Smith, Newberry outstanding WTC students for '89-90

Ben Smith of Hermleigh and Julia Newberry of Snyder were named Outstanding Male and Female Students for 1989-90 at Western Texas College during the annual Awards Day program Thursday.

Other nominees for the two awards were Shea Fenton, Lesa Moore, Chester Simons Jr. and Troy Dale Williamson of Snyder.

SNS ready for annual 'fix-it' day

Repair work is scheduled for over 25 homes Saturday when the third annual Snyder Neighbors Sharing work day begins at 7 a.m.

Snyder Neighbors Sharing is an organization formed to help senior citizens and handicapped individuals make repairs to their homes. During last year's work day, some 150 volunteers completed repairs to nine homes. This year's effort has been more than doubled, as has the volunteer response. Tommy Aishman, SNS president, has said that between 300 and 350 local and area residents have answered the call for volunteers.

Workers have been assigned to (see SHARING, page 9)

Deborah Bentley of Sweetwater, Linda Hearn and Douglas Watkins of Colorado City, Paul Green of Ballinger and Dennis Segrist of Arkansas City, Ark.

Sixty-two awards were presented to students nominated by faculty members. Special recognition was extended to Brian Peterson from Brisbane, Australia, as Outstanding Academic Athlete, to nominees for Outstanding Male and Female titles, and to the 19 students named to Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges this year. Richard Lancaster, WTC Faculty Association president, served as master of ceremonies from the program.

Students and their families were honored at a reception in Scurry County Museum immediately following the awards presentation.

Awards presented were as follows:

Vocational Technical Division
Auto Mechanics: Chester W. Simons Jr., Snyder.

Cosmetology: Nelda K. Hendricks, Sweetwater, and Evette Gruben, Rotan.

Golf/Landscape Technology: Sandra Niessen, Pewaukee, Wis., and George Tovar, Snyder.

Business Administration
Business Administration: Deborah Bentley, Sweetwater.

Cogdell board meets family physician candidate and wife

Cogdell Memorial Hospital board of managers held an informal interview with a family practitioner candidate and took care of routine business during a monthly board meeting Thursday evening.

Kurt Poehlmann, M.D., and his wife, Judy, flew in from Kansas to visit with board members and guests at the meeting, and were to tour the hospital facilities and city today. The physician told the board he is interested in relocating because of concerns about the long-term future of the 49-bed facility where he conducts his practice — a community of about 2,000. His wife, a registered nurse, is the director of a cardiac rehabilitation center in the community.

In an informal question period, Dr. Poehlmann, who is certified by the American Board of Family Practitioners, indicated a willingness to perform obstetrics and to see Price Daniel inmates as needed.

He told the board that the fact that Cogdell is joint commission accredited is of major interest to him. He was also pleased to learn that the hospital contracts for six-day-a-week emergency room coverage. He indicated he would be willing to cover the emergency room on a rotating basis with Drs. Paul Thompson, Bid Cooper and Jim Bureson on Tuesdays.

Dr. Poehlmann had previously conducted his practice in Fredricksburg before moving to Kansas.

Prior to the Poehlmanns' arrival, the board granted permission to board of managers Chairman G.A. Parks Jr. and Hospital Administrator Tom Hochwalt to negotiate a contract with physician candidates.

In other business by the board, approval was given for the hospital to apply for a credit card.

Service is theme of annual hospital auxiliary banquet

Service was the theme of the annual Cogdell Hospital Auxiliary awards banquet held Thursday night at the Snyder Country Club.

Out-going president Teddie Hatcher noted that members of the organization have completed 149,724 hours of service during its 32-year history.

A special plaque was presented to Dr. Paul Thompson who last year completed his 10th year of practice in Snyder. Dr. Thompson was a recipient of the auxiliary's second doctor scholarship.

Tom Hochwalt, hospital administrator, expressed the hospital's appreciation to auxiliary members for their many hours of volunteer service.

Ruby Anderson received a standing ovation when she received her award for 17,500 hours of service. Other service awards went to Lucille Joyce, 13,000 hours; and Ena Carroll, 6,500 hours.

Recognized for 5,000 volunteer hours were Sue Mize, Clara Tate and Gradine Sterling. Thadine Harless was honored for 4,000 hours and Geleska Baze for 3,500 volunteer hours.

Service awards for 3,000 hours went to Ouida Bruner and Pat Moffett. Teddie Hatcher and Jim Logan were noted for 2,500 hours and Elree Baremore for 2,000 hours.

Honored for 1,500 hours of service included Molly Byrd, Wyvone Davis, Kathryn Dodson, Katherine Ervin, Allene Terry and Margaret Weaver.

Those recognized for 1,000 hours were Polly Autry, Vera Baize and Frances Denman. Noted for 500 hours were Patsy Beebe, Janey Thomas and Dorothy Downing. Alene Martin (see BANQUET, page 9)

Golfers hit links in conference and Region V tourneys

Almost 50 golfers from eight junior college teams were taking practice rounds today at Western Texas College in preparation for this weekend's combined Western Junior College Athletic Conference and National Junior College Athletic Association Region V tournament.

