Reese kicks off 1981 CFC

Each year Reese people, along with other Lubbock-area federal employees, are given an opportunity to participate in a fund-raising campaign that benefits dozens of local, national and international charitable organizations.

That time of year has arrived.

Beginning Wednesday, representatives in each unit will begin canvassing for supporters of the 1981 Combined Federal Campaign. The Reese goal in this year's campaign is $82,000, part of the total Lubbock goal of $123,000.

CFC offers two major advantages to federal employees. First of all there is only one campaign a year. CFC is the only authorized fund-raising drive for voluntary agencies within federal establishments. Secondly, there are three ways to give:

payroll deduction, cash or check and direct billing.

According to Reese committee vice-chairman, Capt. Frank Belote, most federal personnel wish to contribute an amount comparable to the suggested giving level in the voluntary giving guide. Captain Belote says that an estimate of fair share is one hour's wages per month.

Most federal personnel choose to use the payroll deduction to meet their pledge, enabling them to spread it out in small monthly installments. Deductions for those choosing this option will begin on the first pay period in January and stop at the end of one year. Minimum deduction is 50 cents per period.

Designations, though neither encouraged nor discouraged, may be made. Five spaces are provided on the pledge cards that will be distributed by key workers for code numbers of agencies the giver wishes to designate. Amount to any agency may not be less than one dollar.

Barring any designations, distribution to agencies will be according to a formula based on previous campaign experience from 1975-79. United Way will receive 83.84 percent, National Health Agencies 7.95 percent and International Service Agencies, 5.21 percent. Campaign and administration expenses will use the remaining three percent.

Each squadron will have a group of key workers led by a team chief in order to insure everyone is given the opportunity to contribute. In the event someone is missed, please contact the following people to make your pledge:

Headquarters — Capt. Richard J. Fulton — 3194
Operations — Capt. Guy A. Woolman — 3873

CFC provides aid to Reese

by Col. Monte Montgomery
Commander, 64th FTW

Wednesday begins our annual Combined Federal Campaign, a time each year when we are asked to give to help others.

Our goal is $82,000 this year, which is a part of the overall Lubbock goal of $2.01 million.

Some of you may feel that your donations do little to help us here at Reese. That is why I want to tell you a little of what I know about our CFC.

Last year the American Red Cross spent $12,299 in support of Reese personnel for services such as transportation for emergency leave. Their services were used by some 1,293 military personnel last year in Lubbock alone. In 1970, they spent $750,000 in Lubbock to help families when the tornado struck.

This year the Reese Youth Center will receive $12,000 to continue its programs for our young people. The Lubbock Area Boy Scouts will receive $143,000, the Girl Scouts $65,000 and the USO $4,200.

The list of direct benefits goes on, but there are indirect benefits as well. Of each dollar you donate, 97 cents goes directly to the 60 CFC agencies which include the Heart Fund, Muscular Dystrophy, Cancer Society, Diabetes Association and Easter Seals. One donation helps each and everyone all year long.

I feel strongly about this campaign and meeting our goal quickly. There is overwhelming evidence that we at Reese are benefited far in excess of what we contribute to the CFC. Therefore, I hope that you will join me in making a "fair share" pledge next week and make this the most successful campaign yet!

Who goes where

My wife called the Hospital appointment desk for an appointment for my daughter. She has anemic blood and requires periodic check ups. My wife spoke with Mrs. Angeleta Davis and the problem is that instead of Mrs. Davis giving the appointment, she was trying to diagnose the problem herself. I do not feel she should do this. It's not her responsibility, I feel, to determine whether or not my child needs an appointment.

To assure quality care and maximize utilization of physicians, the central appointments desk personnel screen all incoming calls to help determine if a Nurse Practitioner, Physician Assistant or Doctor should initially see the patient. This practice is not a diagnostic analysis but is rather a quick efficient way of referring the patient to the appropriate health care provider. With a limited number of appointments the central appointment personnel must attempt to screen routine (coughs, colds, etc.) appointment requests from the urgent (pain, etc.) requests. If this practice were not in effect, then the physicians would be seeing the less serious conditions and the physician assistants would be seeing the more serious conditions. Obviously, this is not in the patient's best interests nor does it efficiently utilize the provider's time.

