A—A city council appointed five-member board, yet to be named, will administer the funds if the issue is passed in the Jan. 18 election. The council will have a workshop on the issue Oct. 29 in which it is expected to discuss candidates for the board.

In Brief

To move trial

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — A state district judge granted a change of venue today in the sexual assault trial of a Lubbock man accused of raping his retarded sister-in-law.

Jimmy Wayne Wooten, 41, breathed a visible sigh of relief after Judge Blair Cherry granted a motion by defense lawyers to move the trial out of Lubbock.

Wooten is accused of raping Debra Lynn Thomas, his 34-year-old sister-in-law, and fathering her son, David Lynn Thomas.

Miss Thomas is a former Lubbock State School resident who has the IQ of a 2-year-old.

Abortion ruling

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal appeals court upheld most of Pennsylvania's strict abortion law, moving it closer to a test in the U.S. Supreme Court that could be the undoing of Roe vs. Wade.

In its ruling Monday, a three-judge panel of the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals largely reversed a lower court decision and held that the 1989 restrictions do not "unduly burden" women who want to terminate a pregnancy.

"It makes perfectly clear the courts are no longer going to protect a woman's right to access abortion," lamented state Sen. Allyson Y. Schwartz, a Democrat from Philadelphia.

Mary Beliveau of the Pennsylvania Pro-Life Federation said, "It's a great day for parents and women."

SHS band to march at region in Lubbock

Band director Walter Reneau is looking for and expecting a good performance when Snyder High School competes in the UIL Regional 4A Marching Contest Wednesday in Lubbock's Jones Stadium.

"Someone said Snyder has 37 years of first divisions in marching. We have a lot of tradition to uphold there," said Reneau, whose 130-member band is to open the Class 4A competition at noon.

The Class 3A competition begins at 9 a.m. and the Class 5A contest is scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

Other schools entered in Class 4A are Lubbock Estacado, Levelland, Frenship and Lamesa — all from District 2-4A. All marching bands which receive a first division rating will advance to the UIL Area contest on Nov. 2, also at Jones Stadium.

Two Class 4A bands from the area will eventually be chosen to go on to state competition.

Snyder High School's seven-and-a-half-minute show will open with the Byrds' "I Can See For Miles," followed by a percussion feature entitled "At Your Disposal," a dance tune called "Troy The Fox" and the Kenny Rogers ballad "She Believes In Me." (see BAND, page 8)

Oakland fire estimates...

14 dead, 1,800 homes burned

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — The city raised to at least 1,800 its estimate of the number of houses destroyed by a brush fire that left at least 14 people dead and reduced neighborhoods in Oakland and Berkeley to smoking ruins. The Red Cross said Monday night that it surveyed 55 percent of the burned area on foot and counted 1,800 houses and 442 apartment units destroyed.

Deborah Reisman, spokeswoman for the Oakland Office of Emergency Services, said the city had adopted that block-by-block count as its own. Earlier Monday the agency had said more than 400 houses were destroyed in the two communities.

The 1,800-acre fire was one of the worst in U.S. history, rivaling the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. The city put damage at $1.5 billion before its estimate of houses destroyed was raised. It had no new estimate of the cost.

The blaze, which fed on brush parched by fire years of drought, was ignited by wind-tossed embers from a smaller fire Saturday, said fire Capt. Charlie Fasso. The fire was reported contained at dawn Monday, and firefighters battled hot spots today.

Thousands of residents who spent Sunday night in shelters ventured home Monday.

"I lost the house I raised my children in. I lost the house I married my husband in," City Councilwoman Marge Gibson Haskell sobbed.

The death toll rose to 14 on Monday, Mayor Elihu Harris said at a news conference. At least six other people were reported missing. City and state officials also said nearly 150 people were injured and 5,000 evacuated.

Reisman said the discrepancy in the city's estimates of homes destroyed was "just a question of getting information filtered through."

"This is an area that's very hilly so residential development is not as predictable as, say, in a tract housing development where there are X houses per street," she said.

Red Cross spokesman Gregg O'Ryon said he couldn't estimate how many more destroyed homes would be found in the rest of the burned area.

Insurance agents surveyed damage and started writing claim checks. Gov. Pete Wilson said he is asking President Bush to declare an emergency, a move that would open the door to grants and loans for rebuilding.

Fires raged elsewhere in the West. In Southern California, 1,160 firefighters battled a 2,100-acre fire in the Los Padres National Forest. Fires also burned in Montana and Washington, where a burned body was found Monday.

Past, future events focus for chamber

Chamber directors heard reports on past events and were updated on coming activities and projects during their board meeting Monday afternoon at chamber offices.

Directors called Saturday's pasture party fundraiser a success and discussed the recent loss of the AJRA National Finals Rodeo.

"We are going to spend our energies to recruit another event," said chamber manager Ricky Fritz on the loss of the event as he explained that a promotional trip planned later this year to the World Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas had been cancelled. The trip had been scheduled in an effort to secure national sponsors for the rodeo.

However, directors did note that the 1992 AJRA event, the last one to be hosted in Snyder before the rodeo moves to Sweetwater for 1993-94, will retain the quality level of past years.