In addition to WTC's squad, WJCAC teams entered include Odessa College, Midland College, New Mexico Junior College, and New Mexico Military Institute.

Participants from the Northern conference are Weatherford Junior College, McLennan Community College of Waco and Grayson Junior College.

The current national top 15 teams include NMJC at No. 5,

Odessa at 6 and Midland No. 12 while NMMI, Grayson, McLennan and Western Texas have all been listed in the rankings during the spring season.

The WJCAC tournament consists of the event's opening 27 holes. At the conclusion of the conference tourney, teams will drop their No. 6 player and continue for another 27 holes for the Region V championship.

The top two teams at the conclusion of the event will advance to the national juco tournament in Scottsdale, Ariz., June 11-15.

Contending for the WJCAC crown are Odessa, which leads the race with 17 points, and New Mexico JC and Midland with 15 (see GOLFERS, page 9)

The SDN Column By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Good relations are like a wood fire — when unattended they go out."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors: Ken Brodnax, writer for the Odessa American, says you can always tell when it's spring in West Texas — it's windy.

But Brodnax says native West Texans know the difference between wind and WIND. West Texans have developed resiliency because of typical spring weather.

"West Texans have a folksy way of talking about such things. It's part of the local charm. As a service station attendant said about the wind storm, "Had to put rocks in my pockets just to stay on the ground."

Here's how Texans use figures of speech to describe the wind:

-A fruitless mulberry tree was seen clinging to a nearby oak to keep from being uprooted.

-Hundreds of rose bushes had their thorns blown off.

-A guy riding a surfboard contacted NASA to get permission for splashdown in the nearest lake.

-A TV weatherman was sailing through the air saying he could fly.

-An Exxon tanker ran aground in the Monahans Draw.

-A politician making a speech was eating his words before the audience even heard them.

-A little old lady on an exercise bike passed a truck on I-20.

-A guy on a hang glider caused a sonic boom.

-Lubbock is now located on the outskirts of San Antonio.

-The two remaining governor candidates all issued denials they had been making speeches in the area.

Now that's WIND!

Kim Pease, in the Rotan Advance, provided this important "Fact of the Week:"

There are 293 different ways to change a dollar, using only the common coins—halves, quarters, dimes, nickles and pennies.

Q—Why has Stanfield Elementary been allowed to start the Computers for Classroom Receipts Program when it was stated in The Snyder Daily News that no Snyder schools would participate?

A—All schools within Snyder ISD have been directed not to participate in the program and according to Bob Travis, principal, that includes Stanfield Elementary. However, it may be that an organization such as the PTA is participating. Such organizations are not under the direct control of the school district.

In Brief

2 shot to death

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A furniture store employee has been charged with shooting to death the store's owner and a co-worker who told him he'd done a poor job upholstering a piece of furniture, officials said.

Local

Cancer packets

American Cancer Society packets should be turned in by April 30 to neighborhood captains, a society spokesperson has noted.

Anyone needing more information may call Karon Keller at 573-7525.

Bazaar set

Grace Lutheran and St. John's Episcopal churches will hold their second annual bazaar from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday at Towle Park Barn.

Available for purchase will be crafts, baked goods, barbecue sandwiches, drinks, cookbooks and garage sale items.

There will be a drawing at 5 p.m. for a quilt and an afghan. Tickets are available for a $1 donation.

Bank notice

Local bank officials today said future bank statements to customers may be missing checks or deposit slips, but that all three banks will include a computer-generated replacement item.

On April 20, items being returned to the banks from the Federal Reserve in Dallas were destroyed in an airplane crash near Dallas' Love Field.

Officials with American State Bank, West Texas State Bank and Snyder National Bank said each account will be provided with a replacement notice.

West Olympics

West Elementary's first annual Junior Olympics is slated from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Saturday, May 5, at Snyder Soccer Field. All "track meet" type contests will be limited to West students, except Qualifying Relay Races, but "crazy races" are also planned for the general public. A wide variety of booth activities are planned as well as concessions.

Environmentalist, EPA meets

HOUSTON (AP) — A pizza ended an environmentalist's 12-day hunger strike in protest of a chemical company's proposed $1.3 billion expansion in Calhoun County.

Diane Wilson ended her fast at about 7 p.m. Thursday after meeting with Environmental Protection Agency officials. She said she was satisfied the EPA would look into the environmental impact of the Formosa Plastics Corp. project.

"I got across my concerns," she said. "Another thing is that if they (EPA officials) don't give us an environmental impact statement, we will see what other action we might pursue."

"I had this fantasy that they would immediately seek an environmental impact study from Formosa before it proceeds with its expansion. But the EPA is saying it would be about a month before they came down with the finding," she told The Associated Press from her Port Lavaca home Thursday night.

Ms. Wilson, who began the hunger strike on Easter Sunday, said it had another benefit. She lost 10 pounds, she quipped.

She met earlier at the offices of Texans United, an environmental group supporting her, with Norm Thomas of the EPA's office of regulatory administration.

"We had a good meeting," said

Rick Abraham with Texans United.

The 41-year-old Ms. Wilson is president of Calhoun County Resource Watch, a non-profit environmental group.

