ALLRED

James Allred Once Was Bowie Shine Boy

Friends In Montague County Indorse Wichita Man In Resolution.

James V. Allred, of Wichita Falls was born in 1899 in Montague County. He shined shoes in a barber shop and sold newspapers while going to school in Bowie. Later he was substitute mail carrier for his father.

Going to Rice Institute for further education Allred worked in a Houston filling station to pay school expenses. His schooling was interrupted when he entered the Service at the age of 19 during the World war.

After the War, the Montague

County youth studied law at Cumberland and entered the practice of law in Wichita Falls. He was appointed district attorney by Governor Pat Neff and elected to succeed himself.

Resigning from the prosecutor's office, Allred returned to the firm he had been associated with previously—a full partner. He stayed there until he became a candidate for attorney general in 1926. The campaign four years ago saw nearly as much interest paid to the race for attorney general as to that of governor.

The fact that Dan Moody was stepping out of that office to oppose Governor "Ma" Ferguson made it especially attractive.

Allred carried his county of Montague by a majority of six to one. His total vote in the state was 356,036 he was defeated by the narrow margin of 4,046. He accepted the result without contest. In 1928 Young county friends placed his name on the ticket again for attorney general but he withdrew the name, refusing to run against his former opponent for a second term. Allred has spent the last four years in a general practice of law in Wichita Falls. A resolution of indorsement signed by citizens of Montague county, reads as follows: "As a newsboy and a bootblack Jimmie Allred was a success; he made a splendid court reporter; as district attorney he showed himself to be absolutely without fear and equipped to meet the ablest lawyer at the bar, his record being equal to that of any of the splendid lawyers in the state that have held that position in his district.

"We have known him and watched him with pride as he builded to success. Clean, upright, courageous, industrious, efficient, he has justified the hopes and administrations of his warmest friends."

J. H. WALKER

J. H. Walker Has Unique Record In Land Office

Commissioner Served As Chief Clerk 20 Years; Started At Bottom.

But one man, according to the history of Texas, has worked his way through every desk from the bottom to the top of a major state department. That one man is J. H. Walker, who one year ago became Commissioner of the Land Office by appointment, succeeding the lamented J. T. Robinson, under whom he served as Chief Clerk for twenty years.

J. H. Walker is a native of Johnson County but his legal home is Hill County. He entered the Land Office thirty-one years ago, but the last two years of Governor Sayers' administration he was Chief Clerk of the Comptroller's office, and during Governor Lanham's administration he was Assistant Financial Agent of the State Penitentiaries. His service in the Land Office covers twenty-five years.

For some years Mr. Walker lived in the Abilene country and has first-hand knowledge of the conditions in the West, as well as all other parts of the state.

He became Commissioner with an experience unparalleled in the history of this state, and with an unexcelled knowledge of original Spanish grants gained through his work as translator in the land office.

Mr. Walker's platform is administration of the law to the best interest of the state and with fairness to those dealing with it.

NEW PHYSICAL EDUCATION BULLETIN ISSUED BY U. T.

James Young, Kaufman, Fought Quarantine Act

Congressman From Texas Led Fight On State Cotton Ban.

James Young of Kaufman, Texas, was born in Rusk County, Texas, July 15th, 1866.

He is of pioneer Democratic parentage. His mother came to Texas in a wagon train from Spartanburg, South Carolina, she being a small child at the time, and settled with her parents near Henderson, and here she has recently died at the age of 92 years. She was of the Henger family.

His father came to Texas as a boy prior to the Civil War, in which enlisted and fought as a private soldier for the full four years of the struggle. His father was a native of Georgia. Both his mother and father were pioneer settlers of Texas and helped to hew out Texas civilization.

Ten children were born to this union, nine boys and one girl. All are living but three.

James Young was educated in the common schools of the country, finishing his education at the State University, graduating in the law department in 1891.

He removed to Kaufman County in 1891 where he has practiced law and engaged in farming enterprises. He married Miss Allie Nash of Kaufman, Texas, in 1892. Three children were born to this union, Herbert R. Young, of Tulsa, Okla., James Young, Jr., of San Antonio, and Mrs. T. L. Wynn of Athens, Texas.

He is a consistent member of the Baptist Church and has always taken an active interest in Church affairs. He was for nineteen years superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school in his home town, resigning this position when elected to Congress.

