

Snooter Knows
By JAMES E. KELLY

THANKFUL ARE WE
The Prayer

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, we bow before Thee in thankfulness for Thy boundless mercies to us. We come in the name of Thy Son Jesus Christ, by whose merits and death we hope for forgiveness of sins and everlasting life. We are not worthy to approach Thee, but our hearts rejoice that through Thy great goodness Thou has called us to be Thy sons and daughters. We humbly beseech Thee to cleanse our hearts from all stain of sin. So give us Thy grace that we may walk worthily in Thy sight and glorify Thy name. May we be filled with Thy Holy Spirit. May our love for Thee, and for one another, be perfect. Supply all our need through the riches of glory in Christ Jesus. Support us in the time of weakness. Deliver us in the day of trial and temptation. Strengthen us with might by Thy Spirit in the innerman. Be Thou our strong habitation, whereunto we may continually resort. Fulfill all Thy good will and pleasure in us, work in us that which is well pleasing to Thee through Jesus Christ. Will Thou with us bless all people, and especially the less favored, the oppressed, the helpless. May the time speedily come when all nations shall know the blessedness of the people whose God is the Lord. These things we ask in the name of Thy dear son.

R. H. Weaver, former county judge of Howard County and now engaged in the practice of law in Big Spring, is not an applicant for appointment for judge of the 118th District Court, according to the Big Spring Herald.

Charlie Sullivan is retiring January 1. He has written Governor Price Daniel that he plans to step down.

Former Judge Weaver had been mentioned as a possible choice to fill the post.

Gil Jones, another Big Spring lawyer, had previously issued a statement that he withdrew his name several days ago.

Howard County is not the only county in the district. Martin County and Glasscock County are also included, but the Howard County Bar Association has called for a meeting to recommend some attorney for the post to the governor.

The Howard County Bar has announced that they are going to hold a vote on who the ma-

Thanksgiving was officially set aside as a day for all businesses to be closed. Also to be closed for the day are all county, city, and national offices, as well as the bank.

County school children have a two-day holiday period for Thanksgiving. Schools at Stanton, Courtney, Grady and Flower Grove are to be dismissed for both Thursday and Friday. Students are to return to school Monday morning.

A community-wide Thanksgiving service was held Sunday night at the First Baptist Church by the First Methodist, First Baptist and Assembly of God Churches. Dr. Clyde Smith, Big Spring district superintendent of the Methodist Church was the speaker, and a combination of the church choirs sang.

Citizens are to pause to give thanks for the bountiful harvest and for all the blessings of the year. A number of out-of-town visitors are expected to be in Stanton to be with their families for traditional Thanksgiving celebrations and others are expected from out-of-state.

Santa Claus Opens Letter Box At Stanton Reporter Office

The Stanton Reporter has received word from Santa Claus that he has completed his toymaking and is ready to receive and read letters addressed to him in care of the county newspaper.

All letters will be published and then sent on to Santa. Better let him know what you want for Christmas kiddos.

The beloved old gentleman with the long whiskers has asked the Stanton Reporter to serve as his letter-collection agency in Martin County, forwarding letters from Stanton and area boys and girls to his North Pole address.

Santa also has authorized the Reporter to publish the letters. The Stanton Reporter has already received some letters and has printed them and forwarded them to Santa. Get your letter in the mail today so it can be published in one of the four remaining issues before St. Nick makes his annual visit into the county to bring his gifts.

If you do not care to mail your letters be sure and bring them to the newspaper office. The paper will see that they reach Santa in time for Christmas.

CHARGES ARE FILED

Teacher Charged With Theft Of Class Funds

A three state search for a Flower Grove high school English teacher, charged with felonious theft of $707 is under way.

He is alleged to have absconded with $660 in cash derived from the school hallowe'en carnival, $10 in class party funds, $12 from the senior class baking contest fund, and $25 from the senior class talent show receipts.

He is Robert L. Tipton, 42, former attorney and one-time assistant professor of law at the University of Oklahoma. He formerly practiced law in Texas, and it was said.

Bulk of the money he is alleged to have taken, according to Supt. T. J. O'Connell, was to have provided the senior class with its money annual.

However, O'Connell reported, the missing $707 has been replaced.

"The school board met when the loss was discovered," O'Connell said, "and we decided that the money should be replaced in order that the youngsters would not be deprived of their annual. So each of the board members and myself put in an equal amount to make up the amount."

There are seven board members. They are E. V. Hegborn,

E. D. Holcomb, Mark Shortes, Robert Dennis, Opal Langston, Lee Hanson and Jack Cave.

O'Connell said that Tipton joined the Flower Grove faculty on Aug. 31. He was named as senior class sponsor and as such was custodian of special moneys collected for class activities. He had the money in his personal possession—probably in cash, it was said.

