Only Those Who Get Over "The Blessings of Being Poor" Appreciate it; and Even They are Apt to Brag About it Considerably

VOLUME 31

FLOYDADA, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1924

NUMBER 37

T. R. Webb Heads Chamber of Commerce

Campaign for Members Inaugurated—Secretary Reports on Exhibit Activities.

T. R. Webb was elected President of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce at the regular meeting of that organization Friday night attended by about forty members. Mr. Webb was elected to fill the unexpired term of Homer Steen who resigned the position October first. The election of Mr. Webb to this position created a vacancy on the Board of Directors of the organization and Frank C. Harmon was elected a Director in his place.

Resolutions praising the work of Homer Steen as President during the past two and half years were unanimously adopted and ordered printed in the Hesperian. Mr. Steen gave as his reason for his resignation the demands of his business make it impossible for him to give the time to the Chamber of Commerce that the office called for.

A membership drive was inaugurated to obtain as members of the Chamber of Commerce all business men in the city. W. C. Grigsby and Glad Snodgrass were placed at the heads of two opposing teams comprising the entire membership list of the Chamber of Commerce to solicit memberships. An active campaign will be waged during the next two weeks and the loser will give a feed. The plan is similar to the one used last year.

The Secretary gave a report of recent activities of the organization covering the exhibit program and the fight for an up-town telegraph office.

Jeff D. Ayres, J. B. Jenkins and R. E. Fry were appointed as a committee to make investigations looking toward a new site for the Tourist Camp Grounds that have been maintained by the Chamber of Commerce for the past several years. The sentiment of the organization seems to be that the present site is not only inadequate but is too close to the main part of town to serve its purpose.

Paving of the streets a block each way from the square was brought up by R. Fred Brown who made a motion that a committee from the Chamber of Commerce be appointed to confer with property owners and find out if a paving project of that nature would meet with their approval. Fred Brown, Frank Harmon, Glad Snodgrass, L. C. McDonald and E. C. Nelson, Sr., were appointed on the committee.

Ferguson Carries Floyd County For Governor

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson carried Floyd County for governor, and although the official count has not been completed yet, Fairmont box still being out, it is certain that her majority in this county will be above 100 votes.

Tabulation of the 16 boxes reporting out of 17 in the county, made by the commissioners' court this week, gave Mrs. Ferguson 782 votes and Dr. Butte 734 votes. James Butte got one vote in this county, the tabulation shows.

The amendment to the constitution providing for increase in Confederate veterans' pensions also carried in this county. The vote tabulated to Wednesday afternoon was 268 for the amendment to 113 against.

Russell Installing New Cleaning Plant Here

Russell's Store this week began the installation of a modern cleaning plant, which will be of the same type as the cleaning plants employed in the larger cities of the southwest, the new mechanical cleaning and drying plant having been contracted some weeks ago.

Using a cleaning washer in a circulating system, which takes the dirt out of the clothes and as the gas circulates through the system a purifier and clarifier returns the gas again and again through the clothing to make it thoroughly clean without being touched by hands during the process.

The new machinery being installed represents an outlay of some $3,000. Mr. Russell said Monday that the growth and development of Floydada and surrounding territory during the past few years gave sufficient evidence for confidence in the country enough to justify the outlay for better cleaning and pressing machinery.

The new process will enable the shop to turn out a much greater volume of cleaning and pressing within a day with a much less outlay of labor.

AT CORNERSTONE LAYING

Among the Floydada people who attended the Cornerstone Laying Ceremonies at Lubbock on Armistice Day were J. R. Maddox, S. N. McPeak, Bob Smith, E. C. Nelson, Jr., G. C. Tubbs,

County Total Cotton Ginned Passes 8,000

All Gins Now Running On 16 to 24 Hour Basis in County; Late Cotton Coming In.

The total ginnings of cotton in Floyd County last night at six o'clock had passed the 8,000 bale mark with all gins in the county going strong and a large part of them on a double shift basis for work last night.

Figures given by the four ginneries in Floydada showed the ginnings here to be 4345 bales, and nearly 100 bales of cotton were standing on the yards at six o'clock. At Lockney the gins were also considerably behind the offerings and expected to make a night run. The total ginnings was 2350 bales. Joe Bailey Gin reported 700 bales ginned and Lakeview 630 bales.

The total for the county was 8,025. Many farmers still complain that their cotton is opening slowly and that another week will pass before work is started on the last picking over. Gins, however, are turning out a large per centage of their bales from bolls, indicating that gathering of the last half of the crop has started.

Cotton yesterday was selling from 21.50 to 22.50 in Floydada. On this basis approximately $25,000 worth of cotton is being ginned and put on the market from Floyd County every day. Pretty weather has continued to favor the cotton gathering but threatened snow or rain has been in the air for two days.

Tech Cornerstone Is Laid With Ceremonies

Thousands of people, a crowd estimated variously from 15,000 to 25,000 witnessed the laying of the cornerstone of the Texas Technological College at Lubbock Tuesday afternoon by grand officers of the Masonic Lodge of Texas, took part in the mammoth parade or witnessed it and heard the speeches of the prominent men of the state there. The cornerstone laying, the parade and the speech of Governor Pat M. Neff were the high lights in the celebration.

Hundreds of Floyd County people attended the celebration, including many masons, and ex-service men from Floydada.

In the Armistice Day parade nearly 3,000 children marched in line carrying Texas flags.

Faye Maxey, a student at Canyon visited his father last week-end.

Irresistible Object Hits Immovable Mass

Matador Hi and F. H. S. in Mix Up At Matador Football Gridiron.

Matador High School, with Carpenter its great player of last year, back in the line, and other help, including two players from McLean and one from Wayland, presented a quite different line up in the Armistice Day iracas there Tuesday, when Floydada Hi went down to take their football warriors on for a game. The line of F. H. S. also looked different and was different—it had "Brit" and Rogers in the line as tackles. This was done by agreement, both teams serving notice that eligibility rules would be fudged on a little.

It was a case of the irresistible object against the immovable mass when the two lines hit. Neither could make downs to get anywhere through the line of the other, and the game would have ended a scoreless tie, except for a long pass which was made in the first quarter by F. H. S. Daily passed 40 yards to Henry, who sidestepped and stiff-armed his way for 12 more yards to be tackled with the ball six inches across the goal line.

After that the ball was see-sawed across the field for more than three quarters with no more scoring.

F. H. S. was to have played their Armistice Day game at home, but Littlefield Hi, with whom the contest had been made, was close to the Tech Celebration and wanted to go. Matador also had a game matched with Spur High but the latter wanted off, and Coach Wester took his boys down to fill in the gap for them and keep his boys in condition for further games this season.

