The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A physician received a personal letter from a prominent mail order house. It was a well written appeal to the doctor for his business, and closed by saying: "If there is any reason why you do not buy of us, please give us the reason in the enclosed stamped envelope, and we will strive to remove the cause."

The physician read the letter and replied as follows: "Your letter of recent date, asking why I had not traded with you for a long time, received; and as you ask me to tell you frankly why, I will give you a few reasons: "First, I am in business in this community, and am looking to this community, with its varied industries, for my support. I cannot ask the merchants of this town for their support, if I do give them mine.

"Second, in looking over my books, I fail to find either Mr. Sears, Mr. Roebuck, or other of the company's names, which reminds me that neither of these gentlemen have ever given me a penny's patronage. Why is this? Am I too far away or have neither of them needed a physician; or are they afraid of the mail order plan when it comes to the practice of medicine? I can certainly give as good satisfaction by mail as your house can, and will appreciate a call from either of them when in need of medical service.

"Third in looking over the subscription lists for improving our city streets and public highways, I have failed to find the name of either member of your firm down for one penny to assist the work. Also I have failed to find your name on any of the charity lists where help has been rendered to the poor; in other words, you are not down as a contributor to our Helping Hand Society. In fact, in all the movements for the betterment of our conditions, where our community has needed the united efforts of her public spirited citizens I have failed to find your name among the list of our contributing merchants. Your name is not on our city tax books nor do I find where you have paid a city or county license to do a mercantile business in competition with our home merchants all of whose names are on the lists I have mentioned.

"These are a few answers to your questions and I trust you will see the justice of them."—Exchange.

Turkey to Have Rural Route.
Rural Route No. 1 out of Turkey in this county has been approved and announced by the post office department. It will cover about 19 miles and supply 80 families. The carrier will leave Turkey at 8 a. m. and return at 1 p. m. The service is expected to begin early in the summer. —Hall Co. Herald.

Wolf Bounty Fund Exhausted.
Austin, Texas, March 27.—The appropriation of $100,000 made by the legislature to pay bounties for the extermination of wolves, coyotes and other wild animals of that character, became exhausted today, according to announcement by the comptroller's department, no more of such claims will be allowed in the future. This law which was enacted by the Thirty-second legislature provides that a certain bounty shall be paid, the county paying the entire amount and then putting in a claim on the state for a refund of three-fourths of the entire amount. Those counties that have already paid out this money will lose the money as there will be no deficiency created nor will any future claims be allowed.

Community Co-Operation

Copyright Farm and Ranch-Holland's Magazine

Do you fully realize what the community in which you live really means to you? You have probably seen or heard of the wonderful educational and religious advantages, the fine stores, beautiful parks, good roads, etc., in far-distant localities, all of which mean nothing to you compared to the advantages and conveniences offered you at home.

The reason for this is that you are affected only by conditions in your own community, where you are benefited by advantages, and must suffer for lack of them. There are only two possible reasons why a person should remain in any certain community; their duties require it, or they simply like to live there. Isn't this true in your own case?

In either case it is distinctly to your advantage to do everything within your power to help improve local conditions, because the community belongs to you and your neighbors, and you are governed by these existing conditions.

A prosperous community is, in every instance, a desirable place in which to live because it offers its people advantages and conveniences according to the extent of its prosperity.

Attended District Meet.
The District Farmers' Union Convention of this district was held last Wednesday and Thursday in Whiteflat and a number of Floyd County delegates were present, among them being the following: B. J. Smith, Chas. Trowbridge, J. W. Bryant, J. P. McCarty, J. T. Pitts, J. A. Bentley, S. O. Adams, J. E. E. Pate, J. S. Dickey, W. G. Sherrod, N. A. Guyer.

The County meeting which was scheduled to be held with the Lakeview local has been changed to meet at Lockney on the above dates. The change was made on account of the Lakeview School building being in use.

Much interest in the Union matters, is being evinced by the membership in this county. The Union is proving its worth to the membership.

To Extend the Q. A. & P.
Sam Lazarus, former Texan, but now a professional citizen of St. Louis, was in Fort Worth Monday accompanied by his shock absorber, C. H. Sommer, who measures up to all the requirements needed to make an ideal captain of industry. Mr. Lazarus is the builder of the Quanah, Acme & Pacific railroad, now starting at Acme—hard by Quanah—and with his rails to about three miles west of Roaring Springs.

"We hope to connect in a financial way, shortly, that will enable us to build on toward the setting sun," said Mr. Sommer, whose capacity title is vice-president of the road, "and once let us connect with the money needed, you will see our splendid little line running mogul engines in and out El Paso."

