

SNOOTER NOSE

LITTLE ABOUT EVERYTHING AND NOT MUCH ABOUT ANYTHING

MONEY isn't everything, but it's a useful thing in paying bills. There is another first of the month next Tuesday, and this department takes this occasion to remind the citizenship of us there will not be another issue of The Reporter until after that date.

The idea of this little review for is to remind the fellow who owes a little bill, or a big one for that matter, if at all able, pay all the accounts, or some of it. The local merchant needs it, as well as any other creditor. The depression, over which our Democrats had no control, and maybe not the Republicans, wiped from our grasp what little shokels we did get together and seems to have done an excellent job of putting up the bars against us getting hold any more, and left many of us in the position we couldn't pay anything on our indebtedness.

The few nickels and dimes we did accumulate during the depression we were forced to pay the merchant for food to feed our families, as the merchant had credited us as far as we could, and to keep his store doors open was forced to sell his goods for cash.

But now a little cotton is being picked and a little being sold. Prospects are bright, if the weather continues bright and warm, there will be considerable cotton picked and sold by the end of the week. Thus, we have it, there should be some ready cash to pay on obligations by the first of November. It would be very much appreciated by the creditor.

Tax paying time is at hand, and the merchant, and all of us, are eager to pay into the county treasurer our tax debt that our schools and our county government may function smoothly so far as revenue is concerned to carry on the work. The wheels of our county government and schools are threatened with a stoppage for lack of funds upon which to operate. Due to a large amount of tax payments going delinquent last year. We must all pay taxes but we can't do it with fat hides and coyote pelts—it requires the cold hard earned cash.

All have to have money except the miser, as he can live on hot air, and off the good graces of those who may take him to be a perfect example of a charity patient, if taxes are to be paid and our courthouses kept from being made a pigeon roost and the doors of our schools allowed to remain open.

We can think of only one thing that money is for, and isn't worth a hang to you, it's when you are down in Mother Earth about six feet, waiting for Gabriel to blow his horn. So, if any of you fellows have plenty money, and figure taking it with you to your grave—forget about it, and go pay your taxes or other creditors, or put it out where it will do some good for your community. The good Lord loves a cheerful giver, but he dern sure despises a miser.

LOOKING up our calendar we find that Theodore Roosevelt, deceased and former President of the United States, was born on October 27, 1858. On and after November 8, 1932, he will have a kin-man by the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt who will be President of the United States, for the next four years.

HENRY FORD has let it be known among his employes that Herbert Hoover must be elected. The employes may feel themselves in the same boat this writer finds himself. He is riding in a late model Henry Ford, but he dern sure knows better than to intimate to the driver who she should vote for. One thing we can vouch for is that she's dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, and that spells Roosevelt and Garner for her.

A NEWSPAPER reports a Virginia man as having been injured by a shot gun in his stomach. What is a puzzle to us, how did he swallow it? But then there are fellows who swallow things as bad as a shot-gun—wildcat firewater, for instance.

NUMBER FIVE

SMALL TOWN AND COUNTRY SENTIMENT FOR ROOSEVELT

VOTES TABULATED FROM 36 STATES FOR TOTAL OF 129,499 RECEIVED ROOSEVELT 77,331, HOOVER 52,159.

With the national presidential election less than two weeks away the weekly newspapers' nation-wide poll is piling up impressive totals for the consideration of political minded folks everywhere. The votes in this weekly newspaper poll represent the run of the tide in small town and rural America. The Stanton Reporter, together with some 2,000 weekly newspapers located in states throughout the nation has been conducting this straw-vote test for the last several weeks, with the Publishers Automobile Newspaper Service in New York operating as nation-headquarters.

Votes tabulated from 36 states for a total of 129,499 received show:

Roosevelt 77,331
Hoover 52,159

The weekly newspaper straw-vote returns this week bear out an early indication that Roosevelt may expect as much support—and a little bit more, from small towns and rural districts as he has received in large city and thickly populated district polls. In other words, The Literary Digest poll showed Roosevelt in mid-October with 53.54% of the vote cast to Hoover's 39.39% of the total of 1,983,634 votes cast. In the Hearst newspaper poll of larger cities, Roosevelt with 58% leads Hoover with 42% in a total of approximately 500,000 votes cast. The weekly newspaper poll this week with a total of 129,499 votes show Roosevelt leading 59.5% to Hoover's 41%.

