Alpha Zeta Pi First Social Of Year Held

Alpha Zeta Pi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their first social of the year Tuesday, Aug. 30 in the home of Peggy Pohlmeir. The purpose of the party was to introduce nine new pledges to the members. They were Gwen Murray, Susie Baron, Cindy Goff, Debbie Fred, Traci Matisler, Barbara Young, Raynell Bamert, Ronda Myers and Debbie Cowley.

The theme of the social was "Punk Rockers". Each member and pledge were dressed in various punk rock clothing and colors of hair and makeup. Rock music was played and modern wooden sculptures carved by the members were centerpieces on the tables.

Dips was served in a child's "potty chair" while translucent space toys decorated the chip bowls. A refreshing fruit drink with crickets in the glasses was served.

The main meal was served on the patio and consisted of vegetable and meat kabobs, monkey bread, a whipped lime jello salad and iced mint tea. A dessert of warm cherry crumb cake followed the main course.

Following the meal the pledges and members introduced themselves. Votes by secret ballot were then cast for the best dressed pledge and member "Punk Rocker". Debbie Hutto and the bride wore a blue garter as something blue, something new was her dress, something old was her great grandmothers wedding ring, and something borrowed was her sister's diamond drop necklace.

Mrs. Mark (Ellen) Mardis of Houston, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ed (Dana) Runyan of Midland and Mrs. Mike (Marla) Mills of Lubbock.

The attendants wore identical champagne colored dresses featuring a long formal skirt. The skirt was offset by a soft pleated camisole which was covered with a traditional cape overlaying the shoulders. A cummerbund belt accented the waistline and tied in a bow.

They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies with lace and lemon leaves.

Rusty Rhoads, brother of the groom, of Midland served as best man. Groomsmen were Ray Matthews of Midland and Rex Akins of Richmond, Kentucky.

Candlelighters were Greg Clanton of Dallas, cousin of the groom, and Robert Shafer, brother of the bride, of Muleshoe. Ed Runyan and John Flynn, both of Midland, Robert Shafer of Muleshoe and Greg Clanton of Dallas, served as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Miriam Degaish registered the guests. Servers were Sandy Berggren, Dennise Robins at the bride's table and Missy Clanton at the groom's table.

Members of the house-party were Mrs. J.R. Carter, Mrs. Lewis Dale, Mrs. Curtis Walker, Mrs. Allen Jones, Mrs. John Gunter, Mrs. Norman Head, Mrs. Leland Jones, Mrs. Robert Hooten, Mrs. Morris Killough, Mrs. Pat Nickels, and Mrs. Frank Ellis.

Following a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico the couple are making their home in Big Spring.

The bride is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and is a senior at Texas Tech. Rhoads is a graduate of Midland Lee High School and a graduate of Texas Tech in Petroleum Engineering and is employed by Conoco Inc. at Forsan.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the grooms parents at Leal's restaurant on Friday night.

Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Acres discusses truth this week, we think.

Dear editor: A lot has been in the news lately about Col. Kaddafi, the Libyan dictator who has been producing all manner of trouble and misery for years, but he has now gone too far.

Kaddafi was interviewed on television the other day right when his Libyan planes were bombing neighboring defenseless Chad.

When asked why he was bombing Chad he looked straight into the camera and said: "I'm not bombing Chad. Those are not my planes."

Aside from the evil of unprovoked bombing of a defenseless country, Col. Kaddafi is giving political lying a bad name.

A political lie everybody knows is a lie is completely useless and its reckless employment endangers one of the mainstays of politics.

As practically every political campaign since elections were invented has proved, people don't mind being lied to if it's done artfully. But put that tool in the hands of a guy like Col. Kaddafi and all the fun is taken out of it.

You measure a politician by the delicacy of his use of the lie.

An immature politician is one who will tell a lie without first checking up on how many people will BELIEVE IT. He doesn't last long.

A good politician is one who won't lie unless he figures he has a good chance of getting by with it. He gets re-elected.

A superior politician is one who won't lie unless he knows it'll be at least 50 years before he's found out. He goes down in history.

If you say nobody who occasionally lies should be elected, then where on earth could you find anybody qualified to run? The truth may make you free but it won't keep you in office.

On the other hand, the number of politicians who have lied to voters is offset by the number of voters who've lied to politicians. Yours faithfully, J.A.

Dealing With Diabetes

Diabetes mellitus is a disorder in which the body cannot convert foods properly into the energy needed for daily activity. When a person eats sugars and starches, the body changes them mainly into a specific sugar called glucose. Glucose is a type of "fuel" that circulates in the bloodstream for immediate use or is stored in the liver as glycogen for future use.

In diabetes, the mechanism that controls the amount of glucose in the blood breaks down. The glucose then builds up to dangerous levels, causing symptoms and damaging body organs. This buildup occurs either because the body does not have enough insulin (the hormone that regulates the glucose level in the blood) or because the insulin is not fully effective on body tissues.

Diabetes tends to run in families, but factors other than heredity are often responsible. For example, becoming overweight can trigger diabetes in susceptible older people.

There are two main types of diabetes. Type I, or insulin-dependent diabetes, is the more severe form of the disease. Although this type of diabetes can appear at any age, it generally starts during childhood or adolescence. Lifelong treatment with insulin is required, along with exercise and a controlled diet.

The common form of diabetes among older people is Type II, or noninsulin-dependent diabetes. Previously known as "adult-onset" diabetes, this form accounts for over 85 percent of all cases. Most people with this type of diabetes do not need insulin injections. They can usually keep their blood glucose levels near normal simply by controlling their weight, exercising, and following a sensible diet.

