THIS WEEK'S BIBLE VERSE:

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

"A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

"A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

"A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance"—Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3, Verses 1-4.

THERE ARE OTHER FOLKS worried about the money their county spends.

The Seminole Sentinel, Gaines County, has registered a grievance about money spent by the local sheriff's department. The Sentinel doesn't accuse anyone of dishonesty. As it says:

"It's one of those situations which has been allowed to grow over a period of years."

But, says the Sentinel, here's the present situation:

"The county allows the department to use their personal cars in the line of duty and charge the county 10 cents per mile, plus expenses. The cost to the county is enormous, for the figures show that the county could purchase new cars, pay costs of operation, replacements, parts and equipment, cheaper than under the present setup."

In many cases, it's apparent that the newly elected official taking office has an inclination he might save the taxpayer some money . . . that he has a new approach to the business affairs of his office. At least he is going to give his method a try.

That's more in the best interest of his county than many newly-elected officials whose sole ambition seems to be to draw their salary checks.

The change of official family in a big business in almost every instance results in changes which improve the methods employed by the old official family.

The upshot of the whole matter is that the new group taking over a big business devises ways and means to improve the business methods used by the old official family to the end that smoother operations on a more economic basis are realized.

The same tactics should be employed by members of new official families taking over the conduct of county OR CITY governmental affairs.

The precedent of lavish spending of the public's money is due to policies, and either ignorance or inertia on the part of governing boards, over a period of years. It's the business of the new official family to eliminate extravagance in the operation of county government, and in its stead set up efficiency. That makes sense to a guy standing outside looking in.

NOW THAT THE FOOTBALL season is in full swing and most all games are played at home at night, it affords an ideal opportunity for many children to ride to the games on their bicycles. They are darting here and yon, and in an out of obscure places on their bikes, and cars are whizzing by to get to the game in the quickest time possible. The opportunity is present for some bicyclist to get run over.

Some schools are supplying "Scotchlite," the reflective tape for bicycle fenders. The bike with this reflective tape is easily seen at night by the auto driver, hence lessens the liability of losing a life.

THE POWER OF THE PRESS

was pretty well demonstrated in the recent race for governor. Both candidates used radio and TV often. Gov. Shivers also made liberal use of newspaper space. That spelled the difference. It turned a close primary race into a virtual landslide for Shivers.

The Texas Press Association in its most recent bulletin said: "People still believe what they read in the newspapers. And they are not easily mis-

MOODY FOUNDATION AID SOUGHT FOR HOSPITAL

Financial help for Martin County Memorial Hospital has been requested of the W. L. Moody Foundation of Galveston. It was disclosed at a meeting Wednesday night, Sept. 15, of the commissioners court, present hospital board members, and members who served on the board when the institution was privately operated.

Although the Moody Foundation — which, it is estimated, will have some 400 million dollars with which to finance worthy projects and charities — has not yet been formally established, the letter requesting aid, written by County Judge Bruce Frazier on Sept. 15, asks that needs of the Martin County hospital be "considered as Case No. 1."

The foundation is being formed from the estate of the late W. L. Moody of Galveston who built a financial empire founded upon newspapers, insurance companies, and other business enterprises during his lifetime.

The letter written by Judge

Frazier discloses that the county has been supplying a subsidy averaging $2,700 monthly since taking over the hospital in January, 1954, "to make up for operational deficiencies."

In recent months, in the absence of adequate county funds to finance the hospital's operations, the First National Bank of Stanton has been advancing the money. The bank had agreed in June to do this to the extent of $10,500. This debt limit recently was reached, and the conference concerning the hospital was called to discuss the matter and see if further operational economies might be put into effect at the institution.

H. G. Mann, hospital administrator, said the payroll recently has been cut from $3,900 to $3,000 monthly, and he expressed doubt that salaries could be cut further without impairing efficiency.

Judge Frazier's action in requesting the Moody Foundation's help was approved unanimously before the meeting was adjourned.

Commenting on hospital affairs and the Wednesday meeting, Judge Frazier said: "The hospital is in a plight financially."

"When the county took it over, open accounts assumed by the county supposedly amounted to $6,000. But, actually, later investigation disclosed they amounted to $13,500."

