Saddam expects attack 6 Americans killed, 4 injured in accident

by The Associated Press
Saddam Hussein told his senior military advisers today to prepare for an attack by the United States and its allies in the next few days, an official Iraqi report said.
In the Persian Gulf, a pipe ruptured today in the boiler room of the USS Iwo Jima, releasing searing steam that killed six American sailors and severely injured four, the U.S. Navy said.
Saddam's talk with military aides came one day after the U.N. Security Council's five permanent members held a high-level military meeting to discuss how to further pressure the Iraqi president to remove his troops from Kuwait.

It also followed a Security Council vote to hold Iraq liable for damages from the Iraqi occupation.
The Iraqi News Agency reported that Saddam told military leaders to finish preparations for possible combat in Kuwait with members of the U.S.-dominated multinational force.

"We must be prepared with all that God has given us of potential to thwart perfidious intentions by the United States and its allies, to launch an attack in the coming few days," the report quoted Saddam as saying.
The report said Saddam discussed "preparations for urban warfare and necessary measures to be taken in the event of combat in (Kuwait)."

SHS girls face Dumas in volleyball playoffs

For the first time since 1985's state championship season, Snyder's Lady Tigers are in post-season volleyball play.
Snyder, District 2-4A runner-up with a 10-10 season mark, will battle District 1 champion Dumas, 23-4, at 7 p.m. today at Amarillo Caprock High School in a bi-district spike match.
The Lady Tigers, directed by head coach Patty Grimmer and Laura Holt, finished the 1990 regular season behind loop champion Lamesa.
The Lady Tornados are scheduled to play Hereford, the second-place team in District 1, today.
The Lady Tigers are Robbie Braziel, Vinnie Clay, Daisy Braziel, Camille Thompson, Liz Greathouse, Michelle Tippins, Monica Garcia, Angee Crawford, Dayla Church, Katina Brandon, Amber Bowlin, Freda Clay and student manager Dessie Ware.

'PRIDE OF THE WEST' IN CONTEST — Snyder High School will compete in the District UIL marching band contest at 1 p.m. Wednesday in Lubbock's Jones Stadium. First and second place bands among Snyder, Estacado, Lamesa, Frenship and Levelland will advance to regional competition later in the week. (SDN Staff Photo)

Absentee deadline is Friday

728 vote so far

As the deadline nears for absentee voting in the Nov. 6 general election, the county clerk's office reported today that 728 registered voters have already cast their ballots.

Those include some 631 by the in-person absentee method and 97 by mail. Forty-four mail ballots have yet to be returned.

Today is the final day the county clerk's office can mail out absentee ballots. Friday, Nov. 2, is the final day to vote by the in-person method. Those wishing to do so are reminded they do not need an excuse to vote by the in-person method, and that they must vote at the county clerk's office in the courthouse from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Scurry County has four contested races. They include the office of county judge, where Democratic incumbent Bobby Goodwin faces a challenge from Republican Bob Doolittle. Another incumbent, Precinct 2 Commissioner Tommy Pate, a Democrat, is being challenged by Republican Roy L. Idom.

Two women, Democrat Elois Pruitt, and Republican Patsy Williams, are running for the office of district clerk.

In the only other contested race, write-in candidate D.M. Foree is going against Democrat H.M. Lomax for justice of the peace in Precinct 2.

Also of area interest is the 78th District State Representative's race, which pits Democratic incumbent David Counts of Knox City against Republican challenger John Pennington of Sweetwater.

Among the unopposed races in the county, County Attorney Pete Greene, County Clerk Frances Billingsley and County Treasurer Rita Staton, all Democratic incumbents, are seeking reelection.

Jerry Gannaway is unopposed for county commissioner in Precinct 4 and Wanda Rushing is unopposed for justice of the peace in Precinct 1. Both are Democrats.

3rd quarter GNP up 1.8%

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. economy grew at a stronger-than-expected 1.8 percent annual rate in the third quarter, apparently evading the beginning of a recession and continuing the longest peacetime expansion in U.S. history, the government said today.

The Commerce Department said the growth in the gross national product — the nation's total output of goods and services — improved over a barely perceptible 0.4 percent annual rate during the second quarter.

Much of the improvement resulted from a 3.6 percent increase in consumer spending. Purchases of automobiles rose $3.4 billion, compared to a $6.1 billion decline in the second quarter, the Commerce Department said.

In advance of the report, a consensus of economists had expected a growth rate of 0.8 percent from July through September.

But many analysts believe the economy has weakened in recent weeks and is slipping into a recession, generally described as at least two quarters of negative growth.

Some economists say a recession actually began in the third quarter, but others point to signs of continued growth from July through September.

Treasury Secretary Nicholas F. Brady said Monday that while some parts of the economy are in "bad shape ... we're in a period of slower growth" but not a recession.

The department also said that a GNP measure of inflation rose to 4.1 percent in the third quarter. It was the first GNP report since the Persian Gulf oil-price shock pushed up the price of many consumer goods.

GNP inflation had slowed to 3.9 percent in the second quarter from 6.4 percent in the first.

In addition to consumer spending, the department said third-quarter economic growth was fueled by a 7.4 percent increase in business investment.

On the other hand, that activity was partially offset by a $3.4 billion decline in inventories and a $7.9 billion merchandise trade deficit.

Housing construction was off 15.4 percent and federal government spending, was down 0.3 percent.

WTC doesn't share jump in enrollment

Texas college and university enrollments are up this fall by more than 26,035 students according to a report from the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, but unfortunately numbers are down slightly at Western Texas College.

The report shows a combined enrollment at all institutions of higher education in Texas is 885,515, a 3 percent increase from last fall. Enrollment at public junior colleges and public universities totaled 779,713, an increase of 3.2 percent or 24,287 students.

Enrollment is up at 38 of the 49 public junior colleges, with a net increase of 16,426, or 4.6 percent.

Western Texas has not shared in the increase, however. Statistics show that 1,094 students enrolled at WTC for the fall 1989 semester, and that figure dropped to 1,011 for the present semester. The change in the number of students, 83, is a drop of 7.59 percent.