Roosevelt is leading in thirty states to six for Hoover. The Hoover states are Connecticut, Illinois, Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New Hampshire. This is directly in line with the Literary Digest poll except that The Digest shows Hoover leading in Illinois as well as New York outside New England states.

Republican leaders scoff at the idea that Hoover will fail to carry a greater number of states than is shown in any of the polls and perhaps rightfully so. However if Hoover carries no more states than the different straw-vote now indicate he will have less than 100 Electoral Votes of the 266 necessary for election.

There are 531 Electoral Votes of the States. These have been reapportioned since the 1929 election, due to the population changes. New York state has the greatest vote, with 47; Pennsylvania has 36; Illinois, 29; Ohio, 26; Texas, 23; California, 22; and Michigan, 19.

of $1.00 per year. Fifty cents saved is not to be found at every corner of the road. Some will say, "oh, well, I can do without the paper this year, I need the dollar for so many other things." About the time that statement is made and the paper dropped from the mailing list there appears in the classified columns an advertisement from a neighbor wanting to buy a milk cow and pay the cash. A fellow living some fifteen miles distant answered the want of the neighbor by selling him a cow for $50. Next day the Reporterless neighbor ambled over to his neighbor a short distance away, and inquired where the milk cow came from. When answered the neighbor said he had a good cow he would have sold him for the same price—$50—and he needed the money badly. The reply the neighbor gave him was he would gladly have bought the cow from him but he didn't know he had one to sell. Don't let the opportunity to renew for your paper by paying $1.00, slip by. It may save you 49 times the price of the Reporter as it made the Reporter subscriber who sold the cow for $50.

T&P Responds To Popular Demand

Responding to a popular demand, the Texas and Pacific Railway is breaking all precedents in passenger transportation by offering drastically reduced rates to El Paso, Dallas and Fort Worth and intermediate points for the Armistice Day holiday, according to Frank Jensen, general passenger agent. Round trip tickets for the mammoth excursion are now on sale and will be good on all T&P trains departing on November 11 or 12, with a return limit of November 15, allowing three full days at destination if desired.

"While many requests have been made for an excursion of this character, the drastic rate reduction is being made purely in the nature of an experiment," Mr. Jensen said. "The experiment is based on the theory that a sufficient amount of business will be created to enable the railroads to earn a sufficient amount to justify such an extraordinary reduction."

The reduced round trip fare to El Paso is $2.50 for this occasion and tickets may be purchased to Dallas and Fort Worth and return for only $2.50. Children will be carried for half fare and tickets will be good on all classes of equipment, including sleeping cars.

REFEREE IN BANKRUPTCY HERE

Hon. Ben Randle, referee in bankruptcy of the U. S. Court, western district, Pecos, spent Monday in Stanton, a business guest of County Attorney Robt. Hamilton, Judge Randle was district judge in this district prior to Judge Chas. Klapproth, present incumbent, and years ago, was district attorney when W. R. Smith, Sr., deceased, and father of W. R. (Bob) Smith, present district attorney of the 70th district, was the presiding judge.

Mrs. Earle E. Powell and son, Edgar Lay, left last Friday for Fort Worth to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bounds. Mr. Powell took them as far as Colorado, from which place they continued the journey by train.

Kaderli Paints Nifty Sign For Local Cafe

We dare say there's not a town the size of Stanton in Texas that boasts of a born and reared boy that is as nifty and tasty with a paint brush as Hilton Kaderli. His earmarks are on the front of almost every business house in Stanton in the way of a painted sign, and all the signs will compare equally, and better than some sign writers who claim years of experience.

The latest handiwork of Mr. Kaderli is the best work he has yet produced, stands in front of the Eats Shop, next door to Conoco filling station. The sign represents a waitress all togged out in blue uniform and the conventional chic round cap tilted on her head, holding a bill of fare that is prepared by the cafe.

The sign is 4 feet wide by 7 feet long, and five colors were used in painting the sign—orange, light orange, white, blue and black.

