Lost weather days must be made-up on two Saturdays

been informed by state officials that district students will be required to make-up two school days lost here Feb. 6-7. The district will now use the two "snow days" built into its annual school calendar. This will see students in class on two Saturdays this spring, April 15 and May 20. Classes were dismissed for two days in a row in early February due to natural gas curtailments to customers like Snyder ISD. The curtailments were ordered because of extreme cold temperatures which invaded the state, allowing Lone Star Gas to divert gas supplies to residential customers if needed. Since school closings were so widespread at the time, school officials had hoped for a waiver on the make-up days.

The Texas Education Agency, in a letter sent last week, ruled, however, "All districts are required to use the two make-up days they scheduled at the time the school calendar was developed."

The agency noted, "If additional time is lost, a request for a shortened school year will be considered."

Astronauts told to conserve power

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An unexplained erratic pressure reading on a hydrogen tank forced Discovery's five astronauts to turn off several systems to conserve power today and raised the possibility of a shortened mission.

NASA emphasized the trouble posed no threat to the crew or the mission but could cut the planned duration of the flight from five to four days.

The hydrogen tank, one of four, feeds the shuttle's power-producing fuel cells.

Mission Control's Pierre Thuot told Discovery commander Mike Coats to shut down several systems to assure the crew could complete a four-day mission and still have capacity to spend two extra days in orbit in case bad weather made it impossible to land on the fourth day.

NASA spokesman Brian Welch emphasized no decision has been made yet to shorten the mission.

Flight director Ron Dittmore said the hydrogen tank was isolated after it exhibited erratic pressure readings. He said the three other tanks were sufficient to feed Discovery's three power-producing fuel cells.

He said engineers on the ground were trying to understand the problem.

Among the systems the astronauts shut down were some computers and two of three video terminals.

The power-down directive came three hours after the five crewmen were awakened by the shouts of James Brown's "I Feel Good!" and as they were turning attention to experiments that could improve human life on Earth and in space.

Today's relatively quiet schedule contrasted with the fire and thunder of Monday's liftoff and the release of the $100 million satellite.

The successful deployment of the 2½-ton Tracking and Data Relay Satellite completes a network that will enable NASA and the Defense Department to maintain almost constant radio contact with space shuttles and more than a score of unmanned satellites.

SCHOOL WEEK BEGINS — Monday marked the first day of a week-long slate of events in Snyder as Public School Week is observed. Open house at the six elementaries was held Monday night and, at left, Doris Hammit and her grandson, Corey Clark, visited the book fair at North Elementary. During the morning, grand prize winners from the junior high science fair were recognized. They were eighth grader Virginia Pointeau, left, and seventh-grader Shannon Canada. Virginia's entry was on the physics of boiling water, and Shannon's was on cotyledons or embryonic plant leaves. (SDN Staff Photos)

Plan would add fine arts events

Chamber-sponsored programs related to the arts, to include music, dance, and theatre, might be expanded from once yearly to four times a year under a new program proposed to chamber board members Monday.

Regarding what type of performers might be secured, chairman Rick Hester noted his committee would be looking at a greater variety of acts.

As part of this, he described a recent meeting with the vice president of the Texas Association of Arts, Peter Fox, who resides in both Austin and Amarillo.

Fox is also associated with a dinner theater in Amarillo and currently is helping to book entertainment events in San Angelo.

Tax receipts rise to normal

Collections by the county tax assessor-collector's office and the Scurry County Appraisal District picked up in February—one month after the date to pay without penalty and interest—to push percentage totals for local entities into the range of normal collections.

Tax Assessor-Collector Rona Sikes reported last week that collections have increased to 93.6 percent for the county, 93.4 percent for Western Texas College, 93.1 percent for Snyder Independent School District and 87.1 percent for the city.

Appraisal district head Ray Peveler said collections for the Ira and Hermleigh school districts are up to 90 and 92 percent respectively.

The totals are up from a month ago, when they stood at 84 percent for the county and college, 81 percent for the city and Snyder schools, 87 percent for Ira and 78 percent for Hermleigh.

Sikes said most of the new revenues were mailed at the end of January, the latest they could be sent in without a penalty, and received in her office during the first three days in February.

Delinquent taxpayers will receive a third notice on May 1, and the assessor-collector said a final surge in revenues may be expected then because attorney's fees are added to interest penalties in July to make the total penalty 32 percent.

"A lot come in in June when they realize they can't pay 32 percent," she said.

Taxes not paid by Jan. 31 incur a 7 percent penalty that goes up

Former Pecan Queen to be candidate here

Jana McCoy, 21, a native of San Saba and the former Texas State Pecan Queen, will be among 11 candidates seeking the title of Miss Snyder here at Saturday's scholarship pageant.