Present probabilities are that the team's Thanksgiving game will be with Canyon High.

EDITOR OF PUNKINVILLE PARAGRAPHS TO SPEAK HERE

George Bingham, editor of the Punkinville and Dog Hill Paragraphs, which are read daily by people all over the United States, will speak here tomorrow night at the high school auditorium under the auspices of the Senior Class of F. H. S.

Bingham has no subject to speak from. Advance notices in fact, state that he is guaranteed not to speak over two minutes on any one subject.

People all over Texas are still laughing at the things Bingham has said on his Texas tour. Those who have heard him declare it will not do to hear him, when the opportunity is presented.

Turkey Deliveries Stop on Plains Wednesday

Dressing Plants Unable to Handle Heavy Offerings of West Texas Raisers.

Deliveries of turkeys to dealers in West Texas came to a halt Wednesday of this week, much to the disappointment of many turkey raisers in the territory who were marketing turkeys for the Thanksgiving market. No drop in the price occasioned the stoppage in the market, it was stated by local dealers, but the inability of the dressing plants of the southwest to handle the big offerings made on the markets. The last dealer who could take turkeys stopped buying Wednesday morning. Other dealers had to stop taking turkeys late Tuesday evening.

Inquiries over the plains country developed the fact that the same condition prevailed at markets all over this section and that the same conditions were assigned as the reason. Capacity of the dressing plants of this section which dress turkeys for the market is not excessive under conditions which are favorable. The heavy cotton crop, with fair weather, had reduced the number of men available for turkey picking and dressing, it is stated, to the point where the plants could not take care of the offerings.

Turkeys which were not delivered on the market for Thanksgiving will have to be carried over for the Christmas market, unless raisers are willing to take a considerable sacrifice on their birds.

Several turkey raisers brought their turkeys to this market Wednesday before they learned of the sudden closing of the market, and some of the dealers were also caught with an over supply when the close was announced.

Local dealers say the condition is only temporary.

Record Breaking Cotton Receipts Here Yesterday

Cotton receipts, weighed over the scales of the four Floydada gins yesterday, broke all records, gin men believe. Early in the day cotton began pouring in and a steady stream of cotton wagons went on the yards, until a late hour last night. As a consequence gins were busy until past midnight and three gins put on extra crews and did an all-night shift.

257 bales were weighed in by the gins for the day.

Harrell Scoggins was in Shertown on business last Saturday.

A. D. White Passes From the Walks of Man; His Death Mourned by Many

Willie Landrum Memorial Attended by Hundreds

Red Granite Stone Marks Last Resting Place of Floyd County Soldier—Ceremonies Impressive.

Ceremonies Sunday afternoon incident to the unveiling of the memorial stone placed at the head of the grave of Willie Landrum, Floyd County son who died in battle in France, were impressive, a large crowd of people from over Floyd County, including many ex-service men and members of the T. N. G., being present and taking part in the memorial.

T. Z. Reed, of Lockney, who was the leader in the movement to erect the monument to the memory of the deceased, officiated at the ceremonial which marked the placing of the stone at the grave of the soldier a memorial raised by private subscription and by subscriptions from lodges, churches and other organizations of the county.

Although a chill wind blew several hundred people from many sections of the south plains were present. The memorial ceremony was first planned to be held on Armistice Day, but earlier arrangements for ceremonials and programs on that day caused the change of the date to Sunday.

E. C. Nelson, Jr., who made the principal address at the memorial service, reminded his hearers of the epochs which marked the history of America, of the untold number of soldiers, who like Willie Landrum, had given their lives for the preservation of democratic government against autocracy; paid a tribute to other soldiers who fell in the battles of the Revolutionary, Civil and the World War, and gave a concise summing up of the things that constitutional government stands for, the reasons why its preservation has been worth the lifeblood of so many of the youth of the land and why its upholding and strengthening must be the watchword of the citizens of the country in the future.

T. Z. Reed, in the opening of the formal service, paid a beautiful tribute to the soldier dead of America and gave the life history of Landrum.

Of red granite the stone which was unveiled bears in its left hand corner the United States flag; in the right hand corner the regiment number and coat of arms indicating the branch of the service in which the deceased served, and in the center the simple inscription: "Willie Landrum, who fell on the battlefield of France, October 8th, 1918."

Rev. J. P. Patterson, pastor of the Methodist church at Lockney said the invocation opening the memorial service, and many ex-service men participated together with 20 mounted men of Battery A, 31st Field Artillery, T. N. G., from Plainview.

Membership Drive Opens With a Rush

The membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce under the leadership of W. C. Grigsby and Glad Snodgrass, captains of the two opposing sides, opened with a rush Saturday morning following the meeting Friday night when C. C. Wright got on the job early and obtained a dozen memberships before anybody knew what was going on.

Since Saturday there have been many names added to the Chamber of Commerce membership list and the drive will continue until Tuesday, November 25th when the losing side will give a big feed for the entire Chamber of Commerce. There have been quite a number of new people come into Floydada since the last membership campaign, practically all of the older residents being members of the organization.

AGENT FOR NORRIS HOME SOLICITING FUNDS HERE

Mrs. Belve Doss Luitwieler, official agent of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society, for the Rev. I. Z. T. Morris Home with headquarters at Ft. Worth, a state-wide non-denominational agency for the care of orphaned and neglected children is in the city this week for the purpose of soliciting funds.

Mrs. Luitwieler has returned during the cotton season to continue the work she began last summer.

The Texas Children's Home and Aid Society takes care of children from infancy up to 15 years of age, and is open at all times for any child who needs to enter for permanent and temporary care. The Agency has placed over 3000 children in good foster homes.

Tom Triplett and daughter, Mary Elizabeth of Amarillo visited here Saturday and Sunday.

A. D. White, a resident of Floyd County since 1889, and one of the leading business men of Floydada for nearly thirty years, died Friday night of last week about 10:30, after a brief illness. Toxaemia, a general poisoning of the system, was assigned by attending physicians as the cause of his death.

Becoming sick the first of the week his death was announced before many of his friends even knew of his illness.

Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with many friends in Floydada and from other communities over the county present and interment was made in Floydada Cemetery. J. Pat Horton, pastor of the Baptist Church, conducted the simple funeral service which marked his passing.

One of the earliest settlers of the county, he was known among all the old-timers; still in active business in Floydada, after nearly thirty years of a business career here, he was also widely known over the county in a business way.

