

Last week I was eating lunch out of town by myself. I was wishing for someone to eat lunch with when this man, 75 to 85 years of age, approached. He said "Will it be all right if we sit here?" I looked up, expecting him to sit at my table, when he sat at the one next to me. He kept on talking and was waiting from time to time for an answer and then would enter right back into the conversation.

"Are your shrimp all right?" Evidently the answer was yes because he said, "Well, I'm glad, you've always liked shrimp." He went on to say how good his food was, that his day at the office had been especially hard because Roger had come in and told him that he and his wife were getting a divorce after 33 years. "Did you hear from Junior and the kids today? I told you they'd be all right" he went on to say and from that part of the conversation they discussed not any of the children coming home for Thanksgiving but that all planned on being there for Christmas.

The conversation then turned to one of the grandsons that was in Vietnam and how worried they were about his wife and him not getting to see the new baby. They discussed the weather and what he was going to buy her for Christmas.

Finally I could not stand it any longer. I turned to the man and asked "Are you talking to me?" "No" he said, "I'm talking to my wife. You see, she died last year and we lived together for 47 years. I've always enjoyed taking her out to dinner. We're discussing the day's happenings, our business and our children." And with that he turned to his wife and asked her "Would you care for pecan pie? You didn't get any and you've always liked pecan pie."

He was unembarrassed and unashamed that others besides myself could hear him but I know one thing for sure he was especially proud of her. No doubt she was not only a good wife, but a good mother and a good grandmother.

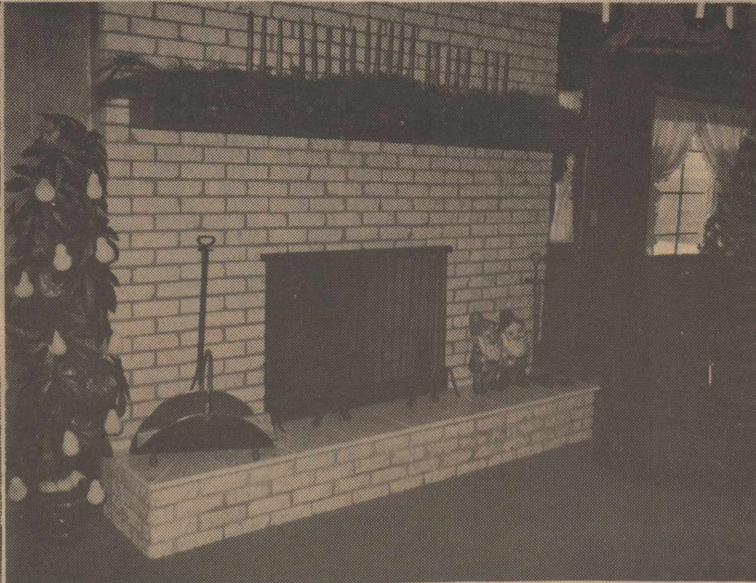

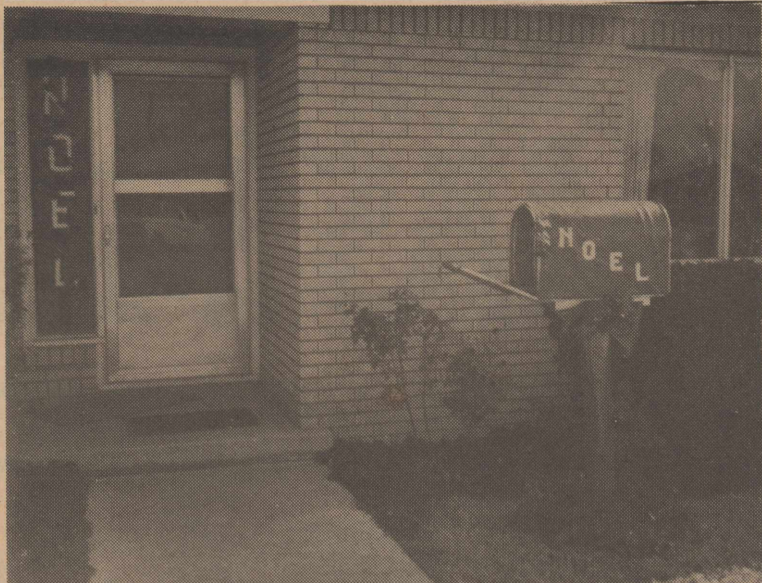

He paid out right in front of me. He opened the door and waited for her to go through and left the establishment with a smile on his face.