On Oct. 30, he was granted leave to go to Arkansas for a weekend visit where his wife and two children live. He was around the school on Oct. 31. The hallowe'en carnival at which the $660 had been raised was

A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Shortly after Thanksgiving last year, a friend of mine in Sweetwater told me of a prayer which he and his family always said before their Thanksgiving dinner. It's a short prayer—but it says so much in such a few words that I'd like to pass it on to you and your family. It goes like this: "Dear Lord, who doth grant all things, grant one more thing—a grateful heart."

Idea For Thanksgiving

In most homes, the highlight of Thanksgiving Day is a family get-together and, of course, a big meal that Mom spent half the day cooking.

Juicy turkey, tasty dressing, and all the trimmings. Yes, a happy occasion for the whole family, and Mom deserves a pat on the back for making it that way.

But is that all? A friend of mine has come up with an idea that really makes a hit at his house.

"Last Thanksgiving," he told me, "as I watched my wife fixing dinner, I felt she deserved a reward. I was wondering what I might give her and then I decided—a Long Distance call. She can talk with her folks."

"Great idea," I said. "How'd she like it?"
He smiled. "That Long Distance call was sort of like our pumpkin pie."

"How's that?" I asked.
"The whole family enjoyed it."

It's Smart To Have A Bedroom Phone

I've been noticing that quite a few people in Stanton have decided that it's a good idea to have an extension phone in color in their bedroom, and reports I get indicate that lots of our customers in towns throughout Texas feel the same way. I can understand how they feel, because bedroom phones really are wonderful.

They add beauty to the room, and they give you convenience and privacy during the day and a real sense of security at night.

Why don't you call the telephone company business office and order one now? Because the sooner you do, the sooner you can start enjoying it.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

FARM & RANCH REVIEW

Quail hunters are urged again this year to send in bands when found on birds they kill, according to the assistant executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission. Many birds were released throughout the State this year from the State Game Farm near Tyler. All these birds have been banded.

The department is particularly anxious to get bands from any Coturnix quail killed by hunters. In this way it will be able to trace the movement of the birds.

Despite unseasonal weather, conditions still remain very good for quail hunting with the opening of the general season Dec. 1, the secretary said.

Anxious hunters should not shoot game from public highways, warns Capt. E. M. Sprott, director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. And night hunting also is prohibited. Wardens have made a number of arrests already this year for headlighting. Courts have levied stiff fines.

The farmers of Martin County and the whole population, for that matter, weatherwise, all have much for which they can be thankful. The rigors of Winter struck on all sides, but with it all, the country was saved from suffering heavy snows and the country covered in ice, tearing down telephone and electric wires and halting all transportation on highways.

Whitehead noted that recent TPA conventions have been in southern sections of the state.

BIBLE COMMENT

The Church Can Aid Young People

One of the greatest problems of present-day life and society is that of the home.

It is constantly emphasized that at the root of juvenile delinquency is poor homelife, with lack of parental guidance and control, and often serious delinquencies in the parents themselves. Nor are such parental delinquencies confined to the poor, illiterate and underprivileged.

Careless self-indulgent and undisciplined parents, rich and poor alike, must bear their share of responsibility, but there is an all-too-common tendency to blame parents for everything.

The finest home has to contend with forces and influences outside of the home that tend to offset all that it can do, and these outside influences have youth for longer periods than the home itself.

A more serious factor, however, is the low standards of conduct that are so widely prevalent today. We live in a so-called Christian land, and all our religious institutions try to typify wholesome ideals, evidenced in character and conduct.

Unfortunately, without being pessimistic about it, or disregarding wholesome influence of all these institutions, we must face the fact that a widespread secularism, materialism and low morality is all too evident. All this debasement of ideals seems to have increased in recent years.

If youth could be surrounded by the Christian standards and ideals outside, as well as inside the home, our problems would not be nearly so acute.

Turkey Heads Nov. Plentiful Foods Bulletin

A wide variety of plentiful foods will be available in Texas markets this month, as turkeys, pork and apples lead the parade, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

These three items have been selected as foods to feature because available supplies are larger than normal.

This Thanksgiving Day and through the Christmas holidays will find many family tables bare of one of the favorite trimmings, cranberries.

This will come about because of the adverse publicity concerning contaminated berries in certain sections of the nation. Quiet a ruckus has been raised about the cranberries and most buyers are so confused they will not include the traditional berries on the holiday menus unless a new crop is rushed to retail outlets before the end of November.

Other November plentiful foods are broilers-fryers, lard, apples, potatoes, sweet potatoes, onions, almonds, filberts, rice, lamb and dried beans.

With such a variety of abundance, all of November should be filled with hearty eating and a thankfulness for the bountiful cornucopia provided by America's farmers and food industry.

Other foods also are in good supply — some others may be locally plentiful—but these 14 have been selected for special promotion in store ads, by press, radio, special displays, prices and events, in an effort to balance supply and consumption.

Shoppers usually find that the price is "right" on plentiful and in-season foods. Wider selection also is possible when supplies are large.

The list of plentiful is determined each month by the area food distribution office of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service that works closely with farmers and the food trade in determining a available food stocks.