Howard College, located in Big Spring, showed a jump of 41.63 percent enrollment, based on 1,715 students in the fall of 1989 compared to 2,429 this semester.

Among other area community colleges, Midland College's enrollment increased 3.31 percent from 3,863 to 3,991; Odessa increased 9.3 percent from 4,593 to 5,020; Frank Phillips, in Borger, showed a decrease of 1.54 percent from 997 to 962; Clarendon showed an increase of 14.10 percent from 773 to 882; Cisco showed an increase of 10.35 percent from 1,884 to 2,079; and Ranger showed an increase of 15.06 percent from 631 to 726.

WTC officials have cited a decline in the area population base as a key factor in the lower enrollment numbers.

The most recent Census Bureau figures from 1990 show an increase in Scurry County residents of 1.61 percent over 1980. However, census reports indicated a loss in population over the past 10 years of 17.37 percent in Fisher County, 10.22 percent in Kent County, 12.22 percent in Mitchell County, 4.99 percent in Nolan County, 12.12 percent in Haskell County, 16 percent in Stonewall County and 4.66 percent in Jones County.

Among area and prominent universities in Texas, enrollment figures include:

- Abilene Christian University, down 3.18 percent, from 4,189 to 4,053;
- Angelo State University, down 1.76 percent, from 6,406 to 6,293;
- Baylor University, up 2.06 percent, from 4,593 to 4,687.

State presents testimony in sexual assault trial here

A nine-man, three-woman jury was hearing testimony from the state's final witness at noon today in the trial of Encarnacion Villa, charged with aggravated sexual assault of a child.

Jury selection was held Monday in 132nd District Court with Judge Gene Dulaney presiding.

The defense was expected to begin its case this afternoon.

Villa, 37, of 1801 15th St., is charged in connection with a March 15, 1989, incident involving a 13-year-old girl. He is represented by Jesse Mendez of Lubbock.

Prosecuting the case is Assistant District Attorney Dana Cooley.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Few things are guaranteed to last a lifetime — except perhaps the payments."

There were several comments about the suggested mascots to match the names of Texas towns. Some of the guys in the coffee shop made some suggestions.

One fellow said a town in Indiana has an appropriate name. Painted on the stadium of Frankfort High School is the slogan, "Home of the Hot Dogs."

Teachers and coaches know that motivation is the key. Often telling someone they did a good job is the best motivator. A friend gave us a clipping on 50 ways to say "very good."

You're on the right track now. You're doing a good job. That's right. Now you've got it figured out. That's the way! Nice going. That's great! Fantastic. Terrific. Good for you. That's the best you have ever done. Good thinking. Super. You make it look easy. Way to go.

I've never seen anyone do it better. I knew you could do it. Nothing can stop you now. You've got it made. I'm very proud of you. That's better than ever. Marvelous. Perfect. You figured that out fast. You remembered. You're really improving. I think you've got it now. Well, look at you go. You've got that down pat. Tremendous. Outstanding.

I like that. Couldn't be done better. Now, that's what I call fine. You did that very well. Congratulations. That was first-class work. Right on. Sensational. That's the best ever. Good remembering. You haven't missed a thing. It's a pleasure to teach you. You really make my job fun. I can't believe my eyes. You've just about mastered that. One more time and you will have it. You must have been practicing. Wow! That's it.

One wise fellow added: Believe the best rather than the worst. People have a way of living up — or down — to your opinion of them.

Ask Us

Q—How long has horizontal drilling been going on? How many horizontal wells are in Texas?

A—Horizontal drilling has existed since the early days of oil production but the technology to make it a viable commercial process has only emerged in the last decade. According to state figures, some 233 horizontal wells have been drilled in Texas through September of this year — 223 of them oil wells. In 1984, for example, there were only four horizontal wells in Texas.

In Brief

Fiery crash

MANVEL, Texas (AP) — A pickup truck collided with a school bus and caught fire today, injuring 20 children and the driver of the truck, Brazoria County officials said.

The accident occurred at 7:15 a.m. on Highway 288 at County Road 58, a sheriff's deputy said.

Twenty children on the bus from Alvin Independent School District were taken to Alvin Hospital with injuries.

Principal shot

GARLAND, Texas (AP) — The mother of a suspended Garland high school student has been arrested for allegedly shooting a school assistant principal, police said.

Garland school officials said the woman came to Naaman Forest High School shortly after 7:30 this morning to discuss her son's suspension.

During the discussion in assistant principal Steven Baker's office, two shots from a .25-caliber pistol were fired, said Mary Ellen Marnholtz, a spokeswoman for the Garland Independent School District.

Skull found

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — A teen-ager fishing for crayfish in a canal found a skull he at first mistook for a rock, authorities said.

Rafael Marquez, 14, told police he thought he was turning over a rock in the middle of the nearly dry irrigation ditch when he made the discovery on Saturday.

Combest says W. Texas will be hit hardest by cuts, taxes

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — U.S. Rep. Larry Combest says there's hope for energy-related businesses in West Texas but major cuts to area farming districts in the federal budget scale-down will force some belt-tightening.

Incentives in the new budget for the hundreds of oil and gas companies based throughout the Texas plains will help increase production, said Combest, R-Texas.

"We will obviously be a beneficiary because we are a large energy producing district," he said at a news conference Monday. "There's hope."

—Expansions of oil depletion allowances totaling $278 million over the next five years.

Combest said the bad news is the budget agreement cuts the heart out of the West Texas farm districts.

"We are going to be hit very hard out here, that is the reason I voted against it," Combest said. "It very strongly gets into our back pocket in terms of revenues without providing any additional incentives."

Combest joined the seven other House Republicans from Texas and GOP Texas Sen. Phil Gramm in voting against the budget.

Combest said he voted for the original budget compromise rejected by the House several weeks ago, but said the new budget agreement varied too much from that plan by calling for more tax hikes and fewer cuts in spending.

Texas plains, who use fuel intensive equipment to cultivate a bevy of crops, including 25 percent of the nation's cotton.

