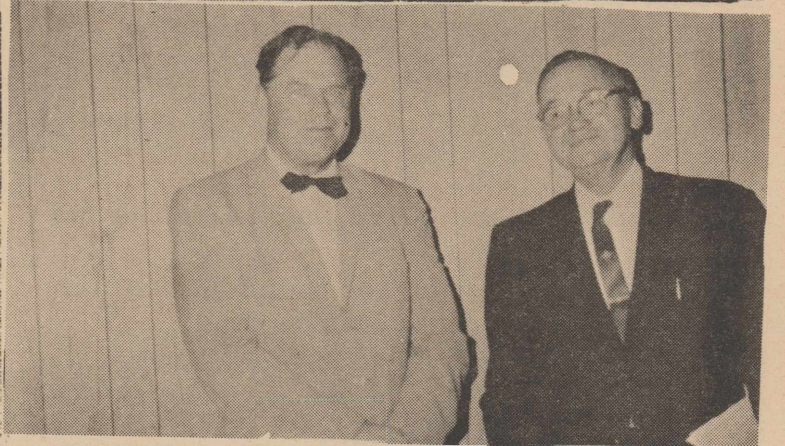

BEVERLY OGLE IS MODELING A MODEL. She is holding a De-Bolt P-Shooter Model plane that weighs five to six pounds. It was built by Floyd Idom out of Balsa-Wood and styrofoam. He spent approximately 80 hours building it. The plane is powered by an Italian Super Tiger #60, one horse power motor. It has to be cranked by hand.

It is ground controlled by a F. & M. Digital 5 control system. It will do a full stunt pattern such as loops, inverted loops, tail spins and snap rolls. The ground operator can fly it up to two miles from the control system, or as long as he can see it. He has a control for the elevator, the rudder, the aileron, and the engine. On the ground he can idle, taxi, or stop, or take off. It can fly on its back, do a tail slide, or the sabber dance. The six ounces of fuel will maintain the plane about 15 minutes. It will reach speeds of approximately 80 miles per hour, and it will fly 20 to 25 miles during the 15 minutes.

The kit for building the plane cost $29.95, the engine $40.00 and the control panel is $359.59. The control panel includes a transmitter and a receiver in the plane and four control Servo's, also inside the plane.

Members of the Flying Club in Hobbs, N.M. include, Seminole members, Floyd Idom, Glen Gressett, and Ralph Bogues. Each of them belong to 'Academy of Model Aeronautics' which has safety rules. They stated that this is not a 'Kids Game' but it is a nice hobby.

Award Winners Are Announced

An annual dinner for Noble Drilling Corporation was held in Andrews at the Main Cafe. The dinner was for presentation of the "Safety Awards" given by the Company.

Attending from Seminole were Mr. and Mrs. B. D. McDaniel, Billy Ray; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, Wendell; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Corley, Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Wilson; and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Workman.

McDaniel received a $50.00 Savings Bond and a 7 year award pen. Corley received a $50.00 Savings Bond and a 3 year award pen. Miller received a $50.00 Savings Bond and a 2 year award pen. These

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wright, David and Gary spent Mother Day's week-end with Melba's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Prichard in Borger.

Mrs. Lucille Ham and daughter, Elizabeth, have sold their 51 motel to C. M. and Ethel McCain.

Lucille and Elizabeth moved to Dallas this past Wednesday. They will be missed in the community.

awards were received for one full time year without any lost time on their part or a member of their crew. For a first year award the recipient receives a watch and for each following year a $50.00 Savings Bond is given.

ANNUAL PICNIC HELD

The Llano Estacado Archaeological Society recently held their annual May picnic at Florey Park.