Rotary Club Hears Talk By Joyce Anderson

Joyce Anderson was guest speaker at a meeting of the Stanton Rotary Club Wednesday, November 18 at Belvue Restaurant.

Miss Anderson, who was introduced by Rev. W. C. Wright, discussed the trip she made during the past summer to Sweden. Stanley Wheeler, president, was in charge of the meeting. The invocation was given by G. B. Shelburne. A song service was led by Rev. Wright.

James Webb introduced guests. They included W. A. Yeager, George Landreth, Thomas B. King, Buddy Pullam, H. H. Reding, Jaso Simmons, B. J. Clark, all of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hock.

Cotton Blight Meeting Held At Greenwood

A meeting to discuss the blight problem in cotton was held at 7:30 p. m. November 17 at the Greenwood school in Midland County.

Farmers and interested persons from Martin, Glasscock and Howard Counties joined Midland County farmers and agricultural leaders at the session.

Dr. Paul Lyerly, Dr. Don Longnecker of the Ysleta Experiment Station, and Dr. Luther Bird, plant pathologist of A&M College, and C. F. Chew, authority on blight resistant cotton, all appeared on the program.

During the past year blight has become an increasingly important problem for cotton producers in the area.

Start Knitting To Make Yule Gifts

The most popular Mrs. Santa is the one who gives personal Christmas presents to the important people on her list—gifts made especially for someone dear or selected with individual attention. High on the list are hand-knit garments, planned with the needs and tastes of the recipient in mind.

There are many small accessories, quick and easy to knit, which will delight everyone on the gift list. These include knit ties or socks for men, new bulky sweaters or scarfs for teen-agers, hood and mittens for children.

A bright idea for the knitting fan is a mother-daughter set of snug helmets with the scarfs for blustery winter winds. Done in bulky yarn stitch, with seed stitch border, they can be made in a few hours. An added advantage is the new wash-and-wear yarn which needs no blocking.

For free instructions for making these helmets, send stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Ann Bucilla, 230 5th Ave., New York 1, N. Y.

Valley View Club Plans Holiday Party

Plans for a Christmas party were made at a meeting of the Valley View Home Demonstration Club Tuesday, November 17 at the home of Mrs. Ray Kemper.

Mrs. Mildred Elland, home demonstration agent, gave the program, "Holiday Baking." Present were Mesdames G. T. Baum, J. T. Mims, Lloyd Mims, Bill Allred, O. D. Green and Ray Kemper.

2,254,000 4-H CLUB members in the U. S. A.

This year's record... 93,000 CLUBS • 157,260 COUNTY HONOR MEDALS

1,120 TRIPS TO CHICAGO 4-H CONGRESS

223 SCHOLARSHIPS $106,580

U. S. SAVINGS BONDS WATCHES & OTHER MERIT AWARDS $46,500

Figures on 4-H enrollment for 1959 again show an upward trend. If the increase is reflected in all 50 states and Puerto Rico, this year's final score could well be within touching distance of the two-and-one-half million mark, predicts the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

While the number of 4-H'ers is steadily increasing, the annual crop of winners remains about the same, the National Committee points out, because the number of award programs is limited. Thus individual qualifications become higher and competition keener. At the present time the ratio for state and national winners is one member out of 2,000.

The national award programs in which 4-H'ers participate include clothing, frozen foods, entomology, safety, public speaking, and tractor. There are nearly 50 others, according to the National Committee.

All 4-H projects and activities endeavor to show how to improve the individual, the family, the home, farm and community.

Every 4-H member pledges "... my head to clearer thinking... my heart to greater loyalty... my hands to larger service... my health to better living, for my club, my community, and my country."

Besides the personal satisfaction of "learning by doing," 4-H'ers take great pride in their accomplishments, and outstanding records are rewarded, the National Committee reports.

Awards are provided annually by individuals and business firms among which are: Mrs. Charles R. Waisgreen, Standard Brands, Coats & Clark, Carnation Co., Simplicity Pattern Co., Hercules Powder Co., Betty Crocker of General Mills, Whirlpool Corp., Montgomery Ward, General Motors, Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

Also John Deere, Singer Sewing Machine Co., Colgate-Palmolive, Homelite, Armour & Co., the Burlington, Milwaukee, and Illinois Central railways, Wilson & Co., and Humble Oil & Refining Co.

All 4-H programs are directed by the Cooperative Extension Service, USDA. Arrangements for the national award programs are made by the National Committee.

A Calendar Of Fact and Opinion

Birmingham, Ala., Labor News: "Youth could well take for its creed today the Oath of Citizenship which the Youth of Athens took upon arriving at their majority."

"To bring no disgrace to this city by a dishonest act; to fight for the ideals and sacred things alone and with many; to desert no faltering comrade; to revere and obey the city laws; to incite respect and reverence in those above us who are prone to annoy or set them at naught. To strive unceasingly to quicken the public sense of civic duty. To transmit this city no less but more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

"If the Youth of today would do this, there would be no need to fear the future."

