One of Frank Capra's most memorable movies is 1946's It's a Wonderful Life, starring Jimmy Stewart as George Bailey, a man contemplating suicide because he feels his life has been meaningless.

This week, Howard College's Theatre Department will give four performances of Merry Christmas, George Bailey, a play which stages a recreation of 1947's Lux Radio version of It's a Wonderful Life.

Merry Christmas, George Bailey was originally aired on PBS as a fundraiser for pediatric AIDS, and starred Bill Pullman as George Bailey, as well as many other famous actors.

"What it is, when they would do any of the famous films of the time, they would immediately go in with the original cast, and go to the radio and do a full production of it in a Lux Radio show version for people who didn't live near movie theaters," said Howard College Theater Director April Langehennig. "I guess it was in the late 1990s, they staged this production where you have all the actors with microphones set up across, just like an old radio station. Full Foley sound, all the bells and whistles, and they staged Merry Christmas, George Bailey." The original Lux one was still, "It's a Wonderful Life," so this remake of actually staging it where audiences can see this is called Merry Christmas, George Bailey."

Langehennig said the college's production, staged in Howard's Black Box Theatre inside the Hall Center for the Performing Arts, will have plenty of bells and whistles.

"It has the whole nine yards of commercial breaks, and we'll have Christmas music breaks as well too in it," she said. "Music moments throughout as well. So it is a radio show, live,

Howard County Leadership Summit

MONDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2021
 DOROTHY GARRETT COLISEUM
 SONIC FLOOR

By MARK WILLIS
 Executive Director BSEDC

Want to know what the leaders of Howard County have planned for the future? If so, most of those leaders will be on hand for the Howard County Leadership Summit at the Howard College Dorothy Garrett Coliseum Sonic Floor at 6:30, December 6th to discuss their vision for their particular governmental entity and potential opportunities to work together with other governmental entities to realize those visions.

The start of 2022 will be challenging for all of Howard County and those in a positions of leadership. With the loss of approximately 600 jobs associated with the private prison facilities in Big Spring, the first quarter of the coming year will require cooperation of all the governmental agencies to address the resulting hardships many will face.

Fortunately, the energy sector is in recovery mode and the City is working with partners to potentially secure a contract with U.S. Immigration Customs Enforcement (ICE) that might allow the facilities to reopen as detention centers. However, this is far from certain and additional action will be required regardless of the success of this effort. It is doubtful an ICE contract would result in reestablishing all 600 jobs and there would likely be a substantial gap period to reconfigure the facilities for the new use.

On December 12th Howard College hosted a job fair largely targeted to the employees effected by the closure and there will probably need to be more such events in the future. Beyond that, these events highlight the need for Howard County to further diversify its economic base and some of the steps proposed to do that will be included in the program.

The program will provide each entity

Eulalia Flores was 104 when she passed away in Big Spring in 1981.

By TAMMY SCHRECENGOST
 Heritage Museum of Big Spring

Eulalia Jara Flores was born in La Cruz, Mexico, in the late 1800s. She was interviewed in 1978 by Carla Walker from the Big Spring Herald.

She did not know her exact birthday as there were no official records. Eulalia's father, Severo Jara, died; and her mother, grandmother and a sister moved to El Paso in 1902. Her mother, Hipolita (Pola) Calderon Jara, worked for a wealthy family as a housekeeper and cook. She was paid $2.50 a month. Eulalia said "Sometimes, I would help my mother work and I would make $1.50 a month." The family moved from El Paso to Big Spring in 1905.

A sad memory was when her sister was in labor. She was starting to show signs of distress and the family wanted to call a doctor but their mother, Pola refused. She said no man other than her sister's husband could see her. Sadly, her sister and the child she was carrying passed away.