He has always been a prohibitionist, and as a lad campaigned for State-wide prohibition in 1887, and later campaigned for local option in his home counties and other counties, and as a member of Congress voted for the Eighteenth Amendment and the enforcing laws thereunder. He is a total abstainer.

Mr. Young has always taken an active interest in politics in advocacy of measures he believed to be the best interest of the great mass of our citizenship, and aiding election of outstanding men who required the position of trust, making active campaigns for such outstanding Democrats as Governor James Stephen Hogg, Chas. A. Culerson, and others.

He never sought nor held public office until called to represent the Third Congressional District of Texas as a member of Congress. This District is composed of Kaufman, Van Zandt, Henderson, Smith, Wood, Upshur, Gregg, and Rusk counties. He served two years under President Taft and eight years under Woodrow Wilson. He supported all the progressive legislation enacted during the Wilson administration.

He was a member of the Committee on Agriculture during his entire Congressional service and is thoroughly familiar with all agricultural and stock raising problems of the state and of the entire nation.

He was able to render signal service to the farming and ranching interests of the State during his service in Congress.

Obtaining needed appropriations for fighting insect pests, diseases of stock and appropriation for detection of predatory animals, was

Sunday School Lesson

WOMAN'S INFLUENCE

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for July 27. Woman's Influence in Community and National Affairs. Judges 4:1-10.

We are apt to think of woman's active participation in public affairs as of relatively late date, coming to its climax only during the last few years. Perhaps, however, few things are more remarkable in history than the way in which, despite the general relegation of women to a place inferior to man, women have, none the less, achieved conspicuous leadership and rendered profound service.

Here is a crisis in the affairs of Israel, in a time of unsettlement, when Israel was surely in need of leadership, it is interesting to find the chief leadership entrusted to a woman. Deborah, we note, was also a married woman. Whatever her personal or home obligations may have been, they had become enlarged by the strength and richness of her character, for she was not only a leader in the civil life—a judge of Israel, but she was a prophetess. It was her prophetic vision and messages that had no doubt given her her pre-eminence in the nation.

The Source of Her Power

It is rather a stately picture that we have of her dwelling under the palm tree that had become associated with her name—a notable tree in the hill country of Ephraim, whither the children of Israel came to here for judgment.

The influence of good women has never been greater than when it has been exercised upon men, and Deborah's power seemed to lie largely in her capacity to inspire and guide others. She called Barak and gave him a military commission to go to Mount Tabor and take with him ten thousand men to fight Sisera, a captain of Jabin's army, who had nine hundred chariots of iron, and who for twenty years had "mightily oppressed the children of Israel."

Barak was not altogether ready for his task. He evidently feared the greatness of the power which Deborah was urging him to fight; but he had profound faith in Deborah, so much so that he declined to go without her; but he agreed to go if Deborah would accompany him. Deborah did not depend merely upon womanly influence, she was a woman of decisive action. She announced her readiness to go with Barak, though she also rebuked his lack of manfulness by reminding him that he should have no honor out of the encounter, as Sisera would fall through the hand of a woman.

The upshot of the whole matter need not be fully dwelt upon. Deborah's prediction fell true, and Sisera succumbed to assassination at the hand of Jael whose vigor and determination rather than her womanliness seemed manifest in the driving of a nail into Sisera's skull.

It must be remembered that the whole period was one of unsettlement when the life of Israel was in some measure disorganized, and there was a lack of that patient religious enthusiasm characteristic of the people in their highest experiences. It is against this background of a people lacking faith and courage and weak under oppression that Deborah's own faith and power of action stand out.

New Fairmont School Nearing Completion

Fairmont School District's new school building is nearing completion, W. I. True, one of the trustees who was in Floydada Tuesday, reports. Work is progressing satisfactorily and another ten days or two weeks should see the building ready for occupancy.

Approximately $9,000 is being expended for the new building, which has four classrooms and a hall way. Boggs Bros. of Quitaque, are the contractors.

The same contractors also have the job at a price of $1,400 of constructing a frame stucco, four-room teachers home.

Population of the Fairmont district has been increased rapidly the past two or three years, the scholastic enrollment in the district this year requiring the services of three teachers.

New Model Radios Heard By Hundreds At Election Party

Harmon and Arwine Have First Showing of New Majestic and Philco Radios.

Hundreds of people who attended the election parties held in Floydada last night had the opportunity of hearing two brand new 1930-31 model radios shown for the first time during the past week.