Blood glucose levels that are either very high or very low can lead to serious medical emergencies. Diabetes may go into a coma (also called diabetic ketoacidosis) when their blood sugar levels get very high. Low blood sugar (hypoglycemia) can also lead to unconsciousness. People who have diabetes must know the warning signs of these two conditions and what to do if they occur. In addition, long-term complications which include stroke, blindness, heart disease, kidney failure, gangrene, and nerve damage can result from diabetes. Most experts believe that proper blood glucose control will help prevent or lessen these problems.

Sometimes the first sign of diabetes is found by a doctor. He or she may detect sugar in the urine or too much in the blood during routine tests. Or, the problem may be uncovered by a glucose tolerance test. This test measures the level of glucose in the blood before, and at timed intervals after, drinking a special glucose liquid.

Recent research has shown that some increase in blood glucose levels may occur normally with age. The National Institute on Aging has proposed that the diagnostic standards for detecting diabetes be changed so that an older person's performance on the glucose test may be judged against the performance of other older people and not against that of younger individuals. By interpreting the glucose test this way, fewer people will be incorrectly diagnosed as diabetic.

Regarding symptoms, some people with diabetes feel "run down" or have only vague symptoms that may go unrecognized. Others have symptoms such as increased thirst, frequent urination, unexplained weight loss, fatigue, blurred vision, skin infections or itching, and slow-healing cuts and bruises. These problems should be reported promptly to a doctor.

Diabetes cannot be cured, but it can be controlled. Good control requires a careful blend of diet, exercise, and, if necessary, insulin or oral drugs.

Diet planning is vitally important to lowering blood glucose levels. Your doctor should be consulted in diet planning.

Exercise is also important because it helps the body burn off some of the excess glucose as energy. Again, your doctor can help plan an exercise program for you.

Drugs are not needed for noninsulin-dependent diabetes if good control can be achieved through diet and exercise, but when these measures fail, insulin injections or oral drug may be prescribed.

Proper foot care is essential for people with diabetes, since the disease can cut down the blood supply to the feet and reduce feeling. Diabetics should examine their feet every day, taking note of and redness or patches of heat. Any sores, blisters, breaks in the skin, infections, or buildup of calluses should be reported immediately to a podiatrist or family doctor.

Care of the skin on other parts of the body is also very important. Diabetics are less able than others to resist injury and infection. They should protect their skin against injury, keep it clean, use skin softeners to treat dryness, and take care of minor cuts and bruises.

To avoid serious infections, teeth and gums must receive special attention. People who have diabetes should tell their dentist they have the disorder, and see him or her when any problems occur in the mouth.

Diabetes is a self-help disease: if the person who has it sticks to the diet plan, exercises regularly, takes prescribed medication, and observes good health practices, he or she can enjoy a normal and productive life.

Wright, defensive end, kicked the PAT, tying up the ball game 7-7.

Moton took the next kickoff from the Lobos on the 10 yard line to his own 41 and the Mules came back tough as Shaw and Moton began to inch up on the yardage. The Mules gave up the ball after a last ditch attempt just short of a first down on the 21 yard line of the Lobos. With 24 seconds left, the Lobos took over and on the first play Jeff McCarty took the quarter-back out on the 30 yard line. Caddell then returned the favor by breezing by Isaacs and Gleason. In the next play, McCarty and Gleason took the quarter-back out again, ending the first half with the score all tied at 7 to 7.

Stats at halftime looked fairly even and going into the second quarter, the Mules were beset by some penalties which cost them some yardage. The next Lobo action ended with a punt try at the 38 yard line which was no good. The Mules took the ball on the 21 yard line and Hamilton was swarmed by the Lobos with nowhere to go. Shaw, Moton, and McCarty gathered up some yardage, but the Mules ended up with another bad break - quarter-back Hamilton ended up in a punt situation and was taken out after the punt by a Lobo player - without an official call. However, the fates finally smiled and on the next series, Moton intercepted and ran back a 20 yard gainer. This set up a 79 yard drive for the Mules with Gleason inching away at the Lobos and making almost every bit of it to the three yard line. Finally, Isaac and McCarty took out both Lobo tacklers and Moton got his touch-down, redeeming himself for the night of bad luck he had up to that point. The PAT was good and the score stood at 14-7 for the Mules.

Nearing the end of the third quarter, the Lobo defense rallied some, but pressure by the Mules cut back on their yardage. The rest of the game is really history. With 10:23 left in the fourth quarter, the Mules began a march with Gleason and Moton and when an attempt by Norman fell through, the Mules had to punt. The Lobos took the ball on the ten yard line with a first down penalty for delay of game. The short yards gained here had the fun taken out of them by hits by Gleason and Orozco. The Lobos came close to scoring again but for the talents of Thurman Coleman.

With 2:51 left in the ballgame, Gleason and Moton traded back and forth for yardage until the situation became 4-10 on the 48 yard line. When the punt landed, the Mules were right there and really clobbered Washington when he caught the ball.

To all intents and purposes, the ball game ended just shy of the end of the fourth quarter, as the Lobos virtually quit the game, leaving the Mules triumphant.

Another strong advocate of helping the senior citizens is former Bailey County Judge Glen Williams, who now works with the senior citizens of this county.

He believes a building for the senior citizens could serve many, many purposes for our older generations, and would be something that could and would be an asset to the entire community for many years to come.

Muleshoe is the only town in this entire area without a senior citizen center. Even the tiny community of Farwell - Texico has a community center for senior citizens. Sudan has a senior citizen center, and Williams believes the people of Muleshoe and Bailey County will help put a senior citizen center here.