Abraham said Thomas helped clarify the EPA procedures and said the agency would decide in about three weeks whether they would conduct the environmental impact study.

Ms. Wilson also has sought a criminal investigation into alleged releases of contaminated wastewater and other spills at Formosa's existing plant in Point Comfort.

If the environmental agency decides not to require Formosa to do an environmental-impact study, Calhoun County Resource Watch would request an adjudicated public hearing, said Jim Blackburn, a Houston-based environmental lawyer who has been working with the watch group.

The permitting process is the functional equivalent of an environmental impact study, which he said is required only under extraordinary circumstances, said EPA spokesman Roger Meacham.

Officials of Formosa have permit applications pending before the EPA and the Texas Water Commission. On April 5, the water commission staff recommended levying an unprecedented $244,700 fine against Formosa for 54 alleged violations of the Texas Water Code between January 1986 and December 1989.

The commission staff will present its recommendation to the three water commissioners May 2.

Temporary injunction denied by state judge

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (AP) — A state district judge has denied a doctor's attempt to keep anti-abortion protesters from his doorstep.

Judge Robert Blackmon of the 17th District Court in Corpus Christi Thursday denied a request from Dr. Eduardo Aquino, who wanted a temporary injunction to keep picketers at least 100 yards away from his Corpus Christi home.

The request was contained in a lawsuit Aquino has filed against anti-abortion activist Rex Moses and Moses' organization, Body of Christ Rescue.

Aquino wanted the picketing stopped while the litigation is heard.

"It means that the judge was persuaded that we had done everything we could to conduct this picketing in as gentle of a fashion as we could, given the horrorableness of abortion," Moses said.

Moses said although he could continue the demonstrations, he had no plans to resume them.

"I want him to have time to reflect on what it means to be an abortionist, to be killing babies," Moses said.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband has suffered hot flashes, upset stomach, depression and fatigue for two years. He's under a general practitioner's care, yet all tests have been negative. Do you have any information on male change of life?

DEAR READER: Male menopause, a constellation of symptoms caused by the deficient production of male hormones, is real — and in some men disabling. The cause is poorly understood, and no one is sure why some older men experience little, if any, difficulty, while others are tormented by depression, hot flashes, increased sweating, loss of sexual interest, impotence, emotional outbursts and fatigue — the very symptoms that trouble some menopausal women.

Some experts have successfully treated the condition with supplemental male hormone in pills or shots. However, improvement is by no means consistent. Other physicians have found that anti-depressant medicine is effective.

If your husband's general practitioner is at a loss, I suggest you request a referral to a urologist, a specialist trained in disorders of the male reproductive tract. Such a specialist will obtain hormone tests, such as a serum testosterone level, and offer advice and treatment. Although most men — like their female counterparts — eventually adjust and adapt to male menopause, serious symptoms, such as the ones I mentioned, may need special, temporary therapy, such as counseling and medicine to improve mood.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would you comment on bee pollen as a vitamin supplement?

DEAR READER: In the past few years, various entrepreneurs and health-food enthusiasts have endorsed the use of bee pollen as a method of improving athletic performance and sexual ability, preventing infection and cancer, prolonging life, and promoting weight loss or gain. No reputable scientific studies have confirmed these bogus claims. Bee pollen contains 55 percent carbohydrate, 1 percent to 20 percent fat, 6 percent to 30 percent protein and some vitamins and minerals; it has no known health benefits.

In fact, it can be exceedingly dangerous for people who are allergic to specific pollens, resulting in rash, asthma and shock. For example, an estimated 6 percent of Americans are allergic to ragweed pollen; for such people, the ingestion of bee pollen could cause serious symptoms.

Present scientific evidence has failed to show that bee-pollen supplements are anything more than another get-rich-quick scheme foisted on the public by unscrupulous promoters.

To give you additional information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Fads II — Herbs and Other Supplements." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Escapee turned over to U.S.

MCALLEN, Texas (AP) — A man accused of masterminding an armed escapee from a San Antonio private detention center has been turned over to U.S. authorities by Mexican authorities who found him in Monterrey.

An alleged drug kingpin and another man remain at large.

Charles Compton, 58, was delivered to FBI agents and U.S. Marshals at the bridge between Reynosa, Mexico, and Hidalgo, Texas, Thursday, said Dale Williams, supervisor for the McAllen office of the U.S. Marshal Service.

"We have him in custody right now," Williams said.

Mexican authorities arrested Compton this week in Monterrey, Mexico, Williams said. He will be transferred to San Antonio, he added, but did not know when.

Still at large are Mario Alberto Salinas Trevino, 37, alleged to be a key figure in an international drug-smuggling ring, and Juan Chapa Gara, 45, a convicted drug dealer.

The three escaped from the private Wackenhut Corrections facility in San Antonio April 15, reportedly after Compton asked a guard for aspirin, then pulled a pistol on him when the guard opened the door.

Salinas Trevino is a Mexican citizen and as such is protected by the Mexican constitution from extradition to other countries.

Mexican citizens charged with crimes in other countries can be tried on those charges in Mexico, under a provision of the constitution.