A radio fairy tale

by TSgt. Richard Hall
1958th Comm. Squadron

Here is a little known fact from the World of PUSH-TO-TALK.

One day, in the not too distant past, on Anywhere AFB, U.S.A., worked an Air Force type who had a curious desire to discover what lives in the dark cavernous recesses beneath the boulder named "Fuse Holder". This particular boulder lay on the dark side of the mountain called by the "Powers that be" MX320.

Then disaster befell the Air Force type, for when the boulder was moved aside, it rolled away, never to be found again. MX320 which was known for its rumblings was quiet.

The birds did not tweet, lightning and thundering ceased and all was ominous. Without the boulder, the mountain would forever be silent.

The parable of this story is "Keep your hands off the dark side of your radios, only certified types are authorized to venture there".

Damaged Intrabase Radio equipment continues to be a frequent problem on Reese. Here are some "tips" on how to prevent the loss of your hard-earned BUCKS due to negligence and abuse:

- When you have the urge to open something up, open a book. Taking the backs off radio equipment can result in damage, the repair of which could come out of your pocket...

- When you are a passenger in a vehicle equipped with a radio, remember, radios are for communications transmissions — not foot stools...

- When you are carrying a portable radio, remember the antenna is not a yoyo string...

- If you set a drink on or near a remote control unit, the 4th of July fireworks may come early as the spilled liquid shorts out your unit...

The personnel of the 1958th Communications Squadron Radio Maintenance and C-E Programs shops are inflation fighters. They are available to help you save!

Once thru the park

Sunday School marks bicentennial birthday

Did you know that 1980 marks the bicentennial year of the Sunday School movement?

The concept of Sunday School was born in England in 1780. On Sundays hundreds of children—working during the week, were left to run the streets: cursing, playing games of chance, watching the bull and bear baiting, the badger and cock fighting, stealing what they could and bartering what they did not want.

Robert Raikes, a businessman, saw a need to help the children. Using the Bible, the only free book available, he taught them Christian character as well as reading, writing and arithmetic. Four women were paid a shilling a week to gather as many children as they could for instruction on Sundays. Thus began the Sunday School movement.

The number of Sunday Schools increased rapidly. By 1810, thirty years later, the movement included more than three thousand schools with an enrollment of nearly 27,500.

A special emphasis is being placed on Sunday School at the Base Chapel. The Protestant Parish will sponsor a Five Fabulous Sundays attendance campaign beginning Oct. 5. People attending Sunday School will be asked to be present for five consecutive Sundays. Rewards will be presented to each one with perfect attendance. The attendance campaign will conclude with High Attendance Day Nov. 2.

Please know that the Chaplains extend to each family a personal invitation to attend. Come join us as we celebrate the 200th anniversary of Sunday School. For further information contact Chap Capt. Charles H. Locklin, Ext. 3237.

Erna Boggess, Reese Recreation Director, plays with a child on the playground equipment which she was responsible for procuring for the base nursery. This is only one of many improvements Boggess has been responsible for that led to her selection as an Executive Fellow of the National Recreation and Park Association. (U.S. Air Force Photo)

Boggess nabs national award

People who have noticed the exceptional recreation program may have wondered from time to time who was responsible for it.

One driving force behind the program is Erna T. Boggess, recreation director. She was recently notified of her selection as an executive fellow of the National Recreation and Park Association.

The award is given to military or civilian personnel actively engaged in Armed Forces recreation at the departmental, major command, sub-command or in a top level installation recreation management position.

During her time at Reese, Boggess contributions to the child care center have included working with the hospital nutritional staff to provide for the improved menu, developing and expanding an employee food and sanitation training program, requesting and securing a $168,000 grant for a 2,275 sq. ft. addition to the facility, obtaining $15,000 for new playground equipment that has been installed and is being used daily and receiving official certification to be eligible for the USDA Food Program.

Her pioneering efforts include the T-shirt and hat printing facility that is available at the Arts and Crafts center and is seen at most major base functions such as the Open House. Additionally during the past 11 months she has researched and published a promotional training aid to assist all Morale, Welfare and Recreation branch managers who are assigned special projects.