Mr. Lazarus is a doer of things. He has little time and less patience for those who would pick flaws in the schemes that result in success, but no man has ever known him to flock a bit of brightness from any dollar, and his whole life since he first began to climb the ladder of success at Sherman many years ago, is as clean as the proverbial hound's tooth. Lazarus and Sommer left Saturday for Quanah, from which place they will ride in state to the end of their little road—just as wide as the widest, and a slight better built than a lot of roads in Texas—to three miles west of Roaring Springs.—Fort Worth Record.

 ...ve just read Mr. J. S. Mc-
 ...ns annual report of his wife's ...roduce. Well done good and ...faithful servant. Will you allow ...me space for a like statement,
 ...I will say before I begin I am ...not going to try and cast a ...shadow over Mr. McLains state...ment, for I believe his wife
 ...raised every bit of it. He failed
 ...to show what became of the
 ...morey.

Early last spring my husband built me a nice chicken house, planted a patch of millet around it he said for the little chickens and turkeys. He helped me to keep up with the turkey hens, turned the eggs in the incubator some. I was in bad health but I thought with his help I could do well in the poultry business.

Well the millet grew fine, turkeys hatched well the incubator did well, so I felt fine. One morning he came in and said,
 "I'm not going to have everything I have destroyed by those turkeys and my neighbors all mad." (The closest being a mile.) If he had only told me once I could have stood it, but it was everytime he came in the house. So I began to think I would have to herd turkeys, but the grasshoppers came to my rescue, by the time they were gone the millet was cut, baled and in the barn. The chickens did fine so one day he says, the pullets we will keep, but the roosters will taste just as well to me as anybody, so roosters begin to die and the pullets have certainly done their part this winter. With the aid of two bushels of chops the grasshoppers and gravel, I raised one hundred fine turkeys, sold them for a good price and received a new hat and the promise of a Walk-Up milk cooler in the Summer. With these encouragements I kept twenty turkey hens and have my incubator sitting.

Now for the butter, we only milk two jersey cows. They have to supply the table three times a day with nice rich butter and furnish a little spending money, such as stationery, smoking tobacco and a little Sunday School money. Our stationery bill is over a dollar a month.
 You will say, "my she has lots of correspondents." Well I have several, I have one in your town she seems to realize my condition and only writes once a year, I'll have stationery as long as I have cows. My husband is clerk of a Fraternal order, I furnish him in stationery. The Lodge pays him so you see he has money of his own. If Mrs.
 McLain dont know how much it costs to keep a cob pipe going let her try it with butter money.

As for women voting I will not say much for I know I wou-never get to vote, husband spend one day and night at the poll and by that time the tobacco is gone and some one has to be a home. Now I know Mr. McLain did not think his letter would read only in Floyd County, but live away down in South West Texas and if he should ever happen to come our way he would think we never saw news paper, but we read the Hesperian every week.

He spoke of the privations incident to settling of a new country. He told of the hardships the settler had to undergo in efforts to hold his claim and in a living for his family. He trusted the utter lack of educational facilities 27 years ago, the progressive, forward movement of the schools of the present day. His address was plain, instructive, and inspiring.

The Rural School as a Social Center, was the first subject for discussion. The speakers being present Prof. Savage kindly concluded by Mr. Nobles. The idea advanced was preparation for rural teaching, to date building, plenty of apparatus for teaching, and harmonious relationship between teacher, patrons, and pupils, all aid in bringing about the desired results. The establishment of teachers' homes was an idea advanced that caused much discussion and some favorable comment. J. J. Day and Rev. G. W. Tubbs made interesting talks on this subject. Rev. Tubbs stressed the importance of rural life. "Cities", he said, "may prosper for a time, then decay, and be forgotten, but the country still remains, man makes the cities; God made the country."

The meeting was now adjourned until after dinner. After a few minutes it was announced that dinner was ready to be served, and all gathered around the bountiful repast prepared by the good ladies of Starkey. This was an enjoyable occasion indeed and many were the expressions of praise to the ladies for their painstaking labor.

The noon hour was spent in pleasant conversations, but soon it was time to begin the afternoon session. The young ladies of the school sang another song, after which Rev. Shearer spoke on The need of Libraries in Rural Schools. Mr. Savage then followed with how to secure Libraries in Rural Schools. Different ones expressed themselves as being in favor of libraries, so a collection was started which resulted in a total of $27.18 in cash and subscriptions, to aid in starting the library. The trustees will no doubt add to this from the school fund, and Starkey will soon be the possessor of a nice, handsome library. We believe this to be an excellent move and hope that other schools will soon begin the good work.