Son Who Bought Trouble May Be Able to Profit by Mistake

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1990 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I have a favor to ask of you and your readers, if you would be so kind. I am the mother of a son who, through poor judgment, is now facing a possible felony conviction for buying some electronic equipment that turned out to be stolen. He is over 21 and should have known better, but the "bargain" was more than he could resist, and now he's in deep trouble.

He thinks if he is convicted his life will be ruined and he will be branded as a failure for the rest of his life. He sees no point in finishing his college education because "nobody hires a felon."

I've tried to tell him that there is life after mistakes — that he can turn his mistake into a positive learning experience and become a better person afterward. He won't listen.

Abby, I am sure there are many who have been in a spot like this and managed to rise above it. Please ask your readers for any success stories. Are there any felons who have turned their lives around and gone on to become respected members of society? Would they please write and tell how they turned their lives around? Are there some fields that are more forgiving?

Thank you and your readers for their efforts. I hope it helps.

CONCERNED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I'm printing your letter. I, too, hope it helps.

DEAR ABBY: I am 12 and have started at the junior high my older sister just graduated from. "Holly" is very pretty, smart and a great athlete, so you can imagine that she was very popular.

No one ever remembers my name. I go through school with teachers and kids calling me "Holly's sister." I am not a miracle of a girl like my sister, and I wish people would stop expecting so much from me. What can I do?

HOLLY'S SISTER

DEAR SISTER: All younger sisters and brothers of outstanding students and athletes have been saddled with this problem. Unfortunately, there's no way one can control the expectations or behavior of others.

I'm printing your letter, however, to remind teachers and kids to judge each person individually irrespective of his or her siblings' accomplishments.

***

DEAR ABBY: My husband thinks the piano is too feminine an instrument for boys, so he refuses to let our son take piano lessons as our daughter does. My husband is afraid that if our son takes piano, he will grow up to be gay or sissy, because when you play piano, your hand movements have to be graceful — not stiff. He thinks guitar is a better instrument for boys. I disagree. Our son is 8 years old and he likes music. Please advise me.

PIANO LOVER

DEAR PIANO LOVER: Has your son expressed a preference for any particular instrument? If he has, perhaps that's the instrument he should study. If he has no preference, you make the choice. The piano is an excellent instrument for a child to learn the basics of music. Then, if he wants to take guitar, drums, trumpet, violin or any other instrument — fine. But first, the piano. As for piano lessons affecting a child's sexual orientation — that's sheer nonsense!

***

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? Get it off your chest by writing to: Dear Abby, P.O. Box 69440, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bible revision due out in May

NEW YORK (AP) — "And he went out from Pharaoh in hot anger." So reads Exodus 11:8 about Moses in the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. A new, clearer rendering reads, "And in hot anger he left Pharaoh."

That's a sample of the clarifying changes made in the New Revised Standard Version reaching bookstores in May after 15 years' work by an interfaith team of Scripture scholars.

Seeking greater accuracy, clarity and more natural, intelligible and flowing English, the revision refines phrasing in what has been America's most broadly endorsed version of Scripture, the RSV.

That 38-year-old version holds approval of most major Protestant, Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox denominations. It's the first version to gain that common acceptance, says the Rev. Gerald Knoff, veteran Christian educator.

The revision of it, the NRSV, produced by a 30-member group of Protestant, Roman Catholic, Eastern Orthodox and Jewish scholars, draws on older original manuscripts for correctness and also sharpens the English wording.

"Those that were sent went," reads Luke 19:32 in the old RSV, but the NRSV puts it more smoothly, "Those who were sent departed."

An instance of greater precision is Amos 6:5, which in the old wording cites those who "like David invent for themselves instruments of music." Now, it says those who "like David improvise on instruments of music."

The Rev. Bruce M. Metzger of Princeton Theological Seminary, the courtly and learned Bible scholar who headed the translation team, calls the new version both "the newest and oldest."

He said the aim was to be "as literal as possible" in adhering to the ancient Hebrew and Greek texts but also "as free as necessary" in making the meaning clear in graceful, understandable English.

The NRSV was produced under auspices of the National Council of Churches, which also sparked production of the RSV in 1952. The translation team worked without charge, unlike translators of many other versions.

Six different publishing companies are putting out various editions of the revision, some including the deuterocanonical or apocryphal books between the Old and New Testaments, as wanted by some denominations.

In keeping with growing liturgical usage, the revision replaces the former uses of "thee" and "thou" in addressing God with "you." Metzger noted the original texts use the same pronoun in addressing God and people.

Despite some pressures for more sexually inclusive terms, Metzger said that was done only when the text allowed it concerning people. Pronouns remain masculine in referring to God and Jesus.

There was "no tampering with the gender of deity," Metzger said. "God remains 'Our Father,' and Jesus Christ is the 'Son of God.'"

However, he said English, unlike Hebrew and Greek, lacks a common-gender, third-person pronoun, leading to a masculine bias to male pronouns about people in past translations although the original text is more inclusive.