She won the title of Texas State Pecan Queen in 1986, the same year she graduated from San Saba High School. She was salutatorian of her graduating class.

She now attends Texas A&M University, classified as a junior. She also attended Abilene Christian University, serving as a volunteer recruiter and as a member of the honors program at ACU.

She is also a past Rotary Club Sweetheart and, while in high school, a member of the National Honor Society.

Her hobbies include aerobics and singing and her talent

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "If a thing is right, it can be done. If it's wrong, it can be done without."

During a recent visit to Snyder, former SDN Editor Wacil McNair confirmed what we all knew already—it's a small world.

McNair is back in his boyhood hometown of Gilmer and he keeps active working for that East Texas town's semi-weekly newspaper, Son Lee McNair, Snyder school business manager, and grandkids are good reasons for frequent trips back to Snyder.

Wacil's grandfather was a stockholder and director of a bank in Gilmer during the Depression years, and the bank was one of many in the nation that closed in the 1930s.

A few weeks ago, McNair got a telephone call from a woman in Gilmer who said she had found ledger books from that bank and wondered if McNair would like to have them.

Wacil said he spent several hours looking at the old ledgers and found amusement with many of the notations concerning the sale of bank assets. Obviously under criticism, the accountant covered his tracks with this note: "This transaction wouldn't have been handled more properly had Jesus Christ himself done it."

Wacil raised a tab on the bound ledger and made another interesting discovery. Printed was "Snyder National Bank." Wacil assumed that the Fuller-owned bank in Snyder was a source from which ledger books were purchased in that era.

Another "small-world" incident occurred about the same time. A motorist stopped at I.E. Martin's shop on north College to have his radiator repaired. The man was enroute to Hobbs, N.M. when his car problem occurred.

Martin introduced us to G.C. Elston and we went on home. A few minutes later the telephone rang and the caller identified himself as the man we had just met.

He asked several questions which all gained a positive response. "Your name rang a bell," he said. "My son-in-law was in the Army with you in Germany."

Indeed he was, and their daughter was born five days earlier than our son in the same army hospital in Wurzburg. We had never met the father-in-law and it had been almost 19 years since having contact with his daughter's family.

In Brief

Trade deficit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The deficit in the broadest measure of U.S. trade narrowed to $135.3 billion last year for the best showing since 1985, despite a steep deterioration in the balance on investment earnings, the government reported today.

The Commerce Department said the deficit in the current account, also known as the balance of payments, shrank 12.1 percent from the record imbalance of $153.96 billion set in 1987.

The current account is the most important trade statistic because it measures not only trade in merchandise but also transactions in investments and other services.

Plane lands

GREENVILLE, Texas (AP) — A Delta 727 en route from Atlanta to San Diego made an emergency landing today at a defense company airstrip east of Dallas, the airline said.

Flight 423 landed safely and passengers were evacuated without incident or injury, said Delta spokesman Neil Monroe in Atlanta.

Delta said the plane was carrying 117 passengers and a crew of seven.

The flight took off from Atlanta's Hartsfield International Airport.

It landed at an E-Systems runway in Greenville, about 40 miles east of Dallas, said Carol Winans, spokeswoman for E-Systems, a defense electronics company.

Tennis coach is charged in Conroe slaying

PLAINVIEW, Texas (AP) — A high school tennis coach was being held without bond in Conroe after being charged with capital murder in a December execution-style slaying.

Jon David Weatherred, coach of Plainview High School's tennis team and a physical education teacher at the school, was arrested Monday in between classes, officials said.

The coach is accused of fatally shooting William Strawn, 35, the boyfriend of Weatherred's former girlfriend, on Dec. 12, officials said.

Weatherred, 30, could be suspended, but continue to receive his salary, as a result of his arrest, said school Superintendent Dennis Townsend. No decision on a suspension can be made until school officials talk with Weatherred, who under school district policy would remain under suspension until a hearing could be held to decide whether to reinstate him, he said.

Strawn was shot once in the back of the head with a .38-caliber weapon at the home of Pamela Beene, a Conroe school teacher who was Weatherred's ex-girlfriend. The gun has not been recovered, officials said.

Montgomery County Sheriff Joe Corley said capital murder charges were filed in the case because the victim's car and one of his personal checks were stolen. The car was recovered two weeks later in Houston.

Strawn was shot as he lay face down on a floor in the residence, according to Corley.

Weatherred taught tennis and physical education at the high school and had been employed by the Plainview school system about three years, school officials said.

"He's been a suspect for some time," Corley said.

School officials had been aware that Weatherred was being investigated in connection with the killing.

"They (authorities) had been working with us for some time," said Plainview High Principal Jerry Don George.

"I really don't see why they couldn't have picked him up before school or over the weekend," George said.