Fritz also updated directors on the Christmas promotion, "Light Up Snyder," being sponsored by the chamber's business committee in which the courthouse and downtown area will be decorated with lights. Plans include a parade (see CHAMBER, page 8)

Tiebreaker determines football contest winner

Last week's SDN Football Contest proved a bit tougher for guessers, with eight entrants missing five games each.

The three money winners were determined using the tie-breaker method as outlined in the contest rules.

Steve Link of P.O. Box 1266 was the $50 winner, predicting 28 total points (the actual score was 14-0). Judy James of 218 31st was the $25 winner, guessing 33 points. Cary Coffee of 3008 Denison was the $15 winner, choosing 46 points.

Some of the other entrants were closer on points, but did not predict Snyder to win.

Winner's checks will be mailed to them.

Another contest appears in this issue.

TDCJ Appreciation Day scheduled for Saturday

The third Texas Department of Criminal Justice Appreciation Day is slated for noon Saturday at Scurry County Coliseum.

The event, sponsored by Snyder Chamber of Commerce and the Board of County Development, is designed to honor TDCJ employees of the local Price Daniel Unit and their families.

Serving of the barbecue meal will begin at noon and continue through 3 p.m. in an effort to serve as many employees as possible, said organizers.

Entertainment will be provided by the Colonial Hillbillies and local civic and community leaders will address the crowd, expected to exceed 600.

Tickets are on sale to the public for $5 each and may be purchased at the chamber through noon Friday.

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "The best way to survive a crisis is to choose the inevitable and call it your idea."

By any standard, last Saturday's pasture party was a complete success. The chamber came up with a gem of an idea and pulled it off without a hitch.

It was a great beginning to what could easily become one of Scurry County's most popular social events. Even in the first year, the fundraiser, attended by almost 500, made a small profit for the chamber.

The hours of work that went into the event were evident. A special tip of the hat must go to Jack and Bettie Greene who did far more than allow their pasture to be used. Jack turned the area into a lighted park-like setting.

No one was surprised that Jerry Baird and his crew did a first-class job on the steak dinner.

Scurry County native Brad Maule wooed the crowd with a musical program customized for Snyder. Despite his Hollywood success, Brad Maule continues to be a gentleman as well as a good entertainer.

Maule, in his seventh year as Dr. Tony Jones on ABC's General Hospital, poked a little fun at his soap opera role.

"I've been married three times. My first wife was hit by a truck. My second wife was murdered and I had to operate on her killer. I found out he was the murderer just as I started to open him up."

"My third wife is a reformed hooker. On the show, I've been blind, been hospitalized in a coma, had loss of memory and have had four brain surgeries."

Quipped Maule, "But I've never stood in the middle of a pasture and played my guitar in sub-zero weather."

'C.J.' turns out to be a hoax

DALLAS (AP) — New public fear of AIDS probably won't diminish with police finding that a hysteria-spurring letter and phone calls were a hoax, a Dallas physician says.

"I think that it's probably raised people's consciousness enough to let people know it could happen," said Clay Cockerell, a member of the Physicians Association for AIDS Care.

"But there might be a tendency to let their guard down," Cockerell said.

Dallas police on Monday said that "C.J." — whose letter to Ebony magazine and calls to broadcast media have jolted the city — is a hoax created by a teenager and copied by as many as six other women.

"We want to assure the community that this purported danger does not exist," Deputy Police Chief Ray Hawkins said.

But the C.J. publicity has elevated AIDS awareness and generated new fear of the fatal disease, Cockerell said.

"It's definitely caused a little bit of paranoia, I can tell you that," he said. "You hear a lot of people talking about this now that didn't really think about this way before."

Police began their investigation

Cisneros' wife sues for divorce

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Former San Antonio Mayor Henry Cisneros, once considered a rising star in national politics, has been sued for divorce by his wife of 22 years who alleges he has committed adultery.

Mary Alice Cisneros, 41, filed the divorce petition Friday.

Mrs. Cisneros asked for custody of the couple's three children, according to divorce documents. She also is requesting child support.

The couple has two daughters, Teresa, 20, and Mercedes, 16, and a son, John Paul, 4, who was born with a heart defect and requires constant medical attention.

"The marriage has become insupportable because of discord or conflict of personalities," according to the petition filed in the 244th state District Court in San Antonio.

Mrs. Cisneros, 41, spoke in veiled terms Monday of her decision to seek a divorce, but implied that the split was prompted by her husband's continued link to Linda Medlar, a political aide, with whom Cisneros acknowledged having an affair.

"I love Henry very much, and we have been through an enormous amount," Mrs. Cisneros told the San Antonio Light. "It is my intent to no longer live under a circumstance that involves adultery."

Cisneros, 44, in a statement issued Monday, termed the divorce filing regrettable, saying "it is not what I want, and it would not have been my choice."

The former mayor also protested the petition's language, which he called "unnecessarily harsh and adversarial."

after Ebony magazine in September published a letter signed "C.J." In it, a woman who claimed to be infected with the AIDS virus said she was deliberately spreading the virus in retaliation against the man who had infected her.

