In Brief

Rabies threat

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - A rabies epidemic has spread to four counties west of here and eventually could threaten San Antonio, a state health official said.

The epidemic mainly has affected the fox population, but rabies cases have been confirmed in dogs, skunks, cows, goats and horses, said Dr. Keith Clark, director of the state's zoonosis control division

Sixteen rabies cases have been confirmed in animals in Uvalde County in the past 14 months, while Val Verde County has recorded 20 cases, Edwards County has had four and Kinney County has had three.

Walesa meets

WASHINGTON (AP) -Polish President Lech Walesa met today with Commerce Secretary Robert Mosbacher and the chiefs of more than a dozen major American corporations in a pitch for investment in his country's struggling economy. At the close of a state visit to Washington, Walesa set about on the primary mission of his eight-day U.S. tour, trying to persuade U.S. business that the climate is right for building new private industry in Poland.

'Vigilante cop' case subject of NBC film

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - A made-for-television movie airing Sunday night is based on the story of a San Antonio police officer allegedly responsible for a vigilante crime spree in the 1980s.

"Shoot First: A Cop's Vengeance" will air at 8 p.m. CST on NBC. It is the story of the late Stephen Smith, a San Antonio police officer suspected in a series of vigilante killings, network officials said.

The movie highlights the friendship between Smith and fellow officer Farrell Tucker and stars Alex McArthur as Smith and Dale Midkiff as Tucker.

Tucker shot Smith to death in August 1986 after Smith became a suspect in the vigilante slayings. Tucker, indicted by a grand

Tigers face Lions in non-district tilt

BROWNWOOD — The Snyder Tigers will wrap up the 1991 nondistrict baseball season with a 1 p.m. battle against Brownwood here Saturday

The Tigers, now 3-12 on the campaign, are coming off a 7-3, 10inning loss to Brownfield Tuesday.

Snyder held a 2-1 lead with two outs in the seventh at Moffett Field Tuesday night, when an error by pitcher Daniel Espinosa allowed the Cubs to tie the game.

Brownfield pushed five runs across in the top of the 10th to notch the victory

Brownwood captured third place in the recent Snyder Baseball Tournament by beating Pecos, 6-5, and Borger, 15-1, before dropping an 8-7 decision to eventual tourney champion Andrews.

Lamesa was the Lions' victim in the third-place contest as Brownwood hammered out a 10-2 win. Espinosa is expected to draw the start for the Tigers Saturday. Brownwood's Jes Rathke will probably be on the hill for the 11-3 Lions Snyder begins District 2-4A competition next Thursday as the Tigers travel to take on No. 10 Frenship.

Snyder net squad travels to tourney

Following a week off for Spring Break, Snyder's tennis team will return to the courts for a 3-way team-format tournament with Sweetwater and San Angelo Lake View in Sweetwater Saturday.

The Tigers' last appearance was at their own Snyder Team Tennis Tournament March 9 when both the boys and girls placed fifth in a tough field of competitors.

As a team, the SHS boys gathered 45 points and finished behind Abilene Cooper's JV, which scored 55, Big Spring's 53, 49 from Lamesa and Sweetwater's 48.

Marcus Best, Snyder No. 1 boys singles player, came in second at the tourney winning three straight matches before dropping a 6-1, 6-4 decision to Cooper's Michael Thomas in the finals

Damon Kennedy and Jim Pat Griffin notched a seventh-place finish in boys doubles with their 2-2 mark.

The Lady Tigers accumulated 34 points two weeks ago to finish behind Lamesa with 54, 50 from Abilene JV, Big Spring's 49 and a total of 46 from Cooper's JV girls.

Christina Gonzales wound up in 11th place in girls singles by registering a 1-3 record.

Girls doubles squad Gayle Henderson and Rachel Wilson earned third place at the event with their 3-1 record.

Snyder's next competition will be at the Lubbock Tournament March 29-30.

Seton Hall gets the next chance to end-the Runnin' Rebels perfect season. The Pirates got 28 points from Terry Dehere to beat Arizona 81-77 in the first semifinal game at the Kingdome in Seattle, where they lost the national championship game to Michigan two years ago after humiliating UNLV 84-61 in the West final.

"I know we'll be fired up," said UNLV point guard Greg Anthony, one of several Rebels who were on the team that lost to Seton Hall. "We suffered our most embarrassing loss when we played them. I was praying we would get the chance to meet them again. It will be the biggest game of my career.'

One player who wasn't there was forward Larry Johnson. He had 15 of his 23 points in the second half as the Runnin' Rebels pulled away from Utah.