Born in August, 1866, a native of Arkansas, Mr. White moved to Floyd County in 1889, at the age of 24, with his wife and one child, the latter now Mrs. L. E. Fagan. He settled near Della Plains and became postmaster there after a brief time. Following the dissolution of that town, he moved to a homestead near the present site of Sand Hill school house; and still later to a farm nearer Floydada, where he resided for a number of years after entering actively into business here. He engaged in a wide range of commercial activities, and aided in the organization of many of the present business concerns of the city.

Surviving him are his widow; his half-brother, J. S. McLain of Sand Hill; five daughters, Mrs. L. E. Fagan, Misses Ruby and Garnet, city; Mrs. J. F. Pundt, of Burkburnett; and Mrs. Roy B. Rosson, who is teaching school near Spur; and two sons, W. U. of Canadian, and A. D. Jr., a high school boy. All the family were here for the funeral. W. U. White was accompanied by his wife from Canadian, Mrs. Pundt by her husband from Burkburnett, and Mrs. Rosson's husband coming in off his territory as travelling salesman.

Armistice Day Quiet One in Floydada

Armistice Day in Floydada this week was the quietest locally spent since 1918, citizens for the most part closing their stores and attending the cornerstone laying at Lubbock; or attending football games, hunting or resting quietly at home.

Gins continued running throughout the day, several workshops, garages and filling stations remained open, as well as grain elevators and coal yards, but the downtown section of retail business was practically discontinued for the day.

The Armistice Day banquet held in the evening at the White Rose Cafe by American Legion men, ex-service men and their friends, was the only notable feature of activities in Floydada.

EXPECT HEAVY ATTENDANCE AT TEACHERS' CONVENTION

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 11.—John J. Wilson, superintendent of Floydada schools, and Price Scott of Floydada, who superintends Floyd County schools, are expecting a large number of teachers from city and county to attend the Texas State Teachers Association convention, which will be held in San Antonio, Nov. 27, 28 and 29.

Dr. George A. Works and others who have been engaged in making the Texas School Survey will make addresses before the convention. Needs and conditions of Texas schools as revealed by the survey will be discussed, with a view to offering remedies for prevailing weaknesses.

San Antonio has arranged to entertain 5,000 visitors, and it is probable that the attendance this year will be the largest in the history of the association.

MR. AND MRS. J. F. CONNER HOME AFTER EXTENDED VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conner reached home Saturday, after an extended trip down through Texas, during an absence of some six weeks.

Visiting first in Lamar County, their trip then extended southward into South Texas, where they visited at Yoakum, Floresville and San Antonio.

They travelled some 3,500 miles during their absence, didn't get out of the state, nor see all of Texas by any means, either, Mr. Conner said.

A. D. WHITE

Floydada could ill afford to lose A. D. White. While it is a fact that when it comes time for any of us to go the world will move on as ever and somebody will be found to fill our places, Floydada still had need for Mr. White.

A useful citizen, he was also a builder.

A good, honest man, he was also a worker.

For almost 30 years he had been among the active, forward-looking citizens of the town, almost since its establishment. His level-headedness made his counsel sought by many. His trustworthiness made his word his bond.

Still active, still working, not of an advanced age, his death was timely; and his call hence, aside from the bereavement of the family, means an economic loss to the community.

OPINIONS DIFFER

As long as opinions differ among Floyd County farmers about what the best-paying crops are in this county, so long will diversification continue and Floyd County's producers will not have all their eggs in one basket.

Last week six farmers expressed to us as many different ideas as to the best money-making combinations to use here. One has his mind made up that cotton is the crop and other crops are needed to balance the scales. Another said wheat was going to be his leader "from here out". Another declared that forage crops, after all, expense considered, is the best bet, either to feed out or to sell on the market. Another has his mind made up that cotton and sheep as a combination cannot be beat, and so on. All representative men, and all sure to make some money, especially since they each stressed the idea of other crops to balance the farm production.

What is that county going to do with 50,000 bales of cotton on hand that won't pay production costs when the market goes to pieces; or what will the exclusive wheat country do? They'll do without, where the diversifying will continue to do well.

DR. BUTTE AMAZED

Dr. Geo. C. Butte, of Austin, late candidate for governor on the Republican ticket with the support of the "Good Government Democratic League," gave out a statement the day after the election in which he declared himself as "amazed" that the newspapers of Texas did not continue to collect and tabulate the returns of the election after the first night's returns had given proof unmistakable that Mrs. Ferguson had been elected, and so announced. The eminent doctor pointed out that he would be willing to concede defeat if Mrs. Ferguson's majority reached as high a total as 100,000 votes. It seems evident that this thing has occurred and the public will await rather breathlessly the doctor's promised acknowledgement.

The doctor, in common with a lot of other folks, forgets that money made in newspaper offices does not come in as easily as in some other branches of industry. The newspapers of Texas were put on the defensive by the doctor's attitude and the attitude of many of his friends, because they did not spend another ten thousand dollars collecting data on a thing which they were able to report as done, without spending the money. The Texas Election Bureau, agency of the newspapers in the state, is one of the most efficient election report gathering agencies in the United States. It was faced with an impossible demand to continue gathering unofficial reports, when correspondents all over the state had not gathered the information needed, and could not supply it. Had they gone ahead trying to get the returns the thanks they would have gotten for their trouble would have been a "cussing" for "being so slow." Of course, many, many friends of the newspapers appreciate their efforts at getting reports for broadcasting and bulletins, which have no direct immediate value for the newspaper columns, where the newspaper gets its returns for the labor it expends. Evidently, Dr. Butte and a good many others do not see it this way. As a piece of bombast, about like the doctor's "amazed" statement, The Hesperian makes the declaration that the experienced election reporter can guess before hand how an election is going better than some people can tell about it after it has already happened.

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER

The Dickens County Times is the latest addition to the list of publications of this section. It is published at Spur and is competition for the Texas Spur, which has served that territory since Spur was first organized.

W. D. Starcher, editor of the Roaring Springs Review, is establishing the paper at Spur. He will also continue the publication of the newspaper at Roaring Springs.

J. L. Suits who has been manager of the Slaton Slatonite for nearly a year on November 1st, resigned his place. No announcement through the Slatonite is made of a new manager for the paper, Mrs. Donald, the publisher, taking a more active interest in the business herself.

Illustrated Letter to Santa a Reminder

If you do not know that Christmas time is nearly here, better ask the kiddies, they know. And some of them can tell you how many days it is till Santa Claus comes, as well as what they want the good patron saint to bring them.

An illustrated letter this week, received by The Hesperian, is passed along to Santa Claus for his consideration. Says the young lady, who submits an illustration, so he can better understand her:

"I want you to send me this little doll and I want you to send me a doll-bed and a little doll buggy so I can roll my little doll in it.

