

No Age Limit For Auto Enthusiasts Proven By Maintenance Sergeant

A Reese Air Force Base Staff Sergeant apparently is setting an example for the "kids" in the fast car arena.

"As a man of 43, I suppose I'm just as interested and thrilled in souped-up automobiles as anyone," S/Sgt. Sterling Burriss told a ROUNDUP reporter.

To back up his statement, the 3505th Field Maintenance squadron sergeant has nearly completed a home-made auto that is estimated to exceed speeds of 140 miles-per-hour. The car hasn't been tested on a time track so far, but the sergeant expects to take it out early this summer.

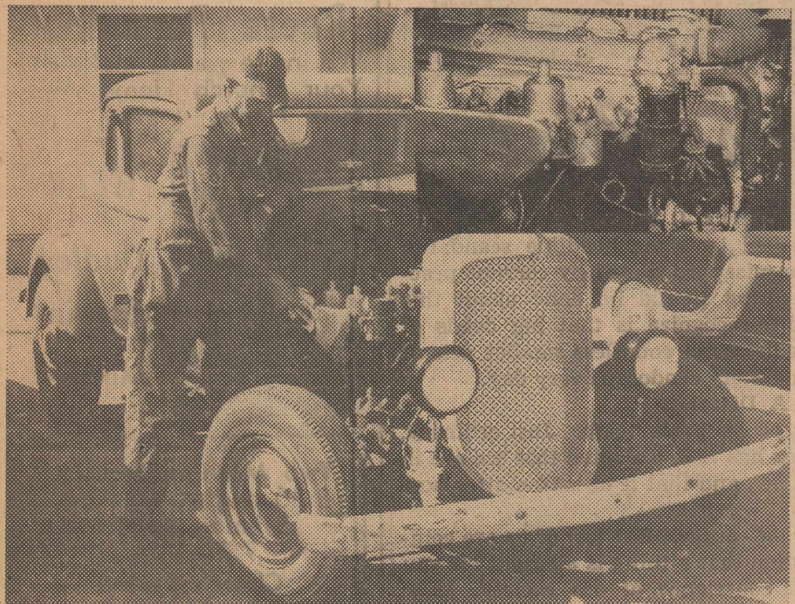

From the outside the car looks just like an ordinary 1934 five-window Plymouth coupe with large rear tires. A look under the hood reveals a 1953 XK-120 Jaguar engine, and a five speed transmission.

The car also contains brake, radiator and other accessories from a 1948 Plymouth. When completed it will be upholstered in black and white plastic and have a snow cap white paint job, Sergeant Burriss said.

All the work on the auto was completed in his spare time, using facilities at several Lubbock garages, as well as the Base Hobby Shop. "This will be the third such machine I have completed," the sergeant related, "but I have tinkered with several."

Burriss is a native of Plainview, Texas and has been in service since 1942. He has been stationed at Reese since April, 1954.

Captain Marker came to Reese AFB in June, 1952, and was assigned as a flight instructor. He will leave Reese AFB early in May, and report to the university in June for schooling under the United States Institute of Technology program.

Air Conditioning Is Completed At NCO Open Mess

The Reese AFB Non-Commissioned Officers Open Mess is now a real cool place, as witnessed by several persons at the dedication of a new air-conditioning system Monday night.

After over 15 months of planning, work was started Nov. 1, 1955, on the automatic ventilating, circulating and air-conditioning system, M/Sgt. Garnet Lee, Mess Secretary, stated.

The 40-ton refrigerated air unit consists of individual temperature controls in the larger rooms of the mess, so each room can be cooled as needed. The unit is completely automatic, with an average temperature to be maintained throughout the mess.

Installation of the air-conditioning unit was completed by the Anthony Corp, of Lubbock.

The Air Conditioning unit was paid for from profits at the mess. Complete unit cost was $27,120.

New Summer Uniform Authorized At Reese

Reese Air Force Base personnel will be authorized to wear the new Air Force summer uniform April 1, Base Regulation 35-1 has directed.

The new uniform is now available at the Base Exchange and other commercial sources and can be worn in the combinations as follows: Short trousers and knee-length stockings with either the short-sleeve shirt, (without necktie) or bush jacket; long trousers, with either the short-sleeve shirt (without necktie) or the bush jacket; or long trousers, short-sleeve shirt, (with necktie) and bush jacket.

The cotton khaki uniform is authorized for wear until June 30, 1956, but in the meantime either the khaki or the new summer uniform may be worn. However, the two uniforms will not be mixed.

As a whole the short trousers will not be worn off base, during or after duty hours but may be worn enroute to and from residence and place of duty.

The 3500th Pilot Training Group Commander will prescribe the uniform to be worn by Aviation Cadets.