A. G. Nobles, who lives at Armore, Okla., but who is living with relatives near Co. addressed the institute. Mr. Nobles is an ex-teacher, having followed the profession for a number of years. He is a speaker of no mean ability, and entertained the audience very highly. He praised the Panhandle of Texas, and the Starkey community in particular, for the high moral worth of its citizens, and for the advance made along all industrial, educational, moral and religious lines. His many flashes of wit and humor, and his mirth provoking stories, kept the interest of his listeners keyed to the highest pitch.

As it was now growing late the remaining subjects on the program were passed over and a short business session was held. Invitations for the next meeting were received from Center, Sandhill and McCoy. The association decided on Center as the next meeting place, which will be Marce 28. There being no further business the meeting was then adjourned.

We believe this was a day of genuine profit, as well as pleasure, to all in attendance, and we left for our homes with grateful hearts to the good people of Starkey for the kindness and courtesy shown us on this occasion.—Pres.

Government licenses still in force, it is stated, are held by wholesale dealers, who will be permitted to continue shipments outside the state, drug stores and river steamers. Without exception, according to police reports, the saloons closed their doors for the last time promptly at midnight last night and without the buffoonry usually attending such an incident. Up to a late hour tonight no complaint had been made of violation of the prohibition law. Under state laws now in force the possession of a federal license is considered prima facie evidence that the holder is selling liquor.

Rural Problems in Rhyme.

"Write some limericks about the farm was the assignment recently given a class at the Kansas Agricultural College. Here are a few that were handed in:

There was an old farmer named Andy
 Who built a big barn and a dandy;
 His old woman got sore
 Cause the house had no floor
 But would you have that worry
 Andy?
 —D. L. M.

Said old man Royal to his son,
 "I know how this farm should be run.
 And I don't want no jays
 With their book farmin' ways
 Come foolin' round here, not one."
 But this likely young chap from the woods,
 Who was fond of his flock and his broods
 Got started, they say,
 In the book-farming way,
 And now he delivers the goods.
 —K. M.

There once was a farmer named Wellem
 Who raised good potatoes, couldnt sell 'em,
 He put an ad in the Star,
 They went by the car.
 When you see any farmers you tell 'em.
 —C. D.

The swill over-run the tin pail;
 The light in the kitchen was pale;
 There was added a drain,
 A large window pane,

The house is no longer for sale.
 —N. A.

There was an old lady in Krot,
 Whose kitchen was woefully hot.
 Hubby thought it was right
 But he made a big fight
 When she said: "Then you cook, I'll not."
 —E. H.

There was a good farmer named Fred
 Who built him a splendid low shed;
 His implements there
 He kept with great care—
 "Tis better and cheaper," he said.

Panhandle Farmers to Meet in Amarillo.

Two years ago, the Panhandle of Texas was represented at the annual Farmers' Institute, held at College Station under the state Department of Agriculture, by one farmer; in 1913, there were about one hundred. Much of the time of the institute was taken up in hearing and discussing lectures on topics which do not fit into Panhandle farming. The people in northwest Texas are interested in kaffir, milo, sorghum, feterita, silos, dairying, baby beef, and conservation of moisture; and many of the Panhandle delegates asked each other, "Why not have a district institute where topics in which Panhandle farmers are interested appear on the program?" Two days are consumed in getting to College Station, and two more days in getting home; this time could be saved and the five days set apart for a district institute and short course made good use of.

The time of the coming institute has not been decided upon, but will be announced later. The agricultural departments of the Santa Fe, Rock Island and Fort Worth & Denver will co-operate; besides the State Department of Agriculture, the A. & M. College will be represented by lecturers and exhibits. Discussions on live topics will occur daily, following talks by authorities. The farmer and stockman who cannot attend the whole series of meetings can, by consulting the program, to be issued in advance of the institute, pick out those meetings in which he is most interested. The "cow man" will be interested in baby beef production, and the dairyman, whether he milks six cows or sixty, will be glad to hear how he can make his business more profitable; both men will be interested in the various types of silos to be discussed, and want to know the best way to grow crops for the silo, how to cut and pack the feedstuff to the greatest advantage and especially how to feed the silage for the greatest possible gains.

Seed selection, an important topic to the Panhandle farmers, who now have to ship in most of the seed they sow, or buy inferior threshed seed from neighbors or mills, and seed testing will be placed on the program. How to produce more beef and more pork on the farm will surely interest a large number of stockmen; the subject of how to fatten profitably the cattle raised at home, and the subject of pasture for hogs are very important. Classes in stock-judging, grain and forage judging, poultry judging, testing milk and cream with the Babcock tester, candling eggs, etc., will probably be arranged for those interested.