Boggess also developed a rustproofing training aid that has added another service for the Auto Hobby shop patrons. Additionally, the rustproofing method has been adopted as a factory site training workshop for Air Force Auto Hobby shop employees.

Other contributions to the program include new greens mowers for the golf course, carpeting for the club house and a ladies exercise room at the base gym.

Formal award ceremonies will be held in Phoenix Oct. 21.

Housing maintenance system changes hands

Alliance Properties Inc. will assume responsibility for all repair and maintenance in the family housing area at Reese Sept. 30.

Until then all service calls for maintenance will continue to be made to the Civil Engineering Service Desk, Ext. 3647. When All-Pro assumes the contract all service calls during normal duty hours will be made to the civilian contractor at 885-4900. After duty hours service calls will be made to 793-7463.

The contract for maintenance restricts emergency calls to correcting failures or deficiencies which constitute an immediate danger, health hazard to occupants, or threaten to damage property.

All other service calls are considered routine.

The contract requires the following response time: Plumbing, water and sewage—if the problem will cause structural damage or health hazards, it is considered an emergency and response time must be 30 minutes and must be completed within 24 hours.

Otherwise, urgent, response time must be 24 hours. Units with one functioning commode will not be considered a health hazard.

Heating—No heat is considered emergency and response time must be 30 minutes with completion within 12 hours.

Individual bedroom heater inoperative is considered urgent and requires response time of two days with completion within five days.

Gas—No gas is considered urgent requiring 30 minute response time.

Air Conditioning—considered urgent, requiring five day response time.

Electrical—Power loss or electrical short is emergency and requires 30 minute response time with completion of work in 24 hours.

Minor electrical work is considered urgent, requiring five day response time.

Structural—roof leak with wall, ceiling, structural or floor damage is considered emergency with required response time of 24 hours with job completion within two days.

Broken windows are considered urgent with a five day required response time.

Appliances—Refrigerator inoperative is considered emergency with a required response time of six hours with completion within two days.

Other appliance problems are considered urgent with a response of 24 hours and completion within five days.

All other calls are considered routine with response within two days. If response time cannot be met due to weekend or holiday interfering, response time shall be extended to the close of business on the next duty day. Routine calls should be completed within 30 days.

Wendell Holmes is the local superintendent for All-Pro. If there is any problem in completing service calls contact him at 885-4900.

If satisfactory response is not obtained, contact the Family Housing Management Office, Ext. 3601.

The Family Housing Brochure is being revised to reflect this and other pertinent information and will be distributed in the near future to all occupants.

No reallocation for pay raise

Effective Oct. 1, the 11.7 percent payraise to service members will be an across-the-board increase for basic pay, quarters and subsistence.

Under the provisions of the bill signed into law Sept. 8, the President had the authority to reallocate up to 25 percent of the basic pay increase to quarters and subsistence or to provide a varying percentage increase in basic pay based on grade and years in service.

The decision was made not to exercise the reallocation authority.

The appropriation bill is still in Congress, a continuing resolution may still be necessary if the Congress does not enact the necessary appropriation bill before Oct. 1, passage of either payment of the salary increases at that time.

Carter lowers proposal

General Service civilian pay increase of 9.1 percent proposed by President Carter Aug. 29 should go into effect this fall if not opposed by Congress.

The 9.1 percent increase counters a 13.5 percent raise proposal urged last month by the President's pay agent. By law the pay agent's recommendation would have taken effect if the President had not made a counter proposal by Aug. 31.

The 9.1 percent increase will become effective at the beginning of the first pay period in October unless the Senate or House disapproves the President's request. If either house of Congress dissapproves his request, the 13.5 percent increase would take effect automatically in October.

Federal pay is required to be kept comparable with payrates in the private sector. Each year the bureau of labor statistics surveys private-sector pay rates in a variety of occupations to establish a basis for the pay agent's recommendations.

The 9.1 percent figure is in-keeping with the administration's projection of the inflation rate for the next year. January administration budget proposals called for 6.2 percent increase in general schedule salaries. The figure increased to 2.8 percent after a mid-year budget review.

This year's Bureau of Labor Statistics survey showed a comparable private-sector salary increase of 9.1 percent from March 1979 to March 1980. The additional 4.4 percent the pay agent added to that figure was designed to offset past losses to inflation caused by smaller pay increases in recent years.