Please, Santa, give me a little kitchen cabinet and some dishes.

And, Santa, I want a little book so mamma can read to me. I'm 5 now. Worlds of love."

Emma Louise wrote the letter, Santa Claus. She didn't sign all her name because it was pretty hard work, that writing, in the first place, and of course, you know the rest of it, anyhow. Better get busy, old boy, she's just one of a whole lot of boys and girls in Floyd County who are expecting you Christmas—and that's not many days hence.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hughes left Sunday for Fort Worth, where Mrs. Hughes will visit her sister, Mrs. Jim Liston, Mr. Hughes returning this week.

WHEAT GROWERS DIRECTORS WILL MEET IN AMARILLO

Directors of the Texas Wheat Growers' Association will meet in Amarillo on November 19th, according to notices sent out from the office of the secretary, and on the same date Aaron Sapiro, author of the Sapiro plan of marketing will be in that city and make an address.

Several Floyd County farmers and business men are planning to visit Amarillo on that date and hear Sapiro. J. D. Christian will attend the directors meeting of the wheat growers.

Sapiro will make three addresses while in the panhandle, one at the State Teachers' College at Canyon at 9 a. m., another to the Kiwanis Club in Amarillo at noon and the third at night in the Municipal Auditorium in Amarillo.

PIONEERS OF PROGRESS

DURING the first days of the early Texas settlers, banks were few and far between. Then it was that some reliable man—probably a storekeeper who enjoyed the confidence and respect of the settlers—would be called upon to act as custodian for the funds of the community.

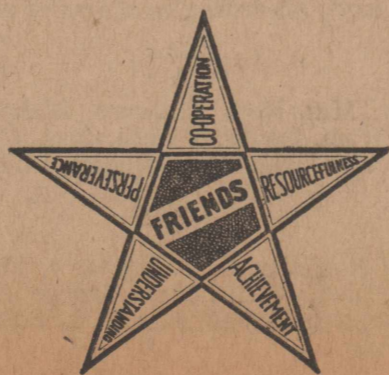

But, as each little settlement grew in wealth and population, the need for a regular money depository became proportionately great and the demand for a permanent banking institution imperative.

So it was that the first small banks were born—"Pioneers of Progress" in a new land—born of a great need for a safe place for the growing funds of the community. ....

So important has become the business of banking, and so much a part of our national life, that even the most remote hamlet now has its bank for the safety and convenience of the community. There was a time when the services of these small institutions were used only for occasional important transactions; now their various functions have become a vital and necessary part of the everyday lives of depositors.

Whether your own banking place is a small, one-man institution, or whether it has grown to a mighty financial organization, its size does not affect the simple idea of a common depository, which gave it birth, fully appreciating its responsibilities and offering safety and co-operation to the people it serves.

Think of your bank as an institution dedicated to the up-building and advancement of the community; backed by an earnest desire to increase the permanent wealth of your farm, and the happiness and well-being of your family—as truly a Pioneer of Progress now and for the future as it has always been in the past.

Drug Change.

A trade was consummated the past week in which Mr. R. L. Gass of Canyon brought the Lockney Drug Co., formerly A. M. McMillan of Plainview.

Mr. Gass has arrived and is in personal management of the store, and the store will remain in the future as the Lockney Drug Co.

Mr. Gass is a son-in-law of Dr. A. T. Reed, of this city, and has moved here with his family.

Mr. E. L. Woodburn will remain with the store under the new management, but Messrs. Graun Wilson and Frank Dodson has severed their connections with the business.

The ten-ton Holt tractor and 12-foot Gallion grader, bought by the county for Commissioners Precinct No. 2, Lockney, has been received by Commissioner W. O. Shurbet, and will at once be put into service on the roads of this precinct. This machinery was selected by Commissioner Shurbet and Judge E. C. Nelson, Jr., after a thorough examination of many kinds of road machinery offered them by various companies, and is as good road machinery as can be purchased. The roads of this precinct have been in bad shape on account of not having sufficient machinery to keep them up with, and Mr. Shurbet expects to begin at once to put the roads up in good shape, and within a few months have all the roads of his precinct in good condition.

NEW DRUG AT MATADOR

A new drug store was opened at Matador last week known as the "Simpson Drug."

Fred G. Simpson, for a number of years a resident of Motley County, is establishing the business.

The National Lumber Manufacturer's Association has estimated that forest-fire losses this season in California, Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho amount to $4,250,000. Of this $3,000,000 represented the loss of standing timber in the national parks and forests; $500,000 damage to privately owned standing timber, and an equal sum for logs and logging equipment; $250,000 in losses to settlers and community property.

Sideache Backache

"I have been taking Cardui," says Mrs. Lillie Bolton, of Lake Providence, La. "I got down in bad health and lost in weight until I only weighed 120 pounds. I had bad pains in my sides and back and my legs hurt me until I couldn't walk. I stayed in bed half the time. I tried all kinds of medicine, but it did me no good. Finally I tried

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"It seems like it did me good from the very first. After I had taken half a bottle I noticed an improvement. I continued its use and I got better and better. The pains in my legs and sides disappeared and I began to gain in weight until now I weigh 155 pounds and feel better than I ever did in my life. I am perfectly well and strong. I have given it to my girls, too."

Cardui has relieved many kinds of pains and distressing symptoms caused by female trouble. It should help you, too, in the same way. Why not give it a fair trial? E 103

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

ARMISTICE DAY OUTING

While the wives went one way, the husbands went another and all report a very successful day's outing last Tuesday when Armistice Day gave these happy folks a sunshiny, beautiful day for a holiday.

The husbands went duck hunting out Quitaque Peaks and they killed, bagged and really brought home 12 fine ducks not to mention the slaughter of several prairie dogs left on the scene of the fray which is positive proof that these were true and fearless marksmen who wielded wicked Winchester.

Then the wives went on an all-day camping party in the Canyon and cooked, and ate, and played games and talked and simply enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

The husbands included Claude Wallace, Elmer Wood and Byron Clark. The wives and others were Mesdames Claude Wallace, Elmer Wood, Byron Clark, Boone Hall, Arthur Savage and Miss Dessie Walker.

Duck Hunters Have Many Kinds of Luck

Hunting proved to be a favorite pastime on Armistice Day but all who went hunting didn't have good luck.

A. L. Seggins who took his wife and children out duck hunting just north of Fairview acknowledged sadly that the ducks were smarter than he was, for he brought home nary a duck.