Call Mike Perez at the Muleshoe Supermarket if you wish to make a donation toward the purchase of the lot for the depot, or with contributions of items to be sold in the parking lot sale, with all funds to go toward the purchase of the lot.

shoe is what it is today because of the dedication and devotion of the older citizens that gave so much of their lives to making Muleshoe a good place to live.

year's rate. She said more than $1 million has been returned to owners this year as a result of the newly implemented "locator unit" in the Treasury's Unclaimed Property Division.

According to state law, Richards said, abandoned money collected by the state which is not returned to owners must be transferred to the state's operating funds to help finance vital programs such as education, law enforcement and transportation.

"In February, shortly after taking office, I promised the legislature that we would deposit nearly $6.6 million from abandoned money collections to funds available for spending," Richards said. "We have exceeded that amount by a half-million dollars while returning twice as much as last year to rightful owners."

Under state law, abandoned money collections from financial institutions -- banks, credit unions, and savings and loans -- which are not claimed by owners are deposited to the Available School Fund at the end of the fiscal year. The Available School Fund, Richards noted, is used for the state's share of public education costs, including teacher salaries and providing textbooks to school children.

The Treasury deposited $3.5 million to the Available School Fund last week.

Richards said collections from other sources not refunded to owners are deposited to the General Revenue Fund. These include collections from such sources as unclaimed corporate dividends, security deposits, and other types of property. Yesterday's deposit to General Revenues totaled $3.6 million.

"The Unclaimed Money Program is important for two reasons," Richards said. "First, it reunites thousands of Texans with their misplaced or forgotten money. And second, as was demonstrated yesterday, the program contributes millions of dollars to financing the operations of our state government."

Under the state's unclaimed property laws, money or other assets that have been unclaimed or abandoned for seven years must be turned over to the custody of the state treasurer, who then is responsible for preserving the money until the rightful owner can be located and files a claim.

Types of property covered by the law include inactive checking and savings accounts, abandoned safe deposit boxes, unclaimed security deposits, uncashed money orders and cashiers checks, unclaimed insurance benefits and unused gift certificates.

Local School Boards Meeting Scheduled Here

The Board of Trustees of the Muleshoe Independent School District will meet in a regular meeting on September 12 at the School Business Office. Several informational reports along with financial reports will give information on various school programs.

Information reports include mathematics leveling program revisions, election of Appraisal District Directors for 1984-85, administrative policy regarding inurance sales and enrollment reports for the 1983-84 year.

Financial reports will include a review of bank balances in each school fund and expenditures in each function of the school budget and consideration of approval of payment of current bills.

Other items for business consideration include the resolution to support taxation of the sale of water. A committee will also be considered for appointment to study computer literacy for Muleshoe ISD. Other considerations will include requests from various organizations for the use of school facilities and a request to hold Graduation Ceremonies in the Auditorium.

Up for consideration by the board is a request for exceptions to Board Policy in grades K-2 and consideration of a request to change board policy regarding grading system in grades K-2. A maintenance contract for the 1983-84 year will be considered.

Tax Collection reports and analysis will be heard along with approval to the tax roll.

Personnel considerations will be made in an executive session and will then be considered in appropriate action. Wages of 1983-84 cafeteria personnel and new personnel will be considered also.

New Small Business Program In Operation

The U.S. Small Business Administration has announced that the Small Business Institute (SBI) will be in operation at Texas Tech University this Fall and is now selecting client businesses for the program. Lubbock area businesses wishing to participate in the program should notify the local SBA office by calling Bill Beauchamp at (806) 743-7481, or business owners may call Professor Fred Volker, SBI Director at Texas Tech, telephone (806) 742-3461.

The Small Business Institute, which is sponsored by the SBA, assigns teams of Senior or Graduate students to provide research, case analysis, counseling and consulting services to area businesses, without charge to the business. In addition to being helpful to approximately fifty Lubbock businesses each year, the SBI Program provides graduating students with a practical "real world" experience and an opportunity to apply the skills that they have been learning in college to a live business environment.

In past years, Tech student teams have performed such efforts as market research projects, advertising studies, recordkeeping and paperwork analysis, examined business costs compared to industry ratios, and many other similar projects.

Since businesses are chosen on a "first-come, first-served" basis, interested business owners are asked to contact SBA or Professor Volker at one of the above telephone numbers as soon as possible.

1983 Harvest in Bailey County Gets Underway

Vegetables and Field Crops Are Being Harvested

SIDEOTS GRAMMA SEED HARVESTED--During the past week, combines from Bamert Seed Co. and Jack Little have been harvesting sideots gramma about two miles north of Muleshoe. Bamert Seed Co. grows and harvests approximately 14 different varieties of seed.

LOCALLY GROWN OKRA--Kenneth Martin shows off freshly gathered okra from the Progress area, gathered early Wednesday afternoon.