Eulalia worked for several local families. Gertrude McIntire paid her one dollar a day to work from 7 am to 5 p.m. six days a week. J.D. Biles, a local druggist, paid her the same amount for working at his home. She began working for Mrs. Joseph Fisher, and she was able to buy her first pair of shoes at Fisher's Mercantile for 15 cents. She said "Some of those shoes were priced at 50 cents! She did laundry and ironing for 25 cents a dozen for many ladies in town. One of her favorite employers was the Hayden/Potton family. She said, "The man who lived there would drive his wagon to pick me up and take me to the house to work, and I liked working for them because I didn't have to walk to and from their house.”

Eulalia married Juan Montez Flores on March 4, 1919; she quit work to stay home and manage her growing family. Mr. Flores had a good job with the railroad, and was paid $30 per month to start the train engines. They purchased a corner lot for $25 on the north side of town. Juan and Eulalia's address was listed in the city directory as “Mexican Town, NW 5th Street.”

Eulalia and her husband Juan raised seven children, their youngest being born when Eulalia was 56 years old. She and her husband had 42 grandchildren, 45 great-grandchildren, and six great-great grandchildren.

Juan Flores died in 1951 at the age of 81. He had retired from the railroad in 1937, leaving his wife with an adequate pension.

In 1954, Eulalia received her American citizenship after Mrs. J.M. Morgan swore that she had been in the states since 1912. Eulalia had done laundry for Mrs. Morgan throughout the years.

When Eulalia had turned 100, she continued to cook her three meals a day, washing dishes after each meal. After lunch, she would sit down to the “best light of the day” and worked on her hand-sewn quilts. She had erect posture, which denied her age, excellent eyesight and hearing and a sharp memory. When questioned about her secret to a long life, she said it was “God's will, hard work and a healthy outlook on life. Another factor in Eulalia's longevity may have been genetics, her mother Pola lived to be 109.

When she wasn't quilting, she was reading her bible or watching her favorite television show, The Beverly Hillbillies. She liked to compare herself to the feisty Granny Clampett on the show.

Eulalia died on January 12, 1981, at the given age of 104.

with up to 15 minutes to layout their plans and strategies for the coming year and beyond, followed by responses to questions from citizens at the event.

Largely because of the Covid pandemic, communications within and between government entities in Howard County have suffered. Coming out of the pandemic there will be more opportunities for economic growth in our region, but to be successful it will require everyone to work together. Howard County and the City of Big Spring will be competing with the larger and often better resourced communities in the surrounding region.

Big Spring does have certain location and logistical advantages, but to successfully compete will demand cooperation and coordination between everyone. The goal of the summit is to facilitate reestablishment of the lines of communication strained by recent history and promote better partnerships throughout the county, as well as ensuring that citizens are kept in the loop.

AP Top 25 Reality Check: Unanimous No. 1 UGA chasing record

By RALPH D. RUSSO

AP College Football Writer

Georgia is putting together an historic run at No. 1.

The Bulldogs remained a unanimous top-ranked team for the eighth straight week in The Associated Press college football poll presented by Regions Bank.

The longest streak of weeks as unanimous No. 1 was Alabama's run of nine in 2018.

There are two more polls left this season, after next week's championship games and then after the College Football Playoff national title is decided on Jan. 10.

If Georgia can beat Alabama in the Southeastern Conference title game next weekend and make a run through the playoff, it could break Alabama's record for consecutive week's as a unanimous No. 1 team.

But something to keep in mind for the Bulldogs: Alabama's run of unanimous No. 1 rankings ended in a national championship game loss to Clemson and the Crimson Tide finished No. 2.

With just one more regular-season poll left, Reality Check dives into the rest of the rankings where there are still a few places to disagree with the voters.

No. 1 Georgia (12-0)

Next: vs. No. 4 Alabama, SEC championship, Saturday.

Reality check: The Bulldogs are allowing 6.9 points per game, that would be the lowest figure for a full season since Oklahoma allowed 6.6 in 1986. That'll likely go up as Georgia faces Alabama before heading into the playoff, but the number is still from another era of college football.

Ranked: Perfect.