Astrograph by Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday

April 28, 1990

In the year ahead, you may travel more for pleasurable purposes than you have for some time. Your adventures en route could turn out to be profitable as well as fun.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You should have good powers of concentration today and be able to competently manage assignments that require the use of your mental attributes. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You're inclined to deal with life on practical terms today, and it isn't likely you'll do anything foolish in the finance department. However, your social efforts might not be as wise.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It looks like you should be able to do what you want to do without too much outside interference today. Focus your efforts on your self-interests.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) When making decisions that affect loved ones today, things will work out better for everyone concerned if you let your heart rule your head. Judge from a compassionate perspective.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This is a good day to make an effort to establish a sturdier relationship with a person you met awhile back but with whom you haven't been too involved.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) An objective of considerable importance can be achieved at this time if you apply yourself. Lady Luck will match the efforts you expend.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your logical evaluations will be seasoned with sensitivity today, making you an excellent person to give advice. Speak your mind freely.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Endeavors in which you get involved today should work out to your satisfaction, because you'll instinctively know how to use all the resources that are available.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It shouldn't be too difficult for you to get the cooperation you need from others today to advance a personal interest. Seek out competent allies.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Something pretty good you presently have going for you can be expanded into something even better. Start elevating your sights a bit today.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Social contacts you establish at this time could turn out to be rather lucky for you. It behooves you to do your best to make friends wherever you go.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Conditions are reasonably stable today where your material interests are concerned. Proceed with self-assurance and confidence if you're trying to put something together in this area.

king of spades, hoping to catch his partner with as much as A-9-x-x. Declarer won the ace and played king of clubs. West took the ace and played back the spade eight. The 10 won in dummy as East now realized that spades were hopeless for the defense. Now a diamond was played from dummy, and West had to win the ace as declarer played the seven-spot. West persisted with still another spade, thinking that East had held off with the queen, and that was all South needed. He scored four spade tricks, three hearts, one diamond and one club to make his game.

This sort of defense might well send East-West to the pharmacy for anti-nausea pills.

Rocky defense

By James Jacoby

It's puzzling that South got to three no-trump. Although the jump to three diamonds by North was a pre-emptive bid, it's unlikely that the partnership had agreed that North might hold only three high-card points. But analyze the defense as it unfolded.

Declarer won the heart lead and played a low diamond. West played the jack and dummy's queen was won by East, Jimmy Payne, with the king. It should have been clear to East that declarer's original diamond holding was 10-7-5. (With A-10-7-5, South would first play the ace to guard against East's holding the king alone.) If declarer's diamond holding was as weak as that, he probably held length and strength in the majors. So a club return would be safe and would give away nothing.

Instead East pictured South with a weak holding in spades. So he played

Little Dribblers Tournament play begins

Snyder's three teams all have one win and one loss after Thursday's opening games

All three Snyder entries in the Little Dribblers National Tournament stand at 1-1 after Thursday's opening rounds of play.

The local Junior Division all-stars were one of the first teams to get to play yesterday as they fell to Southwest Amarillo 50-46 in a hard-fought contest at Travis Gym in the 9:15 game. Timmy Taylor scored 17 and Kyle Sisson 14 to pace the Snyder squad.

Kirk White led Amarillo with 19, followed by William Bullard with 12.

The Snyder crew came back in its second contest of the day with a 54-25 thumping of Weatherford in a 6 p.m. contest at Snyder Junior High.

Chris Riggins took control for the hometowners, pouring in 21 points.

The Juniors were to play Levelland No. 2 in a 10:30 meeting this morning at Travis.

A win in the early game would place them in this afternoon's

3:30 battle against the loser of the Bryan-Silsbee game slated for 8 a.m. this morning.

A loss would stop Snyder's run at a title in the double-elimination tournament.

Snyder's Major Division team won a cliff-hanger in its opener.

Sparkle City captured a 37-35 win over Levelland No. 2 in a 1 p.m. battle at Scurry County Coliseum.

Page Patterson's 10 points led Snyder, followed by a pair of eight-point performances — one from Wayne Brazier and the other from Clinton Williams.

Mid-Cities Trinity, coming off a forfeit win over the Wilmer-Hutchins team, handed Snyder a 39-30 defeat at 7:15 p.m. Thursday.

Patterson once again paced the team in scoring as he hit for 10 points in the WTC gym. Beau McLeod tossed in nine for Snyder.

Dylan Osean of Trinity poured in 13, followed by Matt Williams' 10.

The Majors from Snyder were to play Lamesa at 11:45 a.m. in the coliseum. A win would place them against the winner of the El Paso-Mid-Cities Bell contest at 4:45 p.m. at Snyder High School.

A loss would eliminate the home team.

A similar situation is the setting for Snyder's Senior Division unit.

At 1-1, they were to battle Levelland No. 2 at 9:15 a.m. today. A loss would relegate the Snyder team to watching the rest of the tournament from the sidelines while a win would place them in today's 2:15 p.m. game at the high school against Wilmer-Hutchins, the team from which Snyder has already taken a forfeit win.

Assuming Snyder defeats Levelland in the early game and takes a second forfeit from W-H, the senior team would play again at 9:45 p.m. in the coliseum against the loser of the Mercer Island, Wa.-Lamesa tilt.

NATIONAL JUNIORS

In the busiest division in the tournament, Mercer Island, Wa. claimed a 35-34 win over Levelland No. 1 and followed with a 37-19 drubbing of El Paso to move into the second day of basketball action without a loss.