Subsequently, a woman who identified herself as C.J. called Dallas area radio and TV stations to repeat the claim.

But Hawkins said handwriting analysis confirmed the letter to Ebony was written by a 15-year-old Dallas girl who wasn't infected but who wanted to raise AIDS awareness after a family friend died of acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

In addition, there were "six or seven" other C.J.'s calling radio and television stations in the Dallas area. Police have identified one of the copycats, a 29-year-old Dallas woman.

"She did it as a joke, as a lark," Hawkins said of the elder C.J. "She didn't intend for it to hurt anyone. ... We fail to see the humor in it."

The woman is being tested for the HIV virus, Hawkins said. No charges have been filed, but if she tests positive, she could be charged with knowingly transmitting AIDS, a felony.

Police wouldn't name the 15-year-old or 29-year-old, but said they didn't know each other.

Hawkins said the teen-ager probably copied the idea from a similar letter written to Dallas KKDA-AM radio personality Willis Johnson two years ago.

Dear Abby

A Few Precautions Take Some of the Fright Out of Halloween

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1991 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR READERS: It's autumn again—and Halloween will soon be here. That means it's time to remind readers with small children that:

— Somebody's child will be seriously injured or killed in a Halloween-related traffic accident.

— Somebody's child will be badly maimed or fatally burned due to a flammable costume.

— Somebody's child will be coaxed into an automobile or lured into a secluded area and sexually assaulted.

To make sure that that child isn't yours, I offer these tips to preserve the safety of your children:

— Use flameproof costumes only. If costumes are made at home, treat the fabric with a flame-resistant solution.

— Because masks, floppy hats, wigs and veils often interfere with a child's vision, use makeup instead.

— Accessories such as swords, broomsticks, hatchets, wands, etc., should be made of cardboard rather than plastic, metal or wood. Sharp items are dangerous!

— Provide youngsters with flashlights to prevent falls on sidewalks or porch steps. (Positively no lighted candles should be carried!)

— Decorate your child's costume and trick-or-treat bag with reflective tape to make them highly visible to motorists.

— Remind children that they should never enter the home of a stranger or accept rides.

— Adults can help by keeping their yards well-lighted.

— Parents should check all "treats" before allowing children to eat them.

— Very young children should never be out after dark unless accompanied by an adult.

So, let's make it a safe Halloween for all children, and come Thanksgiving, we will have more to be thankful for.

DEAR ABBY: Unlike many others, I can't say I've read your column for years because I'm only 11 years old. But I have read it a great many times.

I have a very bad habit. I suck my thumb and bite my nails. In fact, I've bitten one of my nails so low it started to bleed without my knowing it. It doesn't even hurt. I started sucking my thumb when I was about 3 years old; then I started biting my nails when I was about 6.

Whenever I catch myself, I take my hands away, or try to "hurt" my hand. Usually my family catches me when I'm not aware of what I'm doing. Abby, please help me, and sign this ...

THUMB IN MOUTH AND NO NAILS

DEAR THUMB: Try this. Put a rubber band on your wrist, and when you get the urge to suck your thumb or bite your nails, snap the rubber band hard enough to remind you to resist those old habits.

Everything you'll need to know about planning a wedding can be found in Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding." To order, send a long, business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Wedding Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

Dr. Gott Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Does immunization against allergies really work, or is it just a theory based on the fact that the injection of specific infectious agents immunizes against that specific illness? I've been taking allergy shots for several years, yet still have allergies. Why?

DEAR READER: Allergic reactions are believed due to an inappropriate immune response the body makes to a relatively large quantity of foreign protein. The issue here is the amount of allergen.

Therefore, the theory behind desensitization injections is that by initially exposing the immune system to minute amounts of the substance, a major allergic reaction can be avoided while the body develops a tolerance to the allergen. The concentration of the injected allergen is progressively increased in each shot until the patient, after months or years, can tolerate full-strength vaccine without a reaction. At this point, the patient is no longer considered hypersensitive to the foreign protein, and is placed on maintenance therapy.

Such desensitization shots really do work. They are especially beneficial in preventing severe allergic reactions, as—for example—life-threatening responses to antibiotics.

Despite these injections, some degree of allergy may remain—but it is usually reduced. For instance, a patient who has been desensitized against a certain pollen because of asthma may continue to experience nasal congestion when exposed to environmental pollen; however, he or she should be protected against more devastating effects, such as bronchial spasm.

If you continue to have severe allergy symptoms despite allergy shots, you should bring this to your allergist's attention; either the vaccine may need revision or you may be responding to another allergen not present in the vaccine. You probably should be re-tested (with blood or skin tests) to confirm that the vaccine is appropriate for your needs.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I heard on a recent radio broadcast that wine vinegar mixed with water is successful for lowering cholesterol, cleansing arteries and weight loss. What is your opinion of this?

DEAR READER: I don't know what radio broadcast you listened to, but you have been misled. Vinegar, a weak acid, is useful in sauces, pickles and salad dressings; it is not appropriate treatment for the conditions you mention. The world would certainly be a better place if a simple remedy like wine vinegar would cure excess cholesterol, obesity and arteriosclerosis. It isn't so.