And Ivey Fain, Roy Baker and Miss Ruby Higgs had hard luck too. There were plenty ducks where they went but none came home with them.

Another hunting party including Ben Roberts, Fletcher Curry and Walter Birch had very good luck, having at the end of the day's hunt a total of ten fine ducks to their credit. That these ducks were just the finest kind is attested to hereby by the Official Taster's First Assistant who received one of them as a sample.

Community Business Should Keep Pace With Private Enterprise, Says Harrison

An address made by Hubert M. Harrison, general manager of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce in May:

"Community business has not kept pace in efficiency with private enterprise," Hubert M. Harrison, General Manager of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, declared in an address on "Organized Charity," delivered at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Wednesday, May 14.

Mr. Harrison has assisted in the organization of a joint campaign for welfare in Wichita Falls which has eliminated nine financial drives and, having directed these campaigns and kept in touch with the general situation over the country, is well qualified to speak on this vital subject.

The Wichita Falls Welfare Budget of $42,000 was raised last fall in three days with an overhead of $187.00, which is less than half of one percent, and Mr. Harrison stated that this city is "collecting money for welfare more economically and rendering services in its various phases of charitable work at a lesser cost than in most any city of its size in the country."

Mr. Harrison deplored the numerous, promiscuous and unwarranted campaigns, drives and solicitations for funds and the waste of overlapping and duplicated overhead expense which is the result of lack of organization in the handling of charity in hundreds of towns and cities.

In outlining a simple, democratic and efficient plan for the operation of a "Community Chest" the importance of carefully selecting the central committee was emphasized, with the suggestions that the Mayor or the President of the Chamber of Commerce be made the starting point of the organization.

It is not wise to have the central committee composed entirely of heads of the generally recognized welfare agencies, it was stated as difficulties will be encountered in the division of the funds. "Good people can develop factional feeling more easily over 'sweet charity' and 'religion' than other except possibly their neighbors children or their neighbors chickens" the speaker declared.

Mr. Harrison named three groups in a community which should be represented in the management of the Community Chest:— (a) the influential contributors, (b) the men and women who, while not necessarily large contributors, are the backbone of the soliciting organization, (c) the people who actually administer the charitable and social work, thus combining on this board the financial strength and the specialized intelligence.

For the Board of Trustees he suggested one delegate or trustee from each of the social agencies to be elected by the contributors and three to five appointed by the Mayor or chairman, including such men as the President of the Chamber of Commerce, the head of the Pastor's Association, the head of the recognized labor organization, head of the Womens' clubs, and others according to local conditions.

Mr. Harrison advised that the committee to pass on the eligibility of organizations should be selected by the board of trustees as a whole and should be persons not directly connected with any participating organization. Each organization applying for funds should be provided with a form to fill out and sign (copy of suggested one can be secured from Mr. Harrison) and in many cities a detailed financial report is required from each organization it was stated.

The importance of a committee with enough moral courage to turn down an organization which they know is not needed was pointed out.

It was stated that in many large cities the community welfare budget is about $2 per capita while in Wichita Falls efficient service is being rendered for about 80c per capita.

In outlining the handling of a Community Chest Campaign Mr. Harrison spoke of the importance of diligence and care in preparing the lists of prospects and in rating them properly and fairly and of having as campaign chairman a great man of great prestige in the community and strong leadership.

It was suggested that a good plan to follow is "three weeks to prepare and three days to put it over," all budgeting, rating and organization of campaign workers being done in advance.

Suggested methods of "selling" the campaign to the contributing public includes the use of newspaper display space, direct mail advertising, folders and bill boards, and four minute speakers in churches, schools, theatres, local labor organizations, luncheons and other gatherings.

In answering the objection often made to organized charities that "it takes the heart out of charity and that it makes the giving of the 'cup of water in the Savior's name' a matter of card indexes and cash registers," Mr. Harrison said that "while those who map out the campaign may not be impelled by emotion and impulse, there is just as much opportunity for the expression of true charity in giving wisely to those who deserve it as there is in the old fashioned haphazard tossing of a coin to a road side beggar."

"Business men are learning that the function of a good community chest organization is not to toss a coin to a whining beggar and pass on but with tenderness and understanding to try to rehabilitate the poor, the unfortunate and the afflicted and besides giving food and clothes, to repair their lives and make them assets instead of liabilities to the commonwealth.

"And it is in such a work of man building and woman building that you have a part when you engage in a Community Chest Campaign, properly organized and administered."

A clock which was twenty-one years old when George Washington was born is still keeping perfect time in Omaha, and besides recording the hours gives the days of the month, the phases of the moon, and the rise and fall of the tide. It is of the grandfather type.

That New York State boys and girls have improved in bodily efficiency was shown by the results of the fourth annual physical ability tests given by the physical education bureau of the State department of education. ### Slaton Wins Conference Title From Whirlwinds

Score of 13 to 6 is Registered When Heavier Team Wears Down The Whirlwind Defense Line.

Slaton High School won Conference B Championship in Section 1 from Floydada High School Friday afternoon of last week in one of the hardest-fought gridiron battles ever seen on the local gridiron before a crowd estimated at 1,500 people, and on the prettiest football playing day that could be asked. The score was 13 to 6.

With a brisk norther blowing in the forenoon the wind calmed down by the time of play at 3:30 and the chill was just deep enough to make the boys snap into it.

Doped for the weaker team of the two, on account of their weight and inexperience, the Whirlwinds were still fighting against odds when the last whistle blew having started a slashing open field game in an effort to retrieve the loss sustained two minutes before play ended when the Slaton line broke through the F. H. S. defensive and blocked Abbott's swiftly executed punt, and covered behind the goal line. It was a heart-breaking moment for the local lads who had fought a brilliant defensive for the last half of the game, in an effort to keep the score tied.

Playing almost exactly the same type of football, in style of formation and field generalship, Slaton's greater weight and experience in the last five minutes of play was demonstrated thoroughly.

The Green and White got first blood in the first six minutes of play. Henry for F. H. S. won the toss and chose to defend the east goal, kicking to Slaton. On offside the ball was brought back to the 55 yard line and kickoff made to Slaton 14 yard line, the Tigers returning to the 22-yard line. For four downs neither side made their ground, fumbles being costly once each to both, a fumble and fake losing 15 yards for F. H. S. on their last effort, when Abbott kicked to the 20 yard line and the scrimmage line formed on the 25 yard line. Slaton in turn lost the ball. With Green carrying the ball on two line bucks and Bosley on an end run F. H. S. made first downs. Two off tackle plays were followed by a pass which failed. Attempt to kick goal from placement was blocked and Slaton recovered at their 30 yard line. An end run, and two tackle brushes made their first down, but on the next down Slaton fumbled and Henry recovered on the 35 yard line. On the fourth down of their offensive Daily was called back, after an end run, an off-tackle and a pass had gained three yards, and threw forty yards to Green for a gain of 31 yards. He was downed in his tracks but went over the line in the next down on a fake for F. H. S. only score of the game, the kick failing to make the extra point.