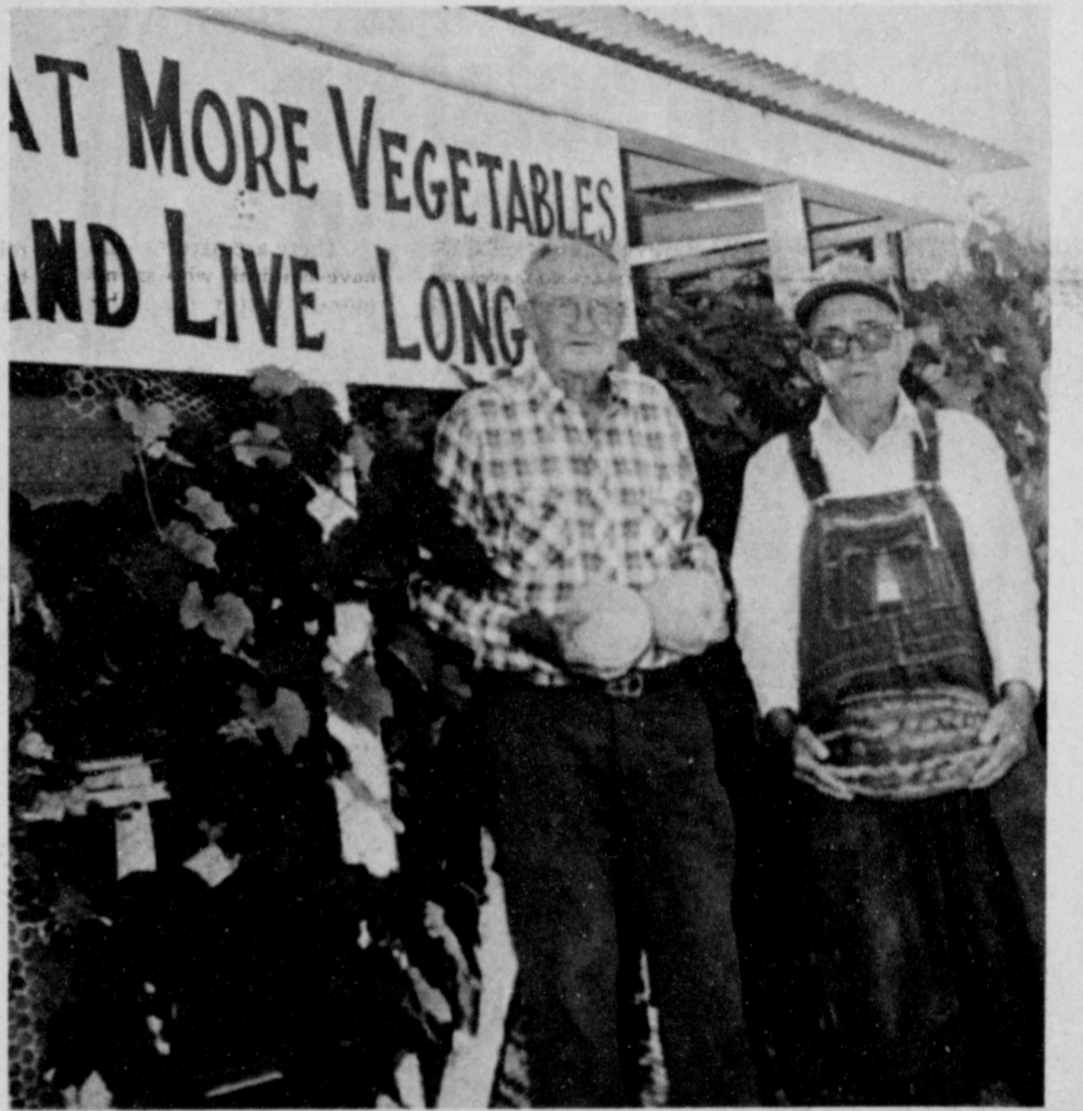

GOOD DRYLAND GRAIN SORGHUM--Two year old Monty Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Kirby stands in the edge of a field of dryland grain sorghum in the Stegall community. The grain sorghum is one of the viable, cash crops grown in this county.