But Superintendent Townsend was upset with the manner in which the arrest was handled.

George said he felt the law enforcement officials "acted very unprofessionally" and could have upset the students.

Friend Who's Feeling Guilty Should Shut Up, Not Open Up

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR READERS: While "Feeling Rotten" was the houseguest of her best friend, who had a live-in lover, "F.R." was awakened in the middle of the night by the lover, who wanted sex. He got it, and that's why "Feeling Rotten" is feeling rotten. She asked, "Should I tell my best friend?" In yesterday's column were letters saying, "Yes, tell." Today, we have the "don't-tells." Read on:

DEAR ABBY: "Feeling Rotten" should keep her mouth shut. When I was young, I found out that my best friend's fiancé was cheating on her (not with me). I did what I thought was right — I told her. She confronted him, and he denied everything. She chose to believe him. That ended our friendship. By the way, she married him, and they are now happily married grandparents. Maybe I should have minded my own business.

NOZY IN NEWARK

DEAR ABBY: When my husband was in Vietnam, the husbands of two of my best friends propositioned me. I turned them down and never said a word to their wives or anybody else. We are still good friends. What would have been gained by telling? I didn't lie — I just kept my mouth shut.

CINCINNATI LADY

DEAR ABBY: I have been on both sides of this situation, and I know from experience it's best to keep quiet. A few years ago, I visited my best friend and her husband in Hawaii. I was not married at the time. One night after a party cruise, unusual circumstances brought her husband and me alone together on a beautiful beach under a full moon. It was indescribably romantic. It happened.

The guilt didn't set in until the next morning, but I would have died before I confessed this sin to my best friend.

Today, they are happily married and so am I. It would have been selfish and cruel of me to tell her.

I was also cheated on. I married a wonderful man whom I loved with all my heart. You cannot imagine the hurt I felt when a good friend of mine came to me and confessed that she had had a short affair with my husband. I forgave him. But I never forgave her.

TORONTO SUN READER

DEAR ABBY: Regarding "Feeling Rotten," who slept with her best friend's live-in boyfriend and is now wondering if she should confess to her friend and risk losing her friendship: Give me a break! If she had really been a friend, she would have kicked that two-timing loser out of her bedroom. To have "let him" — regardless of how hard up and lonely she was — was inexcusable. If she has an ounce of decency in her, she will stay out of this friend's life, and keep her mouth shut.

MAZOOK IN NOE VALLEY

DEAR ABBY: I had a problem similar to "Feeling Rotten's": My best friend, who also had a live-in boyfriend, had a party at their house. I got a little intoxicated, and they let me sleep in their spare room so I wouldn't have to drive home. Well, at 3 a.m., I was awakened by the boyfriend as he started to climb into my bed. I told him to get out or I would scream! He left and I quietly dressed and drove home.

I never said a word to anyone about this, and now I'm glad I didn't because they've been happily married for 15 years and have three wonderful kids. He thanked me several times for keeping quiet.

MUM'S THE WORD IN MINNEAPOLIS

DEAR ABBY: "Feeling Rotten" has no right to cleanse her conscience in the tears of her best friend. My advice: Don't compound the mess by confessing. You will only make your friend feel angry, bitter and depressed, which will give you even more to feel guilty about. There's a good chance that she knows him for what he is but loves him anyway. If you tell her what happened, she might think you came on to him, or he might even tell her that you did in order to protect himself. You've done enough harm already. Keep your lip zipped.

Snake roundup draws protestors

SWEETWATER, Texas (AP) — The arrival of a handful of protestors to the Sweetwater Snake Roundup surprised some visitors, but underscored a growing dispute surrounding the fate of the snakes.

"If they were doing this with rabbits, this would have been stopped a long time ago," said Jim Seippel, an Austin resident who drove to this West Texas town to protest at the weekend event.

During the roundup, Sweetwater Jaycees skinned and gutted snakes before thousands of onlookers at the city's coliseum. Heads and skins were separated to become boots, key chains, paperweights or whatever else might sell.

What animal rights groups primarily object to is the way the snakes are flushed from their dens. Typically, hunters carry pesticide sprayers filled with gasoline. When they spot a crack or crevice that is a likely snake den, a gasoline mist is sprayed to drive the snakes into the open, where they can be caught with tongs.

"We're going to ignore the protestors," snakeskin-seller John Shaddix told the Dallas Times Herald. Shaddix owns Hallettsville-based Rare Skins Inc., which won the bid to buy all the snakes collected at the Sweetwater roundup.

Shaddix, who said his 11 rattlesnake processing plants buy 80 percent of the rattlesnakes killed in Texas, maintains the gassing has little impact on wildlife.

Environmentalists contend the gassing kills foxes, tortoises, burrowing owls, wildcats, rabbits, skunks and other species that take refuge underground in winter.