After Floydada kicked to Slaton and the scrimmage line formed at the 35-yard line F. H. S. had the better of a punting and open formation battle, quarter closing with the Green and White in possession of the ball on their 52-yard line. Score, F. H. S. 6, Slaton 0.

Again opening a terrific offensive the Whirlwinds carried the ball downfield for 32 yards, with Abbott, Green, Bosley, Henry and Carter carrying the ball in turn on tackle brushes, fakes and bucks, when Slaton intercepted a pass and made downs in two plays, using a buck and fake. F. H. S. holding on the next three plays Slaton punted and Abbott returned the ball to the F. H. S. 30 yard line, the return punt after three efforts at line bucking, giving Slaton the ball on the 42 yard line, a gain of 12 yards. Slaton's poor passing was costly, F.

H. S. recovering a fumble, after a pass had netted the Tigers 10. On fourth down Abbott punted to the Slaton 28 yard line, from which place they carried the ball on tackle brushes short passes and broken field running to the 67-yard line. Here their offensive was blocked and the half ended with the Green and White in possession of the ball on their 33 yard line.

In the opening of the second half the Tigers' line weight began to show its advantages, Slaton kicking to F. H. S. defending the east goal. The line of scrimmage formed on the 20 yard line and Abbott was forced to punt, when end runs and tackle brushes failed to gain ground. It was Slaton's ball on their 47 yard line. In three downs Slaton made 38 yards before a fumble gave F. H. S. the ball on their 10-yard line. Abbott made a good punt but the ball was returned for 20 yards. Using line bucks and off tackle plays exclusively the Tigers made two successive downs, and with four downs and goal to go, used a line buck and fake end run, followed by a criss-cross end run by Preston for goal.

After the kick off the quarter ended with Floydada in possession of the ball on their 40-yard line.

Putting all their effort into an offensive that would have given them commanding position on the score, F. H. S. started down field on end runs, fakes and line bucks at the opening of the fourth quarter, pushing their opponents so closely that when Abbott was forced to punt Wicker was downed in his tracks on the 12-yard line of Slaton, Floydada regaining the ball on the 18-yard line when they returned a poorly placed punt. Carrying the ball on an end run by Bosley, a criss cross by Daily and a line buck by Henry to the 6-yard line, it looked like another score for F. H. S., with four downs to make only six yards. The Slaton line held like a wall against the generalship of the local lads, however, and on 3 downs F. H. S. had made only 1 yard. The fourth, an attempted pass failed and Slaton was given the ball on their 20-yard line.

Carter went out of the game injured, when Kendrick started around end for a long run, gaining eight yards before he was stopped. Another end run netted 10 yards. With bucks, end runs and off tackle plays Slaton carried the ball to the F. H. S. 18 yard line where a fumble cost them 5 yards, and a pass failed. Kick for goal from placement attempted also failed and Floydada recovered the ball on their 22-yard line. A fake, a tackle brush and a line buck failing to gain Abbott stepped back for the punt with only two minutes to play. The punt was blocked, the ball flying high in the air and behind the goal line, where Slaton covered, winning the game. On place kick the extra point was made. Score Slaton 13, F. H. S. 6.

The brief last-minute effort of the Green and White, after Slaton had kicked, was altogether a chance taking aerial game with open formations. Short passes and broken field running carried them to Slaton's 45-yard line. Here the whistle blew as Slaton intercepted a pass, and the game was over. Score Slaton 13, F. H. S. 6.

Referee: Lockhart, Kansas; umpire, Jackson, T. C. U.; head lineman, Allen, Howard Payne.

King, of the linemen for Floydada, did the outstanding line work for the Green and White, and Luttrall, playing open center, repeated his usual excellent performance on defensive. Green, of the backfield, made the best gains for F. H. S. through tackle, line and around ends, Abbott's kicking was good and his punts well-placed. Henry, although still slightly favoring his injured neck, made some good gains through line when called back.

Splawn did fine line work for the Slaton lads with Woolever at quarter and Kendrick, right half their best ground gainers.

Pete Gilpin Alive and Is In South Africa

Several years ago Pete Gilpin, a young scion of the English nobility, came to the ranch country of the southwestern part of the United States and worked as a "hand" on JA Ranch at Clarendon, later also residing at Floydada and Ralls, among friends he made in this section. He was a happy, go-lucky fellow with a winsome disposition and a keen sense of humor. Leaving this country to go to South Africa, he was working on a ranch in Rhodesia when the World War came on. He volunteered for the war and friends in this section were informed, and have believed for a number of years, that he was dead. A recent letter to L. A. Wicks, of Ralls, quoted in the Ralls Banner, puts another face on the matter, however, and far from being dead, it is apparent that Gilpin is still very much alive and has achieved much success. Says the Banner:

L. A. Wicks received a letter this week from Pete Gilpin whom a great many of the old timers here used to know and remember so well. Mr. Gilpin is in the Great Zimbabwe, Southern Rhodesia, South Africa, and manager of the Nuanetsi Ranch which contains 2,705,000 acres of land and pastures 90,000 head of cattle. He is 90 miles from the nearest town and says he goes up about three times per year.

Mr. Gilpin, his friends will remember, went from Ralls to Africa just before the breaking out of the Great War. He at once went to England and obtained his commission and served as an officer in the English Armies in France until the close of the conflict and was a member of the Army of Occupation in Germany. In 1919 he was discharged and went immediately back to Africa to his old position. He was wounded once and gassed twice but says he is now as sound as ever. Mr. Gilpin says the big game shooting is fine over there and inclosed a photograph of a lion he had recently shot, and also one of himself and wife, he having recently married. Mr. Wicks communicated these facts to the Banner thinking they might be of interest to Mr. Gilpin's many friends in this country.

Films Tell Vivid Picture of Mining Processes

Educational Picture Films Available Through Extension Service on Many Phases of Industry.

A series of educational motion picture films, which depict in a most striking manner the processes employed in the mining, preparation and utilization of the various mineral materials, is available for distribution in Texas by the Visual Instruction Division of the University of Texas, at Austin. These films, which were produced by the Department of the Interior, through the Bureau of Mines, in cooperation with the larger industrial concerns, tell the story of the workings of the nation's tremendous mineral industries in a much more vivid and colorful manner than is possible through the medium of any printed page. Another series of films preaches the doctrine of 'safety first' by showing safe and unsafe methods of mining and metallurgical practice.