THIEVES GET IN THEIR WORK ON FILLING STATIONS

Thieves were very much in evidence Saturday night from reports emanating from local filling stations.

All the way from 8 to 15 gallons of gasoline was swiped from the pump at the Eiland Motor Co. They broke the lock, Magnolia filling station lost thirty gallons by thieves unlocking the lock and applying a wrench and pumping up the gas. Jim Zimmerman reports thieves carried off the pump and tank that contained about 8 gallons of lubricating oil.

The cleaning out of the criminal element in Lubbock, is thought responsible for the Saturday night thievery in Stanton.

J. Fox of the Fox Dry Goods Co., made a business trip to Dallas first of the week.

John F. Epley, district clerk, in so far as he is concerned, has the docket ready for the court's perusal and disposal, and L. P. Boone, court stenographer, will be on hand to take down testimony and attend to other business that comes under his jurisdiction.

Checkers can be played on the coast-tail of County Attorney Bob Hamilton, as he swishes around getting the cases in shape to be presentable to the court.

The term is only two week duration, the first week to be consumed by the investigations of the grand jury, and the second week devoted to hearing the civil docket.

According to District Clerk Epley that is no case to come up for trial that is of major importance.

Following is the list of members of the grand jury, followed by the members of the petit jury:

Republican Candidate Governor Spoke Here

Orville Bullington, of Wichita Falls, Republican candidate for Governor, spoke on the streets of Stanton, Wednesday afternoon to a fair sized crowd.

There were in his audience a number of women who shook hands with him at the close of his speech with the words they hoped he would be the next governor.

The major portion of his speech was directed toward the alleviation of the tax burden in Texas with a promise of cleaning up the pardon situation.

He favors exemption of ad valorem taxes on homes up to the value of $3,000.

Rev. Virgil Jackson, pastor of the Church of Christ of Lenorah, introduced the speaker. The audience was very attentive and his speech was well received.

C. L. Richart, of Fort Worth, press representative off the Fort Worth Star Telegram, is accompanying Mr. Bullington on his campaign.

BUFFALOES LOSE TO WINK 39 TO 0

The Stanton Buffaloes are all ready to make their 80-mile trek today for the roost of the Pecos Eagles, and that they must put up a 50 per cent better, or rather 100 per cent better game than they did with the Wink Wildcats last week to escape a defeat, is a foregone conclusion.

No one interviewed by this scribe after the Wink game seems to know what was the matter with the Buffs that they allowed the Cats to score on them at will, and send them back to their reservation with a gooseegg.

Here's hoping the jinx that was with the Buffaloes in the Wink game will shift to the bald heads of the Eagles this p. m.

As I see it

By TOUCHDOWN

The much touted "three-coached" Midland Bulldogs bowed in defeat before the Colorado Wolves last Friday afternoon on Lackey Field. Midland, Hankins, the Midland sports writer, informed this department before the Stanton Buffalo and Midland Bulldog game that the Dogs were due to trounce the Buffaloes if for no other reason the Dogs were coached by three coaches. From the defeat administered the Buffaloes we took it for granted that Hankins knew what he was talking about. Since the drubbing the Colorado Wolves gave the Bulldogs, and the further fact the Dogs went down in defeat under a heavy broadside issued by the Sweetwater Mustangs, Hankins' statement went by the board with us. When the score of 26-0 came "breizin" into the sanctimonious sanctum of this scribe, we figured Hankins' statement so far as the Bulldogs having three mentors was concerned, was a fact, but the Dogs needed something more than that to win a football game. Hank, you know about too many cooks spoiling the broth, etc.

The Stanton and Midland fans have joined ranks in the handkerchief brigade—that is—the handkerchiefs are employed to catch the great drops of tears shed over the loss of games that count in the conference. It's not supposed whatever Midland does Stanton should do, but in this business of winning football games, Midland set a pattern to follow, and from the result of the first conference game, Stanton is certainly following it.