At Arwine Drug Company, listeners were entertained by a musical program and election reports received over the new Super Screen-Grid Majestic Radio, shown by J. A. Arwine, distributor for the first time last Wednesday. The Majestic all-electric radio has already established a record for its self during the past two years, being the acknowledged "Monarch of the Air"

But the new screen grid Majestic far surpasses the old, and bids fair to set new records in clarity, selectivity and power. It is equipped with the new Super-Coltura Speaker, and all is inclosed in a beautifully finished walnut cabinet.

The hundreds of visitors who watched the Hesperian bulletin board last night were entertained, through the courtesy of the F. C. Harmon furniture store by an almost unsurpassed quality of music together with election reports received over the new Philco Radio.

Featured on the new Philco all-electric radio is an entirely idea, known as the Tone Control. The tone control offers a choice of four distinct ranges of tones. The mellow and deep tones are proving the most popular with the radio public. Mr. Harmon stated, since these two ranges offer a soft tone of music such as has never been heard in radios before.

The new Philco is a beautiful piece of home furniture, being inclosed in a walnut high-boy style cabinet, with beautiful touches of wood-carving art.

Considering the local weather conditions and the fact that hundreds of other radios were tuned in for the election returns Saturday night, reception by both of the new radios were far above the average of the usual run of radios.

PRairie Chapel Club HOLDS MEETING MONDAY

Mrs. Clayton Weathers was hostess to the Prairie Chapel Home Demonstration Club Monday, July 21, at 2 o'clock. The subject was "My Hardest Canning Problem."

There were ten members, two new ones, and three visitors present.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, August 5, with Mrs. John Buth as hostess at the school house.

July 18 the cream supper sponsored by the club ladies netted us $22 of which we thank every one who took part.

C. Small Popular Since Passage Of Land Bill

Senator From Collinsworth County Made Steady Rise.

Senator Clint Small was born at Collinsville, Alabama, in the year 1888; he moved with his parents when two years old to Collinsworth County, Texas. Senator Small was reared in Collinsworth County, was educated at Trinity University, and the University of Texas, receiving his law degree from the University of Texas in 1911. He was county attorney and county judge of Collinsworth County, was mayor of the city of Wellington, was district judge in his judicial district, and is now in the State Senate from his district, having been elected without opposition.

Senator Small early developed as one of the leaders of the Texas Senate and became widely known for his activity as author of what is known as the "Small Land Bill." This bill brought to the attention of Texas, the obligation of the State to its citizens. This bill simply required the State of Texas to stand behind its solemn contracts and prevented land grabbers from obtaining the lands of Texans, which had been bought and paid for by them. This bill prevented speculators from obtaining permits to drill oil wells on the dry creeks and beds of creeks throughout Texas. His activity for forward-looking legislation has attracted the best thought of Texas, and it is generally agreed that he is the proper man to bring back to Texas political peace, and consequent prosperity.

County Council Meets At County-Wide Rally Next Sat. Afternoon

The County Council of the Women's Home Demonstration Clubs of Floyd County will be held at the usual date and hour next Saturday afternoon, August 2. Plans for the Council meeting were made before the departure of the special Pullman from Floydada to A. & M. College, where several members of the Council will be in the Short Course practically all this week.

The returning delegates from the Short Course will reach home at 12:40 Saturday, and after lunch will proceed to their meeting place, in the county court room, and transact the business of the council.

Reports from several of the women who attended the Short Course will be heard at this meeting, and women of the county generally are cordially invited to be present, it was announced.

Another thing that will have attention at the Saturday afternoon meeting will be the matter of setting the time and place for the annual picnic of Home Demonstration Club women.

Mrs. Ferguson Was Born On Bell County Farm

First Woman In U. S. To Hold Governor's Office.

Miriam A. Ferguson, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Texas, was born on a farm in Bell County, where her father, Joe Wallace, was one of the pioneer settlers of the Little River section and was one of the most esteemed and successful farmers of early days. Her education was obtained at Salado College, one of the historic schools of the state, and at Baylor College in Belton.

Married In 1899

She married James E. Ferguson in 1899 and two daughters were born to their union, Ouida, now Mrs. George S. Nalle of Austin, and Dorace who lives in the family home in Austin. Mrs. Ferguson has always taken the liveliest interest in her husband's career and his first announcement as a candidate for governor was made in 1914 after the matter had been thoroughly discussed by husband and wife. She is an ideal housewife and homemaker and devoted to her family and it was this devotion that moved her to get actively into the game of politics and become a candidate for governor when her husband, through an alleged impeachment action, had been denied a place on the democratic ticket.