AMERICAN JUNIORS

Ironton, Mo. snatched an early 50-47 win from Brownfield on the strength of Travis Mayberry's 18 points and 15 from Chad Forinash.

J.P. Mithcell led Brownfield with 23.

Dalhart's Tate Fuller scored 24 as his team registered a 51-47 win over Brownsboro.

In other Thursday games, New Baden, Ill. rode the 26-point game of Steve Boien to a 44-41 win over Kermit and Hamshire's HFWS team whipped Mexia 42-34.

Zachary Grillary tossed in 18 and Tim Hodges added 11 for HFWS while Ken Clayton scored 11 for Mexia.

NATIONAL MAJORS

In the busiest division in the tournament, Mercer Island, Wa. claimed a 35-34 win over Levelland No. 1 and followed with a 37-19 drubbing of El Paso to move into the second day of basketball action without a loss.

AMERICAN SENIORS

CenLa, La. soundly defeated Ralls, 76-40, in the only Thursday game within the division.

Chad Rasberry scored 24 for the Louisiana team followed by teammate Dann Orr with 19 and Todd Cook and Jeremy Drason with 11 each.

Ralls was led by Arnaldo Hernandez' 19 and Kevin Torrez with 10.

The tournament continues throughout the city. Day passes are $4 for adults and $2 for children. Single-game tickets are $2 and $1.

Championship games in all divisions are scheduled Saturday at Scurry County Coliseum. The matchups begin with the American Juniors' final at 2:15 p.m., followed by the National Juniors' championship at 3:30 p.m.

The American Majors' title match is set at 6 p.m., followed by the American Senior championship at 7:15 p.m., the National Senior championship at 8:30 p.m. and the National Major championship at 9:45 p.m.

NBA playoffs...

Dallas falls to Trail Blazers

by The Associated Press
A playoff victory was a long time coming for Portland's Buck Williams, almost as long as it's been since the Trail Blazers won a playoff series.

Terry Porter scored 28 points and Williams had 21 points and 16 rebounds as Portland defeated Dallas 109-102 Thursday night in their NBA playoff opener.

It was Williams' first playoff game since 1986 and the first postseason victory since 1984. New Jersey, which traded him to Portland in the offseason, was swept in the first round in 1985 and 1986 and hasn't been in the playoffs since.

"In the last three years, I haven't been in the playoffs, and it's great to be back," Williams said. "This is what the NBA is all about."

The Blazers, who matched Detroit for the NBA's second-best record with 59 victories, haven't won a playoff series since 1985.

In other playoff openers Thursday night, it was San Antonio over Denver 119-103 in the West, and Philadelphia 111, Cleveland 106; Detroit 104, Indiana 92 and Boston 116, New York 105 in the East.

Tonight's series openers have

Milwaukee at Chicago in the East and Houston at the Los Angeles Lakers and Phoenix at Utah in the West.

Saturday's games have Indiana at Detroit, New York at Boston, Denver at San Antonio and Dallas at Portland.

On Sunday, it's Cleveland at Philadelphia, Milwaukee at Chicago, Houston at Los Angeles and Phoenix at Utah.

Portland led throughout the second half but was unable to pull away until the final 4½ minutes. Porter, who was 15-for-16 from the free-throw line, preserved the victory by hitting nine of 10 free throws in the final 57 seconds.

Harper led Dallas with 24 points and Roy Tarpley had 22 points and 14 rebounds.

Spurs 119, Nuggets 103

Willie Anderson shook off the jitters of his first-ever playoff game to score 27 points and David Robinson had 26 points and 13 rebounds for San Antonio against Denver.

The Midwest Division champion Spurs led most of the way, but didn't turn the game into a romp until midway through the fourth quarter when a 10-0 run made it 101-82. The Nuggets trailed by as many as 20 points down the stretch.

Ryan comes close to sixth no-hitter

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Nolan Ryan has a major league-record five no-hitters and what happened to him against the Chicago White Sox is a perfect example of why he's still looking for No. 6.

Ryan missed a no-hitter on a check-swing single by Ron Kittle on a curve outside the strike zone in the second inning. The ball fell just outside the reach of first baseman Rafael Palmeiro who stumbled trying to catch the Texas leaguer.

"The thing about a no-hitter is that everything has to fall in place," said the world expert on the subject. "Tonight is an example of why they're so hard to get."

Ryan set a club record with 16 strikeouts and tied Bob Feller's major league record with his 12th one-hitter Thursday night as the Texas Rangers beat the White Sox 1-0.

Ryan said Kittle hit a bad pitch that should have been worse. "I tried to get him to chase a bad curve in the dirt but I didn't make it bad enough," Ryan said after his 58th career shutout.

It was his most strikeouts in a game since Sept. 9, 1987 when he fanned 16 San Francisco Giants.

At 4-0, Ryan has matched the best start of his major league career and is only seven victories short of the magic 300 plateau.

"I'm looking forward to that day (No. 300)," Ryan said.

Ryan said his 95 mph fastball was good but his out pitch was his curve.