No. 2 Michigan (11-1)

Next: vs. No. 15 Iowa, Big Ten championship, Saturday.

Reality check: DE Aidan Hutchinson (13 sacks) should join the Heisman Trophy discussion.

Ranked: This is fine, but Cincinnati at No. 2 would be OK.

No. 3 Cincinnati (12-0)

Next: vs. No. 16 Houston, AAC championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Did Thorpe Award voters get the right Bearcats defensive back? Very good CB Coby Bryant was named a finalist for the nation's best defensive back and not his teammate, Ahmad Gardner, who is pretty clearly the team's best player.

Ranked: This works.

No. 4 Alabama (11-1)

Next: vs. No. 1 Georgia, SEC championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Alabama has allowed 35 sacks, tied for 108th in the nation with Toledo, Arizona and others.

Ranked: Fine.

No. 5 Oklahoma State (11-1)

Next: vs. No. 9 Baylor, Big 12 championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Another awards complaint: Not among the Butkus finalists for best linebacker is Malcolm Rodriguez, who has been the leader of a Cowboys defense that is fourth in the country in yards per play allowed at 4.44.

Ranked: Just right.

No. 6 Notre Dame (11-1)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Irish closed with seven straight victories, none against teams with a better record than 6-6. Coach Brian Kelly has done a nice job in a reload season, but it's fair to say they caught a break with their opponents.

Ranked: Little high.

No. 7 Ohio State (10-2)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: The defense got better but it never got well and Michigan exposed that with 297 yards rushing and 8.0 yards per play.

Ranked: Hard to say too low after what just happened, but the Buckeyes should be ahead of Notre Dame.

No. 8 Mississippi (10-2)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Rebels completed their first 10-win regular season in program history.

Ranked: Little low.

No. 9 Baylor (10-2)

Next: vs. No. 5 Oklahoma State, Big 12 championship, Saturday.

Reality check: The only game this season the Bears were held under 20 points was against Oklahoma State in one of their two losses.

Ranked: Just right.

No. 10 Oregon (10-2)

Next: vs. Utah, Pac-12 championship, Friday

Reality check: The Ducks get a second crack at the team that ran them out of Salt Lake just two Saturdays ago.

Ranked: Little high.

No. 11 Michigan State (10-2)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: RB Kenneth Walker III fell a little bit in the race to lead the nation in rushing over the last couple weeks. He heads into bowl season at 136.3 yards per game, trailing only Central Michigan's Lew Nichols III (142.5).

Ranked: Little low.

No. 12 BYU (10-2)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: The Cougars went 5-0 against Pac-12 teams, including 4-0 against the South Division.

Ranked: Little low..

No. 13 Oklahoma (10-2)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: The first coaching search for Oklahoma since 1999 is underway after the Lincoln Riley-to-USC bombshell.

Ranked: About right.

No. 14 Utah (9-3)

Next: vs. No. 10 Oregon, Pac-12 championship, Friday.

Reality check: RB Tavion Thomas has run for 573 yards and 12 touchdowns in his last four games.

Ranked: Too low.

No. 15 Iowa (10-2)

Next: vs. No. 2 Michigan, Big Ten championship, Saturday.

Reality check: RB Tyler Goodson has gone over 130 yards rushing in three of his last four games.

Ranked: Too high.

No. 16 Houston (11-1)

Next: vs. No. 3 Cincinnati, AAC championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Cougars are fourth in the nation in sacks at 41 and they come from all over. Eight players have at least two and seven more have at least one sack.

Ranked: About right.

No. 17 Pitt (10-2)

Next: vs. No. 18 Wake Forest, ACC championship, Saturday.

Reality check: With 40 touchdown passes, Kenny Pickett broke Dan Marino's school record of 37.

Ranked: Little low.

No. 18 Wake Forest (10-2)

Next: vs. No. 17 Pitt, ACC championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Demon Deacons don't play particularly good defense, but they do take the ball away. With 27 takeaways, they are tied for fourth in FBS.