"The present board assured the assembly at the meeting that all possible steps consistent with good management will be adhered to at the hospital, and the net result of the meeting was a more healthy understanding."

Boosters Plan Banquet For Buffalo Squad

A public banquet honoring members of the Stanton Buffalo football squad at season's end was planned Monday night at a meeting of the Stanton Booster Club in the school gymnasium.

June Graham, Booster president, said the banquet would be sponsored jointly with the Lions Club.

A committee composed of Cecil Bridges, chairman, and O. J. Jenkins and Jess Woody were appointed to arrange details for the banquet and work in liaison with the clubs.

Graham said a film of this year's Stanton-McCamey game is scheduled for the next Booster meeting at 8 p.m., Mon., Sept. 27. Films of other games will be shown at later meetings, he said.

Commenting on a rather small turnout of Boosters last Monday night, Graham said, "We were disappointed at the number present and urge every interested fan to come out and join in the activities of the club. We think we can boost the Buffaloes all the way to the state championship!"

Regular meeting time is 8 p.m. each Monday, and the membership fee for the year is $2.50.

Booster officers are: President, June Graham; vice president, Lloyd Henson; and secretary-treasurer, Jimmy Stallings. Directors are J. D. Poe, Bernard Houston and Horace Blocker.

Area Farmers Asked To Meet Thursday Night

All farmers in Martin County and surrounding areas have been invited by Woodford Sale of Stanton to attend a meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday in the District Courtroom of the Martin County Courthouse.

Sale said Dr. W. O. Trogon of Houston, agronomist with the Mathieson Chemical Company, will discuss the subject of fertilizers, especially with respect to placement, availability and application.

Also slated to discuss "Angular Leaf Spot, Its Cause and Prevention" is J. W. Donaldson of Deming, N. M., president of the New Mexico Pure Seed Association.

Both speakers will be available to answer questions after their remarks.

City Council Approves Budget; Postpones Bond Issues Action

The Stanton City Council met Thursday night, Sept. 16, as advertised, to conduct a public hearing on the city's budget for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1955. But as no taxpayer appeared to even inquire about the budget—let alone protest it—this item of business was disposed of in about five minutes' time, along toward the end of the meeting. The proposed budget was approved unanimously.

The Council did take up a number of other important matters at the meeting:

ONE: Approved submitting to Stanton voters three bond issues totaling $79,000 to finance water improvements, a community center, and a swimming pool. The submission of all three proposals, however, hinged upon a test run Tuesday afternoon on a water well on the 18.1-acre tract of property owned by Humble Oil and Refining Company west of town.

TWO: Approved participation of the city and its employees in the federal social security program. The program was made retroactive to January 1 of this year, and the city and all employees—except temporary workers hired from time to time and part-time workers who do not work on a regular basis—will pay the back contributions to set up the fund.

THREE: Approved a preliminary study of Stanton's water resources and needs submitted by the Hasie and Green engineering firm of Lubbock and also approved a proposal by that firm to perform engineering services for a seven per cent fee when the city's water improvement program finally gets under way. The Council unanimously registered its understanding on the Hasie and Green agreement that the firm's fee was to be derived only from costs of water improvements and was not to apply to any land purchases that might be involved nor to any expenditures for a swimming pool unless a later specific agreement in regard to the latter might be reached.

FOUR: They raised their own salaries from $5 a month to $5 a meeting. This item was proposed by Mayor Woodford Sale, with Alderman S. W. Wheeler seconding. It carried with Alderman June Graham not voting and Alderman Bob Deavenport opposing. Said Deavenport: "I think we're paid too doggone much already."

The purchase of the Humble property was contemplated in the bond program agreed on by the Council since there already is a water well there which, it had been estimated, would produce a steady 400 gallons per minute.

Tuesday afternoon's test, however, revealed this well could be expected to produce no more than 200 gallons per minute, so the whole bond program has been shelved again by the Council until it can determine what steps to take next.

All councilmen are in agreement that something must be done immediately to improve Stanton's water situation—whether the swimming pool and community center bond issues carry or not—and Mayor Woodford Sale said Wednesday the Council probably will meet again late this week or early next to decide what new course to submit to the voters.