"Virtually every other kind of animal also takes refuge in these burrows, and we found the gasoline to be absolutely lethal."

Calvary revival services continue

Revival services at Calvary Baptist Church will continue through Wednesday night. Services begin at 7:30 p.m. each night.

Monty Martin of the Monty Martin Evangelistic Ministries is the guest revivalist. He has held revivals in churches all across the southwest. He is fundamental Baptist preacher.

The church is located at 2405 35th Street.

said Jonathon Campbell, an associate professor of biology at the University of Texas at Arlington, which was paid by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department several years ago to study the effects of gassing on underground dens.

Astro-Graph

By Benice Bede Osol

March 15, 1989

Advancement in your chosen field of endeavor is a strong possibility in the year ahead. You may be given greater responsibility, but you'll also receive greater remuneration.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You should be reasonably safe today in taking chances on things that you have carefully thought through, but if you exceed a calculated risk, you may be asking for trouble. Pisces, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead by mailing $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Strides can be made where your career is concerned today, but be realistic regarding your expectations. Don't let your desires extend beyond your reach.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You might have second thoughts regarding an arrangement upon which you hastily agreed. If you feel there are inequities, try to correct them today.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) In any commercial transaction today be careful the price isn't raised or the terms altered after the deal is set.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Partnership arrangements must be handled with intelligence and tact today. If there is not harmony of purpose, the measures taken could turn out to be counterproductive.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Not much of value will be accomplished today if your ego impels you to defend your mistakes instead of owning up to them and correcting them. Play it smart.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This is not a good day to play favorites, because friends might be a trifle more sensitive than usual. Pals you neglect aren't apt to readily forget slights.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your present objectives and goals can be gratified today without resorting to tactics that you wouldn't be proud to tell associates you used.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If a smart friend gives you a good idea today try to utilize it in the manner outlined. If you make alterations, it could lessen its effectiveness.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be careful of financial involvement today where you are required to make a greater investment than the other participants. If it starts off wrong, chances are it'll end up wrong.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) There's a possibility you might misinterpret the motives of someone today who may try too hard to be cooperative. Be sure there is a sound basis for your suspicions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It's not a wise policy for you to gossip with co-workers today about something a superior told you in confidence. Keep confidential company matters secret.

let it ride. The defenders made two diamond tricks, two heart tricks and eventually the king of spades. Was there a reason declarer should do better?

Needing only nine tricks, declarer will always succeed when the spade king is with West. He should therefore assume East holds that card and then try to locate the key trump cards on that basis. The question declarer should ask is: If East holds the spade king, the diamond A-Q, and either the heart ace or a void in the heart suit, would he not bid four diamonds rather than allow South to play in three hearts? Very likely. And so declarer should play West for the ace of hearts by going up with dummy's king, dropping East's queen. But what if South's contract were four hearts? Now he needs the king of spades to be onside, so he should play for East to hold the heart ace rather than the spade king. That's why on this deal the level of the contract guides the declarer's play.

After East's diamond overcall, North downgraded his diamond king but still raised to three hearts. Since South had stretched to bid two hearts, he was happy to settle for a part-score. This deal demonstrates how the level of the contract affects the proper play in the trump suit. The normal percentage play is to finesse, hoping for West to have the queen. That is right because West might hold A-Q-2, in which case playing the king will lose a trick. Today's South went set because he played the jack of hearts and

University Women views slides, artifacts of Africa

Martha Millhollon presented slides of Africa to members of University Women at the March 7 meeting held at Martha Ann Woman's Club. Her program was a "picture-hunt" of the region. She also displayed numerous items acquired there. The April 4 meeting will be hosted by Ruth McBeth. Kay Hopper will present U.I.L. prose and poetry students. New officers will also be elected.

Honey Do's Extension members see basket lining demonstration

Honey Do's Extension Homemakers Club met March 9 in the home of Virginia Fogle with president Shirley Bullard presiding. Fogle gave a demonstration and showed a video on techniques for lining a basket. During the business session, plans were made for Ag Day, March 14, and a bake sale March 18. The District Meeting is scheduled for March 30. Mary Vaughan served refreshments and won the door prize. Anyone interested in joining the group is invited to call 573-3377.

Blinn College...

Dusters face top seed

By BILL McCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

TYLER--Western Texas' runaway 86-40 win over Lorraine B. Wallace State in the first round of the Women's NJCAA National Tournament here Monday wasn't totally unexpected.

The Lady Dusters, 26-8, take on Blinn College of Brenham at 8 p.m. Tuesday as the week-long event continues.

"I rate Texas as probably the toughest region and ours is probably second," said John A. Logan College coach Gary Barton whose Lady Vols represent Region 24, which includes the Illinois area.