"The target prices are frozen. They will not reduce below their current levels," said Combest, who is running unopposed in the South Plains' 19th District. "I have always felt like you don't necessarily set a good farm program by how much you are going to spend."

"Much of the time, the two main ingredients are what kind of a policy does it set and good weather," he said. "We have been fortunate under the current farm program to have some good weather, so we tried to start with the same structure."

Combest said the 1990 Farm Bill which passed during the last three weeks of the lawmaking session is designed to contain costs and address environmental concerns.

"The foundation of the Farm Bill is the same," Combest said. "There will be some significant changes in that for the first time ever it allows for flexibility. The farmer can protect their history and their base and yet move into a new commodity that they can grow based upon market demand."

Those oil and gas incentives include:

—A two-year extension of the Section 29 non-conventional fuels tax credit of $3 per barrel equivalent and an expansion of the credit to so-called tight-sands natural gas prevalent in West Texas.

—An extension until the turn of the century of the tax breaks for the production of ethanol, a corn product blended with gasoline to form gasohol.

—A new 15 percent enhanced oil recovery tax credit for certain capital costs involved in tertiary oil production.

The agreement reached by Congress after months of debate will hit the rolling fields of West Texas with $11 billion worth of cuts in agriculture programs over the next five years.

An increase in the federal gasoline tax from nine to 14 cents beginning Dec. 1 will impact thousands of farmers in the West

Man gored and trampled by buck

CALDWELL, Texas (AP) — An eight-point buck charged and mauled a 61-year-old man to death in a thicket alongside a rural road near Caldwell.

Charlie Jackson Coleman of Caldwell was hunting for antique bottles along the side of the road when the buck attacked. The buck stood over the body for at least seven hours, authorities said.

The animal was shot and killed by sheriff's deputies who arrived at the scene at about 3 p.m. Monday and were charged by the 160-pound buck.

An autopsy determined that Coleman died from a crushed skull, but he suffered more than 100 hoof and puncture wounds over his back, stomach and face, authorities said.

"It was the most unbelievable thing I've ever seen," Burleson County Chief Deputy Tom Randall told The Bryan-College Station Eagle. "It was more of a massacre than an attack."

Randall said a 15-by-15-foot area was covered with clothing and blood.

It was the second buck attack in four days. Mid-October to mid-November is rutting, or mating, season, a period in which usually docile deer can become aggressive.

On Friday, three surveyors were attacked by a buck in a rural area near Beaumont. None of the men were injured, but one was pitched about 20 feet into a creek. One of the men slit the buck's throat with a machete.

A motorist said he saw the victim's truck parked alongside the road about 8 a.m., but thought nothing of it until he returned at 3 p.m. and it was still there.

Randall said officers were forced to shoot the buck so they could get close to the body.

"He was really possessive of the body," Randall said. "He must have stood guard over it all day."

Randall said the deer had been seen in the area for six or seven years, and that residents often fed the animal.

Dr. Gott By Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you provide information on varicose veins? I've tried medicine, support hose, elevating my feet and stripping of the veins in one leg. My doctor feels I'm taking his time unnecessarily when I discuss phlebitis and stripping of the veins in my other leg. What would you suggest?

DEAR READER: I'd suggest you see another doctor who will be more sympathetic to your plight.

Varicose veins, the progressive ballooning of veins in the legs, can be uncomfortable and unsightly. If your varicose veins are not helped by the usual conservative measures you mention (elevation of the legs and support hose), you may have to consider more aggressive therapy — such as stripping (surgically removing the veins), sclerosis (injecting the veins to make them shrink) or laser treatment (to shrivel the veins). I am not aware of any medicine to treat varicose veins. The condition appears to be inherited; it is worsened by pregnancy and occupations that require long periods of standing.

Visible ("superficial") varicose veins are not associated with dangerous blood clots (thrombophlebitis). However, invisible ("deep") varices can provide a source of clots that can be carried to the lungs, causing serious lung damage and, on occasion, death. Deep vein thrombophlebitis can be diagnosed with a Doppler ultrasound examination, during which the doctor beams sound waves at the deep vein; this produces a picture that will show the presence of a clot.

If your leg veins do not bother you particularly, I'd ignore them and continue your program of elevation and elastic stockings. On the other hand, if the veins are large, painful or embarrassing, you should have a second opinion from a qualified surgeon.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "An Informed Approach To Surgery." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I've been diagnosed with fibromyalgia of the neck, shoulders and arms. I've been unable to find much literature on the subject and would like your opinion of the long-term prognosis.

DEAR READER: Fibromyalgia is a poorly understood condition that has received a lot of recent publicity in the medical literature. It is characterized by tender, painful muscles — especially of the arms, chest and shoulder girdle — associated with weakness, fatigue and "trigger points" (portions of muscles or tendons that are extremely sensitive to pressure). The cause is unknown. Patients with this disorder usually complain of recurring bouts of muscle pain and headache.

Treatment consists of pain medication, physical therapy (hot packs, ultrasound and special stretching exercises) and muscle relaxants, such as Robaxin or Flexeril. Anti-depressant drugs may help reduce the frequency and severity of attacks.

The prognosis is good because fibromyalgia does not affect health. Symptoms are treated as they appear; patients can remain symptom-free for extended periods (months or years) between attacks.

Stargazers learn patchwork

Stargazers Extension Homemakers Club met Oct. 15 for its regular monthly meeting. President Joy Early presided.

Guests and members answered roll call with: A School Day I Remember. The thought for the day was "The brook would lose its song if we removed the rocks." The helpful hint was anytime your washing machine overflows with too many suds, pour in a little fabric softener. Suds will disappear.

Joyce McCoy of the Patchwork Squares Club presented a program on Seminole patchwork. She presented several articles with different designs of the work and said it could be used to trim linens, clothing, curtains and more.

Evelyn Shifflett was hostess for the meeting and McCoy received the hostess gift. Next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Nov. 12 at 3117 Ave. T. All visitors are welcome.

A diamond lead would always set four hearts. West, however, didn't think declarer had the club king and did think his partner might hold a singleton club, so he led the club ace. He then shifted to a diamond.