Somehow there must be a thousand lessons in this somewhere.

Hassell Horse Farm

Don Hassell is at halter showing Miltwist Mike Red, a two-year-old in training, probably the pride and joy of the Hassell farm.

Roland Hassell at halter, showing Amigo Night. "This is my wife's favorite horse and I guess mine, too."

The Hassell Horse Farm is located on 800 acres of land 4 miles north of Seagraves, Texas. They added the horse operation to the farm in the last two years, after Mr. Hassell said "I've had horses all my life." Roland Hassell will be remembered as a house builder in Seminole and his son, Don, a former resident of Seminole. He is married to the former Mary Nelson.

At the present time the horse farm has 29 horses, maintaining three thoroughbred mares and five registered quarterhorse mares, plus a stable of racers. After someone said they sure are pretty Don was heard to remark,

"With five gallons of grain and all the hay they can eat they should be."

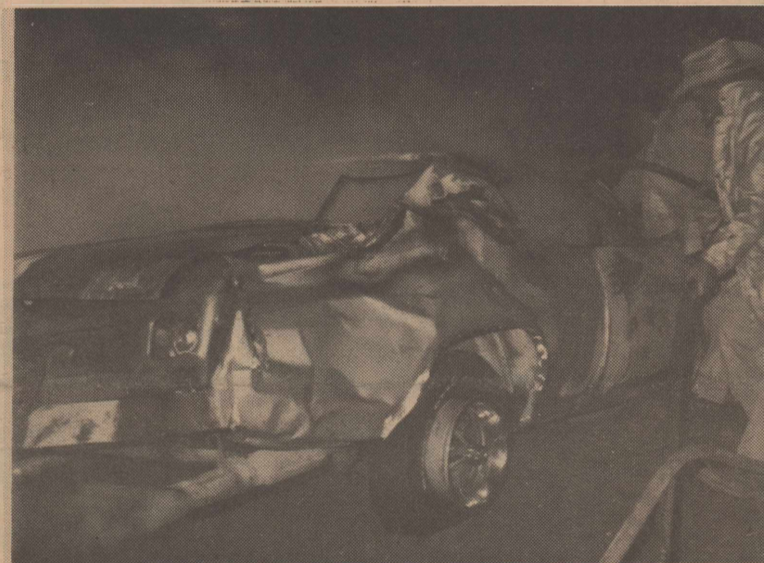

The farm produces cotton, maize, grazing for the horses, plus the stalls of horses. Antonio Lujon, weighing in at 115 lbs., lives on the farm and also serves as the operations' jockey on area tracks.

Recently added to the farms as a brood mare was Delphi Dessq, SEE P 16

All Three Lived

Clifton Craig Lemoine, age 20, 1001 N. W. Ave. I., escaped serious injury and certain death when he was pulled from the burning wreckage of his new 1970 Chevrolet Chevelle last Friday night.

A passenger, Jackie Allen, 18, 605 S. W. 8th St., was released from the hospital after being treated for cuts, abrasions and bruises. Not so fortunate was Nancy Billups, age 19, who suffered scalp wounds, a broken bone and chest wounds. Her address is 308 S. W. 12th Street. Her condition has changed for the better and is reported to be in fair condition.

The accident occurred on a curve 15 miles west and 7 miles south when the driver failed to negotiate a curve, turning over two times, throwing both passengers from the car and coming to rest on its wheels.