Texas teams include Western Texas and Odessa from Region 5 and Kilgore, Trinity Valley and Grayson from Region 14. The two regions combined have a 70-31 win-loss record at the national tournament. Region 22, which Wallace State represented, is 16-26 here.

"There is not a whole lot you can say about a game like that. We're just a better ball club," said Western Texas Coach Kelly Chadwick after the Lady Dusters' 46-point win over Wallace State. "I thought we played real well most of the time. We moved the ball well on offense and did a good job defensively when we needed to. I was happy that all the girls got some quality playing time in this first game."

One of the standouts for Western Texas was Seagraves freshman Tami Wilson. She scored 14 points and led the team in rebounds with eight, and in steals, with six. Wilson played above her 5-11 height, which is good for WTC—one of the shorter teams here.

There are 29 young ladies 6-foot or taller among the 24 teams. Seventeen are 6-1 or taller and 11 range 6-2 and above. Topping the list, literally, is Emmanuel College. The Georgia school boasts a pair of 6-4 players. Florida College is 6-2½, 6-2 and—at guard—6-0.

Western's opponent tonight, Blinn College, features 6-1 Lakeshia Jackson. The Lady Buccaneers are seeded number one in the tournament but, like Western, are unranked. Blinn got the top seed because last year's national champion, Kilgore, is from Region 14.

Blinn did not back into the tournament, however. The Lady Bucs defeated sixth-ranked Trinity Valley in a best of three playoffs to reach the national tourney.

"I like our chances against Blinn better than Trinity Valley, so maybe that works in our favor," said Chadwick. "But we'll have to play real good basketball to be here tomorrow."

In one of the fallacies of the six-day tournament, second round losers are automatically eliminated. It is the only time in which a team is not guaranteed at least two ball games. A WTC victory will move the Dusters to the quarterfinals and a 2 p.m. game on Thursday.

WTC set the tone for Monday's opening games. In others, Cowley County (Kan.) smacked Lakawanna (Pa.), 90-58; Hilbert College (N.Y.) ripped Southwestern College (Iowa), 80-67; Lake Region (N.D.) popped Roane State (Tenn.), 79-63; Louisiana State (N.C.) whipped Orange County (N.Y.), 95-60; and Lake Michigan drilled previously undefeated Mitchell College (Conn.), 71-54.

Today, Essex (Md.) was to play North Idaho at 10 a.m., and Miles (Mont.) met Moraine Valley (Ill.) at noon in the final first-round games. Second play play began at 2 p.m. as Central Arizona was to battle Lewisburg. At 4 p.m., Florida takes on Lake Michigan and at 6 p.m. State Fair (Mo.) faces Hilbert.

FOULED--WTC freshman Valery Jackson of Morton is fouled driving for a basket in the opening round of the National NJCAA tournament Monday in Tyler. Also shown for the Dusters is Nickey Allen (31), a sophomore from Amarillo. WTC defeated Wallace State 86-40 and were to challenge top-seeded Blinn College at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Shown for Wallace State is Beverly Gaines (22). (SDN Staff Photo)

Freshman named All-American

By The Associated Press

Sean Elliott didn't have to be told he had made The Associated Press All-America team. But he was happy to find out.

"It's a real good feeling. Going into the (NCAA) tournament, it's a real emotional boost," the Arizona senior said. "By this time, there's something that tells you, you almost know you're going to be on the team."

Elliott, the only repeater on the first team announced Monday, was joined by seniors Danny Ferry of Duke, Stacey King of Oklahoma, Sherman Douglas of Syracuse, and freshman Chris Jackson of Louisiana State.

"This is a tribute to our team and its position," said Elliott, who added that this year he is "a lot stronger and a lot smarter on the court, and 100 percent better on defense."

The voting was done by the same national panel of sports writers and broadcasters which selects the weekly Top Twenty. Each voter selected three teams with points distributed on a 5-3-1 basis.

The second team was comprised of seniors Pervis Ellison of Louisville, Glen Rice of Michigan, Mookie Blaylock of Oklahoma and Charles Smith of Georgetown, and sophomore Jay Edwards of Indiana.

The third team was seniors

Todd Licht of Stanford and George McCloud of Florida State, juniors Hank Gathers of Loyola Marymount, the nation's leading scorer and rebounder, and Lionel Simmons of La Salle, and freshman center Alonzo Mourning of Georgetown.

Elliott, the 51st player to repeat as an All-American in the 41 years a team has been selected, was the top vote-getter with 324 points and was named on the first team by 63 voters, just edging Ferry, 318 and 61, and King, 316 and 60.

The 6-foot-8 Elliott, the Pac-10's all-time leading scorer, leads the top-ranked Wildcats, by averaging 22.0 points and 4.3 assists and is second in rebounding at 7.0. He is considered the perfect swingman, switching easily from the forward to the guard position.