Declarer ducked in dummy and East won the queen. East returned a club, and declarer ruffed low in dummy. Now came ace and a heart. Declarer drew trumps and played a spade up to the dummy's K-Q. Naturally West played low. Declarer played another spade from dummy. West won the jack and tried to cash the queen of clubs, but South ruffed.

Eventually South had to try a finesse against the king of diamonds. Too bad. East had the king, so four hearts was set, even without the best opening lead.

What went wrong? Declarer was a little too conservative in his use of dummy's trumps. When the second club is played, he should ruff with dummy's ace of hearts. Now he can play a heart to his hand and, without cashing a second heart, lead up to the K-Q of spades. West should still duck, but declarer can now return to his hand via the trump left in dummy (taking the marked finesse), draw the rest of East's trumps and lead up to dummy's remaining spade honor once again. As a result, the contract makes.

What about five clubs? With the ace of diamonds outside, West could make 11 tricks if he's smart enough to drop the singleton king, but that bid seems like a tough decision for East to make with his meager cards.

Women enjoy business travel

By The Associated Press

Women are not only in the mainstream of business travel but are enjoying it, according to a survey run by a hotel concern.

Seventy-two percent of the women surveyed said they enjoy overnight business travel, and 69 percent said they think it enhances their careers.

The study was sponsored by Courtyard by Marriott, which says it wants to learn more about women business travelers, who are expected to account for half of all business travelers by the year 2,000.

Security is a concern, however. Of those polled, 30 percent said they sleep with their lights on, and 5 percent carry mace. Other concerns included keeping in touch with family and maintaining exercise and nutritional regimens while on the road.

With A Purchase Order System (Not Department) Scurry County Can:

1. Utilize present personnel. I'm advocating a system...not a department. No additional personnel would be required.
2. Each department would be provided consecutive numbered purchase orders with each department head approving all orders.
3. A purchase order system would provide our auditor with documentation on a daily basis as to total financial obligations of the county.
4. With a purchase order system our auditor can maximize interest bearing deposits.
5. A purchase order system will enable our county to pool purchases (buy in quantities) which will result in substantial savings to our county.
6. A purchase order system will eliminate our county making duplicate payments because there will have to be a purchase order on file that matches the invoice or payment will not be rendered.
7. Purchases can be tied to the budget which will strengthen financial control.

Steelers blast Rams 41-10 Monday night

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers shook the rust off the Steel Curtain and put on such a hit show you've had sworn that Jack Lambert and Mean Joe Greene had choreographed it.

Was that Greg Lloyd putting a hit on the Los Angeles Rams, or Jack Ham? That couldn't have been Rod Woodson and Thomas Everett leveling those receivers; it had to be Mel Blount, right?

And Tyrone Stowe. Tyrone Stowe? Surely, that was Lambert himself, missing teeth and all.

Actually, the only thing missing in action was the Rams' offense, the victim of a physical pounding by a Steelers' defense the likes of which Pittsburgh hasn't seen... well, since its last Super Bowl team of 11 years ago.

Gary Anderson kicked two field goals, but that wasn't all the Steelers kicked.

"I think it was pretty obvious we got... kicked pretty good," Rams quarterback Jim Everett said after the Steelers beat the Rams 41-10 Monday night.

"I think we showed some people we can hit. I know they knew they were getting hit," Lloyd said. "You could see it in their running backs. They're supposed to run north and south, but they started running east and west, and they still didn't have anywhere to run."

Or to hide.

As the Steelers (4-4) continued to shake off their dreadful early-season scoring slump, when their offense didn't produce a touchdown for four games, the Rams (2-5) slipped deeper into what coach John Robinson previously called "the fog" of a 1-4 start.

The Rams got a one-game reprieve with last week's 44-24 romp over Atlanta, but not even Gaston Green's game-opening 100-yard kickoff return made any difference on a night the Steelers seemed determined to pay tribute to their great defenses of days gone by.

The NFL's top-ranked defensive secondary, which has allowed just one quarterback to throw for more than 200 yards, intercepted Everett twice and held him to 15 completions in 34 attempts for 176 yards.

Flipper Anderson, averaging nearly 25 yards a catch, had one for 12 yards. The Rams' running game ran aground, managing 44 yards on 23 attempts.

Cornerback David Johnson intercepted Everett late in the first quarter, and Bobby Brister hit rookie tight end Eric Green for a 17-yard touchdown on the very next play for a 14-7 lead the Steelers never lost.

Pardee is puzzled over game's result

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oilers coach Jack Pardee had a right to be puzzled.

His quarterback completed 69 percent of his passes for 381 yards and did not throw an interception. His team outgained the opponent 425-229 in yards and 28-13 in first downs and controlled the clock 37:30 to 22:30. The defense allowed one touchdown.

And yet the Oilers lost to the New York Jets 17-12. "It's puzzling after a game like that where you accomplish all you set out to do except getting enough points," Pardee said Monday. "We had a lot of good plays but we had five sacks and a couple of turnovers."

"It came down to one play and we're celebrating today but now we've got to take care of business on the road."

A fumbled exchange between quarterback Warren Moon and running back Lorenzo White from the Jets' 1 may have cost the Oilers a touchdown in the second quarter.

Jets rookie Darrell Davis got the game-winning touchdown with 13:34 left in the game when he sacked Moon for a 6-yard loss, causing a fumble, and then recovered the ball in the end zone.

Moon had not suffered a sack in the two previous games.

The Oilers (4-4) were close to celebrating but now the must try to regroup Sunday when they visit Anaheim, Calif., and the Los Angeles Rams. Five of Houston's eight second-half games are on the road.

Poor field position caused by Jets punter Joe Prokop and special teams breakdowns forced the Oilers into long drives.

"We started too many drives inside our 10-yard line," Pardee said. "We've got to get the field shortened and that will help our offense if they don't have to drive 97 yards to score."

The Oilers started drives from their 6, 9, 6 and 4 in Sunday's game in which the Oilers won all the statistical battles except the final score.

"If I could lead the league in anything it would be takeaway-giveaways," Pardee said. "You don't win football games by giving the ball away."