"When I throw a high percentage of my curves for strikes, then I have a high percentage of strikeouts," Ryan said. "I had great stuff tonight. The one hit was just a fluke but that's the way it goes."

Palmeiro blamed himself for not making the catch on Kittle's bloop.

"I just tripped going back. It's as simple as that," Palmeiro said. "It was a routine play. I went back to my left, turned to the right, and I just tripped."

"I saw the replay after the game. I almost killed myself but I decided not to."

Ryan didn't blame Palmeiro. "The ground was soft out there from all the rain," Ryan said. "That's why he tripped."

"I was trying to hit the ball up the middle and it just shot off the other way with a little luck," Kittle said. "Ryan had a great curve."

White Sox manager Jeff Torborg, the catcher for Ryan's first no-hitter 17 years ago with the California Angels, said the 43-year-old right-hander should be credited with a no-hitter for what he did Thursday night.

"That was greatness," Torborg said. "I shouldn't be amazed by him. He is a better pitcher now than he was 17 years ago when I caught him."

"He has better control, better mechanics and better breaking stuff. In the first inning, I said, 'He has no-no stuff.' It was a no-no. That hit was a fluke. You have to be lucky to get a no-hitter."

It was the 200th time Ryan had struck out 10 or more hitters in a game and the 24th time he's fanned 15 or more. It was the 11th 1-0 victory of his career.

GOOD CUT — Snyder batter Toby Goodwin takes a rip at a pitch from Andrews' Jesse Armendariz in Thursday's 4-3 loss to the Mustangs at Moffett

Field. Snyder will be on the road tonight as Willie Garcia pitches for the Tigers against the Lobos in Monahans. (SDN Staff Photo)

Snyder edged by Mustangs

Errors, AHS pitching lead to baseball loss

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

Snyder's Tigers fell victim to themselves and the pitching of Andrews ace Jesse Armendariz as the SHS defense committed four errors and the Mustang pitcher struck out 14 to result in a 4-3 AHS win.

"He seemed to get stronger as the game progressed," Snyder coach Albert Lewis said of Armendariz' performance. "He's just not natural. He's too good."

Snyder got in an early 4-0 hole on defensive miscues that resulted in all four Andrews runs.

The Mustangs fought off a late inning rally to leave the Tigers one run short in the crucial District 4-4A contest.

The Mustangs broke on top in the bottom of the first as second baseman Chad Dye was walked aboard and stole second and scored on a single from Jason Graham, the Mustangs' catcher. Graham was picked off by SHS catcher Blair Williams in a steal attempt followed by Jamie Emiliano's fly-out to end the inning.

Both teams' bats were quiet until the Mustangs half of the third when Dye again hit the base paths.

Dye reached first on a throwing error by Tiger shortstop Gilbert Hernandez and went to second on a wild pitch. Graham walked behind Dye and Emiliano followed with a single that scored the Mustang second sacker and moved Graham to third.

An error charged to Snyder third baseman Randy Morris on a slow grounder from Eric Hammack allowed Graham to get home and up the AHS advantage to 3-0.

The tally went to 4-zip in the fourth when Teddy Jennings went home after getting on with a single and moving to third on errors by second baseman Jason West and Morris.

The score came as a result of Emiliano's second base hit.

Snyder's rally started in the last of the sixth on a no-out single by Willie Garcia, who had the only two-hit night by a Tiger hitter. Morris followed with a single and first baseman John Wright contributed an RBI with a base hit.

Wright scored Snyder's third run after going to second on walk to Mark King and a single from pitcher Jamey Morton.

Armendariz struck out the side in the seventh to halt the Snyder drive.

Morton was tagged with the loss bringing his season record to 9-3 while Armendariz, 8-1, accepted the win.

Morton walked six in the loss, gave up seven hits and struck out 5.

The Tigers fall into a third-place tie with Big Spring after Thursday's game with a 6-4 district record. The Tigers are 14-7 on the year.

Andrews improves to 9-1 and 15-5 to maintain their hold on first place by two games over second-place Pecos.

The race gets more interesting as Andrews must continue without Armendariz and Dye who finished his season last night because of grades and Leffingwell who has a hairline fracture in his left ankle.

Leffingwell, the Mustangs second pitcher, will be out two to three weeks.

Snyder's schedule continues tonight as Garcia takes the hill in Monahans against the 4-5 Lobos.

Other district matchups tonight include San Angelo Lake View at Pecos and Sweetwater at Andrews.

Big Spring hosts Ft. Stockton Saturday.

WTC's rodeo team at Hardin-Simmons

ABILENE — Western Texas College contestants fared well in Thursday's first performance of the Hardin-Simmons Rodeo.

Michael Gaffney and Darrin Cook finished the night in first and second place, respectively, in bull riding with scores of 79 and 74.

Cathy Crowder represents the WTC women with her third place time of 5.3 seconds in breakaway roping.

The rodeo is scheduled to continue tonight with an 8 p.m. performance and tomorrow's 1 p.m. matinee.

The finals are slated for 8 p.m. Saturday night with the top ten finishers in the long go in each event to vie for top honors.