Much attention will be given in arranging for the institute to have well-conducted departments for the farmers' wives and daughters. Whether from the farm or ranch, there will be considerable of interest to ladies. Besides the poultry subjects, there will be classes in cooking and sewing under the direction of the Texas Industrial College at Denton; there is sure to be something to interest even the best cooks and the best dress-makers in the Panhandle; the home decoration and household management will be discussed.

The plans are being worked out slowly, but effectively, every known organization of farmers in Texas within a radius of Amarillo have been addressed on the forthcoming institute, and replies of the most favorable nature are beginning to come in. When the views of a majority of the various sections of the Panhandle are known, and the open dates of the Agricultural and Industrial College ascertained, further announcement of the program and dates will be made. The last week in August has been suggested as the time which might suit most farmers and stockmen. Any farmer, stockman or organization interested which has not heard direct from Amarillo should address Dr. M. W. Cunningham, who is chairman of the Sub-committee on Education—a division of the Agricultural Department of the Chamber of Commerce.

Nursing from this bottle is next best to mother's nursing. Even baby knows it.

The broad, yielding, rubber Hygeia Breast has the same contour as a mother's breast. A hidden shield beneath the nipple makes it non-collapsible and prevents infant's taking too much of breast into its mouth. You can get right down into this wide-mouthed bottle with cloth and fingers. It's more sanitary, more natural, more modern than the old-fashioned small-neck bottle.

Wanted.—A Husband.

The Mayor of Houston has received a letter from a former Texas widow, now residing in Michigan, who frankly states that she is tired of the North and longs to return to the Sunny South. She asks the assistance of Mayor Campbell in finding her a husband in Texas, in order that she may return to the land of her birth.

There are half a million bachelors and widowers in Texas, according to our census records, to whom this proposition should appeal. The spirit of chivalry still holds its beautiful sway in Texas and of this vast number of eligibles surely there is one who will agree to transplant this "blooming widow" from the frozen regions of the North to the blossoming South.—News Item.

We call the attention of the Mayor of Houston to the Mayor of Floydada, whose eligibility in this connection is especially emphasized. Mayor Montgomery is as chivalrous as the chivalry of the Old South.

We believe that in order for him to fully appreciate the appeal of this widow in the frozen north, it will be necessary for the Mayor of Houston to prove first, that she is fairly fair to look upon, likewise a good cook, and endowed to be a mayoress of Floydada. In other words, the people of Floydada ever solicitous as to the well-being of its citizenship, are willing that the mayor be led a lamb to the slaughter or altar, whichever it may prove, but they wish a thorough statement of facts in the premises before negotiations are carried any further, regardless of the strong desire of the widowed one to be transplanted to her native land.

About sixty days ago an advertising proposition came into our office from a concern called the Hot Springs Medecine Co. It proposed that you could run the ad as long as you desired and send them the bill. The ad was for the cure of the usual Hot Springs diseases, which are well known. It was so palpably a catch that it was promptly deposited in the waste basket. We washed our exchange list and, lo and behold, half of them were caught and run the business. We now understand the boys are learning they have played suckers.—Hall County Herald.

—Had Mr. Mr. Johnson taken the trouble to investigate this company, whose letterhead proclaimed their capital stock as $100,000, he might have been unable to find them in any of the commercial books; at least that was the result of an investigation made when the offer was put up to this office.

Evidently somebody was picked for the sucker and in this instance the bait was so tempting it overcame better judgement.

But the country editor was not the only sucker; some of the higher-ups in the daily class fell into a game of the Hot Springs company, whose president's signature was signed by the office girl, in at least one instance.

"War is Hell."

Promoted by those who seek profit and notoriety, the victories of war are won and lost by the sacrifice of the lives of loved sons and brothers.

Armies and navies take from the human race the best specimens of men and leave the aged and unfit in the majority to build up the race and develop civilization.

Modern war is promoted generally by those who do the least fighting and pay but little in sacrifice or money.

If those who are the foremost in starting wars were compelled to be the first in battle and bear a full share of the grief and cost, there would be no wars—but few, if any wish to sacrifice sons and bear the financial burdens incident to war.

Hate and vengeance are not valid reasons for making war, those who would create war for financial gain or personal aggrandizement are our most dangerous enemies. The glory of winning a battle will not heal the bleeding heart of a single mother whose son has been slain, nor will the conquering of a Nation bring happiness to the widow whose husband lies in an unmarked grave.

Education and Christianity will bring permanent peace, prosperity and lasting happiness—when education becomes general Christianity will bring universal peace.

Wars that have been, and to keep off those that might be, now consume 65 cents of every dollar collected by our Government.