Friday the Midland Bulldogs went down to defeat before a howling pack of Colorado Wolves. It's not right to feast upon the misfortunes of others, but the defeat of the Bulldogs had its effect in making the Stanton Buffaloes rather cocky. They had a game coming up with Wink on Saturday which they had already salted away—the combat was just another game requiring about 100 mile trip over the country, but that was a small matter in the eyes of the Buffaloes. But, oh, my! how the Wildcats did claw the Herd when they undertook to beard them in their own den. Had a feather come along and hit us square between the eyes we would have keeled over when we heard that score 29-0. It also, relieved the Buffaloes of that air of "tra-la-la-ing" down the "rose-petaled path to district championship.

Shades to the immortal football players who have passed on leaving football history behind them! They must have tossed over in their grave and hidden their faces when they heard THIRTY-NINE TO NOTHING! with the nothing on the side of the Buffaloes. When in years passed has such a score been chalked up against the Buffaloes in conference combat? It was a whack that almost severed the windpipes of the Buff fans. The fans were little skeptical that the Buffs would win from Wink, but they did think there wasn't a team in the conference tilt that would issue out to their Buffaloes such a sound thrashing.

But the dope bucket was upset in more places than one last week. The Abilene Eagles, last year champions, suffered defeat at the hands of the Ranger Bulldogs and the Midland Bulldogs were defeated by a team that inhabited the cellar in the conference race last year—the Colorado Wolves.

The loss of this game to the Wink Wildcats casts a dark cloud over the Buffaloes' chances to win the district championship this season. The Buffaloes will play the Pecos Eagles this afternoon. Wink played Fort Stockton 6 to 6, and last Friday the Pecos Eagles played Fort Stockton 6 to 6. Let the Buff fan figure the outcome in the Eagle-Buff clash this p. m.

If the Buffaloes figure at all in the championship tilt, they will have to win this afternoon's game, and rest their laurels on Pecos defeating Wink. This would create a tie with Wink to be played off. This hinges on the Buffaloes winning all the games from here on out.

But oh, those "ifs"—they make this scribe awfully tired and weary when he has to employ them in an effort to show what could happen that would bring victory to his team.

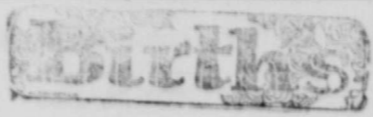

As the scribe understands it there are five teams in the conference schedule: Wink, Stanton, Pecos, Odessa and Marfa. The standing of the teams show that Wink has played 4 games, lost 0; Pecos, 3 and lost 1; Marfa, 3, lost 2; Stanton 3, lost 2; Odessa, 3, lost 3. There the figures are in black and white, revealing that Stanton and Odessa are carrying on a lively contest for the cellar position—which shall it be?

Buff! the best wishes of this scribe go with you today. Here's hoping you win—we are not particular by what score, either.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND FOOTBALL GAMES

Midland and Big Spring were both the scene of football scrimmages last Friday and both towns had a large crowd. Big Spring had the largest crowd ever attending a football game there when they went down in defeat to Sweetwater. Midland was defeated by Colorado, from which town there was a large and enthusiastic crowd that witnessed the massacre of the Dogs.

'Believe It Or Not!'

The writer received in the mails this week, a letter from Murry H. Fly, superintendent of the Odessa public schools, with this notation:

"I am enclosing a permanent pass which will admit you to all athletic and literary events conducted by the Odessa schools during 1932-33."

"I hope it will be our pleasure to have you use this pass." Is there another superintendent of schools in this area so thoughtful of the press and appreciative of the services the newspapers render to the schools that they provide editors with permanent passes admitting them to all activities of the school at which an admission fee is exacted? There may be but the complimentary ticket from Mr. Fly is the first to this newspaper office.

We have often wondered what poison there's about an editor that school officials fight as shy of him as a rat does poison when there is some sort of a school activity on hand that requires an admission to see it? To provide a newspaper man with a complimentary ticket entitling him to admission into all entertainment features and athletic activities the problem to us seems to be as difficult for the official to solve as if he were debating the question of having a tooth pulled.

But there is no embarrassment revealed or timidity exercised on the part of the school official when there is something important he wants to get before the public in asking the newspaper man to publish it in his newspaper.

School authorities have a perfect right to their views about such matters, but we have often thought what would happen if some matter of interest to the school was handed the editor to print and the editor refused. Our idea would be there would be a great wailing and gnashing of teeth.