Christian radio station sought for all listeners in Snyder area

A committee sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance and chaired by Brent and Stacey Hardegree is working with community churches to bring a Christian radio station to the Snyder listening area.

The station is KGNZ out of Abilene and the call letters stand for King's Good News. It is a non-profit, listener supported radio station that programs mostly contemporary Christian music and teachings from such Christian personalities as James Dobson, Chuck Smith, Tim LaHaye and Larry Burkett.

The local group is working closely with radio station officials to raise the $14,000 needed to get a translator installed. After the translator is installed, the yearly upkeep would be approximately $3,600. This amount would be written into the station's budget and therefore, would not be the responsibility of the local community. San Angelo recently installed a KGNZ translator. To date, approximately $1,000 has been collected and there are tentative plans for a Snyder KGNZ weekend as a means to raise the necessary funds.

The project is the brain child of Trinity United Methodist Church pastor Rusty Dickerson. After moving to Snyder from Hamlin, Dickerson discovered that he could only receive the station clearly when the weather cooperated. In February, he and Eddie Stewart, church missions chairman, sent out 59 letters to community churches.

In the letters, Dickerson and Stewart warned that the rock and roll heard on the radio is Satan's #1 media. However, they hope to "give our youth an option."

The letters informed of the intention to try to raise the money necessary to have the translator installed and asked the churches for their support. "We have a lot of churches praying for the effort," said Dickerson. He said the committee is taking deliberate steps to obtain the translator rather than rushing into anything.

According to Dickerson, there is a need in the community for spiritually uplifting programming, but he is quick to add that the new station is not being brought in to be in competition with the local KSNY radio station. KGNZ offers no advertising time and no local programming such as area weather and news.

He now feels that the key to public support is getting the word out to the public about their undertaking. The committee meets every Tuesday night at 6 p.m. in the basement at Snyder Savings and Loan for anyone interested is invited to attend, or monetary donations can be made by sending them to KGNZ, 1001 Cedar Crest Drive, Abilene, Tex., 79601, or to Mark Estes at West Texas State Bank.

More money, more burnout reported by Texas teachers

FORT WORTH (AP) — A survey conducted by the state's largest teacher group shows that although Texas teachers are earning much more money than they did a decade ago, more are burning out and have serious doubts about staying in the profession.

The survey was released Thursday as more than 1,500 teacher representatives gathered for a three-day convention of the Texas State Teachers Association. The Association is expected to endorse a gubernatorial candidate today for the upcoming state election. The candidate who wins the endorsement is expected to speak to convention delegates Saturday.

More than twice as many teachers cite poor working conditions and job stress as reasons for quitting, the survey revealed. Average salaries among the teachers surveyed climbed 90 percent in the past decade — from $14,113 in 1980 to $26,838 this year. During that period, the cost of living rose about 48 percent.

Other reasons teachers cited for quitting included more job pressures, paperwork and frustration with bureaucracy.

Of the teachers surveyed, 45 percent said they were seriously considering leaving teaching — up from the 38 percent in 1980 who said they were considering a career change.

Morningside sets 2-day garage sale

The Morningside Baptist Church will have a garage sale to raise funds for its youth account today and Saturday.

The sale is scheduled from 2-6 p.m. and starts at 8 a.m. Saturday at 2712 El Paso. Various items will be offered.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to pay for camp fees and related expenses.

Dunn Baptist Church to celebrate 100th anniversary on May 6

Dunn Baptist Church will celebrate its 100th birthday Sunday, May 6, with a 10 a.m. service to be followed by a meal at the Dunn Community Center.

All members, former members, former pastors and friends are invited to attend. Everyone is asked to bring a "basket lunch." Tea, bread and paper goods will be furnished.

Originally named Dunn Missionary Baptist Church, Dunn Baptist was organized in a schoolhouse in 1889 with nine charter members. Very little of the history of the church is known because most of the records were destroyed when a tornado struck in 1907.

Today the church is affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention. Its former pastors are Rev. Timison, Henry Turner, Henry Ellis, Rev. McGaha, I.D. Hull, J.E. McDermitt, T.L. Nipp, Rev. Shoemake, Carl McGaha, C.C. Cumbie, Cone Merritt, Walter Devers, Marvin Leach, C.J. Smith, Douglas Crow, Dan Lang, Alex Campbell, L.C. Jones, Shelby Jones, Rev. Petty, J.R. Reedy, Darrell Grimmley, Steve Peace and Dale Lavender.

Aaron Oden presently ministers to the congregation.

Singer files lawsuit following accident

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Attorneys for singer Gloria Estefan have filed a lawsuit in federal court seeking at least $400,000 in damages for a March accident that broke two vertebrae in her back.

Ms. Estefan's family and staff joined her in the lawsuit, filed Thursday. The defendants are two truck drivers, their employers and other companies associated with the trucking firms at the time of the March 20 accident. Ms. Estefan, lead singer of the Miami Sound Machine, and her family and staff were headed to a concert in Syracuse, N.Y., when their bus was rear-ended by a tractor-trailer while stuck in traffic halted because of an accident involving another tractor-trailer.

Surgery to repair her back was performed in New York and she later moved back to her Miami area home, where she is recuperating.