Before declaring war, let us hold a primary with the understanding that those who vote for war must be the first to the front and bear a percentage, according to their wealth, of the financial burden.

Universal peace makes for prosperity and happiness. War means waste and misery. Ask those who have sons and money if they are willing to sacrifice the lives of their sons and spend their money to win battles, and those who howl for war will cease to be heard in the land.

The number of men in armies and navies, if engaged in useful pursuits with the money it costs to maintain armies and navies, would make this earth a veritable Garden of Eden.

"War is hell" for those who furnish the husbands and sons to do the fighting.—F. P. Holland, in Farm and Ranch.

School News

School Again in Session.

Floydada Public School took up its work again last Monday morning after a week's dismissal on account of the scarlet fever scare. All pupils who had been exposed to the disease or had been affected by it, were required to have a medical certificate before re-entering school, and no difficulty on account of an increased spread of the disease is anticipated.

All the cases reported to date developed last week and the week previous. None of them have proven serious.

Parent-Teachers' Meeting at Center.

Saturday March 28 the Parent-Teachers' Association held its third meeting for this year at Center school, six miles north-east of Floydada. This was one of the most pleasant days of the year—a day ideal for any public gathering.

Center community has established quite a reputation in the past for the progressive spirit of its citizens, and the active part taken by them in every public enterprise. They have been alive to educational needs, and have sought to keep up with the spirit of the times. Their nice commodious building and equipment stands as a visible expression of their efforts in this line. Miss Ethel Tubbs is the teacher of this school, and is a wide-awake, energetic, and progressive young teacher.

A fairly good crowd was present at the beginning of the morning session, but others continued to come in until by noon a large crowd had gathered, among them several visitors from nearby communities.

After singing and prayer Prof. Savage called attention to the fact that the program for the day was, in most respects a departure from the plan we have been following. But that it was nevertheless an important one, the questions for consideration being a few of those now being discussed in Parent-Teachers organizations all over the country.

"My Kingdom for a horse," proffered a defeated monarch. But the modern man gets an infinitely better means of transportation—at lowest cost—when he buys a sturdy Ford. The economical Ford has made the horse an extravagance at any price.

F. C. Yarbrough led out with the subject, "How can our School rooms be made more Attractive?" Several important suggestions were given. The influence of pictures, both for good and evil, upon the mind and heart of the child was emphasized. Cleanliness and neatness upon the part of both teacher and pupils, were mentioned as being great aids in this line. Mr. Yarbrough also suggested that trustees could help out very much in this way by employing beautiful and attractive lady teachers, and refusing to employ such ugly men as Cook and Savage. Talks upon the attractiveness of school were also made by Miss Elsie and F. E. Savage.

As it was now past noon the meeting was adjourned until after dinner. In a few minutes the good ladies of Center had spread before the hungry people, a feast that would have appeased the hunger of a crowd several times as large as the one present. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest capacity. Some enmity was aroused between Rev. Shearer and Chas. Trowbridge, as to which could eat the most dinner, but this was finally settled without any loss of friendship.

After the dinner had been cleared away and a few minutes spent in pleasant conversation the afternoon session was begun. Miss Pauline Smith led with a discussion of "What can a good Father and a good mother do?" A number of things mentioned along this line.

"How does the Home affect the Character of the Child?" was the subject addressed by Bro. Shea. Several great many things were mentioned which goes to prove the schools are, and will largely what the homes of the children make them.

Mr. L. B. Maxey gave a talk in which he stressed the importance of obedience in children. "Children who are taught to obey their parents do not obey their teachers in school," he said. "Neither will they likely to obey the laws of the country, of nature, and of

Mr. C. Snodgrass, who as a visitor from Floydada, made a very interesting and instructive talk on the raising of children. "No two children are all alike in disposition or in mind," he said. "Therefore each child requires a special study to be of its own individual need do not believe it is possible always know what is best for the child."

Three numbers on the program were not brought up for discussion, as the persons assigned to them were absent.

Besides the good and interesting part of the program there were visitors from several other communities. Green and daughter Miss Red, and Charley Harbaker; Chas. Trowbridge, Lakeview; G. W. Shearer, Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, and daughter Miss from Floydada; Mr. Jarrett.

Answers to Dairying Questions.