To give you further information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Fads II — Herbs and Other Supplements." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Against TV violence

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Parents endorse violence on television when they let their children watch it, says Bob Keeshan, TV's Captain Kangaroo.

Keeshan was in Nebraska on Sunday and Monday to talk about children's programming.

"We should turn it on when we know that it is a given program that we want to watch with our children. Then, the TV should be turned off," the 65-year-old actor told parents.

Large number attends local ABWA meeting

The Scurry Charter Chapter of American Business Women's Association met recently at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Ruby Neves and Mae Cole hostesses to 18 members and seven guests.

Guests were Sandy Norris, Laura Jones, Trudy Wood, Helen Robinson, Dale Neves, WTC student Emily Irons, scholarship recipient, and Zelma Irons.

Carol Young gave the invocation and presented the vocational talk. She has been an employee at Lone Star Gas Company since 1972. Some of her present office job duties are answering the phone, helping customers. She also makes reports, with most transactions on the computer.

President Jessie Scarbrough announced the national convention is to be held on Nov. 13-17 in Los Vegas; the regional convention will be April 24-26, 1992, in Lubbock; and explained the association's project: on Nov. 14 with each $1 donation to ABWA a person will have a chance to win $100 worth of groceries from IGA.

Vice president Genetha Payne interpreted the duties of each office held in the association. She also noted that September was the birthday of ABWA and the local chapter began Sept. 6, 1960, with Pat Hinshaw as the first president. There are two active charter members, Inez Teaff and Maxie McNew. She commented on Snyder having two ABWA chapters. The other one is the Deep Creek Chapter.

two top trumps. Kantar was happy to oblige.

Now Rosenberg came out of the bushes, making a Lightner Slam Double. This indicated he was void in one suit, which he hoped his partner would lead. However, West understandably selected a spade, not a diamond. Declarer quickly claimed his doubled slam for plus 2470.

At the other table, East opened two spades. No, that wasn't a weak twobid. It was a modern invention, showing a weak pre-empt in any suit (which East definitely had). Rodwell, sitting South, overcalled three diamonds, showing hearts. West, expecting his partner to have clubs, passed. Now North, Meckstroth, after consuming a bag of potato chips, jumped straight to seven hearts. Plus 2210, but a loss of six international matchpoints.

Knockout teams at the Nationals

By Phillip Alder

The premier event of the Summer Nationals is the Spingold Master Knockout Teams. The winners this year were Zia Mahmood, Seymon Deutsch, Michael Rosenberg, Jeff Meckstroth and Eric Rodwell.

The most dramatic hand from the final is given in the diagram. Rosenberg, East, opted not to open the bidding; South began with one heart; and Mahmood, West, passed. North was confident he could find out if his partner had the K-Q of hearts and the diamond king, but only if the opponents gave him the space. However, rather than risk competition in spades, Son-tag opted to gamble on the diamond suit. Immediately he bid five no-trump, the Grand Slam Force, to ask his partner to bid seven hearts with

Snyder entertains EHS in 2-4A battle

Snyder's Lady Tigers will get back into the District 2-4A volleyball wars today following a 15-13, 16-14 non-district win over Brownfield on Saturday.

The Lady Tigers will host Estacado in junior varsity and varsity matches beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the SHS gym.

Snyder whipped the Lady Cubs on Saturday to move to 13-5 on the season. SHS also owns a second-place 4-1 mark in loop competition.

Melody Sargent's nine service points led the Snyder squad against Brownfield, trailed by seven from Stephanie Fambro and Emma Skold's five.

In addition, Amber Bowlin scored three, Julie Johnson managed two and Kari Blackledge punched one.

Estacado is fresh from a 15-12, 15-11 defeat of Dunbar on Saturday. The win gives the Lady Mats a 2-3 league record. They are 4-13 overall.

In today's other district match, Dunbar, 2-14 and 0-5, is at 8-12 and 1-4 Levelland.

A win against Estacado tonight would clinch at least a tie for second place in the district for Snyder.

Preseason picks...

WTC trio named All-WJCAC

BORGER — The 1991-92 Western Junior College Athletic Conference preseason all-conference basketball teams were named Monday with three Western Texas College players gracing the rosters of the mythical squads.

Sophomore La Shunta Jackson of Navasota and Stephenville freshman Cinthia French made the squad for the women while Dallas sophomore Michael Crowe earned all conference preseason honors for the men.