Damage to the one week old car was $4700. The Seminole Fire Department was called to extinguish the fire.

Saturday morning at 11:55 a. m. but a short distance away $7,000 damage was sustained to a truck and trailer when a front tire of the truck tractor blew out and turned the complete rig one fourth time. The driver was Michael Ray Inglehart, age 22, 3412 Clearmont Street, Odessa.

The 1964 Ford truck tractor was pulling a pipe straightening trailer when the accident occurred as the truck was headed east on the Nadine Road, approaching the curve 15 miles west and 7 miles south.

BROWNFIELD 63

The Seminole Indians fell behind in the 3rd period last night after holding the first quarter lead to 14-10 and halftime lead of 26-21 and lost to Brownfield 56-63.

When Steve Hatley picked up his 3rd and 4th foul shortly after halftime it hurt the Indians offense and defense. Little David Henderson made Seminole fans of yesteryear smile with delight when he got 8 baskets from the field and 8 free throws for a total of 24 points. He was the only Indian in double figures and was the high point man for both teams.

Following Henderson was Donchoe with 7, Walker with 7, Hatley with 7, Livingston with 5, Sims with 4 and Whisenhunt with 2.

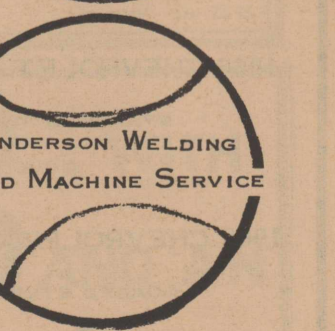

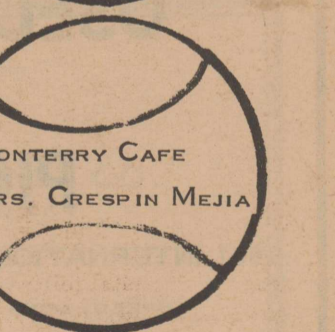

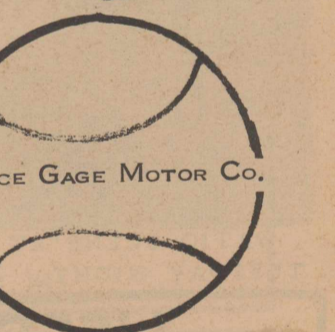

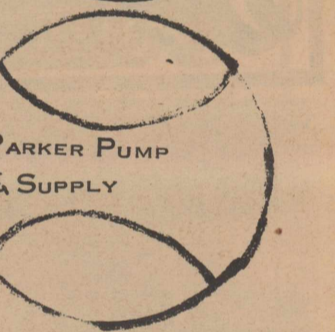

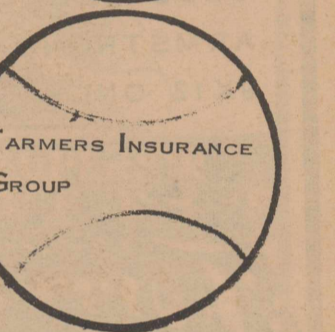

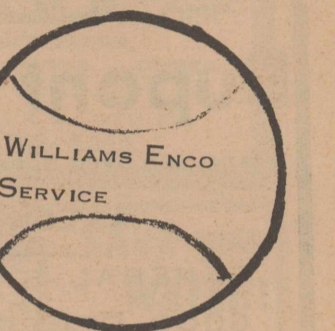

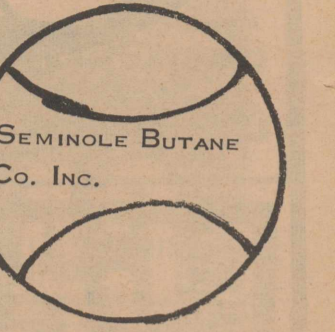

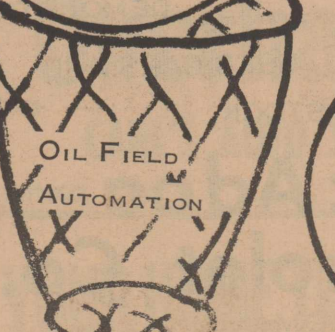

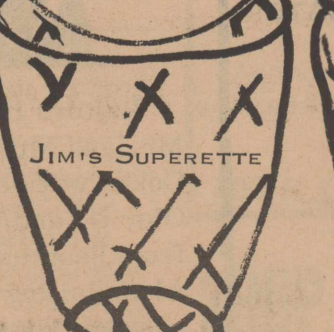

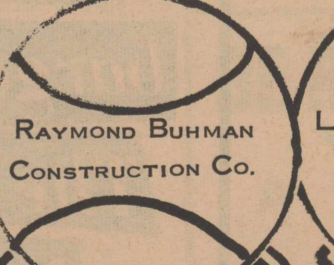

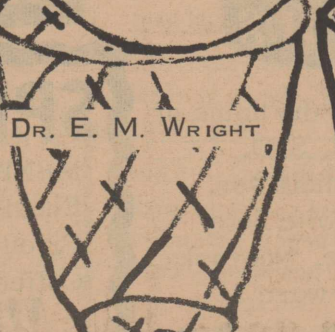

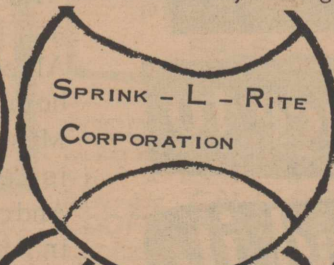

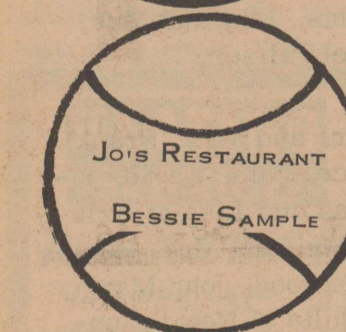

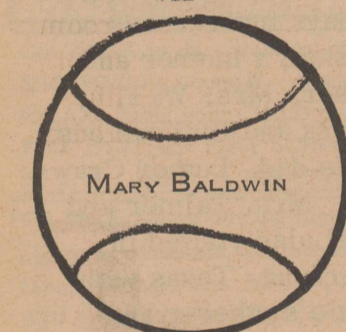

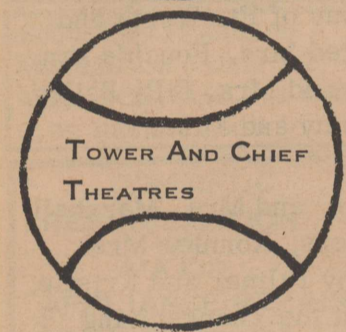

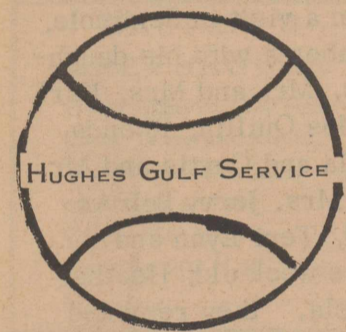

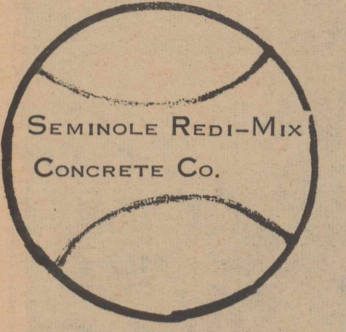

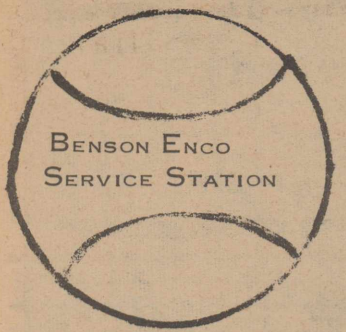

The B-team lost a heartbreaker when they led as much as 12 points and got beat by 2 points 45-47 when Pierson dropped in 2 from afar off. The officials ruled he shot as the buzzer was sounding and the ball was not in the air.