The three bond issues as originally proposed (before being halted by the unfavorable well test) would have included (1) an issue of $25,000 to finance a municipal swimming pool; (2) an issue of $9,000 to purchase a building now on the Humble property for conversion into a community center; and (3) a water-improvement issue of $45,000 to finance purchase of the Humble property; pay for new pumps, storage tank, and water lines; and refinancing at a more favorable rate of interest $12,500 worth of city water and sewer bonds issued in 1945.

The budget as approved by the Council envisions total receipts during the current fiscal year of $130,111.52 and expenditures—not counting unforeseen contingencies—of only $83,754.36. This would leave the city with a bank balance of $46,357.16 (less emergency or special expenditures) as of March 31, 1955.

As reflected in the Mayor's last annual report, the city began the current year with $6,957.81 in the bank.

Councilmen, commenting on the salary raise voted themselves, registered their sentiments as follows:

Mayor Sale: "Migosh, are you going to put that in the paper?" Upon being assured by Alderman Wheeler that the question was one of public business, the Mayor said:

"It seems that so many things come up which demand our attention it has been necessary for us to meet three or four times a month for some time now. I feel like it is asking too much of the businessmen on the Council to put in that much time on the job with as little compensation as they have been receiving."

(The mayor himself will not benefit from the salary raise. He draws a fixed salary of $25 a month but no extra pay for Council meetings. In regard to his monthly stipend, the Mayor said, "That $25 salary doesn't even compensate for the time I have to spend listening to gripes from people who stop me on the street.")

Alderman Deavenport: "I think the raise is an extravagance. If councilmen don't want to put in the time necessary to do the job—whatever it takes—then they ought not to put themselves up for the office."

Alderman Wilkinson: "I personally don't care whether I get paid for the meetings or not, or whether they pay $1 or $5. But I went along with the proposition because most of the other fellows seemed to think the job called for a little more pay."

Alderman Wheeler: "I don't think the raise is too much. Maybe it will make some other men get interested in running for the Council."

Alderman Graham: "None of us is in there for the money, but we do meet very often. Maybe this new arrangement will cut down meetings."

Alderman Berry, asked for his views on the raise, laughed thoughtfully for a moment, then said, "No comment."

ASC OBTAINS APPROVAL ON NEW GRAIN PROGRAM

The Martin County ASC Committee has been notified that a new winter grain program has been approved for the county. This is a program with the overall intent of furnishing grazing in drouthy areas and getting a winter cover on the land to keep it from blowing.

To be eligible for assistance, cover crops must be planted by Nov. 15, 1954, and may be either barley, oats or rye. The crop or the crop stubble must be left on the land until the time the seed normally would be harvested.

The crop may be grazed in consistency with good management and may be harvested for hay at the proper stages. It cannot be harvested for grain or seed.

The grains must be planted at not less than minimum seeding rates and sales slips showing purchase of seed must be furnished the Martin ASC office. Minimum seeding rates and assistance per acre are as follows:

Barley—48 pounds per acre, $2.30 per acre; oats—64 pounds per acre, $2.05 per acre; and rye—56 pounds per acre, $2.30 per acre.

Approval for other practices has been requested, but final notice on these is still pending. One would allow seeding a mixture of the three grains (barley, oats and rye), and the other would provide for a mixture including winter peas and vetch

BUFFS TRAMPLE PECOS EAGLES 25-6 IN SECOND APPEARANCE OF SEASON

By JESS MILES

The Stanton Buffaloes had things their way all through the game last Friday night when they handed the Pecos Eagles a sound 25-6 lacing.

Coach Melvin Robertson, whose charges came out of the game in good physical shape, said he was well pleased with the treatment administered the Class AA team by the Buffs. He indicated further pleasure over the fact that Stanton fumbled only twice Friday night as against eight times the week before against McCamey.

End and co-captain Reggie Myrick and halfback Conroy McKaskle were Stanton's offensive luminaries against Pecos, with Myrick setting up the Buffs' first TD on an 82-yard runback of the opening kickoff, snagging several beautiful passes from quarterback Jimmy Henson, and personally halting Pecos moves on two occasions with alert pass interceptions.