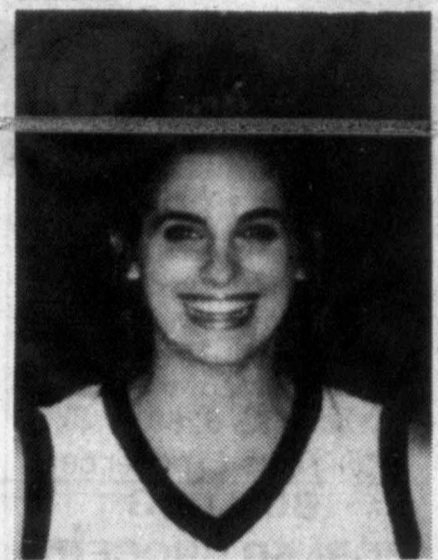

"I certainly think La Shunta has all-conference potential," said Duster coach Kelly Chadwick. "She's been a tough player for us and all we can hope for is for her to live up to her potential and be an all-conference player at the end of the season, too." About French's being named to the All-WJCAC women's squad he said, "That's a great honor for a freshman, but she's deserving of it. She was probably the best defensive player in Texas out of high school and I'm sure she was chosen because of her defensive abilities."

CINTHIA FRENCH

Coach Kelly Green of the Westerners also feels like Crowe was a worthy pick to the all-conference team.

"It's a good honor for Michael," he said. "He's a sophomore, so he's a little more mature than some of the other players. He will have to be a leader for us, so, who better to pick for all-conference."

MICHAEL CROWE

The WTC Lady Dusters were picked by league coaches to finish fifth behind Howard College, defending national champion Odessa College, South Plains College and New Mexico Junior College.

Frank Phillips College is projected to wind up in the No. 6 spot and Clarendon is picked to finish in the WJCAC cellar.

The Dusters' chief thinks his crew may have been slighted in the poll.

"Well, I knew they had picked us fifth," said Chadwick. "I asked our girls and they don't think we're a fifth-place team, and I don't personally think we should finish fifth."

"But now it all depends on our young ladies," he concluded.

The WTC Westerners earned a sixth-place selection by the league's coaches in the annual preseason poll. They trail Odessa, South Plains, NMJC, Midland College and Howard.

New Mexico Military Institute, Frank Phillips and Clarendon round out the men's field.

"That's probably about right for right now," said Green of his Westerners' sixth-place selection.

Series history working against Braves

ATLANTA (AP) — World Series history suggests the Atlanta Braves are in trouble. Then again, this hasn't exactly been an average season.

The Minnesota Twins take a 2-0 World Series lead into Game 3 tonight as play shifts from the Metrodome to the Georgia skies of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

"This team has been optimistic all year," Braves catcher Greg Olson said. "But the history is when teams are down 2-0, they don't win."

Olson is quite right. Teams taking a 2-0 lead have gone on to win 31 times in 41 attempts (76 percent), including the last four years.

But the Braves and Twins did a lot of things that weren't supposed to happen this year. Most notably, they became the first teams in the modern era to move from last place one season to first place the next.

Atlanta wasn't expected to catch Los Angeles after falling 91/2 games back, and most thought Oakland would overtake Minnesota sooner or later. And wasn't it supposed to be Pittsburgh against Toronto in the World Series?

"We feel very confident coming home with Steve Avery and John Smoltz pitching," Olson said. "We were down 3-2 to the Pirates and came back to win two games there."

The Twins just might feel a little strange. Minnesota's last 10 games, including the regular season, have been inside, at either the Metrodome or Toronto's SkyDome.

Minnesota won the first two games against Atlanta by using a combination of muscle, momentum and Homer Hankies. The Twins also got great starting pitching from Jack Morris and Kevin Tapani.

Meanwhile, the Braves had only two extra-base hits in the two games — both doubles — and wasted several scoring opportunities.

On Monday, the Twins worked out under the sun and got used to hitting and taking fly balls outside again. They seemed to enjoy it, too.

"I heard the ball carries well in left center," Twins manager Tom Kelly said while hitting grounders. "We compared it to the new Comiskey Park, where the ball carries to right center. But overall it's just not that big a deal."

What has been a big deal for the Braves has been the pitching of Avery, who is scheduled to start Game 3 against Scott Erickson (20-8).

At first glance, a matchup of Avery, a left-hander, and Erickson, a right-hander, looks like a gem. But after going 12-2 in the first half, Erickson finished 8-6 and was on the disabled list in July with a sore right elbow.

Buffalo extends Cincy losing skid to 7 games

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. (AP) — James Lofton was magnanimous. "Every ball I caught, he was right there with me," the Buffalo Bills wide receiver said of Richard Fain, the rookie cornerback Cincinnati assigned to cover Lofton.

Fain may have been right there with Lofton, but it was Lofton who came down with the ball.

Making the first start of his pro career, Fain was beaten three times for touchdowns Monday night — twice by Lofton — as Jim Kelly threw five touchdown passes to prolong the Bengals' nightmare season with a 35-16 loss to the Bills.

"I think we realized that we had someone who had not had a lot of NFL experience," said Lofton, who finished with a career-high 220 yards on eight catches.

Fain and Lofton went up for a pass at the Cincinnati goal line with the Bills holding their smallest lead of the night at 14-10.

After some jostling, Lofton came down with the pass, which was good for a 48-yard touchdown.

Several Bengal defenders, incensed at what they felt was pass interference by Lofton, challenged officials in the end zone.

That was Lofton's second touchdown of the night — both against Fain.