Liberal, Kans., Daily Times: "Seems no matter how convinced you are that it's a bad risk to pick up any hiker, you still feel just a little like a heel when you sail on past... This writer would suggest... that you just go on feeling like a heel and pass up all the hitchhikers because a survey shows that the percentage of thugs is NOT one in a thousand or anything like it. For instance the police department at Globe, Arizona made a survey of 300 hitchhikers. It showed 84 had criminal records or were wanted by authorities. Criminal records included 24 for burglary, 14 for auto theft, 11 for personal violence."

Chewelah, Wn., Independent: "Labor, as an organization, should never be denied the right to quit work if it so desires. What is needed is a new approach to settlement. Labor leaders... are too sensitive to their position, feeling that in every contract negotiation they must be in a position to say,

"see what I got for your this time."

"There must inevitably come a time when the saturation point has been reached, and industry, to stay in business, must say, 'this is where we must stop.' Otherwise we are being catapulted into an inflation era that will ruin our entire economy."

Carlsbad, N. M., Current-Argus: "Sen. Hiram L. Fong of Hawaii is launching his career in Congress with a 14-country, 45-day tour of the Far East. There is nothing unusual about Congressmen traveling around the globe."

"However, this is one instance where a junketing Congressman may be of more benefit than the usual. Sen. Fong is an Asian, having been born in China. His appearance is testimony of the democratic system in America."

"And, Sen. and Mrs. Fong are traveling at their own expense. He may do more for Democracy than was anticipated."

Walden, N. Y., Herald: "The National Safety Council reveals that 1,265,000 persons have died in this century in motor vehicle accidents in this country."

"By comparison, 604,773 Americans have been killed in battle or died of wounds in all this nation's principal wars, from the Revolutionary War through the Korean conflict."

"War is a grim thing—but we live with something even grimmer, day after day on our highways and byways."

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

The word "bankruptcy" came from the Latin "banco" (a trader's table) and "ruptus" (broken).

Under old English law a bankrupt was a trader who hid himself or did other things to defraud his creditors.

Under the Roman law creditors could cut up the bankrupt's body and each take his due share. Other laws would put the debtor in prison or in chains, allow whipping and hard labor. East Indian creditors could sell the debtor and his family into slavery forever.

In the Middle Ages a bankrupt was a criminal. Later he got some rights: Though creditors could force him to turn over all his goods, he would escape prison.

The basic concepts of our bankruptcy laws are (1) Pro-rate the bankrupt's assets among his creditors, (2) discharge him from most of his debts, and (3) "grubstake" him by exempting certain things from the creditor's reach.

The English wanted to discourage extravagance, yet they saw that a debtor's misfortune could trap him. So the early bankruptcy laws grudgingly were only for actual tradesmen. Others had to take their medicine.

Today the act relieves the debtor through liquidation, or reorganization and rehabilitation. His creditors have always worried about the debtor, but now the state through law has declared the public concern in putting him back on his feet.

The Supreme Court has said that the act aims to "relieve the honest debtor from the weight of oppressive indebtedness, and permit him to start afresh, free from the obligations... consequent upon business misfortunes."

"This purpose is... it gives to the honest but unfortunate debtor who surrenders (his property) a new opportunity in life and a clear field for future effort..."

Also the law puts creditors on notice to watch out that their debtors do not overextend themselves.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

A BOY AND A GOVERNOR—Governor Price Daniel proclaimed Christmas Seal Days in Texas as he visited with a small recovered tuberculosis patient, Leonard Alcala of Austin. Said Governor Daniel in his proclamation, "For hundreds of years man has battled against disease. For more than fifty years, his battle against tuberculosis has been hard and rewarding. Today, tuberculosis as a killer is being curtailed in this country by modern drugs, an improved patient care and rehabilitation facilities. But tuberculosis as a communicable, widely prevalent, expensive and long-lasting illness is still to be reckoned with. New cases reported in Texas in the first nine months of this year were 3,375, and health authorities estimate there are more cases not reported than reported. The Christmas Seal Sale is the one annual appeal of the Texas Tuberculosis Association and affiliated local associations for funds to make possible year-round efforts to curb this needless waste of human life and resources. Therefore, I... do hereby designate the period from November 16 to December 24, 1959, as Christmas Seal Days in Texas, and urge all citizens to make a sound investment in their own and their fellow citizens' health by buying and using Christmas Seals during the holiday season." Leonard Alcala, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alcala, spent part of his boyhood in a tuberculosis hospital, in company with his parents. All are now recovered.

In the Wink Bulletin last week appeared a 2-column wide editorial set in black face type, headed "An Obituary." It was the demise of Wink Community Center. Thanksgiving Luncheon Held By Lomax Club
The Lomax community joined members of the Lomax Home Demonstration Club Thursday for a Thanksgiving luncheon at the community center. Announcement was made that there will not be a regular meeting until January, but two Christmas parties are in store for members. The group will attend the HD Council holiday party, set for Dec. 14, which will be a covered dish luncheon. There will be a gift exchange and secret pals will be revealed. RALPH CATON MENTIONED

Jones Says Not Candidate For District Judge Post

Gulford Jones, district attorney, prominently mentioned as a most possible prospect for the appointment as district judge of the 118th District Court, including Martin and Howard Counties, has announced that he will not be a candidate for the post. Speculation has been that Jones was a most likely choice to fill a vacancy on the bench which is slated for January 1 when Charlie Sullivan, judge, is to retire.