Jackson, college basketball's all-time freshman scoring leader with 942 points, became only the second player of his class ever to make the team. Wayman Tisdale of Oklahoma was the only other freshman selected as an All-American.

"I'm quite surprised about being named to the All-America team as a freshman. It is a great honor," Jackson said. "I'm shocked I've been able to do some of the things I've done."

Angelo State looks to avenge '88 loss

SAN ANGELO (AP) — Lone Star Conference champion Angelo State views their first round NCAA Division II basketball game against Southeast Missouri State as a chance to avenge their loss to the same team in last year's tourney.

Angelo State coach Ed Messbarger said he doesn't mind facing Southeast Missouri on their home court in Cape Girardeau, Mo.

"When they named SEMO as the host, our players knew they were going to have to beat them either in the first or second round," Messbarger said. "Our guys want to go back and redeem themselves as much as I do."

The two teams square off Friday night. SEMO stung Angelo State 111-75 in last year's NCAA Division II basketball playoffs.

"It's a great chance to redeem ourselves after they beat us so badly last year," said Angelo State forward Bobby Darnell. "We'd definitely like to play them again. The guys have been talking about it since the beginning of the season."

Snyder faces Brownwood

BROWNWOOD--Coach Albert Lewis' Snyder Tigers take their 5-2 record into a 5:30 p.m. encounter today with the Brownwood Lions.

The Tigers are fresh from a 13-0 victory over Lamesa last Saturday. The Brownwood game will be a warmup for the three-day Snyder Baseball Tournament which begins here Thursday. Nine teams are expected for that tournament which will be played at Moffett field and at the SHS diamond.

JV blanked by Abilene

Snyder junior varsity baseballers committed six errors and gave up six unearned runs as the Abilene High JV blanked Snyder, 9-0, here Monday.

Snyder outh the visitors but could never get a rally going. Les Rinehart led the Tiger bats with two singles and Chad Fox blasted a double. Other singles were collected by Richard Morris, Mark King, John Wright and Jason Rios.

Jamie Morton started on the hill for the Tigers and allowed five runs—four of them unearned—on five hits. He walked three batters and struck out five.

Terry Stephens came in for one inning and allowed three runs on three hits. He walked two. He was followed on the mound by Jason Rios who allowed one run on one hit, walked two and fanned four.

Snyder JV, which is now 2-2 for the season, travels to Midland Lee for a Saturday afternoon game.

Frosh bow to LCHS

Lubbock Christian High School junior varsity pounded seven hits for a 12-2 victory over the Snyder High School freshman squad here Monday afternoon.

Daniel Espinosa worked one and a third inning and was followed on the mound by Brian Crawford. The two Snyder hurlers were tagged for seven hits, walked 12 and struck out 12.

Snyder's two runs came on two hits—singles by John Conger and Brian Crawford. Crawford and Shane Smith each had a RBI.

The Snyder freshman squad is 0-2.

House approves prison bond proposal

AUSTIN (AP) — A bill authorizing $138.5 million for new prisons is part of a developing plan to provide more Texas Department of Corrections facilities while building a system in which "all roads don't lead to TDC," the bill sponsor said.

The measure by Rep. Allen Hightower, approved with a 140-0 vote today by the House, would require the issuance of bonds approved in 1987 by Texas voters but not yet spent. The bonds would build two maximum-security facilities with a total of 4,500 beds and a psychiatric unit with 500 beds.

Lawmakers and representatives of the governor's office are working on a prison package that Hightower, D-Huntsville, said he expects will provide for 15,000 to 16,000 new beds.

About half the beds would be in Texas Department of Corrections facilities and half in such diversionary programs as "boot camp" facilities, said Hightower, head of the House Corrections Committee. He said discussions are ongoing as to how many inmates can be diverted from prison.

The package would require another $149 million on top of the $138.5 million, Hightower said. Among the options to get extra funds would be a half-cent sales tax increase or more bonding, he said.

"I think the total package is somewhere in between $260 million and $300 million," Hightower said. That also would include early intervention drug education funds, substance abuse facilities and boot camp facilities, he said.

The measure also includes $3.5 million in bond money for asbestos abatement at Texas Youth Commission facilities.

House Speaker Gib Lewis said it is important for the Legislature to act on prison legislation as fast as possible.

"It's a critical issue back in county government, and it's one that we need to move as quickly as we can on," he said.

Local officials have complained that their jails are crowded with inmates who have been sentenced to TDC and are awaiting transfer there. The state prison system, which is under a federal court order because of crowded conditions, accepts inmates through a quota system for counties.

Television ministries facing loss of all tax exemptions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several television ministries whose finances are being audited by the Internal Revenue Service in the wake of the PTL scandal are in danger of losing their federal tax exemptions, the IRS says.