Westerners claim lead at Mineral Wells event

MINERAL WELLS — Western Texas College's Blue team, led by John Gatlin's 70-70-140, claimed Monday's lead in the Heart of the Hills Classic Golf Tournament here.

The Westerners' Blue have a team-total 567 which leads second-place Texas Wesleyan's 570 and Western Junior College Athletic Conference foe Odessa College, which posted a 36-hole 574 on Monday.

Gatlin and Greg Slicker, playing for WTC's White crew, are tied for third place in the medalists' race with identical 140 scores.

Darren Waters of Levelland fired a 73-69--142; Pampa's Ryan Tigue notched a 36-hole total of 143 Monday on rounds of 75 and 68; Mark Wood, also of Pampa, shot a 71-74--145 and Jon Roseberry turned in an 80-71--151 for the Blue team.

Houston's Slicker led the White squad, in fifth position after two rounds of the 54-hole tourney, followed by a 69-74--143 from San Angelo golfer Dusty Green, Cory Adams of San Angelo with a 75-71--146; Borger's Daryl Weldon's 74-74--148 and Brent Tighor's 74-83--157.

The tournament's final 18 holes were to have been played today at Mineral Wells Country Club.

Astro-graphs By Bernice Bede Osol

Oct. 22, 1991

You may enter into an important partnership for an explicit purpose in the year ahead. The alliance will have its limitations, but the results should be mutually beneficial.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) It's possible your mate's conclusions might be more valid than your own today. Let your partner have, at least, a final word in critical matters. Major changes are ahead for Libra in the coming year. Send for Libra's Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1.25 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) The zeal you express in performing your assignments today will inspire others to follow your ambitious example. If you want to attract assistance, initiate the action.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You might find yourself in a position today where you will either have to choose between personally managing a matter or delegating it to another. It might be wise to take care of it yourself.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Family interests should be your area of primary concern today. Other demands might pull you in different directions but, remember, blood is thicker than water.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It's best not to volunteer unsolicited advice today, even if you feel you have something to say that could be helpful. Your comments are apt to be interpreted as interference.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Innately, you're an unselfish individual who looks out for others as well as yourself. There may be something to share today, and you'll know how to divvy it up fairly.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Try to devote as much time and attention today to endeavors that can advance your own self-interests. This is a time when you should look out for No. 1, because others might not.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you give friends a chance today, they will treat you as considerately as you would treat them. Try not to negatively prejudice anyone.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) The biggest enjoyment you'll get today is from doing things you like with people you like. If you're deliberately reclusive, this is apt to be another humdrum day.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Something you'll be involved in could get a trifle competitive today. If this occurs, don't duck developments; face up to challenges.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Consider situations you're presently involved in not merely in the context of the immediate, but for their future effects as well. Be prepared, and look a little ahead.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Joint ventures look like your best avenues for gain today. If you have any arrangements of this nature, make them your priority projects.

Few clues exist in case of popular missing teenager

MIDLAND, Texas (AP)—Elizabeth Henry dialed 911 for emergency assistance, but by the time help arrived she was gone.

Nearly two months after Miss Henry, a popular 17-year-old student at Midland Lee High School, disappeared from her home without a trace, police have few clues.

The disappearance took a bizarre turn when Miss Henry's ex-boyfriend committed suicide two weeks after the girl was reported missing. Police say they have been unable to link the two incidents.

Flyers with Miss Henry's picture plastered in nearly every storefront in Midland serve as painful reminders of the attractive teen's mysterious departure.

"It was a tragedy. Everyone is concerned," Pam McClure, who lives across the street from the Henry's, told the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. "There seems to be no resolution to it. It's very disheartening. No progress has been made. We're all hoping she comes home safe."

Police acknowledge the odds are against the teen-ager.

Man jailed after threatening to duplicate massacre

KILLEEN, Texas (AP) — A man who authorities said threatened to copy an attack on a restaurant that left 23 people dead remained jailed today after ramming his pickup truck into a recreation center.

It is the same routine the band has performed this year during halftime at Friday night football games.

Admission to Wednesday's UIL competition is free to the public. Fans should sit on the west stands.

Judges are John Bridges of San Antonio, Tony Clines of Lorena and Charles Nail of Odessa.

"We ought to be in good shape. The students have been working pretty hard for it," said Reneau.

Snyder advanced to finish fourth in Area competition last year and Reneau said the band is hoping for a better outing this season.

Daniel Bobb was held at the Lampasas County jail in lieu of bail bond after sheriff's officers said he threatened others at the Kempner Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, then rammed it with his truck Thursday night.

Word of the threats to duplicate the attack at Luby's Cafeteria in Killeen came as an autopsy of the gunman in that shooting spree showed no signs of drugs or alcohol nor evidence of brain tumors.

Lampasas County sheriff's officers said they were called to the VFW hall in Kempner, about 20 miles west of Killeen, after reports of a disturbance and threats made to employees and patrons.

"Employees advised Lampasas deputies that the man became angry and when asked to leave,

Proposition 4

use as state prisons or other punishment facilities."