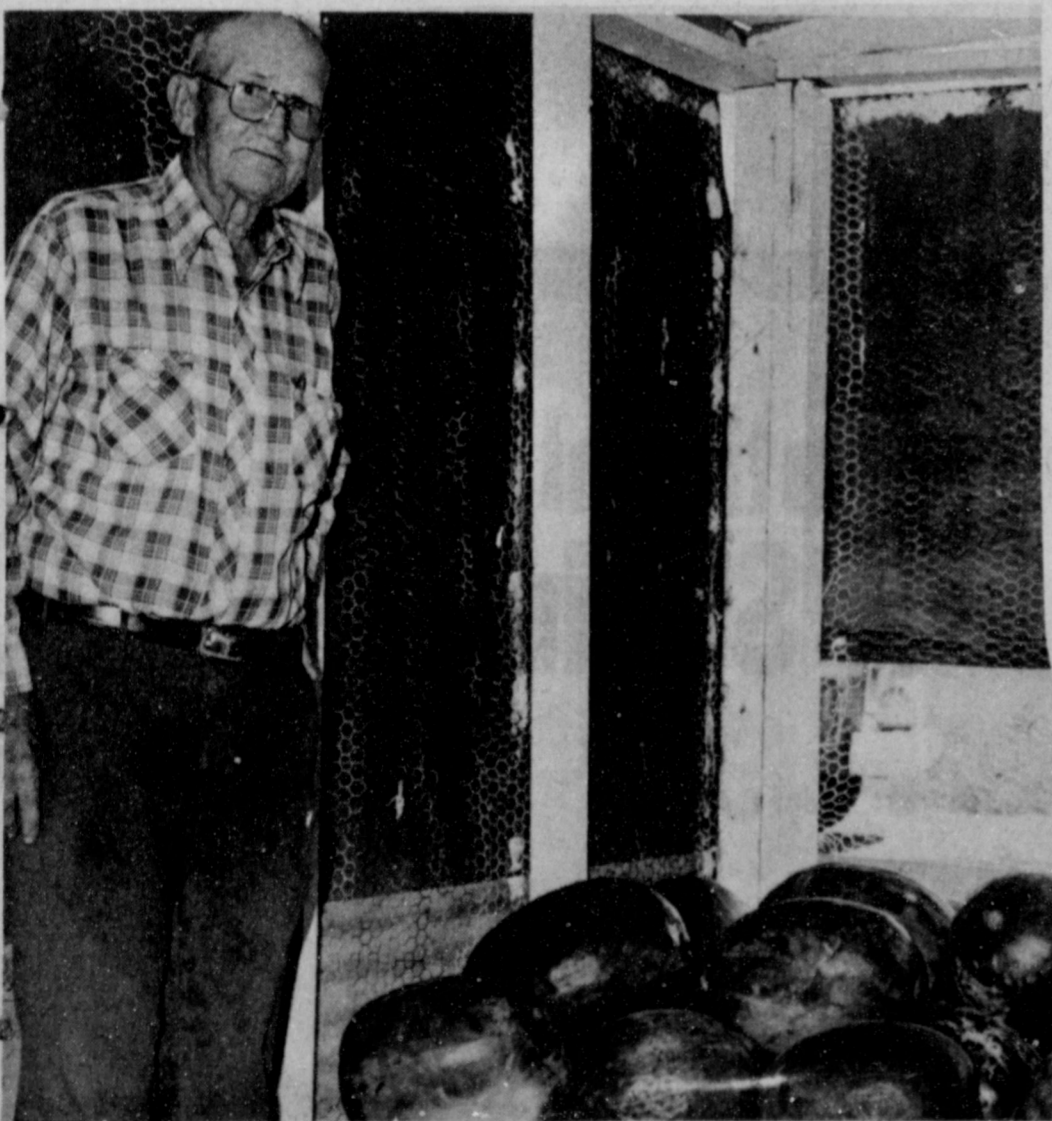

LOADS OF WATERMELONS--Lupe Rejino proudly shows off some of the large loads of watermelons he has grown on the Ralph Randolph farm. Rejino and his landlords sell the watermelons both wholesale and retail.

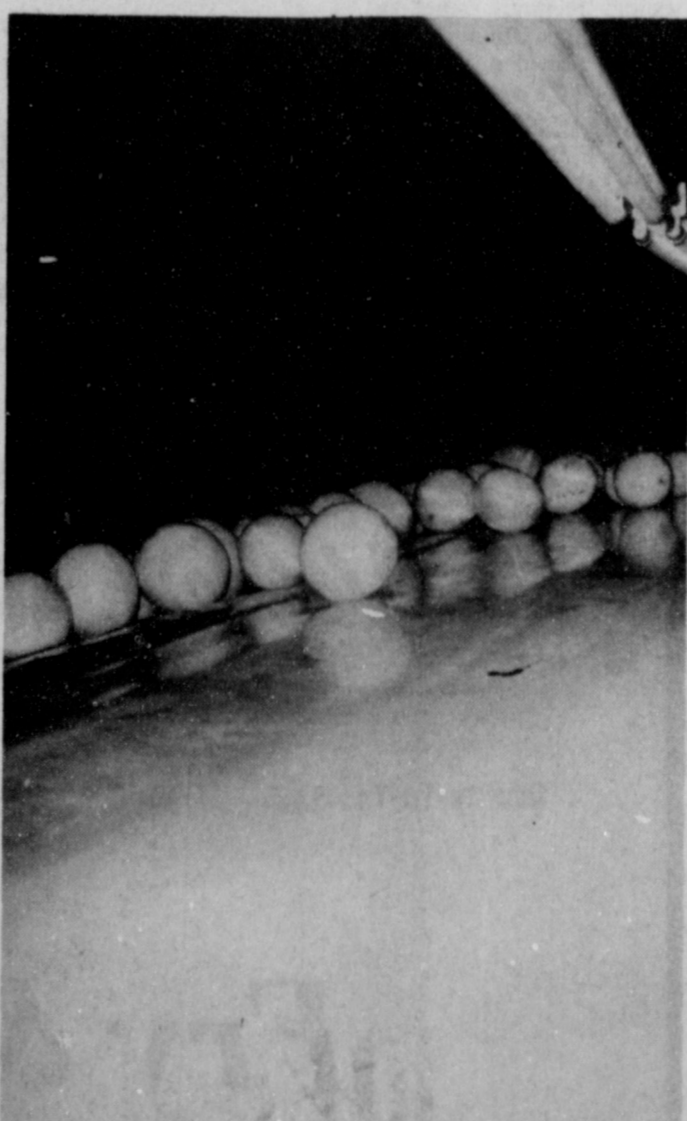

CUCUMBERS BEING PROCESSED--Workers at Robert Ruiz & Sons, Inc. are shown processing cucumbers, one of the vegetables grown in this county.