Nearly a hundred educational films have been prepared in the past few years by the Bureau of Mines in cooperation with industrial concerns. The demand for these films for showing by educational institutions, churches, civic bodies and other organizations has become so great that the original plan of centralized distribution from the Pittsburgh Experiment Station of the Bureau of Mines has become inadequate. A selected list of the best of these films is now made available at distribution centers located in the different states. The films relate to coal, petroleum, sulphur, iron, asbestos, zinc, marble, copper, natural gas, and other minerals. A series of films depicts most interestingly such industrial processes as the manufacture of oxygen, the making of fire-clay refractories, the manufacture of automobiles, the methods of compressing air, the quarrying of limestone, etc. Other films illustrate dangerous and safe practices in mining, efficiency in the combustion of coal, the utilization of water power, and the operation of a gasoline motor.

The Visual Instruction Division of the University of Texas has available for exhibition purposes more than 150 different motion picture films and approximately 200 sets of lantern slides, with about 15,000 separate slides. This highly interesting educational material was exhibited in the past final year to more than 3000 audiences with a total attendance of about 800,000 persons. The material is in great demand by schools, parent-teachers associations, Y. M. C. A.'s and other organizations.

Full details as to the procedure necessary to obtain these industrial and educational motion picture films, which comprises a wealth of material from other sources besides the Bureau of Mines, may be obtained by addressing the Visual Instruction Division, Bureau of Extension, University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

All shipments made by the Florida Citrus Exchange this fall and winter will be inspected at shipping points under Federal-State inspection. The exchange is reported as controlling about 60 per cent of the tonnage of the State, or approximately 30,000 carloads of citrus fruits. Shipments will start some time between September 15 and October 1.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB SAND HILL-HARMONY DIVIDED

Sand Hill-Harmony Demonstration Club met Wednesday afternoon, November 5, in the home of Mrs. M. E. Scott with fourteen present. Our president, Mrs. A. R. Hanna, presided over the business session; some very important business was discussed. The question of dividing the two communities into two separate clubs was discussed from several view points and it was decided that we organize a club in each community. The ladies of the Harmony Community will meet at the home of Mrs. Floyd Trowbridge, November 18, third Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The ladies of the Sand Hill Community will meet in the home of Mrs. M. B. Holmes, November 19, third Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Every woman in each community is urged to be present at the meeting of her own club. There will be some very important business to attend to and we want everyone to feel that it is her Club and to help in every way possible.

We were very much interested in the making of the dress form. We hope to make dress forms for every one who wishes one in the near future. When the dress form was finished Mrs. Scott invited us all out to the back yard where we enjoyed a bountiful watermelon feast.—Reporter.

HOMES BECOME EFFICIENT WHEN BUSINESS WOMEN WED

The modern tendency is to operate the home according to the same business principles as the office, say students of domestic science. If this is actually realized it is said divorce statistics in the next few years will show a material decrease and marriage statistics a proportionate increase.

The woman who has been used to the personal freedom of business life, and especially to the efficient time and labor-saving methods of office routine, has been particularly sold on the idea. Instead of cramping her life in the routine of domestic drudgery, as she has always feared, she is now able to embrace the responsibilities of marriage without taking on the crushing burden of her grandmother's household worries says the Texas Public Information Bureau.

The kitchen is the best example of the new trend. The business woman knows that the comfort and prestige of a business demands a neat, well-furnished, conveniently arranged office. For his convenience, the business man must have mechanical office aids, a typewriter, perhaps a stenographer, an adding machine, filing cabinets, card index, electric fan for the hot days, and a heater for the cold days. And he comes home at night "all worn out with the hard day's work" expecting to find his wife, who has been laboring with inefficient or defective stoves, furnaces, lights, carpet sweepers, etc., ready to greet him as fresh as the new born rose.

The new woman has changed all that. She loves her home as much as ever, and probably appreciates it even more. But she demands and gets for her kitchen at least the same consideration as her husband gives to his office.

Health Stressed in Christmas Seal Design

Austin, Texas.—The Christmas seal of 1924 departs from the usual type of design. Instead of stressing the Christmas idea, it stresses the health and educational appeal. The design depicts knowledge enlightening the world as to the dangers of tuberculosis. Resting her hand upon the shield of the double-barred cross she indicates that she is defending the world against tuberculosis. This is a happy symbolism of the tuberculosis movement in its preventive activities.

The design is admirably executed by Mr. George V. Curtis of New York City. Mr. Curtis is an artist of international reputation. For over sixty years, since boyhood, he has been drawing and painting. He spent a very large part of his life in France, at Barbizon, the headquarters of the famous Millet school. As a painter of landscapes and portraits he gained an enviable reputation both in Europe and in this country. Many of his paintings have been exhibited in Paris and other European and American galleries. He has made a special study of the Christmas seal idea and has designed two seals besides the one for 1924.

Thirty two million of these seals have been ordered by the Texas Public Health Association and will be used all over the State during the month of December to raise funds for the campaign against tuberculosis.

Legion to Organize Congressional Unit

SUCCESSFUL BOX SUPPER FRIDAY AT SAND HILL

The money realized from the box supper will be used for the library and the playground equipment.

Makes Success; Sells Insurance to Neighbors

Seven years ago R. E. Fry, of this city, got his first contract to sell life insurance for the Southwestern Life Insurance Company. He began selling among his neighbors and friends and since has continued to do so. The first year he made the "$50,000 Club," having sold $50,000 worth of insurance in the year. The following four years he put $100,000 a year on the books of the company, making the "$100,000 Club" each time.

The past year he kept growing and put $200,000 worth of business on the company's books by his efforts, and with the aid of sub-agents ran above $300,000.

This all happened in Floydada trade territory, and is a pretty good argument for more intensive application to the job you have available rather than to seek "greener pastures."

Sone Praises Sportsmanship of F.H.S. Boys

C. L. Sone, Superintendent of the Slaton Public Schools, is hearty in his praise of the sportsmanship displayed in the football game between the boys of the Slaton High School and the Floydada High School. In a letter this week to J. J. Wilson, superintendent of this school, Mr. Sone expressed regret that he was unable to see the latter while here with his boys, and speaking of the game he continued:

"It was one of the best games I ever saw. It had its breaks and the score hardly represented the teams' playing. What I mean is it was a game filled with true sportsmanship. It was hard-fought, but I saw nothing that indicated any disposition to play in an unfair manner."