We extend to Mr. Fly our sincerest thanks for the pass, and will endeavor to go out of the way to use it. Though Odessa is some 40 miles from Stanton, the pass makes us feel that the newspapers' service, wherever the paper may be located, is appreciated.

McMURRY BEEN JANITOR AT COURTHOUSE SEVEN YEARS

C. L. McMurry, janitor and yard keeper at the courthouse, doesn't lose sight of taking advantage each year of the Reporter's reduced subscription offer. He came in Saturday and stayed the wolf from our door another day by plunking down a dollar for a renewal.

Mr. McMurry came to Martin county over seven years ago. He farmed till he suffered a light stroke of paralysis, which impaired his physical strength to the degree he had to quit farming. He became janitor and yard keeper at the courthouse seven years ago, and he keeps the yard in a way that it is a beauty spot in Stanton. He says, taking the bunch of county officers as a whole, he has a clean personnel. He says he manages to keep the offices pretty clean until some fellow of our like caliber comes along and makes a spittoon out of some office corner. Mr. McMurry hadn't paid us the dollar when he made that remark or we would have handed it back to him with our compliments.

SAYS HIGHWAY KILLING HIS TOWN OF TUSCULA

M. G. Jenkins, editor and owner of the Tuscola Reporter, between Abilene and Winters, together with J. P. Self, who assists in publishing the Reporter, were pleasant callers Monday morning at this office. They were on their way to Crane to look over the field with a view of moving their newspaper plant from Tuscola to that town.

way that will appeal to the prospective purchaser.

More small towns near larger ones, are ruined from the failure of merchants advertising than can be attributed to any other one source. That day when "the people all know I am here and will come to my store if they want anything," has long ago passed into the limbo. The merchants in the larger places are taking advantage of the "sleepiness" of the small town merchant by advertising extensively for the trade over in the small town. The merchant who advertises in the home town newspaper, informing the people in an honest way about his goods, inviting them to his store, will get the business, no matter if he is next door to a much larger town. The merchant who doesn't put spice and progressiveness in his business, will soon find himself in the shape the spider once found a store. The spider was weaving away at his web in the front of a store and he was asked how come he picked on this place to erect his abode. The spider said because it was the quietest place in town—no people come around to disturb the peace of his habitat.

What Has LIGHT To Do With Education?

Boys and girls have enough unpleasantness during their school careers without deliberately adding to it with difficult study periods due to improper lighting. Eyes grow tired and weak, dispositions are ruined, little bodies fail to develop, and there is trouble all the way 'round, unless particular notice is taken of home and school lighting facilities. And it's so simple—so easy to have good light in proper proportions. All you have to do is add a globe here, change one there, move the portable lamp around a bit and keep all sockets filled. Inadequate lighting is nothing but false economy—there is no reason for it. Buy globes in cartons of six and save 10%.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS ENTERTAINED

Ghosts and goblins, cats and bats, harvest feed and rosy apples formed the setting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton on Monday evening when Misses Hamilton and James Jones were joint hostesses to the Friendship class of the Methodist church.

The guests were greeted by Clayton Burnam, who gave them a cold handclasp and ushered them into the darkened room where a tall ghost with a goblin head presided.

Apples strung in the doorway tested the skill of the guests as they attempted to bite them without touching them. Clayton Burnam and Eddie Wilkinson proved either more proficient or more greedy, anyway, they ate more apples.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Sam Stamps at which he necessarily stressed that each member notify the hostess of their acceptance at each social meeting. The meetings are arranged for the third Monday night in each month and unless each member either accepts or rejects the ones whose time it is to entertain are handicapped by not knowing how many to expect. This is the only time the class gathers for fun and the only time business is transacted and every member is urged to make a special effort to attend.

After the business tables were arranged for dominoes and "42." Refreshments of pumpkin pie, coffee and chocolate were served to the twenty-five assembled guests. —Reporter.

STANTON STUDY CLUB MET IN HOME OF MRS. GATES

The Stanton Study Club met in the home of Mrs. P. H. Gates on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 20, with most of the members present.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Robt. Hamilton, a number of worthwhile answers to roll call were given. The program was then turned over to Miss Maxine Hall, who in an interesting manner carried the Club through Picardy, France. Miss Hall's graphic descriptions of the customs, scenery, etc., of each little town made the Club feel a new interest in our old friend and neighbor, France.