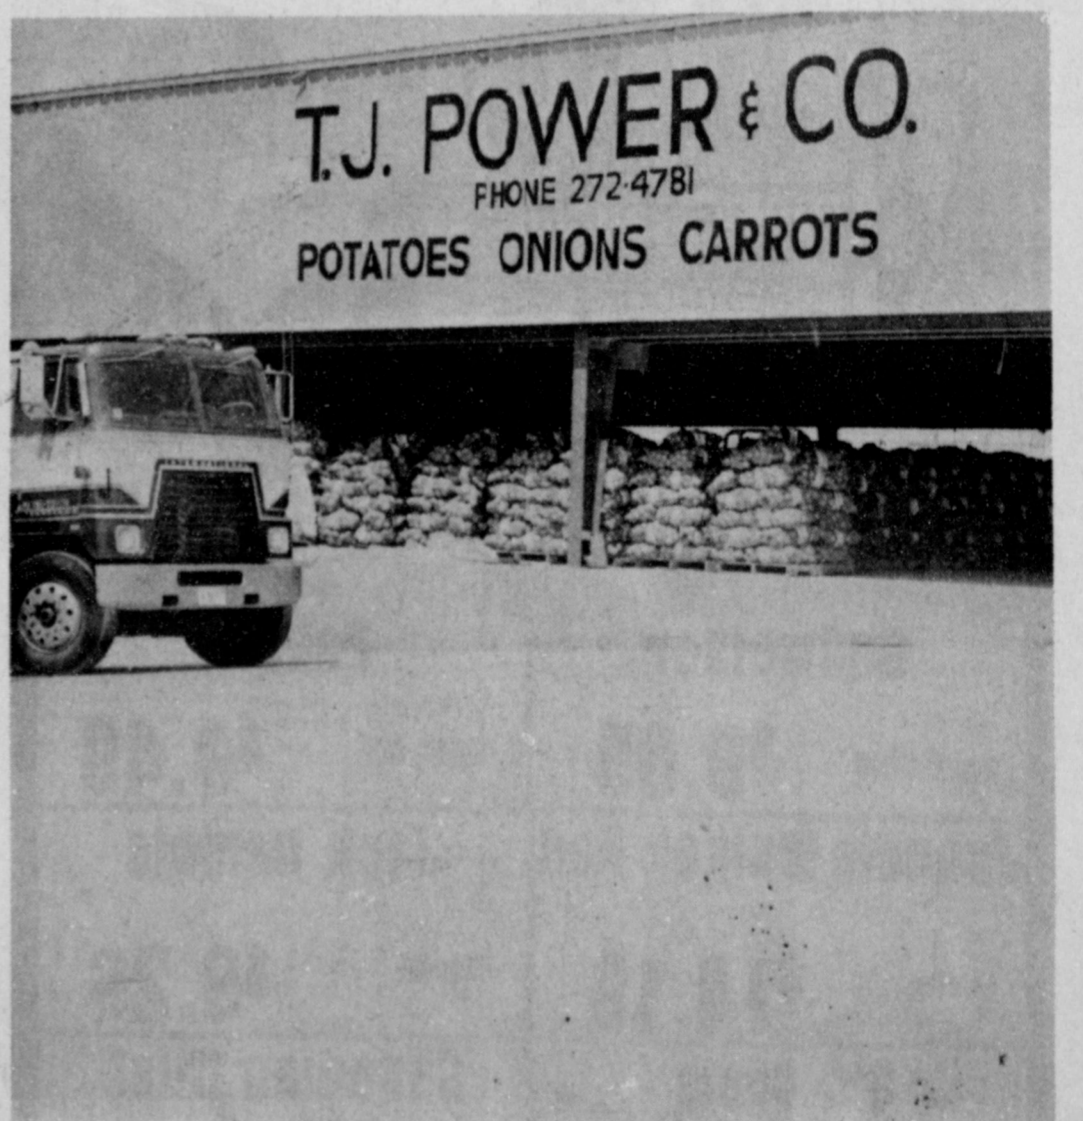

EAT MORE VEGETABLES--Harry Lee and Kenneth Martin are shown at Lee's Vegetable Stand in Progress with home grown canteloupe and watermelons. Lee also sells corn, peas, peppers, tomatoes, squash, onions, potatoes, and other locally grown vegetables.

HOME GROWN WATERMELONS--Harry Lee is shown with some locally grown Black Diamond watermelons at his vegetable stand at Progress. He sells the locally grown vegetables, and fruits, each year at his stand. Lee said he has had no short supply of vegetables this year.

MELONS PACKED FOR SHIPMENT--Robert Ruiz & Sons, Inc. are now processing and shipping honeydew melons. The melons are shipped all over the county.

LOADING OUT ONIONS--T.J. Power & Co., west of Muleshoe has trucks lined up loading out the 1983 onion and potato harvest. The sacks on the loading dock at this time are onions, grown in the area. Potato harvest is almost over. T.J. Power & Co. will be processing carrots very soon.

Five Area Grads Win WTSU Scholarships

More than 400 beginning freshman students at West Texas State University from seven states have been awarded a $200 Don and Sybil Harrington Scholarship for the 1983-84 academic year.

Scholarships are awarded each year to students who will attend WTSU as freshmen and who were members of high school National Honor Society chapters or similar organizations.

Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholarships were begun in 1979 with an endowment from the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation of Amarillo. Additional grants have grown to a total endowment of $1.2 million and students are eligible to retain the scholarship for four years at WTSU.

The scholarships are renewable each year if the student maintains a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

Don and Sybil Harrington honor scholars may receive an additional President's Honor Scholarship if they score 28 or more of a possible 36 on the American College Test or 1,220 points of a possible 1,600 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test college entrance examinations. They receive an additional $100.

A competitive scholarship of $200 or more at WTSU waives out-of-state tuition which often is 10 times greater than in-state costs.

Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholar from Muleshoe is Connie Shelton, a graduate of Springlake-Earth High School and daughter of Roseann and Robert Shelton of Route 4, Muleshoe.

Receiving the scholarship for the second year is Wayne Precure, Muleshoe High School graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Precure of Route 1.

Third-year scholarship recipients are Mary Mata, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luis Mata, and Keva Roming Long, daughter of Ben and Judy Roming of Route 2.

Matter Of Opinion

One Woman—Her husband was a judge, wasn't he? Another—Everyone thought so until he married her.

Lot Of Crust

A business man thought his staff was lazy, so he pinned up the following notice:

"Bread is the staff of life, but that is no reason why the life of our staff should be one continual loaf."

Hostess Marilea Cox, a freshman journalism major from Muleshoe, has begun her duties as a member of Campus Service, and hostess for West Texas State University. Cox has received an $800 scholarship for conducting campus tours for visitors and serving as a hostess of the university at campus events.

Religion, we suspect, can be measured in an individual by manners displayed.

A successful executive is one who manages to persuade others to do his work on time.