Withdrawal of Jones from the list leaves the field open. Several attorneys have been mentioned as probable choices of Gov. Price Daniel for the appointment. Some of these have indicated they would not be available if Jones wanted the appointment.

Jones issued the following statement in Big Spring recently:

"In response to many inquiries I wish to announce that I will not be an applicant for appointment to the bench of the 118th District Court.

"To serve in this capacity would satisfy a long-standing professional ambition of mine, however, personal and economic reasons compel against that course of action at this time.

"I am deeply appreciative of the confidence expressed by those who have urged I seek the appointment, and I consider it a significant honor to have been so considered."

Discussion of who will be named to succeed Judge Sullivan includes the names of several members of the Howard County Bar.

R. W. (Ralph) Caton, former Martin County Attorney, is among those considered a likely appointee. Caton is a close personal friend of Governor Daniel. They both attended Baylor University and Caton handled Daniel's campaigns in Martin County.

A few months ago, Caton moved to Big Spring to become a member of the law firm of Morrison and Caton.

Judge Sullivan, who has served 10 years on the bench and is the only judge ever to serve the 118th District Court, announced early this month that he planned to retire on Jan. 1. He despatched a letter to Governor Daniel at that time asking the executive to appoint his successor.

Whoever is appointed by the governor to succeed Judge Sullivan will only serve the period from Jan. 1 until the 1960 general election. If the appointee wants to continue in office, he will have to seek re-election at that time.

Candidates for office are required to officially file their intentions by the first Saturday in February under the new Texas election laws. This means that the appointee, if he wants to seek election to the office, will have to begin campaigning immediately on his elevation to the bench.

Thirty-one 4-H Club state winners are to attend from Texas. The only other state winner from District Six is Tom Parker of Monahans, who received the Santa Fe award. E. J. Harrison, county agent from Monahans, will serve as sponsor of the state group.

During the National Congress 4-H Clubbers from all over the Nation will make sight-seeing tours of Chicago, attend luncheons, banquets, and hear numerous speakers.

Sale, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sale, is completing his eighth year of 4-H Club work. Beef cattle demonstrations have been his major field of work. During the past eight years he has fed 64 steers and his present herd of breeding animals number 15 head.

Sale has collected 28 grand and reserve grand champions at local, district, area, state and national shows on his beef steers. He has also fed grand champion barrows. He is a Gold Star boy and received the 1959 State Fair Honor Award for District Six.

Price Daniel does not have to follow their recommendation.

As we understand it, Price Daniel is still governor of Texas.

Ralph Caton, former Martin County attorney, is qualified in every respect. He is now practicing law in Big Spring. Caton is well and favorably known by the governor.

It is sure would make a lot of Martin County people happy if they too had something to say to Governor Price about the appointment. They would like to have Caton.

TODAY, THANKSGIVING, IS occasion for a family get-together, assemble around the dinner table, offer up a prayer of thanksgiving and partake of a bounteous repast set before them. Many tables the meal will be built around the baked turkey occupying the center of the festive board. There will be a baked hen on some tables, preferable meat to the turkey and, too, turkey was not available. But no matter the type meat the family chose, Stanton and Martin County families will set down to tables groaning under the weight of the season's wholesome food.

Thankful to the extreme will be these families for the many blessings they received during the past year.

The crops have been splendid and likewise the health of the community.

It's just one great big family, these Martin County people, observing this 1959 Thanksgiving holiday.

FOR THE MAN WHO HAS everything, how about a president's railroad car this Christmas?

The president of a railway company in Vermont, says: "If anyone wants to buy a president's car, I have one for sale."

MANY WORDS HAVE BEEN written and spoken in the past many months concerning our boys and girls. All parents desire the very best for their children. Sometimes, perhaps, in an effort to make it possible for their children to enjoy life, permit them some privileges that are harmful rather than helpful.

Every parent wants to be a real mother or dad to their children, thus continuously the search goes on to improve one's self as a parent.

There are no set rules to follow that will make Johnnie or Mary a perfect child. Children, even in the same family, are of different temperament.

One of the great truths we are fored to face, we have problem parents as well as problem children.

Mrs. Costlow Speaks To Band Parents

For a time, the "enroute back" report was offered but O'Connell said that relatives now do not know where he is and are as eager as Martin County to locate him.

Charges of felony theft were signed by O'Connell in Stanton on Thursday. Gil Jones, district attorney, in Big Spring, said he had been called about the case and that he had talked with Dan Saunders, Martin County sheriff, about the matter.

The charge was lodged in the Justice of Peace Court of Martin L. Gibson.

O'Connell said there are nine seniors in the 1960 class.