Johnson was in junior college when the Rebels and Pirates last met.

"This time I think I can make the difference," the 6-foot-7 power forward said.

"It doesn't help us that we beat them two years ago," Seton Hall coach P.J. Carlesimo said. "They'll want to get back at us more.

Angel Miller, of Garland, streaked to a 3.5 time in Thursday's breakaway roping to garner first place points.

Joining Miller are roughstock specialists Darren Cook and Ben-Fontenot and steer wrestler Brad Loesch.

Cook, a Townsville, Australia native, scored a second-place 67 last night in bull riding.

Teammate Fontenot, of Reeves, La., grabbed third as a saddle bronc rider, after one round, with his 59 score.

Loesch's 8.8 second clocking in steer wrestling leaves the Ft. Worth cowboy in second position going into tonight's round.

Glaspie grilled by Hamilton

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Bush administration failed to heed a series of signs that Iraq was turning increasingly hostile in the months before its invasion of Kuwait, a senior congressional Democrat is charging.

"I get the impression that no one in the high levels of policy making at the State Department was paying much attention to Iraq until the end of July, 1990," said Rep. Lee Hamilton, D-Ind., chairman of the Foreign Affairs Middle East subcommittee.

Hamilton came to that conclusion after nearly four hours of tough questioning of former U.S. Ambassador to Baghdad April Glaspie, who came to Capitol Hill Thursday for a second day of testimony

"I get the impression that during those six or eight months prior to August 2, Iraq's policy changed, and changed in a very negative way toward the United States," Hamilton said, citing a series of hostile moves by President Saddam Hussein.

"But U.S. policy did not change," he said. "The warning bells went off, but nobody in Washington was listening.'

Glaspie defended the State Department and insisted U.S. policy makers were well aware of the deteriorating state of relations with Iraq through the first half of last year.

She said: "I really reject the notion that our policy didn't change" in response to Saddam's threats against Israel, the execution of a British journalist and the attempted smuggling of nuclear weapons trigger devices.

The grilling from Hamilton's panel was in marked contrast to the gentle questioning Glaspie underwent a day earlier before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Hamilton hammered at what he contended was confused American public diplomacy, citing statements by State Department spokeswoman Margaret Tutwiler and Assistant Secretary of State John Kelly that the United States had "no special defense or security commitments to Kuwait."

"It is a record which confused me, confused this subcommittee and it is not unreasonable to think it might have confused Saddam Hussein as well," Hamilton told the diplomat.

Missouri Mom Shows Ex Must Pay Half of Kids' College Costs

By Abigail Van Buren

1991 Universal Press Syndicat

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter in your column from a minister who is "flat broke" and doesn't thinkit's fair that he has to pay college tuition for his two children who live with his ex-wife.

Abby, you should have checked with the Missouri Bar Association before you told him that "nowhere is it written that a parent who is flat broke must pay to put his children through college." No doubt my exhusband, on reading your reply, will be on the phone with his attorney, quoting you.

Please be assured that it is written somewhere. My ex would do anything he thought he could get away with to avoid supporting his children. He presently works in a job paying one-third of his former annual income so that he could "poormouth" to the judge when it came time for the court to order him to pay support. The judge can't force him to get a job at the salary he is capable of earning as long as he's employed somewhere full time. Guess who loses in this situation?

In Missouri, the non-custodial parent who pays child support must pay the equivalent of half the total cost of state university for four years - tuition, room and board, books no matter where the student matriculates.

ST. LOUIS WOMAN

DEAR WOMAN: I'll take your word for it. Who said it's a man's world? It's not - if he's the noncustodial parent and lives in Missouri.

DEAR ABBY: One of my best friends, "Julia," has moved far away, and we keep in touch by telephone. My problem: Julia has a 3-year-old son, and every time we talk, she puts "Kenny" on the phone to say hello and chat a while. She does this so the rest of the time he will be quiet and hopefully we can talk without his whining.

Kenny is a very bright boy, but once he's on the phone he doesn't want to get off, and I find this very irritating. This has annoyed me for over a year now, so I finally wrote to Julia asking her not to put Kenny on the phone every time we talk. She was highly offended and said I didn't understand her life or I wouldn't have made such an insensitive request

Abby, my children are grown now, but when they were young, I never put them on the phone to talk to any of my friends unless they requested

I'd like to add that all during Julia's conversations with me, Kenny keeps interrupting to get his mother's attention — and when she sends him away and asks him to please be quiet, he makes all kinds of disruptive noises just to bug her.