McKaskle made Stanton's last three tallies on runs of 14, 1 and 34 yards respectively.

The Buffs' first marker, after Myrick's sparkling kickoff return, came on a line smash from the Eagle 3-yard line by fullback Jim Butcher. Butcher and halfback Bobby Carlile contributed some effective ground gains for the Buffs during the night, and a customary smooth performance was turned in by quarterback Jimmy Henson with his ball handling and passing.

Stanton scored twice in the first quarter and once in the second and fourth periods. The Buffs' only successful point after TD was kicked by Corky Blocker after his team's second score.

Pecos' lone tally came late in the fourth stanza with less than three minutes of game time remaining.

The drive started from the Buff 45-yard line where the Eagles had intercepted a pass. A series of short running and passing plays advanced the ball to the Buff 15, where two 5-yard penalties moved it down to the Buff 5, with first down and goal to go.

Two plays netted 4 1/2 yards, and it then took the Eagles their third and fourth downs to push the pigskin the rest of the way with quarterback Bill Kelley finally plunging through for the score. The conversion attempt was blocked by tackle Gordon Stone of Stanton.

With less than two minutes remaining, Pecos kicked off and the Buffs returned to their own 30. Butcher smashed for 12, and McKaskle racked up 13 more. Henson then hit Myrick with a pass on the Pecos 25, and Myrick carried on down to the 5 before being stopped.

With 13 seconds to go, Butcher went around end to the 1-yard line, and that was the final play of the game.

Outstanding player for Pecos was quarterback Bill Kelley who exhibited clever ball handling and a good passing arm. Joe Langham, senior back, also turned in a good offensive game.

Much credit for Stanton's victory was due to stout line play from end to end, and the forwards were stingy about yielding yardage to Eagle backs all evening.

The Buffaloes completely dominated statistics of the game.

Stanton's next game — this coming Friday night — is with the formidable Ft. Stockton Panthers. The Panthers, who boast an extremely fast backfield and are ranked as District 5-A title contenders with McCamey, did not play last week. But in their opener two weeks ago, they handily disposed of Crane's Golden Cranes.

Crane defeated Seminole 12-7 last Friday night.

Man's Best Friend Still His Dog

National Dog Week is set for Sept. 19 to 25. He may be of the mongrel type . . . a loafer . . . but had you noticed while passing along the street that he comes up to you wagging his tail and with a broad smile on his face? He looks up at you as if to say, "Let's make friends."

Abraham Lincoln, martyred President, was a lover of dogs. In his childhood a large hound owned by his father was his constant companion. The dog went with the boy on fishing and hunting expeditions and on jaunts over the Kentucky hills and streams.

Once, when playing in the woods, young Abe and his boyhood chum found a dog with a broken leg. Abe made a splint for the injured leg and carried the dog to a nearby cave for shelter and brought food and water for several weeks. When the leg healed, Lincoln took the dog home and named him Honey. Abe's devotion to the dog was repaid, for Honey once brought aid to his owner when the boy had been trapped in a cave by falling boulders.

Senator Vest paid an eloquent tribute to a dog while representing a man who had his hound shot by a neighbor. Part of this address is given space here:

"Gentlemen of the jury, a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness.

"He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if he may only be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds that come in encounters with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince.

"When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens.

"If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even to death."

We reprint the last verse of a poem written by Edgar A. Guest, entitled, "A Boy and His Dog."

No other can lure him away from his side;
He's proof against riches and station and pride;
Fine dress does not charm him, and flattery's breath
Is lost on the dog, but he's faithful to death;
He sees the great soul which the body conceals
Oh it's great to be young with a dog at your heels.

Moody Foundation Established For Texas

Mrs. Mary Moody Northern, 62, oldest child of W. L. Moody, Jr., took over her father's far-flung enterprises after his death. She had been her father's constant companion for years. She ate breakfast with him each morning, accompanied him to town and returned in the evening for dinner. One son, surviving besides two daughters, was cut off with only $1. The vast personal fortune of W. L. Moody, Jr., Galveston financier, estimated at between 100 million and 400 million dollars, now belongs to the people of Texas and no one else.