Tipping was about the only player that could find the range in the 2nd half, scoring 9 points.

DEAR MR. WOODS:

PERHAPS YOU HAVE HEARD OF ME AND MY NATIONWIDE CAMPAIGN IN THE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE. EACH YEAR FOR THE PAST FOURTEEN YEARS I HAVE MADE A TOUR OF THE UNITED STATES AND DELIVERED A SERIES OF LECTURES UPON THE EVILS OF DRINKING.

ON THESE TOURS I WAS ACCOMPANIED BY MY YOUNG FRIEND AND ASSISTANT, HERMAN FORESQUE. HERMAN WAS A PATHETIC CASE...A YOUNG MAN OF GOOD FAMILY AND EXCELLENT BACKGROUND, WHOSE LIFE WAS RUINED BECAUSE OF EXCESSIVE INDULGENCE IN WHISKEY, GIN, AND OTHER STRONG DRINKS. IF EVER THERE WAS ONE WHOSE LIFE WAS WRECKED BY "JOHN BARLEYCORN" IT WAS HERMAN.

HERMAN WOULD APPEAR WITH ME AT MY LECTURES AND SIT ON THE PLATFORM, A DROOLING AT THE MOUTH AND STARING AT THE AUDIENCE THROUGH BLEARY AND BLOOD-SHOT EYES WHILE I WOULD POINT HIM OUT AS AN EXAMPLE OF WHAT STRONG DRINK COULD DO. HE WAS MY CASE IN POINT...AND A BETTER ONE I NEVER SAW.

UNFORTUNATELY, LAST WINTER HERMAN DIED...MAY HE REST IN PEACE. I AM NOW LOOKING FOR SOMEONE TO TAKE POOR HERMAN'S PLACE. PLEASE ADVISE IF YOU KNOW OF SOMEONE TO ACCOMPANY ME ON MY SPRING TOUR.

VERY SINCERELY YOURS:

REV. JOSHUA D. THOMAS

Mrs. W. T. Eaton from San Antonio is shown shopping the bread rack at H&D Food. She is shown with her grandson, Roger Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Smith of Starlite Trailer Court, Seminole.

WHAT KIND OF BREAD?

Stone Ground Bread? Pumpernickel Bread? That's two of the new breads on a new bread rack at H&D Food Grocery. Ernest Burnett is the distributor for the new breads. There are many other breads available. Garlic in Foil? Orange Bread? If you are a bread lover, you will be delighted to see such breads as Butter Bread, Italian Bread, Vienna Bread, Farm Bread, Sour French Bread, and Caraway Bread.

If those don't please you, how about German Black Bread, Buttercrust, Butter and Egg, Bavarian Rye, Mashed Potato Bread, or Sesamecrust. Or how's this for rolls: German Black Rolls, Potato Rolls, or Muffin Rolls. Or there's French-Onion Bread or Cinnamon Raisin Bread. You might top off the bread for the day with Cinnamon Sticks or Butter Horns. Or better still, just stop in at H&D and look over the bread rack. It will bring back memories of having visited a German Market, an Italian Bakery, or an Eastern corner food store.

Editorial

If sometime you get to thinking about all the accomplishments of Man and maybe yourself in particular and would care to be brought back to Earth with a jolt, read the speech that God made to Job in the last five chapters of that book.

