Strike in Mexico affects oil prices

NEW YORK (AP) — Energy futures opened higher today, partly in response to a nationwide shutdown of Mexico's refinery operations by striking union workers.

On the New York Mercantile Exchange, gasoline prices shot up as much as 0.79 cent a gallon before midday pulling crude prices up with them. The February contract for crude oil was up Analysis said the stronger prices partially reflected investor concern that the disruption in Mexican refinery operations could mean lower U.S. supplies. The striking workers are protesting the arrest of their union boss on gun-running charges.

On Tuesday, the February contract for West Texas Incrimediate, the benchmark grade of U.S. crude oil, settled 3 cents lower at $17.69 a barrel after having been down as much as 25 cents during the session. On Monday, the February contract closed 17 cents higher at $17.72 a barrel. Union boss' arrest protested ...

Quayle trip

WASHINGTON (AP) -Dan Quayle asked the Republican National Committee to help pay the expenses of a family Christmas vacation in Vail, Colo., but a spokesman for the vice president-elect says the amount submitted was well below the $65,000 mentioned in a published report.

David Beckwith, Quayle's spokesman, said Tuesday evening that Quayle should receive $15,000 from the RNC. The Washington Post reported in today's editions that Quayle's office wanted as much as $65,000 and was granted $25,000.

Bank to pay

WASHINGTON (AP) -Women and minorities who worked for a major Chicago bank from 1973 to 1988 will share a record $14 million in back pay the bank agreed to pay in settling a race and sex bias case dating to 1977.

Harris Trust and Savings Bank and the Labor Department announced the settlement Tuesday, ending an 11-year legal battle in which an administrative law iudge twice ruled against the institution. A Chicago group that intervened on behalf of some bank workers estimated that about 5,000 current and former Harris employees are eligible for a share of the settlement.

Police sting

DALLAS (AP) - Police today were rounding up people who sold drugs to an undercover police officer who posed as a student at a Dallas high school in the first such sting operation since one ended tragically at nearby Midlothian.

Officers said Tuesday the undercover officer spent five months at a high school in north Dallas. They declined to identify the school.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What are the symptoms of a dropped bladder? DEAR READER: Prolapsed (dropped) bladder is a common condition in women as they age, especially if they have had multiple pregnancies. When this disorder arises, the bladder sags downward, causing a woman to lose her urine when she strains, coughs or sneezes. This is called stress incontinence and can be quite bothersome.

Occasionally, if the prolapse is severe enough, the bladder can actually protrude from the vagina. Many women put up with bladder prolapse because surgery is the only permanent cure. In this procedure, the bladder is re-suspended in a more normal position higher in the pelvis; usually, for technical reasons, the uterus is removed, too, but this is not essential.

Women for whom surgery is not an option can sometimes be helped by using a pessary, a plastic or rubber supporting ring that is placed in the vagi-na to hold up the bladder and the neighboring uterus. Some women who have mild bladder prolapse and experience minor incontinence are satisfied simply to wear pads.

Also, women with this condition are more susceptible to repeated urinary tract infection.

For more information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "Bladder and Urinary-Tract Infections." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to men-

DEAR DR. GOTT: A group of us at the senior center were comparing symptoms. We are all diabetic, have some sort of heart trouble, and we are all are over 70. When we exert ourselves, we break out in hives, get very itchy and have to take cold showers. Our doctors are no help. Can you tell us why this happens?

DEAR READER: Unfortunately, diabetes and heart disease commonly occur in elderly people, so I'm not surprised that you and your friends have one or both of these diseases.

However, I am surprised that your senior citizens' group reports exer-cise-induced urticaria, the appearance of hives during physical activity. This is not usual in older patients. The condition is actually a type of allergy, in which exercise triggers the release of histamine into the skin. Sometimes this itchy-hive disorder is due to a reaction to environmental substances, such as pollen or dust.

I do not know the reason you and your friends experience this ailment. However, since the problem is probably related to excess histamine, the use of anti-histamine medicine might help you. Benadryl, Chlortri-meton and other related drugs — taken in pill form before exercise or applied as a spray when symptoms occur - may provide relief. The medicines are safe, inexpensive and available without prescription. Try this therapy and let me know if it is

Officials welcome lawmakers

AUSTIN (AP) — Eager to end what they perceive as "Austinbashing" by state lawmakers, local officials ceremoniously welcomed the 71st Legislature with trumpets, jazz bands, cakes and smiles flashing goodwill.

Also greeting the state's 181
lawmakers in the Capitol Rotunda on Tuesday were a dozen of the city's homeless, but they brought a different message.

"We want to make sure the Legislature is aware of the problems of homelessness, and that they address them in this legislative session," said James Williams, president of the Street People's Advisory Council. Inside the Capitol, Austin Mayor Lee Cooke and Travis County Judge Bill Aleshire, flanked by Austin area legislators, told state lawmakers, "Welcome home — this is your home, too. The home of state government.