"I am delighted that young men can be brought to this degree of fair play, even when so much seems to be at stake. This cannot be done unless the school and coaches stand for the right."

"I wish to compliment your boys for their manly conduct. I sincerely hope that these fine relations will continue to exist between our schools."

Kidney Dishes Offer Chance For Change

Don't you ever get tired of just old steak and roast, and long and long for a change; and then you wonder what in the world you could fix that would taste different, and be dainty and appetizing too. Have you ever tried fixing beef or lamb kidneys? Now don't sniff. There are so many ways of making really delicious dishes from this good and wholesome part of the animal that it is astonishing people do not use kidney recipes more than they do. Maybe it is not universally known just how to prepare them. Maybe you personally think you won't like kidneys simply because you have never tasted them or have heard others talk of them in derision.

Below are printed some recipes for cooking kidneys that are guaranteed to please:

- Stewed Kidneys on Toast
2 lambs' kidneys (beef kidney can be used).
2 cups water, 2 slices onion, 4 slices toast, 2 teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour.
Remove thin skin from kidneys and cut in small pieces; soak in cold water to cover for one hour. Drain, add two cups water and onion, and simmer until kidneys are tender. Melt butter, add flour and seasonings, and thicken water in which kidneys were cooked; cook five minutes. Arrange kidneys on toast, and strain sauce over them. Serve immediately.
- Broiled Kidneys
2 lambs' kidneys (beef kidney can be used). 4 tablespoons cracker crumbs, 2 tablespoons butter melted, salt, pepper and lemon juice.
Remove the thin skin from the kidneys, and cut in one fourth inch slices. Wash, soak in salted water one half hour. Drain, season, dip in butter, then in crumbs, and broil five minutes. Serve on hot platter with Maitre d'Hotel Butter.
- Maitre d'Hotel Butter.
3 tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 3 tablespoons parsley, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon paprika, cayenne.
Cream the butter and add remaining ingredients.
- Kidneys en Brochette
Cut kidney in quarter-inch slices. Season with salt and pepper, dip in olive oil. Arrange on a skewer with alternating slices of bacon.
Dip in oil, in bread crumbs, and broil over a clear fire or else fry in butter. Serve with or without Poquants Sauce.
- Piquante Sauce
3 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1½ cups brown stock, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped chives, 1 tablespoon chopped pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped olives, 1 tablespoon chopped pickle, 1 tablespoon capers.
2 Tablespoons Vinegar.
Brown the butter; add the flour; when browned, add stock. Cook chives, capers, pickles, olives and pepper in vinegar five minutes. Add to sauce and simmer twenty minutes.
- Kidney Omelet.
2 eggs, 2 tablespoons hot water or hot milk, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter.
Beat eggs well; add salt and milk. Melt butter in frying pan; add egg mixture; shake pan vigorously until egg begins to brown on under side; then let it stand until golden brown, on part of range where it will not burn. If moist on top place in oven to dry. Before folding omelet add stewed kidneys highly seasoned.

McDermett Post's 5th Banquet Informal Affair

McDermett Post No. 118 American Legion held its fifth Annual Banquet last Tuesday evening to celebrate Armistice Day. The banquet was held at the White Rose Cafe with some 57 in attendance. This was not so good an attendance as in former years but yet was a fair showing considering the big Armistice Celebration at Lubbock that attracted so many legionnaires to that city during the day.

A very interesting program was arranged for the evening's entertainment and T. R. Webb as Toastmaster held sway in his usual affable and gracious manner.

The first toast of the evening was by John Reagan "To the Ladies" and was disposed of in original poetical form.

"Here's to women
To sweethearts, to wives,
The delight of our fireside
By night and by day;
Who never do anything wrong in their lives,
Except when permitted to have their way."

Following this toast were songs by Elmer Wood. His first number was "Indiana Moon"; his second number "Every Night I Cry Myself to Sleep Over You", dedicated to and sung especially for Bob McGuire. Mrs. Calvin Steen assisted at the piano.

The next toast "To the Boys" was charmingly answered by Mrs. E. C. Nelson, Jr., a young matron of much versatility.

Mrs. Ford Butler read heart-stirring "Flanders Field" and gave as an encore "Biblical Names".

In his toast "To the Mothers" E. C. Nelson, Jr. rendered a beautiful and noble tribute to the mothers of all time.

Following the more formal part of the program were some five minute talks that were of a decidedly informal nature.

S. O. Adams, an honored guest of the evening and splendid old veteran of the Civil War was called upon to make a few remarks and he reminisced in a very interesting way. As a boy of 16 he joined the Confederate Army and declared that no matter whatever hardships he had ever encountered in his war experience he always could find something to laugh about.

John Reagan then in a brief speech urged all those who were eligible to join the Legion immediately so that they might join under the present rate, which rate is to be increased as soon as the Club House of the Post is completed.

The toastmaster requested J. V.

Daniel to talk for a few minutes on the subject "How to Sell Seven Cocoanuts for a Dime." Mr. Daniel declared he thought the subject a very fair one, and that nothing could keep him from discoursing on the same except that he felt he must acknowledge through his innate sense of modesty that there was a man just a little better able to discuss this burning question on account of a wide range of experience along these lines, so he called upon Kight Dickey to bear the burden of the discourse. Mr. Dickey in his forceful manner disposed of the matter in this wise: "It can't be done. I just wouldn't sell 'em that way—seven cocoanuts for a dime."

This question "Is It Sensible to Believe 40 percent of what Your Husband Tells You?" was asked of Mrs. Calvin Steen and she answered that she didn't think it was either sensible or safe to believe even one per cent. The toastmaster remarked that this didn't speak very well for Calvin.

Jack Henry got a hard problem when T. R. Webb gave him this one: "Why Is It That Every Girl Who Goes With John Reagan Marries Some Other Fellow?" He agreed that the proposition was all too true, but confessed that he really could not answer this question. The matter remained unsolved for some time until Reagan himself offered this as the reason. "You see, the reason I haven't married is because I'm afraid when I do that all the other girls that I don't marry will get mad at me."

This seemed a right proper solution.

R. E. Fry spoke a few words concerning his feeling towards the boys who fought in the War and the American Legion, and expressed an earnest desire to become an Associate member of the legion should he prove worthy of that honor.

T. R. Webb concluded the program outlining in a brief way the purposes, aims and ideals of the American Legion and what especially McDermett Post is trying to mean to its community. Soon the Post will have its Club built and when it is ready Associate Members are to be welcomed in to enjoy its benefits and privileges.

The entire company sang "America" before being dismissed.