I'd like to review some of the questions after having read it last week. 1. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the Earth? 2. Where are the foundations thereof fastened? 3. Who laid the cornerstone thereof? 4. Who shut up the sea with doors? 5. Who hast entered into the springs of the sea? 6. Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? 7. Where is the way where light dwelleth? 8. Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? 9. Hast thou seen the treasures of the hail? 10. By what way is the light parted? 11. Who hath divided a water course? (One man read this and spent years searching for them and found the shipping lanes of the world.) 12. Can you lift up your voice to the clouds that an abundance of water will cover thee? 13. Canst thou send lightning? 14. Who can number the clouds? 15. Gavest thou the goodly wings to the peacocks? 16. Gavest thou the wings and the feathers to the ostrich? 17. Hast thou given the horse strength? (He mocketh at fear and is not afrightened, neither turneth he back from the sword.) 18. Does the hawk fly by thy wisdom? 19. Doth the eagle mount up at thy command?

If we have some knowledge of wisdom our answer will follow the same pattern as Job's. "Behold I am vile. What shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth --- I know that thou canst do everything and that no thought can be withholden from thee --- wherefore I abhorre myself and repent in dust and ashes ---."

INFANTS THRU JR. TEENS

SEARCY, ARK. --- Capping the greatest year of his collegiate career, Harding College fullback Charles Caffey was named to the 1969 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference All-Star team and will play in the third annual conflict this Saturday against Henderson State College in Arkadelphia.

Caffey has been the offensive bellwether throughout the season as Harding recorded its greatest year in history. While pacing the Bison to a 7-2-1 record, Caffey established a new season scoring mark of 70 points. His total also ranked him second in the AIC standings.

A bruising blocker and a powerful runner, Caffey averaged 4.2 yards per carry as he gained 578 yards on 137 trips. "Caffey is just a fine ball player," coach John Prock said. "He's the kinda boy you could put anywhere and he would do you an outstanding job. He's a fine athlete."

In addition to being a bruising runner, Caffey was doubly valuable as a pass receiver. In the Bison pro-type offense, Caffey latched on to 13 passes for 116 yards and three touchdowns.

The 6-1, 220 pound junior enjoyed his greatest night of the year with 116 yards on 13 carries against Mississippi College. The Bison defeated the Choctaw team by an 18-7 count.

A business administration major, Caffey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Caffey of 202 N.W. Avenue H in Seminole.

AROUND TOWN By Jackie Squires

The only disagreeable thing about Thanksgiving is - it never fails, I always have a birthday soon after. The gang at JO'S RESTAURANT called and sang Happy Birthday to me (and believe it or not, they were all on key). Later JIM BOB TAYLOR from SEMINOLE FLORAL ran over with a beautiful red corsage from all the employees at JO'S - BESSIE SAMPLE, WANDA ABSHIER, GEORGIA RIBBLE, RUTH PRICE, MAY JOY MC DONALD, CARMEN DRIVER, ALICE BELL, BOBBIE MYERS, and PAULA GRESSETT. Thanks, gang, you're the "Greatest". --- DAMON and KATHY PEARSON have moved back to town and are proudly showing off their new adopted son, MONTY, who is three months old. --- Visited with MRS. D. C. KING at SEMINOLE STATE BANK Monday; she's such a nice lady (she likes Around Town). --- MR. DOYLE HANKINS gave MADELINE SHELTON and I a tour through the new bank building Monday afternoon. They hope to be moved in this weekend. Seminole can be proud of their new bank because it is "plum elegant". --- Running into BOB CLARK everywhere Monday; that fellow really gets around. --- The sound of Christmas is in the air. The lovely music from JORDAN FURNITURE and STAN'S FINE JEWELRY fills the streets of Seminole these days, helping to keep the Christmas spirit up for the shoppers. --- MARGE COFFMAN and BOBBIE CHILDERS shopping at WACKER'S Monday, wonder if Marge ever remembered what she needed to buy. --- LOMETA WARLICK eating lunch at the RAYMOND Monday, saying she thought it was the best food in town. (For our out of town readers, Lometa and husband MILES are owners of the Raymond.) --- BLANCHE KEYES with daughter JOAN and daughter-in-law, MRS. JIM (LEAH) KEYES, shopping at ALLEAN'S CHILDREN'S WEAR Saturday. Leah saying how much they enjoy the NEWS. Jim and Leah reside in Lubbock. --- Newcomer from Brownfield, J. C. HARRIS, by the office Tuesday with American Legion news. Harris hasn't had a chance to get acquainted in town because he works in the country at CHRISTIAN GRAIN CO. --- RAYMOND BUHMAN and DOLLIE IVY at it again at JO'S RESTAURANT Tuesday evening; CURT DANIELS not taking sides. --- The SEMINOLE GARDEN CLUB ladies doing a fine job decorating for the annual Christmas Tour of Homes. --- PETE McCLELLAN, our friendly undertaker, SEMINOLE MEMORIAL FUNERAL HOME, in the News office Tuesday telling Aggie jokes. --- PAT PALMER and her daughter, KRISTIE, enjoying a tape from their husband and daddy, received Monday. school steps this morning, looking after him I thought 'oh, no, not again so soon.' His pants (size 16) struck his ankles and just a couple of months ago they came to his shoe tops. It's almost unbelievable how fast a teenage boy grows, but then you realize the intake of all that food has to go some place and in his case it's straight up. He can eat three or four peanut butter sandwiches while I'm preparing dinner, saying "Mom, hurry, I'm about to starve." The last time we had tacos he ate ten. Well, thank goodness, Christmas is almost here. I won't feel so bad about buying new clothes again so soon. Sure feel sorry for people with 3 or 4 boys to feed and clothe but at least they can hand down clothing. --- Look out for me because I'll be seeing you AROUND TOWN.