The Oilers had reversed an early season turnover trend. They were minus-12 in takeaway-giveaways early in the season but had been plus 10 in the four games before playing the Jets.

The Oilers have allowed six touchdowns this season when the defense wasn't on the field.

"That's unacceptable," Pardee said.

Jets punter Joe Prokop helped put the Oilers in the hole with his pinpoint punts inside the Oilers' 10.

"When the ball hits on the fly at the 1-yard line and doesn't go in..." Pardee said, raising his hands in a helpless gesture. "We certainly aren't going to be handling the ball inside the 5-yard line. We just have to avoid those situations."

Despite the addition of return specialist Gerald McNeil this season, the Oilers' special teams haven't given the Oilers good field position.

"Gerald would rather return punts than kickoffs but he's the best we've got to return kickoffs," Pardee said. "He has the ability to be one of the best. He'll break one before long."

by The Associated Press

One of the rare disadvantages to being on top is that the only place to go is down.

That's just where things went last week for nine teams ranked in the Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll. A pair of Top 10 teams in each category except Class 2A lost. In 2A, No. 5 Post was the only loser.

The unusually large batch of losses triggered a reshuffling of the poll, although there were no changes among the top-ranked teams, Class 5A Aldine, 4A's A&M Consolidated, 3A's Vernon, 2A's Groveton and 1A's Munday.

Odessa beat No. 10 Midland Lee 23-14 to knock the Rebels (5-2) from the poll. They were replaced by Plano (7-1), which beat Carrollton Newman Smith 20-13.

The previous No. 8 team, Longview, lost its second consecutive game, 35-14 to Tyler Lee, and tumbled from the poll.

The Lobos, who two weeks ago were 6-0 and ranked third in the state, now must beat Tyler John Tyler and No. 8 Marshall just to make the playoffs.

"We haven't had any injuries," said Longview coach Robert Bero. "We're just playing good football teams, and we have two more good teams to play... but we think we have a good chance of making them (the playoffs)."

No. 9 Huntsville, which beat Conroe McCullough 34-17, replaced Longview in the poll.

Aldine received 25 of 26 first-place votes and 259 votes overall after its 47-6 crushing of Humble. The Mustangs (8-0) maintained their lead over No. 2 Arlington Lamar, which received 233 votes, including one for first place.

McKinney fell from third to eighth in Class 4A after its 21-14 loss to Denison. Quarterback Abel Wolf boosted the Yellow Jackets with a last-minute 16-yard touchdown sprint.

San Antonio Alamo Heights, formerly 10th in 4A, lost to No. 7 Kerrville Tivy 19-13 and fell from the poll after one week. Alamo Heights was replaced by No. 10 Austin Westlake (7-1).

A&M Consolidated received 259 votes, including 25 for first place, to maintain a sizable lead over No. 2 Bay City, which garnered 229 votes and one first place vote.

Atlanta, the previous No. 5 team in 3A, lost to Jefferson 33-14 and fell to ninth, while No. 7 Mexico dropped out of the poll after its 28-14 loss to Fairfield. Universal City Randolph (8-0) debuted at No. 10.

Post lost to Seagraves 24-13 and dropped to No. 10 in 2A.

Bartlett fell from fifth to ninth in 1A after its 29-13 loss to rival Thorndale, while Spur fell three spots to seventh with a 28-14 loss to No. 1 Munday.

Munday's Perry Collier caught a 54-yard touchdown pass and returned a kickoff for a 78-yard score.

"Speed kills and that's one thing we just can't coach," said Spur coach Dewayne Sexton. "They used their speed perfectly and we just couldn't catch them."

"We let down in the second and third periods a bit and didn't play as well as in the other two quarters," he said. "You have to play well all four quarters to beat Munday."

QB Peete awarded extension through 1991 football season

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — same league as some of the NFL's other quarterbacks.

In fact, this year Peete will earn less than Bob Gagliano and rookie Andre Ware — who watch from the sidelines while Peete calls the signals.

"It's ridiculous for me as a starting quarterback to be making $100,000," he said. "It's ridiculous and they knew it."

Spielman's deal was the most lucrative of the three because "he's at or near the top of his profession," according to Lions' chief operating officer Chuck Schmidt.

"It's fairly comparable to what the other guys in the league at my position are making," said Spielman.

Schmidt said he's talking to other players — most notably All-Pro nose tackle Jerry Ball — about possible extensions.

White advises the other players to be patient.

"They will be taken care of, but they shouldn't worry about it," said White, who leads Detroit with two interceptions. "They should just keep playing ball and they'll be compensated. People see what you do on Sunday."

The Lions' victory over New Orleans on Sunday gave them a 3-4 record and put them back in the hunt for a wild-card playoff berth.

Columbia being readied for next fueling test by NASA

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Columbia's engine compartment was fitted with 10 TV cameras and 17 sensors for a test today to determine whether the shuttle is leak-free and ready for an astronomy mission in December.

The shuttle's huge external tank was to be partly filled with liquid hydrogen to pinpoint any more of the dangerous leaks that forced three of Columbia's four launch postponements since May.

NASA officials, meanwhile, set Nov. 9 as the launch date for Atlantis, also grounded this summer by hydrogen leaks. The shuttle was cleared for flight after a successful fueling test last week.

Atlantis will carry into orbit a satellite that reportedly will spy on Iraq. The launch is scheduled for sometime between 6:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. EST; the precise time will not be announced until nine minutes before liftoff because of the classified nature of the Defense Department mission.

The agency did not explain why Saddam believed an attack was imminent.

Middle East diplomats, speaking on condition of anonymity, said Saddam was reacting to statements Monday by Secretary of State James Baker III.

Baker told a gathering in Los Angeles: "Let no one doubt: We will not rule out a possible use of force if Iraq continues to occupy Kuwait."

The Iraqi report was the latest indication that Saddam believes the United States is preparing to attack his forces, which invaded Kuwait on Aug. 2.

A London newspaper today quoted Arab diplomats in Baghdad as saying Saddam was considering freeing all foreign hostages if the Soviets and France commit themselves publicly to resolving the gulf crisis peacefully.