Loss of the exemptions would mean future contributors could not claim tax deductions for donations to those ministries.

The IRS investigated 23 TV ministries during the last quarter of 1988, the agency said in a report to Rep. J.J. Pickle, D-Texas, chairman of the House Ways and Means oversight subcommittee. Pickle made parts of the report public on Monday.

"The service is continuing to devote significant examination resources to media evangelist cases," Robert I. Brauer, assistant commissioner for exempt organizations, said in a cover letter to Pickle. He identified six of those cases as involving prominent TV evangelists.

"We anticipate that several cases involving prominent media evangelists will move to the final stages of the examination process this year," Brauer wrote.

"We also anticipate that some of these cases will present serious issues relating to continued federal income tax exemption."

The report names none of the 23 ministries; privacy laws prohibit such disclosure. However, it is known that one of those being probed by the IRS is PTL, which is fending off the IRS and several creditors in bankruptcy court.

The report uses numbers to refer to the cases. No. 15, PTL, is under investigation for allegedly failing to pay tax on some of its unrelated income, including rental of part of its satellite network; for not reporting some of its income; and for allowing part of its funds to be used for the benefit of private individuals.

In public proceedings, the IRS has alleged that PTL paid excessive salaries to founder Jim Bakker and some of his associates.

PTL founded and the IRS intensified its scrutiny of TV ministries after Jessica Hahn charged that Bakker associates paid her to keep quiet about allegations that she had been seduced by Bakker.

Pickle, in releasing the IRS report, said the agency and one prominent evangelist had reached agreement that led to the minister's payment of back taxes, interest and penalties totaling more than $1 million over a four-year period. Key issues in that case were the minister's pay, housing and transportation.

The IRS said the cases under review also involve allegations of political activities, not fully reporting income, allowing earnings to benefit officials of the ministry, or failing to pay employment taxes on employees' wages.

Brauer's cover letter said two organizations connected with former Republican presidential candidate Pat Robertson have refused to provide records of the type that other TV ministries have provided voluntarily.

Because the Freedom Council and the National Freedom Institute would not cooperate, the letter stated, the IRS had to go to federal court in Norfolk, Va., to seek to enforce a summons for the records.

CANDY CART—Belle Johnston, a North Parent Council volunteer, oversaw the candy and sandwich cart Monday night during Open House. Katy Cooper, a second grader, was one of her customers. Each Friday from 2:30-2:45 p.m. volunteers bring the candy cart to the school. Other fund raisers include a book fair being conducted this week and a Nintendo Power System which will be given away in April. First through third place prizes will also be awarded to the students who sell the most chances. (SDN Staff Photo)

Chamber hears event planning

Because of this, he expressed a willingness to help book acts which entertain at his dinner theatre in Snyder also.

"He also told us that you can never make a fine arts type program work by having only one program a year. You've got to have it at least seasonal to keep it on people's minds."

For the past several years, the chamber's cultural affairs committee has planned an annual program, normally near Christmas. This has included such events as a performance by the New York based The Acting Company, presenting "Much Ado About Nothing," a performance by the Lubbock Civic Ballet and, this past December, a concert by the Midland Symphony Orchestra and Choral.

"We've done the big things," Hester said, "The idea now would be to have three smaller programs to help pay for one big one each year."

A sampling of possible acts suggested by Fox, he noted, ranged from a "Big Band" style concert by the touring Tommy Dorsey Band to a 1950s-style band and concert to a performance of Folkloric dancers.

To insure the financial viability of such a program, plans were discussed also to sell "patron" tickets to all four events and to secure corporate "underwriters" to insure against possible losses.

A possible price of $50 for a patron's ticket was discussed. "If we could sell 300 of these, we'd have a good base to insure the program wouldn't lose money," Hester said.

In reference to his meeting with Fox, he noted, "He also told us to change our committee's name from 'cultural affairs.'"

Hester's report was made during the regular March meeting of the chamber board. Other new chamber plans discussed during the meeting included:

Weather days to be made-up

Hermleigh ISD also dismissed one day in early February due to the gas curtailments. Superintendent Jerry Church said Tuesday the district will likely make-up this day on one of the Fridays which were to be part of "three-day weekends" planned in lieu of a week-long spring break.

—A proposal to repaint the signs advertising Snyder, substituting the terms "restaurants-fuel-motels" for actual national logos of existing businesses. For interested businesses, an annual advertising fee would be charged to pay for the sign's repainting. Plans would be to change these logos on an annual basis and to allow all with such logos to participate.

—A proposal to begin a scheduled advertising campaign by the chamber to recognize longtime Snyder businesses, beginning with those here 15-years or longer.