Prof. J. W. Ridgway, of the Dairy Husbandry Department at the A. & M. College of Texas, in answer to questions asked by farmers and stockmen, made the following replies:

"Cottonseed meal (raw) makes a very satisfactory feed for dairy cows, provided they are not fed in too large quantities. I would never advise feeding over six or eight pounds daily. A good grain or concentrated ration for dairy cows consists of equal parts by weight of cold pressed cottonseed cake and wheat bran. For every 2½ pounds of milk, feed one pound of this mixture. As an illustration, if your cow is giving three gallons of milk daily, then she should have ten pounds of the above mixture, 5 pounds at a feed. In connection with this grain or concentrated feed, she should have as much Johnson grass hay as she will eat up clean. Cottonseed meal can be if preferred, fed instead of the cake, 3 pounds of meal being substituted for 5 pounds of cake, which will get practically the same results with only a slight if any increase in cost."

G. S. Wilson, of Lockney, was transacting business in Floydada last Tuesday.

TEXAS INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Texas City—Building activities continue in this city unabated and at present a number of business structures and residences are under construction. About 100 new buildings have been erected at this place since the first of the year.

Wichita Falls—The citizens of this place are rejoicing over the announcement that the National Editorial Association, which convenes in Houston April 23rd, will make a special trip to this city in its circle tour of Texas. The local Chamber of Commerce is planning to elaborately entertain the visitors and has completed arrangements for an automobile ride through the big Electra oil fields. Other features for their reception have been arranged.

Galveston—The first importation of wheat shorts ever made through this port arrived last week when the Norwegian steamship Thyra docked from Buenos Ayres with 22,400 bags of this commodity as part of its cargo. The remainder of the cargo was corn and both the shorts and corn were consigned to a Fort Worth concern.

Fort Worth—A trip through the big packing houses at this place has been arranged for by the committee which is preparing the routine of entertainment to be given the delegates of the National Editorial Association on its circle tour of Texas. A trip by automobile over the $1,000,000 system of highways under construction in Tarrant County has also been arranged.

San Benito—Every kind of swine known to the Rio Grande Valley participated in the "Hog Waddle" during the second annual Cabbage Day celebration conducted here last week. A thousand hogs paraded the main street of San Benito, supplemented by several wagon loads of cabbage. The affair was considered to be the most unique attraction ever seen. Every business house had their show windows decked out in gala attire for the occasion and the decorations were made from cabbage head and cabbage leaves. A large crowd was present.

San Antonio—C. H. Guenther & Sons have practically completed all necessary arrangements for the erection of one of the largest flour mills in the United States at this place. It is their intention to have work start on this mammoth industry immediately and have it ready for operation by the time the next wheat crop is harvested. The mill will have a capacity of 2,000 barrels daily and will represent an expenditure of more than $100,000.

Abilene—The Chamber of Commerce has recently completed an analysis of the building activities carried on in this city during the three months of this year and reports that more than $250,000 has been spent for permanent buildings and industries in this city since the first of January.

Freeport—The survey authorized by the Sixty-second Congress for the purpose of estimating the cost of procuring 25 feet of water from the mouth of the Brazos River to Freeport was started last week by a corps of surveyors from the U. S. Engineer's office at Galveston.

Walnut Springs—Word has been received here recently that the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway is preparing to re-open its shops at this place, which have been closed since the Katy took over the Texas Central. The road is also putting on additional men at Smithville in compliance with its agreement to do so after the settlement of the state's suit against it's lines.

San Angelo—What is said to be the highest price ever paid for a jack in this state was recorded recently when F. S. Scarborough of Robert Lee paid $1,000 to Stanley Turner for a fine jack. This animal has won many blue ribbons at state fairs.

Houston—Houston's Chamber of Commerce has been paid a high compliment by the Federal Bureau of Commerce and Labor, which has just issued a bulletin dealing with the commercial activities in 25 of the leading Southern cities. The publication carries a complete review of the work accomplished by this organization during the past year and classes the Houston Chamber as one of the leading commercial organizations in the United States.

McKinney—There are 49,000,000 bushels of the 1913 corn crop in the granaries of Texas, according to a report just issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. Compared with this time last year, this is a decrease of 3,000,000 bushels. This amount is insufficient to last the farmers until the next harvest and approximately 45,000,000 bushels will have to be imported at a cost to the farmers of $30,000,000. Collin is the leading corn producing county of Texas and the stocks of this cereal held by farmers is approximately the same as last year.

THE REASON FEWER PEOPLE TAKE "SALTS"

We find the use of salts and other harsh physics is becoming less every year because more and more people are using Rexall Orderlies, which we and they firmly believe to be the best bowel remedy ever made. They taste so much like candy that even the children like them. At the same time they act so easily and naturally that there is no purging, griping or pain. They promptly remove the constipation and, by soothing and strengthening the bowels, make it less liable to occur again. We have the utmost faith in them. We know what they are made of and the pleasant, beneficial results that always follow their use.