The accident aboard the Iwo Jima came as it was sailing out of Bahrain after a routine port visit.

repaired Columbia would allow NASA to move ahead with plans for a December launch with the $150 million Astro observatory. That would enable NASA to close the year with six shuttle flights, three fewer than planned.

"I've been optimistic before and I've been disappointed, so I'm trying to stay calm," Bascom Murrah, a NASA official in charge of Columbia's prelaunch operations, said Monday.

Report: Americans may still be held in Southeast Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional staff report conducted for Sen. Jesse Helms questions the government's long-held contention that no Americans were fought in the Vietnam war are still being held captive in Southeast Asia.

The interim report, released Monday, contends that the Pen-

Six Americans killed

Since Sept. 16, the Iwo Jima has been part of the Amphibious Task Force supporting Operation Desert Shield, the U.S. military operation launched in the gulf after Iraq seized Kuwait.

Cmdr. Mark Neuhart of the U.S. Naval Forces Central Command said the cause of the leak aboard the amphibious assault ship was under investigation.

The four injured sailors were in critical condition, Neuhart said. They were taken to the hospital ship USS Comfort.

In addition to the deaths aboard the Iwo Jima, 32 U.S. servicemen have been killed since Operation Desert Shield began Aug. 7, five days after Iraqi troops overran Kuwait.

The United States has sent more than 200,000 troops to the gulf region. It leads an international force arrayed against Iraq that totals more than 300,000 troops; Iraq has massed 460,000 troops in Kuwait and southern Iraq.

UA tells Chrysler workers to stay on job

HIGHLAND PARK, Mich. (AP) — The United Auto Workers told its 63,000 Chrysler Corp. employees in eight states to stay on the job today while contract talks continued.

Officials at some union locals said workers at the No. 3 automaker were impatient and might strike if negotiations last too long.

The union announced that a contract extension its members had been working under since mid-September expired at midnight. After that, the union said, members should report to work until notified otherwise.

The UAW is negotiating a contract similar to those it has signed with the other Big Three automakers, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co.

Chrysler has indicated it may not be able to afford the so-called GM-Ford pattern agreement; the union has said it will settle for nothing less. Major issues remained unresolved Monday, including job security, health care and pensions.

The union scheduled a meeting in Detroit of its 200-member Chrysler bargaining council on Thursday, during which it could outline a tentative agreement, offer an update on the bargaining or discuss strike strategy.

The UAW last struck Chrysler in 1985 for 12 days.

The strategy of extending a contract, then canceling the extension even while asking union members to report to work puzzled some UAW members.

"I can't figure the reasoning for it ending tonight at midnight and then continue to bargain," Rick McDonough, president of a union local at a Newark, Del., assembly plant, said Monday.

"We'll back our international (officers) as long as we can, but if they don't give us something, we're out of here," said Phil

Portwood, a UAW member in St. Louis.

He said his local, which represents about 3,500 workers at one of Chrysler's two minivan plants, had made strike signs and drawn up picket schedules. "We're ready to go," he said.

However, a source close to the bargaining who spoke on the condition of anonymity said: "A strike is just unthinkable. It's too risky and much too damaging to both sides really." Chrysler on Monday reported a $214 million third-quarter loss.

The pattern contract are income guarantees for laid-off workers, pension increases and no change in health care.

The last two items could cause Chrysler the most problems. Chrysler's ratio of nearly one retiree for every active worker is much higher than GM's or Ford's.

Consequently, Chrysler's health-care bill is higher than that of the other automakers. The company said it spent about $684 million in health care last year.

In addition to Michigan, Missouri and Delaware, Chrysler has plants in Alabama, Illinois, Indiana, New York and Ohio.

Three mishaps occur in city

Three minor accidents were reported to city of Snyder police Monday. In all, there were no injuries and damage was minor.

The first mishap was reported at 10 a.m. Gilbert Richter of 4506 Denison reported that his vehicle had struck a residence at 2802 47th St.

At 12:30 p.m. in the senior parking lot at Snyder High School, a 1976 Chevrolet driven by Jim Bob Cline of 309 34th St. was in collision with a 1988 Chevrolet driven by Malli Galloway of 4017 Houston Ave.

At 6:46 p.m., officers received a report of an accident that had occurred Saturday at the Sonic Drive-in. Involved was a 1988 GMC pickup driven by David Clinton Haywood of Route 1, Snyder, and a 1979 Chevrolet driven by Jackie Dale Sherrod of Snyder.

Oilfield theft is investigated

A theft of personal items from an oilfield location was investigated Monday by the Scurry County sheriff's department.

Pool Well Service at 7:20 a.m. Monday reported the burglary of a doghouse at a workover location about five miles west of Snyder.

The theft occurred between 6 p.m. Saturday and 7 a.m. Monday. Taken were employees' work clothing, including three pair of work boots. Value of the items taken was estimated at $600, according to Deputy Kerry Fritz.

The sheriff's department made no arrests on Monday, but Department of Public Safety officers arrested three male subjects, all on Class C traffic offenses out of peace justice court. The subjects were ages 20, 28 and 58.

Blowout causes Monday mishap

Three Rotan residents escaped injury Monday afternoon when the vehicle in which they were riding went out of control after the blowout of a rear tire.

The mishap occurred about 1:25 p.m., 1.6 miles east of Snyder on U.S. 180. The vehicle, driven by 57-year-old Juan Z. Garcia, was traveling west when the tire blew. The driver lost control, ran off the north side of the road and through a fence, coming to rest in a field.

Passengers in the car were 49-year-old Antonita Garcia and Juan Garcia, 20. DPS trooper Pat Alexander investigated the accident.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1990 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I live at home with my mother (I'm 25), and a young man named "Bo" lives with us. (He's 21.) Bo has been here almost a year. We dated less than two months, when he stayed over one night. The next day, before I could take him home, his mother came and dumped all his belongings on my front lawn. Bo had no job and nowhere to go, so Mother and I took him in.