"We look forward to working with you as partners in this session, to make your stay in the next 140 days a very special time," Cooke said during a ceremony complete with bands from the University of Texas-Austin and Huston-Tillotson College in Austin.

'We want to do everything possible to make this session the best session that the Legislature of Texas has ever had. And I am committed to that as the mayor of Austin," Cooke said.

Legislators, their staffs and the lobbyists who follow them to Austin every two years, are expected to pour $16.1 million into the city's economy over the fivemonth regular session.

Austin area officials historically have had less-than-friendly relations with legislators. Cooke is eager to keep state lawmakers from dabbling in what he considers local political issues.

"I want to make it abundantly clear: we have ample revenues," Clements said in an interview on Tuesday's opening day of the 1989 Legislature.

"There are some people in the Legislature who have proposed some adjustments in the tax structure that would be revenue neutral (neither raising nor lowering the tax take), Clements said.

"I am very cautious about this, because every time I hear a legislator talk about 'revenueneutral' that's gobbledygook for 'I'm getting ready to raise your taxes.' So I'm very skeptical of that whole process.

Bridge

James Jacoby

Recognize 'minus' points

By James Jacoby

"Be aware of minus points" is the Bols bridge tip of writer Bep Vriend. He is of course referring to high-card points, with the time-honored formula of 4-3-2-1 for A-K-Q-J. The best way of understanding his meaning is to look at today's deal, in which North was oblivious to the advice.

After West's two-heart overcall, North saw that he had six high-card points and four-card spade support, so he bid two spades. When East then bid four hearts, South had no trouble, particularly with favorable vulnerability, taking a quick four-spade bid. Sometimes it might make, and the vulnerable opponents would be deprived of their probable game contract. West doubled, and the defense was precise.

The king of hearts was followed by a diamond. East took the ace and gave West a ruff. Next came the ace and king of clubs, followed by still another diamond ruff. That was down three, a result particularly bad since East-West could not make four hearts.

The trouble is all avoided if North passes, recognizing that his values are "minus" points, useful in defending against hearts but virtually worthless in support of spades. Give him Q-J in spades and no honors in hearts, for example, and four spades is down only one or two at the most, and four hearts by the opponents makes easily. But then his values would be "plus" points. James Jacoby's books "Jacoby on Bridge" and "Jacoby on Card Games" (written with his father, the late Oswald Jacoby) are now available at bookstores. Both are published by Pharos Books.

"Prison construction will be a very prime item," he said, adding that he expects the Legislature to approve the sale of state bonds to raise the millions needed to build the extra prison space.

On another criminal justice issue, Clements said he would like lawmakers to change sentencing laws to ensure that-criminals convicted of what he called "serious, heinous crimes" receive flat sentences that can't be drastically shortened by earning "good time" while in prison.

First big oil gusher marks eighty-ninth birthday Jan. 10

BEAUMONT, Texas (AP) - sprouted amid the derricks. Eighty-nine years ago Tuesday the ground rumbled and the sky seemingly rained black gold amid cheers of roughnecks at the foot of a spewing derrick.

The place was called the Spindletop field and it put Beaumont on the map and brought Southeast Texas into an era of boom.

Spindletop — the first gusher — still is magic. became a household word.

The shacks were home to families whose members made their livings from the oil business and whose children played hide and seek in the mud streets in the shadow of the derricks.

Only a handful of those children remain alive. But for some of them, now in their 80s and 90s, the word "Spindletop"

They and the many other Spindletop kids walked to South Park School in mud that sometimes was a foot deep.

"Cars got stuck all the time trying to come out there," Ms. Rose says, adding that most peo-ple used wagons, the easiest way to get around in the mud.

'My brother had a bicycle and he'd try to ride me on it, too," she says. "He'd fall off and I'd fall off both of us in the mud."

The town was "shack after shack, right down the road," Ms. Rose says. The home they lived in burned down three different times because the area didn't have a fire department.

There were no doctors to tend to injuries. "If somebody broke their leg on the rig, they'd just tie it to a board until it healed," Ms.

Jones says.

While most boys went to work in the oil fields when they were 14 or 15, they were required to be 21 years old, which led to a little fudging sometimes when applicants gave their age, says Elam Campbell, who worked in confectionary at Spindletop pushing a broom, jerking sodas and running a post office. He went on to the oil field when he got older.

after his Tigers rallied from the deficit to defeat the Chiefs 57-47 at Scurry County Coliseum. "We had talked that we didn't want Lake View to get off to a good start because they've been real tough when they did. The first thing, we looked up and they had 18 points."