Ranked: About right.

No. 19 San Diego State (11-1)

Next: vs. Utah State, Mountain West championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Only Georgia has allowed fewer rushing touchdowns (two) than the Aztecs' four.

Ranked: Just right.

No. 20 Louisiana-Lafayette (11-1)

Next: vs. Appalachian State, Sun Belt championship, Saturday.

Reality check: Ragin' Cajuns have proven they can be good on the last two coaches. Interesting job opening after Billy Napier leaves for Florida.

Ranked: Too high.

No. 21 North Carolina State (9-3)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Wolfpack put together one of the best defenses in the ACC, despite a slew of injuries that forced lineup changes and dipped into their depth. LB Drake Thomas led the way with 13.5 tackles for loss.

Ranked: Touch low.

No. 22 Clemson (9-3)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Tigers are going to be a really difficult and motivated opponent in whatever second-tier bowl they end up in.

Ranked: Touch low.

No. 23 Arkansas (8-4)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Razorbacks reached eight wins before bowl season for the first time since going 11-2 in 2011.

Ranked: This is fine.

No. 24 Texas A&M (8-4)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Step-back season for the Aggies, who struggled on offense with a backup quarterback. Except, oddly, against Alabama.

Ranked: Too high.

No. 25 Kentucky (9-3)

Next: TBD.

Reality check: Two nine-win regular seasons for the Wildcats in the last three years. Kentucky had not won nine regular season games since 1977.

Ranked: Too low.

Oklahoma picks up pieces after Lincoln Riley leaves for USC

By CLIFF BRUNT

AP Sports Writer

Just a few months ago, Oklahoma was the talk of the college football world.

The powerhouse program created a buzz when it announced plans to eventually leave the Big 12 for the Southeastern Conference. The Sooners had first-team preseason All-American quarterback Spencer Rattler favored to become Oklahoma's third Heisman Trophy winner in five years. They were ranked No. 2 in the preseason AP Top 25, sparking hopes that coach Lincoln Riley might break through and claim his first national title after going winless in three trips to the College Football Playoff.

Little went as planned. Even as the Sooners won their first nine games, they scraped by against lesser teams.

Rattler struggled at times and lost his starting job. Then, the Sooners lost to Baylor and Oklahoma State, meaning they lost their shot at what would have been their seventh consecutive Big 12 title.

Now, they've lost Riley. USC announced Sunday that he will take over as its head coach.

"Leaving OU was probably the most difficult decision of my life," Riley said in a statement. "OU is one of the best college football programs in the country, and it has been forever. That's not going to change. It's not going to change in the SEC, it's not going to change with another head coach. It's stood the test of time, and it's going to continue to do so."

The 38-year-old Riley compiled a 55-10 record in five seasons at Oklahoma. Under his tutelage, Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray won Heisman Trophies and were No. 1 overall picks in the NFL draft. Jalen Hurts transferred from Alabama to Oklahoma in 2019, and Riley changed a player known more for his running ability into a Heisman runner-up and second-round draft pick who now starts for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Mayfield, Murray and Hurts were all transfers, but Riley also proved to be a strong recruiter at the quarterback position, pulling in Elite 11 MVP quarterbacks Rattler and Caleb Williams from the high school ranks in recent years.

No. 13 Oklahoma expects to remain an elite program.

"When we met with the team today, I communicated to our players that our program is about them," Oklahoma athletic director Joe Castiglione said. "It will always be bigger than any one person. And just as it's always been, Oklahoma football is positioned for greatness."

Even with that, the challenges are immediate. Quarterback Malachi Nelson, running back Treyaun Webb and receiver Brandon Inness — all key recruits from the class of 2023 — de-committed on Sunday.

Oklahoma reached back to the past to steady things, announcing that former Sooners coach Bob Stoops will step in as the interim coach for the team's bowl game. In his only head coaching job, Stoops went 190-48 (.798), including a national title run in 2000. He retired abruptly in 2017, making way for Riley to take over. He will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame next month.