Background: The principal method by which the state borrows money is by issuing bonds. General-obligation bonds are backed by the full faith and credit of the state. The state guarantees that it will repay bondholders, with interest, with the first money coming into the Treasury each fiscal year. Since Art. 3, sec. 49 of the Texas Constitution prohibits most forms of state debt, a constitutional amendment is required to authorize the state to issue general obligation bonds.

Supporters Say: Proposition 4 would allow the state to initiate badly needed construction, repair and renovation projects for prisons, substance abuse facilities, stated that he was coming back, and that the Killeen Luby's massacre would be small compared with youth corrections facilities and mental health and mental retardation facilities without requiring a major increase in taxes. The lack of prison space is distorting the entire criminal justice process. The average sentence for inmates released in 1990 was 112.8 months but the average length of stay for those inmates was 22.8 months, only about 20 percent of their sentences. Expanding prison capacity would help ensure that the worst offenders will spend a longer time behind bars. In addition, the planned 12,000 substance-abuse facility beds would be the first statewide response to the role that alcoholism and drug abuse play in promoting criminal activity.

Opponents Say: The state should not continue trying to build its way out of its prison capacity problem, especially by going deeper into debt with the largest single bond authorization in its history. The state needs to break its expensive prison-building habit because no amount of construction will ever meet the potential demand for prison space — the more prison beds are added, the more prisoners will be sentenced to fill them. Building more prisons is a short-term approach to a problem that can only be solved through long-term changes in public policy and society. "Work punishment" sentences that punish offenders by requiring them to perform a specified number of community service hours should be instituted for all nonviolent offenders; this would provide rehabilitation as well as reducing the demand for prison beds. If new prison space and mental health facilities are needed, they should be paid for with current revenue instead of pushing the debt off on future generations by borrowing money through the sale of bonds.

what he was going to do," Lampasas County sheriff Gordon Morris said in a statement.

"He got into his pickup truck and attempted to run through a metal side entrance door to the club, causing extensive damage to the door, door frame and metal building supports."

She said the VFW hall was closed early and an undetermined number of patrons and employees were told to leave.

Chamber

featuring floats and cars decorated with Christmas lights. Merchants will also be asked to stay open past normal business hours one night a week during the promotion, said Fritz.

In addition to the lighting promotion, a Shop in Snyder campaign is being organized with local banks and merchants to encourage residents to shop locally during the holiday season. A meeting to work out details is scheduled later this week.

Chamber president Eddie Williams reminded directors of the Nov. 4 constitutional amendments election, and specifically of Proposition 4. "We need make sure this passes," Williams said of the proposition, which would create funding for additional state prisons.

Other items discussed included the possible organization of a community theatre, a membership drive and the printing of new city and county maps.

Before adjourning, directors met in executive session.

Police work burglary case

Snyder police worked a burglary, made an unrelated arrest and handled several other calls Monday and early today.

At 1:22 p.m. Monday, Eddie Johnson notified police that someone had entered a home at 2604 33rd St. and stolen a VCR and an undetermined amount of cash. Police filed a report for burglary of a residence.

At 7:38 a.m. Monday, Central Elementary school officials requested officers in response to a broken window. The damage, to a window north of the main door, had first been discovered at 4:04 a.m. Officers took a report for Class B criminal mischief.

A report for Class B theft was filed at 10:10 a.m. when a maintenance employee at Western Texas College informed officers that someone had stolen a spare tire from one of the college vehicles.

In one other report, Andrea Velasquez of 1800 17th St. complained to police at 10:45 a.m. that someone had poisoned her dog. A report of cruelty to animals was submitted.

Vote YES To Fight Crime!

Dana Cooley - Assistant District Attorney

Recently, a Scurry County man accused in the beating death of his father was found by the court to be mentally incompetent to stand trial for the murder. This fact was stipulated to by all parties. After spending less than 7 months in the mental health treatment facility for the criminally incompetent, the facility returned the man to Scurry County to stand trial despite his continued exhibition of the same symptoms. His incompetence will likely prevent his being sentenced to prison. Likewise, he is not likely to be retained in the mental health facility for any greater period of time. Concerns for the safety of the community suggest that he not be returned to his home. He now awaits further court action in the Scurry County jail (at the expense of Scurry County) where he attempts to wash his hair with peanuts.

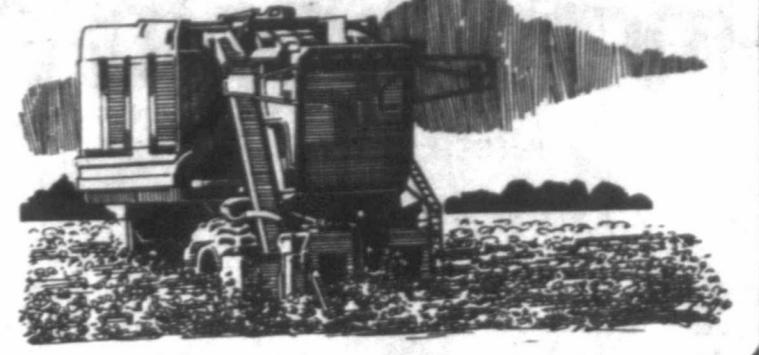

While prisons are getting most of the attention concerning Proposition 4, it must be remembered that $45 million of this bond money will be used for mental health and psychiatric facilities. The bond issue is comprehensive and long-range in vision. Passage of Proposition 4 is a necessary step in accepting responsibility for the safety and protection of the people and property of Texas.