It was only Snyder's third home game of the season and lifted the Tigers to 9-8 overall. The squad is 2-2 in District 4-4A

Lake View scored the final nine points of the opening quarter for an 18-10 lead, then went ahead by 10 when Will Lisenby put in the first bucket of the second period. Allen accounted for 12 for the 20, including a couple of 3-pointers.

Snyder came with one-on-one pressure against Allen, and the standout player managed just eight more points over the final three quarters.

Two fire runs made Tuesday

Firemen answered seven calls Monday and Tuesday. Tuesday calls included a grass fire from 3:40 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. on property owned by Gloria Rocha at 1103 Ave. Q and a grass fire from 1:40 p.m. to 2 p.m. between the tennis courts and agricultural building at Snyder High School.

Monday at 12:36 p.m., units were called to assist Fluvanna firefighters three miles north of Fluvanna at a grass fire, but the fire was out by the time Snyder firemen arrived.

A 12:55 p.m. Monday automobile fire two miles west of Hermleigh on County Road 644 kept firemen at the scene until 2:10 p.m. with a vehicle owned by Madaleno Castillo that they said was extensively damaged.

A 2:18 p.m. Monday grass fire at 2304 Peyton Ave. on property owned by Robert Lane occupied them until 2:55 p.m., and a grass fire two miles south of Lake J.B. Thomas on property owned by Curt Dunn required the use of two commissioner's Pct. 3 roadgraders between 3:40 p.m. and 7:05 p.m.

Freddie Yetman, technical cluding pilot error or sabotage, irector of the pilot's association, though he said "I don't think sabotage is very likely."

Aviation experts said they thought it highly unlikely the pilot could have confused the two engines, and one said the fire warning system may have been at fault. William Tench, retired head of Britain's Air Accidents Investigation Branch, put the odds against a double-engine failure at 10 million-to-1.

David Learmount, air national magazine, was asked in a British Broadcasting Corp. interview about the possibility the pilot shut down the wrong engine.

DEAR IMPRESSED: You call this "chivalry"? I call it a grandstand play. First he humiliates a girl publicly - calling her a thief. Then on discovering he had made a mistake, he sends flowers to her classroom. This kid is a natural showman. He should go far in the P.R. busi-

DEAR ABBY: A lady asked, 'What do you do with a 28-year-old man who rarely showers, never washes his hair and doesn't own a toothbrush?"

You replied, "Nothing." Well, I for 40 years. He was a good provider (Postage is included.)

DEAR ABBY: I've read, seen and and a gentle person in all his actions. Even though I hinted often ness of the younger generation, but and spoke negatively about other men who never cleaned themselves up, he never got the hint, so I also

I know I hurt his masculine ego many, many times. Poor soul. How wish I could have said something definite about it instead of living those 40 years in that unhappy situation, and doing so little to make him happy and satisfied.

Abby, I would have advised that or ship out. That is what I should have done 40 years ago.

TOO LATE NOW

DEAR TOO LATE: If your husband is still alive, it may not be too late. Get "Love and Sex After 60" (Harper and Row) by Dr. Robert N. Butler, former head of the National Institute on Aging (and Pulitzer Prize recipient for his book, "Why Survive: Growing Old in America"). But all the books in the world will not help you unless you look your man straight in the eye and tell him the truth: "I love you, but I can't make love with a clothespin on my nose.'

"How to Write Letters for All Occasions" provides sample letters of congratulations, thank-yous, condolences, resumes and business letters even how to write a love letter! It tells you how to properly address clergymen, government officials, dignitaries widows and others. The action by the doctors during the midst of the flu and cold season has left 2,500 patients of renewed. the giant former Maxicare Heatlh Maintenance Organization without their usual doctors.

Seven of the 31 private physicians affiliated for more than six months with the plan, now known as Humana Maximum Benefit Plan, have dropped out, officials said Tuesday.

The primary reason cited is because of rules implemented Jan. 1 for the program that requires admissions only to Humana hospitals except in emergencies threatening life or limb and in a few categories of il-

"It's caused a lot of inconvenience to a lot of the patients," said Dr. Jose J. Gamboa, a family practice physician, who resigned from the program rather than be required to send most patients only to Humana

Another problem for all 58,000 members of the HMO is that a contract with 25 H.E.B. pharmacies to provide prescription drugs to the patients was not

This means the in-house pharmacies of the four walk-in clinics run by the HMO have been flooded with patients seeking needed medications.

The Eckerd chain of 24 pharmacies took over the contract Jan. 1 to provide medication for plan subscribers.

Before the Jan. 1 rule requiring doctors to use Humana hospitals, at least nine hospitals were available rather than just the three San Antonio Humana hospitals.

The new regulations do allow admissions for children to Santa Rosa Children's Hospital and for adults under specific circumstances to two other Santa Rosa Health Care Corp. hospitals, but the previous Maxicare rules were flexible enough for physicians to put patients in