A Moody foundation will be set up similar to the Ford Foundation.

The indenture provides that the net income of the Moody business empire shall be used by the foundation for:

1. The support and maintenance of churches and other religious institutions or organizations in the state of Texas.
2. The establishment, support and maintenance of hospitals, homes and institutions for the care of the sick, the young, the aged, the incompetent and the helpless among the people of Texas.
3. The promotion of health, science, education and advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding among the people of Texas.

Odessa Plans Unique Oil Show

The "Little International Petroleum Exposition" will be held at Odessa, Oct. 14-17. The exposition will be at a new site now in preparation, covering some 66 acres.

An estimated 30 per cent more exhibitors will show their wares at the 1954 Permian Basin Oil Show than the number shown there previously.

Added as outstanding entertainment feature this year will be an area devoted to the reconstruction of an old-time "Boom-Town."

One of the first rotary tables ever built, an ancient cable tool rig, an old-time barber shop and print shop, an outdated theatre and many other features will be situated in "Boom-Town."

Fellow we know will be out of the hospital any month now. Caught up in the home-handyman boom, when the little woman told him to take out the garbage, he said: "Do it yourself."

Philosopher Finds Man's Worries Boil Down To One Thing

Dear editor:

Some people go to a lot of trouble to find out something nearly everybody else already knows.

The other day I was stretched out under a tree out here on my place admiring the September sky and not worryin about anything when I pulled my newspaper out of my pocket I'd been savin and glanced through it and ran across an item about a survey the Gallup Poll has just taken.

Accordin to this item, Dr. Gallup's men have conducted a nationwide survey to find out what most people worry about these days, and after a careful scientific sampling of opinion and adding up figures and preparing complicated charts they have come up with the discovery that the chief worry today is: Money.

How to get in enough money to pay the bills, how to keep ahead of the collectors, how to make income meet outgo, that's the thing that Dr. Gallup finds most people are worryin about.

You mean to say he went to all that trouble to find that out? I could have told him for a two-cent post card.

There are some things in life you're supposed to know without having to be told, and the fact that keepin ahead of the hounds, financially speakin, is most people's worry is one of em. Furthermore, that was what most people were worryin about last year and it's what they'll be worryin about next year.

And also, it doesn't seem to make much difference what income bracket a man is in. Nature has some sort of system whereby it enables a man's wants to keep

ALL REPORTS ARE that Dollar Day this week was good! That is mighty fine because all of us are able to take advantage of the many bargains offered by our local merchants. It was also a nice, early-Fall day to meet each other on the street. We were happy in the office, because we have added all the numbers of West Stanton and Lenorah telephones to our "fish bowl."

So, that brings the telephone subscribers of the Wes-Tex Telephone Company right into town, and on Dollar Day, out of the first 10 numbers called, five of them were new telephone patrons of the above named exchanges. These five were the residences of J. P. Stewart, Erman Hardy, H. P. Nance, the Anchor Petroleum Company and P. G. Yates.

NO, I'm sorry they DIDN'T get a silver dollar THIS time, but I'll bet they'll try next Dollar Day!

WE HAVE HAD some fine visitors within the last week. The following men are with chambers of commerce in their respective cities and paid us a visit: From the West Texas Chamber of Commerce we had Fred H. Husbands, general manager; John A. Couch, president, from Haskell; and Ralph Duncan, manager of the community services department.

Then among managers we had R. W. Knight of Corsicana; DeWayne Davis, Lamesa; George Jordan, Breckenridge; and we were honored by having Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Debenport of Odessa. Jerry formerly was manager of the Odessa chamber of commerce.

ce but was in Stanton making his official visit to the Rotary Club in his capacity of district governor.

Jerry took time out to visit us. Other than chamber officials, we had A. M. Lynch, merchandising salesman for the Texas Company, out of Houston and Midland; and Claude H. Burke, representing the Shawinigan Products Corporation of Dallas, came by for a visit as a friend of many years. All of the above men expressed pleasure in visiting Stanton, as some of them didn't know that our town was located in a good agricultural area. We told 'em!