LOOP NEWS

BY MRS. BUCK CUNNINGHAM

The annual Thanksgiving holiday was enjoyed by all as the children had a vacation from school. The weather was not very good for farmers with rain and drizzle on Wednesday of last week but cleared by the end of the week. Most harvesters were back in the fields with the gins running at full capacity.

Even though the school week was short last week the basketball schedule was complete. The Junior High played at Wellman Monday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. The girls' game was Loop 24 - Wellman 25. Boys' game score was Loop 24 - Wellman 36.

The girls met the Sundown Roughettes on the home court Monday evening. The B-teams were outscored 29-65. The A-teams got off to a slow start and trailed at the end of the first quarter 14-16. It was still an even game at halftime with Loop gaining one point to trail 28-29.

The third quarter was the same with Loop tying the score at 37-37. The Loop girls found the range in the 4th quarter and took advantage of Sundown's foul trouble and won it going away by a score of 60-47.

On Tuesday night the girls teams played at Wellman. The scores were close in both games. B-team game score by quarters was Loop 8 - Wellman 10; 20-16; 29-28; and finally losing it in the 4th 31-34. The A-team game was the same story with Loop leading the 2nd and 3rd quarters. Score by quarters Loop 7-Wellman 12; 19-18; 31-26 and final Loop 42 - Wellman 44.

Mrs. Arit Davison's 4-H Food Group met last Monday afternoon at the Community Building. Velma Kelly led the motto and pledge. Dana Ancinec led the 4-H prayer. The program was about milk. Velma Kelly made Grades 1-6 presented a Thanksgiving program in the school auditorium last Wednesday. The program was opened by the 6th grade beginner band under the direction of Mr. Dan Calfee. Following this, grades 1-5, under the direction of Mrs. Connie Hoover, gave Thanksgiving songs and speeches. First grade speeches were in unison and the songs were Three Turkeys and Thanksgiving Song.

The second grade had unison readings with solo readings by Trina Foshee, Darran Ancinec and Bert Gibson. The songs were Thanksgiving and Stuff Me. They were accompanied on the autoharp by Mary Jane Rodriguez.

Third grade speakers were Deon Smith, Dave Smith and Velma Kelly. Their songs were He's a Big Fat Turkey and The Brave Little Mayflower. Autoharp players were Dana Ancinec and Amy Foshee.