She is the first woman elected by popular vote to the office of governor in the United States having taken office in January 1925 and retiring in January 1927, having through political conspiracies and evil combinations been denied a second term despite the fact that men governor's in Texas had not been denied a second term in a period of sixty years.

In the campaign this year her husband again had announced for Governor but by the decision of a supreme court he again was denied the right to have his name placed on the primary ballot. Mrs. Ferguson, as on the former occasion, entered the race in protest against this decision.

Hesperian Election Party Draws Thousands Saturday

The two years' administration of Mrs. Ferguson made a record of efficient service to the state, progressive and constructive policies and marked advance in educational affairs.

Miss Mildred Russell Entertained Thursday

Miss Mildred Russell entertained a party of friends Thursday evening of this week. After their arrival the guests went to the Lockney Municipal Swimming Pool for a swim and upon their return were treated to a watermelon feast at the Russell home six miles northwest of the city.

Those who were present for the evening, were Misses Rosa Lee Smith, Honora Childers, Mildred Strickland, Helene and Maurine Hay, Hermalee Norman, Verla and Vela Blassingame, Robbie Archer, Artie Mitchell and the hostess; Messrs. Buddie Bell, Raymond Berry, Hearon Wright, Delbert Eubank, Wayne Gound, Clinton Fyffe, Bowman Dorsey, Leo Cothorn, Hunter King, Chester de Cordova, Audice Norman, Charles Hicks of Lubbock, and E. B. Massie, Jr., of Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Massie and daughter, Jessie Belle, of Corpus Christi, and Miss Addie Barker, of Floydada, returned Wednesday evening from the mountains of Arizona, where they had been on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Teeple and family are expected to return home Monday from Waco, where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

Organize Bridge Club.

Miss Doris Smith was hostess to a party of friends at the Smith home on South Wall Street Wednesday afternoon, when a bridge club was organized. It was voted to call the new club the Qui Proximo Bridge Club. Those enjoyed the games of the afternoon were Misses Katie Lee Thurmon, Jesse Mae Wood, Audrey Farris, Ruth Jenkins, Golden Louise Steen, Vivian Evans, Lillian Mae and Beatrice Guimarin of Olney, and the hostess.

W. T. Stiles and son, Jim, returned Friday night from a trip to Andrews County, being absent from home some three days.

Last Week-end W. L. Mitchell and family made a trip to O'Donnell where the family visited for a day or two while Mr. Mitchell went to Lamesa and Big Spring on business.

Picture in your mind the broad Texas prairies on a hot summer day, and then picture in your mind the excitement and commotion of Wall Street when the market broke, and you will have a slight idea of the contrast of scenery on Floydada Saturday morning and Saturday night, during the past week.

Of course, there was a reason. On Friday night all the Floyd County folks were resting up for the big "Election Parties" that followed on Saturday night. Thousands of people swarmed the streets Saturday night, eagerly seeking the "latest dope" on the election.

They had already begun to gather at the Hesperian's bulletin board when the first report from the two Floydada boxes were posted at about 7:05 p. m., and from seven until eleven o'clock the crowd grew by leaps and bounds until it had reached to more than 1200 people. "make a night of it."

The Hesperian had thousands of visitors and callers during the "Election Party", and we are glad that you visited with us. It has been a pleasure to serve you in this capacity, and the entire Hesperian force joins in inviting you to "Call Again".

BIG MERCHANTS SHOW HOW COMPETITION HELPS

Dennis F. Kelly, one of Chicago's leading merchants, in an interview in The American Magazine, gives a forceful demonstration of how the great department store founders of that city employed competition to mutual advantage.

As a matter of fact, says Kelly, the great state street shopping district is founded upon a shrewd scheme of inviting competition which was looked upon as foolish when it was put in to effect. The plan was that of Gordon Selfridge, probably the world's greatest merchant today.

Marshall Field owned the valuable corner of State and Madison streets. Just behind the area was the property of Mandel brothers, with no frontage on State street. The business world was surprised when the Mandels suddenly leased the Mandels some of the State street property.

"The Mandel boys," Kelly quotes Field as saying when asked why he had made the strange lease, "are good merchants. They are certain to build up a finestore some where in Chicago. Now, if we keep the good merchants concentrated here, we can make this the greatest shopping street in the world. We'll get our share, or if we don't we won't deserve it."