"A decision on pay comparability for federal civilian employees necessarily must be made in the broader context of the present economics situation in the country," the President said in proposing the raise.

Sports Hero.

A Whataburger is an all-time great winner. Before a game. After a game. Or anytime. Just look at the statistics its piled up: a giant quarter-pound patty, 100% pure beef, the finest garden fresh lettuce, tomatoes and onions, plus juicy pickles and your choice of mustard or salad dressing. All served up hot on a toasted bun. It's the winner of the hamburger trophy for taste. Try one.

Women's program in final preparation

by Capt. Roger Emmick
 Reese Hospital has put the finishing touches to the planning stages of the Women's Health Clinic.
 In addition, a series of seminars will be offered to the women in the community. The topics planned include: Self-examination of the breasts and common GYN problems, emotional aspects of menopause and a lecture from the Rape Crisis Center. One night and two daytime sessions are planned if there is enough interest. These seminars will be offered between the screening time and the physical appointment.
 The hospital emphasizes the need to call early as slots will be limited. All female dependents of active duty and retired military, 18 years of age and older are eligible for this program. Appointments may be made by calling 885-4571, Ext. 217, starting Oct. 1.
 Volunteers are also needed to help make this a success. To volunteer your services call the appointment number.

Tidbits

Wrong number

Many people have not heard of the change of telephone numbers for Lt. Col. Conrad Pekkola, wing inspector general. Because of this, the Command Post (for some unknown reason) has been deluged with phone calls by people trying to find him.

To offer some relief to the beleaguered men and women of the Command Post, Reese personnel are informed that Colonel Pekkola's number is now Ext. 3409. All other numbers are incorrect.

Reunion

Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps Detachment 205 from Southern Illinois University is planning a homecoming reunion for all graduates, former Angels and staff. The event is scheduled for Nov. 15.

Interested parties should contact Cadet 1st Lt. Eric Williamson, Department of Aerospace Studies, AFROTC Dept. 205, Southern Illinois University, 807 South University, Carbondale, Ill. 62901.

Dining in

The 54th Flying Training Squadron will hold its third annual dining in tonight beginning with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7:30 and the guest speaker for the event will be Maj. Gen. Robert A. Rushworth, vice commander of Aeronautical Systems Division at Wright-Patterson A.F.B., Ohio. He will speak on "Officership and Professionalism."

Summer Mess Dress is required. Admission is $5 per person and games will be held after the speaker is heard.

Fair price

Friday marks Military Day at the South Plains Fair. Proper identification will gain free admission for military members.

Vet clinic

A special immunization clinic for pets will be held Oct. 4 from 8 a.m.-noon. A minimum of 30 reservations must be made prior to Thursday to make the clinic worthwhile. For more information or appointments, call Ext. 3535.

Club prices

Membership dues at the open messes will be raised in October. This raise, say club officials, is not to be construed as being in conjunction with the pay raise. Operating costs dictated a jump in prices six weeks ago, but officials have held off as long as possible.

Hotline

The new Morale Welfare and Recreation Hotline is now in service. The recording will feature a daily list of MWR activities and special events, movies at Simler Theater and other base-wide special events. The number for the Hotline is 885-3556. To submit items on a space-available basis, call Ext. 3787 at least 24 hours in advance.

O' Club

The class of 81-01 will sponsor a night of family fun at the Officers' Club Saturday beginning at 7 p.m. Admission is $3.50 per person. A buffet will be served from 6-8 p.m. featuring barbecue ribs and fried chicken for $5.25.

MAST

Married Airmen Sharing Together is sponsoring a golf party at Twin Lakes Miniature Golf Course at 19th and Frankfort Saturday at 7 p.m. MAST will pick up the tab for members and pay half price for newcomers.