Abby, was I out of line to request this courtesy? JULIA'S FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: No, but some proud parents have tunnel vision where their children are concerned. A quick "hi" and then "goodbye" would not be considered an imposition by any responsible adult, but in your case, I think I smell a very spoiled child. And his name is Kenny.

Dr. Gott Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: For the past year, my 10-year-old daughter has had a problem with urinary incontinence. Within minutes upon standing after urination, she experiences an involuntary release. Urinalysis is negative, but the problem persists. Could it be anatomical

DEAR READER: Yes, it could. The sequence of events you describe suggests to me that your daughter may be unable to empty her bladder completely; then, when she stands, the internal sphincter - one of two rings of muscle controlling urination - relaxes, leading to incontinence

Pediatric urology is a complex subspecialty because children's urological problems are often unique and result from congenital abnormalities of the genito-urinary tract. Therefore, I urge you to have your daughter examined by such a specialist.

After appropriate examination, which should include an IVP (kidney X-ray) and cystoscopy (during which the specialist introduces, a lighted instrument into the bladder), the doctor will be able to advise you about treatment.

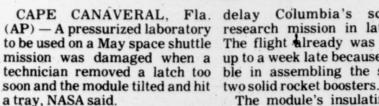

To give you more information, I am sending you free copies of my Health Reports "Kidney Disorders" and "Bladder." Other readers who would like copies should send $1.25 for each report to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title(s).

DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband has leukoplakia. The areas in his mouth become large and tender but never go away completely. Is there a medication you would recommend for treatment?

DEAR READER: Leukoplakia are flat, painless, pearly-white irregular skin lesions in the mouth, commonly caused by tobacco products. In the past, dentists and doctors were incorrectly taught that leukoplakia are pre-cancerous; this is not true: Less than 5 percent ultimately prove to be malignant. Skin cancers in the mouth appear most often as red, inflamed areas.

Because your husband's lesions are large and tender, they should be biopsied because skin malignancies may exist adjacent to (or beneath) such areas. To my knowledge, there is no medicine that will cure leukoplakia or mouth cancer. Your husband should be examined by an oral surgeon. © 1991 NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN

Sen. Montford represents the 28th Senatorial District, including 14 counties in West Texas and the Permian Basin. He is the immediate past chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee. He currently serves on the Administration, Health and Human Services, and Jurisprudence committees. In addition, he is one of ten members of the Legislative Budget Board which drafts the proposed state budget for recommendation to the Legislature. He is a member of the Legislative Audit Committee, the Legislative Criminal Justice Board, the Legislative Education Board, the Legislative Reference Library, the Transportation Audit Committee, the Southwest Energy Council, the Texas-Israel Exchange, Program, and is one of three Texans serving on the Western States Water Council.

Interim House/Senate joint committees on which he serves are the Study of the Edwards Aquifer and the Special Joint Committee on Insurance Regulation. His legislative achievements include the sponsorship and passage of a statewide water plan, civil justice reform, insurance reform, and reform of the worker's compensation system.

Sen. Montford received his bachelor's degree at the University of Texas in 1965 and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from the university in 1968. He also attended Northwestern University School of Law in Chicago. In 1989, Sen. Montford received an honorary doctorate of law degree from Lubbock Christian University in recognition of his support of higher education in Texas. He is a charter member of the Dean's Roundtable of the University of Texas School of Law.

Following his completion of law school, Sen. Montford began active duty in the United States Marine Corps (1968-71). He was a trial/defense counsel before the General Court Martial, was appointed Military Judge by the Judge Advocate General of the United States Navy, and was Chief Prosecutor, Force Troops, Fleet Marine Forces. He has served as the commanding officer of the Lubbock Marine Reserve Unit.

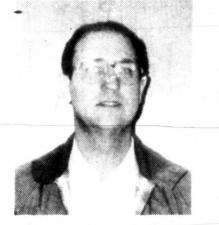

Sen. Montford is married to the former Debra Kay Mears of Friona, Texas. They have three children: Melinda, Melonie and John Ross.

Vestal Award

The City of Snyder established the Vestal Award — also known as the Mayor's Award and dedicated to the memory of William A. Vestal — in December of 1976.

The honor was created two months after the death of Vestal on Oct. 12, 1976. He died at the age of 56 while serving his second term as the city's mayor.

The award's purpose is to recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to the total development of Snyder through cultural, economic or governmental activities.

Vestal was elected mayor on April 2, 1974 after two terms as a councilman, being first elected in 1970.

He was a 25-year resident of Snyder, first as a petroleum engineer and later as the owner of his own independent oil consulting firm.