Today in History

Today is Monday, Nov. 29, the 333rd day of 2021. There are 32 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On Nov. 29, 2001, former Beatle George Harrison died in Los Angeles following a battle with cancer; he was 58.

On this date:

In 1864, a Colorado militia killed at least 150 peaceful Cheyenne Indians in the Sand Creek Massacre.

In 1910, British explorer Robert F. Scott's ship Terra Nova set sail from New Zealand, carrying Scott's expedition on its ultimately futile — as well as fatal — race to reach the South Pole first.

In 1929, Navy Lt. Cmdr. Richard E. Byrd, pilot Bernt Balchen, radio operator Harold G. Gatty and photographer Ashley McKinney made the first airplane flight over the South Pole.

In 1947, the U.N. General Assembly passed a resolution calling for the partitioning of Palestine between Arabs and Jews; 33 members, including the United States, voted in favor of the resolution, 13 voted against while 10 abstained. (The plan, rejected by the Arabs, was never implemented.)

In 1961, Enos the chimp was launched from Cape Canaveral aboard the Mercury-Atlas 5 spacecraft, which orbited earth twice before returning.

In 1963, President Lyndon B. Johnson named a commission headed by Earl Warren to investigate the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

In 1972, the coin-operated video arcade game Pong, created by Atari, made its debut at Andy Capp's Tavern in Sunnyvale, California.

In 1981, film star Natalie Wood drowned in a boating accident off Santa Catalina Island, California, at age 43.

In 1987, a Korean Air 707 jetliner en route from Abu Dhabi to Bangkok was destroyed by a bomb planted by North Korean agents with the loss of all 115 people aboard.

In 2000, bracing the public for more legal wrangling, Vice President Al Gore said in a series of TV interviews that he was prepared to contest the Florida presidential vote until "the middle of December."

In 2008, Indian commandos killed the last remaining gunmen holed up at a luxury Mumbai hotel, ending a 60-hour rampage through India's financial capital by suspected Pakistani-based militants that killed 166 people.

In 2017, "Today" host Matt Lauer was fired for what NBC called "inappropriate sexual behavior" with a colleague; a published report accused him of crude and habitual misconduct with women around the office. Garrison Keillor, who'd entertained public radio listeners for 40 years on "A Prairie Home Companion," was fired by Minnesota Public Radio following allegations of inappropriate workplace behavior.

Ten years ago: Eurozone ministers sent Greece an 8 billion-euro ($10.7 billion) Christmas rescue package to stem an immediate cash crisis. Hard-line Iranian protesters stormed British diplomatic compounds in what began as an apparent state-approved show of anger over the latest Western sanctions to punish Tehran for its nuclear program. American Airlines' parent company, AMR Corp., filed for bankruptcy protection, citing high labor and fuel costs and the weak economy. (American Airlines emerged from bankruptcy protection in December 2013 as it merged with US Airways.)

ing former Goldman Sachs executive Steven Mnuchin (mih-NOO'-shin) as secretary of the Treasury Department, Georgia Rep. Tom Price to oversee the nation's health care system, and Elaine Chao, a former labor secretary and the wife of Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, to lead the Department of Transportation. Regional leaders and tens of thousands of Cubans jammed the Plaza of the Revolution in Havana, celebrating the late Fidel Castro on the spot where he delivered fiery speeches to mammoth crowds in the years after he seized power.

One year ago: Mayor Bill de Blasio announced that New York City would reopen its school system to in-person learning, and increase the number of days a week many children attend class, even as the coronavirus pandemic intensified in the city. Nearly 1.2 million people went through U.S. airports, according to the Transportation Security Administration; it was the highest daily number since before the pandemic.