THE LITERAL CAPTAIN

A Colonel and his lady wrote to a new captain, requesting the pleasure of "his company at dinner." Captain Blank, in reply, wrote that he regretted that three of his company were ill in the hospital but that the remainder of Company C accepted with pleasure.—The American Magazine.

Mrs. B. C. May, of Lubbock, left Thursday for her home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. L. Mitchell.

F. Ray Pettit, publisher of The Hesperian from 1909 to 1912, but for the past twenty years a resident of Fort Worth, where he is a member of the Star-Telegram organization, was in Floydada Saturday morning in company with his wife, and during a ten-minute stop here bragged on Floydada and marveled at the development of the county during the twenty years of his absence. "Floydada certainly has snapped out of it. You've got a dandy town here."

Mr. and Mrs. Pettit were enroute to Plainview to attend the funeral of Mrs. Joe C. McClelland, 57, resident of Amarillo, who was found dead in her room at the Herring Hotel Friday night. She has made her home at the hotel for the past few years. Mrs. McClelland was an aunt of Mrs. Pettit. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon.

Garbo's First Talking Picture To Show Here

'Gay Madrid' Feature Picture On Bill For Matinee Today.

This afternoon the Palace Theatre will present Raymon Navarro in "Gay Madrid," a stirring drama of Old Spain that has been acclaimed one of Navarro's best this year. Included with the program this afternoon is a talking comedy and news. The show will open at 2 o'clock. The same program will be presented Monday and Tuesday nights, Manager Jack Deakins announced.

Greta Garbo in "Anna Christie," her first talking picture, plays at the Palace Wednesday and Thursday of next week, July 30-31. Appearing in the cast with Miss Garbo is Marie Dressler and Charles Bickford, both outstanding favorites with many theatre-goers.

"Anna Christie" is an unusual picture, portraying the rather sad struggle of individuals against overpowering environment and circumstances, but the ending points to a happy "forever-after" for Anna and her father who make their home on a coal barge. Characterization is the outstanding thing of the picture and Greta Garbo and Marie Dressler rise to supreme heights in their true-to-life presentations. Above all things of note in the picture is Greta's voice. Garbo fans have tried to imagine the tone of her spoken words but now they will have an opportunity of actually hearing her speak in a drama of life—"Anna Christie." If you like a show that is "different" then Garbo's new picture will appeal to you.

R. H. Coverdale, principal of the Banning High School in Los Angeles, Calif., spent last week-end here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Armstrong. Mr. Coverdale was met in Lubbock by Mr. Armstrong, Mrs. Wanda Banker and her guest, Miss Vera Dickerson of Coffeyville, Kans. Mr. Coverdale was enroute home after attending a national meeting of the Kiwanis Club to which he was an official delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Amburn and family returned last mid-week from Friona where they visited with relatives. Mr. Amburn, who was taking his vacation, resumed his duties at the Consumers' Fuel Association station Thursday.

Tiny "Monarchy," Under U. S. Flag, Has No Jails, Radios, Autos or Rum

A new land has been "discovered" under the American flag where for 60 years prohibition has been in actual force, where no man or woman may smoke, where everyone is a church member, where jails, radios, automobiles, airplanes, wireless and even dogs are unknown.

It is the remote island of Niihau, smallest of the Hawaiian group and until recently a place of the deepest mystery. For years Niihau has been a fly-speck on the map to passing steamers. Then the new governor, Lawrence M. Judd, paid it a visit, the first Hawaiian governor to do so. In Judd's party was the first newspaper man ever to set foot upon the tiny island's shore. Here is what he found:

An entire island owned by one white man, Aubrey Robinson, descendant of an early missionary, dictator by right of ownership, by his own strict moral code, his determination to keep his "family" of native Hawaiians untainted by the foreigner.

"Dry" for 60 Years
A population of 130 souls lives under Robinson's benevolent feudalism. For 60 years there has been prohibition such as "the states" never dreamed of. Most of the inhabitants never saw or smelled liquor. Tobacco is taboo. School attendance at the one village school is compulsory up to the fourth grade. After that the children work, the boys on the estate, the girls at home. Everyone must also go to the one village church.

A land devoid of a single "modern" invention—autos, radio, wireless, irrigation works, even a village store. One single passenger vehicle, an ancient surry, is the transportation system, the men ride blooded horses, the rest walk. Rain-fall is the only water-works. One temperamental spring furnishes water for the island, that and rain water gathered in receptacles. Because of the limited water supply the population is limited to 150, 20 persons more than the present population.