The class, 56-J, includes 47 men who trained as student officers and 13 who trained as aviation cadets. Also in the class are six young men who trained under provision of the Mutual Defense Assistance Program as members of friendly allied nations. From Chile are 2nd Lts. Enzo G. DiNocera, Ricardo France, and Raul Valenzuela. From Guatemala is 2nd Lt. Francisco Gonzalez, while from Venezuela are Cadets Mariano J. Marquez and Benito A. Tovar. The six will return immediately to their home lands to pilot multi-engine aircraft for their Air Forces.

Col. James F. Mears, Reese AFB executive officer, will introduce Dr. Lovern to the class. He also will make awards to distinguished cadets in the class and award pilot wings. Chaplain (Captain) Vincent C. Merfeld is to give the invocation and benediction. Maj. Sam L. Osver, commander of the 3501st Pilot Training squadron, will be master-of-ceremonies and administer the oath to the cadets as they become second lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve. Maj. Tobias Schindler, commander of the 3500th Pilot Training squadron, is to assist in awarding wings, while Col. Travis Hoover, commander of the 3500th Pilot Training group, will present diplomas. vens of Bakersfield, Calif., and Bobbie D. Owens of Grant City, Mo., will be given special honors as Distinguished Cadets at the graduation of Class 56-J. They will be awarded certificates of achievement in flying, military and academic training.

Cadet Havens has been in service since October, 1954, and received primary pilot training at Bainbridge Air Base, Ga. He is a 1954 graduate of Bakersfield college, where he majored in architecture.

Cadet Owens for two and a half years was a member of the Missouri National Guard prior to entering active duty in the Air Force in November, 1954. He received primary flight training at Spence Air Base, Ga.

Equipment Operator To Receive Texas Safe Driving Award

M/Sgt. Hosea H. Farrow

M/Sgt. Hosea H. Farrow, 3505th Maintenance squadron, has won first place in the Texas individual driver award contest for industrial fleets, after completing 14 accident-free years of operating heavy equipment.

Sergeant Farrow, in reclamation service of the base, will receive his award at the 17th annual Texas Safety conference in Dallas, March 27. He won the same award in 1955.

Farrow has been in service the past 19 years. He has been in reclamation most of the time and is widely known for his ability to reclaim material from damaged aerial and ground equipment. He is a 1946 graduate of the heavy equipment operations school, Barksdale AFB, and completed Reese AFB drivers school in 1950. His award from the Texas safety association resulted from 14 years of operating the heavy equipment without an accident.

The sergeant came to Reese when the base was re-activated in 1949 and is most widely known by his nickname, "Alabam".

The Red Mechanical Age

(Editorial)

Communism is the greatest danger we Americans face—both inside our border and throughout the world. A great part of communism's strength lies in under-developed nations—nations that have not yet swung into the red orbit but that teeter perilously on the fence.

Trying to push these countries into Russia's circle are active, local communists controlled by the Kremlin. Particularly in Asia, where there is great poverty, many people are in a hurry to catch up with industrialization. They are impatient. They think they see in communism an opportunity to achieve quickly a higher standard of living.

Impressed by the rapid industrialization in Russia and the start made in China, they expect miracles. They don't see that people under communist control face the threat of forced labor camps and suffer thought control—that living standards in the U.S.S.R. are still low after 38 years of red control.

We of the U.S. offer the example of our system—in which we have achieved the highest standard of living in the world through free enterprise, with freedom of the individual as a basic principle.

The U.S. is trying to help nations to catch up without turning to communism—through our aid programs. We hope they will become truly free and independent countries. By strengthening freedom in the rest of the world, we help maintain our freedom. (AFPS)

Chaplain's Chat

By Chaplain (Major) Wilbur J. McDaniel

Now and again America is shocked by some headline scandal in which millions of public dollars are misappropriated by corrupt practices. We say "How terrible! Something should be done about this state of affairs!" But what we need to recognize is that big deeds of dishonesty are only the magnified editions of countless smaller acts of deception, fraud, and untruth which society condones every day.

Honesty At A Discount

Honesty is getting almost as rare as hen's teeth. Just ordinary, common honesty. Somehow the idea has been accepted that we are in this world to outsmart the other fellow, and that it doesn't matter how we do it.

Not everybody is equally guilty, of course. But few of us are completely clean. The insidious suggestion that a thing is all right "if you can get by with it" has corroded the conscience of our society. It is surely time that somebody took a stand for truth and honesty.

Somebody? If you are a Christian, surely that somebody should be you. Christians are in this world to challenge low standards of morality by high standards of personal conduct. Unfortunately many seem to have forgotten this. Had the apostle Paul been our pastor he would have taken good care to keep us reminded. "Put away lying," he exhorted the members of a city congregation. "Speak every man truth with his neighbor . . . Let him who stole, steal no more." (Eph. 4:25, 28.)