He is credited with being the first to calculate when Scurry County would produce its billionth barrel of oil. He later served as one of the planners for the ensuing "Billionth Barrel of Oil" celebration here in 1973.

Past recipients of the Vestal Award include Roger Mize in 1977; H.W. Cargile in 1978; Henry Clark in 1979; R.C. Patton in 1980; Ernie Sears in 1981; Elizabeth Potts in 1982; Don Newbury in 1983; John Jarrell in 1984; Bill J. Hood in 1985; Bill and Evelyn Davies in 1986; Donna Fowler in 1987; Miller Robinson in 1988; Jack Smartt in 1989 and Sam Robertson in 1990.

McLaughlin Award

The McLaughlin Award — originally known as the McLaughlin Oil Award and named for C.T. McLaughlin — was begun in 1977 by the family of the Scurry County oil man, rancher, political figure, art collector and philanthropist.

The criteria for the award's presentation has been the individual's significant contribution to the oil industry in Snyder and Scurry County — characteristics attributed to the award's namesake.

McLaughlin died here July 29, 1975 at the age of 78. He was originally from Pennsylvania and had adopted Texas as his home state for 40 years prior to his death.

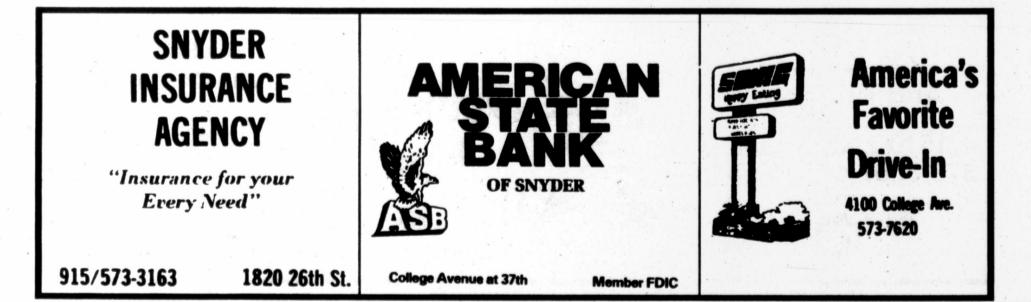

home state for 40 years prior to his death. He developed oil field producing properties under his Diamond M emblem which was the trademark for his ranching interests and the Diamond M Foundation.

During his life, he held high posts in both state and national Democratic Party organizations to include serving as chairman of the Texas Department of Public Safety Commission.

His philanthropic interests were as varied as his business ones. At the time of his death he was serving as vice president of the board of directors of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame.

The annual chamber banquet was an important time for McLaughlin as he hosted a range of distinguished guests to appear as its principal speaker.

Past recipients of the award named in his honor include Edith McKanna in 1977; Ike Dolen Jr. in 1978; C.W. Lantrip in 1979; Dalton Walton in 1980; John Fagin in 1981; M.L. Duke in 1982; David Hines in 1983; E.D. Walton in 1984; Ed Mlcak in 1985; Harold Lacik in 1986; Jimmy Thompson in 1987; M. Derald Lambert in 1988; Mairl McFaul in 1989 and Cloyce Talbott in 1990.

Winston Award

The annual Snyder Chamber of Commerce award which rewards achievement in agriculture was begun in 1974 to honor Scurry County rancher Harrie Winston.

Winston passed away on Jan. 19, 1974 — only some two weeks prior to the annual spring banquet for that year. On Jan. 27, chamber officials announced the first annual Harrie Winston Memorial Award.

Winston and his brother Wade were one of the early benefactors for Scurry County facilities. Winston Field airport, formally dedicated here on Sept. 27, 1953, was named after them.

During Harrie Winston's life, he was an active chamber supporter, serving as its second president. Overall, his work with the chamber dated over a half century.

On Feb. 2, 1974, the first memorial award was presented to Snyder High School FFA sponsor and ag teacher Billy Bob McMullan. He repeated as a winner at his retirement in 1986.

Criteria for the honor includes persons engaged in agriculture — farming or ranching — who demonstrate leadership and progressiveness.

Since 1974, those who have received the award include Bentley Baize, 1975; Don Gray and Morris Light, 1977; Carl Williams, 1978; Milton Stephens, 1979; Johnny Richardson, 1980; Tommy Pate, 1981; Billy Earl Roach, 1982; David Kattes, 1983; Donald Tate, 1984; Fred Cross, 1985; Billy Bob McMullan, 1986; Charlie Henderson, 1987; Harold (Pete) Hester, 1968; Terry "Butch" Nachlinger, 1989; and Max von Roeder, 1990.