A year later, he still has no job. Last month, he was arrested for violation of probation. As part of the condition of his probation, he has to attend a group therapy class once a week. Since he has no driver's license, I have to drive him everywhere. (Group therapy is 30 miles each way.)

But here's the real problem: I was born and raised in a strict Baptist home. (My father was a minister.) When I met Bo, I went back on everything I ever believed in: no sex before marriage, no living together. My mother did the same. Last month, I decided to go back to my church. I refused to have sex with Bo, and he hit the ceiling. No matter what Scripture I showed him in the Bible, his answer was, "This is the '90s."

When I went back to church, I met a man I was drawn to immediately. I've only talked to him once, and that was when he was going around shaking hands. When his hand touched mine, sparks flew. He sings in the choir, and he stares at me the whole time. He is deeply religious, very handsome, polite and well-dressed. He is a beautiful, super person.

What am I going to do about Bo? I don't love him. I realize now that I never did love him. I feel sorry for him because if we make him leave, he will have nowhere to go. He can also get violent if he thinks someone has wronged him. I am trapped, Abby! What should I do?

MISERABLE IN THE BIBLE BELT

DEAR MISERABLE: Tell Bo clearly that you want him out of your house by a certain date — and stick to it. The arrangements will have to be up to him. Tell him he had better go back to his mother, because you have gone back to your church.

If he gives you and your mother any trouble, call his probation officer and explain it to him. Between the three of you, I'm sure you can get Bo to see the light.

DEAR ABBY: One of my doctors charges $95 for a 15-minute office call. When you leave the office, the lady at the desk says, "We'll take care of your Medicare form."

When I received the Medicare information, there was an indication of two surgeries during that office call, one for $50 and one for $45. I had no surgery.

I suppose he does this to get me a better reimbursement for my costs. However, it is hard for me not to consider it fraud.

On my second visit, the same thing happened, with the same amounts. Should I report this to Medicare?

PUZZLED IN PASADENA

DEAR PUZZLED: No. First, call your physician's office manager and ask for an explanation. It may be a matter of coding for Medicare. If you are not satisfied with the explanation, then report your physician, but first give him the chance to explain why Medicare was billed for two surgeries that were not performed.

Most teen-agers do not know the facts about drugs, AIDS and how to prevent unwanted pregnancy. It's all in Abby's new, updated, expanded booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know." To order, send a business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

Hungry people eating leftovers

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Thousands of homeless and hungry Americans are getting their daily meals from restaurants and caterers instead of trash cans.

At least 40 cities across the nation have launched programs to put leftovers to use, according to Share Our Strength, a Washington group that is waging a campaign to fight food waste.

Prepared food left at the end of the day at deli counters, banquets, restaurants and executive dining rooms is picked up and distributed to shelters and soup kitchens.

"What's the point of throwing away all this wonderful food when you could feed it to hunger relief agencies in your city?" asked Jennifer Hadley, coordinator of the campaign. "These people are hungry. And it's better to get food served from a catering company than to pick it out of a trash can."

"The beauty of it is our country is concentrating a lot on environmental issues and recycling, and this applies to food as well."

The programs must adhere to strict health guidelines. No table scraps are allowed, nor are foods that are candidates for contamination, such as mayonnaise or seafood-based salads.

"If I couldn't take it out of my refrigerator at home and feed it to my granddaughter, I'm not going to give it to somebody else," said Jo Anna L. DeBolt, who runs the Richmond program that was modeled on programs in Norfolk and Atlanta.

Caterers and some hotels had so many leftovers they were embarrassed, said Rob Johnson, project director of the Atlanta Community Food Bank program. "We have about 150 donors of food that include restaurants, caterers, hotels, corporate cafeterias, schools and hospitals," said Johnson, whose Atlanta's Table was launched in 1987. "We are now averaging about 30,000 pounds of food each month."

During its first month of operation in September, the Central Virginia Food Bank distributed more than 7,000 pounds of food.

Astrograph

by Bernice Bede Osol

Oct. 31, 1990

A secondary interest you've been cultivating but have never tried to develop commercially might find its way to market in the year ahead. The results might be better than you anticipated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You could be extremely lucky today in developments that have strong, competitive elements. When those that compete against you are gasping for air, you'll be getting a second wind. Scorpio, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the years ahead by mailing $1.25 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Social contacts you make at this time could turn out to be more than merely pleasurable dinner companions. These individuals could play helpful roles in your affairs.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If there is something significant you've been wanting to finalize this is the right day to do something about it, even if your past efforts have been rather futile. Today it's a new ball game.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It's best not to make any major decisions today, especially of a social or financial nature without first consulting your spouse whose ideas might be better than yours. PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If you are striving for financial objectives today, your chances for attaining them are good, provided you are bold, industrious and aren't trying to get something for nothing.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't be hesitant about talking shop with people with whom you're involved socially today. The big order you couldn't close in a commercial environment might be done in a convivial atmosphere.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) In order to advance a matter of personal importance today, imaginative measures might be required. Be resourceful, think creatively and act positively.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Although you're apt to be reasonably lucky in most areas today, your greatest stroke of fortune could come from an endeavor that has recently captured your imagination and hopes.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Lady Luck may be inclined to favor you today in a situation that is meaningful to both your finances and reputation. If everything comes together correctly, the results will be impressive.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You'll be happiest today doing exciting things that are departures from your usual routines. If life has been boring lately, seek a safe, adventurous distraction.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your possibilities for fulfilling your material objectives today are very strong. You have three big factors going for you: motivation, ambition and luck.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You're gifted with the ability to put together constructive alliances or partnership arrangements that produce mutual benefits. Today you might do some of your best work.

Soviets looking for oil business partners

HOUSTON (AP) — Soviet officials searching for business partners to help exploit their vast untapped oil and gas reserves are piquing the interest of a greater number of U.S. companies concerned about the crisis in the Persian Gulf.

"The Soviets have always been anxious to conclude deals and get started with exploration and exploitation programs and have been very receptive," said Tom Russell, president of Houston's Professional Geophysics.

"That hasn't changed. What has changed is the interest level by the Western oil companies. We've seen a pickup since the Iraqi invasion," of Kuwait, Russell said.