O'Connell said that the attitude of the school board in its prompt decision to insure that the class annual would be published was highly appreciated by himself and the student body.

On Oct. 31, a member of the faculty drove Tipton to Lubbock where he was to catch a plane for Taylor, Arkansas.

The following Monday, O'Connell said, Tipton was not on duty. Calls to Arkansas where relatives lived reported he was enroute to Flower Grove. Since that time, repeated calls have been made. For a time, the "enroute back" report was offered but O'Connell said that relatives now do not know where he is and are as eager as Martin County to locate him.

Charges of felony theft were signed by O'Connell in Stanton on Thursday. Gil Jones, district attorney, in Big Spring, said he had been called about the case and that he had talked with Dan Saunders, Martin County sheriff, about the matter.

The charge was lodged in the Justice of Peace Court of Martin L. Gibson.

O'Connell said there are nine seniors in the 1960 class.

O'Connell said that the attitude of the school board in its prompt decision to insure that the class annual would be published was highly appreciated by himself and the student body.

Abilene College Schedules First Annual Parents Day

Abilene Christian College's student body and alumni association will host their first annual Parents Day on the ACC campus Thanksgiving Day, November 26.

Parents of present students are being specially invited to attend several events on and off the campus that day as the guests of their sons and daughters.

Here's a rundown on the day's schedule: From 8 to 10 a. m. classes will meet on regular schedule, and parents will be encouraged to attend these classes with their students. No classes will meet after 10 a. m.

Parents will be guests at one of the two regular daily chapel services, either at 10 a. m. or 10:30 a. m. in Sewell Auditorium.

From 11:15 a. m. to 1 p. m. an extra-special Thanksgiving turkey dinner will be served by the crew at Catchings Cafeteria. And students will take their parents to the dinner as guests. In the afternoon the students and their parents will attend the annual gridiron clash between rivals McMurry College and ACC in the new Public School Stadium.

At 8 p. m. there are two events from which the parents can take their pick. In Bennett Gymnasium the kickoff of the ACC Basketball season will see ACC's varsity battling with ACC's freshmen. And in Sewell Auditorium the Abilene Christian College Cappella Chorus will give a concert.

All events will be free to the parents, except the football game. Parents Day is a joint project of the ACC Student Association and the Alumni Association.

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles outlining the numerous boundary conflicts dating back to 1716, pointing up little known facts which shaped the Texas of today.)

In claiming the Rio Grande to its source in present day Southern Colorado, the Republic of Texas was faced with establishing possession.

Attorney General Will Wilson said: "Since possession is nine points of the law, the Texas weakness was its claim to a chunk of territory not occupied by settlers or patrolled by militia."

In the northwestern reaches of the Texas' claim was old Santa Fe.

"Lamar, President of the Republic of Texas, figured that if these people would consent to becoming Texans it would go a long way toward solving the problem of actual occupation," Wilson says.

The Attorney General is an authority on Texas history.

Out of Lamar's idea sprang the disastrous Santa Fe Expedition. The real purpose was to persuade the New Mexicans peacefully to accept and recognize the jurisdiction of the Republic of Texas.

Over 300 men, including traders and soldiers, left Brushy Creek near Austin.

"I have a goat ranch on Brushy Creek and I cherish the old camp site which is on the site of Kinney's Fort about two miles east of present Round Rock," Wilson observes. The site is recorded by a marker erected by the school children of Williamson County.

They thought Santa Fe was only 500 miles away. It turned out to be 1300 miles in the long way the expedition traveled.

Three months on the trail, Indian attacks, starvation, and poor leadership put Texans in New Mexico in no condition to defend themselves from the sudden appearance of the Mexican militia.

As captives they were marched 2,000 miles to Mexico City under the order "If one of them pretends to be sick or tired on the road, shoot him down and bring me his ears."

Forty Texans died on the march. Those who lived were put in the dark dungeon of

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Heard Book Review At Meeting Thursday

Mrs. John Priddy reviewed parts of the book, "All The Women of the Bible" for all chapters of Beta Sigma Phi Thursday night at the Stanton High School cafeteria.

Mrs. Priddy reviewed the stories of Eve, Sara, the mother of Moses, Jezebel and Athalia. The book was written by Edith Deen.

Mu Lambda and Xi Epsilon chapters were hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. O. L. Snodgrass, Jr., of Mu Lambda introduced the speaker. Mrs. Priddy was presented with a corsage and a gift by Mrs. R. C. Vest of Xi Epsilon Delta chapter.

A fall theme was carried out in table decorations. An arrangement of fruit in a horn of plenty centered the table and brown and ecru napkins were used.

Before the review each chapter held a business session in the cafeteria.

During Xi Epsilon Delta's meeting members planned a Christmas party for December 17 at the David Workman home.

Mrs. Owen Thompson and Mrs. J. N. Woody are to assist Mrs. Workman in preparing for the party. Members' husbands are also to attend.