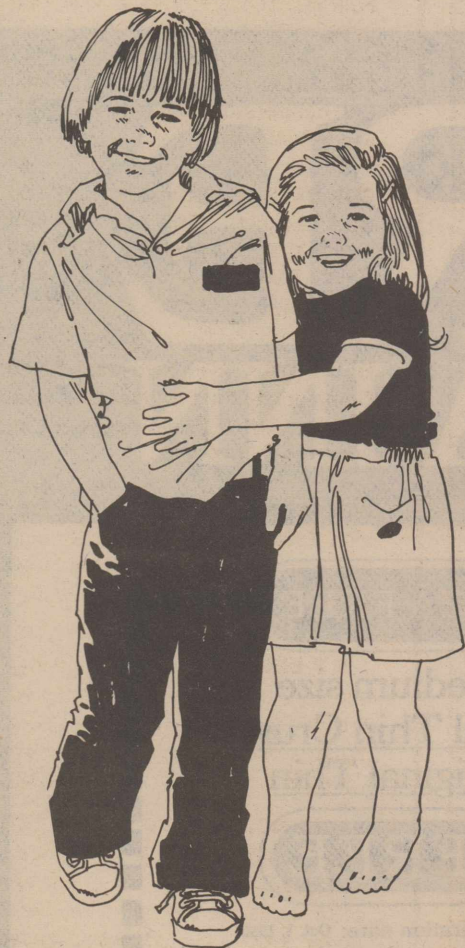

On Oct. 5, MAST is having a dinner at 1 p.m. in the MAST building. Dinner will be followed by the regular meeting.

No to go

Beginning Wednesday, the Wing Dining Hall will no longer offer the hot carry-out service to personnel on an individual basis. This change is based on the abuse of the program by those who improperly dispose of their litter.

Hot carry-out meals will be restricted to authorized duty sections that have a letter from their commanders to request meals for those unable to leave their duty station for more than 30 minutes.

Set up a Dependent Account!

The credit union movement was founded on the twin ideals of thrift and service to families, so one of our most important services for our members is the dependent share account. Open an account for your little ones today (there's no minimum age!) and they can be members for life if they choose. They'll get into the savings habit early and by watching their savings grow they'll learn thrift and independence. Help your children prepare for the future by opening a dependent share account; they'll thank you for it one day!

Long reach

Three IM teams remain unbeaten

After one full week of play in the intramural flag football league, just three teams remain unbeaten.

The 54th Flying Training Squadron extended its intramural winning streak to 29 straight games by beating a hard luck Resource Management team, 19-12. Earlier in the week, Resource Management lost a 14-12 decision to the 1958th Communications Squadron.

Supply Squadron, the early surprise team, stands alongside the 54th at the top of the standings with a matching 2-0 mark. Supply beat the Hospital, 12-6, to win its second game in as many tries.

The 64th Student Squadron, a 14-0 winner over the 35th FTS, is the league's only other unbeaten team.

In other loop action, Field

Maintenance Squadron blanked Air Base Group, 7-0; the 35th shut-out the Hospital, 27-0; Air-Base Group bounced back to rout Comm., 17-0; Organizational Maintenance stopped flightline rival FMS, 7-0; and the Civil Engineers evened their season record at 1-1 with a 13-6 win over Class 81-02.

The standings in the intramural flag football league, as of Monday, were:

Team	W	L
54th FTS	2	0
Supply	2	0
ABGp.	1	1
CE	1	1
Comm.	1	1
FMS	1	1
35th FTS	1	1
81-02	0	1
Hospital	0	2
RMS	-0	2

Roundballers form new bi-state league

For the past two varsity basketball seasons the Rattlers have had as much trouble scheduling games as winning them.

With budget restraints making travel for most varsity teams a "pay-your-own-way" proposition, Reese has had trouble getting other military teams to take on the expense of traveling to Lubbock for a weekend series.

Last year, base officials tried and failed to organize a special sports conference. This year the prospects for success are much brighter.

Negotiations have been completed to form a six-team basketball league called the New Mex-

Tex Basketball Conference. Joining Reese in the fledgling league are Ft. Bliss, and William Beaumont Army Hospital, Texas, and Holloman AFB, Cannon AFB, and White Sands Missile Range, N.M.

According to base officials, the league features home-and-home games between all six teams. League play is expected to begin in mid-November.

If the league enjoys a successful campaign, officials believe that the New Mex-Tex Conference will expand to cover other major team sports such as softball and flag football. Tournaments for individual sports such as golf, tennis, bowling, etc. are also being considered.