On Monday, Oyo Geospace Corp. of Houston announced it was entering a joint venture to build seismic instruments at a Soviet plant.

In addition, Houston's Fairfield Industries and a delegation from the Soviet Republic of Yakut were scheduled to announce plans today to jointly market geological and seismic data to companies interested in exploring for oil or gas in Eastern Siberia, the Houston Chronicle reported.

Professional Geophysics and the Soviet Central Geophysical

Expedition of the Ministry of Oil and Gas Industry on Wednesday will provide seismic data on nearly 25,000 miles of territory, with proven reserves of nearly 2 billion barrels.

"Houston is the capital of the world for the oil and gas industry," said Alexander Zoteev, deputy chairman of Yakut's Council of Ministers. "In Houston, you have good technology, and you have good technique in oil and gas production."

Oyo Geospace has agreed to buy a 40 percent interest in a $10 million joint venture that will build geophones, seismic instruments used to find and develop oil and gas deposits.

Other partners are a Soviet geophone manufacturer, Geophyspribor; the Soviet bank, Vostok Cooperative Bank; and the Japanese trading company, Chori Co., Ltd., which will help convert profits into hard currencies that, unlike Soviet rubles, are recognized in the West.

"The geophones manufactured by the Soviet Union are not very good," said Oyo Geospace President Ernest Hall. "Their technology is far behind ours."

"We are taking some risks in transferring our technology and investing to get this joint venture started," Hall said. "We think it is a reasonable risk to take."

Fairfield Industries, meanwhile, has teamed up with Yakut officials to sell seismic and geological data to Western companies interested in exploring for oil and gas deposits in Eastern Siberia.

Fairfield and Yakut officials planned to make a presentation to about 50 oil and gas representatives in Houston today, touting potential reserves they say rival Saudi Arabia's.

Yakut is five times the size of Texas but has a population of only 1.1 million.

"We do not have enough people, enough money, enough technology to develop all this," Yakut's Zoteev said. "That's why we're looking for a partner who is not afraid of risk."

Higher taxes on gas-guzzlers in; tummy tuck subsidies out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tax subsidies for tummy tucks and facelifts would end. And the tax on a muscle car could be raised to nearly $8,000.

But there are new breaks for some cigar makers and small wineries.

Like many of the bills that cleared Congress late in the session that ended early Sunday morning, the deficit-reduction bill awaiting President Bush's signature is laced with provisions that received little or no public attention.

On the one hand, the bill raises taxes by an estimated $137 billion over five years to reduce the deficit. On the other, it offers tax breaks for businesses that hire the very poor, for low-income first-time homebuyers and for workers whose bosses help them further their education.

Other parts of the bill have drawn less public attention than the increased taxes on gasoline, tobacco, alcohol and the incomes of the rich. Among them:

—BABIES: Starting with tax returns filed in 1992, every child 1 year or older will have to have a Social Security number. It's designed to cut down on tax cheating.

—COSMETIC SURGERY: No medical deduction will be allowed for cosmetic surgery unless prescribed to correct a birth defect or accident-caused disfigurement.

—GAS GUZZLERS: The tax on cars that deliver less than 22.5 miles per gallon will be doubled to a new range of $1,000 to $7,700 depending on mileage.

—OVERDUE TAXES: The six-year period in which the Internal Revenue Service must begin collecting taxes after issuing an assessment will be extended to 10 years.

—FRINGE BENEFITS: A worker will be allowed to avoid income tax on up to $5,250 worth of employer-paid education benefits a year, including graduate studies.

—LOW-INCOME FAMILIES: The earned income credit, which provides up to $953 for poorer working families with children, will be raised next year to $1,186 for one-child families and $1,228 for those with two or more. Further increases will come in 1992 and 1993.

—DISABLED: Small businesses will be allowed a tax credit — subtracted directly from taxes owed — for half of the first $10,250 spent in a year to make accommodations accessible to the disabled. The present $35,000 tax deduction for the cost of removing barriers to the disabled will be cut to $15,000.

—LOW-INCOME HOUSING: A credit for those who build or rehabilitate rental housing for low-income people will be renewed another year. So will the tax exemption for bonds used to finance the purchase of a first home by low-income families.

—POOR EMPLOYEES: The targeted jobs tax credit, under which the government effectively pays up to $2,400 of the first-year wages for poor or disabled employees, is being renewed for a year.

—GIFTS OF ART: The off-again, on-again deduction for high-income people who donate art to a museum is on again — but only for 1991.

ASB Lubbock receives top recognition

LUBBOCK — American State Bank has been recognized for its strength and solvency by two national bank rating services.

The "Five Star Rating" was presented to American State by Bauer Financial Reports, Inc., for being evaluated as one of the safest, most credit-worthy banks in the country. The award indicates that American State's tangible capital exceeds 9.0 percent of tangible assets, that there are no excessive delinquencies or repossessed assets and that the bank is profitable.

American State was also ranked among top 20 banks in the nation by Veribanc, Inc., a Wakefield, MA, rating firm, as having top scores for solvency.

Last fall, American State Bank was also named by "Money Magazine" as one of the "100 safest banks" in the nation with only one other Texas bank on the list.

Snyder's American State Bank is also owned by the Lubbock bank.

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played around the country this weekend. On the entry blank at the bottom of the page, fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only...opposite the name of the business firm on the entry blank. Then clip out the entry blank and send it to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, Snyder Daily News, Box 949, or bring it by the news office at 3600 College Ave. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 5:00 p.m. Friday. Games ending in a tie must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

To avoid splitting the prize money a TIE-BREAKER slot will be provided on each entry blank. Pick the total points of the score for that game and in case of a tie the one who picks the winner and the nearest number of total points will receive the prize money. The same formula will apply to second and third place winners. In the case of a perfect score, the formula would apply for that cash prize.

There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted for any one person. More than one will disqualify all that person's entries. Entries must be on the official entry blank (No Copies Please). Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing except in the case of the tie-breaker. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number and watch for the winner's story in next Tuesday's SDN. Employees of the SDN and their families are not eligible to enter.