Raise Stock
The chief industry of the island is stock-raising—cattle, sheep, turkeys—all of the best variety. All males work on the great range. The women are very sheltered, the girls doing housework in their parents' huts, making reed-mats, shell-leis, preparing for marriage. The aged are taken care of by Robinson.

The humans, like the stock, all are pure-bred. Nothing but the purest of Hawaiian Polynesians are found, a contrast to the racial hodge-podge of the other Hawaiian islands. They go barefooted or dress in "store clothes" shipped from a Chicago mail-order house.

There are no jails. The new misdemeanants are reported. No ships sail from Niihau's precarious ports except an occasional whaleboat or small freighter that brings the mail and takes away wool, hides, cattle and other produce.

PLUM BRANCH PLUM FULL OF PLUMS; TASTER OKEYS

Official Taster had the sweet duty of tasting a lot of plums this week from a tree in the yard of S. T. Harris on West Mississippi St., and for enormity of size, plentitude per inch of space on the branch and easiness to take, the plums were given 100 per cent rating. Mr. Harris is undoubtedly the best plum raiser in the county. Those who are in doubt of this statement should bring samples in for comparison. Official Taster tries to oblige but must pass judgement fairly and regardless of whose plums or whatnot he may eat.

Getting back to the plums from Mr. Harris' plum tree: a twig measuring seven inches in length had a load of thirteen plums, the largest of which measured five inches in circumference and the smallest slightly less than four inches. The cluster of plums weighed about two pounds.

The tree is only five years old and has a bushel or more of plums this season. Mr. Harris does not know the name of the variety.

Since the candidates have made the roads so hot right here on the Plains, steam vulcanizing is the only safe way to remedy that FLAT TIRE.

Cold Patch is like a wild-eyed pre-election promise—it never sticks when the crisis comes.

We've been re-elected by hundreds of customers to do the job of repairing their tires with PERMANENT STEAM VULCANIZING—not a cold-patch make-shift.

The Community Yardstick

Is it a good place in which to bring up a child? That is the acid test applied to any town.

How can we find the answer? By using the community yardstick—which provides a three-way test of the factors that have a direct bearing upon child life in the community. It will take but a few minutes to measure our community with this yardstick and ascertain whether or not this is a good place to bring up children. Here are the acid tests

1. Do We Give Our Babies a Fair Chance to Live?

GOOD In order to attain the rating "Good" the infant death rate of a community should not exceed five deaths, during the first year, out of each one hundred babies born alive.

FAIR Any community in which the infant mortality exceeds seven and one-half deaths during the first year, out of each one hundred babies born alive, would be rated as "Fair."

POOR This low rating is applied only to communities where the conditions have reached the disgraceful state where there are ten or more deaths of babies, during the first year, out of each one hundred born alive.

The infant of today is the citizen of tomorrow—it is deserving of a fair chance. The safeguard of infant life is the least a community can guarantee. Baby deaths are largely preventable.

2. Do Our Children Receive an Education to Fit Them for Life?

GOOD This rating is secured by communities who have safeguarded their future citizenship by seeing that at least seventy-five out of every one hundred children of school age are attending schools.

FAIR Whenever only sixty children out of every one hundred children are attending schools the community is given a rating of "Fair."

POOR This rating is applied to communities where the citizenship has failed in its responsibility to the children to such an extent that less than one-half of the children of school age are attending schools.

What greater handicap can be placed upon a child in its preparation for life, than the lack of an education. Every American boy and girl deserves the chance to go to school.

3. Do Our Incomes Provide the Proper Standard of Living?

GOOD The rating "Good" may be applied to a community where 90% of the families are enjoying an annual income of more than $2,000 per year.

FAIR A community where 90% of the families receive an income annually of from $1,800 to $2,000 is entitled to a rating of "Fair."

POOR This rating is given to communities where a low standard of living is found; where the income of 90% of the families is $1,500 or less.

Every community should seek to provide sufficient incomes for at least ninety per cent of its families so that they may secure the comforts for their children that lead to a healthy and happy childhood and youth.

Folks, these "acid tests" put the problem squarely up to us. Your ideas will be of interest to others. Let's talk it over. No matter how good our standing, it may be bettered, but only through the co-operation of all in