The trouble with many American homes is that they have no "head of the house" and no "wife of the house."

State Rest Areas, Parks Camping Sites Limited

Signs informing travelers and tourists that it is now against the law to camp in state-maintained roadside parks and rest areas soon will be appearing at these locations.

House Bill 675, spawned as a result of flagrant abuse of rest areas and parks over the past few years, has made it illegal to erect tents or other structures without a permit, or to remain in roadside parks, rest areas, comfort stations or picnic areas for more than 24 hours. Fines ranging up to $200 can be assessed violators, permits will be granted only in the instance of rest area "travelers' breaks" sponsored by approved civic or community service organizations.

State Department of Highways and Public Transportation maintenance forces have begun erecting signs apprising the public of the new law which went into effect Aug. 29. Signs are expected to be in place by the last of September.

Mark Goode, engineer-director of the department, said the use of roadside parks "is intended to provide a welcome respite from the rigors of driving." He said the facilities are "not designed for long term use by motorists, but primarily are designed as a safety measure and as a convenience to the traveling public."

The new signs will enable law enforcement personnel to warn travelers that the new law prohibits camping and that penalties will be enforced. Prior to 1983, Texas law made no provision for prohibition of unauthorized use of these roadside facilities. Several instances of abuse have been cited as precedents for getting the legislation in force.

Rural Infant Education Program Begins Here

Bailey County, as do many others, receive the services of the Rural Infant Education Program. This program is an infant education and stimulation program sponsored by Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation Center in Plainview. The program is also partially funded through a grant from the Early Childhood Intervention of Texas. The program offers services to the residents of Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Motley, Farmer and Swisher counties and the children referred to the program must have a physical or mental handicap or a developmental delay or be classified as developmentally disabled or as a high risk infant. The child must reside in the nine county area and parents must be willing to cooperate. Services offered in this program are a transdisciplinary assessment which is provided for each child. This includes psychological, educational, medical, sociological evaluation with physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy assessments given as needed. When the child is enrolled in the program, he/she will have an individual treatment plan for his special needs in the following areas: daily living skills such as feeding, dressing, toileting, etc., gross motor skills such as physical skills like sitting alone, crawling, walking, jumping, etc., fine motor skills such as grasping and releasing objects, use of small objects to manipulate objects, language beginning with the development of cooing and babbling and leading to speaking in sentences, cognitive skills developing thinking skills and problem solving skills, sensory training skills, training in developing abilities in the five senses, hearing, seeing, feeling, smelling, and tasting. Other training will be provided according to the child's needs such as physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy. Services for this program are free of charge. If you know a child that is old enough to walk but is not walking, a child who is old enough to talk but is not talking, or a child that was born under conditions that might be risky to that child, you can refer this child by calling 272-4433 or writing to RIEP, 710 Quincy, Plainview, Texas 79072.

Cheerleaders Promote Mule Spirit At MHS

Around The Halls At M.H.S.

They're here!! The 1983 Muletrain annuals came in last week and were passed out to MHS students and faculty members Friday morning during first period. Any '83 graduate or student who has ordered an annual and has not picked it up yet can come by room 10 between 3:25 and 4:00. Please do not try to pick up annuals any other time during the day as there will be on one available to hand them out.

Anyone who would like to buy last year's annual should see Mrs. Black and put his name on the waiting list. A few extra copies were ordered and will be sold for $17.00.

On September 9th during the pep rally Lonnie Adrian took a student body picture on the football field for a free 17"x24" poster to be given away with the purchase of a 1984 Muletrain Annual. Every student and faculty member was urged to wear black and white for the picture.

School Day Pictures at high school will be made by Lonnie Adrian of Adrian's Photography on Wednesday morning, September 14, beginning at 8:30.

Thursday, September 15th is "Shade Day" and all students and faculty members are urged to wear their shades and "Knock the Floydada Whirlwinds out of sight."

Future teachers back-to-school party will be Monday, Sept. 12 from 6:30-9:00. It will be at the city park. Everyone should sign up on front hall bulletin board for items to bring. Dues are $3.00. Everyone is invited to attend and join FTA.

Nominations for Junior class officers were taken last week and turned in at noon on Thursday, September 8 to Mr. Wheeler and Mrs. Marr. Junior class sponsors. Voting will be held on Monday, Sept. 12.

The student-council sold beat-tags last week in the cafeteria at noon and the candy/coke machines before school. Students and faculty could save some money and buy all the beat-tags for this season plus a mule pin at one time for $3.50.

Art Club

To Paint Mural

This year, after football season, the Art IV classes will be working on a permanent mural across the top part of the High School gym wall. The art classes and cheerleaders would like to ask the entire student body to submit ideas that they think would look good. The theme could center around a slogan such as "Mule Mania", "Mule Fever" or others. Everyone is urged to think of some ideas and submit them to Mrs. Chitwood or one of the cheerleaders before Sept. 30 (or Homecoming). The person whose idea is selected will be given credit for the original design.

Senior Pictures To Be Taken By Adrian's

Thursday September 8th Lonnie Adrian of Adrian's Photography visited the high school civics classes and talked to the Seniors about senior pictures. He brought several examples of his work for ideas on portrait sizes and prices, background choices and suggested attire. Appointments for Seniors will be taken beginning Monday, September 12 and must be made before Monday, October 31st. There is no charge to be included in the Senior Composite, but a sitting fee will be charged and deducted from the price paid for the pictures that are bought. Any background can be chosen, light or dark, indoors or out. Lonnie suggests senior rings should be brought, along with several outfits in neutral, solid colors. Caps and gowns are available at the studio if desired. Groups up to fifteen can be photographed, but the sitting fee will not be included in the total price. Individual pictures as well as packets can be bought at assorted prices and a 15% discount will be given on all frames when purchased with an order. The yearbook staff encourages seniors to have their pictures made as soon as possible. Their previews must be returned to the studio within 5 days.