You needn't take our word for it. If Rexall Orderlies don't help you—if they don't entirely relieve all your bowel troubles—come back and tell us and we'll give back your money. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at The Rexall Stores, and in this town only of us. J. W. McCarty, The Rexall Store, Floydada, Texas.

Plans Competitive Stock Production.

Robert H. Gary, a boy eleven years old of Laneville, Rusk County has written to the Texas Industrial Congress at Dallas that he has a fine Hereford calf, which he wants to enter in the Pryor Beef Club of the Congress and that he expects to make West Texas "sit up and take notice," that the Eastern section of the State can produce good livestock.

The congress this year, following out the plans of Col. Exall, has provided three livestock classes and has named them in honor of three prominent Texans, who have shown especial interest in livestock production.

For men the congress has provided a contest for the best three year old steer, to be fed from July 1 to November 1 next. The animals in this class, which is termed the Kleberg Beef Club, will be judged from the butcher's standpoint. Ten prizes, amounting to $500 will be awarded for the best results.

Contestants in this class are required by the rules of Congress to be contestants in Class A, which constitutes the model demonstration farm contest.

The Pryor Baby Beef Club is intended for boys and girls between the ages of ten and twenty years, who produce the best baby beef from the butcher's standpoint. $500 divided into 14 prizes are offered for the best results shown in this class.

For the boys interested in hog raising, the Congress has formed the Frank P. Holland Hog Club and offers fourteen prizes amounting to $500 for the best hogs produced.

These livestock classes are a new feature of the work of the congress and the competition is intended to emphasize the fact that the best farming is that in which livestock is included, so as to profit by the profitable feed and marketing "on the hoof" of the crops grown. Incidentally, the fertility of the land is conserved and fertilized by the animal manure.

Entry into the baby beef and hog classes is open to every boy and girl in the state whether a member of any other baby beef or hog club or not.

The rules are few and simple. They require contestants to keep a daily record of the kind and amount of feed used and to weigh the animals in the presence of witnesses on July 1 and again on Nov. 1. Contestants are not restricted as to the kind and amount of feed used in fattening their entries; nor are they required to produce the feed themselves, altho urged to do so.

A special prize for boys and girls, cultivating an acre of corn and an acre of peanuts, and who enter the baby beef and hog clubs is provided and is named the Exall Combination Prize.

This prize of $100 will be given to any contestant in the four classes who shall win first prize in each of any two classes. This is an especially attractive combination and all that the contestant requires is acre of ground, a baby beef and a hog. On this acre he will first raise a crop of corn, planting peanuts between the rows when it has been given its last cultivation. After the corn is gathered, and which he may use to fatten his livestock, he allows the calf to run on the acre so that it can eat the fodder and peanut tops. Following this a hog is turned in to clean everything that remains.

By this plan, the contestant not only raises a perfectly balanced ration for feeding his livestock, but he also returns the animal manure to the ground, including most of the nitrogen gathered from the air by the peanuts.

Experienced farmers and livestock growers say this is an ideal combination and it could be profitably adapted by every farmer.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Theford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for rearrangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest. Buffaloes as College Endowment.

A dispatch from Jacksboro, contains the following interesting item concerning the famous Goodnight herd of buffalo and cattalo:

"Goodnight College has the most unusual endowment fund in the world. It derives its fund from the sale of the increase of a bunch of buffaloes.

"These animals, the largest buffalo herd, are the descendants of a few starving buffalo calves which were saved through sympathy of Mrs. Chas. Goodnight, wife of a pioneer West Texas Ranchman and owner now of the finest buffalo herd in the world.

"Mrs. Goodnight's saving of the starving buffalo calves, besides being instrumental in preserving the formerly nearly extinct buffalo, has built up what is fast becoming a strong educational institution.

"About 1878 the buffalo had been practically exterminated. Occasionally could be found a few very wild buffalo and now and then a few calves which drifted and starved until devoured by wolves. Mrs. Goodnight became interested in buffalo and a few calves were captured and placed with her milch cows.

"Even in its infancy the buffalo is the embodiment of activity, persistency and bullheadedness and when it gets older and begins to feel the wanderlust it is apt to go where it pleases, so a very high fence of stout strands of wire was built around the pasture in which Mrs. Goodnight placed her buffaloes.

"The buffalo herd now number several hundred and its value is several thousand dollars, and each year the herd increases both in number and in value. It is already a great endowment and is growing rapidly.

"The cattalo feature of this herd is the outgrowth of experiment. Several years ago, Col. Goodnight conceived the idea of crossing the buffalo with hornless cattle. The result was the cattalo, one of the most beautiful animals ever seen. It is of

"It combines in fine proportions the very best qualities, even in the matter of improved color, of both cow and buffalo. but in temperament it seems to incline most strongly to the buffalo. Its motto seems to be "Keep Out of My Road."