The Club is studying a Travelogue of France, using as guide "France From Sea to Sea" by Arthur Stan-

WHOPPING SWEET POTATOES

City Marshall White brought to this office one day last week a sweet potato that would weigh something near three pounds. The tuber came out of a quarter acre patch of Leets Reynolds', 4 miles west of Stanton, and according to Mr. White, the potato indeed considerable of comparing in size with many that had been harvested from the patch. But the sequel to the potato was that it came from a quarter acre patch that produced 200 bushels. Mr. Reynolds has already sold 20 bushels at 50¢ per bushel.

The potato patch is on the farm of John Poe, and we didn't take his word for the potato yield, either.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

EDITOR'S NOTE: In a Series of Articles, Mr. Sone will Discuss Matters of Interest to Every Citizen as They Are Related to the Public Schools

(C. L. SONE, Superintendent of the Stanton Schools)

ARTICLE III.

In the last issue of our paper we stated that the school revenues came from the following sources:

One per cent of the gasoline tax, part of the sulphur tax, cigarette tax, part of the interest of the state permanent fund invested in bonds and other securities, part of the poll taxes, part of the county and state taxes, the county school fund and the local district tax.

In this issue we give the purpose for which this money is spent. All moneys coming from the state is known as the available fund and must be spent for the payment of part of the teachers' salaries. The next large source of income is the district tax which is divided by giving a certain percent to the payment of outstanding bonds and interest on bonds. This is a definite amount which must be paid as an obligation of the district and cannot be made less only as the annual payments on bonds reduce the total. This item, alone, takes about 48% of the local tax. The balance of this fund with all others go to pay the running expenses and the balance of the teachers' salaries, and for the equipment which must be bought to carry on the school work. Generous reductions in valuations and decided falling off of payments of taxes have caused a considerable deficit so that the teachers have not as yet received their pay for some of their services rendered last year. So, at the present, there is nothing with which to pay the teachers. Money will be coming later, it is true. How slowly, we cannot tell.

In the meantime, the teachers are having quite a lot of difficulty in financing themselves for present needs and for other obligations. The bank and others have made it possible for the school to continue, so far, its further continuance, however, is dependent upon the collection of the above named revenues.

Let us hope that the interest of the school will be viewed in their proper relations to the community.

Economy has been practiced by the board and the school management. Salaries have been lowered to the least amount consistent with efficient service. Expenses are far below normal. Can we carry on? Shall we carry on? Shall we answer, Yes! or No!

The next matter discussed will be concerning the payment of taxes. The meaning of recent legislation in regard to taxes will also be discussed.

"Worth While"

It is easy enough to be pleasant When life flows along like a song. BUT THE MAN WORTH WHILE IS THE MAN WHO WILL SMILE WHEN EVERYTHING GOES DEAD WRONG:

For the best of the heart is trouble, And it always comes with the years, And the smile that is worth the praise of earth, Is the smile that shines through tears.

It is easy enough to be prudent, When nothing tempts you to stray; When without or within no voice of sin Is luring your soul away.

But it is only a negative virtue Until it is tried by fire, And the life that is worth the honor of earth Is the one that resists desire.

By the cynic, the sad, the fallen, Who had no strength for the strife, The world's highway is cumbered today; They make up the item of life.

But the virtue that conquers passion, And the sorrow that hides in a smile It is these that are worth the homage of earth, For we find them but ONCE IN A WHILE.

Stanton Plays To Tie With Class A Team

Stanton's golfers went over to Midland Sunday for a taste of Class A golf and broke even with Midland on their course.

Neither team has been keeping up with their practice lately and the usual scores were rather ragged.

The Stanton team does not expect to do that well in the Sand Belt next year but it is going to try to stay above the last position in the percentage column, at least.

C. L. Jackson shot par to defeat Poe Woodard. This was the first defeat for Woodard this year out of 16 matches. However, it is not expected of him to do that well next year as he will meet the best golfers in West Texas.

Walter Haggert came in from John Tarlton early Sunday morning visiting a few hours with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Murrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haggert took him back to Stephenville, Sunday afternoon.