THE HUM IN THE AIR these days is coming from the gins, beginning their annual Fall activity of processing our cotton crop, which promises to be extra good this year. With the fresh bales rolling out in line, our morale is lifted! We are sincerely happy for our cotton farmers and all who are connected with our leading crop in this area.

SPEAKING OF THE COTTON industry, we have a new activity in this building! Under the charge of Mrs. Ruth Blocker of Midland (and Stanton), many cotton loans are being written, and we understand this office will be busy right on through the cotton season. This is a newly established office and gives the cotton farmer a convenient place in which to transact his business.

ACCORDING TO MARY Grace Latimer, the hay-fever-season is now open! She had that "leaky" look in the bank the other day, and gravely informed us that when the gins started humming, we should know that the hay-fever-season was open; also, that no "license" was needed for the seasonal activities, and there was a "no limit" sign out for "victims!" Nice statement, and we like Mary Grace a lot, guess we will send her a nice bouquet of golden-rod—WHOA! Reconsidering, we'll send her a fresh box of Kleenex!

WE ARE MIGHTY PROUD of the two new officials who are now settled down in the First National Bank. These officials are John Byus and Melvin Henderson. John came to us from El Paso, and Melvin from Wellington. It was a pleasure to help both of these men find homes for their fine families! These two families are a wonderful addition to our town, and if you haven't met their wives, how about calling on them? You'll like them, too!

SPORTS CAST

By JAMES E. KELLY

The football sports world in Texas opened the doors last weekend to a madhouse scramble by all the squads to reach the coveted goal of championships for the 1954 season. It was the season opening in high school and collegiate football.

The bands blared, pep squads yelled, and fans swooned as many of them saw their favorite squad tobaggan to defeat.

It was that tight grip which cement, mortar, brick, and bolts had on the structure that saved the stadium from wreckage.

Yes, it was an occasion for blasted hopes of football squads and fans. But it was an occasion which challenged their rise again with courage and determination to win.

Oh, it's the game of football that sets up a tie of friendship among members of the squad, pooling together their fighting strength to battle harder for victory in another combat.

It is this fighting strength and the cementing together of friendships in high school and college days that cling to the football player in the later years which come and fade.

Playing on the football squad, one learns invaluable lessons in fight and courage that aid him in hurdling obstacles that appear in his path down the busy avenue of a cold and bleak business world.

Oh, it's the game of football that awakens enthusiasm in the sleepy villagers and makes them live the life of youth all over again.

The first appearance of the Stanton Buffaloes in their 1954 football chase revealed to the 1,800 fans attending the game the Buffs intend to win the championship of their district.

Their struggle was with the McCamey Badgers, a 5-A squad who lost but only one game all last season. That one was with the Ranger Bulldogs, state champions, 14-7.

The half-time program put on by the McCamey band of some 100 members headed by five high-stepping majorettes drew prize compliments from the crowd.

An up-town feature of the game was its broadcasting over KCMR, McCamey, with Bill Harrison announcer. While there were hundreds of McCamey fans at the game in person, the many more "stay-at-homes" had the opportunity to listen to play-by-play over the radio, direct from Buffalo Stadium.

Out-of-town newspaper reporters at the game included Jim Reed, San Angelo Standard-Times, and Clifford Lawhorne, Big Spring Daily Herald.

The first appearance of a completely printed program—all printshop origin—was distributed free to fans attending the McCamey-Stanton football game. It was the first program from The Reporter's commercial job shop in many years.

Heretofore the programs have been mimeographed and sold on the grounds for 10 cents each.

It was a fine gesture on the part of the board of trustees of the Stanton Independent School District to order the programs printed and presented free to the fans.

The Panhandle high school coaches, carrying on a program of selecting a "Coach of the Week," selected Coach Foster of Stinnett after his team defeated White Deer 25-7 in its opening game.

At the end of the season, the Panhandle coaches will select a "Coach of the Year."

THE STANTON REPORTER, THURSDAY, SEPT. 23, 1954—3

September. Here it is another night coming up for football game, this time between the Stanton Buffaloes and the Ft. Stockton Panthers. The game is Friday night.