"A beautiful sight is this herd of buffalo and cattalo when the calves are small. The cows are deep brown and shaggy or jet black and ponderous and the calves are deep red and graceful. It is also a scene where safe distance lends enchantment to view.

"A great many animals have been sold out of this herd. These animals go to zoos the parks, and to other places but the money received from them is always turned over to the Goodnight college."

Fire Truck on Fast Run.

The Amarillo fire department has an auto fire truck and makes some quick responses to fire calls.

In the recent fire at Canyon when the Normal building was burned to the ground, the firemen of that city received a call to Canyon. They made the run,--a distance of 23 miles, in thirty-one minutes, making three railroad crossings and several turns in the distance.

The lack of adequate water system prevented the company from doing any good after reaching Canyon.

Sunday night joy riders stole A. Van Howelling's car from the First Baptist church while he was attending services and went on a joy ride. When Mr. Van Howelling came out of the church he discovered that his car was missing. Later it was found three blocks from the church, with a hot engine and a punctured tire. Mr. Van Howelling had locked his car and put the key in his pocket, but the thieves it seemed had secured a key from Rev. Saffle's car, and used it to unlock the other car.

American Idols in Japan.

It is announced that the "Billikin" figures have reached Japan and are actually worshipped as the American God of Good Luck. One prominent man is said to attribute his prosperity to his faith in "Billikin." It was in Japan, too, that a missionary found a Standard Oil can installed as an object of worship. "Billikin" and the oil can as "graven images" are an ironic commentary on the levity and materialism of our American life but perhaps they are less depressing than the historic cargo of our Medford rum that accompanied the early missionaries to Africa, and the American cigarettes that are being introduced throughout China.

Sale Complete Success.

Mr. T. M. Lyles, who with J. D. Price, is in charge of the Kelley Bros., business in Floydada and is conducting their closing out sale, preparatory to giving possession to Price-Foster Dry Goods Co., says that their sale has been most gratifying and an entire success.

"The fact that people are taking advantage of the big bargains we are offering is sufficient evidence that your country is in good condition financially. To be candid, we have been most pleasantly surprised at the excellent business we have done both previous to and during our sale."

Kelley Brothers will invoice the remainder of their stock sometime during the next ten or twelve days and the new firm of Price-Foster Dry Goods Company will succeed them in the business.

J. D. Price of the new firm, recently bought an excellent stock in the St. Louis market, which they will open up as it arrives from that point and will be ready for business at such a date that it may not be necessary for the store to be closed but a day or so,--possibly not at all,--for the invoicing and exchange.

"Paralysis" Hits Stock Market

Beef Prices lower at K. C.; Hogs Top 8.60; Sheep and Lambs Higher.

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 30th 1914. Cattle receipts here last week originated over widespread territory, Montana, Idaho, Utah and Arizona contributing, besides delegations from intermediate states, and nearby territory. But with all this drag netting of the supply horizon, total receipts at Kansas City fell off more than 5000 head, from same week last year about 25 per cent. Prices on steer: declined 10 to 15 cents, and stockers and feeders lost as much, but choice light steers and heifers sold stronger, and cows held steady. The beef market is sick, according to packer and reports from better supplied markets indicate a most unsatisfactory state of trade, Chicago denominating their cattle trade as suffering from "semi-paralysis." Supplies today are fairly liberal at all points, 12000 head arriving here. Prices on choice light steers and good heifers are steady, but most of the cattle are around 10 lower, some sale 15 off. No prime natives are coming, good to choice steers selling at $8.50 to $8.85 bulk of steers 7.75 to 8.50; hay and pulped Western steers 7.60 to 8.40; meal and cake fed quarantine cattle 7.00 to 8.00, including six cars of 1040 lb. steers today at 7.60 from North Texas. Stockers and feeders sell at 6.75 to 7.75 a few sales up to 8.15. Bulls and veal calves are off half a dollar from a week ago, and stock calves are lower, though some sold at 8.40 today. Hogs met reverses the latter half of last week, but with some signs of returning strength Saturday. Receipts are running almost equal to last year, but weights average 12 per cent lighter this year. Sales are steady to 5 higher today, top 8.60, bulk 8.30 to 8.55. Packers are in need of material, but they use every device possible to keep prices down, including the heroic method of staying out of the market. Without genuine indifference, however, the market cannot be kept down, and a return to better prices is in the forecast. Sheep and lambs have gotten away from buyers, and advances of 15 to 40 cents have been made since last Thursday. Lambs sold freely at 8.25 today, ewes at 6.00 to 6.20, and a big con-