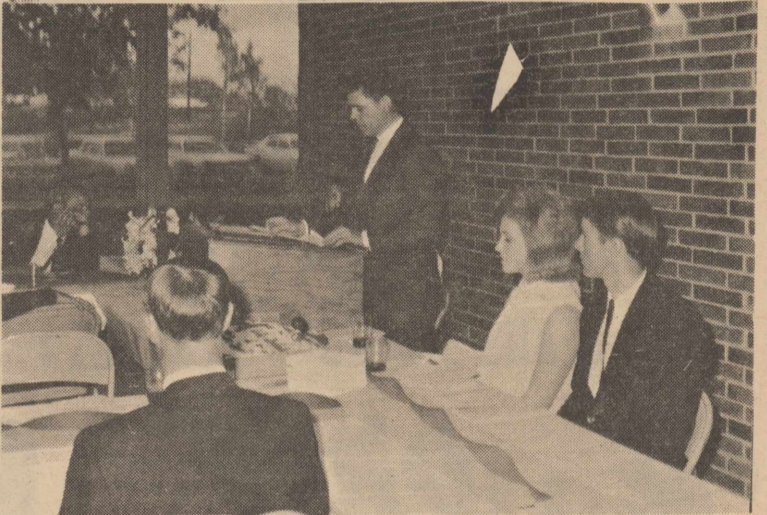

Louis Robertson, teacher in the Andrews school system had the program. A film on the Hopi Indians was shown. The regular business meeting was held. Twenty-two members were present. Attending from Seminole were Mr. and Mrs. Dee Coker, Mrs. Allie Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Powers, Randy and Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stracener, and children and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Love and Debbie.

The world is full of beauty, as other worlds above,
And if we did our duty, it might be as full of love.
GERALD MASSEY - This World

The Gaines County Junior Livestock Show Association met Tuesday night in the County Extension office.

Mr. Horace Hancock of the Higginbotham Community was elected as President of the Association. Outgoing president M.M. Hand of Loop had served the past two years.

Also elected as vice president of the Association were Troy Martin of Seagraves and Stanley Ancinec of Loop. There are four vice-presidents in the Association representing the four Gaines County communities. Vice-presidents from Seminole and Higginbotham are J.W. Satterwhite and B.J. Wimberly, respectively. Each vice-president appoints two directors from his community. Dwayne Herman was re-elected as Secretary-Treasurer. Acting as advisors to the group are Vocational Agriculture instructors, Hollis Shults of Seminole, J.E. White of Loop, and Homer Cook of Seagraves. County Agricultural Agents, Calvin D. Holcomb and Paul W. Henderson.

Annual Banquet

The annual "Banquete de Meritos," or Merit Awards Banquet was held Friday, May 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Party House at the Gaines County Park. This banquet is sponsored by the Don Quixote Chapter of the Spanish National Honor Society. The purpose of this banquet is to recognize the achievements made throughout the school year by outstanding Spanish students.

This year, fifteen Merit Awards were given by the Don Quixote sponsor, Mr. Roy Barnes. Awards for making outstanding grades on the Spanish National Examination given in March went to: Veronice Trevino in Spanish III, Ramon Alamager and Cathy Parker in Spanish II, and Virginia Saldana and Steve Young in Spanish I. Those receiving awards for outstanding achievement and improvement in the Spanish classes were: Eddie Bright and Linda Thomas for Spanish III, Byran Hill and Lynda Jeanis for Spanish I. Awards in the Merit Awards Contest given in April went to: Veronice Trevino for poetry interpretation, Melinda Malone for conversation, and Ramon Almager for picture description. Lynda Jeanis received the award for the outstanding member of Don Quixote for 1967, and Ysidro Lopez received the award for lab assistant in Spanish I.

The decorations were red and gold, the colors of the Spanish National Honor Society, and they included a centerpiece of lilies with a statue of Don Quixote at the head table where the officers and seniors sat. Each year a cake is made to honor the graduating seniors. This year, the cake was decorated with red and gold and had on it this inscription, "A los Graduados del Don Quixote." The graduating seniors include: Valli Barber, Marcia English, Charles George, Wayne Hunt, Melinda Melone, Cathy Parker, Linda Setser, and Steve Holland.

THANK YOU !!

THANK YOU Although the show was held several months back - The Gaines County 4-H Clubs and FFA Chapters want to express a sincere thank you to the following merchants and individuals who helped make the GAINES CO. JR. LIVESTOCK SHOW the big success that it was