First MDAP Student To Take U.S. Car Home

A new honor has come to 2nd Lt. Francisco Gonzalez, representative of the Guatemalan Air Force at Reese Air Force Base. He is the first allied graduate of Reese AFB to be granted permission to drive his American automobile to his homeland.

Reese has graduated 60 foreign students under terms of the Mutual Defense Assistance Program, but all have been denied permission to bring their autos home, the denials coming from their home governments.

Monday, shortly after he is graduated with Class 56-J in the Reese

Theater, Lieutenant Gonzalez will start southward toward home, accompanied by his wife. From the Mexican border on south he will be paying his own expenses.

In the past, numerous students and graduates of Reese who came from foreign lands asked permission to take cars home. The cost of shipment by sea was too high for the government to pay the expenses and students sold their cars before departing. Gonzalez is one of the more fortunate and can drive his automobile all the way to his home.

The four undefeated teams battled on the hard court Wednesday night, leaving only two undefeated teams in the double elimination basketball tournament.

In the first game PTW took an early lead over 3502nd Maint., but was challenged in the third and final quarter. PTW won 47-46. For the winners, Hoag and Sassman hit for 14 and Hardin, who scored 7 in the first half, left for the game when he turned his ankle. Garlington had 14 and Grover 8, for 02nd.

The Pre-Cadets handed Pilot Training Group their first loss of the tourney by a 64-44 margin. Hoskins topped the Pre-Cadets with 15 Meguess had 12 for PTG.

In other tournament games several of the teams like the Pre-Cadets, Pilot Training Wing, and Flight Line Instructors have picked up unknown strength and have scored wins over the top teams in the leagues.

One of the big upsets of the week was the Pre-Cadets' two-point victory over the Air Police. At the half the AP's held a 28-23 advantage, but the Pre-Cadets were in front at the final horn 55-53 and that is what counts. Hoskins led the Pre-Cadets with 21 points and Mackey with 22 and Jones' 20 topped the scoring column for the AP's.

Flights 6, 8 and 9 chalked up a win over Food Service 31-26 late last week and then were beaten by Pilot Training Group in a close 37-32 battle.

Other teams having no trouble were the 3502nd Maint. squadron in a 71-44 win over Flights 4 and 5; the Pre-Cadets in a 59-38 victory over MATS; and Flights 6, 8 and 9 win over Food Service 43-28. Flights 4 and 5 won by a forfeit from the 3501st Maint. sq. Pilot Training Wing coasted to a win over the Flight Line Instructors, using all its reserves, 56-50.

The Flight Line Instructors pulled a surprise and won over the once-beaten Hospital squadron 67-64 in an overtime. Hospital led by 14 points at the end of the first quarter and 12 points at the half. The Instructors closed the gap and tied it 55 all at the end of regulation play. Blessing and Bain were the big guns for the Instructors with 22 and 15 points respectively. Stacy had 20 and Richard, 18, for the Hospital.

The Air Police stayed in the tourney by beating MATS by a close, 47-44 margin. The score was tied at the half. Corlis Mackey dropped in 20 and Jones 19 for the AP's and Sleeman and Gregor had 16 and 15 respectively, for the losers.

A meeting of all persons interested in playing on a base volleyball team has been called Monday at 2 p.m., in the base gym. The West district volleyball tournament will be held April 9-13 at Clovis AFB.

All squadron coaches are reminded that March 20 is the deadline for entering a team in the base volleyball league.

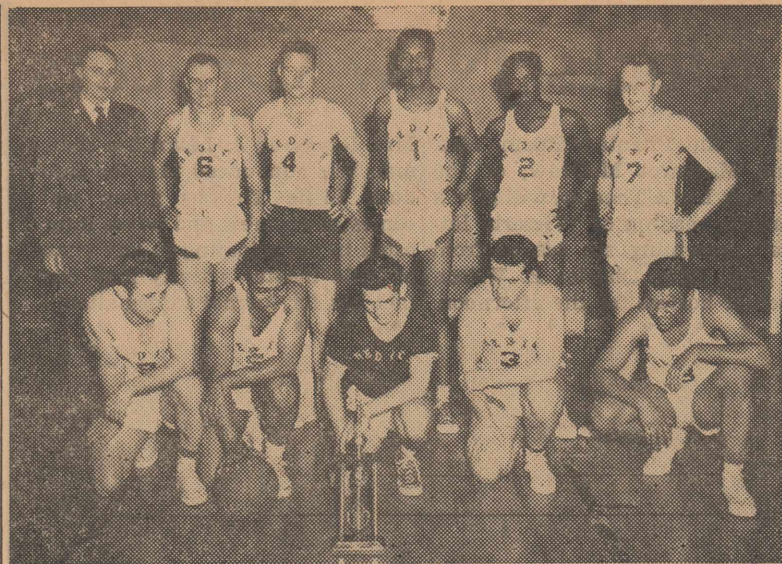

A base handball tournament is expected to start April 1 with singles and doubles to be played.