Sizemore Award

The Sizemore Award — formerly known as the Goldcoater of the Year award — was renamed in 1984 in honor of the late Paul Sizemore.

He died on Oct. 4, 1983 at the age of 76.

Sizemore was a four-time recipient of the Goldcoater of the Year Award. It is presented to the Goldcoater who tallies the most points according to a Goldcoat bylaw point system.

Points are given based on participation in Goldcoat functions, community service and chamber support.

Sizemore had also served as president of both the chamber of commerce and the Scurry County Industrial Foundation.

In 1969, he was among the group of local citizens which presented Snyder as an "All American City" to the panel of judges in New Orleans — an honor the city won.

He was also active in the local Lions Club and the Scurry County Historical Commission.

He was the owner of Arrow Construction, which he sold in August of 1972 upon his retirement.

As the Goldcoater of the Year award, winners date to 1976, when Sizemore was its first recipient. He won the honor again in 1979, 1980 and in 1982. Other recipients have been R.C. Patton, 1981; and Wedge Turner, 1983.

As the Sizemore Award, its first recipient in 1984 was Jack McGlaun. In 1985, Jim Tully was honored with Jack McGlaun again receiving the award in 1986. In 1987, Bob Hawes, was the winner and, in 1988, Bill Davies was honored. Sam Robertson and Phil Ragland were the 1989 Sizemore Award winners. Ragland was chosen again in 1990.

Sparklers Award

Organized June 2, 1987, the Sparklers are volunteer chamber women who serve as hostesses for chamber and civic activities.

The award is earned on a point system by attending meetings and serving at various functions. Sparklers is open to any woman interested in donating her time to civic activities. The first Sparklers Award was given in 1990 to Betty House.

Educational Excellence Award

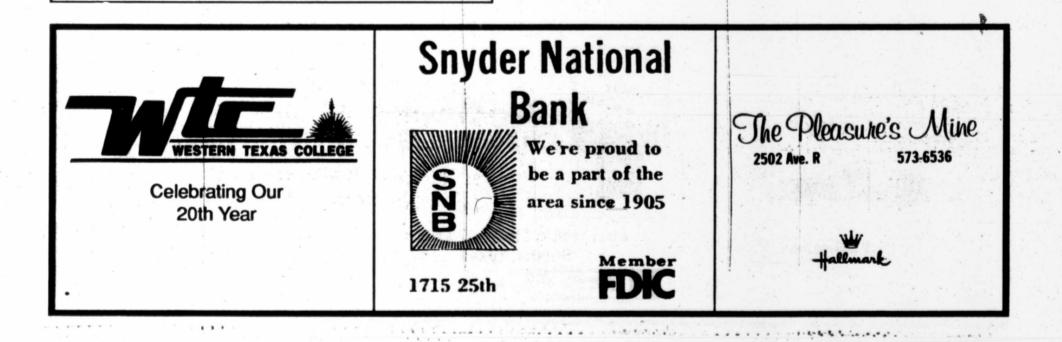

A new award was added in 1988 to the chamber banquet's annual honors — a plaque to recognize lifetime achievement in the field of teaching for Snyder public schools.

The first recipient of this award was high school instructor Ollie Peek.

The education award is presented by the Snyder-based group pledged to support academic activities for Snyder ISD, the Council for Educational Excellence.

The council award is to recognize "an educator's careerlong commitment to Snyder public schools."

Nominations for the honor are solicited by the group through its newsletter and by individual contacts within the school system. Florence Lewis was the 1989 winner. Bobbie Combest received the award in 1990.

SNYDER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

An invitation to membership in the Snyder Chamber of Commerce is not a request for a donation. When you join the Chamber, you're making an investment on which you get assured returns. Therefore you not only CAN afford to belong, but facts are available to show that you CAN'T AFFORD NOT TO BELONG TO THE ORGANIZATION WHOSE ROSTER CARRIES THE NAMES OF Snyder & Scurry Co.'s most prominent and progressive firms and individuals. The Snyder Chamber of Commerce needs you NOW. Our program to build a better community for us all can't wait next week, next month or next year.

Snyder & Scurry Co. have many worthwhile organizations, but your Chamber of Commerce is the only business group whose interests and objectives are county wide in scope. Who else is so well-equipped to tackle the myraid problems in which every merchant, every business man, every citizen has an interest? YOU need the Snyder Chamber of Commerce and it needs YOU! Your opportunity lies in furnishing a fair share of the finances and manpower that are indispensable to the Chamber's effort to build a better tomorrow for us all.