Rho Xi chapter made plans for a Christmas party on December 17 at a business session. The group also discussed the Beta Sigma Phi State Project—the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation and a money making project. The next meeting was set for December 3 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Hanson.

Mu Lambda chapter decided to help purchase lights for the courthouse at its meeting. All chapters are to contribute to the light fund. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held December 17 at the home of Mrs. Leland Nelson.

Visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eiland were Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Eiland and Ernest Neill, all of Midland. They had just returned home from a hunting trip.

Cosden Test Car

A new test car, outfitted with special equipment is now on the road testing and evaluating Cosden gasolines under various operating conditions.

The new V-8 with automatic transmission, was outfitted especially for this testing program by Ethyl Corporation's Research and Engineering Laboratories, and is equipped with a tachometer, which indicates engine revolutions per minute, and a vacuum gauge, which gauges manifold vacuum or engine load. A unique device called the distributor spark advance control allows the operator to advance or retard the ignition timing. By advancing the spark the operator creates a tendency for the fuel to "knock." This "knock" factor, combined with information recorded from the other special devices permits the operator to evaluate the octane rating and performance of Cosden gasolines under various temperatures and altitudes, at varying speeds, and the effect of additional equipment such as heater and air conditioner.

By use of four auxiliary tanks the operator can test four different fuels in a matter of minutes, under actual road conditions.

Yvonne Nichols Honored With Bridal Shower

Yvonne Nichols was honored with a bridal shower Tuesday evening, November 10 in the home of Mrs. Joe Glaze in the Tarzan community.

Hostesses were Mesdames Pal Yates, James Bullard, Delmar Hamm, Bill Rhodes, Charles Powell, Ed Smith, Marvin George, Raymond Pribyla, A. H. Tate, Newell Tate, Leroy Mattingly, Sammy Yates, Joe Glaze and Mrs. Mattie Welch.

A large white heart trimmed with yellow flowers and flanked by yellow candles centered the table, which was laid with an ecru crocheted cloth over brown taffeta.

Refreshments of orange sherbert punch and white cake squares decorated with brown and yellow flowers were served by Becky Smith and Janice Glaze. Gracie Welch also assisted.

For the occasion the honoree chose a brown dress fashioned with huge three-quarter length puffed sleeves, and brown accessories.

Linda Nichols registered guests. About 45 persons were present including out-of-town guests from Wickett, Knott, Lomax and Andrews.

Mrs. George Davis and Cindy visited recently in Lamesa with Mrs. Davis' father, S. B. Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Elland were in Lubbock recently. They were also in Ira to attend the Ira School homecoming.

A smile will add to your face value.

This seems to be the year of the big cotton crop . . . increased surplus crops . . . more use of farm equipment . . . larger soil bank . . . and a reduction in farm income, sorry! . . . all of these facts have been brought out recently by statements of the Agriculture Department.

The latest cotton crop estimate (based on growing conditions of Nov. 1) predicts a crop of 14.8 million bales . . . that's up about 100,000 bales . . . if the estimate is right, the yield per acre will be 474 pounds . . . last year's yield was 466.

At the same time the USDA is estimating that the surplus agricultural crop pile will reach a new record, also . . . early next year the $10 billion mark will be passed according to the report . . . on Sept. 30 of this year cotton accounted for about $1.3 billion of the surplus . . . wheat was tops with $2.9 billion.

And the USDA thinks that farmers are going to idle more of the nation's cropland through the soil bank . . . farmers have already offered to remove 9.6 million acres from production through the conservation reserve; however, there isn't enough money available to handle all of this . . . soil bank officials estimate that they will handle just under 6 million acres in addition to the 22.4 million acres already set aside under the 1959 program.

And this year the farmer will increase his expenditure for farm equipment by about 15 per cent over 1958 . . . you can get an idea of mechanized farming's gain by comparing the productivity rate of field hands . . . it is four times greater now than 40 years ago.

However, it looks as if the profit from farming will be down about 15 per cent from the 1958 figure . . . and the USDA reports indicate a possibility that profit levels for farmers could be the lowest in 18 years.

New Fiber
A leading synthetic fiber manufacturer has just announced a new staple fiber . . . claims are that the new fiber is lighter in weight than other synthetics and at the same time has high strength and resistance to abrasion.

New Growth
Recent experiments indicate growth patterns of cotton may be controlled by light application using certain rays of the spectrum . . . could have quite an effect on developing uniform fruiting.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

One of the wittiest men I ever knew was Charley Garibaldi, desk sergeant at the police station in Memphis when I entered newspaper work. Not only was he witty but he could think of something clever to say at the time and not half an hour later, as is the case with most of us. His humor gained much of its effect from the grace and ease with which it was delivered, much in the manner of a polished actor.

I had been working on the "police run" only a few days when a young man was brought in on a reckless driving charge. We recognized each other as schoolmates. Soon afterward, another acquaintance of high school days was brought in on a speeding charge. After he had posted bond and left, Garibaldi demanded, "Was that a school for crime that you attended?" —which amused the officers and, of course, embarrassed the young and serious reporter.