Three Sergeants To Attend Umpires Clinic

Bowling League Race Lively; PTW Leads

By the "Spot" "Bohl"er
The proverbial house of fire doesn't have a thing on two of the teams in the enlisted men's bowling league.

The 3505th Maintenance sq., has won 14 of its last 16 games and has moved up six notches in the standings. Pilot Training Group has snapped out of its lethargy in the past two weeks and helped to liven up the race also. Spark plugs of the 3505th are Chaney and Mintz, while Lazzara is the current hot one for PTG.

Current standings of the Top Seven are:

| Team | W | L |
|--------------------|----|----|
| PTW | 66 | 10 |
| 3502nd Maintenance | 57 | 23 |
| 3501st Maintenance | 57 | 23 |

Base Has Chance To Win ATC Award

Despite a fatality and many accidents, Reese AFB holds doggedly to sixth place in the annual ATC Commanders Award competition, Joe J. Lopez, ground safety director, said Thursday.

A report from ATC headquarters late last week showed Lackland AFB out in front, followed by Keesler, Ellington, Webb, Mather, and Reese AFB's, in that order.

The Commanders Award for the fiscal year has $25,000 cash for holder of first place, $15,000 for second, and $10,000 for third place. Plaques also will go to winners in each of the five categories of the contest. Reese finished second among the 43 bases of ATC for 1955, but received no cash award.

Lopez pointed out that it will be necessary for Reese personnel to reduce their private vehicle accidents if the base climbs.

"Our weakest areas are injuries to military personnel, mainly in athletics, and our private vehicle accidents," Lopez said. "Too many people have become careless in sports. And, of course, vehicle accidents are taking a heavy toll. Each auto accident is weighed to be charged as five times that of other accidents. So every auto accident really costs us."

Lopez said he felt Reese had a good chance of winning one of the cash prizes, provided personnel paid just a little more heed to safety.

Air Force Band To Play At Plainview

The famed United States Air Force Band will play a matinee and night concert at the Plainview High School auditorium Wednesday, March 14.

The group is being assisted by Plainview Air Force reserve unit.

Organized in June, 1942, the group is so flexible that it can resolve itself into a 100-piece marching band, a 90-piece symphony orchestra, and an 85-piece symphonic band, a 25-voice glee club, "the Singing Sergeants", five dance bands, as well as numerous chamber and instrumental groups.

The matinee is being held at 3 p.m. and doors will open at 8:30 p.m. for the 8:45 concert.

Tickets are $1 for students and $1.25 for adults.

Now We're Sure It Is Leap Year

Yes, leap year is here in full force as seen in the following letter written to the ROUNDUP editor by an eligible young Lubbockite.

The letter follows:
"Why don't you put in the pictures of your Bachelor Officers in the 24-34 and 34-40 age groups in your newspaper, since it is Leap Year and lots of the girls would like to meet some of the fellows. I have been employed at the base, but not now and am single, but never did meet any of the single officers; if I did I didn't know it. Since the Lubbock paper ran a picture and writeup on some of the bachelors in Lubbock, though you might also.

Please give this some thought, will you?

Signed, one of your readers."
(Ed. note: Does anyone want to submit their picture? Look out, men.)

LSO Lists Program

The Lubbock Service Organization (LSO) lists the following program to be conducted at 910 Texas Ave., Lubbock, during the month of March:

This Saturday night the Trends will furnish the music for a dance that starts at 8:45 p.m. The final dance of March will be held the 24th, with the Eric Ross Combo.

The LSO is open on Sundays from 5 to 8 p.m., for letter writing, TV, etc.

Volunteer young ladies and a chaperone from the LSO will attend dances at the Reese Service club on March 8 and 22.

Show Business

Marlon Brando and Grace Kelly were honored recently as king and queen of movie personalities at the 10th annual Golden Globe Awards ceremony conducted by the Hollywood Foreign Press Association.

"Toward the Unknown," Warner Bros.' saga about jet planes and the men who fly them, is now being filmed at Edward AFB, Calif. . . . Cuddlesome Natalie Wood is up for the best supporting actress award for 1955 because of her superior emoting in the brilliant movie, "Rebel Without A Cause." . . . Pre-production activity got under way this month on the Isle of Pines, Cuba, for United Artist's film "The Sharkfighters." Victor Mature stars in this thriller about WWII naval heroes who risked their lives to develop a shark-repellent for the protection of sailors.