The Panthers pulled the curtain up on their season's opener with a 24-13 victory over the Golden Cranes.

That game revealed there was a Panther the Buffs need to watch. He is Bobby Diebitsch. In the opening game he snagged a punt and scampered 65 yards for the first TD. Then late in the first quarter he snuggled up in his arm a 33-yard pass and raced over the goal stripe again.

The Panthers' aerial defense was tops. The brilliant scampering over the field by Panther Diebitsch was the highlight of the game.

Slugger Wins the "Home" Game

Slugger White, the home town's star hitter, dropped by the other day to talk baseball, and to "tell one" on himself.

Seems Slugger had been baby-sitting. "I was doing just fine," he said, "until it was time for a 'change.' I called Mom for advice. Still didn't get it right. Then Dad set me straight."

"Place the diaper like a baseball diamond with you at bat," he said. "Fold second base over home plate, and pin first and third base on home plate." That did it—with no errors!

From where I sit, Slugger's Dad had the idea. Often, like his Mom, a lot of us tend to give advice in our terms without considering the other fellow's way of doing things. Even in choosing your favorite beverage, it's best to think of your neighbor. If you like tea, and I prefer a temperate glass of beer, we should both "play the game" and try to understand each other's point of view.

led. While the press reported the news from both camps in the news columns, it 'set the readers straight' editorially on the rumors, mudslinging, falsehoods and innuendos. In short they let the people know the truth—something radio and TV didn't do, and, in fact, cannot do because of the lack of 'editorial space' on the airways. It made the difference in the campaign."

The candidate for office who hides "his light under a half-bushel" by not airing his views in black and white in the newspapers is comparable to a county whose officials hide behind the "no penalty clause" attached to the publication law requiring the county to publish quarterly and annual statements in the newspaper showing "taxpayers just how the financial affairs of the county are being conducted."

A full and complete report of the county's affairs—AND THOSE OF THE CITY—should be placed before the eyes of the taxpayer so that he may know where, for how much, and for what his tax dollar is going. That is Texas law.

THIS COLUMN HAS NO INTENTION of entering the controversy over whether cigarette smoking causes cancer of the lung. I'll go right ahead with my milder habits of chewing tobacco in plug or smoking it in pipe or cigar. I'm still a follower of one of the late Will Rogers' sayings: "All I know is what I read in the newspapers."

But the information which follows comes from the Texas Insurance Advisory Association: "Smokers were blamed for almost half of Texas' 151 hotel fires in 1953."

"Smoking in bed caused 44 hotel fires last year. Leaving burning cigarettes in ashtrays, tossing them in wastebaskets, and other careless smoking habits accounted for 28 other hotel fires."

There is not as much danger in a guy smoking a pipe setting a hotel fire. His main hazard is setting fire to himself by failure to dump out the live coals in the bowl, and sticking his pipe in his pocket.

I don't ever remember setting a hotel on fire with my congenial cud of Star Navy.

dential districts of Stanton. Mad dogs and mad cats spreading hydrophobia are reported in various parts of Texas. At Mesquite, just east of Dallas, officers reported between 25 to 30 people dogs and cats that had rabies have been killed.

BALLINGER, A SMALL WEST Texas town has landed the Mercer Shoe Company. It is a prize the Industrial Committee of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce landed.

The company makes moccasins, turning out 3,000 pairs daily. Original plans call for a force of about 70 persons, and an annual payroll of $100,000.

These moccasin-manufacturing concerns must have a bright future ahead, as one that makes them is now dickering with Stamford for a location. It is a company of $600,000 proportion and has an added product of making shirts.

There is generally a price tag on landing any industrial plant, be it large or small. The city provides free the location and invests in stock of the enterprise.

Seldom do you ever hear of an industrial plant walking into a place, buying the location and setting up business without assistance, financially, or giving the property on which the plant locates.

The Bulletin said the condition of the cotton crop in Martin County is fair; per cent of the cotton open 40; estimated production, 57,000 bales; number bales ginned to date 954; price paid for picking $2.05 per hundred, 25 cents for weighing and hauling, and $1.55 for pulling.