A youth about six feet, three was brought in, one night. The sergeant asked, "How old are you?" "Sixteen," was the answer. Garibaldi declared, "You ought to be a lot of help to your parents when you grow up."

The desk sergeant had a remarkable memory. When I returned to headquarters after having been out for supper and would ask if anything had happened, he would give a reply that was strictly accurate in every detail, and without referring to any notes.

"Jerry Blaine, 27, traveling salesman, 2300 Light Avenue, was struck by an automobile as he was crossing the street at Union and Third at 8:15 o'clock tonight. The driver, Henry Hamers of 1102 Gusto Lane, was released on $500 bond on a care-less driving charge.

"Blaine was taken in a Shannon ambulance to the City-County Hospital where he is expected to recover in spite of the treatment."

Senator Chauncey M. Depew, orator of the late Nineteenth Century, accepted, on only a few days' notice, an invitation to deliver the oration at the unveiling of the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor. George W. Curtis, a scholarly orator, said to Depew, "I was very much surprised that you accepted the invitation. I declined because there was only one month until the unveiling." Curtis added that he always refused an important invitation unless he had three months.

A DAY OF THANKS

There are many things for which we, all of us, should bow our heads in reverent thanks Thanksgiving week.

There is both peace throughout nearly all parts of the world, and bright hopes of universal good will among all men. Our boys are at home instead of on some far away battlefield.

We have an abundance of the good things of life. We are thankful that we can share this abundance with the less fortunate people in many parts of the world. Christ said that as "you do it unto the least of these you do it unto me."

Some 300 years ago the Pilgrims assembled in their meeting places to bow in thanks for a meager harvest that would, nevertheless, assure them food until the next harvest. Our cup of plenty overflows.

Apostle Paul
The observance of a specified day for Thanksgiving is comparatively new, but the Bible (16th Chapter, Book of Acts) tells of a day two thousand years ago when the Apostle Paul and Silas were arrested, though they had done no wrong.

They were flogged unmercifully and thrown into a dungeon. From that dungeon came a song of praise and thankfulness to God. They sang His praise because they were thankful for the strength His spiritual guidance gave them.

Thankfulness, like happiness, is a state of mind. It comes from the peace that is within our hearts as we pause to consider our many blessings.

Most people are not thankful unless they are more prosperous than they were a year earlier. They measure their happiness by material gains and forget the many blessings for which they should be thankful.

Goats and Happiness
I like to illustrate this by a story told me many years ago about a Russian peasant in the time of the Czar. He went to his priest with a story about his unhappiness.

He was thinking about killing himself because his mother-in-law had come to live with his family in their one-room home. She had, he said, made life unbearable.

The priest advised him to get a goat and take it to live in the home. The peasant, though puzzled by that advice, followed it. A year later he came back to the priest.

"Life is worse than ever and I must kill myself," he told the priest. "No," said the priest, "buy another goat and take it into your home."

The peasant did as he was told, but at the end of that year he returned more depressed than ever. The odor of the goats and the ill temper of the mother-in-law was more than he could bear.

"What shall I do?" he asked the priest. "Get rid of the goats," said the priest. The peasant did as he was told, and a few weeks later returned to tell the priest he had never known such happiness.

"I am so thankful to be rid of the goats that I do not mind my mother-in-law in the least," the peasant told the priest.

'E' Savings Bond Holders Permitted To Get 'H' Type

Starting Jan. 1, all holders of series "E" savings bonds will be permitted to exchange them for series "H" bonds which pay interest twice a year.

The interest rate on both types of bonds is 3 3/4 per cent. However, the holder of an "E" bond doesn't get his interest until he cashes the bond. On "H" bonds, the government pays the semiannual interest by check.

The Treasury Department announced the swap plan last week. It is expected to appeal particularly to "E" bond owners who are retired, or close to retirement, and want to collect their interest.

The Treasury also announced it will borrow two billion dollars in new cash next week through an auction of 320-day Treasury bills. The interest rate on these securities will be determined by the money market itself in the auction.

On many occasions our late husband and father expressed genuine appreciation for the kindly people of Stanton when sorrow and sadness invaded their lives. Orange Juice Should Cost Less In 1960

Frozen, canned, in-the-carton or squeezed at home, your breakfast orange juice should cost less in 1960, according to the American Institute of Food Distribution, Inc. Barring unexpected weather damage, Florida's orange groves are expected to produce 93 million boxes—seven million more than a year ago. Moreover, most processors are holding considerably larger inventories than at this time in 1958. Inventory—short processors last year, led by the frozen concentrate packers, bid up growers' prices for fruit to insure adequate supplies for their own products. The crop turned out larger than originally estimated. Freezers, taking away fruit from the fresh market and other packers, produced a record 79.9 million gallons. During the season just begun, the industry is generally in better stock position and the extremely sharp competition for growers' harvests that drove prices up last year is not likely to be repeated. Utilization during this packing season will probably run more heavily to fresh shipping and single-strength canning than during 1958-59.