Scurry County Country

SCS Notes

By Michael Squires,
Range Conservationist

It's that time of year again. Dove season, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and the time when you have seen just about all of the growth from warm season grasses that will happen for the year. This fall has been an above normal one, in terms of rainfall, for many of the producers in Scurry County. The native pastures have remained green and productive later in the season than normal. Many CRP fields ended up producing more pounds of grass than expected. Fields that looked as though productivity was at an end had an end result of 3,000 to 5,000 pounds of forage per acre produced. Along with the better grass productivity came better weed production. Particularly among the thistle and Kochia variety. Yes, it's that time of year again, the time when CRP fields which have not had adequate weed control utilization will be the cause of thistles and other noxious weeds blowing onto adjacent cropland fields.

Most of the CRP acreages have been managed to the extent of eliminating any worry of causing crop damage to neighboring fields. The ones that have not will be addressed as they are discovered by routine spot checks.

CRP fields that are managed properly, i.e. sprayed or shredded on a regular basis, have a far higher degree of establishment of success. Over a two to four year period these fields have less dollars invested than those that are managed poorly. Improperly or poorly managed fields can result in higher cost to the producers in many ways.

For CRP participants this is the time of year to begin close inspection of your land in the Conservation Reserve. Winter weeds are doing well and, with the moisture we received earlier, the warm season annuals such as thistles will come on with vengeance.

Weed control is probably the most important management factor that a producer can perform on his or her CRP. There are contrasting fields that tell the story of how much effort a person has put into weed control. Remember, you will get out of your land what you put into it. If a field needs to be shredded three times during the growing season to control the competing vegetation, then it is important to carry out these mowings.

Grass is a dynamic plant and must be utilized in order to maintain good vigor and growth. Since grazing, haying, or seed harvesting is not permissible on CRP acres it is very easy for a grass stand to deteriorate due to little or no utilization. You can help maintain the grass vigor by mowing until the grass stand is well established and thereafter mowing possibly once or twice a year. Care should be taken to avoid cutting the grass too short however. The Soil Conservation Service (SCS) personnel can assist you in determining the height to which you should shred.

It is important to remember that you, the producer, are the best person for the job when it comes to keeping watch on your land. If you make regular checks on your fields then you become aware of any problems before they become uncontrollable. The SCS is here to assist you in any way that we can. Anytime you feel that there is a problem arising or you just have a question please call the SCS office and we will schedule a time to meet with you. Your CRP contract is just that, a contract, and before you make any changes to the written plan you must make prior arrangements. Remember regular inspections of your CRP land by you can prevent many problems.

Several items causing concern among farmers, ranchers, agribusinesses and governmental officials will be discussed during a meeting in Lubbock of the Texas Agricultural Forum to be held Nov. 4.

The meeting at the Holiday Inn - Civic Center, 801 Ave. Q, is one of a series held each year for leaders of government, business and all facets of agriculture. It will begin at 7:45 a.m. and adjourn at 4 p.m.

The sessions, open to anyone, provide an opportunity to exchange views on current issues, said Dr. Ed Smith, forum coordinator. He is an agricultural economist and specialist in marketing and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Services, College Station.

Following a welcome by Dan Pustejovsky, Texas Ag Forum chairman, State Sen. Steve Carriker of Roby and Jim Ed Miller, chairman of the Texas Pest Management Association.

The impacts on Texas agriculture and economy of proposed free trade agreements with Mexico will be analyzed by Harvey Rosenblum of Dallas. He is senior vice president and director of research with the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

At the luncheon, State Rep. James E. "Pete" Laney of Hale Center will provide a legislative update. A panel of Laney, Carriker and State Sen. Bill Sims of San Angelo will respond to questions from the audience.

Issues of animal and property rights will be addressed by Sims. Concerns about seed labeling will be the topic of Buz Poage, All-Tex Seeds, Levelland, and Lois Wales, vice president of Texas Women in Farm Economics (WIFE) and a member of the Texas Corn Producers Board.

Registration for the forum is $25 and is payable at the door.

ASCS Report

By Joe Hefner
County Executive Director

Secretary of Agriculture, Edward Madigan, has announced that County ASCS offices may release 1991 annual rental payments for current Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) contracts. Payment will be made in check rather than commodity certificate. County offices should release payments prior to November 15, 1991, to avoid penalties of the Prompt Payment Act.

Scurry County producers will receive $1,605,310 during this payment cycle. Local producers have enrolled approximately 43,800 acres in this conservation program.

The Conservation Reserve Program is designed to take highly erodible land out of production by establishing a permanent cover of grass on the acreage. This cover must be maintained for a 10 year contract period with restrictive use of the acreage.

The information given herein is for educational purposes only. Education programs conducted by the ASCS and SCS serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.