Sophs Elect Leaders

The Sophomore class has elected their class officers for the 1983-84 school year. They are as follows: President-Mike Holt; Vice president-Sergio Leal; Secretary-Sherri Stovall; Reporter-Loy Triana; Student Council Representative-Laurey Grant; Parliamentarian-Jay Hawkins. Their first meeting was held Friday, September 9th, to plan a booth for the Homecoming Carnival and a float for the Homecoming Parade. Their sponsors are Mrs. Sandi Chitwood and Mrs. Johanna Wrinkle.

Principal's Office Aided By Students

This year's principal's office help is finding that life can be hectic during their office period one hour each day. Working in the principal's office involves a great deal of patience. It consists of taking orders from several people such as the principal, assistant principal, secretary, counselors, teachers, and sometimes parents and students. Another duty of the office helpers in addition to taking orders, is keeping records of everyday absences. They also give out tardies, blue slips, and absentee slips when necessary. Office helpers have many responsibilities they must carry out, during the year.

The office helpers for this year: Danny Sanchez, Virginia Garcia, Perry Whalin, Tonya Gray, Charlie Mata, Rachel Hodges, Laurie Kelton, Lori Ellis, Percilla Bachicha, Suzette Rojas, Tony Luna, Ray Vinson, Joe Ward, Keisha Johnson, Ronald Briggs, and Karen Kelton.

Spirit Jackets

Now On Sale

Students who ordered a school spirit jacket in the spring for the 1983-84 school year may pick them up now in the DECA Mercantile, Room 24.

Prices for the jackets are as follows: rib-knit jackets unlined are $18.95 plus tax or $19.90; flannel lined are $28.95 plus tax or $30.40; and pile lined are $35.95 plus tax or $40.90. The jackets are beautiful and the DECA club is most anxious for everyone to pick up his order. Any jackets not paid for by October 1, will be sold on a first come, first serve basis.

Groups who ordered jackets with special printing should contact Jack Dunham if they were ordered through Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department, and contact Mike Foss for the Karate School jackets.

All other jackets should be picked up at the DECA Mercantile in Room 24 of the high school as soon as possible.

Annual Staff Attends Workshop

The Muletrain annual staff traveled to Lubbock bright and early on Wednesday morning, September 7th to attend the Taylor Publishing Company workshop on annual production. This will be the first year for high school to use Taylor as the Muletrain publisher, and the workshop was designed to help them learn how to use the books, layout forms, tools, and supplies that Taylor provides, as well as to help them choose a theme and carry it through the 1984 Muletrain. Tracy Tunnell won a free "Time Flies-Catch It In a Yearbook" T-shirt for answering a trivia question about the Kentucky Derby. Also attending were Muletrain editors Kacy Henry and Mary Ann Ybarra. Coaches

Comments

This weeks comments come from freshman coach, Jerry Johnson. He commented that the Freshman defense was very sound in the game with Portales September 1st. "It is still early in the year, but the defense is slightly ahead of the offense as far as timing and technique are concerned. Chris Harris, Francisco Ybarra, Mark Mata, and Darin Allison all played very good defense."

Coach also said that the offense was a little bit off in timing since it was the first game and they had a few players in new positions. Continued Johnson, "It will take them a while to adjust." Over all Coach Johnson, and Coach Scott were well pleased with the Freshman team's performance against Portales.

Social Security

A 1983 change in the law modifies and extends by 7 months the exemption to the "government pension offset." Under the offset, a person's Social Security benefit as a spouse or surviving spouse is reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount of any pension he or she receives based on Federal, State, or local government employment that is NOT covered by Social Security. For people becoming eligible for a pension after June 1983, the offset will amount to two-thirds of the pension.

Previously, you were exempt from the offset only if you met the age, length-of-service, and other requirements for the pension before December 1982. In addition, if you were a husband or widower, you must have received at least one-half support from your wife, and if you were a divorced woman, your marriage must have lasted at least 20 years (rather than 10 years as is generally required for divorcees). Now you may be exempt from the offset if you are eligible for your pension before July 1, 1983, (whether or not you actually apply). And if you are a woman who is first eligible for your pension December 1, 1982, to July 1, 1983, you also must prove one-half support, just as a man does.

The offset does not apply at all if your job is covered by Social Security on your official termination date. Nor does it apply to any Social Security benefits you receive based on your own earnings record. For more information, ask any Social Security office for the leaflet.

New System To Help Malfunctions On RR

A new system to help motorists report malfunctioning railroad signals begins September 1, according to the Department of Public Safety. The state-wide program will offer citizens a toll-free telephone number to encourage them to report railroad signal problems to the proper authorities.

DPS Director Colonel Jim Adams said the program is a cooperative effort between the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, the state's railroad companies and the DPS.

"When a railroad signal is reported to us by the public to be malfunctioning, we will then notify the proper railroad authorities who are responsible for making the necessary repairs. This should help expedite the correction of the problem and provide better service to the public," said Adams.

Adams said the program is designed to aid the flow of traffic and to help railroad personnel locate the trouble areas in a timely manner.

"While our major concern is safety, we do understand the frustration of drivers who must wait while a signal is not working properly. This effort should eliminate the unnecessary delays," he said.

The program was established under House Bill 1007 by State Representative Charles Finnell and requires the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation to place signs on railroad signals which give a toll free number for motorists to call when a signal malfunctions. The number is 1-800-772-7677.

Railroad signals at crossings along state-maintained highways will be the prime location of the signs.