Today's Birthdays: Hall of Fame sportscaster Vin Scully is 94. Blues singer-musician John Mayall is 88. Actor Diane Ladd is 86. Songwriter Mark James is 81. Composer-musician Chuck Mangione is 81. Country singer Jody Miller is 80. Pop singer-musician Felix Cavaliere (The Rascals) is 79. Former Olympic skier Suzy Chaffee is 75. Actor Jeff Fahey is 69. Movie director Joel Coen is 67. Mars and Neptune Redefine Success

One definition of success is being the most like you that you can possibly be. Another definition is losing yourself to the flow as you merge with your endeavor. There's no right way to be successful, only more or less-fitting ways. Under the auspicious trine of Mars and Neptune, many will embody success first and define it after the fact.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You still get a little nervous at showtime, but you've worked pretty hard on your skills, and if they don't meet the task in some way, you can trust that you'll find the solution as you go.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). You don't really try to bring out the best in people; it just happens because of how you see them. You're expecting people to be good, fun and interesting... and they will not disappoint, at least not while they are around you!

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Limbo may be a fun game but it's not a fun position and is undesirable as a destination. So, a decision must be made. Either way, it's going to be better than the uncertainty of wondering which way to go.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Like an artist who steps back to behold a work in progress from a distance, you begin to see the shape of your life. You're objective. What you observe with fresh eyes will inspire you.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). You don't mind dialing your energy to match that of others, but if you too often have to adapt yourself so as not to outshine anyone, it's time to consider whether you may thrive in another kind of environment.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). It's hard to get things done when so many compete for your attention, but the good that comes out of it is that you will be inspired to create your own environment.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Your intuition is a mysterious visitor, often showing up in full force and without warning. Your intuition won't be commanded or controlled but it can be invited and will come more often when you delight in its presence.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You support the best in others and give assistance without creating dependencies. Your sincerity will not be assessed by what you do for people; it's made apparent by what you don't do. Boundaries are love.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You're open to new life events, but you're not waiting for them. Sign up for an activity or go deeper into an interest. It will give you the sense of coming back to yourself, followed by the realization you're better than ever.

Jan. 19). A relationship will get more comfortable for you because you communicate well. You don't blame others for your feelings. You share strategically, helpfully and selflessly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Would you rather have $1 now or $2 in a week? Various forms of this question will arise with today's theme of the short term vs. the long game.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You can avoid known stress-inducers, steer clear of annoyances and sidestep foreseeable complications, but the more controlled things are, the less alive they will seem. There's a happy medium to hit here.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Nov. 29). Relationships are your treasures. You've a talent for choosing the ones that will both fortify and utilize you. Mutual needs get met once you figure out what they are. Have patience. In the professional realm, you'll meet a deadline, save the day, rise in the ranks and have a season of rulership. Capricorn and Pisces adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 6, 3, 33, 30 and 5

COSMIC QUESTION: "What is the responsibility of a person to stay married even after they don't want to be? Should a Sagittarius stay married to a Cancer? We have been married 30 years. We are both in our 60s, and I don't know if he's going to find another mate, to be honest. But I could care less if I find one. I'm just tired of being married."

People find new partners at every age. Your concern over whether or not your husband can find a new partner touches on something at the core of this decision. What do we owe each other in relationships? You're more concerned for his relationship status than for your own. Maybe it's because you feel you give more to the relationship and in not having that responsibility anymore, you would be gaining something, freeing up energy to give back to yourself, while your Cancer husband (born to the sign of domesticity and deeply attached to his home life) would be losing something, namely all that you give to the relationship. His loss of you might be harmful to his health and well-being, and yet how much of that is your responsibility? Isn't your first responsibility to yourself and living your best life? For Sagittarius, the "best life" includes adventure. Could you do this and still be married? These are the questions to explore, and only you can answer them.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Off the heels of the hit series "Mom," Anna Faris is gearing up for "Summer Madness," a comedy about rival twins. The spirited Sagittarius was born when the moon was in Pisces, an ideal placement for an artist despite, or perhaps because of, the intense empathy and sensitivity of the astrological aspect. Saturn in Leo suggests that show business is a primary source for life lessons.

	9			7	1

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