—Plans for a chamber membership drive set in April.

—Plans for the city's first Lawn and Garden show in the coliseum slated April 29.

Chamber directors attending included Herbie Figueredo, who presided as president, David Kattes, Bill Davies, M.L. Duke, Joe Coronado and Eddie Williams.

DR. GOTT PETER GOTT, M.D.

Swallowing air can cause bloating

DEAR DR. GOTT: My mother's stomach swells up noticeably after eating raw foods. What causes this?

DEAR READER: Bloating after meals is usually due to air-swallowing. People who eat a lot of roughage or who wear dentures and fail to chew their food thoroughly tend inadvertently to swallow air when eating. This harmless annoyance can be corrected by avoiding air-swallowing — by not gulping food and taking more care in swallowing.

Sometimes, upper gastrointestinal ailments, such as peptic ulcer, gall bladder disease and hiatal hernia, can contribute to bloating because of improper digestion. Therefore, I believe your mother should see a doctor for a diagnosis.

For more information, I am sending you copies of my Health Reports "Digestive Gas" and "Hiatal Hernia." Other readers who would like copies should send $1 for each with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the titles.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Three years ago I went on a long car trip. At the end, I noticed a pain in my hind end. It got worse and now is incredibly painful. It's in the middle of my left buttock. I've been on Percodan for three years. I've had shots, X-rays, acupuncture and chiropractic treatment.

DEAR READER: There are several possible causes for intractable rear-end pain following injury or prolonged sitting: rectal or anal infection, hip arthritis, sciatica and coccydynia, to mention a few.

I assume from your comments that these possibilities have been investigated by appropriate medical practitioners. Coccydynia (chronic pain in or near the tailbone) is a poorly understood phenomenon of unknown cause. It can be a real problem because it is difficult to diagnose and treatment with drugs and injections is usually ineffective. Sometimes muscle-relaxing tranquilizers help the pain. Sciatica, buttock pain from a pinched nerve in the back, is treatable under medical supervision.

Percodan, an addicting narcotic, is rarely an appropriate solution to this affliction. I think you should be examined by a gastroenterologist to make sure that your lower colon is not contributing to your pain. If no cause is discovered, you might be helped by a referral to a pain clinic. Such clinics are available in many large medical centers.

For more information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband, 81, has lost 20 pounds in the last three months. He doesn't digest his food and often vomits after eating. The doctor says he has a growth on his kidney and gave him Zantac. Is there something he can take to get his kidneys to filter better?

DEAR READER: I am confused about the reason your husband was given Zantac, an anti-ulcer compound. An ulcer could certainly cause the kind of digestive disturbances he is experiencing, but if he has an ulcer, the situation should have resolved promptly.

The kidney growth is a real red flag. This should be investigated. I'd want to know what the growth is and whether it is contributing to the problem.

For example, certain kidney tumors are associated with weight loss and vomiting. I suggest you ask that your husband be referred to a kidney specialist for a second opinion. This may make the situation clearer.

Teamsters-government...

Trial averted by 'breakthrough' pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Three court-appointed watchdogs will oversee the entire Teamsters union for three years as part of an unprecedented agreement that the government says will wrest the nation's largest union from Mafia domination.

The tentative settlement remained subject to approval by U.S. District Judge David N. Edelstein, who deferred action until today, saying the 30-page document was "very complicated."

The accord was announced Monday just hours before the start of a trial on a federal civil racketeering lawsuit to oust the union's allegedly mob-influenced executive board.

Attorney General Dick Thornburgh detailed the terms of the agreement in Washington, saying it will give the government "the tools to clean up this union and return control to rank and file union members."

Rudolph W. Giuliani, who filed the lawsuit in June when he was U.S. attorney, said the agreement "achieved all the major objectives that the government wanted."

"It should be considered a breakthrough," he said.

Beginning in 1991, the union's highest leaders for the first time in Teamsters' history will be elected directly by the members in secret ballot votes.

Currently, delegates to the national convention pick the executive board members by roll-call vote.

Also under the settlement, the judge will appoint three overseers for three years, with the joint approval of both sides. One would investigate and prosecute alleged union corruption, one would administer disciplinary action and the third would oversee elections.

"All Teamsters international union officials will be directly elected by the membership in secret ballot. That's never happened before," said Assistant U.S. Attorney Randy Mastro, the lead prosecutor.

In exchange, prosecutors dropped their bid to seize control of the 1.6 million member union through a court-appointed trustee. The settlement also allows all 11 Teamsters who remained as defendants, including international President William J. McCarthy, plus three other officials who settled last week to remain on the board.

The pact between the current union leadership and the Justice Department gives neither side complete control, although both sides tried to put the best face on the compromise agreement.

In 1885 and 1886 college football operated with only one official, the referee.
